VOLUME 79 NUMBER 21

All Around The Town

BY MARY ANN SARCHET

We have been asked to bring up the subject of animals being "dumped" in the country when they are unwanted elsewhere.

Sometimes adult dogs and cats are dumped when the owners decide they no longer want them, but quite often litters of kittens or puppies are found in garbage cans or in sacks where they have been left to die.

It has also been reported that a lot of people are dumping their grass clippings and trash on country roads.

These acts aren't really fair to the people who live in the country. They like to have things neat along their fences and adjacent to the land they farm, just like the townspeople like to have things neat and clean at their homes. They also would prefer if you have litters to dispose of that you go ahead and kill them yourself or get one of the city employees to do it for you.

Please respect their rights as you wish your own to be respected.

News Office To Be Closed

The office of the Briscoe County News will be closed all day Friday, May 22.

Rainfall In Forecast

Rain remained in the forecast for Silverton and Briscoe County Tuesday afternoon as this issue of your hometown paper was being prepared for printing.

Rain showers during the past week totaled .33 of an inch, with more badly needed in order to get crops planted and growing.

Those visiting in the J. R. Steele home over Mother's Day were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clay, Fairbanks, Alaska; Sherry Doss, Midland; and grandchildren, Dawn Milloway and Mr. and Mrs. Joey Branch, Midland.

Fred Strange, commander of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars post, was pictured at the grave of Charlie L. Williford with one of the miniature American flags that will be placed at the graves of about 150 servicemen in the Silverton Cemetery Monday morning in observance of Memorial Day. Williford was a member of the Texas Wagoner 20th Infantry, 10th Division in World War I. Born February 20, 1887, he died March 25, 1948.

Georgia Allard Honored With Birthday Reception

On Sunday, May 17, Mrs. Clifford (Georgia) Allard was honored with a reception on the occasion of her ninetieth birthday by the Southwestern Extension Homemakers Club of Silverton. It was the club's pleasure to welcome her many friends and loved ones to help her celebrate this special day.

One very special guest was her sister, Mildred Spann of Jackson, Mississippi. More than 100 were registered, and other special guests included her brother, K. C. Jackson and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Clayton, jr. of Lubbock.

Mrs. Allard was presented with a "Book of Memories" to which each guest had contributed his or her own happy memories of time spent with this lady.

A poem, "Georgia," was contributed by Mrs. Elton (Lanita) Cantwell.

When Georgia Jackson was sweet sixteen,
And full of zest for life,
She dreamed of a happy future.

Would it be as Clifford's wife?
When Clifford spied her smiling face

And tasted some of her cooking,
He decided she also possessed the grace,
Of the wife for which he was looking.

They "tied the knot" and began their home

And a life of sunshine and rain—
Young love, hard work, and love of God,
Happiness, sadness and pain.

Their home was blessed with a darling girl
And Charlsie was her name.

The years flew by as she filled their lives
With love more precious than fame.

But into each life some rain must fall,

A poet of old once said,
And rain it did on Georgia and Cliff,

For their sweet young daughter was dead.

But grief was not to put them down,

They dried their tears of woe.
They served their neighbors all over town,

And many they did not know.
For years they labored side by side

Through strength, and poverty and wealth—

Through good times, bad times, happy times—
And times of failing health.

Then Georgia Allard was left alone,

To travel the rest of her days.
With God as her constant helper,
And friends who now sing her praise.

Ninety years is quite a while
To live upon this earth.

But Georgia has been quite busy
And has lived them for all they are worth.

Today we honor Georgia,
For all she has been to others.
And wish her a happy birthday—
And hope she has many others!

MEMORIES OF MY LIFE

by Georgia Allard
as told to Jonnie Weaver

My mother was Sally Duran, and lived in Lafayette County, Missouri. My father was James Edward Jackson from Glasco, Missouri. After they married, they moved to Higginsville, Missouri, where Georgia was born on May 17, 1897. Her brothers and sisters were Lura Guy, Flossie Alma, Curtis Edward, Harden Franklin, Tina Leigh, King Clyde, Jean Elliot, and Mildred Lucille. Three are now living, Clyde, Mildred and Georgia.

Georgia moved with her family to Texas in 1914. Jean was killed in a car accident in 1972. She was a teacher. She was survived by a daughter, Elane, a son, Sumner

Mrs. Georgia Allard

Clayton III and a daughter, Marigene, who is Mrs. Don L. Chambers of Fayette, Georgia. Marigene has two teenage sons. Georgia's brother, Clyde, has one stepson, Earl David Greer, who has one son, David. Earl and his wife are college teachers in the Houston area. Mildred has a son, Michael Gayle Spann, of Allen, Texas who has one son. Mildred's daughter is Polly, Mrs. K. B. Jacobs, of Madison, Mississippi. Polly has two sons and a daughter. Guy has a daughter, Mrs. Lou Helen Stickel of Lusby, Maryland.

Georgia and her family traveled by train to Plainview, Texas and stayed at the Hilton Hotel for two weeks before moving to their farm in the Irick Community. There she attended school through the eighth grade. She later took correspondence courses from Chicago University, until her graduation. She also attended West Texas State in Canyon, Texas with Mrs. Alvin Redin, Mrs. Glenn Bunch and Mrs. Betty Kirk. Her studies were psychology and professional speaking as well as health.

When Georgia was only 2½ years old she was severely burned. She was taking a piece of pie to her father who was working in the field. They were burning corn stubble and she became trapped in the fire. Her brothers and sisters came to her aid and began trying to put the flames out by beating them with corn stalks. When her father got to her, he pulled the woolen clothing from her body. She was conscious throughout all of this. As her father carried her home, she put her arms around his neck, and asked, "Daddy, I'm not burned much, am I?" She was bedfast for nine months from this tragedy.

The following Easter Sunday she gave the following reading at church:

One Easter Sunday morning, I went to Grandpa's room—
I found a fragrant Easter Blossom, I said to him—
Now Grandpa, which flower is your favorite???

or the blue violet—
Then he said—why no! I love them all!

They're all my favorite flowers—
and from this world of sorrow,
The better for them to know,
The angels gently lifted—

Then from the earth—to bloom
with a heavenly glow—
There is a store of posies which is my favorite call—

And then one speaks of heaven to
Grandpa's failing sight—
And from the little basket he took a lily white!!

Georgia led an active life in school and church, where she participated in music, playing the piano, and spelling. Her inspiration was to be a nurse. Many days were filled with church picnics, ice skating, horseback riding, sewing and cooking as well as studying. Entertaining was always one of her favorite hobbies, but there was nothing to

Her grandfather, Benjamin Franklin Jackson, was a Civil War veteran. He would spend countless hours with the children gathered around him relating his experiences. They always gathered under a big walnut tree. Many happy hours were spent with him.

Later she met her life-long companion, Clifford Allard. They were married in the First Methodist Church by Rev. Bell, on August 4, 1917. They were married 57 years before his death on February 3, 1974 at the age of 78.

To this union was born one daughter, Charlsie Glenn, at Lockney, Texas on November 11, 1918. Charlsie attended Fleming Business School and Brenham Government School. She worked in Fort Worth. She passed from this life on April 25, 1945.

Clifford and Georgia were active in farming and ranching and also in the Allard Butane business. During their early years, they worked for Eman Thatcher Land Company. They were active in the Baptist Church, where she taught the Junior Girls Sunday School Class for 21 years. She is still a member of this same church. Both of them, being very civic minded, would greet newcomers to the community with coffees, luncheons, picnics in the canyons, ice cream suppers and various other activities. They always greeted the New Year with domino parties for their many friends. The American Legion and Auxiliary were special to them.

Georgia has been a member of the Flower and Garden Club, Study Club, Early Administration Club, PTA, Church Choir, Baptist Women's Missionary Union, Red Cross, Southwestern Extension Homemakers Club, Briscoe County Historical Committee, Town and Country Demonstration Club, Floyd County Association, Briscoe Senior Citizens, and was a leader for many years of church youth groups.

While a member of the Garden Club, trees were planted at the cemetery. She took voice lessons from Jackie Mercer for a time. She loved to sing and took part in the church choir as long as she was physically able to do so. She took many ladies on trips to the WMU Worker's Conferences. For a number of years she was chairman of the Briscoe County Historical Committee. While head of that organization, a museum for the county was started and a marker was placed at the county jail. In the Floyd County Association for 12 years she was secretary. She has taught and participated in exercise classes. She and her husband purchased choir robes for the church at one time. After his death she helped to start a prayer room at the church in his memory. They presented the large Bible at the front of the church also.

Georgia gave countless showers for brides of this community as well as coffees, teas and other courtesies. Numerous wedding announcements, breakfasts and parties were held in her home. Shafe and Jonnie Weaver's was one of these. The first meeting of the Sunbeams that she helped to organize had 45 members in attendance.

During World War II she worked at Pantex. She and Cliff

Girls Honored At Graduation Party

Midge Burlison and Kay Kellar, grandmother and aunt of Suzann Settle, were hostesses for a graduation luncheon honoring Miss Settle, who is graduating from Silvertown High School, and her cousin, Linda Osburn, who is graduating from Tulia High School this spring.

The party was held at the Plainview Country Club Saturday, May 16. The program was given by Mrs. Kellar who gave a reading entitled, "Girls Together." Each girl was reminded of a comical thing which had happened to her during her school days.

A delicious meal of chicken fried steak and all the trimmings was enjoyed by the hostesses; the honorees; Mrs. Mike Settle and Mrs. Sue Osburn, mothers of the honorees; Marli George of Tulia, Tonnette Miller, Serena Layland, DeLynn Fitzgerald and Jeannita Stephens.

People once believed the best time to plant corn was by the light of the full moon.

drove many miles transporting the ill to area hospitals. After the tornadoes that devastated the community several times, they drove neighbors to the hospitals for treatment, some for months. She also tried to bring cheer to those in the hospitals, near and far, by sending cards, letters and telephone calls as well as visits. Many miles were put on their car taking church members and others to meetings that they needed to go to.

For several years she maintained a book store in her home for the convenience of the local townspeople. And still today she has many, many interesting books in her home, including numerous Bibles, religious books and poetry books. She maintained a lovely home and garden and took long daily walks.

Cliff and Georgia were supporters of Cal Farley's Boys Ranch. If at all possible they would attend the Labor Day Weekend Rodeo that the boys had. Many a boy has gone out into life better equipped to face life as an adult because of their generosity.

In 1985, Georgia was honored by The Southwestern Extension Homemakers Club. Each year some outstanding member of the community is chosen to be honored by having a tree planted at the lake. In 1985 Georgia Allard was the special one.

Speaking for myself and others who have commented on Georgia's outlook on life, we feel that she has always looked on the bright side of life, had a good sense of humor, and been an inspiration to others. One of my special memories of Georgia was in connection with the crystal candelabra that graced the table at the breakfast Georgia gave to announce our engagement. After the breakfast, she presented Shafe and me one of the candelabra. Then in 1965 when our daughter married, Georgia gave us the matching candelabra to grace her wedding table. These are still being used and cherished in our home today. Our world is better because of women like Georgia Allard.

Club Members Honor Mothers, Grandmothers

The Progressive Extension Homemakers met Monday, May 11, for a supper honoring the mothers, grandmothers, mothers-in-law and special friends of the members. First Baptist Church fellowship hall was the scene of the salad supper and program given by Jo Ann Arasim from the Panhandle-Plains Museum in Canyon.

Tables were decorated with samples of lace brought by members, and Miss Arasim identified and gave a brief history of each sample. A program, "Christmas in May," was presented by Miss Arasim and enjoyed by everyone present.

Next meeting of the Progressive Extension Homemakers will be Monday, May 25. All members are urged to attend, as next year's officers will be elected and there will be a discussion of summer activities. Anyone interested in joining the club is welcome to attend.

Extension Homemaker Clubs are open to all regardless of race, color, religion or national origin.

Mrs. Rampley Is New Chairman Of County Heart Unit

Rampley, recently appointed chairman of the Briscoe County Unit of The American Heart Association in Texas, reminds that it is time to make annual contributions to this worthy organization. If you have not already done so, mail your donations as soon as possible to be totaled with this year's receipts.

Memorial gifts are accepted and appreciated at any time. You may honor the memory of a loved one or friend with an American Heart Association Memorial gift. Donors of memorial gifts receive an acknowledgement card and recipients are notified with an appropriate sympathy card.

If you care to participate, mail your donation to Mrs. O. C. Rampley, Box 597, Silverton, Texas 79257.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bingham of Wylie recently visited friends and relatives while here to help care for Mrs. Nena Loudermilk and Boyd Bingham.

Club Makes Donations to School

A check was presented to the auditorium air conditioning fund recently by Progressive Extension Homemaker President Anita Ramsey. The donation was a part of the club's annual community project.

A TV cart was also donated by the club for the elementary film room. The cart was needed to help teachers and the school nurse in moving the video equipment from place to place in the elementary building.

The donations were made possible by proceeds from the annual Halloween Carnival and other projects throughout the year.

CRP PARTICIPANTS BUSY SOWING GRASS

Farmers who have placed their land in the Conservation Reserve Program have been busy trying to beat the June 1 deadline for sowing native grass. Killing of litter crops has also kept everyone busy.

Before sowing grass, farmers should look closely at their cover crop and their seedbed. Our dry weather has left us with some very hard, dry, and cracked soil surfaces. These conditions have left a very poor seedbed to plant into. This is especially true in fields that were heavily grazed. Most grass drills are designed for planting into firm seedbeds, but not into the hard-baked soil surfaces we are seeing. In many cases, the drill disks will not even take the ground or stir up any loose soil to cover the seed. In one field we looked at, even a heavy coultter cart would not cut into the soil. I would think twice before trying to drill into these conditions. Grass seed is too expensive to risk doing it twice. In several fields, the roughness of the soil surface left by cattle grazing has made it almost impossible to pull a drill through. Due to the expensive damage this has caused to several drills and the poor seedbed, we now recommend these fields be plowed and planted to a sorghum litter crop.

Killing of wheat for a dead litter crop should be done before the wheat makes a hard seed. This can be done by spraying with Roundup or Paraquat, or by mowing or shredding. One unique idea we heard was using a combine to clip the green heads off. This can be done a lot faster than shredding and it leaves more of the stalk standing for protection. Remember that this wheat cannot be harvested for grain so this should be done before the wheat makes a hard seed. Also, the combine should be set to allow all of the clipped heads to pass through without thrashing out the grain.

Most of all, we need a rain! A good slow soaking rain would compensate for a lot of poor seedbeds and cover crops and make us all look good. When it's all said and done, the advice we give you is simply to help you improve the odds of getting a good stand of grass. Now all we need is for Mother Nature to do her part.

- May 23—Mr. and Mrs. Pascal Garrison
- May 24—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ray McWilliams

BIBLE DOCTRINE SERIES

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness."
II Tim. 3:16

Some people argue today that the Bible was not inspired of God, but usually those who say this do so in ignorance, and to ease the guilt they feel in their lives. Both the Old and New Testaments are inspired of God, and are the revelation of God to man. Scripture is also the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct. As Christians, the Bible is our road map: in it we can find directions for life, comfort in times of hurt, strength in times of weakness, and assurance in times of doubt. As a record of history alone the Bible has shown complete accuracy. And I say unto you, "The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

II Peter 1:21

Cotton planting is well on its way and grass sowing on CRP acreage is winding down. Our present moisture situation puts both our dryland cotton crop and our planted CRP ground in a serious position. But once the rain comes, we will have a weed problem.

Many of you are aware that the Commissioners applied to the Texas Department of Agriculture in December of 1986 to loosen the restrictions on summer use of herbicides and to shorten the restricted time in the fall. These requests were granted, but the Texas Department of Agriculture imposed one very important restriction of their own on us. The County Judge, Commissioners, and I opposed this ludicrous restriction! The new restrictions are as follow:

SPECIAL HERBICIDAL PROVISION FOR BRISCOE COUNTY

1. The aerial application of any regulated herbicides is prohibited in Precincts 1, 3 and 4 from April 25 through September 20 of each year, and in Precinct 2 from May 10 through October 15 of each year.

2. The aerial application for brush control may be permitted under the direct supervision of the Texas Department of Agriculture.

3. The application of regulated herbicides by ground equipment is banned except for Dicamba products and 2, 4-D amine. Permits must be obtained from the Texas Department of Agriculture for ground application prior to the application of these herbicides during the regulated period.

4. No permit is required for the application of regulated herbicides from September 21 through April 24 of each year; however, the filing of a Notice of Intent to Spray is required for these herbicides from September 21 through April 24 of each year, and should be filed with the Texas Department of Agriculture prior to application.

The special provisions are to be effective officially on June 3, 1987.

Please notice item #4. This is the TDA's insistence that you file a notice to spray with them when you plan on using any restricted phenoxy herbicide from September 21 through April 24 (meaning the winter months). You will not have to buy a permit at this time.

If you wish to receive a permit for application of 2,4-D amine or Banvel, you must contact Jimmy Bush or Lavon Harmon with the Texas Department of Agriculture in Amarillo, 806-358-7285. These permits will cost you $.10 per acre during the summer restricted period. I suggest you plan far in advance so that you will have time enough to receive the permit and still do a timely application for good control.

I have been informed that Monsanto's product Landmaster® will qualify for permitted use because it has 2,4-D amine formulation in it. If you have any questions at all, please don't hesitate to call me at 823-2343 or 847-2251.

Local Family Gets Immigration Appointment

Mrs. Esther Trevino and her daughter, Norma Garcia, took the Ramon Garcias to Dallas two weeks ago to the Immigration Office. They left Sunday, May 3, and arrived that afternoon in Fort Worth where Mr. Garcia and his family stayed with family. Esther, Norma and Cip left to visit Rose Cabrera in Dallas and to stay with Sylvia Walls in Waco.

The Garcias were due at the INS office early Tuesday morning to beat the rush and the long line in Arlington, but were delayed due to one of many problems of the whole trip. About five miles out of Fort Worth, the van alternator broke down. Ramon and his family took a taxi to Arlington, where they received some good news: they had a choice of applying for amnesty or for permanent residence. Amnesty applications cost $185 per person whereas the permanent residence applicants only have a fee of $50 per person. Those eligible to apply for permanent residence have to prove continual residence since January 1, 1972. The Garcias have been here since 1971. They were sent to Dallas since the office in Arlington handles amnesty applications only. Again, they had to get a taxi to go to Dallas. While waiting, they were interviewed and an article about them was printed in that day's Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

In the meantime, Esther, Sylvia, Keith and Crystal were in Fort Worth waiting for someone to pick up the van. No such luck! Nobody helped them until noon! Afterward, they took the van to Montgomery Ward where they were not able to get it repaired.

Back in Dallas, Ramon and his family got the applications and went to have their pictures taken (which was required) and waited for Mrs. Trevino to come for them. Around 5:00 p.m., Esther arrived and took them to Fort Worth.

All of Wednesday was spent looking for parts for the van and going to the police station for fingerprints and doctor's exam (all of which is required).

Early the next morning, Norma became ill and was taken to the hospital where she was told that her problem could be her gall bladder. She was advised to see her doctor here. The rest of that day, Ramon and Cip and some other men helped repair the van. Esther was using a car that belonged to Ramon's niece to get around and look for parts. After a few hours of driving, she had a flat tire!

Early Friday morning, everyone loaded up in the van to return the applications to Dallas, and as soon as Esther put the van in drive, the van motor quit. She, Norma and Cip went to call Tavo and all of a sudden Ramon was driving the van! They went on to Dallas, and Ramon, Elva, Soledad and Cip were told that an appointment would be set up for them in 60 to 90 days. After that, it was home to Silverton!

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hall of Memphis visited in the home of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Berton Hughes, on Friday and all went to the senior citizens luncheon at noon Friday. On Saturday evening, all attended the wedding of their cousin and niece, Jennifer Randal, at the Paramount Terrace Christian Church in Amarillo. On Sunday, they went to the reception celebrating Georgia Allard's 90th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Hall returned to Memphis on Monday morning.
