Dry Grass, Haygrazer Are Potential Fire Hazards

Last summer was a bumper year for native grasses and forage sorghum. Approximately 15,000 acres of native grass and 30,000 acres of sorghum were planted in Briscoe County on land bid into the Conservation Reserve Program.

The wet summer weather was ideal for growth of the native grasses and forage sorghum cover crops; so good, in fact, that it resulted in an over abundance of forage produced.

While the tall stands of haygrazer are good cover crops to seed native grasses into, they can also become a fire hazard in dry weather. This became very evident last week when approximately 155 acres of haygrazer east of Silverton caught fire from a downed power line.

If you have CRP land with a tall, dense cover of grass or haygrazer you should take steps to minimize the risk of it catching fire. The potential hazards are particularly serious when houses, barns and fences are near the fields.

If your CRP land is next to a state highway or county road you should consider blading in a fireguard to prevent a fire in the road ditch from spreading into the CRP field. A fireguard approximately 12 feet wide should retard a small ditch fire. Another precaution is to mow the grass or haygrazer around the edge of the field and around all barns and houses. Since fire burns upward as it pre-heats the standing fuel, keeping the fuel (grass) mowed down can help keep the fire from burning so intensely and slow down a fire.

If you think you have a potential problem and need a fireguard, please contact the SCS office as soon as possible. "We want to be aware of potential problems and help find a way to reduce the possibility of a fire while keeping your CRP contract in compliance," SCS officials said.

Call 823-2320 or go by the Soil Conservation Service Office in Silverton. Programs and assistance from the USDA Soil Conservation Service to available to people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, handicap, or national origin.

SPS, Cities' Committee Agree To Rate Decrease

Southwestern Public Service Company (SPS) and a committee representing the cities SPS serves in Texas announced today they have agreed to a $14.4 million, or 3.1%, overall reduction in electric rates for SPS' residential, commercial, industrial and other retail customers. Of that amount, $10.9 million is applicable to customers within the city limits of the communities SPS serves in Texas. The remainder would apply to rural areas when approved by the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUCT).

The decrease reflects lower SPS costs of providing service, principally through savings made possible by federal tax reform, said Sam Hunter, SPS vice president of rates and economic research. Effective with SPS' current fiscal year, federal tax reform decreased the Company's federal income taxes.

SPS announced in October it intended to request a rate reduction. A committee representing the cities was organized to examine the proposed lower rates. Chairman of the committee is Merrill E. Nunn, Amarillo city attorney.

SPS is filing the request with 74 cities it serves in Texas. If approved by the cities, the decrease is expected to go into effect March 28.

Emergency Farm Loan Applications Being Accepted

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by freeze, rain, hail and high winds are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration office located in Floydada, FmHA County Supervisor Becky Via said today.

Floyd and Briscoe counties are two of seventy counties in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Richard E. Lyng as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the freeze, rain, hail and high winds.

Ms. Via said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Ms. Via said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until October 3, 1988, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," Ms. Via said.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U. S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U. S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Floydada is open from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

R. L. (Bob) Trout, 66, brother-in-law of Bess McWilliams, died Monday, February 15, following a short illness, and funeral services were conducted February 17 at Restland Funeral Chapel in Dallas.

Mr. Trout had been a distributive education teacher at Wylie for the last twenty years. He was a member of St. Mark's Presbyterian Church.

He was married to the former

Jo Webb February 14, 1946 at Denton while both were students at North Texas State University.

Survivors include his wife, Jo, and two children: Bobbie Jo of Mesquite and Lee of Dallas; and his mother, Georgia Trout of Temple. He was a cousin of Elsie Brown of Silverton.

Mrs. McWilliams and her brother, Paul Howard Webb of Tulia, had been at Mr. Trout's bedside while he was in the hospital, and Mrs. McWilliams and her son, Larry McWilliams, of Snyder were in Dallas for the funeral services.

Hunting Lease Management Video Conference March 1

A video teleconference dealing with operation and management of hunting leases will be held March 1 by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with the Oklahoma Cooperative Extension Service.

"Ranchers, farmers, forestry owners, hunters and anyone else interested in natural resource utilization in Texas and Oklahoma should consider viewing the teleconference, which can be assessed by tuning in Westar 4, Channel 19," says Dr. Dale Rollins.

Rollins, who is headquartered at San Angelo, is an Extension wildlife specialist and coordinator for the video conference. He and Don Steinbach, Extension project supervisor in wildlife and fisheries sciences, will be among authorities addressing the video conference live in Stillwater, Oklahoma March 1. The program will be held from 7:00 until 8:30 a.m.

Other Texans who will appear on tape during the program are Duery Menzies, Gillespie County Extension Agent; Jerry DeBord, McCulloch County Extension Agent, and a number of Hill Country landowners who have broad experience in managing hunting lease operations or deer cooperatives.

"During the past several years, major emphasis has been placed on development of alternative income sources for farm and ranch operations. For some areas, the leasing potential represents a new enterprise," Rollins says.

Topics to be covered, Rollins adds, include designing a written lease, pricing, advertising and marketing, liability and interpersonal skills.

"The teleconference is aimed at novice lessors, but even those with more experience should gain some valuable information. Much of the videotape for the program was recorded in the Texas Hill Country," Rollins adds.

Although the program may be viewed by anyone with a satellite receiving dish who tunes in, a number of county Extension Agents are arranging for local viewing sites. All county agents have background about the program and can answer specific questions.

Joining the Extension Service in conducting the satellite program is the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

To receive brochures about the conference, contact Rollins at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center, 7887 N. Highway 87, San Angelo, Texas 76901.

Mrs. Rampley Contributes To School Textbook Publication

Mrs. Faye Rampley was pleasantly surprised to find her name listed in the Preface of the copy of West Publishing Company's newest public school textbook that she received by mail last Tuesday. The book is entitled, "Computers and Information Processing," by Floyd Fuller and Stan Wilkinson of Appalachian State University—Library of Congress Catalog #ISBN 0-314-31356-7.

Because of her proficiency as a teacher, Mrs. Rampley was employed several months ago by West Publishing Company of St. Paul, New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco, to review the book in its early rough-draft stage; she was commissioned to offer ideas, employ her editing skills, and provide other input into the publication. From the complete list of reviewers, only four Texas high school teachers had been selected to participate in this phase of the publication. She says she enjoyed doing the work, but did not expect to receive credit in the printed text.

This up-to-date, student-friendly computer text covers all the basics: computer hardware and software, microcomputers, information processing systems and ethics.

Mrs. Hulsey Seeking Election To Second Silver-Haired Legislature

Poppy Hulsey has authorized the Briscoe County News to announce her candidacy for the Second Texas Silver-Haired Legislature.

The Texas Silver-Haired Legislature will consist of 115 elected representatives from the 28 Area Agency on Aging Districts. Four of these will be elected to represent the Panhandle which is divided into three areas for voting.

The southern area includes these 11 counties: Swisher, Castro, Parmer, Deaf Smith, Briscoe, Hall, Oldham, Wheeler, Donley, Collinsworth and Gray. Voting for members of the Second Silver-Haired Legislature will be held on May 24, 1988, and if there are no polling places in your county, there will be absentee ballots available. A voter must be registered to vote in Texas, 60 years of age by January 1, 1988, and live in the area in which you vote.

The purpose of this non-partisan legislature is to give people over 60 a forum for voicing their concerns to elected state officials.

Silver-Haired Legislators are responsible for all expenses of their term of office. These volunteers are dedicated to help all older Texans, both present and future.

"During the first session, Silver-Haired Legislators found elected officials most cooperative on issues affecting senior Texans, and about 70% of our priority issues received positive responses. I feel that the knowledge I gained can be used in the next term and I would like to try to complete some of the other goals we have set," Mrs. Hulsey said.

"I will appreciate your vote and support. I will do my best to help find solutions to our problems and will work for the people of the Panhandle of Texas," she concluded.

In 1967, Carl Yazdremski won the batting title in the American League with a .301 batting average.

Meet The Teachers

This is Gary Childs' second year to teach government and physical education in the Silverton Schools. He has three years experience and was graduated from Tarleton State University. He has a bachelor of science degree in physical education with history being his minor.

He coaches Junior High football and girls basketball, High School girls basketball and tennis and is assistant High School football coach. He teaches High School government.

A new idea that Coach Childs has implemented into his government class is to use newspapers along with the regular textbook. The students discuss world issues and their relationship to what is being taught. As this is an election year, the different aspects of elections are good topics of study for the government class. Recently the students held a mock election.

Coach Childs is engaged to Julie Brunson. She is a student at Texas Tech University majoring in physical education. They plan to be married in June.

Kevin Cleveland is a physical education and pre-algebra teacher in the Silverton Schools. This is his first year in the coaching and teaching field.

He was graduated from Wayland Baptist University with a bachelor of science degree in physical education and has mathematics as a minor. He is doing graduate work toward a masters degree. He is the Freshman Class sponsor. He teaches and coaches the following classes: High School boys basketball, fourth and fifth grade physical education, Freshman pre-algebra, Junior High physical education, Junior High boys athletics, and High School girls physical education.

In Coach Cleveland's program, individual attention and a positive attitude are tools that are used to help students build confidence in themselves. He teaches that goals can be attained through dedication and hard work.

His wife is Lori Cleveland and she is a student at Wayland Baptist University.

COURTESIES

A miscellaneous shower honoring the couple was held at the First State Bank in Silverton on January 24. Friends of the groom were hosts.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents in the fellowship hall of the North 14th Street Church of Christ in Lamesa. Tables were draped with white coverings and pink dinnerware, pink flowers and greenery graced the tables. A wishing-well stood at the head table, where guests placed good wishes for the couple. Serving as her sister's maid of honor was Kace Karol Gillespie and bridesmaid was Cynthia Cornett, cousin of the bride of Lubbock. D'Lyn Patton, sister of the groom of Silverton, was the junior bridesmaid, and Charley J'Nae Nutt, cousin of the bride of Dimmitt, served as the flower girl.

The honor attendants wore dresses of pale pink taffeta designed with a fitted bodice, ruffled apple-core sleeves, and enhanced with a lace ruffle at the waistline. The tea-length, bouffant skirts flared from the waistline with a chiffon overlay. Miniature pink flowers adorned their hair, and they carried bouquets of pale pink gardenias, carnations and baby's breath tied with ribbon streamers.

The junior bridesmaid wore a mauve dress of similar design and carried a mauve bouquet. The flower girl wore a white ruffled eyelet dress sashed with pink and carried a basket decorated with pink bows containing dainty pink love knots.

Serving as best man was Tad Cornett, cousin of the groom of Lubbock. Groomsmen were Mike Cornett and Bobby McPherson, both cousins of the groom of Lubbock. Serving as the candlelighter was Tim Gillespie of Denton and ushers were Terry Long of Lubbock and Erick Patton, cousin of the groom of Silverton.

Wedding vows were exchanged before the altar that was enhanced by sunburst candelabra, festooned with greenery, doves and pink bows. They flanked a candletree decorated with a pair of love doves. The altar railing held white cathedral tapers and ivy, and hurricane holders marked the parents' pews. Alternating pews in the sanctuary were adorned with ivy and bows in shades of pink. Completing the setting were massive planters filled with ivy and decorated with large pink bows.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, a reception honored the newlyweds in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bridal table was draped with a white lace cloth and held a three-tiered wedding confection. Columns separated the tiers, which were decorated with various shades of pink flowers, and a Christopher cakepiece crowned the top tier. A brass candelabrum with cherubs to the front served as the centerpiece. Scattered pink flowers surrounded a

Caring For The Elderly Or Bedridden

Maebelle Francis, Ombudsman

At some time in most of our lives, we will all have to be responsible for caring for the disabled or elderly. For the next few weeks, I will be sharing with you some "Care and Share" tips that will make it easier for you and the recipient.

As your volunteer Ombudsman, Lois Nance and I are always ready and willing to answer any questions you might have or assist you in making a choice that concerns your loved one. We can help you choose a rest home or suggest other options you might have, if they don't need constant care. If we are unable to answer your questions, we can refer you to someone who can. Ombudsmen are volunteers who are trained and licensed by the state of Texas, to hear complaints and work for the benefit of those who are residents of nursing homes. After being trained and licensed, an Ombudsman is assigned to a nursing home. Lois Nance is presently serving Dimmitt and Memphis. I am serving the present facility at Tulia and will probably be assigned to the future facility if and when it comes to pass. Even though you may not be interested in one of these particular homes, we are always ready to help you, should you need assistance.

Our tip for this week will be in the form of a letter that was recently in the Ann Landers column of the newspapers. You can read it through your tears. I believe it will serve to enlighten us to how the "recipient" feels. Dear Ann Landers: After having been a nurse in geriatrics for 20 years I wrote a make-believe letter that is very close to being a real one; in fact it could have been written by any one of the dozens of people I have cared for in the past two decades. Please print it.

Dear Caregiver (wife, husband, son, daughter, brother, sister):

I'm sorry you have to go through all this unpleasantness every day, and I regret that I am the cause of it. I hate not being able to do so many things for myself. It's awful to be totally dependent on someone else.

I feel ashamed that I can't go to the bathroom on my own. It's frustrating to be fed by another person. I'm absolutely disgusted that I am unable to get a tissue up to my face so I can blow my nose. Being old and helpless is much worse than any illness or disability. It does things to one's feelings of personal worth.

Worst of all is knowing how you hate being my caregiver. I see the resentment in your eyes and I hear it in your voice. I know that deep down you wish I would die and get it over with so you can get on with your life and not be bothered with me.

Well, I wish the same. Surprised? I have no choice, however, but to live out the years that have been allotted to me. I'm sorry that the job of caring for me has fallen on your shoulders. I wonder which of us carries the bigger burden.

To The Voters of Briscoe County

Once again, I would like to take this opportunity to ask for your vote. If elected, I will do my very best to serve the people of Briscoe County. I feel confident that I am capable of doing a good job.

I have worked at various jobs the past 27 years. My experience is with a bank, finance company, wholesale lumber business and Kelly Girl Services. I also worked part-time in the Tax Assessor-Collector office in Silverton during my high school years.

I have been active in Scouts, PTA, Kids, Inc., Silverton Booster Club and Little Dribblers. I have served in an office of some capacity to all these organizations.

My objective is to operate the Tax Assessor-Collector office efficiently with the least amount of expense to the taxpayer.

I have tried to contact everyone in the county, but due to bad weather and a short time in which to campaign, I'm sure I have missed some of you and I apologize. Please vote on March 8th.

Conservation Poster Contest Winners Honored at Banquet

Thursday, February 11, was the date of the Caprock Soil and Water Conservation District's Annual Awards Banquet, which is held each year to honor those students who win awards in the Conservation Poster Contest. Over 200 students, parents and teachers attended the banquet.

The Conservation District sponsors the poster contest each year to teach students about natural resources. Emphasis is placed on conserving soil, water, wildlife, and other natural resources. Programs are presented to educate the students; then the students make posters showing what soil and water conservation is.

The directors of the Caprock Soil and Water Conservation District judged the posters. They are C. L. Sutton, Walter (Rusty) Henson, Jarus Flowers, Robert McPherson and Alton (Tobe) Riddell. Awards are given to the four top posters in each class. Then, the three best posters in the county are chosen. Posters are judged by determining which ones show the best picture of conservation of natural resources.

The winners in this year's contest are:

Waurika "Fang-Tastic" Rattlesnake Hunt Is March 26-27

The 27th Annual Waurika "Fang-tastic" Rattlesnake Hunt sponsored by the Waurika Volunteer Fire Dept. and Jaycees is scheduled for March 26-27 with activities to begin both days at 8:00 a.m.

The popular event annually draws thousands of hunters and spectators from all over the United States.

One of the most popular events, besides catching a live rattlesnake, is the snake sacking contest. Professional and amateurs can enter the event. In the contest, three rattlesnakes are released and the contestant, using a hook to capture them, puts them one by one into a sack. Once pinned with the hook, the snake is placed in the sack by hand. The contestant with the fastest time wins. The event is held both days. Professional sackers win $50 each day for best time and an added $50 for best two-day time. The amateur receives a plaque for the best two-day time.

A registration fee of $2 per hunter is required to hunt the fanged rattlers. This fee is good for both days. Registration opens at 8:00 a.m. each day. Catchers and sacks are available to rent or sell while supplies last. The longest snake captured will be auctioned and trophies will be awarded Sunday evening.

Trophies or cash will be given for rattlesnakes entered for the contest divisions. First-place prize money for the longest snake caught is $200; second, $175; third, $150; and fourth, $125, plus a bonus for a rattlesnake caught over six feet long.

Prizes for snakes with the most rattlers are, first place, $75; second, $50, and third, $25. There will also be four specially-marked snakes released in the hunt area that will bring $25 each if captured. First, second and third place trophies will be awarded for the shortest snake caught. The longest snake entered by a first-time hunter will receive a trophy each day. All rattlesnakes entered for prizes must be live at time of contest and all snakes entered become the property of Waurika Rattlesnake Hunt. All live rattlesnakes turned in will be purchased for top market prices.

No gas or firearms are allowed in the hunt area, and hunting will be done in the specified areas.

For added entertainment, the Nebraska Snake Handlers from Scottsbluff, Nebraska, will be doing continuous performances both days in a pit filled with live rattlers. They will lecture and perform a stunt show that is both exciting and courageous.

Other popular events are the Butcher Shoppe where rattlers, skins and fresh meat can be purchased. There will also be a concession featuring "deep fried rattlesnake steaks" for the hearty eaters. There will be a photo booth and souvenir stands open each day.

An all-new carnival will be added this year. Doolittle Amusements of Oklahoma City will feature games and fifteen rides including the famous TURBO and FLYING BOBS. These rides have been enjoyed by many at the Oklahoma State Fair.

For general information about the hunt, write "Little Rattler," Route 2, Box 249, Waurika, Oklahoma 73573, or phone (405) 228-2802.

Unicare Funds Alzheimer Center

The Unicare Foundation, a national not-for-profit charitable organization, has awarded a check for $10,000 to the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in Lubbock, as an initial grant to develop a regional Alzheimer's Disease Information and Referral Center. Establishment of information and referral services will add a significant dimension to the clinical, research and educational transfer operations of the Texas Tech Alzheimer's Center.

In a special ceremony held on February 19, 1988, the check was presented by William Spencer, Vice-President of the Western Field, to the director of the Texas Tech Alzheimer's Center, J. Thomas Hutton, M. D., Ph.D., Professor of Medical and Surgical Neurology at TTHUSC School of Medicine.

The ceremony was held in conjunction with the semiannual meeting of the TTAC Advisory and Development Board. Assisting with the presentation was the board's newest appointee, Mark Huckabee, President of Western National Bank in Lubbock, who has acted as liaison between Unicare and the health sciences center.

The $10,000 grant will support a variety of information and referral services for Alzheimer patients and family caregivers, including 24-hour telephone access. The Alzheimer's Disease

Information and Referral Center will also coordinate public awareness activities, support group formation, and continuing education programs for health professionals throughout the state of Texas.

When presenting the check, Spencer expressed his enthusiasm, "On behalf of The Unicare Foundation, I am very pleased that we can substantially assist the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in their exemplary work with Alzheimer's disease. We are confident that the Alzheimer's Disease Information and Referral Center will be a valuable addition to the entire West Texas region."

The Unicare Foundation was established by Unicare Health Facilities, Inc., a national provider of health care services, to further charitable, educational and scientific activities. Prior to awarding this grant in Texas, the Unicare Foundation made a major commitment to fund research on Alzheimer's disease at Harvard Medical School's Division on Aging.

The Unicare Foundation is supported by fund-raising activities conducted by employees and residents of Unicare facilities nationwide. Unicare owns or operates 140 healthcare facilities in 17 states, including seven Texas facilities in Lubbock, Brownfield, Tulia, Floydada, Crosbyton, Lockney and Amarillo; Spencer further noted that all of their Texas facilities are in the immediate health service area of TTHUSC.

For more information about the Texas Tech Alzheimer's Disease Information and Referral Center, contact Associate Director, Susan Imke, R. N., M. S. at (806) 743-1799.

County Residents Invited To Citizens Forum

All county residents are invited to a Citizens Forum on Monday, March 7, from 7:30 until 9:00 p.m. in the First State Bank Pioneer Room in Silverton.

The twelve candidates who will be on the county ballot for the Super Tuesday primary on March 8, are being contacted and invited to participate. The purpose of this forum is to provide voters an opportunity to hear the candidates' views in order to be better equipped to make informed choices at the polls.

Those running for office are in positions of leadership and decision-making in the county government. Citizens should welcome this opportunity to exercise their rights to be involved in the election process and determine how the candidates stand on significant issues pertaining to Briscoe County.

The Family Community Leadership team of Jackie Mercer, Virginia Hardin and Lynda Fogerson are conducting the Forum as a part of community leadership training to help citizens be informed voters. The FCL project is an educational program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Extension Homemakers Association.

Voters are reminded that county officials make decisions that influence the entire county, not just one precinct. Plan to attend to hear all the candidates.

Life's roughest years

Being a teen-ager can be torture . . . a lot of the time. And the early twenties don't flatten out that smoothly. There's a desperate loneliness about having problems your kid-brother hasn't encountered and your parents must have forgotten.

The loneliness is worst if your folks gave you nothing to believe in — or if they turned you off when they tried to share their convictions with you.

No one has to stay away from God. Many a young searcher has found his faith, found himself, and found his family in his quest for spiritual certainties.

Sunday morning there's more to do than lean on a tree.

Cards of Thanks

I want to thank all of you while I was in the hospital for your phone calls, visits and get-well letters.

It seems one has to be in a hospital to discover how many good friends he has.

Thanks to Tate and Jackie for taking care of things and taking care of my puppy dog.

God's richest blessings on all of you.

Thanks,
Raymond and Ravenel Grewe

We want to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone who came to see us at the hospital, visit in our home, called, sent flowers, cards, food and remembered us in your prayers while Violet was in the hospital and after coming home.

Thank you and we love you,
Buck and Violet

We would like to express our appreciation to our friends for the flowers, food, cards and especially the prayers in our behalf. The loss of our precious one was easier to bear because of you.

The family of
Ethel Lanham Lea

I would like to express my thanks to each of you for the food, flowers, cards, calls and visits while I was in the hospital and since I've been home. Every act of kindness was appreciated.

Ruby Lee Eddleman
