Battleships Of Nazi Badly Hurt, Tied Up

German Planes Strike English Port; Aircraft Active On Both Shores

LONDON (AP)—The RAF, operating almost on time-table schedule, sent its squadrons back on the offensive over occupied France Monday after making Hamburg the target of its big bombers Sunday night.

German night bombers retaliated for the Hamburg attack with a heavy assault on Exeter, in southwestern England, but Britain's night sharpshooters downed five German planes over Britain and two others over airdromes in occupied France during the night. About 30 German planes were said to have been in action, giving the RAF night fighters a bag of almost one out of four.

Six German fighter planes bombed and machinegunned a town on the southeast coast of England Monday afternoon. There were casualties and a number of buildings were hit.

Hamburg Attack
The raid on Hamburg was the first since the night of April 17 when a strong force of Britain's most formidable bombers spread many fires. Selection of the great northern port and naval base as a target underlined Britain's growing attention on keeping Nazi seapower crippled and land-locked.

The Air Ministry announced that its bombers led large fires in Hamburg while other bombers dropped explosives on the Nazi submarine base at St. Nazaire, from which U-boats go out on their long raiding expeditions in the Atlantic.

Mines also were reported laid in enemy waters. Coastal command planes damaged two enemy ships off the coast of Norway and bombed objectives on the coast, it was said.

The Air Ministry said five bombers were missing from the night's operations.

Battleships Crippled
Renewal of the assaults on much-bombed Hamburg came within 24 hours of a joint Admiralty-Air Ministry announcement that three of Germany's most potent war vessels have been knocked out of the war for some time to come.

These are the 26,000-ton sister battleships Gneisenau and Scharnhorst and the 10,000-ton cruiser Prinz Eugen which dashed home through the English Channel from Brest last Feb. 11.

Besides damage suffered then, the announcement said, the battleships probably have suffered additional damage from air-own British mines and RAF attacks on Kiel; the Prinz Eugen by an attack off Kristiansund, Norway, by the submarine Trident.

Now, the British disclose, the Gneisenau is at the former Polish port of Gdynia, the Scharnhorst still in dry dock at Kiel and the Prinz Eugen at Trondheim, Norway.

Bolivar E. Dale Buried At Clovis

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Clovis, New Mexico, for Bolivar E. Dale, 63, former Midland resident. He was a brother of Frank C. Dale of Midland, and made his home here for 12 years, having moved to Clovis in 1933.

Mr. Dale was born in Mississippi. He had been ill for several months previous to his death, during which time he was visited frequently by his brother of Midland, Rev. D. S. Lee of Clovis officiated at the funeral services. Attending the service from Midland were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dale, Marshall Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith and son, and Mrs. Joe Robertson and children.

Survivors, in addition to those named from Midland, include two sisters, Miss Kate Dale and Mrs. W. L. Haley of Clovis; two other brothers, Nell E. Dale of Whitehouse, and Robert C. Dale of Clovis; and eleven nieces and five nephews. Pallbearers were Marshall Dale, Bob Baker and Paul Smith, and Chick Taylor, E. G. Abernathy and Leon Williams of Clovis.

MacArthur Plaid New Fabric For Neck Wear

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP)—Indian weavers are turning out the MacArthur plaid on their hand looms as a tribute to the defender of Bataan. The plaid, raw material for neckties, is a blending of black and dark green with a bright yellow stripe, and Santa Fe Scots say, is the authentic pattern of the MacArthur branch of the Great Clan Campbell.

Midland Wildcat Shuts Down For Orders At 6,088

By Frank Gardner Oil Editor

Midland County's closely-watched wildcat, Broderick & Calvert, Inc., and George P. Livermore, Inc., No. 1 Billy Bryant, 13 miles south of the city, shut down for orders early Monday at 6,088 feet in black lime and shale.

At that point it was 88 feet past contract depth. No further shows had been logged since deepening from 5,600 feet, where it swabbed a little free oil. Circulation was lost at 6,064 feet. Plans of operators to deepen or to plug back and test the shallower showing have not been announced.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1-A University-Andrews, Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, discovery well in southwestern Andrews County, is waiting for cement to set around 5 1/2-inch casing run 7,806 feet. Five hundred sacks of cement were used in the job. The well topped the Ellenburger unexpectedly high at 7,750 feet and flowed an estimated 40 to 50 barrels of 43.5-gravity oil per hour, with 15,000,000 cubic feet of gas, when drill-stem test was run from 7,760 to 7,855 feet, total depth.

Sims Test Only Mud
In extreme Northwestern Andrews Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 H. O. Sims et al recovered 200 feet of drilling fluid cut with oil and gas when 68-minute drill-stem test was made of San Andres zone from 4,360 to 4,406 feet. It drilled ahead to 4,438 feet then cored from 4,438-58, recovering 20 feet of lime streaked with shale and bleeding oil. Drilling has been resumed.

In the Fullerton deep Permian pool of Northwestern Andrews, Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1-11-37 Ralph repaired leaking packer on 2-inch tubing and re-set it at 7,028 feet. It was swabbed in and flowed 45-59 barrels of oil in five hours. Flow continued.

Cellar and pits have been dug for Magnolia No. 2-11-37 Balpi, outpost test 1,867 feet, northeast of No. 1-11-37, Fullerton Oil Company No. 3 H. M. Wilson, north offset to the discovery well, is coring at 7,110 feet in lime.

Rowan Drilling Company No. 1 Field, wildcat in extreme Northwestern Yoakum County, has drilled past 4,956 feet in hard gray lime. In Central Lubbock County, Standard Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Stinnett is drilling below 6,330 feet in gray dolomite.

Pecos County
Pure Oil Company has staked location for No. 1 LeGros as a west offset to its No. 1-A TXL (George C. Fraser et al) discovery Delaware sand producer in the Chancellor pool of Pecos County. No. 1 LeGros is 660 feet out of the southeast corner of section 36, block 50, township 10, T. & P. survey.

An Ordovician test in Northern Pecos, Anderson-Pritchard Oil Corporation No. 1 Charlotte Gregg Ogilvie et al, is drilling at 4,995 feet, still in Permian lime.

Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1-C W. L. Foster, Sterling County Ordovician test, had passed 8,000-foot contract as it progressed to 8,094 feet in an unreported formation.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson has ordered rents reduced and stabilized in 302 defense areas within 60 days. In 259 of the areas, the rent prevailing on March 1, 1942 was fixed as the maximum that may be charged; 28 areas the maximum date set was April 1, 1941; in eight areas the date chosen was Jan. 1, 1941, and in the remaining seven the date was July 1, 1941.

The following questions and answers prepared by the office of price administration explained the procedure, based on the March 1, 1942 date. In the other areas the proper date should be substituted:
Q. I live in one of the defense areas designated by Mr. Henderson and my rent has been increased since March 1, 1942, the maximum rent date which Mr. Henderson has just recommended for my area. How soon may I expect a cut in rent?
A. Under the emergency price control act the federal government can not order rents reduced for 60 days. During this waiting period, any reduction is up to your landlord or to state and local action.

Q. What will happen at the end of 60 days?
A. If, at the end of 60 days, Mr. Henderson finds that his recommendations for the area have not been met, he can step in at any time and regulate rents.
Q. By what method will Mr. Henderson establish maximum rents?
A. He will order all housing rents held to the rents in effect on a specified date. That date is the "maximum-rent date." As a general principle, the rent for any house can be no more than the rent for that house on the maximum-rent date. Special regulations will control rents in houses that were not rented on the maximum-rent date.

Q. My rent was raised from $32 to $40 a month on April 1, 1942. Suppose that Mr. Henderson, after the 60-day waiting period, orders rents held at the March 1, 1942 level, will I receive a refund?
A. No, you will receive no refund. But after the 60-day period and after the price administrator has issued regulations for your area, you will pay only $32.
Q. But I signed a new lease at $40 a month, and the lease has 11 months to run. Must I still pay $40?
A. No, you will pay no more than $32 regardless of any lease, sublease, agreement, contract or other obligation.

Q. If rents are pegged, how will the landlord meet any increase in his costs?
A. The law requires the administrator to "make adjustments for such relevant factors as he may determine and deem to be of general applicability, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs."
Q. What happens to the landlord?

British Bomb Ships In Jap Burma Move

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—A smashing attack by British Blenheim bombers was made on a concentration of Japanese moving up the Chindwin River in Burma and direct hits were made on the boats, an RAF communique announced Monday.

The attack was made in the face of a heavy anti-aircraft fire, a communique said, but all the bombers returned to their bases.

War Costs Already Passing Total Of First Conflict, Mount Rapidly

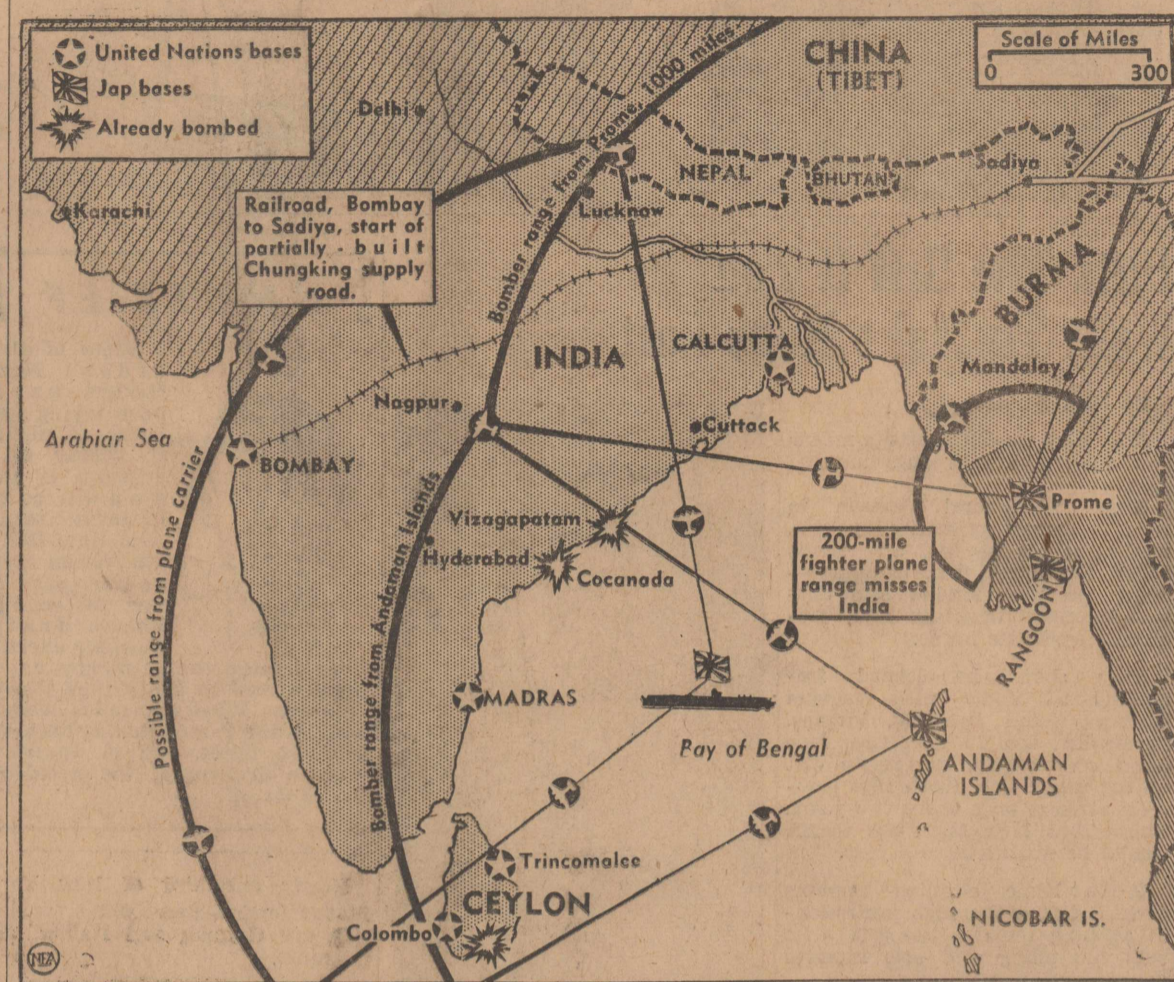

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fiscal officials disclosed Monday that the United States already has paid out in cash for this war as much as it spent during World War I.

The cost of the first World War to the United States from 1917 until the peace treaty was ratified in 1921 was $25,729,000,000, including loans to the Allies.

Already Spent
Since July 1, 1940, when this country started preparing for the present conflict, the government has paid out approximately $26,000,000,000 for war purposes. The Treasury paid out $24,569,000,000 and the RFC and other corporations doing defense work spent $1,500,000,000 cash.

With spending running over $3,000,000,000 a month, moreover, it won't be long before the costs of World War II exceed the aggregate cost of the last war, including ex-

Sugar Cards Issued To Hundreds Here Monday

Parents Crowd Schools, As Classes Dismissed, To Get Ration Cards
Hundreds of Midland County folks are getting their sugar ration cards Monday, as offices were open at the Junior High, North Elementary, South Elementary, Mexican and Colored schools, manned by teachers who have been especially trained to handle the cards.

At noon the registrations were: Junior High, 271; North Ward, 334; South Ward, 362; Mexican, 320, and Colored, 200.

Schools were dismissed for Monday and Tuesday, and officials expressed the hope that all ration cards would be applied for during those two days. Offices will be open, however, for two additional days.

There are 24 registrars at the Junior High, 24 at North Elementary, 24 at the South Elementary, 19 at the Mexican school, which was a little crowded Monday morning, and several are on duty at the Colored school.

Over the state, registration was reported heavy, though it was indicated that the job could not be completed within two days as at first expected.

Cards being issued will be put to other uses in the future, perhaps, as other food items may be rationed, authorities have indicated. Registrars are declaring the amount of sugar which they now have, and such quantities are being deducted from their cards, and they may begin purchases only after exhausting supplies on hand.

US Bombing Rangoon; Japs Start Big Drive On New Guinea Harbor

Stilwell Hopes To Break Japanese Drive Toward Chinese Capital, Promises Retake Mandalay; Japs Seek New Guinea Airports

Associated Press War Editor.
Heavy Japanese reinforcements were hurled Monday into the drive northeast from ruined Mandalay up the severed Burma Road in an effort to take the war to China's fiercely-defended soil on a second front which already has been pushed through the mountains within 30 miles of the Yunnan Province frontier.

At the same time a new penetration of invasion units inland across New Guinea was timed with increased Japanese air raids on Port Moresby and suggested that the Japanese might be ready for the big struggle for control of the important south coast of New Guinea, across the Coral Sea from Australia.

Army Says Need More Officers; Favors Civilians

WASHINGTON (AP)—Faced with a growing shortage of officers for the burgeoning Army, the War Department was reported Monday to be bringing heavy pressure to bear against legislation that would halt the issuance to "quickie" commissions to civilians.

The proposal was slated to go before the House on Wednesday in the form of an amendment by Rep. Faddis (D-Pa.) to a Senate approved bill doubling the $21 monthly pay of Army "buck" privates and granting increases to other ratings up to and including second lieutenants.

One member of the Senate Military Committee who asked not to be quoted by name said War Department officials had expressed the opinion that adoption of the Faddis amendment would hamper rapid expansion of the Army by making it impossible to release trained officers for field duty and replace them in administrative posts with qualified civilians.

Conservation Of Waste Is Urged By Stevenson
AUSTIN (AP)—Conservation of waste materials, especially iron, steel, rubber, rags and paper, is essential to an early triumph over the Axis powers, Governor Coke Stevenson declared Monday.

The governor, in his regular weekly radio broadcast, asserted: "Most of us would like to return to our normal peace-time pursuits. In order to do this, it is incumbent on every citizen to assist the government in its war program."

"We may not like all the details of that program, but it is better to support it vigorously and get it over with. Let us buy all the War Bonds and Stamps we can possibly afford, and let us save waste materials for the government."

On the island front north of Australia United Nations fighter planes intercepted an attack on Port Moresby Sunday by 12 Japanese bombers and eight fighters and, in a defensive battle which a communique described as brilliant, shot down three of the bombers and one of the escorting planes.

Fifteen other Japanese planes were reported downed during other scattered battles over the week end in which United States and Australian fliers damaged three Japanese transports at Rabaul, New Britain, and a four-engine flying boat in the Solomon Islands.

The threat of a Japanese overland smash toward Port Moresby from Lae on the northeast coast was being watched closely. The Japanese were said to have moved 27 miles up the Markham Valley from Lae to Nadzab over the interior route from which they were flooded by heavy rains during a similar push several weeks ago.

Let's Have Some Hoop-La

One thing missing in this war is the good old hoop-la that gets under the toughest hide, brings one's heart up into his throat, and transforms humdrum mechanics and prosaic clerks into dashing heroes.

In a mechanical way we are doing very well. We are making enormous quantities of very superior airplanes, tanks, jeeps, ships, guns, etc.

Yet five months after the sneak attack upon Pearl Harbor there is nothing like that swelling emotional response which swept the nation immediately after war was declared against Germany in 1917.

This is no evidence of disunity. Probably the people of the United States hate Hitlerism more intensely and more universally than their fathers and mothers disliked Kaiserism.

But we refuse to let ourselves go. We don't want to emote. We take pride in our cynicism—in being so sophisticated that even a world holocaust can't sweep us off our feet.

We believe this is all wrong. The underdog has to get steamed up to snarling, drooling oblivion of the odds against him, before he can hope to win a war.

We and our associates in the United Nations are the underdogs today. Don't let any Pollyanna convince you otherwise.

Potentially unconquerable, we softened ourselves with phony logic, rationalizations, sophistication. We permitted ourselves to be caught unprepared. Now we have been forced into a last ditch defense, struggling desperately to keep from being pushed off the face of the earth before we can muster our strength to fight back.

Cool, calm, reasoning efficiency is necessary. But that is not enough today.

We need the firecracker enthusiasm of 1917 and 1918. We need flags waving, troops marching, one-minute speakers. We need war songs that will spring to our lips as spontaneously as Tipperary and Over There did a quarter of a century ago.

Why should able-bodied, unattached young men argue with themselves about going into the Army or Navy, and pull strings for cushy home jobs or commissions.

Why do we tolerate business, labor, the farmers, consumers, all jockeying for immediate or future advantage at a time like this?

Why does the President pull his punches, and carry on long preparatory campaigns before he takes each tiny step toward all-out war?

Because we're not psychologically ready. Because we haven't reached the flag-waving, hallelujah-shouting, Star-Spangled Banner-singing, to Hell-with-conservation, go-ahead and don't mind if it hurts me pitch that will win this war.

We hate Hitler. We hate Mussolini. We hate the Japs. We hate everything which distinguishes the Axis from civilization.

Let's say so. Let's have some songs, some slogans, some cheerleader, some flag waving, some name calling some enthusiasm, something to let the ten millions who are going to be in uniform know that we're with them—not away behind.

—Buy War Bonds And Savings Stamps—

All Right, Be Selfish

Your quota of War Bonds is easy to figure. It is 10 per cent of your income. Nobody will object if, in a moment of enthusiasm, you exceed that quota.

To buy your quota is a patriotic duty. Or, if patriotism is not enough, investment in war bonds is a privilege. In this uncertain world there is no more certain investment than your country's promise to pay. Be patriotic, be practical or be selfish, but don't forget your War Bonds.

—Buy War Bonds And Savings Stamps—

Trigging The Wheels

The French used to be known as a logical people. Apparently their descendants in Canada are different. There is no other way of explaining Quebec province's overwhelming rejection of military conscription for overseas duty.

After what happened in Europe, in Asia, in Africa, no logical people could deny that the sacrifice of individualism is the least one can make to beat Hitlerism.

It'll Take All Of Us To Keep The Lid On

Blitz The Grit If You Want To Make Rugs Last

By NEA Service

A looming woolen shortage means you must give your rugs unusual care.

Wear and general damage to rugs is caused primarily by grit, moths, carpet beetles, an insect called the silver fish, dampness—which produces mildew and dry-rot—improper washings and, frequently, cigarette burns.

Rugs should be cleaned frequently at home with vacuum cleaners, hand sweepers, brooms. Remember, too, to turn rugs face down occasionally, to remove dirt on the under side. Wash rugs carefully at least once every two years. Those that bear the most traffic should be washed once a year.

While home cleaning removes surface dirt, a thorough professional washing removes the grit that cuts the piling and also removes insect eggs or grubs.

TURNING GIVES EVEN WEAR

Turn your rugs around periodically so that wear will be more evenly distributed.

Rug pads or mats—often inexpensive—will add 25 per cent to a rug's normal life. Inasmuch as pads usually are made only from pressed hair, they should be given only a light brushing with a broom.

Rugs damaged by cigarette burns can be fully restored by reweaving the piling or by patching.

If old rugs don't fit when a family moves into a new residence, they can be re-cut and re-bound to order, if they are the broadloom variety.

ODESSA WINS GOLF MEET AT MIDLAND SUNDAY

Odessa's 12-man golfing team won the tri-team tourney at Midland Country Club Sunday by scoring 14 points to better Midland's 13 1/2. Hobbs was the third team in the meet, and scored 8 1/2 points.

Grit is your rug's Enemy No. 1. Frequent cleanings, and a full washing once every one or two years, are necessary to make 'em last.

Jack Patterson arrived in Midland Sunday from Camp Roberts, California for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Patterson. Jack has a 30-day furlough and then will go to Los Angeles to enter flying cadet training.

Allied War Picture Still Dark, But Not As Bad As Was Week Ago

By DeWitt MacKenzie
Wide World War Analyst

There's one good thing about the week-end war news these days, the Allies have reached that point of achievement where the breaks increasingly are coming their way, and not every Monday is a blue one—an indication that we really are getting ahead with our job.

The report since Saturday has contained some real encouragement, although the Japs have mixed a nasty dose of medicine for us in Burma, and we might as well hold our noses and swallow that first. The fall of the city of Mandalay—famous because of Kipling's immortal song and strategically important as a center of transportation—has greatly added to the gravity of the Anglo-Chinese position.

In short, but from some fortuitous and lucky circumstance the Allies are likely to lose all Burma. This means, of course, that the Japanese will have secured another powerful base which, among other things, helps safeguard the right flank of their conquests in Indonesia, and is a potential menace to India.

Great China Menace

However, to my mind the most serious aspect of this development is that the invaders not only will have cut China off from the Burmese oil upon which she was dependent, and severed her Burma Road lifeline to the outside world, but will be in position to strike at Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek from the rear. Should this happen, China's position will be much more difficult than at any time since the Sino-Japanese war began.

A fine entry on the other side of the ledger is the British announcement that three great German warships—the battleships Gneisenau and Scharnhorst and the heavy cruiser Prinz Eugen—have been so seriously damaged that they probably will be out of action for a long time. This cuts Hitler's fleet of capital ships in half.

These powerful men of war were a grave menace to the Allied supply route to Russia through the Arctic. They and their three teammates also might have played havoc with small units of the American and British navies caught off guard. As it is, the knocking out of these ships will render our task of transporting vital war material to Russia vastly easier in the crisis which is developing.

This really is a solar-plexus blow for Herr Hitler, and when you couple to it the launching of four more destroyers in one day at our Kearney shipyard, we have given the Fuehrer something to go along with. Don't forget that this is in the main a war of resources (and that

Another Bright Spot

Another bright spot is the disclosure of Major General Maxwell, chief of the United States mission to North Africa, that American service troops in steadily increasing strength are supporting the British desert army which is standing between Nazi Field Marshal Rommel and Egypt and the Suez Canal. This is a further indication of our growing forces in the Near and Middle East, and means that the Allies are getting set to counter the offensive which Rommel likely will undertake in conjunction with Hitler's effort to smash the Russians and reach the supplies of the Caucasus and Middle East.

Crystal Shower Is Courtesy For Miss Griffith

Miss Geraldine Griffith, bride-elect of Sergeant Ralph E. Crays of Lovry Field, was feasted with a crystal shower for which Mrs. J. A. Tuttle and Miss Jessa Lynn Tuttle were hostesses at their home, 1506 W. College, Saturday afternoon.

A color scheme of white and light green was carried out and the house was decorated with roses, pansies and lris.

Three tables of bridge were played with high score award going to Mrs. Fount Armstrong and bingo award to the honoree's mother, Mrs. D. H. Griffith. Both presented the prizes to Miss Griffith.

At the gift hour, the crystal was presented to the bride-to-be in a white basket with a nosegay of pansies tied with light green streamers on the handle.

On the tea plates, cakes were in white with the initials of the engaged couple, G and R, in green. Favors were nosegays tied with light green.

Guests were: The honoree and her mother, Misses Ruth Beville, Mary Sue Cowden, Jeanne Davis, Eleanor Wood, Betty Caffey, Mmes. Chappell Davis, Geo. Ross, Fount Armstrong, J. B. Ellis, O. W. Wood, Aldridge Estes, N. W. Bigham, Harry Adams, and Miss Mary Bartach of St. Paul, Minnesota.

Additional courtesies for Miss Griffith will be held this week.

Painters Fix Up Soldier Center

It's paint-up, fix-up, pretty-up time at the WPA soldiers center, 213 N. Main, thanks to Painters Union No. 1001.

Sacrificing their rest-day members of the union Sunday painted the interior of the recreation hall. Labor and paint were contributed and a dozen painters wielded their brushes with a will to freshen the walls with a coat of light buff.

Painting Sunday morning were: Frank Lord, C. O. Fuller, Ter Arlington, R. D. Weaver, Bob Parsons, Jimmie Jones, Alton Gocher, Bill Ingram, A. T. Davis, L. Busby, R. R. Rashall, and Scott Vaughan.

L. O. McCallion is president of the Painters Union and M. W. Styron is secretary.

Plans are being made to fit up a kitchenette at the hall. Mrs. N. A. Lancaster stressed the need of a coffee urn and other kitchen equipment and asked citizens to contribute these if possible.

Attendance at the center is increasing. About 300 soldiers visited the recreation hall last Thursday and on the Sunday previous more than 200 were present.

STANTON (Sp) — The junior class of Stanton High School presented a three-act play, "Spring Fever," in the high school auditorium, Friday evening.

Under the direction of Steven T. Briggs, speech teacher, and Miss Emma Lee Gaither, class sponsor, the cast included: Jerry Hall, Alice Mae Widner, Fred Holder, Joyce Barker, George Peters, Novatene Davaport, Billie Ethridge, Culver Southall, Andrew Hancock, Clara Mae Martin, Doyle Blackford, and Anna Lou Anderson. Harry Poindecker was in charge of sound effects and Frank Harrington was stage manager.

Attendance was large.

Music And Speech Recital Presented

STANTON (Sp) — Mrs. L. P. Danzell and Mrs. John F. Priddy presented a group of students in a spring music and speech recital, Thursday evening. A May Day theme was featured in stage decorations.

WPA Workers To Be Put Into War Work

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — President Roosevelt, by urging the hiring of older workers in his national employment week proclamation Sunday, has pointed the way to absorbing many of those in the only un tapped reservoir of employable men and women on WPA projects in Texas, H. P. Drought, state administrator said Monday.

AUSTIN (AP) — A total of 101,065 persons are being trained in the public schools' war industry program, State Superintendent L. A. Woods Monday informed Governor Coke R. Stevenson.

In addition, 99,954 are taking courses in agriculture and 98,956 are receiving instruction in home-making training to assist in the war effort, Woods reported.

In the trade and industrial training program, many students are under the direct oversight of Military and Naval officials, especially in courses on shipbuilding and aircraft construction.

Will Preserve Old Letter CARMEL, Ill. (UP) — School officials will put a small copper box found in a recently razed school in the cornerstone of a new school building. The copper box contained a letter written by a Dr. Daniel Berry, dated 1876, the 100th year of U. S. independence.

String And Wood Now Replacing Felt And Metal

BY MARGUERITE YOUNG NEA Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — Here are some of Lilly Dache's new summertime war bonnets—startling, saucily sophisticated at this wag of a designer ever concocted, and yet scarcely a bit of pre-war hat makings in the lot!

Everybody's been talking about new style instead of mere ersatz. Dache is doing it. With pieces of string, wood, Christmas tree fixings and—oh, yes, imagination. Two "coifs," one of the shapes significantly stressed in the new collection, are shown above. A "coif" may be just a piece of bright theatrical-gauzelike cotton draped round the head, as at left, above. But it is draped in the broad-at-ears sixteenth century Dutch style. The extension is visible, here, on the right side of the model's head. That garland is made of wood beads. A second interpretation of the "coif," upper right, is contrived from lace straw, and here the backward-peaked silhouette can be seen.

The "coif" is important because it strongly advances the trend of flatter-topped, non-pompadour hats and hair-dos.

Still more emphasis is given to the effect by Dache's other new shape, the "caul," shown at lower right. This one is made of plain undyed wrapping twine, adorned with wood beads. The flattened pill-box has a head-hugging, snoodlike draping attached. This fits severely above the high, exposed forehead, but it is extended at the sides, hence is soft, easy on the face.

Presbyterian Group Discusses "Why Go To College?"

The Young People group of the Presbyterian Church met on the lawn for a program on "Why Go To College?" Sunday evening.

The 56 Presbyterian colleges and prep schools were discussed. Miss Ernestine Allen led the program.

Thirteen were present. Young people of the church will have a party at the home of Mrs. Watson LaForce, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

We, the Women

Dear Mrs. Serious-minded America:

I'm almost ashamed to bring up such a subject at such a time—but it wouldn't be fair to you to kid you into believing such a thing doesn't matter any more. The subject is GLAMOR.

You are so busy these days doing things that MATTER that some of you have decided that glamor—like tires—belongs to a past era.

The reason I'm warning you that you are just kidding yourselves is because you serious-minded women are really swell girls.

But while you are getting yourselves up in any old kind of outfit to bicycle to Red Cross headquarters, your sisters with more feminine understanding haven't forgotten that, no matter how many extra jobs women take on, they must manage some way to stay attractive.

FACE THE FACT THAT GLAMOR COUNTS

That sounds frivolous, and maybe not very bright, to those of you who have already stopped wearing nail polish and have decided that spending time and money in a beauty salon is a silly luxury. You may think that, after all, last year's dress will do without any fixing up—and maybe even, with out as frequent pressing as it used to get.

But no matter how frivolous it sounds and not matter how much you wish it weren't true, men don't gain any tolerance, so far as women's looks are concerned, just because there is a war going on and women are trying to do all they can to help win it.

You might as well face the fact now: No man is going to make any allowance for your appearance no matter how many sweaters you knit, or how many bandages you roll, or how much you have managed to learn about the inside workings of a car. They just aren't that broad-minded.

So no matter how busy you get, or how absorbed in doing your part, don't neglect yourself. Find time somewhere to keep yourself looking as attractive as you ever did.

If you don't you're a sucker. This, of course, is an old-fashioned viewpoint and maybe because of that you won't pay any attention to it.

But if you don't, you'll be sorry. Sincerely, Ruth Millett.

PALETTE CLUB TO MEET

Palette Club will meet at the studio on N Colorado Street, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Governor Still A Crack Shot

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UP)—Minnesota's Gov. Harold E. Stassen has retained the eye that made him a champion marksman while a student at the University of Minnesota. Recently Stassen and Emmett Swanson, former world's champion rifle shot, were challenged to a match by two Minnesota rifle club experts. Stassen and Swanson won with the governor scoring 90 per cent bulls-eyes.

A. Leventritt, national team-of-four champion. Mrs. Sobel and Leventritt split up their partnership to play with Mr. and Mrs. Capus Waynick.

Capus Waynick is a keen analyst. Today's hand illustrates his grasp of end-play technique.

After cashing the diamond king, South exited with a trump, which Waynick, sitting East, won in his own hand. He immediately led the other diamond. South won and returned the second trump. Dummy won with the ace in order to lead a third diamond for East to ruff.

The club ace gave re-entry to lead the fourth diamond, which also was ruffed. Then the king of clubs was cashed and the ten ruffed in dummy. On a heart lead from dummy, North played low. Waynick ducked with the eight and South was forced in without a safe exit.

JAPANESE TACTICS USED AS WARNING

Artist Finds Lack Of War Art

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (UP)—Rockwell Kent, famous artist, insists art isn't being given an adequate role in the national defense. In a three months' tour of the United States, he insists he has not heard a single brass band drumming up morale or a single poster calculated to inspire the public to a greater effort.

Asked For It And Got It

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (UP)—Film actor Onslow Stevens, arrested for speeding, asked to have his license suspended. He explained to the court that between bad traffic and the scarcity of tires, it was the only way he could keep his friends from asking him to take them places. The court was accommodating to the extent of six months.
