Police Fire On Rioters In Bombay

Civil Disobedience Campaign Flares As Workers Quit Mills

By Preston Grover BOMBAY (AP) — The All-India Congress party's campaign of mass civil disobedience gained momentum Monday as workers left their jobs in 18 mills and rioting flared anew in Bombay, where police fired into a turbulent crowd which refused to disperse.

Violent disorders broke out in various parts of the city, with demonstrators stoning suburban trains in one area and burning a government grain shop in another.

Twenty-three went to the hospital with bullet wounds suffered when police fired twice into groups in the Dadar District of Bombay. In Poona police fired on a crowd, mostly students, near Parashram College, and 14 were removed to a hospital. Schools and colleges there were closed. G. G. Das, the Hindu name for Hoodlums, threw bottles through windows.

At Lucknow, police fired also on a crowd of striking university students who were trying to form a parade. Thirteen were arrested.

Close Schools Most of the schools, colleges and shops in the old Delhi were closed. In Karach all markets were shut and students of some schools and colleges, were quitting.

All processions, meetings and assemblies by congressmen and their sympathizers were banned in Madras City.

Spirikrishna Sinha, the former congress party premier of Bihar, was arrested.

Reuters reported police at New Delhi had turned back a small crowd of anti-British demonstrators who managed to get through an obstruction to the foot of the hill on which the house of Viceroy Lord Linlithgow is situated.

"Do Or Die" The work stoppage in some Bombay mills were in response to Mahandas K. Gandhi's "do or die" call for a "complete deadlock" by strikes and all other non-violent means.

As the campaign entered its second day amid shootings, showers of bottles and shouts of demonstrators, there were portents of even greater trouble ahead.

Veteran Newsmen Here To Do Story On Bombardiers

Sloan Taylor, veteran aviation editor of The New York News, and Joseph Costa, photographer of the newspaper, arrived in Midland Monday to write stories and make photographs of the Midland Army Flying School.

Costa is one of the leading photographers of the world, and winner of many national and international awards.

They came to Midland after doing a story at Randolph Field on medicine in aviation, and one on gunnery in aviation at Harlingen, and one on navigation at Kelly Field. From here they will go to Lamesa to write of the "Glider" in training there.

The Red Cross has agreed to furnish 400 kits for soldiers, making the kits, but asking groups or individuals to furnish them at a cost of about one dollar a kit.

Red Defense In Caucasus Is Cracking

By Eddy Gilmore MSCOW (AP) — Driven back by relentless, hard thrusts of German motorized troops and Alpinists, Red Army defenses before the oil fields of Maikop and in spurs of the Caucasian foothills appeared to be cracking Monday.

Front line dispatches telling of tremendous explosions roaring over a broad area seemed to indicate the Russians were carrying out with ruthless abandon the scorched earth policy in the first oil regions the Germans have been able to penetrate in their Caucasian thrust.

(The Germans, suddenly extending their drive eastward along the Baku railway toward the Caspian, claimed the capture of Pyatigorsk, 110 miles southeast of Armavir and midway between the Black Sea and Caspian. They already had claimed to have reached the Caucasus slopes on a 250-mile front and captured Maikop and Krasnodar in the northwest Caucasus.)

Reds Counter-Attack In large-scale tank battles in Kotelnikovski area of the Don Elbow, southwest of Stalingrad, the Soviet machines appeared to be as strong as the Germans, and the Red Army was counter-attacking with some success.

Five hundred miles north of the Caucasus, in the Voronezh flank, the Russian were making further headway, expanding their bridgeheads on the west bank of the Don, taking several populated places in violent fighting, and repulsing German counter-attacks between the Don and Voronezh.

Bring Up Reserves The Germans were bringing up reserves and still maintaining communications with their groups before the city, however.

As the battle spread southward, dispatches told of burning wheat fields, indicating that in some sectors the Russians had not been able to harvest the grain before the approach of the enemy, as they were able to do farther north.

There was no report here indicating whether the Russians who had been battling along the Black Sea and Azov coasts had been cut off by the German advance south of Kusechevka. But it was possible most of them were giving battle along the Kuban.

Cossacks Go Into Action As fresh German Alpinists drove from Armavir, dispatches said sabre-swinging horsemen of the Cossack villages defeated them in the first encounters in the Caucasian foothills.

Enemy Markers Are Discovered

MITCHEL FIELD, N. Y. (AP) — Ground markers emblazoned by rural Fifth Columnists with plows and other farm implements to guide enemy bombers to vital objectives have been discovered by Army air observers and destroyed. Data on large Eastern airports and plane factories to which the markers pointed thus has been averted, Col. Dache M. Reeves, commanding the first ground air support unit of the first air force, said in making the disclosure.

"Proper" action was taken by Army intelligence officers and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Col. Dache said, without announcing the fate of those who fashioned the ingenious markers visible only from the air.

Aerial photographs of the markers, the location of which was described only as in the Eastern part of the United States, showed several clear instances of how enemy agents or sympathizers sowed into peaceful farm lands potential devices to aid destruction.

Five Fronts Where Japan May Land Next Blow

Jap action in New Guinea and nearby islands, in western Burma, in Manchukuo and in the Aleutian Islands indicates new Nipponese thrusts may be in the making, aimed at one or more of five points spotted on map. Even the mid-Pacific remains a potential front despite enemy losses at Midway.

Community Property Law Is Respected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate finance committee rejected Monday a proposed amendment to the new revenue bill which would have required the payment of taxes by the recipient on all earned income in the eight community property states.

The action came on a vote of 11 to 4.

"Then that means the community property states can rest at ease for at least another year," a newsman asked Chairman George (D-Va.). "That means they can rest at ease," responded George.

He estimated that inclusion of the provision would have added approximately $85,000,000 in new revenue, based upon the income tax rates set by the House.

Committee members said the proposal would have had the effect of preventing a man from dividing his earned income with his wife for tax purposes, thus avoiding the increased rate of a higher bracket.

Eight states have community tax laws—Texas, California, Louisiana, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Idaho, and Washington.

United Nations' Air Sea And Land Forces Battle With Japanese

By C. Yates McDaniel Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia (AP) — Powerful bomber formations of the Allied Southwest Pacific command rained sledgehammer blows on enemy bases in the New Guinea-New Britain area, it was reported Monday, as air and sea forces locked in battle with the Japanese for the mountainous Solomon Islands and their strategic waters.

There were also unelaborated reports that Allied land forces were in action.

Official reports from Allied headquarters were meager and extremely cautious at the end of the fourth day of the first United Nations attempt to wrest the initiative from the Japanese in the Southwest Pacific.

But observers minimized the accuracy of Tokyo broadcast claims to have sunk or damaged a large number of United States and Australian warships and transports. Question Japs' Assertions

They also emphatically questioned Tokyo radio assertions that their Solomon Island defenders had incurred the loss of only seven planes and damage to two cruisers in the first day and night.

While eagerly awaiting news of the outcome of the struggle for jungle-covered islands under the equatorial sky 600 miles distant from this continent, Australian headquarters were heartened by reports from advanced bases describing the vigor with which day and night air attacks were being pressed home against the bases upon which the Japanese depend for reinforcements.

Blast Rabaul In New Britain, a crossroads for Japanese forces arriving from their mandated islands and fanning out to the Southwest Pacific, Gasmata on the south coast of New Britain, and Lae and Salamaua on the northeast coast of New Guinea were bearing the full brunt of these aerial onslaughts.

A roaring air battle took place over Rabaul in one of these attacks Aug. 8 when 20 Zeros rose to ward off big four-motored flying fortresses which dropped low to blast the airfield with 2,000-pound and numerous 100-pound explosives.

Seven of the fighters were shot down, and the raiders believed many of the others crashed when they attempted to land on the bomb-riddled runways.

Hold Initiative Latest word on the continuing action in the Solomons, while scant, indicated the initiative remained in the hands of the American fleet and other Allied forces which joined the battle Friday.

This information was relayed from Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, U. S. Pacific Naval commander. He gave no details as to the scope of the area under attack.

Admiral Nimitz said the attack, on the Tulagi area in the Southeast part of the Solomons, 600 miles off Northeastern Australia, was being (Continued on page two)

Fire Cancels Plans For San Angelo Show

SAN ANGELO (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the sales arena, main offices, cattle barn and small feed barn at the San Angelo fair stock show grounds Sunday, officials estimating the loss at $10,000. Although fair stock show leaders had made only tentative plans for a 1943 show and rodeo because of uncertainty of war conditions and dry weather, the fire made certain none would be held. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

Bombsight Heard As Main 'Actor' For Bombardiers

A Midland Army Flying School bombsight was "heard around the world" Sunday afternoon in a special feature of the Army Hour broadcast by radio, originating at several training centers of the nation. Managed by a young bombardier, the bombsight was heard "clicking off the doom of some Japanese cruiser or some Nazi bridgehead."

Guards On Duty. Even though Brigadier General I. Davies and members of his staff, and scores of bombardiers, sworn to protect it, were about the bombsight, about twenty men, armed to the teeth with gun holsters flaps pinned back, were on duty to see that by no possible means anyone saw or touched or came too near the secret weapon. Some hearty bombardiers repeated their oath, after which a dramatic sketch, simulating a bombing mission, even to the bomb explosions, made the broadcast very dramatic. General Davies spoke briefly, complimenting the bombardiers on their work, and pointing out the great opportunities of service that work as a bombardier offers any young American.

Dutch Officer Talks. A Dutch officer spoke briefly, thanking America for its help to his people, and he dropped in a word that he hoped would be heard by short wave in Java and in the Netherlands, saying "we are coming back soon . . . and when we come we shall stay, for we shall bring victory." The program, an NBC feature, was prepared by the public relations staff at the bombardier school, and was handled over the air by a technical staff from Chicago, Kenneth D. Fry, program director, and F. C. Schenker, technician, who flew to Midland Saturday for the occasion.

Collection Of Old Cravats Is Sewn Into Colorful Skirt To Help Fill Co-ed's Wardrobe Economically

After collecting old ties from her father, brothers, uncles and boy friends, the above co-ed sews them carefully together on her sewing machine, trims here, and produces a clever skirt. She models it at right.

By NEA Service Proof that the acquisitive instinct develops in women at an early age is the necktie skirt, the latest brainstorm from the high school set. A complete skirt of men's neckties can prove various phases of popularity. For instance, a girl may be in great favor with "the one" (and he is generous with his cravats); or her admirers may be numbered by the dozens and she has collected a souvenir from each. A predatory high school lassie accumulating enough ties for a skirt might also be something of a menace to the old mans tie rack, not to say to the haberdashery assortments of uncles and brothers.

In any case, the school chits have a fashion here on which to lavish their budding creative energy. It is a good game, assembling 25 neckties and putting them together in an eye-pleasing arrangement of colors and patterns. Furthermore it is a patriotic salvage of materials. Whoever thought of a better use for old ties?

A regular pattern for making this skirt can be obtained at little cost. You simply clean the ties, press them and with the pattern to direct, cut a panel from the top from each. Piece the panels together, gather the continuous strip of them together in a band top, turn in a hem, add a placket and the skirt is made. For girls who are making their first sewing effort a little advice may be necessary.

bridge calendar is the Southern Appalachian Tournament, at Asheville, N. C., Aug. 28-29-30.

Last year's team champions were Col. Robert J. Gill and Claggett Bowie, both of Baltimore, teamed with Mrs. Olga Hilliard and Al Leizowitz of New York. They will defend their championship against stiff competition.

Claggett Bowie never misses a percentage play, such as the one in today's hand. Sitting South, he took the first trick with dummy's ace of spades and led the three of hearts to the ace.

A low trump was led, putting dummy in with the jack. Now the jack of hearts was led, East played low, and Bowie discarded his spade, West winning with the king.

West led a spade and Bowie ruffed. Now the ace of trumps was cashed, followed by a low trump, putting dummy in again. North led the ten of hearts, East did not cover and Bowie let it ride, discarding a club. Then he claimed the rest.

While West might have held the queen of hearts, Bowie figured that this play had better chances than the club finesse, since West could be read for a short club holding.

U.S. Planes Raid Port Of Haiphong

CHUNGKING (AP)—United States planes delivered a concentrated bombardment of the waterfront at Haiphong, French Indo-China, Sunday, without loss to themselves, the Chinese reported Monday.

There was extensive damage, it was said, and steamers in port were hit. It was the first raid in Haiphong by raiders based in China.

Haiphong has been used by the Japanese as a port of entry into the French colony since September, 1940, when Vichy made its first accord with Tokyo. It is located in the north, on the Gulf of Tonkin.

BRITISH GENERAL KILLED
LONDON (AP)—The Daily Telegraph said Monday it had learned that Lieut. Gen. Henry Ewart Gott, 45, one of Britain's outstanding desert soldiers, was killed in action in the recent Libyan fighting.

Hope Mohair Market Will Be Reopened

SAN ANGELO (AP)—The possibility that the federal government soon will take steps allowing disposition of 2,500,000 pounds of mohair now on hand and the expected 8,000,000 fall clip engrossed Texas ranchmen Monday.

Hope was expressed that mohair soon will again find its way into market channels, partly as a result of efforts by officers of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association and the National Wool Growers' Association, along with congressmen from Western and Southwestern states, to persuade the government to adopt some policy concerning the commodity.

Domestic wools and mohair were frozen as a war measure. Texas produces more than 80 per cent of the nation's mohair.

Uruguay produces from 15 to 18 per cent of the world's meat exports.

Houston Divides With Beaumont, Cats Beat Indians

(By The Associated Press) Houston's late-season drive to unseat Beaumont as the Texas League leader fell short Sunday when the Buffs managed only to split a double bill with the Exporters, losing the opener 4-3 and winning the second game 1-0.

Fort Worth, one of the principals in the tight upper division race, protected its second-place spot by defeating the Indians 3-1 at Oklahoma City in spite of being out-hit. Fourth-place Shreveport fell upon the visiting San Antonio Missions and emerged with a 3-1 victory, with Gordon Maltzberger hanging up his third mound triumph since joining the Sports last week.

The hapless Dallas Rebels dropped two games to the Oilers at Tulsa, 1-0 and 2-0. The loss was the seventeenth straight for the Rebs. Earl Cook was credited with the Exporter win over third-place Houston at Beaumont after he relieved Charlie Fuchs in the sixth inning. Paul Dean annexed his seventeenth victory of the season when he edged out Stub Overmire for the Buff triumph in the nightcap.

The Cats capitalized on errors for their decision over Tulsa. Three double plays helped Fort Worth pitcher Earl Caldwell. In the fifth the Cats pushed over five runs with the aid of two singles, a double, two walks and two Indian errors.

Cubs Had To Go Eighteen Innings, But Finally Beat Cincinnati Reds

Game One Of Longest In Time And Innings, As Weather Adds Hour

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Most baseball teams will go to great lengths to win their games but few of them have had to go as far as the Chicago Cubs, who needed 18 innings Sunday to trip the Cincinnati Reds in the opener of a doubleheader.

Twelve pitchers, the most ever used in a major league game, paraded to the mound in the struggle, longest in the majors this season and the seventh extra-inning affair for these two clubs in 18 meetings.

Three times the Cubs figured they had it in the bag, but each time the Reds tied it up. Finally Hiram Bithorn, last of six Chicago hurlers, blanked the Cubs and sandwiched the 18th inning heights of Stan Hack and Dom Dallessandro between a walk and an outfield fly for two runs and a 10-3 decision. Longest Game

The game itself lasted five hours and was interrupted for another hour by weather in the 13th frame. That left only an hour of daylight for the second game, which the Reds

* Bill Roden, the red-headed lad from Glen Rose, beat long-hitting Dick Hambleton of Midland 3 and 2 Sunday afternoon to win the annual Midland Country Club Open golf tournament. He was the favorite, came through after taking medalist honors Saturday. Hambleton, formerly of Dallas, shot fine golf until the last 9 when he tired. He had been working every night at the Midland Army Flying School and competing in the tournament for the last three days.

Roden, a 21-year-old boy, was watched in any tournament, although he has not gone far this season. He was sick at the time of the Texas Amateur championship tourney and during the national intercollegiate tourney, both of which he had intended to enter.

Cadet Wins Consolation
Cadet W. Zylstra nosed out Bobbie Davidson for the championship consolation round. He came from behind in the forenoon to beat Jim Leavell which proves him a fine golfer, and went on to win the consolation in the afternoon final.

In the first flight Sunday, Sergeant Bill Ebeby beat out L. Matlock; while another soldier, Sergeant Jim Moon won the consolation by beating D. W. Spencer. Second flight was taken by Joe Black of Big Spring, who won over Carl Strom. In the consolation, Major R. C. Crawford beat Shirley Robins of Big Spring.

The third flight went to Joe Jennings of Dallas, who won over Don Sivalis; and the consolation in this flight was taken by Captain F. C. Craig, who beat Captain A. Adams. Fourth flight went to S. P. Hazlip, who beat A. E. Suggs of Big Spring; and the consolation was won by W. R. Yates of Big Spring, playing J. V. Herkins.

Prizes In Bonds
Prizes were awarded immediately after the matches with payment in War Bonds and Savings Stamps. The Ladies Golf Association prize of a complete set of clubs and a bag went to Mac Boring of Odessa. J. G. Bird handled the microphone during the awarding of prizes. He announced the Big Spring open tourney for Sept. 5, 6 and 7; the Ladies Tournament at the Odessa Country Club for August 20; and the Texon tourney to be played soon.

Walter Henderson, Gordon Bird, Levi Shiplet, and Gauthier Nowell, club pro, were managers of the tournament. There were 80 entries, with a number from the Midland Army Flying School, and several from Odessa and Big Spring.

The gallery Sunday was one of the largest in the history of golf in West Texas and was large in other afternoon rounds from the start of the tourney.

O'Daniel Asks Huge Majority

FORT WORTH (AP)—Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, poised for a whirlwind 11-day campaign tour of Texas, broadcast a plea Monday morning for his friends to give him a majority huge enough to forever end the power of "political pirates" in this state.

In his 6:45 a.m. radio talk, the first of nine speeches he will make daily until the election Aug. 22, the senator chided James V. Allred for "busily writing himself a new platform."

O'Daniel said that he, on the other hand, was standing on the platform he urged in the first campaign because every plank of it was sound.

"No New Issues"

"There are no new issues," he said. "It looks like there are so many political termites in my yes-man opponent's camp that they ate up all the planks."

He assailed what he said were old-line politicians and bureaucrats, charging they were coming from Washington to tell Texas how to vote. He said they were hoping up in air-conditioned hotels for their work and hiring great numbers of workers to campaign via telephone for his opponent.

He referred to this as subterfuge.

War Plants Receive Production Awards

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twenty major American war plants received New Army-Navy production awards Monday following President Roosevelt's declaration that battle needs demanded "an increasing flow" of weapons and materials.

"The united efforts of our Army and Navy striking at the enemy on every continent and every ocean, and of our people at home working without interruption to turn out the weapons of war," Roosevelt said Sunday, "cannot fail to produce the victory which will again establish the tradition of free men throughout the world."

In a message read over a special broadcast, the President said "great progress" had been made on the production front, but added that "in terms of what will be required to defeat our enemies, we have only just begun to get into our stride."

The President's message featured a broadcast during which top government and labor officials pledged their united efforts to speed war production.

"An Army-Navy production flag flying above a factory or mine will bear witness that management and labor there are doing their utmost to help their Army and Navy win this war," the Chief Executive's message said.

Similar units are to be established at other large centers.

Date Of Rat Killing Campaign Is Changed

The date for the Midland County rat killing campaign has been moved up a day and will be held on Friday, August 21, sponsors of the program announced. The change was necessitated because of the run off election August 22. The chamber of commerce and the county agent's office are co-sponsors of the county-wide event.

Poisoned bait will be furnished at cost, but it will be necessary for persons to reserve the bait in advance. County Agent Ira O. Sturkie said a date for registering for participation in the campaign would be announced soon.
