Axis Lines Are Blasted By British

CAIRO (AP)—Axis armored forces have been repulsed in another eastward lunge on the Egyptian corridor battle front and the enemy has been hit heavily by the RAF despite desert sandstorms, British headquarters announced Tuesday.

The enemy attacked with tanks and truck-borne infantry at the coastal end of the battle line west of El Alamein, a communique said, and there was contact also between opposing columns inland, on the Southern end of the line, but there was no indication which side was on the offensive there.

Fleet's Guns Open Fire
As the land front flared back into action, Britain barred the Axis Mediterranean supply lines, trying with the great guns of her fleet and far-ranging bombers of the RAF to choke off reinforcements for the enemy and whittle down his reserves of machines and supplies.

"Air activity was intensified in the battle area," said the joint report of British headquarters and the RAF.

"Our fighters, fighter-bombers and light bombers attacked landing grounds in the El Daba area, a column of tanks and large concentrations of vehicles.

"All attacks were successful, some tanks being destroyed and at least six enemy aircraft were shot down in addition to others destroyed on the ground."

All these air operations, including a battle over Malta Monday in which at least five enemy raiders were destroyed and others damaged, cost the British only one plane.

Blast Matruh
When Matruh, the Axis' most advanced supply port, literally was knocked out by British naval planes and warships which fired 700 shells in the harbor, the Axis had to look 200 miles further westward to Tobruk as the nearest point where any considerable supplies could be landed.

But Tobruk, itself an almost daily target for the RAF, also was singled out for a "bombing" raid for three straight hours by Britain's heavy four-motored bombers.

(Reports in Ankara, Turkey, said the Germans were rushing occupation troops from Greece and reserves from the Russian front to Rommel's aid from Greek ports to Tobruk, along with convoys of mechanized equipment.)

Married Men To Be Called Last

WASHINGTON (AP)—Draft headquarters specifically directed local boards Tuesday to call up married men last, taking single war workers before husbands and fathers.

The local boards were instructed to fill their quotas in this order:

1. Single men with no dependents;
2. Single men who do not contribute to the war effort but who have dependents;
3. Single men with dependents and who contribute to the war effort;
4. Married men without children who are not engaged in the war effort;
5. Married men without children who are engaged in the war effort;
6. Married men living with wife and children or children only who are not engaged in the war effort;
7. Married men living with wife and children or children only who are engaged in the war effort.

It is to be classified as a married man a registrant must have been married before Dec. 3, 1941, and must be living with his wife or children.

ESSENTIAL ACTIVITIES
To guide local boards on whether or not a man is engaged in the war effort, draft headquarters issued a list of 34 essential activities.

The essential activities include: Production of ordnance and accessories; ammunition; agriculture; food processing; construction; machinery; chemicals and allied products; rubber products; leather products; petroleum, natural gas and petroleum products; transportation services; communications services; heating, power and illuminating services; repair and hand-trade services (blacksmithing, armature rewinding, electrical and bicycle repair, automobile repair, harness and leather repair, clock repair, tool repair and sharpening); health and welfare services; educational services; governmental services.

Phillips Boosts South Andrews Drilling Campaign

Company Stakes Trio On University Land; May Drill 20 More

By Frank Gardner
Oil Editor
Furthering the drilling campaign in Southern Andrews County Phillips Petroleum Company Tuesday announced location for three more tests in what is called the "West Andrews" Permian pool. The wells later may be deepened to the Ellenburger pay found several miles southeast by Phillips No. 2 University-Andrews. An unconfirmed report stated Phillips is planning to stake at least 20 more tests in the area.

Phillips No. 17 University-Andrews is in the center of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 1, block 11, University survey; No. 18 is in the center of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 12, block 11, and No. 19 is in the center of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 13, block 11.

In the Embur Ellenburger pool, Phillips No. 3 University-Andrews is drilling in dolomite at 7,350 feet and No. 4 University-Andrews at 7,000 feet in the same formation. Neville G. Penrose No. 1 Cities Service-University, southeast of the Fuhman West pool in Southern Andrews, flowed 66 barrels of oil on 24-hour natural gauge through 14/64-inch choke on tubing. A flow packer is installed on tubing. The well is bottomed at 4,591 feet in lime.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2-11-37 E. B. Ralph estate, one-quarter mile northwest extension of the Fullerton deep Permian pool in Northwestern Andrews, halted drilling at 7,052 feet in lime and set 2-inch tubing on bottom with packer at 6,950. Operators will swab to test natural production, then will acidize the intermediate pay. While bottomed at 6,925 feet the well had swabbed five barrels of oil hourly after acidizing with 6,000 gallons in upper pay topped at 6,845.

Oklahomans Choose Party Nominees

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Oklahomans choose their candidates for the November elections Tuesday but political leaders expect less than half of the 1,000,000 registered voters to turn out for the primaries.

The rationing, loss of thousands of votes to the Armed Forces and out-of-state defense industries, a late crop season, and the ranking of the war as the number one interest of the public all were cited by political observers as reasons for the lack of interest.

Even W. H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray hasn't been able to lift the race for the democratic nomination for senator above a routine affair.

Murray and eight other candidates oppose the incumbent, Josh Lee, now serving his first term.

More Rubber Will Be Made From Alcohol

WASHINGTON (AP)—The War Production Board expects to get more synthetic rubber from petroleum in 1943, Chairman Donald M. Nelson told a Senate agriculture subcommittee Tuesday.

Nelson said facilities were available to produce in excess of the 200,000 tons of elastic which had been assigned to the alcohol process in a program estimated to produce 800,000 tons yearly.

Nelson testified that the country's maximum production of synthetic rubber, based on the amount of materials which could be made available for that purpose without taking them away from other essential military uses, was covered in the 800,000-ton program.

Pleasure Driving Is Out
The WPB chairman reiterated that despite speeded efforts to increase synthetic production pleasure automobile driving was out for the war's duration as tires would be available only for military needs and essential civilian use.

Nelson presented a Senate agricultural subcommittee new estimates showing he expected synthetic rubber production in 1943 to total 338,000 tons with 1944 production "very large," or about double 1943's.

He declared there seemed to be a "public misconception" that announcements of new processes for making synthetics meant abundant rubber for all.

1942 Production
Synthetic rubber production this year will total only about 82,300 tons of all types, Nelson said.

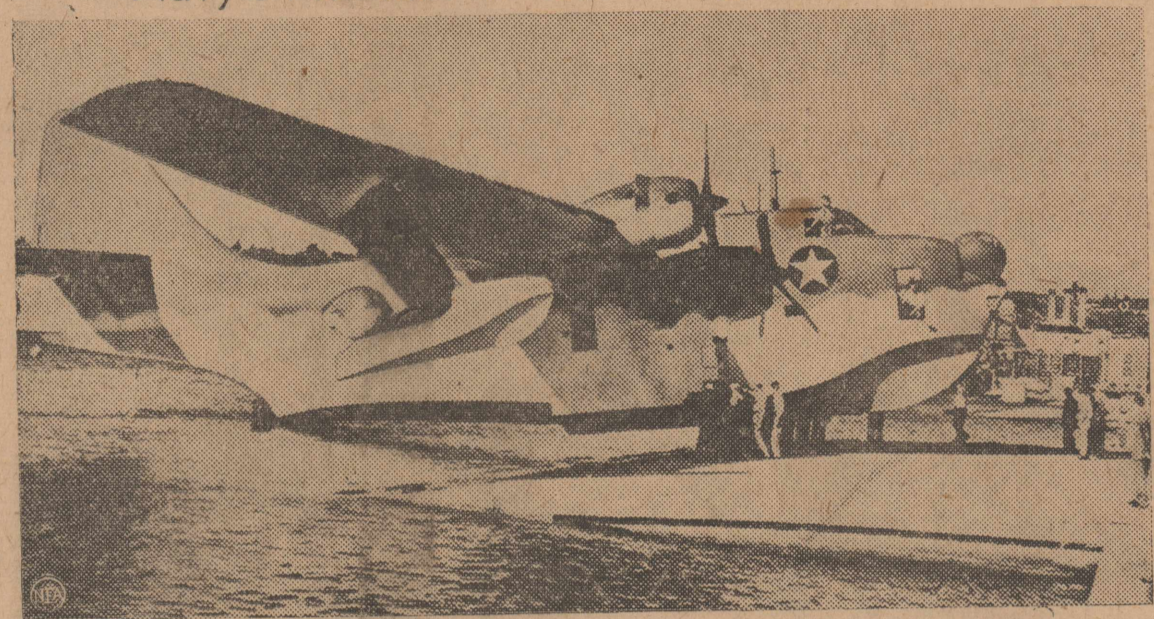

The No. 1 necessity, he added, was rubber for the military needs of the United States and its allies. In addition, he said, tires must be made available for such essential civilian services as moving people and from their jobs, performing necessary commercial and farm trucking, and meeting such community needs as police and fire protection.

In response to a question by Senator McNary (R-Or) Nelson said it was true that the United States now was exporting some rubber, both to the United Nations actively engaged in the war, and to South American countries where tires were needed in order to move out raw materials urgently needed in this country.

C. Of C. Agrees To Postponement Of Big Rodeo For Duration

Midland Chamber of Commerce directors Monday night agreed with officials of the Midland Fair that the big rodeo be postponed for the duration of the war but suggested that a matched roping or similar event might be staged here Labor Day.

A committee, composed of Roy Parks, Clarence Schabarber, Leonard Proctor and John Dublin, was asked to investigate the possibility of staging a program at the rodeo grounds Labor Day for the entertainment of soldiers of the Midland Army Flying School, many of whom have never seen a big western show.

Paul McHargue, vice president, appointed the committee. McHargue presided at the directors' meeting as President Ralph Barron was unable to attend.

To Abide By Decision
Retail merchants at a meeting last month urged Midland fair officials to use their best judgment on whether the rodeo should be staged this year and asserted they would abide by the decision. This resolution was presented to the chamber of commerce directors and after Parks and Schabarber advised against staging the show during the war, the chamber of commerce directors suggested that the rodeo be postponed for the duration if the plan meets with the approval of all rodeo officials.

Schabarber, president of the rodeo, said he doubted if West Texans would be willing to use their ties to come to the show this year as government officials had frowned on major exhibitions and conventions for the duration. The Office of Defense Transportation has requested postponement of major entertainments and conventions for the duration to save rubber tires.

Parks, vice president of the rodeo, said it is time to "produce beef," and "not to reduce it" by staging a big entertainment program.

Germans Try To Whip Reds Before Second Front Is Established

By Clyde A. Farnsworth
Associated Press War Editor.

Three German columns, superior to the Russians in the number of men and machines, were stabbing their way Tuesday into the Northern neck of the Caucasian area, threatening at once a sweep to the industrialized lower Volga and isolation of the entire Caucasus.

Red Star, the Russian Army newspaper, said: "The Germans want to defeat us before our Allies can land on the continent."

The Russians, acknowledging the threat to Stalingrad on the Volga as the deepest penetration of Russian soil so far, said that the enemy had gained ground to the south of Boguchar, which would place the German spearheads either to the fringe of or actually within the so-called north Caucasian area. This extends northward between the Ukraine and the Stalingrad area.

The Mountains Of Yugoslavia

Don't Throw It Away

The people of the nation, down to the last forgotten man, are being drafted for a war job to which every individual can contribute.

We all are asked to help with a renewed, expanded and intensified salvage campaign, designed to help make up deficiencies in raw materials.

There is nothing spectacular in the contribution we are asked to make to the war program; nothing dangerous; nothing arduous. In fact, there is nothing verging upon the sacrificial.

All the government asks is that we pick up things we do not use and do not need, but which war industry does need, and turn them over so they can be made into weapons and munitions for the use of our fathers and sons, our brothers or cousins or neighbors on the fighting fronts against Hitler and Hirohito.

Unlike some previous civilian war enterprises, this one is clean cut and crystal clear. Operating details may differ from city to city and town to town, but there is no question about what is wanted—or why.

Tin is needed, because our normal sources of tin have been cut off. Therefore residents in 36 selected communities are asked to save their tin cans, clean them and remove paper, cut off tops and bottoms, flatten them out, and leave them for the tin can collectors.

From these cans the tin will be removed. The drive is limited to 36 centers because elsewhere there are no facilities for detinning the cans.

Scrap steel is needed, because without that we can not operate our vital steel-making plant to capacity and produce the maximum of metal for ships, tanks, guns, planes.

Rubber is needed for reclamation, to stretch the inadequate stockpile of virgin gum, both for direct military use and to help get war workers to and from their jobs.

Fats and greases are needed to stimulate production of glycerine, which in turn will be made into explosives.

Housewives are asked to save kitchen fats and sell them to meat dealers, who will send them back through trade channels until, transformed, they get to Germany and Japan.

This salvage drive isn't a temporary, one-week spurt, says Lessing Rosenwald, its director.

It's something to be kept up day after day, week after week. But that doesn't mean it's something to be put off until tomorrow or next week.

The quicker our soldiers and sailors gets armaments and munitions, the sooner we'll have them back home with us—and the more of them we'll get back.

Texas Goes To War

We like the slogan of one Texas group, referring to coats and ties: "Take 'em off for victory if you won't do it for comfort."

But even better, we like the contribution of the Taft (Tex.) Tribune:

"Down here we didn't stop with that sissy stuff of just pulling off our coat and tie. We pulled off our pants, too."

The menfolk of Taft, it seems, went into cool cotton slacks for the summer—the better to beat Hitler with production.

Wild Tales About Rubber

Some fascinating reports are being peddled around Washington about fearless American explorers, deep in the heart of —no, not Texas—deep in the heart of Brazil, looking for raw native rubber. They're supposed to be so deep in the heart of the Amazon country that shotguns have to be flown in to them to be used for hunting their food. This jungle is so wild that the rubber explorers have to live off what they can shoot, it being too far inland for food supplies to be transported to them.

The anticipate happy ending to these stories will be that the fearless explorers, way back in some jungle never visited by white man before, will find a beautiful Shangri-La of rubber trees, supplying enough rubber to make tires for everyone. So optimistic are some theorists about this possibility that preliminary requests have been drawn up for priorities on 60,000 tin-cups to gather the rubber as it drips from the trees.

But wait up a minute. There are still a few realists remarking pointedly that if this country is so remote, it might be a bit difficult to get the rubber out, even if the explorers do find it, which the skeptics seriously doubt they will. And this tin-cup priority business is typical of some of the fuzzy thinking still going on in high places. Brazilians have been gathering what little rubber they can find in gourd, for years, and there is no priority on gourds in the Amazon.

Realists in the raw rubber supply business doubt that there is enough native rubber in all Latin America to supply more than 3,000 tons, or less than one-half of 1 per cent of U. S. needs.

Department of Commerce statistics show that the best yield of Brazilian rubber ever obtained was 55,000 tons a year.

You'll always find that the man of the hour has made his plans for years.

Student Transfer Blanks Should Be Filed This Month

All pupils who will attend schools in districts other than those in which they live must get transfers attended to during the month of July, it was pointed out Tuesday by County Judge Elliott Barron. Parents should see the county judge at once and get proper forms of application for all transfers. Pupils in the McClintic district will transfer to Garden City schools in Glasscock County, but must get transfers from the Midland county judge's office. Pupils in the Stephenson district will transfer either to Valley View or to Midland, and will get blanks here.

Prairie Lee High School students, and Stokes School pupils in all grades, will transfer to the Courtney school in Martin County. Blanks for these have been mailed out by M. W. Alcorn, who heads the Courtney schools, and he will attend to such transfers. Transportation for these students has been arranged by the Courtney school.

Tears Dim French Eyes Bastille Day But Spirit Of France Isn't Dead

By De Witt MacKenzie
Wide World War Analyst
This is France Bastille Day—an anniversary which in happier times, before the bloody hand of Hitlerism struck the nation down, was celebrated like our Fourth of July in commemoration of the birth of independence.

On this day 153 years ago the revolutionists stormed and pulled down the Bastille prison which for centuries had stood as the monument to injustice and torture, and the destruction of this ancient chamber of horrors became the symbol of La Belle France's liberation from oppression. So Bastille Day was made the annual occasion of Thanksgiving for the blessing of liberty, equality and fraternity.

Once A Gay Celebration
Before the coming of the Nazi beast all France, from the shining metropolis of Paris to the tiniest hamlet, was bravely decorated with the Tri-Colors, and the population turned out en masse in Sunday best to worship at the shrine of liberty. There were grand parades, and joyous feasting, and when evening came young and old joined in dancing through the streets until dawn chased them home.

Paris, always gay and full of laughter, was at her best. The great parade was a spectacle which drew visitors from many countries. Always the streets were jammed with hundreds of thousands of eager spectators as the troops in their field-blue uniforms swung by, on the way to the Arc de Triomphe where burned the eternal fire to the unknown soldier. And no foreigner ever could forget the light of pride which shone from French eyes as the mounted band of La Garde Republicaine set the blood to tingling with that famous marching song "Sambre-et-Meuse." Brutality Everywhere

But the days of rejoicing were wiped out two years ago.

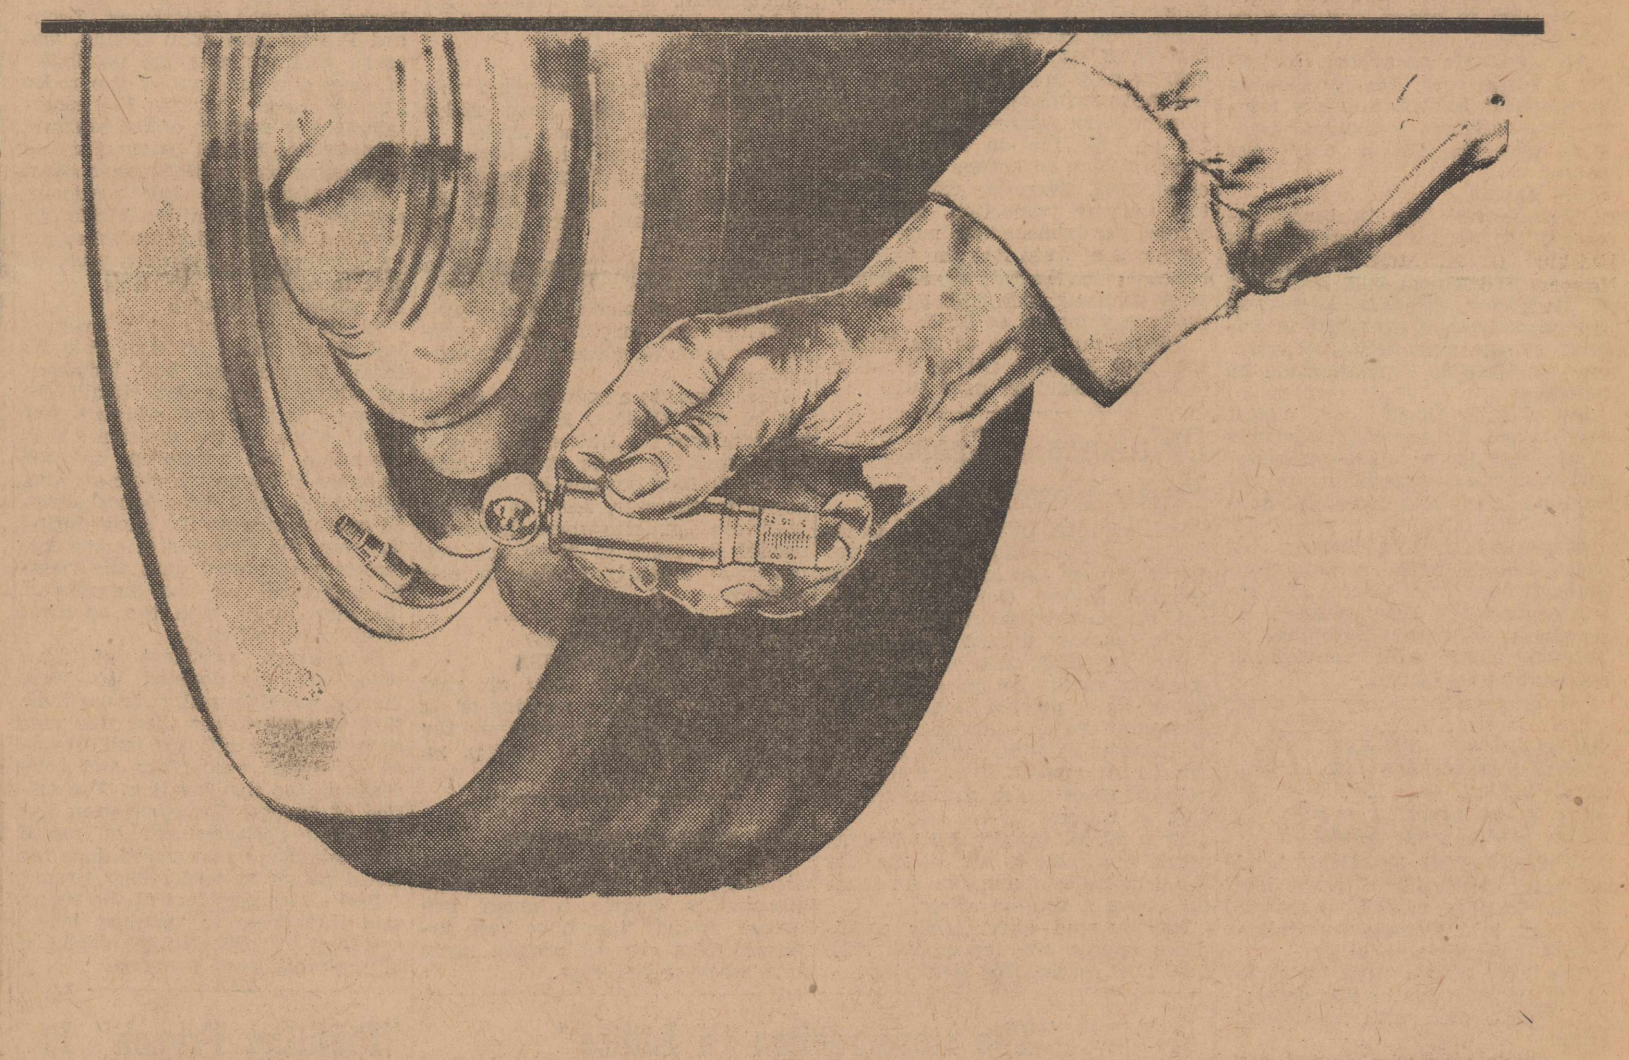

Everywhere the Hun has left his mark of arrogance and brutality. Down in Vichy a fox-faced, swarthy visaged little man sits and schemes and tells his down-trodden people: "I desire Germany's victory." And our own Secretary of State Hull has declared that this statement is further confirmation that under the program of Pierre Laval, chief of the Vichy government, the French are expected to surrender all hope of the future to Hitler.

But as this column has said often before, Laval doesn't represent the citizens of France.

The spirit of France isn't dead, and French eyes will be dim with tears this Bastille Day.

ONE-MAN TOWN - IT'S OFFICIAL
METFOR CITY, Ariz. (AP) — "Metfor City, Population 1" says the sign beside U. S. Highway 66. The figure checks exactly with the fact, Jack Newsom is the population. He always had a desire, he declared, to live in a city, so started his own. It's a desert service station and trading post between Flagstaff and Winslow on the transcontinental route across northern Arizona.

The state highway department made it official by putting up the sign.

FEMININE FANCIES

By Kathleen Eiland

Rather interesting to observe that the "red-haired beauty from Texas" whom violinist Dave Rubinoff is to marry is a former Odessa girl.

Who said every girl doesn't have a chance to marry a famous husband? Don't give up, girls.

A Texas souvenir plate now available pictures both historic and modern points of interest in the state, plus a border of cattle brands and other Southwestern symbols.

Our special commendation to: A crisp linen-like weave, in icy-blue and green, very cool and summery in effect; colored polka-dots (any color, we're not particular) on a white background; red wedge play shoes worn with red costume jewelry offsetting a white jacket and hat and black skirt; anybody who memorizes poetry for sheer love of beautiful words; people who have sunny smiles.

Latest news in shoes is that costume jewelry provides the proper finishing touch for buckles on black footwear.

Is our face red? Here we go on at length about the salt tablets which are being provided to prevent fatigue among MAFS soldiers as an innovation, something really new that Uncle Sam is giving to his men — only to read in the soldiers' own "Prop Wash" column afterward that such tablets are NOT new to soldiers. Oh well, what is life if one doesn't have a few embarrassing moments? We can take it.

Besides the idea was new to us.

BOWEL WORMS CAN'T HURT ME!

That's what YOU think! Learn the truth about roundworms! Nowadays anybody, anywhere can "catch" this nasty ailment, without even knowing what is wrong. And the horrible creatures inside you or your child can cause more distress than you realize. So, watch for the warning signs: uneasy stomach, broken sleep, nervousness, "picky" appetite, itching nose or seat.

Get JAYNE'S VERMIFUGE the minute you suspect roundworms! JAYNE'S is America's leading proprietary worm medicine; scientifically tested and used by millions. It acts very gently, yet drives out stubborn worms. When no worms are there, JAYNE'S is just a very mild laxative. Be sure you get JAYNE'S VERMIFUGE!

These Summer Headpieces Really Are HATS

WHEN smart women summer in town, headpieces are HATS, as witness these immense sunshades designed by Jeanne Tete. They're meant to fend off freckles as well as finish off with dash many fashionable tailored costumes. The great South American sailor, left, is natural color, has a copper shantung crown. Magenta and emerald green shantung are used, right, on black baku. Both are inspired by the rich colors of the Andes mountains in Reynaldo Luza's new talked-about modern furniture.

Never Mind, Girls Wartime Clothes Are Still Pretty

LOS ANGELES (AP) — With a riot of colors and ingenuity of design, California fashion creators have met the material-conservation challenge of the War Production Board.

And the buyers apparently approved. Registrations at the annual Fall fashion showing of the Associated Apparel Manufacturers of Los Angeles are running ahead of last year's.

By means of embroidered trimming, contrasting colors and materials and cutting technique, the designers have made the most of their restricted material to give the illusion of much more cloth. They have even conveyed the impression of pleats where none exists.

As might have been expected with women's increasing war activities, slacks play a prominent part in the display of 1942 fall fashions. They range from short slacks, coming just below the knee, to the feminine-fussy type that take the place of a hostess gown.

One style has a zipperless closing consisting of a wide front panel fastening with two large buttons. Pockets are set toward the front to give a peg top appearance, enhanced by tapering cuffless trousers.

The draped peg top effect extends also to garments of all sorts from sports dresses to long evening gowns. Jumper dresses and jumper lack suits are designed to be worn with blouses or sweaters, for variety and for economy of fabrics.

Mrs. John Bleiker celebrated her eighty-fifth birthday Sunday.

A long-time ranch resident of this area, she now makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. John Williams, and Mr. Williams, four miles south of Midland.

Birthday gifts were presented to her.

Those present, besides the honoree, were: Her brother, Albert Kuhn of Eakly, Oklahoma; her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Bleiker and children, Betty, Charlene, and Charles Albert of Midland; her daughter, Mrs. O. C. Butler, and children, Charles, Shirley, Kathryn and Freida of Mountain View, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Miles of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, and children, Vera, Joan and Ray of Midland, and Lewis Earl Williams of Tahoka.

Defrost Your Electric Refrigerator Frequently

For More Efficient Operation*

The health of your family depends upon the efficient operation of your electric refrigerator in preventing the growth of harmful bacteria. To keep your refrigerator operating at peak efficiency, defrost it every week, or oftener if as much as 1/4 inch frost collects on the freezing unit.

Due to the shutdown in the manufacture of domestic electric refrigerators for the duration, your present refrigerator should be properly operated and maintained to prolong its useful life.

If your electric refrigerator is several years old, you may save in the long run by having an experienced refrigerator repairman check it. The small charge for this service is usually a good investment in longer life and more economical service from your refrigerator.

South's outstanding women players, Mrs. J. E. Folline of Richmond, with the event last year, playing with Ben O. Johnson of Spartanburg, S. C.

Here is an example of Mrs. Folline's skilled play. Sitting South, she led the diamond queen with the first trick. The second was won by the ace of diamonds, and Mrs. Folline led the queen of clubs. East won and made the mistake of returning a low heart. The nine forced the queen, and West led a third diamond, forcing the king. Mrs. Folline cashed the club ace, dropping the jack. Then she cashed the spade king and went over with the nine of clubs to cash the spade ace in dummy. Dummy led the heart for the winning finesse of the jack, and the contract was made.

LONDON (AP)—Britain "is making the right tanks now and will make the right tanks in the future," Oliver Lyttleton, Minister of Production, told Parliament Tuesday in reply to complaints that British equipment in Africa was inferior to the Germans.

Make Uniforms For British

Littleton said an agreement had been reached whereby the United States would manufacture uniforms for British troops in the Middle East while the British would make uniforms for Americans in Great Britain.

"This arrangement will extend to weapons, army equipment and aircraft," he said.

Hank Oana Wins His Seventh Game Takes Buffs Into Camp With Single

By The Associated Press
Hank Oana, converted from outfielder to pitcher less than six weeks ago, won his seventh game in the Texas League Monday night against two losses.

The Fort Worth twirler beat Houston 3 to 2 in 12 innings, driving in the winning run with a single. The night before his homer had started a winning rally.

Oana, believed to be the only full-blooded Hawaiian ever to play in American professional baseball, now has pitched 89 2/3 innings, allowing only 54 hits and boasting an earned run average of 0.90, far below the Texas League record.

The Shreveport Sports defeated Oklahoma City, 5 to 1. J. Benson Brillheart holding the Indians to four hits.

Fans Eleven Batters
Brillheart fanned eleven batters and was deprived of a shutout by Zeke Trent's error in the ninth. Trent missed Norbert Barker's fly to center field and Barker rounded to third. Howard Doyle fled to right field, scoring Baker.

Pitcher Sid Peterson hit four for four and claimed his tenth victory of the season as the San Antonio Missions downed the Dallas Rebels, 10 to 3.

The Missions got 11 hits off three Dallas hurlers, while the Rebels were committing five errors, three of them by second baseman Jansco.

Yankees Are Back In Winning Ways, Dominate League

By The Associated Press
The American League has just suffered another chill in the region of its pennant race.

The New York Yankees beat down the Detroit Tigers again Monday 4-3 and the Washington Senators surprisingly shut out the Cleveland Indians 7-0 in a night game.

These results, coming as they did on the heels of the Boston Red Sox' double somersault before the St. Louis Browns Sunday, placed an emphatic damper on whatever rivals were rash enough to think the World Champions were collapsing.

All season long Detroit has been the most troublesome of the Yanks' opponents and the Tigers were tough to handle Monday, even though Lefty Gomez held them to four hits and fanned seven while going the route for the second time this year.

Gomez Weakens
Gomez pitched one-hit ball for six innings, but in the first frame he walked one batter, hit another, made a wild pitch and then walked two more to force in a run. In the seventh he gave three successive singles to load the bases and then escaped with one run trickling across on a forecourt and another on a fly.

The Yankees themselves were held to six hits, four by Joe Gordon, who drove in two runs with a pair of doubles, and another two-run homer by Red Rolfe, who had returned to the Yankee starting lineup Sunday after a long illness.

The Yanks' victory moved them five full games in front of the idle Red Sox.

The Cleveland Indians, who had won four straight and 11 of their last 14 (excluding a tie), meanwhile suffered a rude jolt at the nation's capital and saw their third place distance from the leaders swell to seven games.

Young Walter Masterson was the No. 1 boy for the Senators, holding Cleveland to three scattered singles while his teammates pelted three pitchers for ten hits. Only the fact that the Indians' stalwart infield reeled off four double plays kept the Senators from making their conquest even more complete.

In the only other game, also a night session, the Philadelphia Athletics nosed out the Chicago White Sox 4-3 in 11 innings.

The only game scheduled in the National League, Philadelphia at Cincinnati, was postponed.

This left most of the attention in the senior circuit centered on Pittsburgh's protest of a game with Brooklyn Sunday when the Dodgers had 26 men in uniform on the bench. However, Manager Leo Durocher of the Dodgers contended that the extra player, pitcher Max Macoon, still was under contract to Brooklyn's Montreal farm in the International League and therefore did not violate the major league player limit.

"No Tube, No Cream" Rescued Captain Told
CLEVELAND (UP)—A man who has just had a tanker torpedoed from under him is entitled to a tube of shaving cream if he needs it—so Capt. Trygve Wold thought. But when he tried to buy one after being brought to shore by a rescue ship and didn't have a used tube to turn in, a drug store clerk said "no."

Capt. Wold got a kick out of that incident, but he'll get a bigger one out of having a tanker under him again as soon as he has visited friends here. The 50-year-old skipper was in charge of one of the world's biggest tankers when it was torpedoed by a Nazi submarine off the coast of Louisiana.

The attack occurred before dawn. Capt. Wold was on the bridge when the first torpedo struck. "It seemed to lift the ship right out of the water," he said. "She had hardly settled down when another torpedo struck the oil tank."

Hours after the ship had sunk a fishing boat picked up the survivors and took them to shore. Only one man of the crew of 59 was lost.

Four Killed In Blast At Standard Plant
WAYNESVILLE, N. C. (AP)—A thunderous explosion early Tuesday at the distributing plant of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey killed at least four persons and injured seriously eight others.

The plant and two nearby houses were destroyed. Three other houses were damaged.

The detonation was heard for miles around and giant tongues of flame flicked at the sky in a brilliant pyrotechnic display.

J. L. Stringfield, chief of police, said the explosion occurred while a large gasoline transport was unloading.

Mrs. Andrew Caldwell and her two children were burned to death in their home adjacent to the plant, and an unidentified oil transport truck driver was missing.

Among the injured were W. L. Hardin, manager of the plant and Fire Chief L. L. Kerly.

Pacifists Brought Nation To War, Now Rest Of Us Must Shed Blood

"Pacifists, who in their unthinking insistence on peace have jeopardized Christianity and put our nation into the most dangerous position it has ever occupied have made it necessary that we rally ourselves wholeheartedly and at once, if we are to save our civilization," President Frank L. Turner of McMurry College, Abilene, told the Baptist Brotherhood Monday night.

One hundred men cheered him to the echo when, after he had regaled them with a bit of humor, he declared that he believed that Germany was preparing to launch a new offensive. America had launched itself into a shortsighted policy that paved the way for the rise and the growth of the fiendish leadership of Italy, Germany and Japan.

Lulled To Sleep
"Our hands-off policy in international affairs," he declared, "which refused to believe that Germany was rearming, that Japan was becoming a deadly menace, has lulled us to sleep. Today, even, many refuse to be awakened to the peril that faces us, to see that we are caught in the throes of the most terrible war of all times. They do not realize that we have lost the war thus far, that our beloved flag has been torn down from many places."

"There is not much we can do about the mistakes of the past, but we must understand that there is only one language that the Axis powers understand, 'superior force.' For there is no other ideal in their mind. We cannot fight such a battle with a feather duster, not with high-sounding words. Thank God that our forefathers were men who thought liberty worth fighting for. They were willing to shed blood for it. Human freedom has been bought at a high cost of life, and must be preserved the same way."

"Keep Alert"
"What can we do to correct the mistakes of the past?" the speaker asked. "Keep alert, be vigilant lest our efforts be sabotaged. We were amazed at spies being landed on our shores, but I declare to you that they are right here, in Midland, in all West Texas, waiting for us to let our guard down, and destroy our oil fields, our railroads."

"I am afraid that we are going to be too lenient with them. The time has come when we must say that the man who seeks to destroy our plants, our utilities must be put off the land, or under it. I have had three very insulting letters because of my talks against spies, and they all were postmarked in Abilene and other West Texas cities. The enemies are among us. We must awaken to their presence, they are dangerous to our families, our institutions. We must build a will to win, a will to preserve our priceless heritage; otherwise we cannot avert disaster and draw down on us a savagery and darkness that will be the worst in the history of the world."

C. G. Murray, president of the Fellowship Class of the church, introduced the speaker. The session was presided over by J. O. Nobles, president of the organization. Members of the Sheriff's Posse rode horseback to the meeting, and were honored guests for the occasion.

The program of the evening opened with a slight-of-hand performance given by Private Nic D. Bragg, assisted by Sergeant R. L. O'Neal, both of the 41st School Squadron, Midland Army Flying School. They were introduced by Ray Upham, who arranged the program.

Special music was given by 1st Sergeant John Blacklock, Sergeant John Little, and Private Cecil Lindemuth of the Midland Army Flying School.

The average American family eats about 300 loaves of bread annually.

The Fischer-Tropsch method, now in industrial use in Germany, will be investigated with a view to developing means to produce gasoline from the coals of Alaska and the United States, Dr. Sayers told the Petroleum Coordinator Ickes. Bureau chemists have been studying for years the Bergius hydrogenation process, the other direct process for producing motor fuels from coal.

The estimated life of petroleum reserves in the United States was said to be 15 years, Dr. Sayers said.
