

WEST COAST PUT ON GUARD AS MORE JAP AIR RAIDS EXPECTED

US Sub Sinks Jap Transport

12,000 Jap Soldiers Believed Lost; All Jap Subs In Sydney Attack Sunk; Allied Cargo Ships Attacked By Japs

By The Associated Press.
Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced Thursday that an Allied submarine had sunk a 6,000-ton armed transport with the probable loss of 12,000 Japanese troops in the waters of the Southwest Pacific, while four Japanese midget submarines were listed as sunk in the abortive raid on Sydney Harbor last Sunday.

Previously, only three of the tiny two-man Japanese undersea raiders had been reported sent to the bottom by harbor batteries and depth charges.

In addition to the Japanese troopship, United Nations headquarters said an Allied submarine sank two heavily-laden Japanese supply ships and damaged a third. A communique also reported that Japanese submarines operating close off the east coast of Australia attacked three Allied cargo ships and sank one of them, but indicated that the other two escaped undamaged.

Amid these thrusts at Australia's shipping, suggesting an attempted blockade of the down-under continent, the war on China's east coast raged on with mounting fury.

China Plight Bad

A Tokyo broadcast asserted that Japanese offensives were forging ahead in three Chinese provinces—Chekiang, Kwangtung and Kiangsi—and that Japanese troops had broken through the outer defenses of Chusien, key rail city in Western Chekiang Province.

A Japanese Army spokesman said Japan's opening of a new front in Kiangsi Province "serves as a final warning" to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese armies to give up their "meaningless resistance or accept the alternative of annihilation."

The Chinese, who have repeatedly scoffed at such overtures through five bloody years of war with Japan, said 50,000 Japanese troops were being thrown into the Kiangsi offensive in a drive to seize the Kiangsi-Chekiang railway which leads into the heart of China.

High-lighting the gravity of China's peril, two top-ranking American officers in the Far Pacific arrived in Chungking by plane for conferences with Generalissimo Chiang. They are Lieut.-Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, Commander of Chinese forces in the lost battle of Burma, and Maj.-Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, Commander of U. S. Army Air Forces in India.

Shoot Jap Officers

Meanwhile, the British War Office disclosed new evidence that Japan may have been planning to seize the strategic French Island of Madagascar off the coast of Southeast Africa, now partly occupied by British troops.

The war office said two Japanese naval officers had been shot by a British patrol Monday at a village north of the British-held Diego Suarez Naval Base.

"When called upon to surrender, they opened fire on the British patrol and were shot," the war office announced.

Gulf-Wentz 3 Millar First Cambrian Sand Prospect In District

By Frank Gardner
Oil Editor.
First Hickory, middle Cambrian, sand production for West Texas has been indicated by Gulf Oil Corporation and L. H. Wentz of Ponca City No. 3. L. H. Miller et al, one-half mile northwest outpost to the one-well Wentz pool in Northeastern Pecos County.

No. 3 Miller, which had shown nothing on drillstem tests of the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, entered at 4,167 feet, went out of the Ellenburger at 4,376 feet into the Hickory. Coring was halted at 4,386 feet in sand and a one-hour drillstem test from 4,369-86 feet returned 280 feet of oil and 30 feet of drilling mud, with 25,000 cubic feet of gas. Operators have reamed 8 3/4-inch hole to 4,355 feet and now are running 7-inch casing. The Cambrian sand encountered by No. 3 Miller generally is called the Reagan sand in Oklahoma, the Hickory in the Central Mineral Region, and the Bliss, where it outcrops near El Paso. Gulf-Wentz No. 2 Miller et al, discovery well of the pool, is producing from the Ellenburger, having shown some water in the Hickory.

Heydrich Dead, Czechs Defiant, Expect Reprisal

BERLIN (From German Broadcasts) (AP)—Reinhard Heydrich, 38 reichsprotektor for Bohemia and Moravia, died in Prague Thursday morning of wounds suffered in an attempt on his life May 27, it was announced officially.

The assassination of the man known among scores of millions of Europe's oppressed peoples as "Der Henker"—"The Hangman"—is expected to bring about the shooting of hundreds of hostages in addition to the 163 already slain in swift reprisals, Czech circles in London asserted.

London sources declared Heydrich recently was appointed Gestapo Chief of Occupied Europe and it was pointed out ironically that

Salvage Committee Makes Final Plan Save War Materials In Clean-Up Move

The Salvage Committee, a part of Midland's Clean-Up, Fix-Up, Paint-Up, Fire Prevention, and Salvage Campaign, scheduled for June 7 to June 13, made final plans for the drive at a meeting Wednesday. It was announced by Clint Dumanan, Salvage Committee chairman. The Salvage Committee is to effect a county-wide drive to save vital war materials.

Ira O. Sturkie, Oscar Fowler, and Harlan Howell have been appointed as a committee to see that the drive is effected in rural districts of the county.

Sturkie and Fowler are to mail letters to every Midland County farmer and rancher, telling him of the drive and its purpose. Howell, supervisor of the Future Farmer of America Club, is to have the club boys dismantle any heavy machinery so as to make it moveable.

Boy Scouts To Help

George A. Heath, head of the Boy Scouts here, and Luther Tidwell, a worker with the Mustang Boys' Club, are to divide the city into sections and appoint a director for the drive in each section. The Boy Scouts and Mustang Boys are to make a house to house canvass of the town, telling housewives of the drive and what is needed most.

Star Will Shine Monday Night, At Gala Stage Show

A show with a star—a star of stage, screen, and radio—is a bright spot in anybody's entertainment roster—and that's exactly what "Three Dots With A Dash" means for the theater-goers of Midland.

Coming to the Yucca Theater Monday evening, this Sheppard Field soldier-produced musical review features Miss Jeanne Madden as its leading lady. All proceeds will go to the Army Emergency Relief Fund for distribution among the needy dependents of America's fighting men.

Miss Madden has won the acclaim of both critics and audiences for her work in the theater, the concert stage and the screen. Born into a musical family, she soon began study of the cello, violin and piano. But it was voice that interested her, and she had all the qualifications for a brilliant singing career. At the age of 16, she began serious study under the famous prima donna, Queen Maria.

As lovely as her voice, she soon appeared in the movies, starring opposite Dick Powell in "Stage Struck". After several pictures, she returned to the stage, sang the leading ingenue role opposite Walter Huston during the long Broadway and road run of "Knickerbocker Holiday."

Since that time, she has engaged in summer opera in New England, but, for the most part, has remained in Kansas City with her husband, Keith Martin, famous portrait painter. She came out of virtual retirement when she heard of the Sheppard Field musical comedy for the benefit of the Army Emergency Relief Fund. Volunteering her voice and beauty for the show, she flew from Kansas City for rehearsals. Already she has delighted audiences at performances in Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Oklahoma City, Tulsa and other leading cities, and she plans to remain with "Three Dots with a Dash" throughout its tour.

Miss Madden's voice, a lovely lyric-coloratura, is especially suited to the original songs of the show. Tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce and the Scharbauer Hotel.

Every seat in the theatre is a reserve seat, and those who wish to attend should see at once about tickets. They may be purchased at the Hotel Scharbauer cigar stand and in the Chamber of Commerce offices, in the Scharbauer Hotel.

Bremen Raided By Bombers Commandos Attack France

Inter-American Cooperation Plea Heard By Rotarians

The Inter-American Cooperation program was outlined to Midland Rotarians at their meeting Thursday noon by William M. Pearce, professor of history at Texas Tech, who is working with the federal government and the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce in the movement.

Pearce described Texas as "a trial state" in the program, asserting language apparently is the greatest barrier to the understanding of peoples. He told of the legislature's action in providing aid for schools, so conversational Spanish may be taught more students.

More Conversational Spanish

The speaker said 275 Texas schools provided instruction last term for approximately 70,000 students in conversational Spanish, and expressed a hope that the subject would be made available to 200,000 students in September.

Pearce asked a little more consideration be shown transient workers from Mexico when they are in Texas and predicted this would result in more consideration for Americans in Mexico.

George Heath, school superintendent, asserted Midland schools are making plans to offer conversational Spanish to more students.

Lieutenant Mance Hall of the Midland Army Flying School and a prominent Rotarian at Littlefield, was elected to honorary membership in the Midland club.

Quezon To Address Senate Thursday

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate prepared the way Thursday to follow the House in a declaration of war against Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria, but members watched with far greater interest a maneuver by administration leaders to avoid an immediate showdown on the politically-potent issue of a soldiers' pay increase.

With President Manuel Quezon of the Philippines scheduled to address the Chamber, Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky said he hoped action on a proposed motion by Senator LaFollette (Progressive) to bring the pay question back before the Senate could be delayed.

British, Free French Rout Nazi In Egypt

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—British Imperial armored forces were reported Thursday to have routed Axis soldiers from a desert stronghold in a fierce engagement, while their Free French Allies held fast against efforts by Field Marshal Erwin Rommel to seize the key position of Bir Hacheim.

A Middle East Command communique said British forces, attacking at the "last light of June 2," drove the enemy out of Tamar, 21 miles southwest of Tobruk and six miles west of Knightsbridge, a center around which has occurred much of the fighting in this latest Libyan campaign.

"The enemy is known to have lost at least 14 tanks in this engagement," the communique declared.

The German field commander apparently desires to capture Bir Hacheim, southern end of a severed line which once extended to Ain El Gazala, to make impossible a British counter-attack from the tiny oasis, about 50 miles southwest of Tobruk.

There are British Indian troops at Bir Hacheim, but British sources said the main force consists of Free French Metropolitan Troops plus a battalion of the French Foreign Legion which now is about 85 per cent French.

Shell Officials Here On Tour Of Permian Basin

A group of officials of Shell Oil Company, Inc., are in Midland on an inspection tour of the Permian Basin area.

They include A. J. Galloway, Houston, vice president of the Southwestern division; H. Bloemgarten, New York, vice president of the Eastern division; R. B. Roark, Tulsa, vice president of the Oklahoma division, and E. G. Robinson, Centalla, general manager of the Illinois division.

H. J. Kemler, general manager of the West Texas-New Mexico division, with headquarters here, is accompanying the visitors to the various fields in which Shell has oil properties.

Commandos Raid Area From Which Germans May Launch Attacks

LONDON (AP)—British bombers heavily blasted Bremen, Germany's second seaport, and British Commandos fruitfully scouted the Boulogne-Le Touquet area of Adolf Hitler's French coastal defenses overnight, government agencies announced.

The Bremen raid, the 94th of the war, was linked with an attack on the Dieppe Docks and the Air Ministry announced that 10 bombers and two fighters were missing from the night operations.

A strong RAF force flew through moonlit skies to strike at Bremen targets—such as shipbuilding and submarine yards, docks, railways, steel works, oil refining installation, an aircraft factory—in a follow-up to the mass raids upon Cologne and Essen. Only Hamburg ranks ahead of Bremen as a German maritime center.

Nazi airdromes in occupied France and the Low Countries and the harbor installations of Dieppe, on France's Channel coast, also were attacked and mines were laid in enemy waters, the Air Ministry said.

Commandos Attack

Black-faced Commandos, escorted by Navy warships and protected in their withdrawal by RAF fighters, stabbed across Dover Strait after midnight on a reconnaissance raid officially declared to have produced "valuable information."

It was the second Commando thrust against the Boulogne-Le Touquet area, scouted before on April 22. Boulogne lies 25 miles south of Dover and Le Touquet is 15 miles farther south. Between them is a coast of dunes and marshes.

The force was described as a small contingent; casualties were officially declared to have been slight.

"The German high command said that its forces had repulsed an attempted British landing" on the occupied French coast and that German troops had captured "some prisoners and arms."

The Boulogne-Le Touquet area, 25 miles from England's Dover coast, is viewed by military experts as one of several areas suitable for an invading Allied Army.

Dutch Harbor May Indicate Shift Of Japanese Strategy

Slight Damage Done; Think Planes Came From Carrier; Stimson Warns All West Coast May Be Attacked

By The Associated Press.
WASHINGTON—Secretary of War Stimson predicted Thursday that Wednesday's Japanese air attacks on the Dutch Harbor Naval Base in Alaska were "not the only and last raids" to be expected on American territory.

The War Department Chief told his press conference, "I reminded you last week that raids were coming and I caution you now this is not the only and last raids."

Stimson declined, however, to predict where further attacks might be expected, telling a questioner he did not "care to go into that phase of the Japanese minds," and similarly fended off a question as to why the foe struck first at the Aleutian outpost.

His guarded comment came just before a scheduled communique by the Navy and he referred to this as the proper source of information, commenting, "you can readily see how the Navy's judgment as to secrecy must be paramount."

Defenses of North America from the Aleutians to Panama went on the alert against further enemy thrusts.

Brief official reports of these first air attacks on North American soil failed to indicate immediately whether they were mere hit-and-run blows or the opening phase of an organized grand assault on the northwestern stepping stone to Canada and the United States.

But Anthony J. Dimond, Alaskan delegate to Congress, gave this warning:

"I am afraid we may have a struggle on our hands to keep that area."

The first attack was by four Japanese bombers and about 15 fighters at 6 a. m. Alaska time (11 a. m. Central War Time) Wednesday, and lasted about 15 minutes.

Dimond said he had heard nothing direct from Alaska on the raids, but expressed fear that there were too few defending planes to beat back a sustained series of attacks in case the Japanese opened a large-scale offensive such as the Philippines invasion.

Seattle On Guard

Civilian defense leaders at Seattle warned the public to reread air raid instruments and prepare for a possible blackout. In California the Los Angeles County defense council issued an emergency alert, calling for sharp vigilance and readiness for instant action.

Canal Zone Alert

Military authorities at Balboa cancelled all leaves and passes of soldiers and sailors in the Panama Canal Zone. The alert status there was intensified.

Experts said the Japanese fighters in the first raid must have come from a carrier, but there was a possibility that the bombers came

THE WORST OF MEN ARE OF PROFOUND INTEREST TO GOD: For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.—Luke 19:10.

Your Cooperation Is Needed

Mr. and Mrs. America gradually are becoming acquainted with a brand-new baby—price control. Before long you'll become more familiar with the infant. You'll find him mainly in your familiar retail store, at the grocer's, the butcher's, the druggist's, or the drygoods merchant's.

We have price control to make certain that the war does not bring a tragic rise in the cost of living, a rise to heights which would mean suffering for many.

Price control is our charter of security, but next time you go marketing remember that your cooperation is needed to make it work smoothly.

First, there are a number of exceptions of foods not covered by the new OPA maximum Price Regulation. These include seasonal foods such as fresh fruits, vegetables, fish and game which do not come under the ceiling because it is virtually impossible to figure out previous maximum prices, in view of their wide variety and the different times they come on the market.

Also, don't be surprised if you find different prices for identical articles in different stores. Each storekeeper is entitled to set his prices at the highest levels he charged in March and he may quite legitimately ask 15 cents for a can of corn while his competitor down the block asks 13 cents. You still can shop around.

Retail service charges come under the roof, too, but will not be affected until July 1. Remember, they are controlled only if they are performed in connection with a commodity—automobile and radio repairs, dry cleaning, laundry, shoe mending and the like. Personal and professional services, such as hair-dressing or dental work, will not be included even on July 1.

Don't try to be an amateur price policeman. Be patient and tolerant with your shop-keeper, cooperate with him in making the plan work. Study the provisions of the price order. Only flagrant and unmistakable violations should be reported to state and regional branches of the Office of Price Administration.

Protect Your Heritage
These are not ordinary days. Business is not being carried on in the ordinary manner. There is little hope for past and present standards of value as we have known them.

But if the people can determine that above all else, after the war is won, they must maintain the right of a man to make his own living free of domination by labor, business or government, we will have nothing to fear.

The best hope of this country lies in men and women who are aware of what we must save—not profits, not position, not social security—but the right to work for oneself in the light of freedom. Net earnings may disappear entirely under the stress of war, or under the stress of destructive political agitation. But that loss is minor compared with the loss of the rights of individuals to carry on individual enterprises. There can be no freedom in this country without free enterprise. Outside of winning the war, the biggest thing we have to fight to save is our right to do business as free agents.

Most of us will have less net earnings from now on, but that is of infinitely less importance than perpetuating our right to make earnings, no matter how small, as the result of our individual work and ingenuity.

Don't Envy The WPB
When you have to sit at home for lack of tires and your coffee tastes bitter, and you hear there may be a shortage of golf balls, and life seems hardly worth the living, don't envy the War Production Board.

That group's latest undertaking is to standardize cosmetics. They propose to ban some as non-essential and curtail others. They talk of eliminating certain shades and colors. Ye gods! Think of the howl that will go up when a thousand women who have doted each on her distinctive perfume go to the store, and find—let us say—only two dozen different odors to be had. We'd hate to be in the WPB's Division of Industry Operations on that terrible day.

The Only Bomb He Fears!

Significance Of Jap Alaskan Raid

By DeWitt MacKenzie, Wide World War Analyst
Key to the significance of the Japanese attack on our naval air base at Dutch Harbor, up among the top-shrouded and inhospitable Aleutians off the Alaska Peninsula, lies in the strength employed in the second raid and the amount of damage done, if any—points on which we have no information at this writing.

The first raid with four bombers, protected by fighter planes, was a mild affair. If the subsequent assault was of like kind, the Japs obviously weren't attempting a major operation but likely were staging a nuisance raid for its propaganda value at home and abroad and its possible effect on American nerves. It may easily have been a face-saving reprisal for our recent devastating raid over Japan.

In any event, Seattle gives us the good news from Rear Admiral Freeman, commander of the 13th Naval District at Seattle, that Dutch Harbor wasn't taken by surprise and was prepared to meet the attack. That is as might be expected in view of the great strategic importance of these defenses which are vital to the protection of this northwestern approach to our continent.

Irrespective of whether the present Jap attack was a minor operation, it may be expected that sooner or later they will make an all-out drive against these defenses. The position was summed up in Washington by Anthony J. Dimond, Alaskan delegate to Congress, like this:

"Of course, it shows good sense and judgment on their part if they can bust up what we are doing in Alaska and the Aleutians. They believe their greatest danger lies in the approach to their shores which we are going to make from Alaska."

The danger of attack from this region isn't the only reason, however, why the Japs are anxious to deliver a knockout blow to Dutch Harbor. It is quite on the cards that they harbor ambitions to take over this base and establish themselves in the Aleutians as a preliminary to further attacks on Alaska and the rest of the Western Coast of the North American continent.

The Nipponese must have been operating Wednesday from an aircraft carrier, because their nearest base is too far away to permit of such a raid. Still, that contained no element of surprise for the American defense. As a matter of fact, the only surprising thing which thus far has appeared is that the enemy should strike with such light forces at first, thereby putting Dutch Harbor even more on the alert. One would have expected the Japs to have made their initial blow a hard one.

Wednesday's raid might have some propaganda value to the Axis, which can do with a bit of up-lift right now, in view of the Nazi position in Russia and Libya and the terrific air raids which are being staged over Germany by the British. Also, the face-saving aspect of the situation is of mighty importance to Tokyo, since this is their first answer in kind to General Doolittle's grand raid over Japan.

There is also another possible reason for the Dutch Harbor raid. The Japs may have hoped that this would result in the American authorities diverting defense forces from the West Coast to Alaskan waters, thus giving Nippon a chance to stage against our West Coast one of the raids of which Secretary of War Stimson warned us the other day. However, it may be said that this is rather a naive hope, since we are scarcely likely to be tricked that way.

Jap Attack-

from a land base. Dutch Harbor is about 1,800 miles from the northernmost of the Kurile Islands which stretch northward from Japan proper.

Attack Zone
Unalaska Island, on which Dutch Harbor is situated, is nearly 1,000 miles from the westernmost of the Aleutians, which in turn is some 700 miles from the nearest of the Japanese Kuriles.

Pending any official word to the contrary, Washington was inclined to regard the raids as either token reprisals for the recent American bombing of Tokyo and other Japanese cities or as thrusts to test American defenses.

But with the southwestern Pacific battle relatively quiet and the battle of Burma ended, officials familiar with the Northern Pacific pointed out that the Japanese have chosen a moment for the Alaska attack which could mean a shift in the direction of the war.

If the Japanese intend an attempt to establish themselves in the Aleutians either for a major campaign against the American continent or as a defense against United Nations attack from the north, they have at least another month of good flying weather. Summer fogs settle down on the north Pacific Islands in late July and August, and might hamper an Allied counter-offensive after the impetus of such an initial Japanese drive was spent.

Rear Admiral C. S. Freeman, Commander of the 13th Naval District, said at Seattle after the first raid that "this attack was not a surprise and the station was prepared to meet it."

the "Butcher of Moravia" died in virtually the same manner as hundreds of hostages he had ordered shot in France, Holland, Belgium, Norway, Poland and other countries during his hatred career.

A Czech source in London said automatic rifles used by two men to shoot Heydrich were from the ordinance of the disbanded Czech Army and possibly were dropped by parachute. The Czech government appealed by radio to the Czechs to stand firm against the Gestapo bloodshed and not disclose those connected with the shooting.

Forty-six more Czechs were reported executed Wednesday. Among the 183 thus far shot were 29 women.

The Berlin radio announced that Heydrich was wounded at 1 p. m. May 27 on the Berlin-Prague highway within the limits of greater Prague.

A reward of 10,000,000 crowns ($235,000 at the last quoted rate of exchange in May, 1941) was immediately offered for his assassins and martial law was proclaimed in Prague.

London reports said that Heinrich Himmler, Heydrich's immediate superior and chief of the Gestapo, flew to Prague and took personal charge of the inquiry into the shooting and retaliatory moves.

Quoting dispatch from Stockholm, Tass, official Soviet news agency, said last Monday that the Heydrich case had come as a thunderbolt to Hitler's circle of leaders and had touched off arrests in the German capital itself.

Also headed for deep zones, Atlantic Refining Company No. 1-A Texu, in West Central Andrews, is drilling at 5,465 feet in Clearfork lime in Northwestern Andrews, Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 H. O. Sims et al is drilling Clearfork lime at 6,712 feet. A short northwest outpost to the Fullerton deep Permian pool, Magnolia No. 2-11-37 B. B. Ralph estate, has passed 4,765 feet in lime, while Fullerton Oil Company No. 5 H. M. Wilson, southeast outpost, still is held up by fishing job at 2,057 feet in anhydrite and red rock.

Phillips No. 8 University-Andrews, virtually assured of Permian production in the West Andrews pool horizon, is standing at 4,480 feet in lime after cementing 8 5/8-inch casing at 4,269 feet with 200 sacks. Plug will be drilled Friday morning. In the same area, Phillips No. 5 is coring ahead below 4,225 feet in lime after a 30-minute drillstem test from that point up to 4,172 feet returned 500 feet of gas-cut mud. No. 6 is coring lime at 4,220 feet. No. 7 showed oil and scattered porosity in cores from 4,320-62 feet and still is coring.

Magnolia No. 1-26 University, east offset to the 178-barrel discovery pumper of the Mascho pool in Southern Andrews, is drilling at 3,850 feet in anhydrite. A north offset to the discovery, Skelly Oil Company No. 1-J University, has passed 3,765 feet in lime.

Nelson Names Oil Survey Committee
WASHINGTON (AP)—Donald M. Nelson, War Production Board chairman, appointed a special committee Thursday to consider the status of petroleum supplies on the Eastern Seaboard.

Wayne Johnson, Nelson's advisor on petroleum matters, was named chairman. The committee will consult with the Maritime Commission and the Office of Petroleum Coordinator Ickes in regard to recent pipeline recommendations made by the petroleum coordinator's office. The committee was instructed to report its findings to WPA as soon as possible.

Explosives Firms Indicted, Price Fixing Charged

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—E. I. Du Pont de Nemours and Company, five other explosive manufacturers and 10 of their officials were indicted by a federal grand jury Thursday on charges of conspiring to fix prices in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust act.

Also named were the Hercules Powder Company and the Atlas Powder Company, both of Wilmington, Del.; The Austin Powder Company of Cleveland; Illinois Powder Manufacturing Co., St. Louis; and The King Powder Co., Cincinnati.

The 10-page indictment contained charges that the effect of the alleged conspiracy was to "maintain the prices of commercial explosives and blasting supplies to all classes of consumers at high, arbitrary and artificial levels."

The indictment also charged that the defendants controlled 75 per cent of the total volume of commercial explosives and blasting supplies produced in the nation.

Paper Sack Bandit Trial Is Argued
ROBY (AP)—Testimony began Thursday in the trial of Rex Beard, Jr., charged with murdering Deputy Sheriff Wade Willis in an attempted Taylor County jail break Feb. 12.

The youthful desperado pleaded guilty when his trial opened Wednesday. The case was moved here on a change of venue.

The state is asking for the death penalty in the shooting. A jury of farmers has been chosen.

Beard is under several long prison sentences for a series of robberies in West Texas. He was called the "Paper Sack Bandit" because of the method he used to carry off loot.

Huge War Spending Grows, But Results Said To Be Rapid

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new, gigantic ship-building program and another forthcoming supply bill for an Army of 4,500,000 men probably will push this nation's war and defense appropriations for the past three years beyond the $200,000,000 mark within a month.

The total allotments already had mounted to $161,000,000 when the House Wednesday voted $2,797,499,740 for the Navy, Coastguard and Marine Corps.

Even as that bill was hurried over to the Senate for early action, Rep. Vinson (D-Ga.), chairman of the House Naval Committee, submitted a new $8,300,000,000 measure designed practically to double the size of the fleet by building more than 500 fighting ships.

Meanwhile, Congress awaited arrival of the 1943 Army Supply Bill in anticipation it would reach the Appropriations Committee within ten days. Congressmen in close touch with the War Department have estimated that it would bundle up Army needs amounting to close to $45,000,000,000, a new peak for an appropriation bill.

"The flood of weapons and munitions pouring from American factories, and now on its way to our Allies and our own forces at the front exceeds all estimates, and it is just beginning," declared Rep. Cannon (D-Mo.), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

"I can affirm with enthusiasm that the Mexican Army will do its whole duty."

Mexico Mobilizes For All-Out War

MEXICO CITY (AP)—President Manuel Avila Camacho promised Wednesday night that his government would leave nothing undone to hasten the triumph of the United Nations over the Axis powers but reiterated that Mexican troops would not be tolerated.

In a nationwide broadcast, the Chief Executive warned his people that victory depended on absolute unity and emphasized the need of stepping up production in industry and agriculture.

He declared that mobilization of civilian manpower would be necessary to win the "battle of production" and cautioned that interference with Mexico's all-out effort would not be tolerated.

Extreme measures, Avila Camacho said, may be needed in some cases to combat fifth columnists, but he promised that the extraordinary powers granted him by Congress would be used only against enemies of the country and that loyal Mexicans need fear no infringement of their rights.

The President said that the nation's armed forces were ready, and added:

"I can affirm with enthusiasm that the Mexican Army will do its whole duty."

P. D. Moore And Miss Ida Fuller Are Married

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Moore will be at home here this weekend, following their marriage at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning in the First Methodist Church in Commerce, Texas. The Rev. W. T. Whiteside, pastor, officiated at the ceremony. The bride is the former Miss Ida Jo Fuller.

Miss Aileen Trimble of San Angelo played the wedding marches, and Miss Mildred Morris played a violin solo.

The couple was attended by Mrs. F. S. McGuigan of Midland, sister of the bride; and by Mr. McGuigan, Midland geologist and former San Angolan.

Mrs. Moore conducted art classes in San Angelo until going to New York City five years ago, since which time she has been a member of the art faculty of Columbia University.

Mr. Moore is in the oil business. He moved to Midland from San Angelo in 1937 after five years' residence here. His old home is Owensville, Ind.

New Style Trend

Sheer and short—that's the smart pink and white pajama set shown above. Made of cotton, the top doubles as a blouse; the bottom as an undergarment. It's all part of a new style trend.

Linen Shower Honors Bride

Complimenting Mrs. J. E. Hill, Jr., who was Miss Jo Beth Fudge until her marriage a few days ago, Mrs. Bob Pickle was hostess for a linen shower at her home, 907 North D Street, Wednesday evening from 8 o'clock until 9:30.

Guests gathered in the backyard of the Pickle home for the party.

Donna Kay Pickle, small daughter of the hostess, and Jackie Ann Collie, little niece of Mr. Hill, brought the gifts to the honoree in a little airplane.

As Mr. Hill is now in training as an aviation cadet, the military theme was followed in a red, white and blue decorative motif at the refreshment hour.

The invitation list included: The honoree, Mrs. Bob Hill, Mrs. M. W. Collie, Mrs. Juanita Dorsey, Misses Aileen Maxwell, Leota Segars, Lillie Mae Stoval, Jane Marie Johnson, Betty Dickinson, Mmes. Waldo Grossman, Jack Rogers, Percy Morrison, W. W. Barker, Mrs. Parr, G. D. Fuller, Hudson Hanks, C. S. Sitton, Woodrow Beatty, Edward Mancill, Misses Jo Ann Montgomery, Dorothy Hamilton, Lee Johnson, and Mary Elder.

MIND Your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. Is it good manners to lean one elbow on the table while eating?
2. When you have finished with a dish should you push it out of your way?
3. When offered a dish you don't like, is it better to say, "I don't eat asparagus" or "No, thank you?"
4. Should one talk about his past illnesses at the dinner table?
5. Is it good manners to play with one's silver between courses?

What would you do if—
You are answering a formal invitation—
(a) Repeat the hour mentioned in the invitation?
(b) Don't repeat the hour?

Answers

MAFS Cadet And Georgia Girl Are Wed At Manse

Cadet Charles L. Reynolds of Midland Army Flying School and Miss Barbara Jane Gedney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gedney of Atlanta, Georgia, were married at the Presbyterian manse early Wednesday. The Rev. Hubert Hopper officiated at the ceremony.

Lieut. Joseph Burk of Midland Army Flying School, formerly of Atlanta, accompanied the couple. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Grace Reynolds of Maysville, Georgia. He attended Boys' High School at Atlanta and Atlanta Junior College.

Mrs. Reynolds is a graduate of North Fulton High School in Atlanta. For her wedding, she wore a beige dress with black accessories.

ARGENTINE CRUDE OIL PRODUCTION HIGHER

BUENOS AIRES (UP)—The National Petroleum Board announced that crude oil production during 1941 amounted to 2,226,800 cubic meters, or 12.8 per cent greater than that of the previous year.

Six Churches Take Part In Vacation School

With total enrollment reaching 153, including children and workers, the vacation Bible school at North Ward School is well underway.

Six churches are represented in the children enrolled as follows: Methodist 43; Presbyterian 35; Christian 21; Baptist 9; Episcopal 5; Church of Christ 2. There are two visitors.

Workers include: Methodist 10; Presbyterian 9; Christian 5; Episcopal 2; and Baptist 2.

Juniors who are studying Bible lands Wednesday heard a talk by Mrs. Geo. Gibson on customs and life in Egypt. She displayed a collection of articles from that country. On Friday Mr. Gibson will show moving pictures of Jerusalem to the group.

Intermediates Wednesday visited the Methodist, Baptist, and Christian Churches. Thursday they were scheduled to visit the Presbyterian and Episcopal churches and to hold their worship service at the Presbyterian Church.

Bluebonnet Club Meets At Home Of Mrs. W. E. Shipp

Mrs. W. E. Shipp, 607 W. Kansas, was hostess to the Bluebonnet Club, Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The time was spent in needlework and at the tea hour a refreshment course was served.

Present were: Mmes. W. W. Wimberly, W. A. Black, Brooks Pemberton, Frank Ingham, Mary S. Ray, and the hostess.

Dances Scheduled At Soldiers Center

The weekly square dance for enlisted men of Midland Army Flying School will be held at the Soldiers Center, 213 N. Main, Thursday evening.

From 7:30 o'clock until 8:30 o'clock, Mrs. John P. Butler and Mrs. Bert Ross will instruct those who wish to learn square dancing.

Afterward, the remainder of the evening will be devoted to the regular square dance.

A ballroom dance will be held at the center on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ruby Robertson of Stanton and Miss Wilma Lee Robertson of Lamesa are spending a few days in the A. C. Robertson home.

Baseball Kills Little Girl At Playgrounds

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A group of boys, violating a city playground rule against use of hard baseballs, were playing at one end of the field Wednesday. Approximately 225 feet away a circle of little children skipped through a folk dance. The pitcher wound up. The batter swung. There was a crack—a good, long hit, straight toward the dancing children. Edith Mae Brooks, 8, gasped, staggered and fell, her blue eyes wide with pain. The ball had hit her over the heart. A few minutes later, despite efforts to revive her by artificial respiration, she died.

Lew Jenkins' Wife Files For Divorce

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Suit for divorce was filed Thursday against Lew Jenkins charging the former lightweight champion with extreme cruelty.

His wife, Katie, charged the fighter beat her so badly in the summer of 1941 that she was confined to a Miami hospital for several days and that he struck her later in a New York hotel.

Mrs. Jenkins said that "fearful of her life" she left Lew in March, 1942. She asked that their Palm Island home be deeded to her as alimony and said that when they bought it a $6,000 mortgage was due and she had to meet the payments.

They were married in Durant, Okla., in May, 1938.

SERIAL STORY

CARIBBEAN CRISIS

BY EATON K. GOLDTHWAITE

THE PLAN IS REVEALED

CHAPTER XXI

A KNIFE this. Sebastian had been killed like this. A thrust from behind while asleep. Sebastian, MacDowell—the toll was mounting.

The call to the deck had been a decoy. An assassin had lurked there in wait. Already MacDowell was dead or dying. Only the lurch of the ship had saved Talcott. No wonder Struthers hadn't been worried about what would develop on Talcott's return to New York! At last the plan was completely revealed.

A trumped-up charge so ridiculous that Talcott would be completely willing to return and "face the music"; a dumb detective who would be so seaisick as to be unable to defend himself; so dumb that whatever they had told him would sound like gospel truth; so dumb that he could be eliminated at the proper time.

That was the final piece in the auditor's fabric. It was to appear that Talcott, unable to face disgrace, had murdered the detective and then jumped overboard.

Unsteadily he drew a shaking hand before his eyes and turned away from the horribly still form. Sebastian, MacDowell, Talcott almost—What was the end? With Talcott still alive, what would happen next? Up to now it had been perfectly planned, perfectly timed and executed. They had stuck him with a corpse. When he went to report it to the captain the story would come out.

He was, he realized, in as bad a position as if they had succeeded in tossing him overboard.

No. Not quite. He was still alive.

Who had been the assailant on the boat deck? Halsey? It couldn't possibly have been Halsey. Halsey was in the lounge, playing bridge with June Paterson and Martha Swenson and the doctor. And the attacker had been a smaller man than Halsey; strong though he might be, Talcott couldn't have disposed of Halsey so easily.

Who, then? Webber? Talcott recalled the business of the voices at the door. The more he thought of it the more positive he became that Webber had been on the outside of the door when a prearranged conversation was exchanged. It was the steward who had told him who Webber was supposed to be; that definitely lined the steward with Webber.

But, who was Webber?

"Think," he said vaguely.

"You've got to think. You've seen him before. Him or his likeness. A photograph, maybe—"

And then with stunning force it struck him. The gray-eyed man at the desk in the little room in Charlotte Amalie. The smudged copy of a photo made twenty years before. "This man is a Nazi agent; brilliant and unscrupulous. He speaks five languages as easily as if each were his mother tongue. We believe him to be in the Islands—"

Webber was Baron Gerhardt von Stampf!

It was now or never. Talcott leaved forward and in a quiet, conversational voice said, "MacDowell is dead."

The color drained from the blonde girl's lips, but other than this momentary lapse she suffered no loss of control. Halsey's jaw muscles knotted and a nerve beneath his left eye jumped. "You're quite sure?" he asked calmly.

"Positive."

"How was it done?"

"A knife."

Halsey carried it beautifully. Called, sharply, "Steward! Take Mr. Talcott's order and bring us another round!" and then, satisfied that they were not noticed by the other patrons, said, "Talcott, I think the time has come for us to lay all our cards on the table. We're as safe here as anywhere. But he had to act on it before Webber became suspicious.

The Nazi agent had gone out from his cabin shortly after the arrival of his "message." The message had been a blind; an opportunity for Webber to change places with the steward. Thus there were at least two against him. How many more? He could not tell.

Should he gamble and go straight to the captain now? It was the proper course, but he wasn't so sure. The majority of masters would, after listening to his story, put him in irons and then conduct their own investigation. Being in irons wouldn't gain him anything.

Nor could he ride to New York with a dead man as cabin mate. The steward would report it and he'd be in irons anyway.

Talcott slipped from his state-room. The corridor was deserted and he paused a moment before Webber's door. No sound. The bald-head hadn't come back. No use trying to break in. He adjusted his eyes to the light and knew what he wanted to know about him anyway.

On deck he walked rapidly, eyeing with apparent casualness the occupants of chairs. Martha Swenson and the ship's doctor he saw and nodded to them. Further along Professor Constantine was still curled up in sleep, this time with a blanket tucked around him.

In the lounge he saw Halsey and June Paterson over empty, ice-melted glasses. She saw him and a welcome light flashed in her eyes. "Oh! There's Bill Talcott!" So he went in.

Oddly enough, Halsey acted glad to see him. "How is our friend MacDowell getting along?" Halsey asked.

"It was now or never. Talcott leaved forward and in a quiet, conversational voice said, "MacDowell is dead."

The color drained from the blonde girl's lips, but other than this momentary lapse she suffered no loss of control. Halsey's jaw muscles knotted and a nerve beneath his left eye jumped. "You're quite sure?" he asked calmly.

Gas Rationing Would Curtail School Income

KERRVILLE (AP)—Gasoline rationing, by cutting state tax receipts, would cause a grave problem in the Texas educational system's operation and in caring for thousands of wards in eleemosynary institutions, said Governor Coke Stevenson.

The Governor, addressing directors of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association, declared that gasoline rationing would do more to damage the state's economic structure than any other single measure.

Stevenson said he considered the livestock industry one of the most important in the conduct of the war, not excepting munitions manufacture, "because you men are helping to feed the soldiers at the front, and food is as vital to an Army as munitions."

Stevenson, a ranchman, is a member of the association, the directors of which adopted resolutions asking the War Production Board to exclude short wool from the government's conservation order on the grounds it was not being used for military purposes.

Also adopted was a resolution supporting Stevenson's stand on gasoline rationing.

The directors' next executive session will be held in Mineral Wells in September.

Alien Has Cash But He Is In Jail

HOUSTON (AP)—Somewhere in Texas is a middle-aged Italian grocer who when he was picked up as an alien enemy forgot about $45,000 in cold cash he had cached in a half dozen Houston banks.

Assistant United States Attorney Miles Moss told about it Thursday.

The Italian ran a little corner store and lived on the premises. The FBI searched it in a recent roundup and found some contraband items, along with a picture of Benito Mussolini.

The Italian was taken to Moss' office and there filled out a questionnaire in which he listed his property as the store and a $500 bank account.

Making a routine investigation of the case, customs officers were more than a little surprised one day to run across a $10,000 bank account in the Italian's name.

The investigation continued until a total of $45,000 was found.

The Italian was then asked where in the name of Mussolini he had gotten all that dough and, recovering his memory, he said he had made it in the grocery business.

His wife, who was not picked up, is carrying on the business and the $45,000 is frozen, except for a small portion on which the wife can draw for living expenses.

The story was told to the alien enemy board, which promptly decided the grocer ought to be, and he was, interned.

Planes Collide, But Flyers Land Safely

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Two Kelly Field pilots, an instructor and an aviation student, escaped uninjured following a mid-air collision 17,000 feet above the ground 12 miles from the field.

Paul E. Meyer of Fort Wayne, Ind., an aviation student, glided his disabled plane back to the field where he was forced to land with the wheels up. The propeller on the plane was damaged so that he was unable to use the power of the engine, which was still running.

The plane piloted by Lieut. A. C. Duncan of Tampa, Fla., the instructor, went out of control after the collision and he jumped at 11,000 feet and parachuted to the ground safely.

The flyers were on a routine training mission, using oxygen equipment.

Manning New Youth Program Director

AUSTIN (AP)—The new deputy state administrator of the National Youth Administration is John P. Manning, state director of the NYA's division of student work.

J. C. Kellam, state administrator, announced Wednesday that Manning, a former superintendent of school at Robstown, will continue to serve as director of the division of student work in addition to his new post.

Airgraph Letters Now Available To Soldiers

LONDON (AP)—United States Army headquarters announced Thursday that American troops in the British Isles now will be able to send airgraph letters to relatives and friends at home.

The system is similar to that used by British troops in India and the Middle East. The letters are written on specially prepared blanks and photographed by a micro-filming process. The films are taken by bomber to Washington, enlarged by the War Department and forwarded to the addresses.

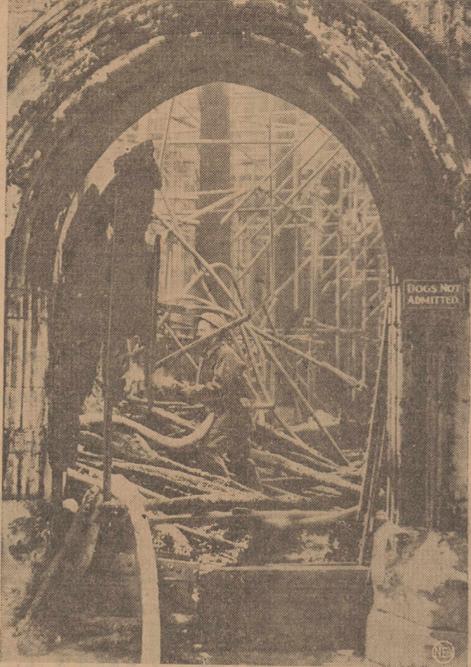

The use of such letters is not mandatory, but it would save hundreds of tons of air mail.

Construction Of Walls At Health Center Starts

Construction of the Midland Health Center is progressing rapidly, walls having reached full height. The walls are of tile.

Construction on the roof of the building is expected to start sometime this week.

Spite Bombings Wreck York Guildhall

Fire-swept wreckage of the 500-year-old guildhall at York, central England, is evidence Germans are still giving, as well as receiving bombings in the battle of western Europe. Note sign, "dogs not allowed."

Census Shows School Careers Short In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Without mentioning President Roosevelt's surprise at low intelligence ratings among many Army selectees, the Census Bureau reported Thursday that more than half the persons 25 years old or older in the United States had completed at least eight years of school by April 1, 1940.

The bureau reported the number of persons 25 years old or over in the country was 74,775,836.

Only 3.7 per cent had less than one year of formal schooling, but, on the other hand, only 4.6 per cent had finished college. Thus, those with less than a year in school totaled 2,799,923 and those with four or more years college numbered 3,407,331.

Bonham Wins Eighth In A Row, But Fans Sore, Should Have Been Shutout

Joe DiMaggio Gets His Eye Back, So Socks Out A Long Three-Run Homer

By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ernie Bonham, the undefeated righthanded pitching star of the New York Yankees, is getting too good for his own good. Jumbo won his eighth straight game Wednesday, 4-1, at the expense of the Chicago White Sox. He kept eight hits scattered, walked only two, and would have had a shutout except for a homer by Joe Kuhel in the seventh.

This pitching almost certainly would have satisfied the supporters of any other hurler in the majors, but the onlookers at Yankee Stadium were quick to size it up as one of Bonham's poorest performances of the season.

In the first place it wasn't a shutout. The big fellow had administered four of these in his first seven starts and by the time he had laid six goose-eggs out to end Wednesday some of the boys figured he should have had another.

Besides it was the first time this year he had allowed more than seven hits. And those two bases on balls, task task. He had yielded only five passes in seven games previously, and two in one game surely was slipping. But, Meet The Hero So Bonham won his eighth in a row and who do you suppose was the hero? Why Joltin' Joe DiMaggio.

He interrupted his batting slump to produce a three-run homer (his tenth of the season) for the margin of victory in the third inning and he also collected a single and made a spectacular play in centerfield to help Bonham out of a hole.

The Philadelphia Athletics brought the Detroit Tigers to a sudden stop with a 5-1 decision on Jack Knott's six-hit hurling.

The St. Louis Browns routed Sid Hudson with an eight-run assault in the second inning and went on to whip Washington, 9-5, dropping the Senators into the American League cellar.

In the National League the Pittsburgh Pirates received a reprieve from the weather man providing time to recover from the 17-2 shellacking they received the day before from the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Meanwhile the Boston Braves moved a game closer to the second-place Cardinals by capturing a 4-3 twilight struggle at St. Louis played before 11,447 fans for the benefit of the Army and Navy Relief funds.

Frank (Rube) Melton pitched and baited the Phils to a 2-1 ten-inning triumph over the Cincinnati Reds in a night game. He spaced six hits and doubled home the winning run.

Bombers, White's Auto Win Softball Games

The Midland Army Flying School Bombers and White's Auto softballers won games in the Midland Softball League played Wednesday night.

Pete Halford, ace Bomber hurler, hung out his fifth victory of the season against no losses in defeating the First National Bank team 7 to 1. Halford struck out 13 batters in the seven inning tilt.

White's Auto nudged the Midland Army Flying School Mechanics 3-2 in a game that was too tight to be comfortable for either team. Haines pitched the win for White's.

Interstate Compact Meet In Kentucky

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Governor or Leon C. Phillips of Oklahoma, chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, Thursday set Lexington, Ky., as meeting place for the summer session June 19-20.

Means by which oil reserves may be recovered with minimum use of steel will be a special study of the session.

Governor Keen Johnson of Kentucky invited the commission to meet in his state, which three months ago signed its adherence to the compact. Twelve oil producing states are now members.

Texas Teams Get Revenge, Even Up Day Before Score

By The Associated Press
The law of averages was at work Wednesday night in the Texas League.

Losers on the previous night got even—except Dallas—and the Rebels had one victory to match against their two defeats of the preceding evening.

It was another extra-inning go at San Antonio and the fourth in a row for the Rebels, who were trailing, 2 to 3, going into the ninth. They scored three and the Missions scored two.

Jorte's single and Landrum's triple broke it up in the tenth, with the final score 6 to 5.

Beaumont's Exporters made it square with the Tulsa Oilers with a 9 to 4 victory. Clarence Gann recorded his eighth win of the season.

Oklahoma City evened a series with the Shreveport Sports by winning, 3 to 2. Martin tallied the winning run on a wild throw by manager Salty Parker in the ninth.

Fort Worth, too, won by virtue of a run in the ninth, beating Houston 5 to 4 and making it a stand-off in the two teams' program to date.

The Buffs caught the Cats at four all by scoring twice in the eighth, driving Bain from the mound. Beddingfield, who finished, got credit for the triumph.

Twilight Golf Expected To Be Popular Pastime

DALLAS (AP)—Golf under daylight savings, thinks Graham Russ, veteran Dallas professional, is in for a boom during the coming year unless either of these things happen:

1. A halt in the present program of reclaiming golf balls.

2. General gasoline rationing.

The second is more serious right now for professional Ross, but the first would be more serious for the game generally. In fact, he says the first would virtually kill it for the duration.

"Gasoline rationing would mean most of the golfing would be at city courses that could be reached by bus or street car," Ross pointed out. "Clubs like mine (Glen Lakes) that are located several miles from town would just be out of luck."

But unless the plan of reclaiming balls is stopped Ross thinks the country should be able to go golfing on pretty much as before for at least a year. There should be sufficient equipment on hand, other than balls, for that period, he observed.

He already has sent in 4,000 old balls for rebuilding. This is done with a material (called balta) from South America on which there is no government restriction. It is a fine substitute for rubber and makes balls as good as new, Ross declares.

So if neither of those things happen, the Dallas pro looks for a big boom in golf because of daylight savings.

"Why the folks get through work several hours before sundown," he explained. "They have plenty of time for golf. In fact, I am going to hold a twilight tournament for my club next week. No one will start before 5:45 p. m. I see no reason why this can't be done, generally."

WOMEN TO SEW ARE NEEDED AT CENTER

The furnishings committee at the Soldiers Center requests that any Midland women who can sew and are willing to assist in work for the recreation hall come to the center as soon as possible, between the hours of 9:30 a. m. and 12 noon and 1:30 p. m. and 4 p. m.

Left Hander Does Things Sort Of Upside Down In Old Beak Busting Game

By Harry Grayson
NEA Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK.—Melio Bettina may never get a crack at Corp. Joseph Louis Barrow, but if he doesn't he'll quit the ring with a rare distinction.

Bettina will be the only man the distinguished corporal ever refused to fight.

The Beacon Light gladly would trade this honor for a whack at the crown, however, for in addition to professing to believe he has a chance, how could he possibly make more money faster?

It's entirely the fault of Bettina's parents, who neglected to turn him around as a child.

Bettina is, you see, a left-hander. "And I don't fight southpaws," says Corp. Joe Louis emphatically.

So Bob Pastor, Billy Conn, Lee Savold and possibly Tami Mauriello have Louis all to themselves.

LOUIS TACKLED FULL SHARE OF SPOILERS

I can't say I blame the Brown Bomber. He has a right to be choosy at this stage of the game.

He fought more spoilers than any heavyweight champion in history—the countering Charley Massera, the elusive Lee Ramage and Patsy Perroni, the awkward Hans Birke and the cagey Natie Brown, among them—several of them when he easily could have been retarded enroute to the heights.

This with something in the way of additional evidence that Joe Louis had something extra before he had full opportunity to prove it conclusively.

Why does an orthodox fighter object to tackling a southpaw? Because the lad with his right fist and foot extended does everything upside down.

Most orthodox fighters experience difficulty getting in and around southpaws.

Louis is the first good fighter to duck a southpaw. Buddy Taylor would have no truck with a left-hander while he was belting the better bantams and feathers around. Once was enough for the old Terre Haute Terror.

Low Tender bothered Benny Leonard the first trip because he was perhaps the daddy of all southpaws.

SOUTHPAWS MEETING WAVE AT EACH OTHER

I suspect Louis would take Bettina because in addition to being able to do that, Smoky Joe has the quickest right hand that ever swung from a big fellow's shoulder.

The other night Herve went back to Germany as pilot officer in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

They say he got a better decision at Cologne, Pancho Snyder, the Jersey City Tigers' manager, occupies an upper berth just like the rawest rookie when his club takes to the road.

"I don't ask anybody on my club to do anything I won't do myself," he explains.

Today's Guest Star

James Wade, Charlotte (N. C.) Observer: "Papa-in-law Jimmy Smith, over whose head Billy Conn recently broke his hand, is a former New York Giant outfielder. Manager Mel Ott, who seems to be recalling many of the old Giant hands, should bring in Smith to do his unprejudiced, and to be around in case the Dodgers get too rough."

PROBABLY OLDEST TREE

A Douglas fir, felled in 1895, in British Columbia, was 417 feet high and may have been the oldest tree in the world. The growth rings were not counted.

Melio Bettina.

But Joe Louis is strictly in favor of letting southpaws fight among themselves.

Ever see two of them at it? They look like a couple of blokes warring at each other.

For, you see, when southpaws hoop up, a pair of fighters are doing things backward simultaneously.

In addition to the scarcity of southpaws, this is another reason why they so seldom meet.

No matchmaker makes it a point to have his customers back out of—or away from—the arena.

Women's Softball Meeting Thursday

Five Convicts Escape In Truck

AUSTIN (AP)—State police said Thursday they had notified that five convicts escaped from State Prison Farm Number Two at Lovelady about 5 p. m. and were believed headed north in a small truck.

The police said the warden's office at the state penitentiary in Huntsville informed them that the convicts, believed to be wearing their uniforms, had "cut communications" and departed in the vehicle, the license number of which was not reported.

Highway patrolmen have been notified, police headquarters said. A list of the escapees furnished the state police by the penitentiary said the men were:

Aubrey Scalley, sentenced to life for robbery by a Dallas court.

Dorwood Dean Clark, given 15 years for robbery by a Grayson County court.

Joe Carson, sentenced to 50 years for robbery and auto theft by Dallas and Concho county courts.

Walter Lemay serving 12 years on conviction of burglary. (Location of the court which convicted him was not listed).

Lloyd Ramels, sentenced to life for robbery in a Montgomery County court.

State police said they had no other information on the break.

Old Chick Evans Still Has Power

CHICAGO (AP)—After all these years, Charles (Chick) Evans, Jr., still has the touch. Playing against a field of 180, he led the annual Illinois Senior Golf Association tournament Wednesday by posting a 41-35-76 four over par, for the No. 1 course at Olympia Fields. Competition was limited to those over 50. Chick, who held the National Amateur and Open titles 26 years ago, will be 52 next month.

Midland County Shows Big Food Production

Midland County farmers have increased their gardens by fifty per cent, egg production by 129,805 dozen, milk products by 25 per cent, and hogs and beef by 25 per cent. Benjamin Franklin was born Jan. 27, 1706.

Midland County Agriculture Activities, Reports By Agricultural War Board

This issue is devoted to the all important subject of INFLATION, now center of public discussion everywhere, city and farm, land and sea, school and church.

WHAT IS INFLATION some asked? "A rise in general price level." No use dressing the terms up, let's just say—inflation means that nearly everything you buy goes up. Therefore your dollar won't buy as much as it used to.

WHAT CAUSES INFLATION? Money and credit (purchasing power) in the hands of 132 million people, making up the consumers of this country, exceeds the available supply of goods and services these people want to buy.

HOW CAN INFLATION BE CHECKED? At present excess consumer purchasing power (the cause) is being siphoned off by taxes, savings program, price control, credit curtailment, and the use of the rationing system.

For the year 1942 we have an estimated National Income of 102 billion dollars, more than twice the National Income for 1932 and more than any other time in the history of America. Of this 102 billion dollars income, 13 billion represents the national income of farmers and ranchers, 2 billion of the 13 represents government purchases from farmers and ranchers, 22 billion of this 102 is spent in taxes, and savings which leaves a balance of 80 billion to spend. There are only 65 billion dollars worth of consumers' goods. Subtract 65 billion from 80 billion and we have 15 billion, what economists call inflationary gap. Now to get these billions down into every day terms, let's suppose that a person has 80 dollars instead of 80 billion and he intends to spend the 80 dollars for groceries. The groceryman hears that this person has this sum of money to spend, yet the groceryman has in merchandise only 65 dollars worth of goods instead of 80 billion dollars. Just as soon as the groceryman knows the purchaser has the 80 dollars, what happens? What would be the natural thing? A raise in price of the 65 dollars worth of merchandise to 80 dollars. This is inflation.

Mathematically: 102 billion dollar National Income 22 billion for Taxes and savings 80 billion to Spend 65 billion for Consumer goods 15 billion Inflationary gap. If this inflationary gap can be widened and taken up, in taxes, bonds, price control, credit curtailment and by rationing this 15 billion will be available to spend after the war. This would materially keep some money in circulation, keep some factories running, provide employment for the returning millions of soldiers and in some degree help stave off another depression.

WHAT IS THE WAR COSTING? The Ordnance Department of the Army is spending 717 dollars per second. Food alone for the armed forces is costing 1 million dollars a day. The total estimated cost in all this year is 56 billion. How much is 56 billion? What will it buy? One statistician puts it this way. "With 56 billion dollars one could buy all the land and livestock in the United States and have enough money left to spend 900 dollars per hour for every hour since the birth of Christ."

Plan College Study By Mail For Soldiers. MADISON, Wis. (UP)—The only correspondence school in the nation operated solely for American soldiers will swing into action this spring on the University of Wisconsin campus, according to Pres. Clarence A. Dykstra. The Army Institute of Correspondence Work, as the school is known, will give college training by correspondence to all men in the United States Army who want it. The lessons will be sent to the boys no matter where they may be—in camps in this country or with expeditionary forces in Europe or the Far East. Anywhere from 20,000 to 70,000 will take advantage of this army-university offer, Dykstra estimated.

All courses will be taught by Wisconsin faculty members, but administrative and clerical work will be handled by army personnel already on the job. Army men will be trained by the university teachers as the courses progress so that the service itself may eventually take over the direction of the school. Both the navy and air corps already have their own correspondence schools, and the Wisconsin venture is the army's first step in the same direction.

Modest Request Army Style. TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Peeking over the shoulder of the chamber of commerce secretary as he opens the morning mail: "We are two soldiers who have been in the army for some time and are planning to visit your fair city in the near future. "We are interested in having a good time when we arrive. So would you please insert this ad in the newspaper— "Wanted, two young women, good looking, with car and money to spend, to be escorted by two especially good looking soldiers on a three-day pass."

Sun Valley Folks Now Commandos, And Alert For Alien Enemy Danger

In the event of war emergency in Idaho, the picturesque Carey "Mounted A.R.P." unit, above, is prepared to dash through the countryside, warning farmers who have no radios or telephones.

By NEA Service. SUN VALLEY, Idaho.—With the incorporation of all Idaho's picturesque guerrilla and home guard units into one body, the state militia will be augmented by 25,200 tough hoppers.

Officially they are the Idaho Volunteer Reserves. But that title is scarcely colorful enough for range-bred citizens who have always had the faculty of being resourceful and efficient, and at the same time picturesque. So they've already picked up such names as "Commandos" and "Paul Reveres."

Don't get the idea, however, that Idaho residents are playing cowboys. Their home guards and guerrillas are preparing for an important job, and doing it quickly. At the war's outbreak, sparsely settled Idaho was a vulnerable spot. Its mountain airports, manned by a few government foresters, could be taken by a small invading force. Dangerously vulnerable to sabotage were dams, power installations, mines and factories. It might get something like this: "Horses Are Standard Equipment."

The alarm would quickly go by telephone or shortwave radio to county militia headquarters. Volunteer "minute men" would grab their guns and ammunition, load their horses and themselves into trucks and hurry to the scene of action. No helter-skelter mob, they would be commanded by commissioned officers. And with them would go field engineering trucks and supplies for several days' operations. Some of the companies also have Red Cross ambulance units.

Horses are standard equipment for the mountain terrain where a truck cannot navigate. And at least in Blaine County the locomotion is more diversified. There the "Sun Valley Commandos" have trained dog-sled teams for military operations. And some of the country's best skiers have converted their peacetime skill to soldierly use.

Meanwhile such units as the Carey Mounted A. R. P. would be living up to their "Paul Revere" nickname. Many Idaho farmers have no telephone or radio, and no neighbors for miles around. In case of danger the volunteers would have to adopt the old Colonial technique to bring them word. Idaho's Gov. Chase A. Clark launched the Volunteer Reserves movement. His aim is a force of 25,200 men to augment the State Militia. Each county will eventually have a battalion or company, according to its population. Members are drawn largely from veterans' organizations, gun clubs and other sportsmen's groups. They serve without pay and must provide their own guns, ammunition and supplies. Drills are infrequent, because they're busy people, but they receive frequent instructions in lieu of "squads right."

Other States May Adopt Idea. The Volunteer Reserves aren't just sitting in wait for the enemy, either. They perform necessary, if unglamorous, duties like collecting scrap metal and drumming up sales of war bonds. And some of them are working out such helpful, extra-curricular items as code, semaphore and smoke signals, which they defy any Jap to decipher. They are also training to frustrate sabotage, stand guard in the event of a major emergency or disaster, and direct traffic in case of evacuation.

All this activity may well have some out-of-state effects. It could reasonably inspire other western states to follow Idaho's example, and it should certainly give aid, comfort and some new plot twists to the makers of Western movies. It might also persuade an invading force to detour around Idaho. For the present-day guerrillas have inherited some hit-and-run traditions from grandpa, who used to fight Injuns along the old Oregon Trail.

Armed with sporting rifles and shotguns, this field engineers unit of the "Sun Valley Commandos" speed to scene of trouble in trucks, which also carry horses used in rough, mountain terrain.

Basketball Star Makes His Nickname Legal

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UP)—Stanley John Modzelewski, 22-year-old Rhode Island State senior and holder of the all-time major college basketball scoring record for four seasons, has legally adopted his nickname of "Stutz" as his surname.

The Polish youth, who closed out his basketball career this past spring by smashing Stanford Hank Luisetti's former mark of 1,596 points by more than 100 points, acquired his nickname because, as a boy of poor parents, he admired and polished the swank Stutz automobile of a neighbor.

He was granted the change in South Kingstown probate court after testifying that he had been known by the name of Stutz for the past 15 years.

The sun revolves once in every 25-day period, so we see all sides of it.

Mexican Society To Have Regular Dance

The Bonita Juarez Association will have a dance for Mexican residents Saturday night, 9 to 12, at which flowers will be sold for the purchase of Victory Bonds.

Members of the society have been contributing regularly to the defense funds, and are making a regular practice of buying bonds with monies raised through flower sales and in other ways.

game, and they will support your war charities.

Don't be surprised to see some reckless bids and plays in these games. Here is one that I saw recently, in which the declarer certainly "got away with murder." He won the opening lead with the ace of diamonds, then got into his own hand with the heart ace to lead a club for dummy to ruff. He got back three times more by ruffing two hearts and one diamond, and returned by ruffing three more clubs. The defenders gnashed their teeth as they had to follow four rounds of clubs.

With only four small diamonds left, dummy's lead was ruffed by North and over-ruffed by East. But East could not prevent North from making one more trump trick and his contract.

MIDLAND BOYS IN HONOR SOCIETIES

BOONVILLE, Missouri (Sp1)—Two boys from Midland, Texas, were among those honored by appointment to honor societies at Kemper Military School. They were G. S. Brunson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn S. Brunson, who received membership in the general, military and scholastic honor societies; and Robert R. York, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. York, who received membership in the military honor society.

Youngster's Set

Knee-deep in June she'll be a ravishing picture in this cunningly designed bonnet, pantie and frock with its bright rosy red apple for a pocket! The pinafore frock just ties in place at the sides and has no seams at all so it is very, very simple to make. Panties to match and a shady, wide brimmed sun bonnet complete a set, which every child should own for summer.

Pattern No. 8198 is designed for sizes 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years. Size 2 set takes 2 1/4 yards 35-inch material, 7 yards braid to trim.

For this attractive pattern, send 15c in coin, your name, address, pattern number and size to The Reporter-Telegram, Today's Pattern Service, 211 W. Wacker Drive, Chicago.

Look further for more style ideas in our Summer Fashion Book, a complete catalogue of our patterns for the new season. All sizes from 1 to 52. Day, sports and home styles.

Pattern 15c, Pattern Book 15c. One Pattern and Pattern Book, ordered together 25c. Enclose 10 postage for each pattern.

If you wish to stand out dramatically in the crowd...

Shant houses advise you to select makeup in key with the character of the clothes you wear...

New costume contrasts, as black with brown or gray with brown or red with green...

THEY REQUIRE EXTRA CARE

Or, if you're petite but dark, and have always chosen wise, strong-character makeup...

Your nail polish of course should harmonize, and you can find the right colors...

Remember to apply these carefully—for what is more freakish than an artificially colored face...

Eat Peanuts And Get Vitamin B In Nut Shell

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox NEA Service Staff Writer

The harder we work, the more energy food we need. We want more potatoes and bread, we crave sweets...

The most frequent reason for too little vitamin B in the diet is the eating of highly refined foods.

Peanuts — which we have looked upon as mere tasty tid-bits—are actually one of our very important and nutritious foods.

The meals of the average family are more often than not deficient in Vitamin B.

Three tablespoons butter, 1/3 cup brown sugar, 1 egg, well beaten, 1 teaspoon baking powder...

MENU BREAKFAST: Cantaloupe, whole wheat muffins, jam, coffee, milk. LUNCHEON: Welsh rabbit on enriched toast...

"Supper-Breakfast" Can Solve Night Shift Menu

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox NEA Service Staff Writer

When Dad works at night, the meal problem certainly gets complicated for Mother.

One answer is the overlapping meal, that is, one which serves two purposes. It may seem a bit incongruous at first...

GOLDEN BUCK (Serves 4 to 6)

One tablespoon butter, 1/2 pound American cheese, 1/3 cup milk, salt, pepper, mustard, 4 or 6 poached eggs.

Melt the butter, add the cheese cut in small pieces and cook over hot water, stirring constantly...

MENU BREAKFAST (overlapping meal): Stewed or canned fruit, scrambled eggs, French toast, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Cream of vegetable soup, wholewheat muffins, baked apples, tea, milk.

DINNER (overlapping meal): Tomato juice, assorted cold meats, creamed potatoes, green salad...

Don't put up with a slipping clutch: Have it repaired quickly and conserve engine power.

Humble To Build Synthetic Plants In Houston Area

HOUSTON (AP)—The Humble Oil & Refining Company announced Wednesday that two plants, one to make synthetic rubber...

The government will build the plants at a cost of $16,000,000 each and lease them to Humble for operation.

The exact location of the plant was termed restricted military information.

Standardized Parts Seen Necessary To Speed Plane Output

NEW YORK — Engineering departments of 25 American aircraft manufacturers are co-ordinating their efforts toward standardizing and reducing the large number of extruded aluminum shapes...

Functioning as the National Aircraft Standards Committee, this group believes that extrusions can be standardized to a point which will permit any one item to be used in several types of plane construction.

At present, the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America points out, there are in possession of the Aluminum Company of America some 5,000 drawings covering extruded shapes.

These structural shapes, some of which were designed exclusively for one particular job of plane building, include angles, tees, channels, zees and I-shapes.

Sadler Commissioned Lieutenant In Army

AUSTIN (AP)—Jerry Sadler, who resigned a $7,000 State Railroad Commission's post to enlist in the Army, walked into the capital Wednesday and grinningly remarked he had received orders to report to New Orleans June 17 where he would be commissioned a first lieutenant.

Sadler said he planned to visit his mother in Hickory Grove, Anderson County, before reporting for active duty.

Offers Gas Premium To Automobile Buyers

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UP)—On the first day of gasoline rationing in Massachusetts during World War II, a classified advertisement appeared in the Harvard Crimson, undergraduate daily newspaper, that read: "FREE: 18 gallons gas and 4 new tires—to the first one who buys my car, a 1939 Buick Club Coupe."

Chickens Scarce And Costly In Panama

WASHINGTON (UP)—The goose that laid the golden egg is called a chicken in Panama.

There, the Department of Commerce reports, chickens sell for as much as $2.50 each. The price is attributed to improved economic conditions and defense expenditures in the Canal Zone.

Urges Parents Be Musical In Homes

PITTSBURGH (UP)—Practice still makes perfect for youngsters taking music lessons, but a musical atmosphere at home puts more incentive and meaning to a child's musical education.

Agnes Lee, music director of Sewickley Academy, believes this to be true and urges parents to play musical instruments if their children are to progress better with their lessons.

"The greatest musicians came from musical homes—homes where fathers and mothers and children played and sang together," Miss Lee said.

Mothers, she says, should try duets with their daughters to replace the drudgery of practice hours with family companionship.

Vegetable Dehydration In Homes Is Feasible

PULLMAN, Wash. (UP)—Home drying of fruits and vegetables is not difficult, according to Dr. C. L. Bedford, specialist in fruit and vegetables at the agricultural experimental station at the State college here.

According to Bedford, drying is economical and satisfactory for some varieties of fruits and vegetables. It supplements canning and other forms of storage and is an inexpensive way to get a larger variety of foods for winter use.

Sun and oven-drying with special apparatus or with fan-driven air are some of the methods described for a lengthy list of fruits and vegetables.

General Ridicules Idea U. S. Soldier Is 'Soft'

FORT ORD, Calif. (UP)—Brig. Gen. Frederick H. Osborn, chief of the U. S. army's special morale service, ridiculed the idea that the American soldier is "soft."

He declared that today's rank and file are not being pampered. He said, however, that "the pace is so strenuous that the minds of the American boys must be given a rest—just like their bodies must rest after a hard hike."

The general visited here during a general inspection trip along the Pacific Coast.

Mineral Industry Is Theme Of Art Exhibit

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (UP)—A permanent gallery devoted to paintings of scenes in the mineral industries has been opened at Pennsylvania State College.

Almost 150 paintings, representing scenes in mines, quarries, oil fields, refineries, steel mills and other material producing and processing industries of the state, make up the collection.

Organized by Dean Edward Steidle of the Penn State School of Mineral Industries, the gallery contains the paintings of 86 artists, most of them residents of Pennsylvania.
