The disclosure was made in a Navy communique which also reported that as a result of two recent actions the enemy also had lost a total of seven planes and a small launch.

The newest enemy landings, ac-* complished with strong naval support, were clearly part of extensive preparations for a major Japanese attempt to smash the spearhead of the American Solomon Islands oftensive. They were carried out on the nights of October 5-6, October 7-8 and October 8-9. Japs Strike Overland

Senate Approves Bill Placing Highest Rate In History On Incomes

WASHINGTON (AP)-In record breaking time, the Senate Saturday passed the record breaking new tax bill clamping the highest rates in history upon the incomes of individuals and corporations.

The vote was unanimous, 77 to 0.

The measure would impose a tax of 19 per cent on the first taxable dollar of every citizen, and add to that a five per cent victory tax on every penny he receives in excess of $624 annually, or $12 weekly. At the other end of the tax ladder it would tax income in excess of $5,000,000 at 88 per cent.

The Prodding Begins

Professionals who were connected with the Republican 1940 presidential campaign say positively that Wendell Willkie is not a politician. His recent second front statement in Moscow, and its repercussions, would seem to corroborate this viewpoint.-

For the most part Willkie's statement was a routine bread-and-butter message, pleasing to his Soviet hosts and quite noncontroversial.

"I am now convinced," he said, "we can best help by establishing a real second front in Europe, with Britain, at the earliest possible moment which our military leaders will approve."

That is no more than President Roosevelt and Premier Churchill, newspaper editors, government officials and military commentators have been saying for months. So long as the qualification "at the earliest possible moment which our military leaders will approve" is retained, we can all agree heartily.

But then Willkie, earnest, enthusiastic and worried, had to add: "And perhaps some of them will need some public prodding."

Of all persons in this country and Great Britain, none is more aggresive minded, more anxious to take the offensive quickly, than Franklin D. Roosevelt and Winston Churchill. Only a fool would suggest that either is timid or lackadaisical in his approach to this war.

Why, then, with these two holding the whip hand, should the public, completely ignorant of military needs or military supplies available, try to prod Roosevelt and Churchill?

To be sure, Willkie spoke of prodding our military leaders. The military leaders will advise, but Roosevelt and Churchill will decide.

Inevitably, the Willkie statement provoked an outburst of demand for an immediate second front. Most notable recruit was the austere London Times, which often speaks for the government.

The Times makes a strong case for an imdediate second front before Russia can be beaten sufficiently to release a new Nazi blitzkreig against Britain. The argument is sound.

Does the Times have inside information that we now possess the men, ships, the planes, the guns, the munitions, the tanks, in sufficient quantities in the right places?

The public prodding has begun. It must not be permitted to force a second front before we have a fighting

Mass Production Cuts War Costs

The ingenuity which once enabled the automobile industry to make millions of passenger cars at prices that millions could afford to pay will save American tax payers huge sums in the manuacture of arms. According to an official of the War Production Board, improved methods introduced by industry, are cutting 20 per cent from the original estimated price of most items and economies in some cases run as high as 40 per cent.

For the first time in history giant bombers started rolling off the assembly line last spring. The assembly line technique had long been used to speed the production of small trainer and fighter planes, but never before had it been applied to giant bombers. Military requirements forbid the slightest hint as to the volume of production, but it has been stated that production figures would provide the most reassuring kind of reading for the American publie.

Then there is the encouraging report that one gun which originally cost $150 is now being made for less than $50 by mass production methods.

* One plant, now entirely converted to war manufacturing, accepted a contract far beyond its estimated capacity and half a year later was producing twice as many machine guns as the contract stipulated. Now, a little more than a year from the start of the work, the output of this single plant is seven times as great per month as the original optimistic figure. This, as figures show, is one of many tributes to mass production which American industry has mastered so well.

Illinois Upsets Minnesota's Reign

Champaign, Ill.(AP)-Minnesota's two year supremacy over its rivals in the Western Conference came to a stunning end Saturday when a low-regarded Illinois team forged to a 20 to 13 decision before a riotous homecoming throng of 24,-276 spectators in Memorial stadium. The alert viciously charging Illini scored in the second period on a 35 yard run by Guard Alex Agase with a ball stolen from the hands of the Gophers' star, Bill Daley. They used a Minnesota concoction -a double-lateral-to go ahead 13 to 7 in the third period. And after Minnesota tied it in the final quarter, Illinois won the game when Agase plunged onto a loose ball in the end zone for his second touchdown.

A SALUTE TO OUR YOUNGSTERS May they always be free

Midland has a right to be proud of its youngsters. They're doing their part to see that America wins this war. They're working whole-heartedly in collecting usable war materials and turning those materials into War Bonds and Stamps. They're doing their job-well. They deserve to inherit our America-our Free America!

Urge Continuation Of Fire Prevention Practices In City

With civic leaders urging continuation of fire prevention practices every week in the year, Midland's observance of Fire Prevention Week ended Saturday night.

Churches, schools, civic and service clubs, the fire department, civilian defense organizations, and other groups participated in the program which leaders termed the most successful and far-reaching ever staged here.

Clint Myrick, chairman of the fire prevention committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, Saturday expressed appreciation to all organizations, firms and individ-uals who assisted in conducting the program. Fire Prevention Week was proclaimed by national, state and community leaders.

Other Committee Members Other members of the committee which planned and executed the program are George A. Heath, Frank Prothro, Miss Laura Jesse, Miss Vesta Deaton, Delbert Downing, Claude O. Crane, the Rev. Hubert Hopper, Fire Chief Luther Tid-well and Bill Collyns.

Fire drills, talks, and poster and essay contests were held in each of the city's schools. Announcements were made from the pulpits of the various churches the pulpits of the various churches. Special fire prevention programs were presented during the week at meetings of the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce, Business and Professional Women's Club, Ro-tary Club and Lions Club. Frank Williams of College Sta-tion conducted a special fire pre-vention demonstration at the high vention demonstration at the high school auditorium October 3 to inaugurate the week's observance in Midland.

The men responded to the appeal of the Air Fores for 100.000 men with mchanical ability to help service planes now flowing from

America's assembly lines. In line with the Air Forces practice of "earmarking" the men who volunteer in this locality for return to Midland or other fields in this vicinity, all these West Texans carried with them to reception centers at Lubbock and Fort Sill letters from Brigadier General Isaiah Davies asking that they be returned immediately upon completion of induction, physical check-ups and basic military training. Midland Volunteers

The Midland men now at work on the bombardier training planes are: Privates Jack T. Duncan Raymond A. Smith, Robert H. Canterbury, Wilson H. Drennan, William L. Joyce, Clyde R. Cooper, Clifford C. Two-Piece Costume Is Supreme; Personalized Forms It Takes Are Unpredictable

The Midland Reporter-Telegram

MIDLAND, TEXAS, SUNDAY OCTOBER 11, 1942

Now It's the "Together-And-Apart Suit"

By Marguerite Young NEA Service Staff Correspondent NEW YORK.—It's no longer 'What will you wear?" when women get together. Instead, oftener than not, it is, "What will your suit be like?"

That's how supreme the two-piece costume is-and how unpredictable are the personalized forms it takes. The suit is, in fact, Theme One of the American fashion. Nothing new nor pretending to be, of course. Knowing women have own-ed and worn at least one suit since way back.

But the speed and certainty with which American designers chose the suit as the wartime style was inspired. They've been improvising on this theme for a year, now, and they're still doing it with a per-sistence and freshness that make ashion news practically every day. Winter collection of three top custom dressmakers, Mainbocher, Hattie Carnegie and Sophie Gimbel, are brimming with new suit-ideas One idea which is done by all of them, and which again multiplies the importance and wearability and variety of suits, is what you might call a "together-and-apart" suit. "Jacquette" Fits Now comes Frederick Knize with some more-and different-statements of the contrast-suit. He has two-piece suits, skirt of solid color and jacket of wondrous mixture, especially checked and plaid patterns. One step further: a "jac-quette"—just a top, and one to a customer by the way—which goes with any skirt . . . or slacks . . . Or ski trousers.

Knize, you may know, is tailor and shirtmaker who taught London and the Continent a thing or two about smooth dress. The current collection, marking his second anniversary in America, again stresses the hauteur of matchless fabrics and workmanship. A mantailoring idea inspired the "jac-quette." Knize made for men's ports, now makes it for women. It has handknit sleeves, like a

Four-Point Child Welfare Program Is Planned By Goodman

State Representative James H. Goodman has received notice of his reappointment as chairman of the child welfare committees of the State Bar Association and the Texas Department of the American Legion. He said he plans to sponsor a four-point child welfare program in the next session of the legislature, explaining it as follows: 1. To simplify delinquent child court procedure.

2. To provide for advisory child welfare councils in each community. 3. To provide better protection and care for indigent war mothers and their offspring.

4. To provide a broad, long-time defense training program for youths.
