150 Planes Will Stage Bombing Raid On "Tokyo"

A preview of the destruction of Tokyo by United States air power will be unveiled to the nation through the eyes of its press when Midland Army Flying School bombardiers rain hundreds of missiles on a scale model of the Japanese capital the fourth of July.

Planned with an eye both to giving cadets more realistic training in the use of the U. S. bombardier and to acquainting the American public with the tremendous destructive power of precision bombardment, the demonstration will be reported through the words of leading national aviation writers and on films of both still and motion picture photographers.

More than 150 bombing planes will participate in day and night raids on a miniature Tokyo of industrial and harbor sections laid out in an area 2,000 feet by 1,500 feet around a dry lake bed which will represent the bay.

Red-roofed factories, office buildings, railroad yards, docks and oil refineries have been constructed from waste lumber and cardboard. Twenty Japanese warships will lay at anchor in the harbor as additional targets for students of the world's largest training center for bombardiers.

During the daylight attack upon the city, wave upon wave of twin-engine bombers will hurl bombs upon the targets designated on maps and in sealed instructions provided each crew. Specific targets will include oil dumps which are to be set afire. At night attackers will make a second raid, this time to be greeted by aerial "bombshells" to simulate anti-aircraft fire and searchlights crisscrossing the sky. Flares, dropped to aid bombardiers in spotting their targets will heighten the realism of the spectacle.

Newspaper and magazine writers from New York, Chicago, Detroit, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio will be present to witness the bombardment. They will observe the effectiveness of attacks from bombing planes, syndicate and newsreel cameramen will photograph the event both from the air and from the ground.

Also filming the scene will be cameramen of a Hollywood motion picture studio which will incorporate the material in a feature production on bombardiers.

FDR Assails Tactics Of Pressure Groups

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt stepped into the congressional scrap over the deadlocked agriculture appropriations bill Friday to assail "pressure group tactics" and declare that the only real issue involved was "whether the government should be free to use its food resources to produce food for wartime effort."

Movietone Newsmen Here For Spectacle

Webber Hall and Ed Kirchner of the Movietone News, Memphis, Tenn., arrived in Midland Friday noon. They are here to film the "Bombing of Tokyo" by the bombardiers of the Midland Army Flying School.

The Future Bombardier Handbook

A Guide To A National Awakening

"A Future Bombardier is a young man who is not yet old enough to become a Bombardier in the United States Army Air Forces, but who has pledged himself to do everything in his power to help make and keep America strong."

In the words above, the handbook for Future Bombardiers so designates the aim of one of America's most unique, and perhaps most promising organizations. The manual is so conceived and so worded as to implant in a boy's mind the pleasure, the worth-whileness, and the critical importance of purposeful living; including physical, mental, moral and esprit de corps factors.

Friday morning near 200 Midland boys were sworn in as Future Bombardiers, in an impressive ceremony under the inspiring leadership of General Isaiah Davies at the Midland Army Flying School, and amid a setting that perhaps will always linger in the minds and hearts of the boys.

The handbook, which will find itself into many homes of the city in the hands of sons from those homes, is actually a splendid and definite guide to everyday living, and to patriotic fervor, which every citizen, old as well as young, might read with pleasure and with a considerable awakening of his own determination to make his own life

Commands MAFS

Brigadier General I. Davies is commanding officer at the Midland Army Flying School which Saturday will stage the "Bombing of Tokyo." Davies is a pioneer bombardier of the Army Air Force.

Misunderstanding Caused By Slang

NEW YORK (AP)—American slang caused a bomb scare near a railroad bridge early Friday when a passerby overheard a man working on the tracks ask two companions to "pass the soup."

Police and G-Men promptly swooped down upon the trio expecting to find dynamite at work. Instead the men turned out to be railroad electricians who explained that "soup" was paraffin wax used as cable insulation, and not nitroglycerin, as it means to the underworld.

Fourth Of July Is Holiday For Most

Midland banks, federal, state, county and city offices, and most of the retail stores of the city will be closed over the Fourth of July, as the city and the nation celebrate Independence Day.

The principal patriotic celebration of the area is the "Bombing of Tokyo," spectacular aerial show which will be staged by the Midland Army Flying School, on a site south of the flying field. There will be two showings of this event, the first at 2 o'clock in the afternoon Saturday, and the second at 10 p. m. Saturday.

Flying Tigers Join U.S. Army Air Force

CHUNGKING (AP)—The epic story of the Flying Tigers, a thrilling tale of achievement by a handful of brave men against overwhelming odds, ended Friday with the dissolution of the American Volunteer Group.

Its sequel, with the promise of more and worse headaches for the Japanese, begins tomorrow when the daredevil corps joins wings with the regular United States Army Air Force in China.

German-Born Citizen Convicted Of Treason

DETROIT (AP)—German-born Max Stephan sat in a prison cell Friday convicted of the highest crime in the land—treason—while Federal Judge Arthur J. Tuttle pondered the punishment, which could be execution.

A jury Thursday finished one hour and 23 minutes of deliberation with the declaration, "We find the defendant guilty as charged."

It was Stephan's assistance to Oberleutenant Hans Peter Krug, as escaped prisoner from the Bowmanville (Ont.) prison camp on April 18 and 19 that provided grounds for his indictment and conviction.

Nazi Driving In Many Sectors, But Red Front Holds

MOSCOW (AP)—Nazi shock troops, still evidently seeking to drive a wedge between Russia's central and southern armies, probed Soviet positions midway between Kursk and Kupyansk in newly instituted offensive operations Friday.

Several thousand Germans were reported killed in a day's fighting on the Kursk front and a noon communique declared that "At Sevastopol, fighting continued in the streets."

The Soviet information bureau said the Germans struck Thursday in the Belgorod and Volchansk sectors, strategically a part of the Kharkov front, and "stubborn battles commenced."

Military observers said these and associated thrusts appeared aimed at a break-through toward Voronezh on the Moscow-Rostov railway 120 miles East of the Nazi-occupied city of Kursk, itself 280 miles below Moscow.

The Moscow radio declared "the initiative is being wrested from the Germans" in their five-day-old offensive against the Red Army divisions holding plateau slopes before Kursk.

The new battlefields are at the middle of a 150-mile line along which most of the heavy mainland fighting has developed in the last 60 days.

Volchansk lies 35 miles Northeast and Belgorod 50 miles North of Kharkov, a pre-invasion steel center now the headquarters of German Field Marshal Fedor Von Bock. The city of Kupyansk, on the Oskol River 60 miles Southeast of Kharkov, is the Easternmost Nazi base in that area.

To Induct Men Deferred Because Of Minor Defects

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army announced intention Friday of starting the induction of regular quotas of men placed in the deferred 1-B selective service class because of minor physical defects.

Beginning August 1, men with only one eye or complete deafness in one ear, among others, will be inducted for limited military service, provided they otherwise meet requirements.

They will be assigned to duty with corps area service commands and the War Department overhead organization, and thereby release an almost equal number of fully qualified soldiers for service with task forces.

Induction, under the new standards, "will be limited to those with minor physical defects who are able to bring to the Army a useful vocation which was followed in civilian life," the War Department said.

Investigate Death Of Soldier, Woman

FORT WORTH (AP)—City detectives Friday were to be joined by Camp Bowie authorities in investigation of the deaths of Donald Josef Belden, about 32, of that camp, and a woman, tentatively identified as Blanche Marie Lamoureux, approximately 28, of Springfield, Mass., which also is the home town of Belden.

Their bodies, with cotton clothes-line cord around their necks, were found in Trinity Park Thursday afternoon.

Police Find Tipsy Cowboy Carrying Lion In Trunk Department Of His Automobile

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP)—Arresting a tipsy cowboy, Policeman James Hunter made a routine search of his prisoner's automobile.

He raised the lid of the trunk compartment, peeked boldly inside, then jumped back with a howl.

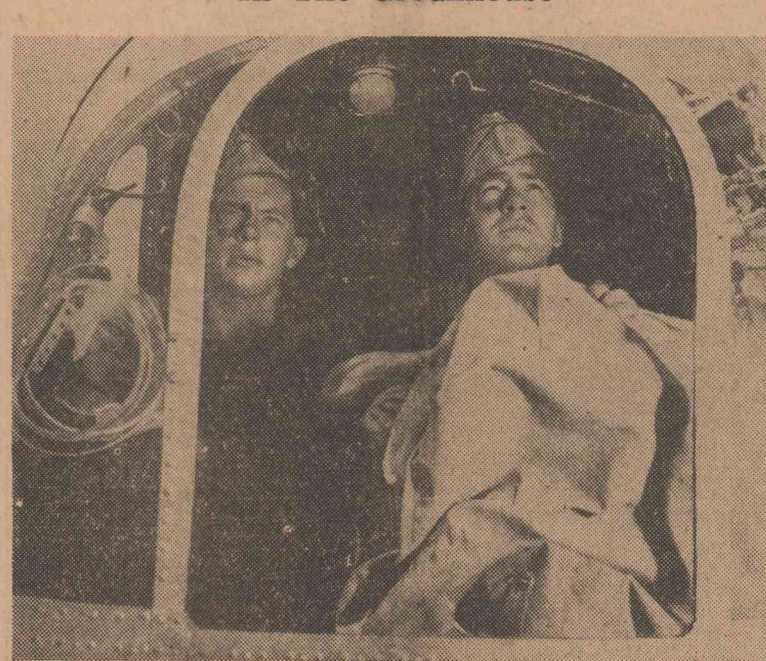

Inside, securely tied, was a big lion, alive and growling.

"Where did you get that thing?" Hunter demanded.

"Why, me and John just roped it down the road."

Hunter, who hadn't heard of a lion in these parts since the last circus train went through, snorted.

In The Greenhouse

In the "greenhouse" sit two bombardiers ready for the "Tokyo" bombing Saturday. One is behind the hooded, super-secret U. S. bomb-sight. The cover is never removed until the plane approaches the target. Both men wear the mark of the bomb-sight eyepiece, the "badge of the bombardier."

Air Force Gets More Men On General Staff

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army again increased air power representation on the general staff Friday, by assigning Brigadier General Donald Wilson of Hyner Mill, W. Va., a combat and command pilot, to be assistant chief of staff in charge of personnel.

A second assistant chief, Brigadier General Edward Edwards, and Major General Joseph T. McNamee, deputy chief of staff, likewise are air men.

Secretary of War Stimson announced at the same time the appointment of Brigadier General Thomas T. Handy, Spring City, Tenn., to be assistant chief of staff for operations, succeeding Major General Dwight D. Eisenhower, commander of the new European theater of operations.

Brigadier General David N. W. Grant, Richmond, Va., of the medical corps, a flight surgeon, was made chief flight surgeon for the Army Air Forces, a new post.

Stimson reported likewise the assignments of commanders to four new infantry divisions to be created in September. They included 94th Division, Brigadier General Harry J. Maloney, Lakewood, N. Y.; 98th, Brigadier General Paul I. Ransom, Hartford, Conn.; 192nd, Brigadier General John B. Anderson, Parkersburg, Iowa.; and 104th, Brigadier General Gilbert E. Cook, Texarkana.

Newspaper Writers Arrive For Program

Bill Taylor of the New York Herald-Tribune, and Bett Stephenson and Paul McAllister of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram were among the first arrivals here to report the "Bombing of Tokyo" Saturday.

Employer Keeps His Promise

MILLVILLE, N. J. (AP)—The late Burdette Tomlin always told his employees he wouldn't forget them—and he remembered.

The president of the New Jersey Silica Sand Company in his will named 40 employees as the chief beneficiaries of his $500,000 estate, leaving them the majority stock in his company.

Each is expected to receive stock valued at $10,000.

War Conditions Change This Fourth

By The Associated Press

A nation fighting to protect the freedom it won in our war celebrates Saturday its first wartime Fourth of July in a quarter-century under conditions that may make it really "safe and sane."

Most war factories will hum on, many fireworks have been abandoned and, on the populous Eastern seaboard, gasoline rationing will keep the greater part of the area's 10,000,000 motorists off the highways.

Sergeant Ruple visits Brother in Midland

Sergeant Thurston Ruple arrived in Midland Thursday night for a two-weeks visit with his brother, Theron Ruple. Sergeant Ruple is with the Quartermaster Corps, and is attached to the desert Army training center at Camp Young, near Indio, Calif. He is a technical sergeant.

United States troops of all types are trained in that desert for possible desert fighting in other sectors of the world war zones.

Second Gun Victim Dead, Colorado City

COLORADO CITY (AP)—A. J. Key, 42, died Friday of bullet wounds suffered Wednesday, his place of business shortly before the fatal shooting of Lee Carter, 37, Colorado furniture dealer, at his home.

Policeman John Wood said Key was shot eight or ten times. Carter died in a hospital.

Justice of the Peace T. E. Arnold said no coroner's inquest would be conducted.

Pro-Nazi French Woman Wounded

VICHY, Unoccupied France (AP)—Two bicyclists shot and seriously wounded the woman manager of a Paris apartment house in an attack which police termed in reprisal for informing German authorities on subversive activities of a tenant, reports reaching here Friday said.

It was the first recorded shooting of a woman in the long series of assaults against Pro-Nazi collaborationists.

Plan Entertainment For MAFS Guests

Visiting Army officers, newspapermen, news reel photographers, radio commentators and other special guests here for the "Bombing of Tokyo" event July Fourth will be entertained at a breakfast at Hotel Scharbauer's Crystal Ballroom at 9:30 a. m. Saturday.

Brigadier General I. Davies, MAFS commander, will address the visitors, outlining the program.

Arrangements also have been made to entertain the visitors at the hotel from 5 p. m. to 7 p. m. Saturday evening.

180 Midland Boys Take Oath Before General Davies

Future Bombardiers In First Ceremony Of Kind At Bombardier College

One hundred eighty boys were sworn into membership of the Future Bombardiers of America at Midland Army Flying School Friday morning.

General I. Davies, originator of the idea for the boy's organization, administered the oath before a bomb stack and planes on the flying line of the big air school.

The boys were brought from Midland by trucks.

Administering of the oath was filmed by MGM, News of the Day, newsreel photographers, for national release.

Midland's organization—the Future Bombardiers of America—is the first chapter in the nation and others are expected to be set up in other cities.

Officers and staff members of the special service and public relations offices assisted in the ceremonies.

After all the youths are given physical examinations, they will go into an extensive program of recreation and training, sponsored by the Bombardier College.

West Texas Oil Used In Burning Of "Tokyo" Here

Oil from West Texas will contribute to the destruction of "Tokyo" on the Fourth of July.

Waste petroleum from the vast Permian Basin surrounding the world's largest training center for bombardiers will be used to darken the ground in the bay area, simulating water, and to fill the miniature oil tanks and dumps in the model of the Japanese capital which will be bombed and set afire by formations of planes from Midland Army Flying School.

The oil, unusable for commercial purposes, has been contributed to the Independence Day bombardier demonstration by companies operating in the nearby oil production centers. Cadets, using the famed U. S. bomb-sight, will attempt to score direct hits on oil dumps and set them afire.

English Papers Approve Churchill

LONDON (AP)—Now that Prime Minister Churchill has the House of Commons' new pledge of faith in his war leadership, the press asked Friday for an end of recrimination and attention to the job of correcting the faults which caused Britain's setbacks in North Africa.

Most editorials expressed gratification over Thursday's 475-to-25 vote of confidence in Churchill but called the debate ill-timed and unsatisfactory.

Cadets Arrive At MAFS For New Class

Cadets for the next class, starting Monday, at the Midland Army Flying School were arriving here Friday and reporting for duty at the Bombardier College.

WAR BULLETINS

LONDON, (AP)—The British director of anti-submarine warfare—not otherwise identified—made a recent trip to the United States to advise the U. S. Navy on means of combating the U-Boat menace in U. S. waters, it was disclosed Friday.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Roosevelt has signed into law a vast $42,820,000,000 appropriation bill for the War Department, containing funds for thousands of new planes, tanks and guns and money to equip an army of 4,500,000 men by next July 1.

CAIRO, (AP)—Counter-attacking British armored forces, smashing at the flanks of an Axis spearhead pointing toward Alexandria, were reported Friday to have crushed a general assault on El Alamein and forced the invaders to retreat to the West.

Bold Maneuver Stops Drive For Alexandria As British Get Help

By Roger D. Greene Associated Press War Editor.

Britain's Egyptian armies, rallying at the eleventh hour, were reported to have thrown the Axis invasion into reverse in the flaming three-day "Battle of the Bottleneck" Friday, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy.

A bulletin from British Imperial headquarters said Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's tank army "withdrew to the west, leaving our opposition intact," after a fierce tank battle Thursday evening at El Alamein, 65 miles west of Alexandria.

Italian headquarters Thursday claimed the capture of El Alamein, which was described as the last British stronghold guarding the great Alexandria naval base.

Front-line dispatches said the twilight tank battle in the desert, the first major setback for General Rommel's armies in their sweep toward the Nile, climaxed bitter all-day fighting in which the invaders launched a general attack against El Alamein.

"Our mobile and armored forces counter-attacked the enemy flanks," a British communique said, launching such heavy losses that Rommel called a retreat.

Planes Play Big Role "Throughout the battle our light bombers, fighter-bombers and fighters were employed in increasing numbers and heavily attacked enemy concentrations southwest of El Alamein," the British said.

Italy's High Command, locating the scene of battle as "Southeast of El Alamein," asserted that 2,000 more British troops had been captured and declared Axis operations were developing favorably.

"Strong enemy forces were wiped out," the Italian communique said. The British communique reported—(Continued on page 3)

Colonel Wisehart To Pecos School

PECOS—Colonel Harry C. Wisehart, former commanding officer of the Lemore Army Flying School, California, is now commanding officer of the newly formed Army Flying School at Pecos. In November, 1941, he was made commander of the Lemore base when it was nothing but a plowed field, and in a few weeks he had created an efficient, first-class training school, and the Pecos field is expected to be completed with the same efficiency.

Colonel Wisehart has served in Randolph Field and in other Texas points, during his long Army career. He is a graduate of West Point, 1920, and has had air training and operated in the Army Air Forces since 1921.

Work on the Pecos school is now in full swing, after a delay in arrival of materials had held up the starting on schedule.

To Publish Guide For Army Deferment

WASHINGTON (AP)—War manpower sources said Friday that rosters of essential civilian activities and "critical war occupations" would be published about July 15 to establish a definite guide for military deferment.

The United States Employment Service is preparing the lists in collaboration with the War Production Board, the War, Navy and Agriculture Departments, and with other government agencies, as a part of the general program to keep men with critical skills at their work benches.

By direction of Manpower Chairman Paul V. McNutt, copies of the lists will be sent to all local draft boards, and "to the extent required for the maintenance of essential activities, individuals who are engaged in essential occupations in essential activities" will be deferred from military service.

This does not mean, however, that every man of draft age working in one of the occupations listed will be automatically deferred, since the Selective Service Act definitely prohibits "group" deferments.

Happy Birthday To The U. S.

At this moment we are going through one of our periods of gloom, as the result of a series of setbacks by the Axis powers. We are inclined to feel that, the 166th birthday of the United States of America, is the most critical since first.

That is not a bad national psychology. Surely it is much better than overconfidence.

A man who possesses real intestinal fortitude fights best when the odds seem against him. So does such a nation. With all our many faults, the people of the United States have no rabbit blood in them.

But, on this birthday, let's not be too pessimistic. Let's remember that, actually, our forefathers passed through many Fourth's of July when there was more cause for gloom than we can find today.

Forget, if you choose, the entire period of the Revolution itself, when our citizen-soldiers suffered one disastrous defeat after another, underwent privations such as we today can not comprehend, but kept their faith until by sheer force of will power they won.

Remember 1814, when the nation's 38th birthday saw our fortunes at so low an ebb that 51 days later invading British actually burned the White House in Washington.

Pass on the 1861, when Independence Day found the North stunned by the disaster of the first Bull Run.

In 1864 the Fourth of July saw Sherman completing his march to the sea—a military achievement for the North, but one of the saddest moments in American history as we look back up that deadly war of brother against brother.

In 1917, Germany had begun unrestricted submarine warfare and had forced us into the first World War, from which Russia's might had been withdrawn by the first revolution. In 1918 the Allies had stopped Germany's march to Paris, and were holding on by their teeth, wondering whether another and this time irresistible blow might be struck before we could rush enough strength to France to turn the tide.

These were truly critical Fourth's of July in war times. In comparison, the misfortunes the United Nations have suffered during the last few weeks are negligible.

From our defeats thus far we can, if we will, learn many lessons which will help toward eventual victory. Not the least is that moral victories, potential armies, armaments on the production lines, contempt for the enemy, strategic withdrawals, ostrich-like confidence unbacked by deeds, do not win wars.

In the midst of these defeats, we still are turning the direction of the war. It may take two years, or three or four or five, but we know now we can win.

Therefore, Happy Birthday to the U. S.

Moody, O'Daniel Address Crowds In Same Town

By The Associated Press
Two U. S. Senatorial candidates invaded the same West Texas town Thursday night, while a third spoke in the Central Texas town on Temple.

Separated by a scant three blocks, Dan Moody and Senator W. Lee O'Daniel addressed crowds in Lubbock. James V. Alfred, taking his campaign to Temple, devoted much of his talk to O'Daniel's Senatorial record.

Moody asserted that O'Daniel was "impairing our war effort by his foolish, misinformed statements that tend to destroy confidence in our military and political leaders, that tend to create a feeling of false confidence and complacency."

At another point Moody said that the Junior Senator "knows as much about the constitution of the United States as I do about the Hindu language, and that's absolutely nothing."

O'Daniel, without mentioning names, declared his opponents were "talking about silly, sissy things that don't mean a thing to us" and charged they were "acting in a disgraceful manner to even drag the war into the campaign."

The Junior Senator reiterated assertions that "wild-eyed labor racketeers" were opposed to him.

Alfred said O'Daniel voted with Senators Wheeler, Nye, Vandenberg and others against extension of draft training last fall, that O'Daniel was absent when the vote on pensions for Congressmen was taken, although he had answered present on the day's opening roll call, and that the Junior Senator got one vote—his own—for an anti-

Plane Can Do Damage On Ground Student Learns

TERRELL, Tex. (AP)—A student flier at the RAF school here has learned that it isn't always what a plane will do in the air, but on the ground, that causes trouble.

The youngster overshot his field. The plane hit a fence, tore off its landing gear, bounced across a strip of farm terrace, upended, and turned turtle.

The cadet escaped with superficial cuts and bruises.

The Gift Of God Affords Dominion And Sovereignty

26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the heavens, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 And God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them: and God said unto them, Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the heavens, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.—Genesis 1.

By R. A. Weaver
It is interesting to note that the five fundamentals of science are in the opening words of the book of Genesis. The word Genesis means "beginning." We must observe also that what had beginning were the heavens and the earth and all life upon the earth. It is said that in the beginning God created. Hence we agree that God existed before the beginning, and that He is without beginning or end—being from everlasting to everlasting.

The five fundamentals referred to are:
1. "In the beginning"—TIME.
2. "God"—FORCE.
3. "Created"—ACTION or MOTION.
4. "The heavens"—SPACE.
5. "And the earth"—MATTER.

The entire field of scientific inquiry is embraced in the three basic aspects of consciousness—Time, Space and Motion. Outside of these there is only a darkling void. The order in which certain things were created according to the Bible has been verified by scientific research, and it is in accord with the nebular theory that at first the earth was void and without form.

Of most concern to man is the mandate by the Creator that it was the prerogative of man to multiply, and subdue the earth and have dominion. When God said unto the first man, "Have thou dominion," He recognized the sovereignty and the glory of man. But alas, it seems that this was the first power lost by mankind. Today very few men have power over their own spirits, and man refuses to believe that he who controls his own spirit is greater than he that takes a city.

The Lord Jesus stated that His mission in the world was to seek and to restore that which was lost. To mean this means that Jesus came to show mankind the way out of weakness, defeat, and death into the way of life that offered dominion and power.

When God created man, He created out of the dust of the earth, and out of the Spirit of God. After His likeness and in His own image created He him. Hence man has a dual nature. You may receive of good or bad according to which of your two selves predominates. For you are TWO. You who read these words may recognize your dual personality even now. As you recall past experiences and see yourself doing things, or hear yourself say-

Soldiers Seek Technical Books

You have often wondered about these things which you did at times when you seemed to be under the influence of some external power. When you acted under those influences, you found that mistakes and errors resulted, and repentance came to your mind. You can review all the experiences of sorrow and sadness and trouble that have come to you, and you realize that they were caused by your actions and your words at a time when you lost control of your Real Self. For the Real Self was created in the image of God and was created to have dominion.

Now if you look deep into your Real Self you will find that your Real Self is that Self which loves, hopes, aspires to noble deeds, and speaks always the truth. Though your mouth may speak a falsehood, your Real Self will never. It is this inerrant principle upon which the "lie-detector" is based, and reveals the truth forcibly from criminals and evil doers. You cannot make the Real Self lie, or hate, or envy, or covet, or bear false witness.

The Real Self gives you all the joy that comes to you. There is no other source of joy for you. It ever stands and contends for the True the Good, and the Beautiful. It inspires compassion, and kindly deeds. It thinks no evil, is always calm, poised and serene.

One may be living as the mortal self and not be conscious of doing so. It takes a "new birth" to become conscious of your Real Self. It requires a transmuting by the renewal of the mind. If you are conscious of your Immortal Self, you are dwelling in the Secret Place of the Most High, and you abide in the Spirit of the Almighty. But if you are living as the mortal self you are at the mercy of a multitude of emotions and passions, and you find yourself "tossed about with many a conflict, many a doubt."

Remember always that you were created by an Omnipotent God TO HAVE DOMINION.

Books on mathematics and other technical subjects are sought more than fiction books now at the Soldier's Recreation Center, 213 N. Main Street, Mrs. Mabel Milburn, librarian, stated last night. As a result, indications can easily be gathered that the men in service at the Midland Army Flying School seek to improve their ability. For example, the case for taste—of Private Israel Reisman can be cited. An accountant in New York City prior to his enlistment, this soldier has borrowed "Mathematics Made Easy," by Henry Thomas, almost without interruption for the past few weeks—and, in turn, he states, other soldiers have borrowed the book often from him. That book, consequently, can be listed as a "most sought," and the same story applies to other technical books available.

MAFS Theater Is One Of Best Decorated At Newer Army Posts

The post theater at Midland Army Flying School is one of the best decorated and equipped at the newer fields in service of the United States.

A new cooling system has been completed. Fasteners have been laid for new opera seats to be installed soon. There will be new aisle carpets.

The lobby and back floor of the theater auditorium will be tiled. Installation is scheduled within a few days.

Curtains for the screen, painted on plywood by Corporal Horace Busby, of Midland, assistant theater manager, were so realistic, inspectors thought they were cloth.

Busby and a staff of artists are completing wall and other decorations, which will feature portraits of General Douglas MacArthur and MAFS's own General I. Davies. The portraits are located on each side of the stage.

The portraits were done by Private First Class Charlie Ebo, of New York, commercial artist before entering military service.

The complete theater staff including Lieut. Raymond A. Fitzjar, theater officer, and Corporal Busby, assistant manager, numbers nine. Others are Staff Sergeant W. D. Henderson, San Antonio, chief projectionist; Pfc. Nelson Suzore, Memphis, Tenn., assistant projectionist; Pvt. J. E. Sanders, Lennox, Tenn., relief operator; Staff Sergeant W. M. Davis, Valley View, Tex., ticket cashier; Pvt. R. Grover, Alton, Ill., doorman; Pvt. D. G. Soper, Brattleboro, Vermont, usher; and Pfc. Cecil Lindenmuth, Hazleton, Pa., repair technician.

ing the German-Italian invaders had withdrawn west of El Alamein disputed the Axis claim Thursday that Rommel's forces had broken through the main British position.

El Alamein is the northern anchor of the 35-mile British line protecting the "bottleneck" gateway to Alexandria. The line extends from the Mediterranean coastal escarpment to the desolate Qattara Salt Sink.

Bolstered by "very considerable reinforcements," which Prime Minister Churchill announced Thursday were arriving at the front, General Sir Claude Auchinleck's Imperial armies were said to be throwing everything they had into the struggle to save Egypt and perhaps the entire Middle East.

May Trap Rommel Dispatches from the front even hinted that General Rommel, known as "The Fox of the Desert," may have fallen into as neat a trap as he ever devised for the British.

These dispatches said a flying column of British tanks and mobile artillery swept around Rommel's right flank in a surprise thrust and encircled the enemy.

It was not immediately clear whether this was merely a light harassing force to slash at Rommel's vital lines of communication or a full-scale encirclement maneuver. If the latter, it would appear that the General Auchinleck had out-foxed "The Fox," drawing Rommel deep into the coastal bottleneck and then cutting off the escape route to the West.

Withdrawal of Rommel's heavy mechanized columns through the Wataara salt marshes would be virtually impossible.

Estes, Cowden Are In Stamford For Rodeo

Aldridge Estes, Jr., and Courtney Cowden left Thursday for Stamford to attend the annual rodeo and cowboy reunion. Both recently returned from college, and are spending the summer in Midland.

MAFS TRUCK DRIVERS WILL GET INSTRUCTION

Truck drivers at Midland Army Flying School will begin a driver's school Monday. Daily classes will be conducted.

Drivers of the 908th Quartermaster Company will be instructed as will Negro drivers of the 832nd Quartermaster Truck Company.

The steel saved by limiting the use of blackplate in bottle caps is sufficient to make more than 1,900 medium tanks.

IN patriotic dresses, as in others, it's what is left off that counts for smartness. This patriotic red, white, and blue dress, for instance, flaunts no slapslash of national emblems and what-have-you. The colors are in the cotton fabric stripes, and are accented by the design of the simple frock. Sleeves cut all in one with bodice are a very new and fresh WPB silhouette-idea and dirndl skirt comes within fabric-saving regulations. This is worn by Ilka Chase, author and actress.

Soldiers' Center To Be Closed On Saturday

July the Fourth the Soldiers' Center will not be opened either morning or night.

On July 7 a ballroom dance will be given at the Soldiers' Center and the MAFS Dance Band will play. All the girls of Midland are invited to attend.

All Charge Purchases Are Still Due And Payable On The 10th Of The Month Following The Month Of Purchase!

If Your Account Is Paid Promptly On The 10th Of Each Month It Will Not Be Affected By The Open Account Restrictions

However, effective as of May 6, 1942, and under the authority of the President of the United States, the Federal Reserve Board has published a Regulation (known as Regulation W) covering the extension of credit by retail stores, and with which Regulation all retail stores are compelled to comply.

One of the most important stipulations, applying specifically to open charge accounts (not to instalment accounts), is as follows:

ALL CHARGE ACCOUNT PURCHASES MADE IN ANY GIVEN MONTH, REGARDLESS OF THE DAY OF THE MONTH ON WHICH THE PURCHASES ARE MADE, MUST BE PAID FOR IN FULL BY NOT LATER THAN THE TENTH DAY OF THE SECOND MONTH FOLLOWING THAT MONTH IN WHICH THE PURCHASES WERE MADE. (For example, all purchases made on any date in the month of May must be paid for in full by not later than July 10.) In addition thereto, any balances unpaid on May 1, covering purchases made over any period of time prior to May 1, must also be paid in full by July 10.

Any account not paid in accordance with the government regulation becomes technically in default, in which event it shall be against the law for a merchant to approve further charges to the account; however, in full appreciation of the fact that undue hardship may result from this Regulation, and in order to allow further purchases by those who cannot pay their accounts in full, within the specified time, the law permits liquidation of an account—current or past due—by notes or other written agreement, within certain limitations.

The hand was No. 11 of the intercollegiate championship contest. Many South players missed the par through failing to ruff out the club six at once. East then had a safe club exit when in with a spade. Some South players who omitted this precaution made a good recovery and snared the contract by leading all their trumps. West usually fell into the pseudo-squeeze and let go a diamond.

The intended result was reached perfectly by Henry A. Skinner, Jr., and Wallace Tufford of the University of Wyoming. Other western participants in the contest were Arizona, Idaho, Minnesota, Nebraska, Oklahoma A. and M., Oklahoma University, and Wisconsin.

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Cities within the Southern Defense Command dim-out area, which extends inland 25 miles from the Coast, will not be allowed to stage large-scale fireworks displays and illuminations. But exceptional displays can be seen for many miles at sea. Therefore, it is deemed necessary in the interests of the Army, Navy and public safety to avoid use of fireworks as much as possible."

A man standing back of Judith spoke: "The dame is made of ice."

She turned slowly and saw the man who had kidnaped her in the taxi.
Karl said curtly: "Bring in the tray of food," and the man back of her moved away to carry out the order.

NOT once did Heavy relax his vigil with the gun. Burke kept his gaze fastened on Karl through Judith's knee he was watching the other man from the corner of his keen eyes. Tom had her gun and she knew he was waiting an opportunity to use it.

It would be suicide to try anything now. Her thoughts made her shiver. The blond spy with his close-cropped hair gave her a curious glance.
"Did I ever tell you, Judith Kingsly, that you are the most wonderful creature on earth and the loveliest?"

He snatched a kiss from the upturned face. She drew back quickly, her heart racing and her eyes soft. "Tom," she murmured.
A door suddenly opened and Karl came in, followed by some men.

"Ready to talk, Burke?" demanded Karl.
Judith realized the men had been waiting for some sign that she was not a stranger to Tom, and now his words had given them their cue. They knew now he would be willing to sell the plane's secrets to save her. In the end they probably would kill them both.

She stared in mounting terror at them.
"Are you ready to talk, Mr. Burke?" Karl repeated. His voice was a bit high as if he was exasperated at having to ask his question again.
Burke's lean, suntanned face gave no hint of his thoughts, but Judith detected the stubborn set of his jaws.

"I have nothing to say now, or at any other time."
"No? Perhaps in a little while, my friend, you will be glad to tell all I want to know." There was a savageness in Karl's eyes and his hands drew into tight fists at his side. "We have ways of making men talk."
Karl glanced at his watch. Heavy, his eyes narrowed and watchful, focused a gun on Judith and Tom.

A swift surge came over Judith to throw off her fear and break the awful silence in the room. Once again, her fighting spirit soared to her rescue.
"I haven't said anything to eat, yet," she said suddenly. The men were startled by the calmness of her tone. "You did promise me food." She tried her winsome smile, but it had no effect on Karl. the little seats in front of them and Judith could guess they held guns on them. Tom's hand found hers and the pressure of his warm fingers was reassuring. Her own fingers clung tightly to his. Danger had brought her close to Tom again. He bent his head to touch hers.

"You're a swell girl, Judith," he whispered and his lips brushed her red hair.
Judith opened her mouth to speak but closed it again.

"If you persist in talking, you will be gagged," Karl threatened.
At the threat, Tom's body had grown rigid and the grip of his fingers had almost paralyzed her hand. She waited for him to relax and then she turned to face her enemy.

"Couldn't you take this thing off my eyes?" she asked softly.
Without answering, he reached up and pulled the fold from around her head. She rubbed her eyes and then took in the gunman watching her closely, guns in sight. She drew a deep breath.

"You can take his off, too," Karl told her, and she removed Burke's bandage.
After that, there was silence except for the purring of the engine as they slipped through the night. Judith wondered where her detective bodyguards could be, but surmised they were responsible for their sudden exit from the house. She dared not try to look out the back of the car, and all the other windows were shaded.

Tom's fingers moved along her wrist, back and forth, searching for something. She realized in a moment what it was. Her watch. She wanted to tell him what she had done with it, but couldn't. She lay her other hand over his.

The shone, the car turned toward the shore where Judith could hear the roar of the breakers, and stopped at a deserted dock. The men got out and motioned Judith and Tom from the car. Karl and one of the guards walked in front and Heavy came behind them.

Again Tom's hand found hers and their fingers twined tightly as they walked down the boards over the water. She waited desperately to whisper that she loved him and that all the things she had said when they parted ways were lies. But then... The pressure on her hand gripped harder.

Suddenly Tom plunged into the water, dragging her with him. They went under with a mighty splash and the cold Pacific was breath-taking, but only for a second. She was an excellent swimmer and with Tom's hand to guide her, they dived for the protection of the wharf.

Food Production Program Held Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—War Food Production programs faced a disruption Friday as Congress went into a recess until Monday without acting on the Agriculture Department's $680,000,000 appropriation bill.

The Department, which has instituted plans for record production of food for the military and domestic needs of the United Nations, has been without funds since Wednesday, when the new fiscal year started.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), floor manager of the annual departmental supply bill, told colleagues it was his belief that failure of Congress to resolve differences on the mea-

Sports Tagging Close On Heels Of Exporters

By The Associated Press
The Beaumont Exporters must feel a little like a man who thought he was sitting on top of the world only to find himself seated upon the cone of an erupting volcano.

Not long ago the Exporters had many Texas League fans persuaded they couldn't be beaten by the New York Yankees once out of four times. But Friday the league-leading Beaumonters find themselves chivvied by the second-place Shreveport Sports.

The Sports inched up in the standings Thursday night by trouncing the Shippers 3-1 for the second time in a row on the latter's home grounds. Neither team scored until the ninth inning, when the Sports capitalized on four singles and two errors for all three of their runs. Charley Metro tripled and Bill McClaren got a base hit to prevent Floyd Spear, Shreveport manager, from being credited with a shutout.

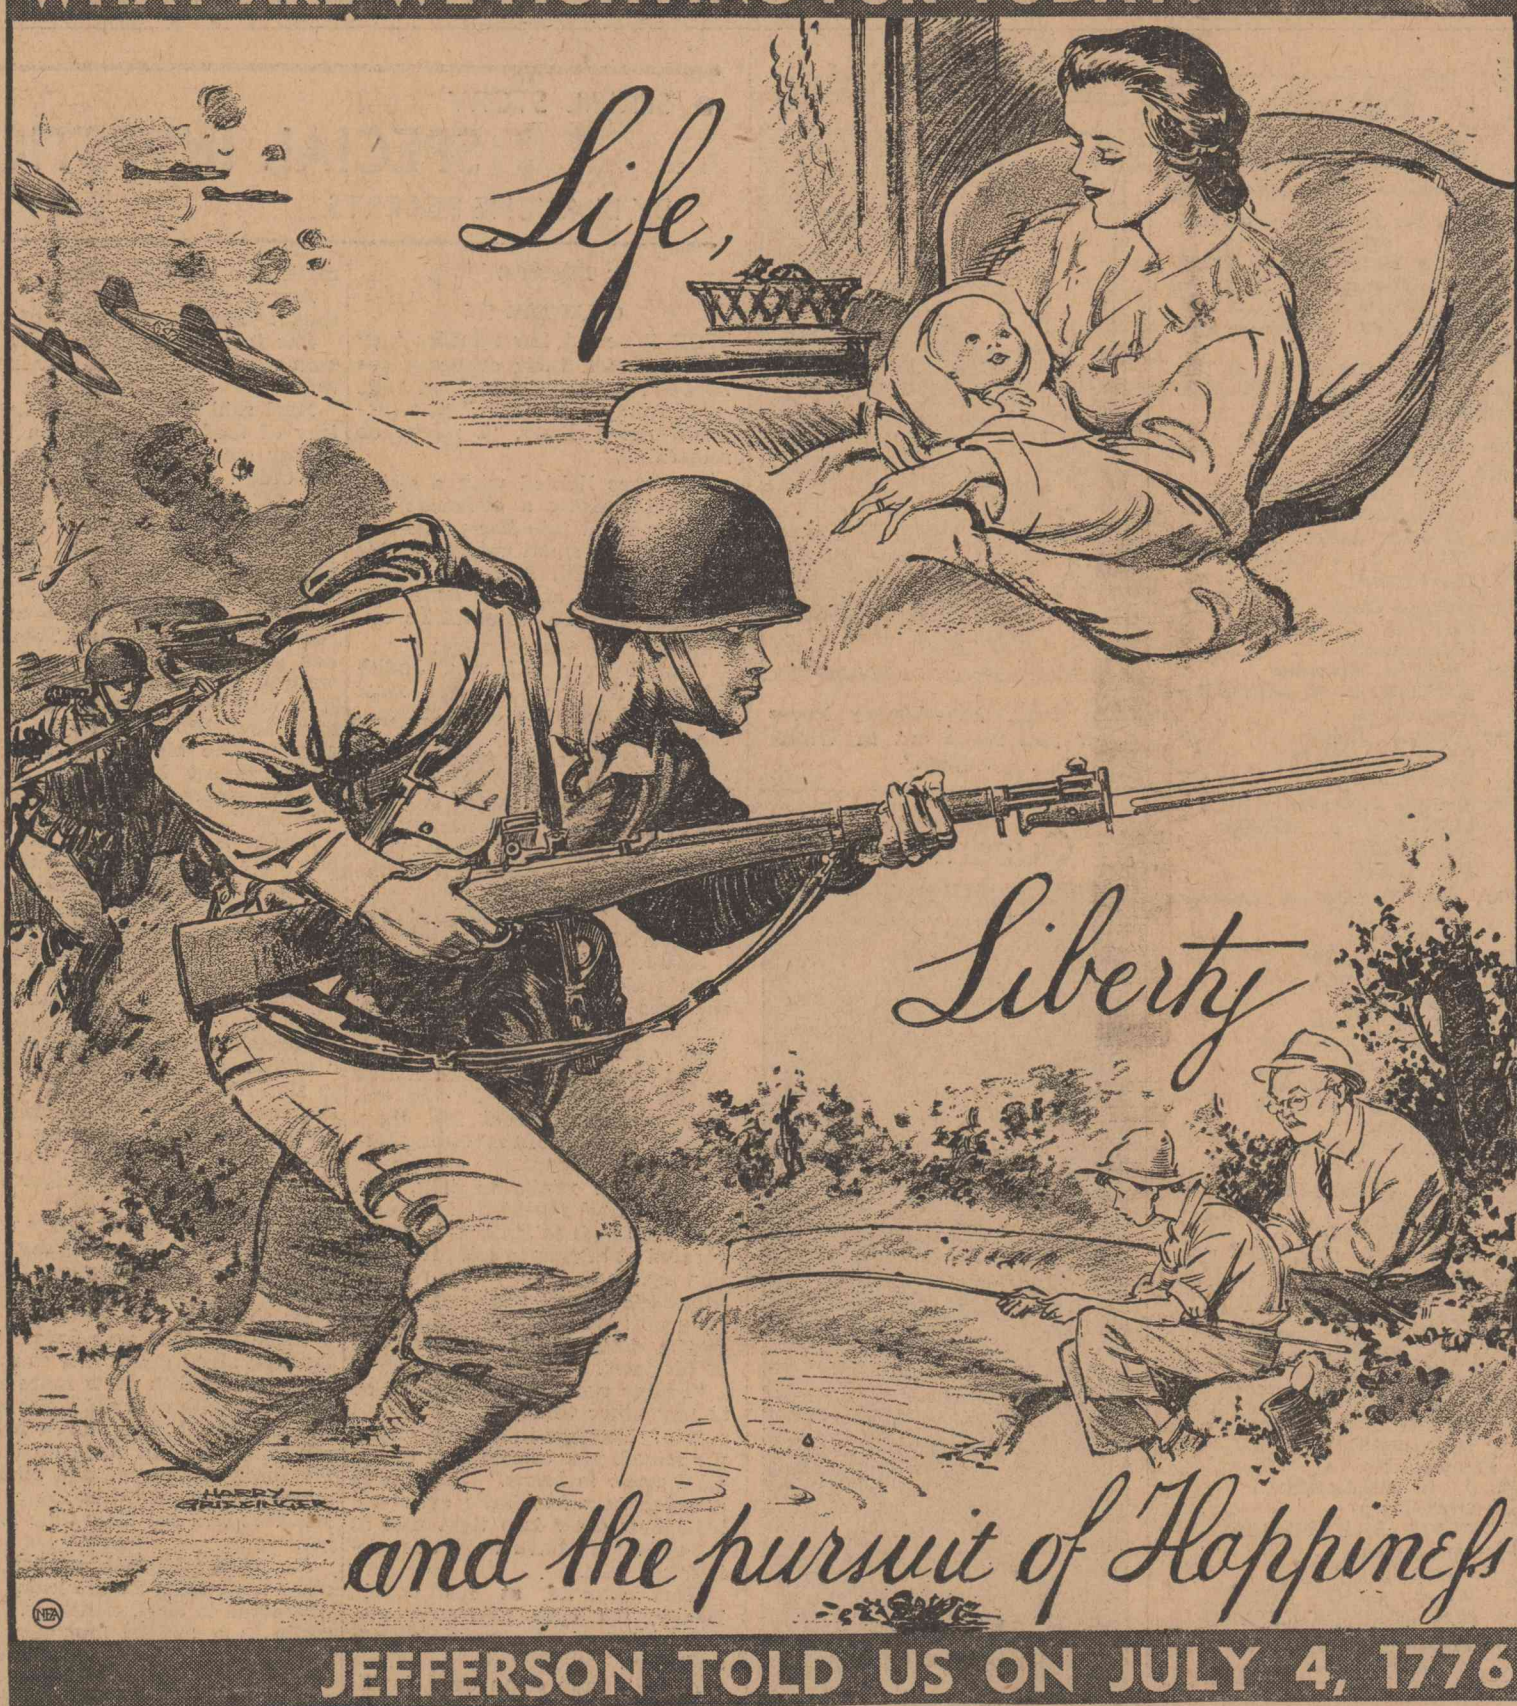

At Tulsa the Oilers crushed the Dallas Rebels 10-4, Fort Worth won from the Indians 4-1 at Oklahoma City, and Houston defeated the Missions 2-1 at San Antonio.

Although the Oilers made four miscues against the Rebels, the latter made six.

Earl Caldwell scored his eleventh win against five losses as Fort Worth captured its second consecutive game from Oklahoma City. He permitted six hits, fanned four and walked three.

Paul Dean's three-hit hurling led Houston to victory over San Antonio. Frank Mancuso's round-tripper in the eighth was the only tally off Dean.

WHAT ARE WE FIGHTING FOR TODAY?

Yanks, Red Sox Collide In Most Important Series

By Associated Press
Associated Press Writer
The Fourth of July fireworks in the major leagues are slated to be set off at twilight Friday in Fenway Park at Boston where the rocketing Red Sox and the spluttering New York Yankees will collide in the most important series of the midsummer.

A mere three games separate the clubs in the standings and the game Friday night and Saturday's holiday doubleheader will give the Red Sox a chance to move into a tie for the American League lead.

Till Thursday Boston had at least a slender chance of taking over exclusive possession of first place on the Independence Day, traditionally the date for tagging pennant winners, but weather kept both clubs idle.

It took none of the lustre away from the Red Sox-Yankee series, however, and chiefly furnished a lull during which Manager Joe Cronin fined slugger Ted Williams $250 and lectured him in front of the entire club for loafing.

The Sox have won 20 of their 24 games and with Williams presumably chastened and ready to make his bat do his talking, they may add additional bulks to the already battered World Champions, who have lost 11 of 17 games since leaving New York nearly three weeks ago. Boston already has won five out of eight games from the Yanks this season.

If New York is able to win the series, though, the Champs may be hard to head. On this date a year ago they had precisely the same lead they now hold—three games—and won in a romp.

The Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers both took advantage of the idleness of New York and Boston Thursday to tighten the boundaries of the first division.

The Indians completed a sweep of their four-game series with the Chicago White Sox Thursday night with a 7-5 triumph before 29,000 fans who turned out at Comiskey Park for an Army-Navy relief affair that netted $33,352.

This lifted Cleveland within 6 1/2 games of the lead.

Detroit, in fourth place, edged up to 8 1/2 games by beating the St. Louis Browns, 5-4.

In the only game played in the National League the St. Louis Cardinals extended their winning streak to four games by beating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-1, on the five-hit hurling of John Beazley, who had a shutout till the ninth.

JULY 4th

THE torch of liberty, carried by America and every right-thinking American, has illuminated history since it was lit on the first Independence Day, in 1776.

That its light may be eternal, now is for us to re-determine. And that we are united with that common purpose has already been evidenced by the concerted effort to speed-up every defense activity. Our armed forces: the men in business who are a civilian army of "officers" and "privates"—producing and distributing—these now have the sacred duty of holding high the torch of freedom. This July 4th is a solemn day: a day which recalls the basic principle by which our way of life has been gloriously, happily lived for 166 years. Nothing can stand in the way of our perpetuating that way of life, which is so fully the realization of Democracy.

Coaching School Again This Year

ABILENE (AP)—The world's largest coaching school will go on as usual and no decrease in attendance is anticipated, President Eck Curtis of the Texas High School Coaches Association said Friday.

The tenth annual school is scheduled here Aug. 3 to 8 and while two of the instructors have entered the armed services they are due to obtain leave that will enable them to carry out their duties.

Frank Leahy, young coach of Notre Dame, and Wallace Coats, whose team won the Orange Bowl classic, are the head instructors and will coach the all-star outfits that clash the night of Aug. 8, the climaxing feature of the school.

Leahy will direct the North All-Stars with Curtis tutoring the South. These squads will be made up of boys who have finished their high school eligibility.

Many coaches have been called to the service but assistants and former coaches have been moved into their places so the usual 300 to 400 are due to attend the school.

Little legislation is expected to be discussed but the question of abolishing spring football training may be brought up. The Association generally is expected to oppose such a move.

The school will be held at the Hardin-Simmons University campus and Curtis says the coaches will not need their automobiles.
