

Huge Nazi Army Bogs Down French Island Is Hard Hit

Key Ports On Coast Are Taken

By The Associated Press
British sea-borne forces were officially reported to have captured three key ports on French Madagascar Friday, and French dispatches said British motorized columns were now advancing on Tananarive, inland capital of the 1,000 mile long island.

Landing at dawn Thursday, under the protective guns of 18 warships, the British quickly seized the west coast towns of Akbanja, Majunga and Morondava, Prime Minister Churchill announced in London.

Ambanja lies 120 miles southwest of the big Diego Suarez naval base at the northern end of the island, which the British captured last May. Majunga is 200 miles farther down the coast, and Morondava another 370 miles south.

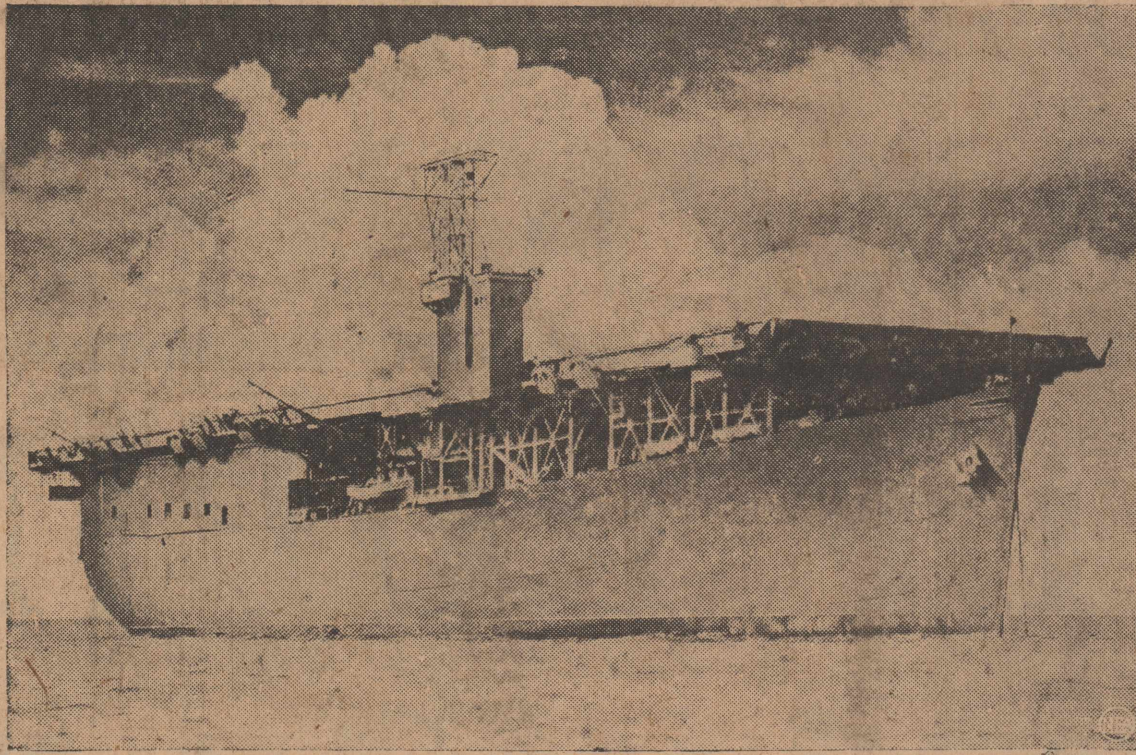

Churchill said little opposition was encountered and that the operation—aimed at eliminating possible bases for Axis submarines preying on Allied supply lines to India—(Continued on page five)

FDR Acts Quickly To Save Nation's Rubber Supplies

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt said Friday he hoped by Monday to put into effect practically all the recommendations of a special committee which studied the vital rubber problem and recommended nationwide gasoline rationing.

The Chief Executive indicated at a press conference that it might take some time, however, to put into effect this rationing recommendation. He said it would take time to set up the machinery, which should be handled by local boards.

A fellow neighbor, the President said, is the best judge of whether he is using his car properly.

The rubber committee submitted a report to Mr. Roosevelt Thursday, recommending not only gasoline rationing, but also other restrictions on private driving, such as the limiting of average car mileage to 5,000 a year, and that for essential purposes only.

The committee also proposed complete reorganization of the government's administration of the rubber program and a large expansion in production of synthetic rubber.

Mr. Roosevelt told the press conference that he expected by Monday to have the name of a new rubber administrator who would serve within the framework of the War Production Board. He said he had already discussed the appointment with W.P.B. Chairman Donald M. Nelson, but he would give no clue as to the prospective choice.

Texas Officials Are Opposed To Rationing Of Gas

By Dave Cheavens
AUSTIN (AP)—Faced with what they characterized as a disruption of the state's finances and economy because of the impending threat of gasoline rationing, Texas officials led by Governor Coke Stevenson Friday renewed their fight against the proposal.

Governor Coke Stevenson grimly jumped into the fray Thursday with the flat statement: "I am still against it. It is not necessary in Texas because of a lack of transportation facilities, and it won't save rubber. Gasoline bootleggers will supply the trade and the result will be that the state and federal government will lose the revenue."

Standing solidly back of the Governor was an unbroken front of oil industry leaders and state and county officials who could not see where the money would come from to replace tax revenues lost as a result of rationing.

It has been estimated that $95,000,000 in local, state and federal taxes are derived annually from the oil industry in Texas, and that the combined industry pays an annual wages and salaries of approximately $272,000,000, plus $123,000,000 in lease and royalty money to land owners, $160,000,000 in purchase of equipment and supplies, and $95,000,000 in other expenses.

Call For Youths May Be Delayed; Discussing Plan
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt informed a press conference Friday he thought there would be no necessity of taking youths of 18 and 19 years into the Armed Forces before the first of the year, through selective service.

The Chief Executive explained that under present law, about as many men possible are being trained. He offered no estimate of the possible time when young men of 18 and 19 might be called.

Mr. Roosevelt said, replying to questions, that he had been conferring with the War Department about the advisability of obtaining the necessary legislation before the end of the year to permit the government to bring the younger men into service.

He was told that there had been some talk of stopping all Navy enlistments of young men so that selective service could pick them for the branches of service in which they were most needed.

This, Mr. Roosevelt declared, is under study in the Navy Department. He mentioned that there now are approximately 700,000 enlisted men in the Navy.

Chairman May (D-Ky.) has said he was hopeful that the House Military Committee could begin hearings next week on the Wadsworth bill to lower the draft age. Meanwhile he has asked the views of the service departments and selective service officials on the legislation.

Hitler Issues Order To Seize Stalingrad Regardless Of Price

By HENRY C. CASSIDY
MOSCOW (AP)—The most powerful Army the Germans ever assembled in Russia, surpassing even the great force which they flung in vain at Moscow last year, was reported Friday to have been commanded by Hitler to take Stalingrad at any price. But that Volga bastion still held.

The Russian Army newspaper Red Star said that the Axis forces before Stalingrad outnumbered those of any previous campaign. About a million men on both sides participated in the battle for Moscow last fall, hitherto the greatest single engagement of the war.

Dispatches said attackers and defenders were fighting in a maelstrom of noise, fire and smoke, planes filling the sky with their roaring and screaming and the ground shaking to the clash of tanks and the thunder of bombs and shells.

The remarkable editorial in Red Star set a serious tone for the day's press comment, exhorting the defenders to fight to the last, recalling the grim measures taken by Joseph Stalin for the defense of the city in 1918 against White Russian forces.

The mid-day communiqué announced that German automatic rifle men infiltrated western defenses of Stalingrad where Nazi shock troops won three more outlying villages Thursday, but more than 100 of the riflemen were slain.

The fall to the Axis of another settlement southwest of the Volga River industrial center was recorded and, for the first time in several days, fighting was reported south of Stalingrad.

The demand that the Volga River bastion be held at all costs recalled two orders given by Premier Stalin during his civil war defense of the same city in 1918: "No retreat," "Death to traitors."

Must Tighten Belts Even Though U. S. Is Producing More Food
WASHINGTON (AP)—The man behind the plow is producing more food than ever before in the country's history but Americans will have to tighten their belts because of the great demands by the Armed Forces and the United Nations.

Secretary of Agriculture Wickard sounded the warning despite the Crop Reporting Board's estimate Thursday that American farm production in the aggregate would be the greatest on record this year.

The board estimated 1942 production would be 13 per cent higher than the former peak of 1937 and 27 per cent above the ten year average from 1923-32, with new records set in grains and an all-time crop 44 per cent better than in any past year.

"Even so," said Wickard, "the demands upon American food and fiber are so great that we will not have enough to give everyone all the food he or she wants."

Now Expect Early Consideration Of Inflation Curbs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders set the stage Friday for prompt congressional consideration of President Roosevelt's demands for legislation curbing rising wages, farm prices and profits.

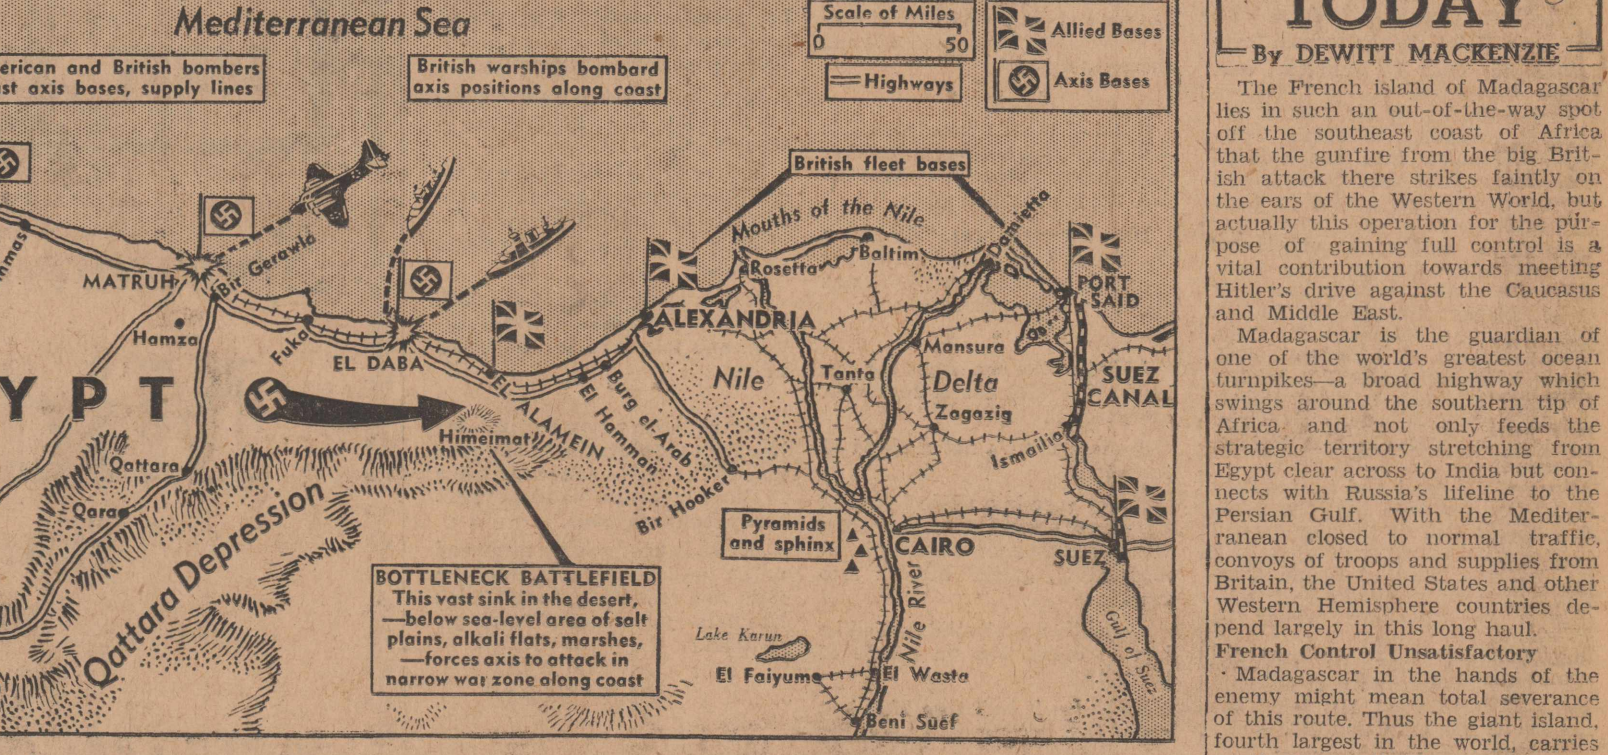

Amendments to the existing price control act still were in the drafting stage but leaders expressed hope of meeting the Oct. 1 deadline—the date when the President said he would take the necessary action himself if Congress fails to do so.

Senator Brown already has set as his goal three days of hearings which would enable the Senate Banking Committee to submit legislation for action late next week.

Republican clamor for quick adoption of the President's anti-inflation proposals continued in the House with some representatives opposing any hearings at all.

Before the Senate recessed for the weekend, Brown obtained unanimous consent Thursday to introduce the bill in time to begin hearings Monday. Chairman Steagall of the House Banking Committee, will offer the legislation in that branch.

TOBRUK TO SUEZ: NEW FIRES OF WAR SEAR THE DESERT SANDS

WAR BULLETINS

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Australia (AP)—Bayonet-wielding Australian troops were reported Friday to have checked a swift Japanese advance toward Port Moresby in fierce hand-to-hand fighting which still was raging on the southern slopes of New Guinea's towering Owen Stanley mountains 44 miles from that vital Allied base.

BERLIN (From German Broadcasts) (AP)—German military quarters said Friday that Nazi airmen shot down 42 Russian planes at a cost of only one of their own craft in the past two days on the Arctic front.

LONDON (AP)—A Reuters dispatch from Stockholm said Friday that Josef Terboven, Nazi Commissioner for Norway, had decreed that the occupied country must pay damages for German property destroyed there during the war and occupation.

CHUNGKING, China (AP)—A Chinese government spokesman said Friday that "China has enough soldiers for five more years of war." He said that more than 1,000,000 men had been mobilized since 1936 under the Chinese conscription law while the same number had volunteered for service.

CAIRO (AP)—Sand storms limited activity on the Egyptian battle front Thursday, although British artillery batteries on the southern sector loosed shells against the Axis forces of Field Marshal Rommel, British headquarters announced Friday.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
The French island of Madagascar lies in such an out-of-the-way spot off the southeast coast of Africa that the gunfire from the big British attack there strikes faintly on the ears of the Western World, but actually this operation for the purpose of gaining full control is a vital contribution towards meeting Hitler's drive against the Caucasus and Middle East.

Madagascar is the guardian of one of the world's greatest ocean turnpikes—a broad highway which swings around the southern tip of Africa and not only feeds the strategic territory stretching from Egypt clear across to India but connects with Russia's lifeline to the Persian Gulf. With the Mediterranean closed to normal traffic, convoys of troops and supplies from Britain, the United States and other Western Hemisphere countries depend largely in this long haul.

French Control Unsatisfactory
Madagascar in the hands of the enemy might mean total severance of this route. Thus the giant island, fourth largest in the world, carries on its lumpy shoulders a very precious part of the Allied fortunes.

BE YE AFRAID of the sword; for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.—Job 19:29.

American Ingenuity To The Front

The old saying, "necessity is the mother of invention," is proving itself over and over in American industry during these war-torn times.

In the laboratories of large companies important strides have been made in chemical, mechanical and other fields by constant research. Many of these new things and new methods cannot be revealed at present, but in nearly all instances they will be available to the public after the war.

An electrical manufacturing company, determined not to let shortages slow down its war production, reports that twenty thousand pounds of nickel—enough to make armorplate for 55 medium tanks—will be conserved this year by the company through substitution of a newly developed steel for a nickel alloy in war-needed electronic equipment.

"In former years we made one part of the Ignitron equipment—a doughnut-shaped device known as a reactor—out of an alloy containing about 50 per cent nickel," an official of the company explains. "But when it became apparent that more and more nickel would be needed to make steel alloy used in armor plating, tanks and battleships, we started searching for a substitute material." They found it and as a result valuable materials are being saved for arms.

And then there is another type of research going on within the framework of the great industrial plants now turned wholly to war. It is the application of the "know how" developed in shop and at bench and lathe for better, more efficient and more economical methods of manufacture. Thus, one corporation discloses that more than 15,000 "produce more for victory" suggestions have been submitted in the first two months the plan was in operation.

Far from putting a check on the ingenuity of American industries, scientists, and workmen, the pressure of war has supplied a new edge and keenness.

Loose Talk

Walter Reuther is a big man now, vice president of the United Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Workers' Union, C. I. O. He can afford no longer to pop off, just to get headlines.

Reuther claims that, notwithstanding reports that the Fisher plant at Pontiac is five months ahead of schedule, it has produced only one gun. Unfortunately the union leader has two Fisher plants confused. One is five months ahead of schedule. The other has produced only one gun. The latter still is ahead of schedule, since the one gun is a prototype, and the plant is not scheduled for production until October.

That's the sort of loose talking that is even more to be condemned in highly placed officials, who command news space, than in the layman to whose grousing not even his own family pays much attention.

Five Midland Men Enlist For Duty At Bombardier College

Five Midland men have joined the U. S. Army Air Forces and probably will be assigned to the Midland Army Flying School as aviation mechanics.

They include Clifford C. Keith, former city attorney; Leland Foster, Odie Kelly, ex-high school football star; Otto D. Schuelke, and Willie J. Philpott.

Under the Army Air Forces recruiting campaign to obtain aviation mechanics, men are enlisted with the request they be stationed at the nearest air school to their enlistment site.

MAFS is leading in enlistments for mechanics among many areas of the state. Area enlistees and their cities include: Charles H. Tucker, Big Spring; Hamilton B. Cain, Wink; George C. Moreland, Jack Pitzer, Monahans; Albert E. LeMay, Coleman; and Lois L. Sapp, Robert J. Love, John L. Gentry, Charles Norman, Jr., and Virgil R. Patton, Odessa.

Men of Midland and its territory again are reminded that the Army Air Forces still is picking ground crew specialists, many of whom will be stationed right at home. Aviation and radio mechanics and technicians especially are needed by Uncle Sam.

Information may be obtained from Lieut. Wilbur Saul at Midland Army Flying School. His telephone number is 900, extension 440.

Linen weaving and shipbuilding are the chief industries of Northern Ireland.

John Maloney To Speak At MAFS

John W. Maloney, investigator for the American Red Cross and authority on European affairs, will speak at Midland Army Flying School Tuesday.

Lieut. Carl W. Allen, secretary of the training school, announced Maloney would speak to officers and cadets at the post theater. Capt. Russell Brown, special service officer, is arranging for the visitor to address the enlisted personnel.

John Maloney, now in his early thirties, has shuttled from one critical world situation to another ever since his graduation from Heidelberg University at the age of 19 years. Immediately following, he was appointed press attache by the Royal Siamese government to accompany King Prajadapok on his tour of the United States and Canada. While at this post, at the beginning of the Manchurian War, The Associated Press appointed him to report the Sino-Japanese situation.

Joins Red Cross Staff

At the outbreak of the present war, Maloney was sent to Europe to report on political and relief conditions for the Red Cross. In the Balkans for several months, in Finland through the latter part of that struggle, and in Geneva, he surveyed relief conditions, assisted in mapping evacuation plans and, on behalf of the International Red Cross, arranged the exchange of prisoners between Finland and Russia at the war's conclusion.

When Nazi bombers rained destruction on Holland, when the Germans occupied France, through to the final collapse of the French government, Maloney covered the refugee flights. His cables to the American Red Cross gave his country its most graphic description of the terror and suffering among the seven million people made homeless by the German invasion.

He is the author of "Let There Be Mercy" and articles by him on European and Far Eastern conditions have appeared in leading periodicals and newspapers of many countries. He speaks under auspices of the War Department.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

It's real puzzlin' when you stop to think about it...

I mean the way the human race has worked out a whole set of cut-an'-dried alibis for its misdeeds and shortcomings.

Some of them's harmless alibis—like the office boy's grandmother who always passes away just before the big baseball game.

Here's some others. "My alarm clock didn't go off." "I left my money in my other suit." "I was settin' up with a sick friend."

And then the one about the two beers. Now that one is downright exasperatin'.

Because there's not a shred of truth in it. Every once in a while I read in the papers about some ornery cuss, who never did know the meannin' of moderation, gettin' himself into trouble——and then protestin' that all he had to drink was "a couple of beers."

He knows it isn't true. He's just sayin' that because he knows that

"a couple of beers" sounds moderate and sensible-like—and it is.

Personally, I don't ever remember seein' a couple of glasses of good beer, enjoyed among friends, hurt any normal, sensible person.

If you won't get in trouble without beer, you aren't going to get in trouble with it.

Matter of fact, it's been my observation right along that a friendly glass of beer in pleasant sociability leads to just the opposite of trouble.

It goes along, seems to me, with good companionship, and moderation, and tolerance for the other fellow.

Yes, sir, from where I sit, it looks like the fellow that goes and gets himself in trouble, and then blames it all on a "couple of beers" isn't really foolin' anybody.

But he is bein' mighty mean and unfair to the people that enjoy the right to a sensible moderate drink like beer—yes, includin' "a couple of beers."

Lease Instead Of Well Allowable Is Proposed

AUSTIN (AP)—Oil operators who will come here next Thursday for a statewide prorating hearing were called upon Friday to be prepared to testify to the advisability of the railroad commission's establishing lease allowables in its orders rather than per well allowables.

Commission Chairman Ernest O. Thompson said the plan doubtless would "save a great deal of time and effort," constitute real conservation, simplify operations and help solve problems of manpower and rising production costs.

The population of the U. S. is about 88 per cent native.

Esquire Writer Says Bombardiers Of Today Are Heroes Of Tomorrow.

In battles of Coral Sea, Midway, and other fronts, the best blows are dealt by the man in the "greenhouse". According to Robert W. Marks, whose article "The Pilot and the Bomb's Rush" appears in the October Esquire, the bombardier who until now has been the forgotten man of offensive aviation, is the man for whom all the rest of the air arm is set.

Esquires observer paid a visit to the Bombardier College here and had his eyes opened—wide! He reports that it's uncanny, the way a bombardier and his bombsight get together and make a perfect hit.

Says Marks: "The bombardier's problem is more intellectual than physical. He is not a sharpshooter, he is a lightning calculator. He must be able to estimate correctly the altitude of the bomber, the altitude of the target, the speed of the plane, and the movement of the target. What follows is up to the bombsight, for within its sacred entrails are cogs and cams which palaver together with the brilliance of an Einstein and the precision of the Bureau of Weight and Measures. If the bombardier doesn't lie to his bombsight, the bombsight will never let him down—and every egg will fall, as the bomber lingo has it, "right in the pickle barrel!"

Esquire's observer relates with unbounded admiration the stiff courses of training which a would-be bombardier must follow and concludes: "and these bombardier youngsters are coordinating bomb-sight data so well and to such effect that soon the Axis will no longer have ships in which to pollute the sea, no factory in which to prohibit strikes, nor oil to pour on troubled waters. Victory depends upon offense; and offense depends on striking power; and when everything is said and done, these are the men that strike. The bombardiers of today are the heroes of tomorrow."

Boy Aggies Have 51 In High Class Units

Fifty-one boys had enrolled to noon Friday in the agriculture classes at the Midland high school, 23 as first year students and 28 as second year under the direction of Harlan Howell of the faculty.

The boys have planned their year work around the idea of producing foodstuffs for war times, and will raise livestock and farm and garden produce. Some of the boys have purchased calves to feed out, others lambs, and some will feed hogs. The Future Farmers of America, organized within the two classes, will undertake as a club to feed out 5 hogs and 5 lambs.

This Proves Honesty Of Many Californians

LOS ANGELES (AP)—There are at least 10,000 honest persons in Southern California, says Paul Barksdale D'Orr, state rationer.

That many sugar rationing books have been returned by persons no longer entitled to them, he said.

They've entered the armed services, moved to hotels or to other states—or died.

PORTLAND (AP)—You barbecue a lamb two and a half hours, you make sure everybody has a good time, then you sell war bonds like every other thing.

So says Alex Geokan, stock rancher and native of Greece.

It was all he could think of to help win the war, so he's done it three times—and sold $25,000 worth of bonds.

When the League transferred the summer session of the national tournament from Asbury Park to the Park Central Hotel in New York, League officials anticipated that the tournament might be smaller. But on the contrary, practically every event established a new record. The world championship Masters team-of-four established not only an attendance record but a record for early upsets. However, the team that earlier in the year won the Vanderbilt Cup, emblematic of the national knockout team-of-four championship, carried through to win the world championship Masters team title. The members of the team, representing the New York Bridge Whist Club, are Lee Hazen, Sam Egan and Maurice Seiler of New York, Richard L. Frey of Great Neck, L. I., and Sigmund Dornbusch of East Orange, N. J. Hazen, captain of the team, helped them to win with the hand shown today. With the North hand, he suspected the diamond weakness and went to four hearts over three trump. This is not an easy game to reach but happens to be a lay-down in the play. After the ace of hearts was forced out, the declarer cashed ten top tricks.

Tojo Is Paying Price In Australian Sector

MELBOURNE (AP)—Allied Forces have definitely sunk 25 Japanese warships and transports and destroyed 300 enemy planes and perhaps 500 in less than five months, a review of communiques from Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters has disclosed.

The operations all were in the Australia war zone, the area embraced in MacArthur's Southwest Pacific Command. Forty-one additional warships and transports were damaged, and a total of 177 enemy planes severely damaged or "probably damaged," making the aerial toll 477.

Smoker's Pipe Dream Is Now Really True

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK—The complete smoker can now wash his hands in a brown soap made from tobacco and decorate his pipe with a varnish made from tobacco.

He can also build a den in which walls and ceilings—floors too if he wishes—are made of tobacco fiberboards.

These new uses of tobacco are reported by J. S. McHargue, of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station in The Frontier, a publication of the Armour Research Foundation. They come from the search by scientists for profitable uses for low grade tobacco.

McHargue thinks the quality of smoking tobacco has been improved by finding new uses and markets for the low grade stuff, which he hints sometimes got into your smokes despite the efforts of the

Help Soldiers By Being Real Friend

DALLAS (AP)—If you want to help the morale of soldiers, sailors and marines, invite them into your homes, members of the Youth Synod of Texas Presbyterian Churches were advised.

The soap, she says, possesses excellent cleaning qualities. The varnish, brown in color, gives a high luster. The tobacco fiber board is unusually light-weight. He thinks it will be a useful supplement to present fiber board sources.

Senate Approves Surtax Revisions

WASHINGTON (P)—Senate Finance Committee members drove Friday to clean up odds and ends of the new tax bill after approving income surtax revisions which omitted specific mention of the $25,000 maximum income-after-tax limit recommended by President Roosevelt.
Chairman George told reporters, however:
"Take a look at those rates we voted Friday. You'll see a man can't keep much more than $25,000 unless he's a millionaire."
Treasury tables compiled to show the total impact of the new income tax rates and the 5 per cent "Victory" gross income levy showed that if a married man with two dependent children earned $50,000 a year, he would have to pay the government $26,636 in taxes. A man with a million dollar income would retain only $92,029, and one who had an income of $5,000,000 could keep only $349,806.
Sharp Jump In Travel Taxes
The committee also voted a sharp jump in travel taxes, increasing the rates on train, bus and plane tickets to 15 per cent on ordinary accommodations and 20 per cent on reserved seats and sleepers. The present tax is 5 per cent on all categories.
The committee reduced the surtax for the lower income groups while raising it for persons with bigger incomes.
The normal individual tax rate of 6 per cent, voted by the House, was approved, as were personal exemptions of $1,200 for married couples and $500 for single persons. However, the Senate committee lowered the credit for dependents from $400 to $300.

While heavy defensive fighting and counterattacks occupied the men of Stalingrad, street engagements raged on at the Black Sea port of Novorossik, the Russians pursued mopping-up tactics in trans-river fighting in the Terek valley of the Central Caucasus and the Red Army of the Central Front registered new gains, the Russians said.

Dispatches from Vichy said French defenders of the island, which lies off the coast of Southeast Africa, had been able to put up little more than token resistance "to save our honor."
Churchill said the three coastal ports surrendered after brief attacks Thursday morning and declared British casualties were light.
Vichy accounts said all three ports had been heavily shelled by British warships before assault troops landed. The French estimated the invading force as two divisions or about 30,000 men.

AT FIRST SIGHT

CHAPTER II

MARTIN happened to her when she was 18. It was cataclysmic. Martin's coming made it seem as though nothing in her life up until that time had mattered at all, and he colored everything that went after.
She was in her last term at the Barrett School. In March, her Uncle Bruce came up to talk over with her what was to happen after graduation.
They sat over a table at Ye Campus Tea Shoppe and Uncle Bruce drank quantities of scalding coffee, black, while Candace made the hearty mid-afternoon tea of an adolescent. "Think you'll have trouble getting by on the college entrance exams?" Uncle Bruce asked, teasing.
"I'm not even taking them."
Though he smiled, too, Uncle Bruce sighed a little. "That's rather too bad," he said lightly. "It would have pleased your aunt."
"Would it? I don't see why," Candace said.
He had realized for some time why Belle had insisted on the expensive Barrett School for Candace; it was not because she wanted to do something nice for the child whom, he acknowledged reluctantly, she disliked and resented, but because of the possible husband Candace might meet through it, the brother, or the cousin, or perhaps even the boy friend of one of the socially prominent girls there.
Belle could forgive the child a lot, even her mother's ridiculous marriage, if she were to make it possible for her to say casually, "My niece, Mrs. Somebody-or-other-Important." Belle had apparently given up hope at last that Peter, his own son by a former wife, would endow her in any similar fashion. Peter was a medical student, and "actually grubbing at it," Belle said in disgust. And likely as not, she would add, to marry some little nobody, he might even marry a nurse—

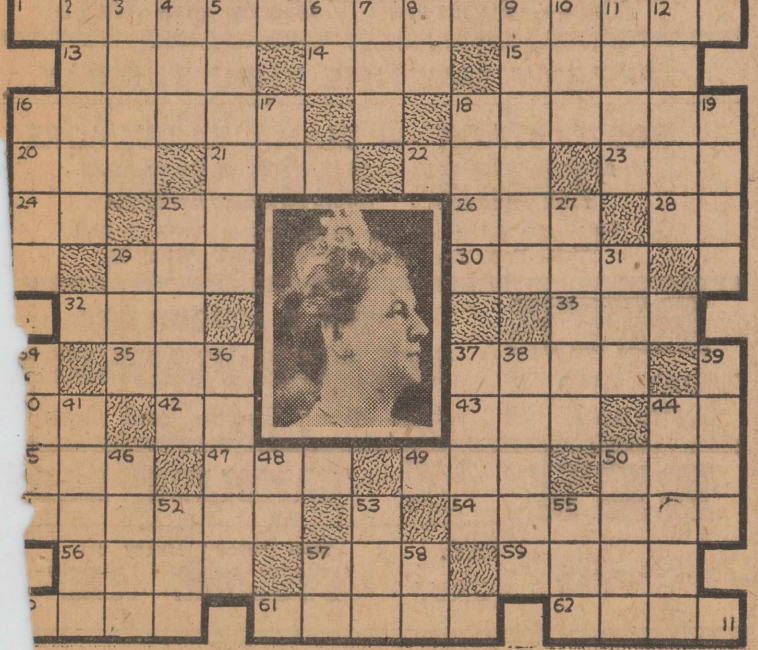

It was only Martin she saw as Peter said with a hint of pride, "My cousin Candace, Martin."

"Oh, Uncle Bruce, I didn't mean—" She held her jaw rigid, he guessed, in an effort to keep from tears, and her hands twisted together. "But if my own mother didn't want me—"
Bruce swore. "Who ever said such a thing?"
She pointed out with simple logic, "She gave me away, didn't she?"
Bruce became aware that his voice had been rising and that the waitress was taking an interest in their conversation. He leaned across the table, spoke low, quietly. "Let's get this straight," he said. "Your mother loved you. Your father, too. They loved you so much that they could bear to part with you—but only to your mother's own sister, mind—so that you could have better care than they could give you."
She was quiet, digesting that, and making a pretense of eating while she fought for self-control. She asked finally, painfully, as though only a desperate need could drive her to mention it, "Uncle Bruce, I've always wanted to know: were they happy together? Was she glad she did it?"
He thought back, remembering the shabby, sick little woman in rusty clothes, with only the fine eyes left as a remnant of her youthful good looks; he thought of the man with the face of an ascetic, singing to her, because his crippled fingers could no longer coax music from his violin, the melodies which he had once taught her and which she had always loved. And he remembered their faces as they looked at each other. . . . He said, "They were very much in love. They were poor, and sick, but they were happy together."
He couldn't stand much more of this. He prepared, briskly, to leave. He said firmly, "You'll take your college entrance examinations. You'll spend the summer home with us, and you'll enter college in the fall."
He couldn't know that in June she would be meeting Martin, and that then everything would be changed.

Zivic Belts Red Cochrane Around Ring In Winning

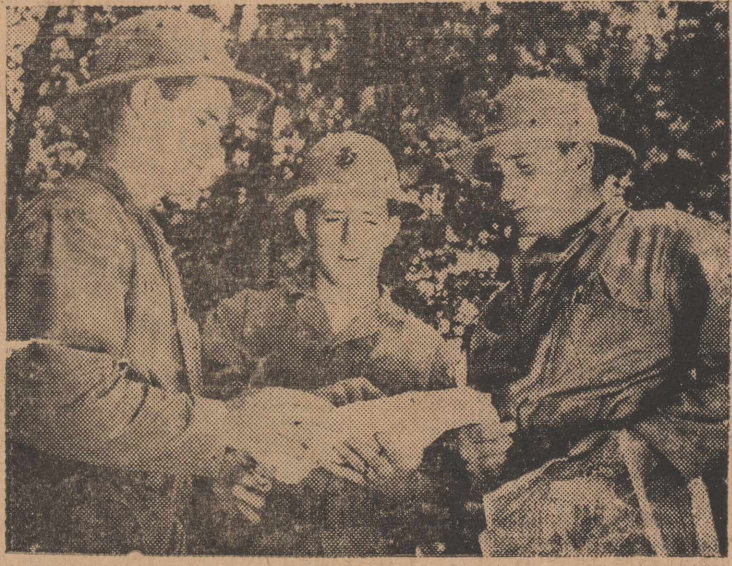

NEW YORK (AP)—Red Cochrane still is the welterweight champion of the world, but there is no doubt that Fritz Zivic is the champion of Red Cochrane.

Cochrane, on leave from the Navy to fight for the USO before going on active sea duty, received a belt emblematic of the title at Madison Square Garden Thursday night, but that was nothing to the belts he took from the veteran Pittsburgh ringmaster in the 10-round bout which followed immediately.

As a result of his victory over the pudgy red-head, Zivic will meet another former welter king, Henry Armstrong, who is bouncing along the comeback trail after losing to Zivic Oct. 4, 1940, and failing to retain it in a return match two months later. The bout probably will be held Nov. 6.

Although carrying enough ballast to make him list as a result of the water he was forced to drink so he could come in over the 147-pound limit, Zivic ripped and slashed and thoroughly bedazzled the tenacious Cochrane over the 10-round route to win as he pleased and gain revenge for the defeat 14 months ago that cost him the title.

Larry McPhail To Go Off To War, As Dodgers Defeated

BROOKLYN (AP)—Larry McPhail, the magnetic mastermind of the Brooklyn Dodgers, says he doubts his ball club can win the National League pennant so it may be just as well that he is in Washington while the St. Louis Cardinals set siege to Ebbets Field.

The president of the Brooklyn club went to the capital Thursday night to complete arrangements for his entry into the Army—probably with a commission in the Field Artillery in which he was a captain during the first World War.

But before he left, he witnessed the 10-2 debacle which his Dodgers dropped to the Chicago Cubs and it apparently made him even happier that he was marching off to war.

Anyway he was laughing as he declared to newspapermen "I doubt if my club can win it" and recalled the warning he had given his players three weeks ago that they would have to hustle harder if they were to win.

Eastern All-Army Has Tough Games On Big Schedule

NEW HAVEN (AP)—New York, New York Giants, Saturday, Baltimore, Brooklyn Dodgers, next Wednesday night, Boston, Chicago Bears, four days later.

That's the tough assignment the Eastern All-Army football squad heads for with the metropolis as its first bivouac.

"You can say," said Col. Bob Neyland, the head coach, as the husky soldiers completed a five-weeks training assignment here Thursday night, "that I preserved my usual pessimistic silence."

"We're satisfied that we are as well prepared" for the three-game-within-nine-days-Army Emergency Relief Fund program as any all-star team could be," went on the colonel, who pointed out that although practice began here Aug. 5, many of his leading players were several weeks late in reporting.

But, what appeared to be uppermost on the Ex-Tennesseer mentor's mind was how well the former All-Americans and professional stars on his squad of 53 would perform in action.

He'll get an answer at the Polo Grounds on Saturday against the Giants, whom, Col. Neyland claims, should be rated as 5 to 3 favorites.

Col. Neyland says he "really doesn't know" what his lineup will be when the whistle blows Saturday.

He has indicated however, that it will include an all-professional backfield of bone-crusher Norm Standlee, Stanford and Chicago Bears; Johnny Pincel, Michigan State and Detroit Lions; Harold Van Every, Minnesota and Green Bay Packers, and Vic Spadaccini, Minnesota and Cleveland Rams.

The line, averaging 213 pounds, consists of Jack Russell, Baylor, and Bob Friedlund, Michigan State; Forrest West, Tennessee and Philadelphia Eagles; and John Mellus, Villanova and New York Giants, tackles; Al Baisi, West Virginia and Chicago Bears, and Bob Sherrod, Texas Christian, guards, and Tom Greenfield, Arizona and Green Bay Packers, center.

Shreveport Beats Cats In First Of Series Playoffs

By The Associated Press

The Beaumont Exporters and the San Antonio Missions, with the count tied at one—all as a result of the Exporters 5-2 win Thursday night, moved on to San Antonio for a continuation of their series Friday night.

In the other Texas League Shaughnessy playoff series Shreveport and Fort Worth tangled in their first extra-season game, the Sports emerging with a 2-1 victory before a crowd of 8,000.

Friday night Beaumont will depend upon the hurling of Earl Cook, and the Missions have elected to take their chances on the mound work of Al Lamachia.

Shreveport will send either Floyd Speer or Doyle Lade to the hillcock, and Manager Hornsby of Fort Worth has given the nod to reliever Earl Caldwell.

Beaumont scored its initial run in the first inning but thereafter Sidney Peterson of the visiting Missions held the score down until the fifth, when the Shippers exploded and pushed across three runs. Ans Moore and Hot Evers led the offensive, Beaumont added two more tallies in the seventh.

Clarence Gamm of the Shippers yielded only four hits, allowing the Missions a score in the second inning and another in the eighth.

In a pitting battle that kept the crowd enthralled, Ralph "Bruz" Hamner won a close decision from Hank Oana, one of Fort Worth's pitching mainstays.

The Sports cut loose in the eighth inning, bunting two hits for a run after two outs and a walk. Shreveport scored its other run in the first, and Fort Worth its sole tally in the second.

Cardinals Crowding Dodgers As Big Series Opens To Decide Title Race

By The Associated Press

The National League's stirring pennant struggle assumes a new and even more vivid hue Friday as the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals come together for their final, fateful series.

They have met many times before of course, but this time the situation is different and desperate for the Dodgers in spite of the fact that they still are in first place by two games.

If the Redbirds can beat Brooklyn Friday and Saturday, they will be even with the Dodgers for the first time this season—and will win with Philadelphia in the first, and Philadelphia with a great opportunity to grab the lead.

For, while the Cardinals are tackling the tall-end Phils four times in three days, the schedule calls for Brooklyn to play only twice.

Thus if the Cards are able to rout the Dodgers and keep on winning at Philadelphia, there is nothing Brooklyn can do to keep them from moving into first place, at least temporarily.

That explains how control of the race suddenly has slipped from the Dodgers' hands. They let go of it with humiliating 12-2 defeat by the Chicago Cubs in Brooklyn Thursday while the Redbirds were raiding the New York Giants 5-1 across town at the Polo Grounds.

Howie Pollet, a jinx to the Giants, allowed only four hits and would have had shutouts except for Mel Ott's 27th home run in the seventh.

Before the game Carl Hubbel, who was to have pitched for New York, was struck on the head by a ball thrown in from the outfield by Stan Musial of the Cardinals.

He was taken to a hospital, but an examination indicated he was not critically hurt. Hal Schumacher pitched—and lost.

In the American League Thursday, both the New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox were defeated, keeping the margin between them at ten games, but reducing the requirement indicated he was not critically hurt. Hal Schumacher pitched—and lost.

Odessa's Bronchoes In State Football Limelight

Odessa's Bronchoes vault into the middle of the state schoolboy football limelight tonight on their home field.

In a game billed as the No. 1 attraction of the week, the Red Horses, favorites in District 3AA, battle Rufus Hyde's North Dallas entry. The East Texans are among the top contenders in District 8AA.

With a veteran ball club, the Odessans are paper-edge picks over North Dallas.

In another contest involving a 3AA member, Lamesa plays Tahoka. The Golden Tornadoes are reported to be much weaker than last year when they proved to be one of the most dangerous teams in the section.

Tahoka is an old rival from Lamesa's days in Class B (now A).

Semi-Pro Series Is Postponed To Spring

NEW YORK (AP)—Semi-pro baseball's annual "World Series," scheduled to be held at Havana, Cuba, Oct. 1-12, has been postponed until next spring, president Ray Dumont of the National Semi-Pro Baseball Congress announced here Friday.

Dumont said the inability to guarantee United States players transportation to Cuba was the principal reason for the postponement.

The Boeing Bombers of Wichita, Kas., 1942 national semi-pro champions, will be eligible to represent the United States in the spring series.

THREE-FOURTHS NATION'S STEEL OUTPUT INTO WAR

WASHINGTON (AP)—More than three-fourths of the Nation's monthly steel output of 5,300,000 tons is now going into direct war use and the rest into such essential industries as railroads and machinery manufacture, the War Production Board has disclosed.

This war and essential-industry channelling of steel was emphasized by a report from David F. Austin, acting Chief of WPB's iron and steel branch, that four-fifths of it was being delivered on priority ratings of A-1-A or higher.
