The Liberman Pairs in the Eastdoes not prevent the play from being of very high caliber. Here is a hand I kibitzed, in which I was struck by the brilliance of the defense. Declarer might have played the hand better, but it was understandable that he was led astray by the great patience of the defenders in holding up aces.

The opening lead was won by the ace of clubs South led a diamond, finessed the ten in dummy, and East let him hold the trick. Back came a heart to the king, and West nonchalantly dropped the four-spot. Another diamond lead to the jack forced out the ace, and East led a club.

South won and ran the dia monds. On the long diamonds the defenders ditched all their clubs and East let go the six of spades South discarded the five of spades, and then after some thought parted with the nine-spot. Dummy then led the other heart and South's queen was captured by the West laid down the queen of spades, dummy covered and East won. East led the heart to West's jack and the three of spades came back through dummy. East's ten-seven picked up dummy's eight-four, setting the contract two tricks.

For Active Play

Back yard games and romping can be awfully hard on clothesbut here is a suit which can take the most strenuous wear! The most active youngster will wear it with joy, it is so thoroughly comfortable and so cunning she'll want to live in it. The topper can be worn as a jacket, as sketche,d or as a shirt to be tucked in. You can cut both overalls, and rompers, too, with our simplified pattern! FRANTIC WEEKEND

BY EDMUND FANCOTT

THE STORY: Peggy Mack, 17, arrives for her first weekend party with her sister Myra and brother Michael at the country place of Ferdy Lorton, near Montreal. Other guests are the beautiful Fay Ransom and her new but already devoted escort, Lieut. Nigel Monkhonse. Peggy starts an all-out glamor campaign and makes quite an impression.

Yes, vaccine prepares you to beat trouble... now how does this oil work that principle?

Like a plague, modern driving conditions are widely attacking motor oil — wasting it away. Nature can't modernize her oil. And the best refining even weakens certain natural "immunities". . .

BUT CONOCO Nth OIL makes it all up -and then some-with its modern manmade preventives. They get the credit for its healthy record of more than twice the mileage averaged by five other fine oils in a Death-Test lasting till engines burned up.
