Martinique Fleet Being Immobilized

Aircraft Carrier, Two Cruisers Dismantled; US Says Satisfactory

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON.—French warships at Martinique are being immobilized. It was authoritatively disclosed Thursday.

The immobilization is being carried out in cooperation between French and American Naval and other officials on the spot.

Other important details of a comprehensive solution of the problem of French possessions in the Caribbean are still being discussed, it was said.

No Vichy Talks
Responsible sources emphasized that these negotiations are being carried on directly with Admiral Georges Robert, French High Commissioner on Martinique, and that the United States is not in any sense dealing with or looking to the Vichy government in this matter.

Warships affected by the immobilization include, it is understood, the aircraft carrier Bearn, and the cruisers Emile Berlin, and Jeanne D'Arc.

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Negotiations concerning the status of Martinique are proceeding satisfactorily, it was stated Thursday after return from Fort De France of Rear Admiral John H. Hoover, U. S. Navy Commander in the Caribbean Sea.

Study Amount To Give Families, If Increase Pay

WASHINGTON (AP)—With the House on record as overwhelmingly favoring at least $50 a month for Army privates and apprentice seamen, its Military Committee called on service heads Thursday for their views on how much of a fighting man's pay should be allotted to his dependents.

Chairman May (D-Ky.) said high-ranking officers of the Army, Navy and the Selective Service System would be asked at Thursday's hearing how much of the pay should be sent home to help the government support their dependents.

May and other members conceded that complications would result from Wednesday's House action which raised the proposed $42 a month scale for privates to $50, and increased from $48 to $54 the rating proposed for first class privates and second class seamen.

The $42 and $48 figures were voted by the Senate and were recommended by the House Military Committee, but the House itself voted 331 to 28 for the larger amounts.

The compulsory pay allotment bill for dependents was predicted on the lower Senate figures.

Unless the Senate accepts the House amendments without objection, the pay increase bill automatically goes to a joint conference committee.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Major Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, told the House Military Committee Thursday it soon might be necessary to induct into the Army more single men who have been deferred and married men with working wives.

But, he indicated, selective service has no intention of disrupting "established" families if this can be avoided, although it may be necessary to shift heads of families into necessary industrial war work.

Hershey joined Army and Navy officials in endorsing, with reservations, the general provisions of a bill to provide for compulsory allotments of part of service men's pay toward the upkeep of their dependents, with the government supplementing the allotment.

Nazi Gain In Kerch Zone, As Battle Still Raging; Russia Seeks To Get Nazi Out Of North, Central Fronts

By Roger D. Greene
Associated Press War Editor

Russia declared Thursday that her armies were storming at the gates of Kharkov, the "Pittsburgh" of the Ukraine, and other Soviet offensives were reported rolling against the Germans in the vital sectors of Leningrad, Novgorod, Staraya Russa and Moscow.

Aircobra and Tomahawk planes from the United States, Hurricanes from Britain, and both American and British-made tanks are playing big roles in the Kharkov and Leningrad offensives.

Shipments of American supplies has lately increased in volume, and British materials have been going to Russia throughout the winter.

In the Crimea, the Russians acknowledged yielding some ground in the six-day-old battle of Kerch Peninsula, but disputed the Hitler high command's claim of decisive victory.

Latest Soviet dispatches said the Russians were now holding a new line in good order, inflicting heavy casualties on the Germans.

The Soviet radio reported that Marshal Semeon Timoshenko's Ukraine armies had smashed the German first-line defenses before Kharkov and were advancing on the city itself, imminently threatening the key Nazi stronghold.

All winter, Kharkov has been a major obstacle in the path of Soviet counter-drives.

Red Forces Large
The Russians said masses of Red Army reserves had gone into action for the first time against Kharkov, and declared:

"Everything is being abandoned by the Germans in great quantities on the field of action."

The Soviet dispatches said Marshal Semeon Timoshenko's offensive thus appeared to have surprised the Germans who have held Kharkov since last October, and not only forestalled a major German assault but to have laid the foundation for freeing Kharkov. All winter, the city has been a major obstacle in the path of the General Soviet counter-drives.

On the Leningrad front, the Moscow radio said that despite mid-winter Russian troops with tank and air support had broken the first German lines and captured many important positions in the secondary lines in a continuing advance.

Four Divisions Added To Army, Stimson Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of War Stimson announced Thursday the Army had ordered formation of four more infantry divisions and the staging this summer or large scale, realistic field maneuvers which will place "emphasis on the offensive."

The divisions, latest of 32 to be added this year to the expanding land forces, will be organized in September. Six others already are in process of formation.

The new units and their posts are: 49th Division, Fort Custer, Michigan; 96th, Camp Breckenridge, Morganfield, Kentucky; 102nd, Camp Maxey, Paris, Texas; and 104th, Camp Adair, Convalles, Oregon.

All are reserve divisions, heretofore existing only on paper. The nucleus for each will be organized about June 15 and assigned to parent divisions for training until about August 1 when they will be available for their own divisions.

Stimson said the Army field maneuvers would provide "the most thorough training ever developed for American troops," stressing air-ground operations, desert fighting, jungle fighting, operations by small task forces, and night maneuvers.

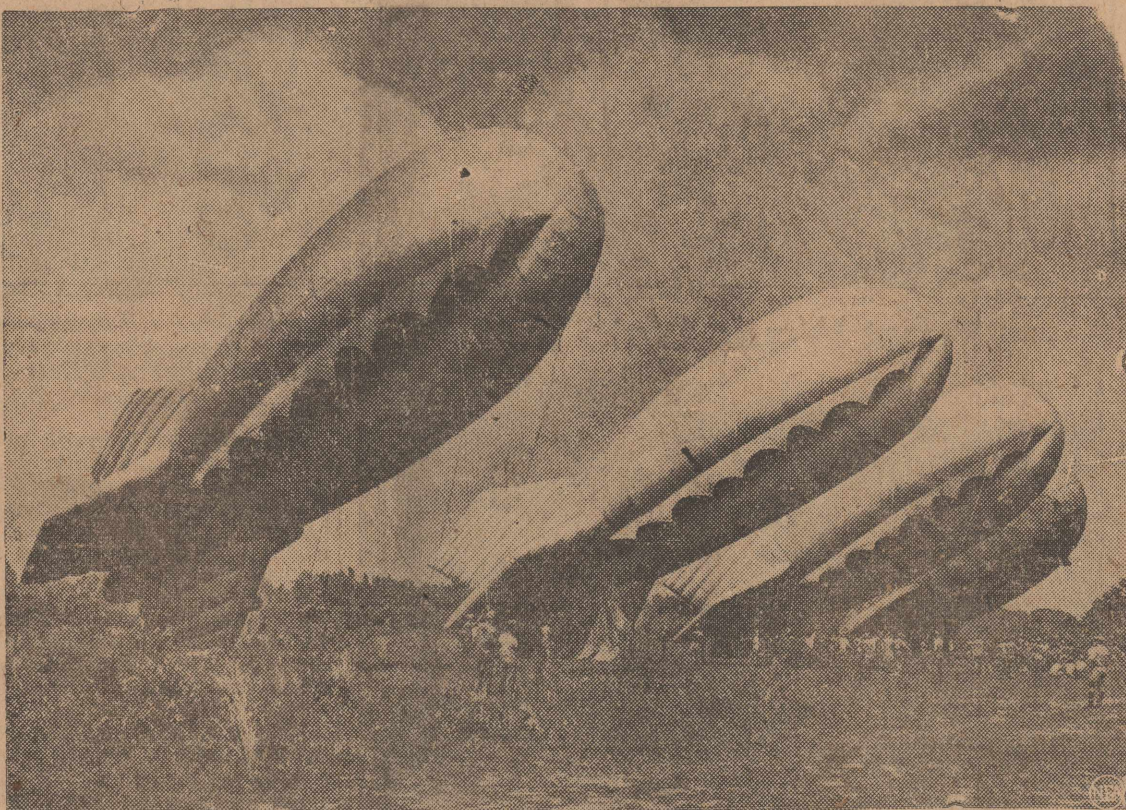

Beginning the last week in May and extending through the first week of November, the intensive training schedule was arranged so that the use of Army air forces and the armored force would not conflict. Four maneuver areas will be used—the Southwest desert training center, Louisiana maneuver area, the North and South Carolina area used last fall, and Camp Forrest, Tenn., and vicinity.

Besides saving the government "embarrassment" in certain cases "which we must continue to take," such as men who married recently, Hershey said, the legislation would "make a great deal of difference" in morale.

It would, he said, remove much worry over financial matters which now naturally disturb a drafted man with dependents.

None of the three services represented endorsed a section of the

Texas Oil Pipe Line Needed, Ickes Says Seeking Material

George M. Shelton Is Named Chairman Of Rationing Board

George M. Shelton, oil operator, Thursday became chairman of the Midland County Rationing Board, succeeding Don Davis.

Davis resigned because of ill health.

Shelton took the oath of office as a member of the board and was selected chairman. His appointment was confirmed by Mark McGee, state OPA director.

Other members of the Midland County board are R. C. Crabb and R. B. Cowden.

Taylor Installed, Venable Elected By Texas Medicos

HOUSTON (AP)—Dr. Charles S. Venable of San Antonio was elected Thursday to head the State Medical Association in 1943-44, succeeding Dr. Judson L. Taylor of Houston, who began his term as president Thursday.

Dr. Taylor will serve until the next annual convention in San Antonio, which probably will be held in May, 1943, it was announced.

Other officers elected for 1943-44 included Dr. Howard Wells of Waco, a vice president.

Councillors reelected included Dr. R. E. Windham of San Angelo and Dr. A. L. Hathcock of Palestine.

Dr. E. H. Cary of Dallas, the only Texan to have served as a president of the American Medical Association, was reelected a delegate to the A. M. A. with two others, Dr. A. A. Ross of Lockhart and Dr. H. R. Dudgeon of Waco.

WAR BULLETINS

LONDON.—(AP)—RAF pilot officer Mark Dennett, from Little Rock, Arkansas, was at the controls of one of two Hudson planes which bombed a pair of enemy vessels Wednesday night off the Norwegian coast, leaving one afire and the other a total wreck.

TOKYO (From Japanese Broadcasts)—(AP)—A large Japanese merchant vessel has been torpedoed and sunk in the eastern part of the South China Sea by an enemy submarine but the submarine itself is believed to have been sunk, an official announcement said.

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND.—(AP)—Thousands of fresh Canadian troops newly landed from an Atlantic convoy reached camps in Southern England for advanced training and the Canadian First Army moved a step nearer its final shape.

Even Nazi Distrust Japanese Reports

BERLIN (From German Broadcasts) (AP)—Rear Admiral Lutzwow, German naval spokesman, said Thursday in a weekly talk over the Berlin radio that first Japanese reports of the Coral Sea naval battle had greatly exaggerated Allied losses.

House Swinging From Sales To Income Tax Hikes, To Affect All

WASHINGTON (AP)—Strong behind-the-scenes administration pressure was reported Thursday to be making heavy inroads against sales tax sentiment among House Ways and Means Committee members who already have decided to lower personal income exemptions to bring millions of new wage earners into the tax fold.

One informal poll showed that a once-substantial majority for either a retail or manufacturers' sales tax had disappeared and that the present lineup was 13 to 12 against such a levy.

The trend away from a sales tax was emphasized Wednesday when the committee decided tentatively to cut the present $750 personal income tax exemption to $500 and the $1,500 exemption for married couples to $1,200. Under the plan a single man earning as little as $10 a week would have to file a tax report.

Members said that such a big dip into the ranks of low-income workers who formerly were tax-exempt probably would preclude the possibility of a sales tax which most factions concede would fall most heavily on that class of workers.

Meanwhile, an authoritative source said formal rationing by cards would become effective in the Pacific Northwest, probably June 1, when the 50 per cent curtailment order for deliveries becomes effective in Oregon and Washington.

Texas Forces Penalty
Told that Texas had delayed acceptance of recommendations on crude oil production curtailments, Ickes told newsmen that if the state failed to comply, "we could ask WFB to issue an order, which would provide penalties."

He expressed the opinion that such an order could be enforceable against the Texas Railroad Commission and oil producers.

George Gibson Tells Rotarians Of Desert Country Conditions

Conditions in Egypt and other countries along the North African coast were explained to Rotarians at their meeting Thursday in Hotel Scharbauer by George Gibson, geologist, who spent 20 months in the area searching for oil.

With illustrations of people, animals and living conditions in the desert countries, Gibson told Rotarians of the customs of the Egyptians and Arabs and of their life.

Percy Bridgewater, president-elect of the club, reported on the recent Rotary district conference at Wichita Falls and said "Rotary has a great part to play in the coming year."

Condemns Commission For Hiking Allowable; May Penalize State

WASHINGTON (AP)—Petroleum Coordinator Ickes said Thursday that any expansion of gasoline rationing areas generally would depend on whether the government decided to use this means of saving rubber and that there was no need now for broadening restricted areas "from a petroleum point of view."

He told his press conference that the construction of a 1,500-mile pipeline from Texas to the New York-Philadelphia area was the "only sure solution I can see at the moment" for the eastern petroleum shortage, and announced a new application for steel for such a line would be sent forthwith to the War Production Board.

Talk Ration Area
Congressional circles were speculating on the possibility of nationwide rationing of transportation and extension of the gasoline rationing, now in effect in 17 Eastern States and the District of Columbia, to the rest of the nation by July 1.

Asked how long he thought gasoline rationing would last, Ickes responded, "how long do you think the war will last?" and added:

"The best we can do is accept the fact that we have rationing, and we have to go along with it, perhaps indefinitely."

The actual defendants, topped by the giant E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Company, are Americans, but the indictment named as co-conspirators the leading chemical companies in Germany, France, Great Britain, Switzerland and Japan along with some satellite corporations in South America and Canada.

Retarded War Work

Thurman Arnold, justice department anti-trust chief, said that a world-wide cartel had "not only resulted in high prices to the American consumer but also has retarded the full development of the chemical industry which is essential to our war effort."

"One of the principal means of the conspiracy," Arnold said in a statement, "has been restricting production of chemical intermediates from which dyes are made and from which important munitions, particularly explosives and plastics, could be made."

Other officials said that the case, an outgrowth of the exhaustive inquiry into patents and chemicals, was the most far-flung anti-trust action this far and rivaled in importance the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) case which was settled recently by a consent decree freeing thousands of patents for general use during the war.

Industrial Teachers Leave Texas Schools

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas schools will need more than 100 industrial arts teachers at the beginning of the fall term.

Vacancies created by teachers entering the armed services and federal and industrial war-time jobs have created a serious shortage of teachers in vocational schools, says James R. D. Eddy, director of vocational education in the State Department of Education.

Ship Sunk, Planes Hit In Bomber Raids; Jap Navy Seeks Revenge

Jap Navy Leaders Lied About Battle, Now Must Make Good Or Commit Suicide; So Allies Bolster For New, Larger Assault

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Australia—(AP.)—Lashing out suddenly at the western flank of the Japanese invasion bases north of Australia, Allied bombers Wednesday night sank a 3,000-ton Japanese ship at the former Dutch island of Ambonia and damaged two others, General MacArthur's headquarters announced Thursday.

At the same time other Allied air raiders attacked Rabaul, New Britain, on the enemy's opposite flank, plastering shipping in the harbor and raining explosives on 15 Japanese bombers surprised on the airfield runway, a communique said.

The new Allied blows emphasized warnings by Australian leaders that the battle of the Coral Sea has not ended the peril facing this continent and that only continued assaults upon the whole vast network of Japanese bases to the northwest and northeast can avert invasion.

The attack on Ambonia, former Dutch naval base, represented a round-trip flight of more than 1,800 miles for Allied raiders attacking from Northwestern Australia.

No Allied losses were reported in either raid.

WASHINGTON (AP)—American military experts, intrigued by Tokyo's solemn but hollow claims of a resounding Coral Sea victory, concluded Thursday that such boasts could only drive the Japanese admirals to a grand-scale assault on the approaches to Australia in an effort to save face.

Two Dead In Wichita Falls Hotel Blaze

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Two men leaped to their deaths from the top floor of the seven-story Texas Hotel early Thursday as it was leveled by flames.

Ten other persons routed from their beds by the fire were injured.

The dead were identified as: W. W. Collier, 52, of Fort Worth; Chester F. Windell, 47, of Dallas.

The fire spread to the Studio Hotel, a 4 1/2-story adjoining structure, but apparently was under control by mid-morning. The loss was estimated at $100,000.

None of those on the injured list was reported seriously hurt or burned.

Eight Big Firms Indicted In Dye Monopoly Charge

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department announced Thursday that a federal grand jury at Trenton, N. J., had indicted eight corporations and 20 of their officials on a charge of world-wide conspiracy to monopolize the manufacture and sale of dyestuffs.

The actual defendants, topped by the giant E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Company, are Americans, but the indictment named as co-conspirators the leading chemical companies in Germany, France, Great Britain, Switzerland and Japan along with some satellite corporations in South America and Canada.

Thurman Arnold, justice department anti-trust chief, said that a world-wide cartel had "not only resulted in high prices to the American consumer but also has retarded the full development of the chemical industry which is essential to our war effort."

UNCLE EF

Apparently there are still a lot of people who need to be snapped out of the "they" state of mind in their war thinking and acting. You've probably heard some of them saying "they are doing this wrong, they are making the gas shortage out worse than it is—they, they." It doesn't seem to me there's room for any more spectators in this war. It'll have to be a "We" war, if we're to win.

That 'Peace Offensive'

Rumors of an Axis peace offensive, popping up like spring flowers since Adolf Hitler's strange speech a few days ago, have had little effect on Washington officials closest to the situation—except to make them even more wary than before.

From diplomatic channels came reports that Germany was seeking Swiss aid in opening peace negotiations with both England and the United States.

Rumors multiplied that Italy is near collapse, that Mussolini is about to be banished. Japanese and Russian diplomatic relations were said to be improving, hinting at an effort to terminate Russo-German hostilities.

But there was no evidence that Washington was taking the reports seriously. In fact, experts said that in the case of Mussolini, available information seemed to point away from his ouster, rather than toward it.

There's no doubt that conditions in Italy are worse than bad. The people are on near-starvation rations. Black market grafters are reaping a harvest and inflation threatens peasant saving. Despite these facts, the well-informed don't think Italy will desert the Axis right now.

It's possible that Mussolini instigated the rumors about his precarious position himself, to win bolstering concessions from the Nazis. The rise of Laval, and the possibility that France might take its place under him as the No. 1 Nazi stooge ahead of Italy, may have inspired Mussolini to remind the Germans that he's still capable of high nuisance value.

The German army's rescue of floundering Italian forces made a deep impression on the Italian populace. However, much they dislike the Germans, the Italians have a healthy respect for German arms. It's thought unlikely that they'll stage a real revolt until the German military machine has been discredited by a major defeat.

Few doubt that Italy eventually will blow up in Hitler's face when the going gets tougher. Right now, though, it's the consensus of observers that the Germans are still too strong and that Mussolini still has too much power to make the time ripe for a defection from the Axis.

Silver Bullets

"Save and serve for victory!"—that is the battle cry in plants and factories all over the country today. Industry is not only concentrating on turning out the weapons of war but is also waging an all-out effort to promote the sale of War Bonds.

Already more than 80 per cent of the 8,000 firms representing the membership of the National Association of Manufacturers have payroll savings plans in operation. The majority of officers and employees have invested heavily and are now being asked to invest as much more than 10 per cent of their incomes as they possibly can.

We all have our part in winning this war. Hoarding money keeps weapons from our fighting men. Our efforts to arm them must know no waste, no squandering of assets. In this struggle the idle dollar is like a soldier asleep at his post.

A War Bond is an investment for the future. Ten per cent of a yearly income is a small loan to the maintenance of our glorious traditions and to our effort to see that these traditions and our American way of life shall continue. Our contribution toward such a cause transcends obligation and sacrifice. It is not only our duty to respond to our nation's cry in time of need; it is also our privilege—a privilege to share in the attainment of the victory to which we are pledged.

Winning this war is going to take the mightiest effort America has ever made—in men, in materials, and in money! Every dime is a silver bullet, every dollar the wings of our planes, to be turned against the foe.

Tighten Up

Both Congress and the armed forces are treading treacherous ground in connection with the commissioning of civilians who lack formal military or naval training.

The Army and Navy needs thousands of experts not available in uniforms or procurable through normal processes—men who require no facility in close order drill to perform their assigned tasks. Still, it is notorious that relatively high grades are given the new men.

A reasonable tightening up by the Army and Navy would remove any legitimate excuse for the sort of ban which Congress threatened.

Serial Number May Decide Plane Fate

AKRON, O. (UP) — The serial number of two airplane tires recently recovered from the sea near Pearl Harbor may uncover a hidden chapter in the history of early trans-Pacific aviation.

The tires were manufactured during the middle 1920's and were picked up on a beach near the great naval base by a member of a Marine aircraft group. They were still attached to a shattered airplane landing gear which had been in salt water many years.

Serial numbers of the tires have been received by the manufacturers, the B. F. Goodrich company here, and efforts to trace identification of the user have begun. It was believed identification would be difficult because tires of the same size and type were sold for both military and commercial use during the twenties.

It was suggested that the tires may have been on one of the two planes lost in the Dole flight from the Pacific Coast to Honolulu in 1927. The "Miss Doran," piloted by Auggie Pedler, and the "Golden Eagle," piloted by Jack Frost, were lost in the race to Hawaii.

The two were picked up by State Highway Patrolmen after they were involved in a traffic accident near here. They were traveling north in an automobile.

Guest Artists Win Praise From Midland Audience In Concert Presentation At High School

Music lovers of Midland were afforded an unusual treat Wednesday evening when Miss Mary Louise Beltz, head of the voice department of Mary Hardin-Baylor College at Belton, was presented in concert accompanied by Miss Willa Mae Kelly of the college faculty. The recital was presented at the high school auditorium under auspices of the Civic Music Club.

Enthusiastic applause from the audience called the contralto back for repeated encores and also recalled the pianist for additional numbers.

High points in the singer's program were her two arias, one from "Samson and Delilah", the other from "Carmen", and two modernistic numbers by Charles.

Midland musicians praised the brilliant performance and skillful interpretation of the visiting artists as well as their attractive stage appearance and their graciousness toward the audience.

The concert, proceeds of which will go toward purchase of musical equipment for Midland Army Flying School, was reported a success, both financially and otherwise.

After the program, an informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cornelius, 706 W. Ohio, honoring the two musicians.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Official Washington has its eyes on the political contest getting underway in Texas, wondering who will come here to represent the Lone Star state in the Senate in the six-year term beginning next January.

There's lots of speculation as to how things will go in a three-cornered fight involving Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, seeking re-election; Dan Moody and Federal Judge James V. Allred.

Friends of Lyndon Johnson Wednesday at Austin spiked speculation that he would get in the race. Alvin J. ## Good Health Is Your Key To Loveliness

By Alicia Hart
NEA Service Staff Writer

Clear-skinned, bright-eyed beauty won't fade in wartime—if you maintain excellent health. The loveliness of your nails, figure and hair also depend upon your vigor and well-being of your body. Not every girl can be a siren, but if her health habits are above reproach and she knows how to dress and make up, she certainly can be attractive.

If it has been years since you've had a physical examination by your physician, try to see him soon. This is especially important if you are contemplating dieting, strenuous exercise of massage routines, or a heavy load of new activities. An annual check-up is standard practice among professional beauties—Hollywood stars, for instance.

You should have at least an annual dental examination, too.

HYGIENE RULES MUST BE FOLLOWED

And every woman should follow the few basic rules of hygiene conscientiously, for her beauty's sake as well as for her health's. Be scrupulously clean from head to foot, of course; eat vegetables, salads, milk, orange or tomato juice, meat, and cereals daily, and don't count less than eight hour's sleep a night's rest.

Buy the right makeup for your complexion and practice putting it on correctly and quickly. You'll have fewer beauty preparations now, and they should be wisely chosen, applied regularly and carefully.

Whether you have two costumes or twenty, you needn't be even slightly dowdy. Make up your mind to it—that's all it takes to be the energetic, competent, glowing health type that more and more embodies the ideal of wartime American beauty.

CARIBBEAN CRISIS

BY EATON K. GOLDTHWAITE

COPYRIGHT 1942, NEA SERVICE INC.

MacDowell hesitated, hefting the revolver. His eyes masked his thoughts now, the veiled, cunning eyes of the paid manhunter.

THE STORY—After six years on a little Dutch island in the Caribbean, Bill Talcott is to be relieved of his branch manager job with an American chemical firm and join the Army. His successor, Halsey, arrives with an auditor who immediately charges Bill with a $168,000 shortage in his accounts. Bill, innocent, is furious. That evening June Paterson, cousin of Bill's college roommate, goes for a walk with Halsey, whom she has met on the boat. Bill warns her to be careful but stays behind with a stranger named MacDowell.

"YOU'RE A DETECTIVE"

CHAPTER III

TALCOTT was at the door when MacDowell moved suddenly, blocking his path. "Let 'em go," the mustached one grinned. "If I know my women, that one can take care of herself."

Talcott stood tensed, glaring down. "You may be a very smart man where you come from, Mr. MacDowell, but you don't know Abas Island!"

MacDowell shrugged. "Why all the ruckus? She's got Halsey with her. And believe me, he's the kind that don't scare so easy. Or maybe," MacDowell sucked at his teeth, grinned knowingly, said, "maybe you go for her yourself, huh?"

Bill ignored the thrust, stepped back and slapped his hands. In immediate response a shadow loomed from the darkness of the terrace behind MacDowell and the mustached one turned defensively.

Bill said quietly, "Zuckra white man and missy go out against my orders. Make Sebastian follow them."

The black boy nodded, said, "Yes, baas," and disappeared into the night.

MacDowell exhaled with relief, wiped sweat from his face, bit off the end of a cigar and remained in place before the door. "What is this?" he drawled. "Mean to tell me nobody can take a walk around here?"

"You may take all the walks you like. It so happens that there are several hundred blacks on the island, and they're bad sometimes. Miss Paterson will be the first white woman that some of them have ever seen. I wouldn't care to be responsible for what might happen."

MacDowell's face became gray and the unlighted cigar sagged. "Good Lord, man, why didn't you tell us before? If I'd known it was like that, I wouldn't've stopped you!"

Talcott smiled icily. "I presume you were afraid I might prevent Halsey from telling Miss Paterson something I wouldn't want her to hear."

"Maybe," MacDowell hedged. He found a match, popped it into flame and dragged on the cigar. "Who's this g'ay Sebastian that you sent after them?"

"My overseer. He's half native. Under usual conditions the men will obey him."

MacDowell frowned and glanced uneasily at the terrace. "Suppose we ought to follow them?"

Talcott didn't answer. Indicating a chair he said, "Sit down. It's time you and I had a little talk. In my correspondence with Federal Chemical, Halsey and the auditor are accounted for. Your name was never mentioned. I want to know who you are, and your purpose on Abas Island."

The directness of the attack caught the mustached one completely off guard. His eyes rounded, his facial muscles sagged and his mouth made an O. "You mean," he said, wetting his lips, "you don't know who I am?"

TALCOTT leaned forward until his calloused big-knuckled hand rested on the other's knee. "You are not an employe of Federal Chemical and you're not an auditor. I might have thought you were a traveling companion, but I doubt if Halsey and Struthers are seeking company just now. So what is your connection?"

Sweat showed above the mustached one's collar and the cigar revolved in his mouth. His face, for a moment, became even grayer. And then, unexpectedly, he laughed.

"That's pretty good!" he chuckled. "You claim you don't know why I'm here. For a minute you had me going!"

Startling as it was, the change of front served only to increase Bill Talcott's cold wrath. "I doubt if it has occurred to you," he said icily, "that this frameup of the missing vouchers is as weak as water. By merely lifting a finger I could have the lot of you tossed in jail. Have you ever seen one of our tropical jails, Mr. MacDowell? They have no roofs, and the sun boils down and there are rats and scorpions—"

"Threatenin', are you?" Ugly red crept through the gray of MacDowell's cheeks. "And I thought you looked like a decent kind of guy. Why, you cheap crook!"

"Be careful how you talk," Talcott said calmly. "It happens that for every one of those vouchers there are two facsimiles. One is in the possession of the steamship lines that carried the nitrates, the other with the Netherlands government official who collects a tax on every pound taken from the island. The remittances have all been made to New York and the bank in Willemstad has a complete record." Bill Talcott leaned forward and his long fingers closed in a steel-like grip on MacDowell's knee. "You and your friends haven't a leg to stand on. Now, who are you and what is your game?"

"Leggo my knee!" MacDowell yelled.

Bill Talcott's strong fingers released with a disdainful movement and the mustached one rubbed vigorously. The words had brought to his face a mixture of doubt and surprise, and Talcott followed his opening swiftly. "If Halsey pocketed those vouchers thinking he could force me to remain here, he'd better devote some of his time to studying Federal Chemical procedure. Only he and Struthers had access to those records and one of them must be the thief. Now, where do you come in?"

MacDowell stopped rubbing his knee. Plainly, he was annoyed. Some deep-seated conviction of his was being rudely shaken. His eyes clouded and the black-out cigar sagged. As if weighing Talcott against some mental standard he sat. Then, slowly, his hand moved to his pocket. It came away, bearing not identification papers, but a wicked, snub-nosed pistol.

"You claim Halsey and Struthers rigged a game on you?" he grinned. "That's what they all say. I had you sized up for a decent sort of guy until you started to use threats. If you're innocent and got something to prove it like you say, I don't see what you're worryin' about. As for you not knowin' why I'm here, that's a laugh. Do I havta show you my badge?"

Talcott stared. "You're a detective?"

"You're startin' to get smart." A painful flush stole through Bill Talcott's cheeks. He might have guessed the man's identity. "Who hired you?" Talcott demanded.

MacDowell hesitated, hefting the revolver. His eyes masked his thoughts now, the veiled, cunning eyes of the paid manhunter facing his quarry. To MacDowell it didn't matter whether Talcott was guilty or not; he was doing a job for which he was being paid. His orders were to bring Talcott back if the auditor proved a shortage.

That worry vanished from MacDowell's mind when he saw Talcott's face. Strained, white, tense, alarmed eyes glaring into the darkness beyond the terrace. And then MacDowell heard it. Above the sighing wind in the palms sounded the sudden, imperative bleat of a whistle.

Small Industries To Continue; Large Will Make War Materials

WASHINGTON (AP)—The War Production Board took a leaf from Britain's book Thursday and adopted "concentration of production" as a means of keeping essential civilian industries operating for the duration of the war.

Using the $215,000,000 stove industry as a guinea pig, WPB gave small business a new lease on life by ordering large manufacturers of non-electric cooking and heating stoves to stop production July 31 and convert to war work.

After that date, all stove output will be concentrated in smaller stove companies, less suitable to conversion.

WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson said the order could be regarded as a clear indication of future policy toward civilian industries which cannot be eliminated entirely from a wartime economy. Following the outlines of Britain's methods, WPB will make every effort to keep small segments of such industries in production.

Texas Doctors Ask Administrator For Galveston School

HOUSTON (AP)—The house of delegates of the State Medical Association of Texas Wednesday night by a vote of 60 to 6 recommended appointment of an administrator to have full charge of the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston "in order to remedy the present situation."

The physicians passed a resolution rescinding the action of the association's executive council last July in favoring the retention of Dr. John W. Spies as dean of the medical branch.

Wool

BOSTON (AP-USDR)—Demand for domestic fleece wools was spotty and irregular Thursday with an occasional sale of medium three-eighths and one-quarter blood combing wool in mixed lots at about 52 cents grease basis delivered East. One lot contained mostly quarter-blood bright wools. Offerings in carload lots of quarter-blood bright fleeces at 53 cents in the grease were refused. One lot of Ohio Delaine of good average bright wools sold at 47 cents grease basis.

Smart-For Days In Town

Mollie Parris designed this navy shantung polka-dotted suit dress for days in town—days beginning with a Red Cross first-aid class and running through shopping on foot and taking tea to all ward headquarters. The durable material is belied by the embroidered lingerie ruffles. The slim skirt is very-WPB in its slim sweep, yet it has enough softness to afford comfort and grace. It's done by means of carefully shaped gores.

because it would reimburse the Treasury for the expense of examining otherwise non-taxable returns.

At one point in the press conference in which he revealed the proposal, Morgenthau suggested $5 as a suitable minimum, and estimated that the Treasury could collect $100,000,000 a year through this method.

"That's a tidy sum and we can use it," he commented.

Morgenthau said the committee's action in voting to reduce personal income tax exemptions on a scale differing from his own suggestions were acceptable to him.

He explained that his sudden reversal of position to favor reducing the exemptions came after he saw secret Labor Department studies indicating that persons in low income groups had a much larger proportion of the purchasing power of the nation than he formerly suspected.

This, he explained, made it seem necessary to remove through extra taxes some of the money that could be used to bid up prices of commodities.

Although declining to discuss further President Roosevelt's proposal to limit individual incomes to $25,000 a year, after payment of taxes, the secretary revealed that the treasury is about to use some Noting that the House Ways and Means committee rejected his request for modification of the income tax law on depletion of oil wells and other wells and mines, the Secretary said he would renew his request in the Senate.

Germans Said Executed For Anti-War Talk

MOSCOW (AP)—Tass, official Soviet news agency, reported Thursday that 19 persons were executed in Hamburg May 7 "for expressing anti-war defeatist views," and that numerous others were being arrested in Hannover, Schwerin, Braunschweig and elsewhere for voicing discontent at the war.

Tass said that according to Stockholm reports from the German frontier German Storm Troopers were being called home from the front and new units were being formed and given intensive training in street fighting because of Nazi fear of serious international disturbances.

cut the supply line to Australia, therefore, he has only to call up reinforcements and try again in the same theater, in some other area leading to the continent or else along the vast island chain guarding the supply line.

If the Japanese admirals do not attempt to follow up the first battle with another attack in which they would hope for a smashing success soon, then they must not only give up any immediate plans for isolating or invading Australia but must also risk a face-losing exposure to the Emperor of their wishful thinking about the battle already fought.

One theory is that the admirals in actual command of the Japanese forces did not want to commit harakiri over their defeat, as the first Japanese commander in the Philippines is reported to have done, and so invented a victory.

Was Bad Defeat.

The Navy's reports here and dispatches from Allied headquarters in Australia have made it clear that the Coral Sea fight ended in defeat for the Japanese, whose scattered, battered forces fled in disorder. Their ships sunk or damaged totaled almost two dozen, including two aircraft carriers.

American and Allied losses have not been disclosed except that they were considerably less than the Japanese and did not include either aircraft carriers or battleships.

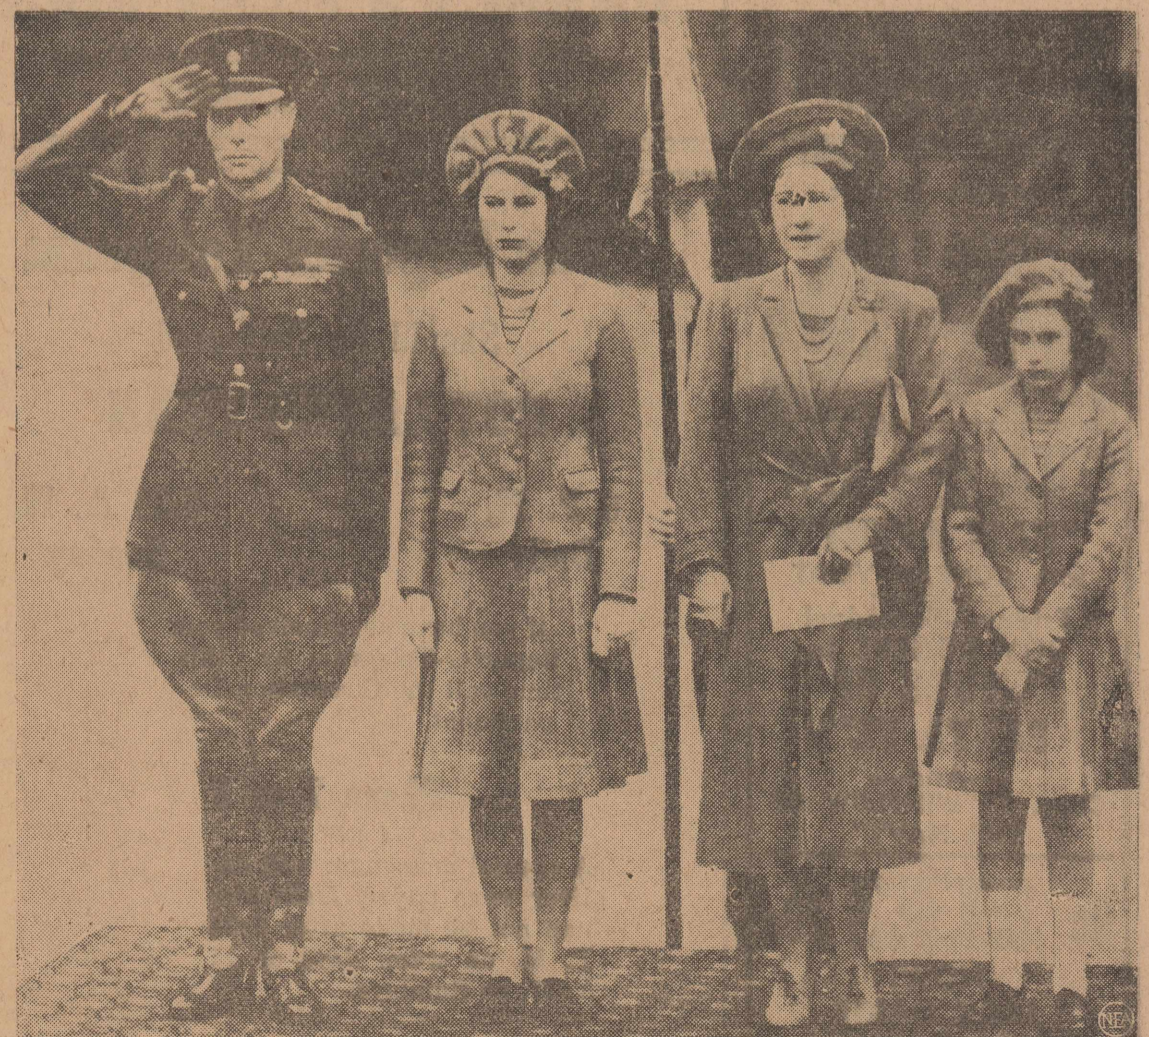

Shipping at British home ports in normal years runs between sixty and seventy million tons.

It's all over now but the shoutin' and maybe a little other fuss in general—a little fuss generally follows a Junior-Senior football game in any town. Juniors showed plenty of power in taking the 19 to 0 decision—power in all positions. Bill Richards is improving greatly in his ball carrying ability, and Robert Wheeler and Ivan Hall will be plenty hard to stop next season. Jimmy Watson did some beautiful pass snagging Tuesday night as well as some nice tackling, etc. Guards and tackles were working nicely on both offensive and defensive play, and Jack Taylor played a flawless offensive game at the center position. Junior Bird tackles for keeps so it seems. He was tearing 'em up Tuesday night. Marshall Whitmore is as good a blocking back as anyone could want. In fact, the Bulldogs of Midland High will be heard from plenty next season.

Sounds Sewery—But It's True
Alas, winner of the Freakness Stakes last Saturday and of ten straight races as a juvenile, was bought by Albert Sabath for only $700 at the Saratoga sales. The day Sabath made the buy, Alas was just a bay colt that rated little attention. Now—yes, now—he has won purses amounting to well over $100,000 besides holding a half-dozen various championships. And, confidentially, from where I sit the slant I get is that he will win the mile-and-one-half Belmont Stakes, chum.

I Pick The Negro
Dizzy Dean—the washout of the big leagues last season—is at it again. Dean just won't be licked in the pitching racket. Dizzy is going to oppose the colored hurling wonder, Leroy "Satchel" Paige in a game at Wrigley Field, Chicago May 24. "Satchel" is pitting his Kansas City Monarchs, champions of the Negro American League for the past three years, against Dean's so-called all-star nine. When I think of "Satchel" Paige it reminds me of the old saying—"He did it before and he'll do it again." "Satchel" is one of the world's greatest pitchers, but due to him being a negro he was never allowed to play in the majors.

Table Tennis Tourney
The Midland Closed Table Tennis Tourney will start at 7:30 p. m. in the high school gym Friday. Very few civilian entries have been received by tourney director, Truett Fulcher, and deadline for entries is 6 p. m. Thursday. There are all those table tennis players that used to be here?—All of them are not in the Army. How about some entries, boys! It's all free.

Softball Chat
Details—financial and otherwise—of the Midland Softball League have all been "fixed" and everything is set for a flying start next Monday night. Six teams will compose the league since two of the proposed four Midland Army Flying School Teams have been withdrawn.

Golfing Tale
Eddie Wagner, Colorado Springs, Colo. high school coach, hooked three successive golf balls out of bounds. He found two of them on Policeman Homer Beattie's front lawn, and as he hastened to retrieve them, Mrs. Beattie called from the front porch, "Here's the other one. It bounced into the living room."

Old Jim Tobin Gets Three Homers While Holding Cubs To Five Hits

Browns Ready To Swap Some Players, As Get Heavy On Field Talent

By The Associated Press
The St. Louis Browns, who have absolutely no money to spend providing homes for transient ball players, have just purchased for cash a well-known and well-travelled combination first and third baseman named Ellsworth T. (Babe) Dahlgren.

The Browns already have a talented first baseman in little George McQuinn and an equally competent third-sacker in Harland Clift and no mirrors are needed to see that the Browns have in mind some sort of a deal.
This might assume any one of a number of shapes, because at one time or another almost every club in the American League has shown an interest in both Clift and McQuinn. But the most likely tie-up now would be with Washington, Detroit or Chicago. All three of these clubs could use Clift to advantage. The market on McQuinn has cooled off, but some National League clubs, notably the Boston Braves, could use him and waivers no longer seem an obstacle to inter-league trading.

May Hold Auction
The chances are the Browns will hold a private auction while the pennant contenders get steamed up to a prosperous pitch. Right now the races in both leagues are becoming feverish.

The Cleveland Indians halted the New York Yankees' seven-game winning streak Wednesday, 7-2, and moved within a half game of the American League leaders. Lefty Lovill (Chubby) Dean pitched sixth hit ball and handcuffed all the World Champions except Joe DiMaggio, who hit his sixth and seventh home runs.

The Detroit Tigers continued a bloodthirsty third, just a game and a half from the lead, by whipping Washington, 6-2, on the three-hit hurling of Hal Newhouser.

The National League squabbling was about equally furious. Curt Davis, the old right hander of the Brooklyn Dodgers, pitched a two-hit spectacle to turn back the Cincinnati Reds, 4-0.

Pirates Win Again
But the Pittsburgh Pirates, who open a three-game series at Brooklyn Thursday, remained 2 1/2 games in the rear by downing the New York Giants, 3-1.

The day's most sensational individual performance was contributed by big Jim Tobin of the Boston Braves, who not only pitched five-hit ball to beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-5, but hit three home runs to set a major league record for pitchers. His teammates made four errors behind him, but Ernie Lombardi and Eddie Miller also hit home runs.

The St. Louis Cardinals, who had been held to two runs in three games, unleashed a 15-hit assault to beat the Phils, 9-1, with old Lon Warneke pitching five-hit ball.

The Philadelphia Athletics captured their fifth straight victory by a 10-9 count from the Browns and ousted Washington from fifth place in the American League.

The Chicago White Sox set down the Boston Red Sox, 2-1, in ten innings for their third victory in four games. Broadway Charley Wagner and Johnny Humphries waged a scoreless pitching duel till the ninth, when each team scored once. Then Myril Hoag singled across the winning tally in the extra frame.

Big Spring May Get Wichita Falls Club

BIG SPRING (AP)—Neal Rabe, part owner of the orphaned Wichita Falls franchise in the West Texas-New Mexico League, was in Big Spring Thursday negotiating with baseball fans regarding sale of an interest in the club.

A decision is not expected before Friday when the Spudders go on the road after a six-day "test" stand here.

Tulsa Climbs Up As Beaumont Has Another Bad Day

By The Associated Press
A lusty challenge to the Beaumont Exporters' leadership in the Texas League arose Wednesday night in the form and person of the Tulsa Oilers.

Tulsa shut out Houston, 3 to 0, and advanced within half a game of the pinnacle when the Exporters lost to Fort Worth, 4 to 0.
It was hitting in bunches that gave the Oilers their victory. Henry Wyse, the Tulsa twirler, was reached for nine blows, but they were nearly spaced.

The Tulsa Oilers got seven hits off Al Brazle and scored in the second, fourth and eighth innings.

Fort Worth's win over Beaumont was largely due to the four hit chore of Ed Greer, whose mates cut loose in the seventh inning to score all their runs off Clyde Clarence Gann.

The San Antonio Missions, meanwhile aggravated the looming baseball shortage by smashing the apple for 14 knocks as they walloped Oklahoma City, 11 to 3.

IPA President Says No Gas Ration Need In Southwest Area

TULSA (AP)—Harold B. Fell, executive vice president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, criticized today the "emotional" thinkers who would impose gasoline rationing upon the whole nation.

There is no need for such rationing in the middle and southwestern states, he asserted, because gasoline is plentiful and those areas have no transportation shortages.

"We are hearing arguments," the IPA executive said in a statement, "that rationing should be imposed on all sections of the country alike because eastern consumers then would be willing to accept it 'with better grace.'"

Rotarians Return From Wichita Falls

Five Midland Rotarians have returned from Wichita Falls where they attended the annual district conference of Rotary International.

In the Midland delegation were Percy Bridgewater, Percy Mims, W. I. Pratt, Fred Wemple and Clint Lackey. Bridgewater is president-elect of the Midland club. Pratt is secretary and Wemple is a former district governor. He had a part on the conference program.

Charley Paxton of Sweetwater was nominated for district governor and Abilene was the only bidder for the next conference.

Soldiers Center Most Attractive, Delightful 'Home-Away-From-Home'

Kitchen, Library, Music And Other Attractions Draw Hundreds Of Men

By Kathleen Eiland
Midland's "Home-away-from-home" for soldiers, the WPA Soldiers Center at 218 N. Main daily is growing to be more and more just that.

Now there's even a cookie jar—a substantial two-gallon crock that fairly yawns (and yawns) for kind-hearted cookie makers of Midland to keep it filled with their crumby, munchie wares.

A new paint job, new curtains, four ceiling fans, and other equipment, and a complete new kitchen have in the last two weeks greatly increased the attractiveness and convenience and "homey" atmosphere of the center.

There's A Kitchen
The kitchen answers the soldiers' query "When can we cook?" with gas stove, refrigerator, and sink it is planned to provide the men in uniform with a place where they can do some cooking if they wish, as well as give facilities for the serving of large groups of men. Dishes for 30 people, 192 glasses, and a punch bowl set with four dozen other punch cups make the serving of refreshments on a large scale easy for the various clubs of the town or others who wish to complement the soldiers.

For the soldiers' own small parties, three small tables of the type used in drug stores and confectioneries, along with counter table chairs, provide convenient serving facilities.

Like coffee, soldier's There's a double coffee urn with a capacity of about 160 cups of the steaming amber drink.

The rear windows of the building, those in the table tennis game room and the serving area for smaller groups, have been curtained in gay striped material which adds brightness in both sunny and dark days. Thin light curtains for the big plate glass windows stretching

Nation Wide Ration On Gas Is Expected

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nation-wide rationing of transportation was forecast in congressional circles Thursday and some informed legislators said there were strong indications that the rationing of gasoline in 17 Eastern States might be extended to include the whole country after July 1.

As footsore easterners formed long lines around registration places for the third day to obtain ration cards that expire June 30, Senator Aiken (R-Vt) said he believed that before that date arrived plans would have been worked out to limit the use of domestic transportation systems.

He predicted that government control of the movement of all products carried by rail and water would be reflected in the rationing of gasoline on a nation-wide basis, a development Senator Downey (D-Cal.) predicted would come in any event.

Begging To Be Stopped On Monahans Streets

MONAHANS (Sp)—In an effort to curb begging, peddling and unwaranted solicitation of funds in Monahans, directors of the Chamber of Commerce are urging local merchants to refuse to contribute to any person who can not show a letter of approval from the Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber will investigate each applicant's need or cause before giving approval. F. H. Ryan, manager, said, but will not endorse any movement.

Stolz Backed By Cloak And Suiters For Bout With Sam Angott

NEW YORK.—They say Samuel Angott isn't a good fighter, but he has kept on licking what lightweights are around—Lew Jenkins, Bob Montgomery twice, Davey Day, Dave Costilloux, Aldo Spald, Boom Boom Mancini... a long line.

Angott—Sammy Angott in the ring—established a clear claim to the 135-pound championship by pasting a fading Coughnour Jenkins and then established himself as something of a New York attraction by smothering Philadelphia's highly touted Montgomery.

Now he places the title on the line in a 15-round shindy at Madison Square Garden, May 15, against a boy who easily could become one of the more magnetic cards in the history of the division—Albert Stolz, Newark artist.

Stolz Plenty Hot

Allie Stolz would be the first real class lightweight leader since Tony Canzoneri. Cowboy Jenkins was a child of ring fortune who didn't belong. Lou Ambers couldn't dent Judge Landis' old felt hat. Henry Armstrong was a mauler.

Stolz has it all with the possible exception of stamina. Handsome and highly intelligent, he gives Manhattan's tremendous cloak and suit industry someone to shout about for the first time since Bennie Leonard took his place among the immortals. Sid Terris didn't go far enough. Ruby Goldstein didn't like it. Al Singer couldn't take it.

But the cloak and suiters who made Bennah Leonard such a turnstile clicker have reason to suspect Stolz is the real thing. That is the principal reason why the scrap is expected to draw something like 17,000 spectators and $50,000—from $1.15 to $7.75.

Stolz Knows How

Stolz, 23, was out 15 months following an attack of sinus suffered a couple of years ago, so has made rapid progress since his recovery. The fourth of seven children, the sole support of the family, he is 3-A in the draft. A graduate of Newark Art School, he aspires to be a cartoonist.

Angott, who would have been a remarkable warrior in the old 45-round days, is 27. He does everything wrong, but gets there just the same.

It is a superlative boxer against a persistent and aggravating mauler, and a lively betting affair. The cloak and suiters hardly will let Stolz go to the post at worst than 5 to 7.

Stolz says he'll knock out Angott.

That's quite an assignment, but if Stolz doesn't run out of gas, Sammy Angott will know he's been to the wars.

Allie Stolz has the ammunition and knows how to unload it.

NEW YORK.—They say Samuel Angott isn't a good fighter, but he has kept on licking what lightweights are around—Lew Jenkins, Bob Montgomery twice, Davey Day, Dave Costilloux, Aldo Spald, Boom Boom Mancini... a long line.

Angott—Sammy Angott in the ring—established a clear claim to the 135-pound championship by pasting a fading Coughnour Jenkins and then established himself as something of a New York attraction by smothering Philadelphia's highly touted Montgomery.

Now he places the title on the line in a 15-round shindy at Madison Square Garden, May 15, against a boy who easily could become one of the more magnetic cards in the history of the division—Albert Stolz, Newark artist.

Stolz Plenty Hot

Allie Stolz would be the first real class lightweight leader since Tony Canzoneri. Cowboy Jenkins was a child of ring fortune who didn't belong. Lou Ambers couldn't dent Judge Landis' old felt hat. Henry Armstrong was a mauler.

Stolz has it all with the possible exception of stamina. Handsome and highly intelligent, he gives Manhattan's tremendous cloak and suit industry someone to shout about for the first time since Bennie Leonard took his place among the immortals. Sid Terris didn't go far enough. Ruby Goldstein didn't like it. Al Singer couldn't take it.

But the cloak and suiters who made Bennah Leonard such a turnstile clicker have reason to suspect Stolz is the real thing. That is the principal reason why the scrap is expected to draw something like 17,000 spectators and $50,000—from $1.15 to $7.75.

Stolz Knows How

Stolz, 23, was out 15 months following an attack of sinus suffered a couple of years ago, so has made rapid progress since his recovery. The fourth of seven children, the sole support of the family, he is 3-A in the draft. A graduate of Newark Art School, he aspires to be a cartoonist.

Angott, who would have been a remarkable warrior in the old 45-round days, is 27. He does everything wrong, but gets there just the same.

It is a superlative boxer against a persistent and aggravating mauler, and a lively betting affair. The cloak and suiters hardly will let Stolz go to the post at worst than 5 to 7.

Stolz says he'll knock out Angott.

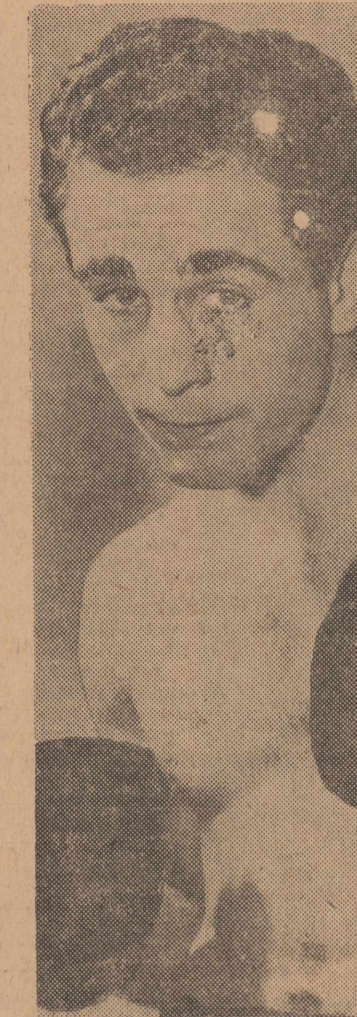

That's quite an assignment, but if Stolz doesn't run out of gas, Sammy Angott will know he's been to the wars.

Allie Stolz has the ammunition and knows how to unload it.

NEW YORK.—Note of unlimited optimism boxing commissioner Bill Brown figures that the gas shortage may be one of those blessings in disguise for the folks affected by it because it will teach them to use their legs again.

"When I first opened my health farm," Brown explains, "I used to send them 13 miles around the lake. Now I start them at three miles and they come in with their feet blistered."

The way Bill reasons, too many people have become too soft by too much riding.

Short Sports Story
The Yanks' Buddy Hassett, a working plumber during the off season, recently attended a pipefitter's beefsteak in the Bronx. During the festivities he encountered an old friend who remarked: "Buddy! I haven't seen you since we worked at Rome, N. Y., last winter. Where are you working now?" With becoming modesty, Hassett replied: "The Yankee Stadium."

Race hoss trainers will meet at Jamaica Thursday and vote on whether they should run their nags barefoot the rest of the season. This releasing for war use about 150,000 pounds of horse-shoe metal that they couldn't get anyway.

Today's Guest Star
Art Edson, Oklahoma City Times: "From Norman comes the panting word that Earl (Sand Burr) Briggs, Bethany third baseman, has made news by playing barefoot in the state baseball meet. And it wasn't too long ago that it wasn't worth an lick unless some kid with city slicker learnings showed up shod."

The home folks weren't greatly surprised to hear that Gerald "Goat" McCluete, former Tulsa U. athlete, had escaped from the Philippines to Australia. At Tulsa he was noted for his terrific play against heavy odds.

No Ceilings
In the first two games of the Denver high school baseball league this spring, there were 55 runs, 72 hits and 28 errors. One game lasted three hours and 34 minutes. Still the boys could hardly catch up to some Pennsylvania gl sluggers. In one seven-inning tilt Sunbury trimmed Northumberland 56-35 for a total of 91 runs and 71 hits.

To Start Table Tennis Tourney Here Friday

Midland's first Table Tennis Tourney is to get underway in the high school gym Friday at 7:30 p. m. With a host of contestants from Midland Army Flying School already entered and more expected before the entry deadline at 6 p. m. Thursday, it shapes up to be one of the largest tournaments in West Texas.

Few civilians have entered the tournament, it was announced by director Truett Fulcher. Fulcher urged that all civilians who play table tennis place their entries before 6 p. m. Thursday.

Special Features
The tournament is to run Friday night and Saturday night, with winner and runner-up being awarded medals.

Elliott Friedeman, national ranking player, is to give several exhibitions after tournament play is completed. Friedeman and a partner will play Midland High's Miles Stanley and Jack Simpson in an exhibition at the final event of the tournament.

There is no charge for entrance in the tournament, and no admission will be charged to see the players in action.

All entries in Midland should be given to Truett Fulcher of the WPA Recreation Department, and MAFS entries can be placed with Capt. Brown.

Ward County Bond Sales Are Pushed To Reach Quotas

MONAHANS (Sp)—Aimed at raising Ward County's quota of $15,200, a drive will get underway this week by the county bond committee to get each citizen to pledge a large amount of his income to War Savings Bonds and Stamps, and to purchase as many bonds as possible during this month. M. H. McWhirter, county chairman, will direct the campaign, and will be aided by a large number of persons in each community of the county.

A house-to-house canvass will be made by the workers, McWhirter said. A "kickoff" meeting is to be held this week-end to start the drive.

In the four months of this year, Ward Countians have purchased approximately $18,000 in bonds, McWhirter reported.

Members of the community committees are: Monahans, Glenn L. Ratliff, D. C. Sudderth, J. E. Middleton, Fred F. Snelson, Fern Tatum, E. R. Hill, M. L. H. Eaze, A. C. Bradley and Mrs. J. M. Scott; Grandfalls, George R. Bentley, L. R. Jackson, and A. C. Walker; Barstow, Ed Miller; Pyote, Theodore Thomas.

Extra-Lovely Sweets Make Engagement Party Gala Affair

Heart-designed cake icing is theme for announcement party.

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox NEA Service Staff Writer This is open season for announcement parties. Such heart throbbing affairs call for extra-pretty sweets, such as those given below.

ANNOUNCEMENT CAKE (Devil's Food Cake)

Two cups sifted cake flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup butter or other shortening, 1 1/4 cups brown sugar, firmly packed, 2 eggs or 3 yolks, unbeaten, 2 or 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each; then add chocolate and blend. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in two greased deep 9-inch layer pans or three greased 8-inch layer pans in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 25 minutes, or until done. Spread your favorite boiled frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake, reserving a small amount, coloring in pink for the heart decoration on top of the cake. Double the recipe for three 10-inch layers.

We, the Women

By Ruth Millett When President Roosevelt told the nation that our living standard would have to come down, he indirectly gave women a job to do. That job is to ease their families into a lower standard of living so that they will feel the jolt as little as possible.

To do that they will have to work harder than they have been working at the job of housewife—and that in many cases has been plenty hard. They will have to stretch dollars by their ingenuity, hard work, and old-fashioned economy. They will have to use judgment in knowing what to give up and what not to. It might be easier, for instance, to cut down on the milk and fruits they feed their families than to get the grown-ups to cut down on cigarettes. But the easy way will be most costly in the long run.

GUARDING HEALTH WILL BE IMPORTANT

They will have to conserve their strength, not utter it away. If they don't they'll never be able to manage all the things they have to do. And it will be up to the women to see that the family takes its "go-for without" and "give-up" cheerfully. They won't if Mama complains of the high cost of food every time she reads a grocery ad or says bitterly: "No, you can't have a new dress for the party—not unless your Dad increases my household allowance." That's the low—and it's a tough one—that a lower living standard will force on women. If they don't assume responsibility for it, their families and family life will suffer more than is necessary.

Stage Betrothal Is The Real McCoy

MINOT, N. D. (AP)—Here's one stage comedy that finally took. Pearl Hazen and David White, seniors at Minot State Teachers college, had been on-stage in the annual spring operetta for three years. Rut. That Snow Not Too Deep For Them

POPT COULINS, Colo. (AP)—Now that it is no longer in the weather person's secret this story can be told. A spring blizzard struck northern Colorado, just before the 45- to 65-mile-per-hour registered for several days. Some farmers arrived on horseback and afoot, over the snow-blocked roads, but three fellows came in on a huge tractor. It had taken them 17 hours to travel 30 miles from what they called "the frozen north country."

ple in today's hand, taken from the recent Masters Individual tournament, the declarer made a fine end play which saved his side 600 points. Of course, it was small consolation, as he was still set 2300.

West opened 1 trumps, figuring correctly that it was to his interest to reduce the play to no trump. South won, cashed the club king and led the deuce. West ruffed with the deuce of trumps. Then the jack of diamonds was won by the king.

South now exited with a spade. The defenders simply cashed good cards in the majors until both South and West were reduced to three trumps each. On the next lead by East, South had to be careful to ruff with the five.

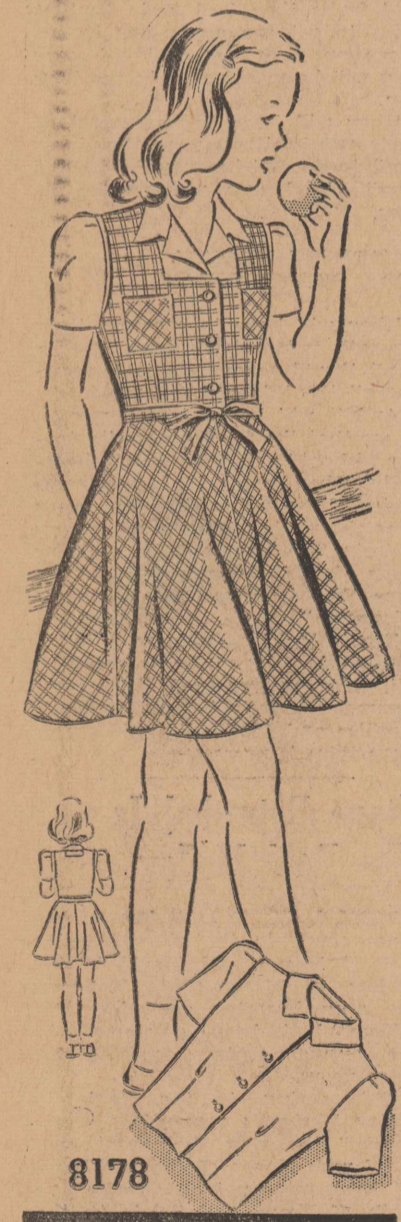

Had he put on the three, the four would have won and the ten-trick would have won the other tricks. As it was, his five forced the eight and West had to give him a trick with the seven.

California Aim Is Guard Like Britain's

SACRAMENTO (UP)—America's first large scale attempt to duplicate the English home guard is under way in California with a recruiting campaign for a "farmer's army" of 100,000 men and boys who will be trained for combat duty in the event of an actual invasion of the West Coast.

Unrelated to the state guard or any other group, this state militia is expected to draw from thousands of hunters and expert marksmen in rural areas of the second largest state in the Union.

Later, when the program is established in rural neighborhoods, it will be extended to cities, where an additional 100,000 or more men may be recruited.

Licensed by Governor Olson, men from 16 to 65 who can supply their own weapons, ammunition and uniforms are eligible for enlistment. They will receive no pay. Militiamen will learn to drill, care for fire-arms, handle traffic, throw hand grenades, perfect camouflage and otherwise train to repel parachutists, tanks or invasion troops in their home communities.

The companies will be licensed under the state military code by Gov. Culbert Olson. Local companies will choose their own officers up to the rank of captain. Above that rank, recommendations will be made to a board of appointing officers.

Agricultural extension service farm agents are being used as recruiting officers. Qualifications for membership in the "farmer's army" require that a prospective trooper be an American citizen or a national of one of the United Nations.

"We in California cannot be too well prepared," Governor Olson said.

Midland County Agriculture

Activities, Reports By Agricultural War Board

It takes one million dollars worth of food per day to feed the armed forces. Midland County producers will have to speed up production in order to meet their share of the national food goals.

For instance, for every five dozen eggs produced in 1941, we must produce one dozen more in 1942 to meet army and civilian demands.

How can this be done? BLITZ THE BOARDERS. Don't allow a few culls to sabotage your production program. Hens not laying, provided that they have been properly managed, should be sold.

WHY—

1. Fat hens are bringing a good price on the market.

2. Non-layers consume approximately 4 pounds of mash and three pounds of grain per month. At present feed prices this approximates 15c per month net loss on feed.

3. Non-layers take up room in the house, and if broody, they take up nest room, break eggs, and generally are a nuisance.

Don't let non-layers cut into your flock to bring the production average down to 40 per cent and the feed cost remains the same, then it costs 15.3 cents to produce a dozen eggs.

HOW TO DO THE JOB:

1. Make a small catching coop out of wire. The hens will go into a wire coop but they will shy away from a wooden coop.

2. Do this job in the late afternoon, if the birds can be housed at that time. This enables you to handle them after they have finished laying for the day.

3. Handle birds carefully to avoid undue excitement and possibly injury.

4. Do the job yourself. Don't ask anyone to cull your chickens. You can do the job and be better satisfied because no one knows your flock as well as you. If you need help get USDA Farmer's Bulletin No. 1727 from your county agent's office. Read it carefully. Study the pictures, then go through the flock and take out all hens which are not laying.

BLITZ THE BOARDERS AND INCREASE YOUR EGG PROFITS.

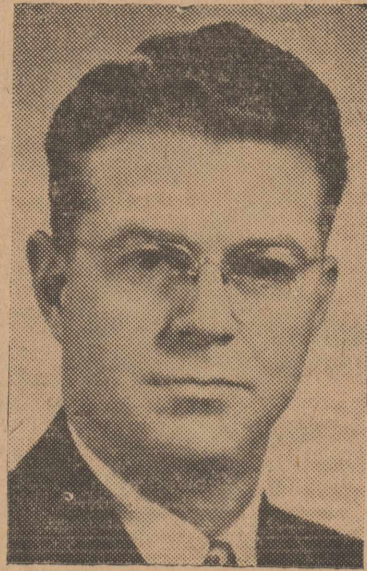

Word has been received in the AAA office that came CUT GREEN FOR HAY will qualify as minimum conserving acreage. Previous instructions had stated that cane cut after reaching the milk stage would not qualify, but the recent ruling

Gilmer Is Now West Texas Director For Farm Security Work

The new area director of the Farm Security Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, is Jesse B. Gilmer, a native West Texas. He succeeds Wilson Owen, recently appointed Commissioner to the United States Court of Claims, Washington, D. C.

JESSE B. GILMER

The Federal Agency's rural rehabilitation program over which Gilmer had charge includes all of West Texas, the state of New Mexico and the Oklahoma Panhandle.

The Area Office is in Amarillo. Born in Edwards County, Gilmer attended school in Texas and New Mexico. An employee of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, since 1934, his rise in the department has been phenomenal. He began as a clerk in the Department's land utilization program. He had served as assistant regional director in the Amarillo office since 1937.

The Farm Security Administration finances operation of low-income farm families and provides technical assistance and guidance in farm and home programs through the county office personnel.

permits the cutting of cane at any stage of growth if the stalk and foliage are still green.

Farmers who are breaking out sod land for 1942 crops should note the following: In order to receive full payment under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program 20 per cent of the 1941 measured cropland must be devoted to an approved soil conserving crop or land use. This means that the conserving crops must be on the land that was in cultivation in 1941, and cannot be on land placed into cultivation for the first time in 1942.

SALVAGE FOR VICTORY— America's War Factories need the following: scrap metals, old rags, old rubber, and waste paper. Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard has recently said that America's program "is seriously threatened by actual and impending shortages of iron and steel scrap. Farms have long been one of the most important sources of scrap metal. Therefore, it is a patriotic duty to see that the scrap be made available for use."

Every farm can get in the Scrap for Victory Program. So let's go TODAY.

The number of completions reported last week returned to the normal level of between 325 and 350, being 52 above the preceding week. Oil wells were up 36, gas wells 1 and dry holes 15.

Some time ago, OPC officials announced that exceptions to M-68 would be granted more readily in three classes of field than in others. These were shallow fields, salt domes and complexly faulted structures. As evidence that this loosening of restrictions is being gradually brought about are reports from Ohio, Illinois and Montana this week. The first more or less blanket exceptions were in the Appalachian area where there is a steady growing demand for Pennsylvania grade crude and gas. The announcement that the newly discovered Clayton pool in eastern Ohio would also receive a blanket exception was in line with the earlier ruling.

Some multiple sand fields, such as K. M. A., where strict adherence to M-68 would have prevented exploitation of deep flush pays were next relieved from the provision that only one well should be drilled on each 40 acre tract regardless of the number of pays involved. Next came a series of exceptions for the southern Arkansas sour-gas fields where the gas and byproducts were urgently needed. This week an Illinois congressman reports that OPC will soon recommend changes in the spacing program which will permit one well to as little as 5 acres in shallow fields. In Montana, operators in Kevin-Sunburst have been permitted to go ahead on a 20-acre basis.

The sum total of all these exceptions does not indicate a general nationwide removal of restrictions. Without exception, OPC appears to have based its rulings on market demand. Where the oil is needed, operators are permitted to go after it.

The suggestion made at the beginning of the year that allocations would be made on the basis of reserves after due consideration of market demand and allowance for stripper wells seems to have gone by the board. The transportation tie-up has, at least temporarily, compelled OPC to forget this phase of its regulatory activities. This will, of course, necessitate even greater postwar readjustments as the areas which are closest to the market will be more seriously depleted at that time and the areas whose production is now on a greatly reduced basis will be called upon to produce more oil than their share of the market last year gave them.

KANSAS: Bredford and Northeast Peace Creek are extended. The one-well Haller pool, producing from the Topeka lime, has a second pay—the Lansing-Kansas City.

WEST CENTRAL TEXAS: First production for Coke County is reported from a line in the Cisco, and two pool openers have been found in Coleman County.

OKLAHOMA: A new Wilcox sand pool has been found in Pawnee County and the West Earlsboro and Hotulke areas were linked by a good well in the Hunton.

ILLINOIS: A substantial increase in permits is announced and operators are heartened by a report of OPC proposals to permit drilling of wells less than 2,500 ft. in depth on closer spacing. Activity is increasing in the Boulder field in Clinton County and discoveries are reported in Franklin and Gallatin counties.

SOUTHWEST TEXAS: Glasscock's wildcat southeast of Mineral in Bee County is preparing to test the Hockleyensis while the discovery in the same pay west of Beeville made 14,000,000 cu. ft. of gas with some distillate. The South Caesar Wilcox production is limited on the east by a dry hole and another Carrizo-Wilcox test west of Tuleita is also dry. Exploration for this pay is continuing, however.

TEXAS GULF COAST: After elimination of salt water, Gulf-board's discovery south of Ganado, Jackson County, gaged 104 bbl. through choke. A showing is reported south of Magnet in Wharton County and a new Wilcox sand has been opened up in the Fred Field, Tyler County.

CALIFORNIA: A new heavy crude field has been opened up southwest of North Belridge. The pay is in the Templar and was found at a shallow depth. Raisin City's first big well produced at the rate of over 4,000 bbl. A new gas field has been opened up in the Petaluma area.

WEST TEXAS: Ellenburger possibilities are greatly enlarged as a result of two discoveries last week. In southwestern Andrews County, 40 miles north of any other Ordovician production a Phillips test flowed over 100 bbl an hour on test. In Ward County, 12 miles northwest of the Sand Hills field, Shell got a deep Ellenburger well making a small flow after acid. A new Permian basin lime pool is in prospect south of Shipley and east of #### South Ward.

LOUISIANA GULF COAST: A new deep sand has been found on the northeast flank of West Gueydan.

MICHIGAN: Monroe production has been found in the Adams field 3 miles west of the pool opener in that pay. Oil is reported from the Dundee flanking the Everts gas field in Oseola County.

WYOMING: Superior's Tensleep sand discovery well at Pilot Butte pumped 375 bbl. a day on a 2-day test. Extensions are recorded for Oregon Basin and Wertz.

EAST TEXAS: The south offset to the Concord discovery in Anderson County is running high.

ARKANSAS: With the Midway field widening as new producers are found to the southeast, Barnsdall is starting a test 3 miles north and west of the discovery well on what some believe is a parallel structure.

NORTH TEXAS: Jack County's reported Ellenburger discovery near Post Oak is showing water. A Grayson County wildcat northwest of Sadler is showing oil in a formation tentatively classed as basal Strawn.

Sweet And Cool

Both the Army and Navy boys seem to like iced coffee—with cream and other lovely accompaniments.

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox NEA Service Staff Writer

SULTRY days ahead. Better begin brushing up on new ways to make the old standby—iced coffee—even better.

You don't have to a gourmet to prepare iced coffee well. All you need are several long glasses, a pitcher, some ice cubes, coffee and ice cream, whipped cream or other ingredients you may wish to use.

When making iced coffee for your soldier guests, remember they like their drinks rich. The extra cream, syrup or chocolate means extra energy. Here are three of their favorite iced coffee recipes.

HONEY COFFEE SMOOTHIE

Add 1 teaspoon honey to each 3/4 cup strong, hot, freshly made coffee. Pour into glasses half filled with ice cubes, and add a tablespoon of cream. Top with a big spoonful of vanilla or mocha ice cream. Serve with sipper spoons.

COFFEE MAPLE CREAM

Add 1 1/2 tablespoons maple syrup to each 3/4 cup strong, hot freshly made coffee. Pour into glasses half filled with ice cubes. Top with a big spoonful of sweetened whipped cream or ice cream. Serve with sipper spoons.

COFFEE CHOCOLATE FRAPPE

For each person to be served, combine 3 tablespoons chocolate syrup with 3/4 cup strong, hot freshly made coffee. Pour into tall glasses half filled with ice cubes. Top with a big spoonful of sweetened whipped cream or ice cream. Serve with sipper spoons.

And here are a few hints in making iced coffee. If you put your ice cubes in the coffee, make the coffee double strength or else melting cubes will weaken it. Better yet, prepare coffee ice cubes

GETTING AROUND THE LAW

During the Gay Nineties, a North Carolina law forbade the operation of freight trains on Sunday unless they carried livestock. In order to comply with the law and still keep its trains running, one railroad carried a mule on each freight.

The state of Wyoming has nearly 20,000 livestock brands on record.

MENU

BREAKFAST: Orange juice, oatmeal, raisin, toast, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Grilled frankfurters, shredded cabbage apple sauce, cup cakes, tea, milk.
DINNER: Lamb stew with spring vegetables, hot biscuits, prune and cream cheese pie, coffee, milk.
