Glad Girls Bible Class.

The Glad Girls Bible Class of the Baptist Church are striving for a 100 per cent class on the six-point basis. Sunday Oct. 17, we had twenty-nine girls present and twenty-two were 100 per cent pupils. Sunday Oct. 24 we had twenty-seven present with twenty 100 per cent pupils. Next Sunday we want every girl present to be a one hundred percent.

Our class will have a Hallow'e'n party at the home of our teacher, Mrs. W. H. Albertson Thursday night Oct. 28. Every member of the class is urged to be present and bring a friend.

Preacher Resigns at Sweet Home.

Bro. E. D. Dunlap who has been pastor of the Sweet Home church for the last two years resigned at that place last Sunday. He has accepted the church at O'Brien and though we hate to see Bro. Dunlap leave us we hope he has great success in the new field he is taking.

Reporter.

Services at Curry Chapel.

Rev. C. Jones of Haskell filled his appointment at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at Curry Chapel. There was a large crowd out, of which we were very proud. He also preached Sunday afternoon at the Sunday School hours.

Rpeorter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blount of Howard were Haskell visitors Saturday.

Richards-Lattimore

Mr. Arthur Richards and Miss Cora Lattimore were married by Judge R. P. Simmons in his office Saturday October the 2nd at 4 p. m. The contracting parties were from Rule, where they are well and favorably known and have a host of friends who wish for them much joy through life.

Mr. M. E. Park, who resided on his farm near Weinert, has been on the sick list for the past two weeks still confined to his room.

You need to drive a Pontiac Six for only thirty minutes to discover abilities and qualities absolutely unique at the price.

You experience a mastery of performance once undreamed of in any low-cost six—acceleration that borders on the sensational, lugging power and sustained high speed capacity that would be impossible save for the fact that the Pontiac Six engine is the largest six-cylinder power plant used in any car costing less than $1000.

Yet, unprecedented as they are, these performance results only typify the pronounced over-all superiority that has made Pontiac Six such a spectacular success from the day of its presentation.

In the beauty of its Fisher bodies, in its supreme roadability, in its economy of operation and its unflinching stamina, the Pontiac Six represents a decisive departure from the standards that once ruled in the field of low-cost sizes—

—a fact that you can prove to your own satisfaction by a thirty minute drive—at any time, under any condition.

Down at Kerrville, where it is said there is more hospitality and courtesy to the square inch than in the whole acreage of some other towns, traffic officers find it a part of their duty to hand out "Visitors' Courtesy Cards."

When a visitor to that town unknowingly and thoughtlessly violates some traffic regulation, he is not summarily jerked up by some bulldozing officer, hailed before a court and sent away with a bad taste in his mouth and cursing himself for ever visiting the place, but he is handed a little red tag which says:

"You have violated the traffic regulations of Kerrville.

"We are glad to have you visit our city.

"In the future remember the traffic regulations as shown on the reverse side of this card.

"You are excused.

"Come again."

The card is signed by the board of city commissioners, and on the reverse side of the card, the traffic rules are set out briefly.

It is easy to surmise that the visitor to Kerrville who is presented with one of these cards goes away with a great deal better feeling than he would if he was leaving the cost of a fine behind to help enrich the coffers of some unreasonable traffic officer.

Too many traffic officers "lay" for the transient, jerk him up on most any little irregularity, and then let some home "bully" run roughshod over the public at breakneck speed.—Ballinger Ledger.

PICK ALL THE COTTON

Of a piece with the proposal being advanced in some sections of the cotton belt for the purchase by non-farmers of bales of cotton to be burned in an effort to reduce the available supply and thereby send prices up is the advice given to farmers that they should leave a portion of their cotton unpicked. The aim is the same in both instances—the reduction of the number of bales available for the market. Reasonably enough, if either or both of the expedients were adopted generally the price of cotton would go up. The less cotton there is to supply the world's demand the higher the price is. But the two schemes involve in different ways losses that would far exceed the price gains which they might influence.

The "burn a bale" scheme would devolve upon the mistaken sympathizers with the cotton farmers. The "picking strike" would entail a direct loss upon the owner of the cotton thus abandoned. In either case could any problematical price gains equalize the loss.

Every bit of cotton that can be gathered this year should be picked and ginned. After it is ginned, there is a probability of further increasing its value by holding it. The bale of cotton held back from the market might easily be a factor in increasing the price, if there are enough bales so held and if the holding movement is supported by a guarantee against over-production next year. But the bale that is left unpicked in the fields or the bale that might be purchased at present prices and burned, is a total loss to somebody in the South and, consequently, to the South generally.

Every farmer should pick every bale of his cotton that it is possible to gather. After that he should hold whatever part of it he is able to carry with the assistance of his bankers and his local merchants. Then if he and his fellow farmers will get together and eliminate wasteful over-production next year, the bales of cotton so conserved this year will have an increased value that will repay the trouble of putting them in shape for the market. Cotton in the bale and properly stored in not a perishable commodity. This year's cotton will be as good next year as this. Next year it may be worth a great deal more than this year. The farmer who can afford to let his cotton stay unpicked in the field can afford to pick it, gin it, store it and hold it for better prices.—Star Telegram.

Wilson Gleaton
On the 17th day of October 1926, W. D. Wilson of Rule Texas, and Mrs. Hattie Gleaton of Wichita Falls Texas, were united in marriage at the Depot Haskell Texas. The bride arrived on the 6:35 train. The ceremony was performed by J. W. Mason, Justice of Peace Precinct 6, Haskell County Texas, in the waiting room of the Wichita Valley Depot. After the ceremony the bride and groom drove over to Rule where they will reside.

There was a large crowd of the grooms friends over from Rule to witness their marriage, and congratulations were extended by the many friends. The train was held for the ceremony. The wishes of their many friends is that their pathway in future life may be strewn with fragrant flowers, and the fragrance of the flowers might be a reminder of the hour when they took upon themselves the solemn obligations of husband and wife.

A SPLENDID FEELING
That tired, half-sick, discouraged feeling caused by a torpid liver and constipated bowels can be gotten rid of with surprising promptness by using Ilicbine. You feel its beneficial effect with the first dose as its purifying and regulating effect is thorough and complete. OIL CALLS THE KILOWATT

The estimated monthly production of oil in the field embracing the counties Shackelford and Callahan and the northern portion of Coleman and Brown counties, 800,000 barrels.

Thirty-five per cent of this production or approximately 280,000 barrels, is pumped by electricity furnished over the lines of this company. There are 750 wells in this field equipped with electricity driven pumps. And in addition electricity is driving numerous pipe line pumping stations, machinery in gasoline plants, carbon black plants, and gas compressor stations, is driving two drilling rigs at this time and is furnishing light throughout the field.

Here is a striking example of the diverse usage of electricity in industry—and that too, in an industry where fuel (one of the major items of expense in power production) is extremely cheap. In fields where unlimited quantities of natural gas are available a virtually no expense electricity produced at generating stations many miles away comes in to compete on an equal footing and holds its own.

No source of power known to industry is so convenient, so flexible, so safe, so sure, so economical as electricity. The preeminence of American industry is predicted on this modern miracle. Electrical power is essential to its continued growth and prosperity.

That is why this company knows that it must, without fail, always be ready to furnish unlimited quantities and at reasonable rates. It must do this if it is to fulfill its duty in furthering the growth of the industries of West Texas.

And it is doing that.

Standard Training Class to Be Given at Presbyterian Church October 31 to November 6.
 The Standard Training Course is a Diploma Training Course authorized by the Presbyterian Committee of Publication, and is in accord with outlines recommended by the International Council of Religious Education. It is intended for pastors, directors of Religious Education, Pastor's assistants, church secretaries, superintendents, general church school officers, departmental officers, teachers, young people 17 years of age or over, Catechism and Week Day Church School workers, parents and all others who are interested in promoting Religious education. It consists of eight units of general study and four units of departmental specialization. Each unit comprises twelve lessons all of which must be prepared with an hour or more of study, and at least ten of which must be taken in class. The full course therefore comprises 144 recitation hours, equivalent in amount to more than four hour credits out of the sixty hours' credit of a four year college course. A College "hour" means one recitation a week for a year. These credits are interchangeable with other denominations, so that workers or parents in any of the other churches who are interested in this work are cordially invited to come and take the work as offered in this class. The unit to be given will be "The Organization and Administration of the Sunday School" by Cunningham and North. A certificate will be issued by the Presbyterian Committee of Publication upon the satisfactory completion of the unit. Miss Stella Hoove of Ft. Worth, Director of Religious Education in Ft. Worth Presbytery will direct the class, and it is hoped that a large number will enroll in the class.

Remember that for efficiency constant training is necessary in every business and profession. Teaching Sunday School is no exception to this rule. Remember to neglect no opportunity to improve your efficiency as a soul winner and a character-builder.

Remember that Christ is the greatest of all teachers. Take him as your model; study his methods, and become inspired with his love for men. Then leave the results with him.

Sunday School Going Good at Morris Chapel.
 Sunday School is progressing nicely at Morris Chapel with Mr. Jack Medford, superintendent. Everybody is invited to come out next Sunday morning and enjoy the Sunday School.

VENERABLE WOMAN PASSES AWAY
 Mrs. Emma McFarlin Reynolds wife of W. J. Reynolds of this city passed away at the family residence east of the railroad Tuesday morning October 26, about 9 o'clock after a lingering illness of more than 6 months. She was nearing her 68th birthday when the end came and it is said of her that she bore her sufferings with much fortitude and without complaining. She had been a member of the Baptist church since girlhood and her life was spent in the service of her Master and in duty to her family. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds were married in Tennessee January 10, 1878 and to this union eleven children were born and ten with the husband still survive. R. O. Reynolds Oklahoma City, Okla. John Reynolds, California; Mrs. Zora Cunningham, Haskell; Hershel Reynolds, 1st. Lt. in U. S. Army; Will Reynolds, Haskell; Mrs. Mary Tucker, Houston; Fannie Neal, Stamford; Marvin Reynolds, Haskell; and Mrs. Clyde Kelly, Stamford. All the children who lived in and near Haskell were present at the funeral, which was held at the grave at 10:30 Wednesday morning by Rev. W. H. Albertson after which her remains were laid to rest in Haskell's beautiful burial park. May He, who alone can pour balm into wounded and broken hearts comfort the bereaved loved ones in this dark hour of sorrow.

TEXAS 1926 FARM INCOME TO EXCEED THAT FOR 1925

Figures released by the Department of Agriculture indicate that regardless of the present low price of cotton the outlook for agriculture in Texas and the Southwest is even brighter this year than last, when $799,330,000 was produced in Texas from crops alone. As shown by the following figures, the crop production in Texas and the Southwest this year will exceed that of last year.

The accompanying crop figures, the latest available for 1926 as compared with last year, cannot be read without a feeling of pride in what Texas will do this year. The figures speak for themselves. They show such a variety of crops grown on a commercial scale that failure of either a single crop, or in the price of one crop, does not materially effect general economic conditions. Those farmers who did not put all of their capital, time and labor on a single crop—those who consider the farm as a place on which to live and make a living, and their numbers are in excess of what has ever been the case in Texas and the Southwest heretofore, are not materially discouraged by the unfavorable price of cotton at the present time.

These crop statistics do not include livestock or livestock products, or poultry and poultry products. In Texas, livestock and livestock products add approximately $275,000,000 to the income this year, and poultry about $75,000,000. Thus, Texas will this year stack up a total agricultural income of more than a billion dollars. Oils and minerals in Texas will add another $100,000,000 to this year's income.

The figures given herewith eliminate all pessimistic theories. The crop income in Texas largely controls the economic situation of the state and these figures showing the 1926 production compared to 1925 remove beyond a doubt the possibility of a lower agricultural income in Texas this year than last.

Ray Norman
 Mr. A. L. Ray and Miss Lela Norman of Stamford were united in marriage by Judge R. P. Simmons in his office in the court house about 9:30 o'clock Monday morning October the 25. The happy young couple returned soon after the ceremony to their friends in Stamford where they are expected to reside.

SOCIETY and Club

Thursday Luncheon Club.
The Thursday Luncheon Club entertained their husbands in the home of Mrs. O. E. Patterson on last Friday evening with a seasonable dinner, after which the evening was spent in playing 42. The reception suite was enhanced by baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and the score cards were decorated with pumpkins in recognition of the Halloween season. Substitute members were: Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Wallace Cox, Charlie Connor, Mrs. Ethel Irby, Mrs. Marshall and Mr. Emory Menefee; members with their husbands were: Mr. and Mrs. John A. Couch, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Reid, Mrs. P. L. Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Lebo, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. ... Mrs. Elmer Irwin, and Mrs. B. M. Whitaker, H. S. Wilson and Mrs. O. E. Patterson.

Woman's Missionary Society Has Meeting.
The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met last Monday in a monthly business meeting. Mrs. S. R. Rike, president, opened the meeting with a devotional and read the 34th to the 44th verses of the chapter of St. Mark. Then followed a minute detailed account from all standing committees, which from a financial standpoint alone was very encouraging. This report will be given to the pastor, Rev. W. B. before he leaves for annual conference.

Quilts were reported sent to the ... House at San Antonio. On next afternoon the society will meet at the regular hour and place but will have there to visit new church members and the shut-ins. There were 22 ladies present last Monday.

Maurine Couch Honored by University, Waco.

Miss Maurine Couch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Couch, who is a student in Baylor University, Waco, Tex., was honored last week by being given a ... at the table with President and ... S. P. Brooks, Ex-Governor and ... Pat M. Neff, and other board members, when the faculty tendered a elaborate dinner to the student ... Miss Couch also sang on the program that was given at this time. Mr. and Mrs. Couch have received special compliments from faculty members on the quality and richness of their daughter's voice. It is a pertinent fact that wherever Haskell sends her sons and daughters to school there comes an echo of some kind of high grade work.

B. Y. P. U. Has Party Friday Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stallcup and Mrs. The Simmons met with the members of the Intermediate B. Y. P. U. in the basement of the First Baptist Church last Friday evening and a splendid time was had by playing all kinds of indoor games and then an abundance of ice cream and cake for all present. This is one way of entertaining the young people in the right way.

Miss Nella V. Wheatley Has Birthday Party.

On last Saturday night Miss Nella V. Wheatley invited a large number of her friends to help her celebrate her birthday and between twenty-five and thirty responded, several coming from Hamlin. According to all reports a general good time was enjoyed by the guests who left some beautiful and useful presents to remind the hostess of this occasion. Delicious refreshments were served.

Cobb Fox.

Glenn H. Cobb and Miss Eula Mae Fox were married Saturday October 2nd by Judge R. P. Simmons in his office in the courthouse in this city at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. These young people were from the Rockdale community and are descendants of two of the most prominent families in that section of the county. They have a host of friends who wish for them much joy in life.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson of Sweet Home are the parents of a new girl born last Sunday. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

On display this week Latest Perfection Cookstoves

Look for this sign in store windows

All this week you can see practical demonstrations of the Perfection Stove six famous cooks have tested and endorsed. Look for above sign in store windows. See the stove today and judge for yourself what the experts approve. Prices and sizes to suit every need.

"Useful, free from soot," says Philadelphia cooking expert.

THIS PERFECTION is the model the six famous cooks used in their tests. It is being demonstrated today at all dealers', along with other Perfection models. See its actual performance with your own eyes. You'll be convinced the experts are right in endorsing Perfection Stoves!

Cooking begins when you touch a match to the wick. No time lost in heat generation. Clean, intense heat flows up the long chimneys direct to your cooking. Every drop of oil is completely burned before the heat reaches utensils so they are kept clean and unstained.

Each burner is independently operated and capable of every range of heat. You can bake, boil, broil, fry and simmer on a Perfection—all at one time. Adjust the flame for any cooking process and it remains as you set it. Be sure to see the Perfection demonstrated today. Its size from two to five burners.

Ideal stove for camping. Fast Perfection burner, protecting wind-shield, ever cool handle. Stands firm on circular base. Won't tip easily.

Add variety by broiling meats in a Perfection Broiler. Cooks on both sides at same time due to special construction. Turning unnecessary. No juice can drip into flame. Easily cleaned.

"Cooks as quickly as gas," says Battle Creek expert.

Superflex range with fast-as-gas burners and built-in oven. The stove for those who want the best. Warning cabinet easy to clean and prevents grease splattering walls. One of many Perfections being demonstrated today.

MCOLLUM, ELLIS & COUCH

The above is a picture of the traveling "Paper House on Wheels" and the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Harris of Point, Texas, who have traversed America twice from Mexico to Canada and return and from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans and visited almost every state in the Union. They have met and had in their home as guests some of the most noted people of our land, including President Coolidge and Mrs. Coolidge, and the Governors of more than twenty of the States and have been photographed with many of them. They have been guests of John D. Rockefeller at his palatial Tarrytown home and estate and to the home of Henry Ford and Asa G. Candler, the Coca Cola king, also been in the home of Zane Grey the novelist on the Catalina Island in the Pacific Ocean, a veritable fairyland owned by Wm. Wrigley, Jr.

Many of the noted movie stars have been guests of the Harris' while in Hollywood, including Mary Pickford, Doug Fairbanks, Charlie Chaplin, Marie Prevost, Chas. Ray, and others. They have traveled more than twenty-six thousand miles in their home, which is built on a Chevrolet chassis and crossed the Continental Divide or Rocky Mountains six times last season and visited practically all the National Parks of the country.

In this traveling home they cook, heat and iron with gas, have electric lights, bath, cook stove and heater, folding furniture which is converted into useful conveniences for other purposes and is well arranged, cozy, and pretty.

The daughter's name is Loretta and she has had one of the most unique experiences of any girl in Texas, having been with her parents on these travels taking along her pet, which is probably the strangest and most curious pet of any girl in the world. Its name is Jack and he is a Chinese Dragon, smuggled across the ocean by a soldier from China, where natives of the Orient worship dragons as a God. Jack is the only one of his kind in this country alive and he is a lovely and docile creature with pretty variegated colors and is about five feet long.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris in their "Paper House on Wheels" with Jack, the little girl's strange pet, are at the Fair Grounds this week with the big Worthan Shows. Mr. Harris said that Haskell County people should be happy for there is a wonderful future for them as they are surrounded with such wonderful and fertile land and a splendid climate.

BIG COMPANY HELPS LOCAL MERCHANTS KEEP BUSINESS AT HOME

How one of the largest manufacturing concerns in the country cooperates with their dealers to keep local business in the hands of local concerns, was interestingly brought out in a talk with one of our leading tire merchants last week.

The company to which he pointed particularly for its work in this direction is The United States Rubber Company, which has perhaps gone further along these lines than any other tire concern.

There are several reasons, aside from the very good point of keeping home money at home, why our own local tire stores are the logical place to buy tires rather than the mail order houses.

Tires need looking after by an experienced tire man. He must have a well equipped and well stocked shop and be able to tell whether a tire is doing its work properly, and if not, why not.

For instance an expert tire man can tell whether tires are wearing unduly because of the wheels being out of alignment and can correct the trouble in time.

If improperly equalized brakes are causing tire wear, the tire man can tell that and warn the owner.

This sort of service you cannot expect when you buy tires from mail order houses.

The United States Tire Company started eleven years ago to educate people to their interest in supporting the legitimate home town tire dealer.

In addition to running its own educational campaign in local papers without interruption for eleven consecutive years, the Company encourages the dealer to supplement it with advertising of his own and helps him do it. Under certain conditions it even shares the expense of the dealer's own advertising.

Recent improvements in production methods now enable the United States Rubber Company to market, through the local dealers, tires of known quality, bearing the Company's full warranty, for as little money or even less than the cost of nameless mail order tires of uncertain value.

C. W. McCown was in the city a few days ago and said that he had plenty of feed but that his cotton which was hailed out in the spring and replanted was late and was not turning out much yield.

Mr. W. E. Bland of Center Point had quite an accident last Thursday when he lost the left wheel off of his trailer, caused by an axle breaking. Fortunately he was not injured.

OLD-TIMER OF HASKELL DIES AT DURANT, OKLA.

News reached here Monday morning that A. G. (Capt.) Lambert died at the family home in Durant, Okla., Sunday night at 11 o'clock after a brief illness. The burial took place in Durant at 5 p. m. Monday. It was first planned to ship the body here for interment, but later decided to bury him there.

Mr. Lambert came to Haskell in the year 1899 and lived here until four years ago when he went to Wichita Falls, and from there he went to Cleburne and lived a short while when he moved to Durant where he lived until his death.

He is survived by his wife and six daughters. Mrs. John B. Lamkin of this city is the oldest daughter. She was unable to go to her father's bedside when the call was received because of her health.

The many friends of the family here will deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones in their dark hour of sorrow.

SHAVING PARLOR

B. T. CLIFT, Prop. North Side Square

THE OUTLOOK FOR COMPETITION IN COTTON

The United States of North America has been, since 1793 when the cotton gin was invented, in the lead of all other countries in cotton production and with diligence may hold this lead indefinitely, notwithstanding the fact that there are influences at work in promotion of cotton production in other countries having led and climate fully as well adapted to cotton growing as our own; but American cotton growers cannot afford to ignore the possibilities of competition and should proceed intelligently so as to produce neither so little cotton as to induce increased acreages in foreign countries nor so much as to impoverish not only themselves, but the growers of every land, and above all, if American supremacy is to be maintained, our cotton must be produced efficiently. This is perhaps a stern view of the outlook for cotton production in the United States, but it is nevertheless heartening when considered in the light of an intimate discussion of the subject by Dr. B. Youngblood, Director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in Bulletin No. 345 which has just come from the press and is entitled, "The Possibilities of Brazil as a Competitor of the United States in Cotton Growing."

Doctor Youngblood has for some time been directing his thoughts to the economic phases of the cotton industry and during his visit to Brazil in 1922 he made copious notes upon the geography of that wonderful country and upon the stages of agricultural development and the general possibilities of the population. He reports fully in his bulletin many interesting features which he found in Brazil that have important bearing upon the future of the American cotton industry and which cotton producers of the United States will read with profit.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to try to express our most sincere thanks and appreciation to our dear neighbors and friends in Haskell and Haskell county for the many kind words and deeds shown us in the sad death of our beloved husband and father, Keifer Beauchamp. Also we want to thank you for the beautiful floral offering and to the man who gave the suit of clothes words cannot express our thanks. May God's richest blessings rest upon you and all the dear good friends.

Mrs. Daisy Beauchamp, and children, Delbert and Sibyl.
