Nation's Miners Again On Strike

Ickes Has Next Move

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The big coal mining cog of the nation's war machine stalled again Monday and the 500,000 miners who run it looked to the government for their cue.

Rejecting what they termed an "infamous yellow dog contract" proposed by the War Labor Board, John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers invoked their "no contract, no work" policy for the third time within two months after negotiations with the operators collapsed.

By mid-morning there were no reports of any UMW members working in disregard of that policy, in either bituminous or anthracite pits. And in Illinois at least 1,000 of that state's 15,000 AFI Progressive Mine Workers were idle in a sympathy that affected three of the state's 130 mines with PMW contracts.

Negotiations Collapse Pennsylvania with 200,000 hard and soft coal miners and West Virginia with 130,000 bituminous workers represented more than three-fifths of the total number idle. Numbers of UMW miners in other states include 60,000 in Kentucky, Illinois 25,000, Alabama 22,000, Virginia 23,000, Ohio 21,000, Tennessee 10,000, Indiana 8,000, Arkansas-Oklahoma 6,000, Colorado 6,500, Wyoming 4,100, Utah 3,500, Iowa 2,000. New Mexico was held open for a speedy resumption of operations under the direct sponsorship of the government, however, and the next move appeared to be up to Interior Secretary Ickes, federal fuels administrator.

Ickes, represented by his aides as feeling that no precipitate action Sunday night could have fended off the expiration of the latest work truce at midnight, made no immediate comment. He cancelled a projected trip to Columbus, Ohio, where he was to have attended the governors' conference opening there Monday, however, and stood by to receive union representatives. The operators departed with the (Continued on Page 5)

Italian Citizens On Pantelleria Denounce Hitler and Mussolini

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA — (AP) — Sixty-seven Italian citizens of Allied-occupied Pantelleria have signed a letter denouncing "the two madmen, Hitler and his faithful vassal Mussolini," and appealing to the Allies to "save the garden of Europe," it was announced here Monday. The letter was addressed to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's command.

War Bulletins

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Rome radio Monday said Axis submarines sank one steamer and hit a second Sunday in a strongly-escorted Allied convoy in the western Mediterranean, and that torpedo-carrying planes hit another Allied ship near the Tunisia coast and probably sank it. Allied shipping riding at anchor in Bizerte Harbor was attacked "with good result," the Italians said. None of the claims was confirmed from any Allied source.

LONDON — (AP) — Lancaster bombers penetrated deep into Southern Germany Sunday night to attack the Luftschiffbau radio factory at Friedrichshafen and damaged all main buildings, the Air Ministry announced Monday night.

LONDON — (AP) — Steady strengthening of British and American forces in the Mediterranean zone again was indicated by a dispatch from La Linea, Spanish neighbor of Gibraltar, Monday. It was said 30 more landing launches each armed with two guns and carrying a crew of 25, left the British fortress for North Africa Monday. Some 70 merchantmen were reported in Gibraltar's harbor.

Axis Invasion Fears Increase

By The Associated Press German broadcasts declared Monday that an Allied invasion fleet was assembling in the Eastern Mediterranean off the Syrian coast, that landing craft were being moved into position in North Africa and that a large British and American naval force was concentrated at Gibraltar.

The unconfirmed Axis reports of the massing of invasion forces in the Mediterranean coincided with an Allied headquarters communique announcing heavy new aerial thrusts by British and American armadas across the narrow seas at air fields and ports of Sicily.

Jap Stab At Darwin Fails

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA — (AP) — Forty-eight Japanese planes stabbed at Darwin, Australia, Sunday but at least nine of them were cut down in a furious 10-minute battle with Spitfires.

Two of the Allied planes were missing but ground damage and casualties were minor. Six enemy bombers and three fighters were listed as definitely shot down. Thirteen damaged Thirteen others were so badly damaged they possibly never got home. Of these, two bombers and one fighter were in flames and falling when last seen. Eight other bombers and two fighters were observed trailing smoke and losing altitude. It was sweet revenge for the Spitfire pilots who remembered an earlier raid against Darwin by a large force of enemy planes.

American-flown Liberators dropped 31 tons of explosives and incendiaries on three airbases in the Rabaul, New Britain, area. Many fires were started on each field. One on Vunakana airbase was visible 50 miles away. Lae Airbase Hit The raid raised to 176 the number of tons of bombs dropped on Rabaul airbases in six raids since June 10.

Have attack bombers bombed and strafed the Lae airbase, destroying a grounded fighter and starting fires on the runway. A four-engine bomber attacked Kaimana, Dutch New Guinea. In New Guinea the Japanese made the fourth raid of the war against Bena Bena, about 90 miles northwest of Lae. Damage was negligible and no casualties were reported.

HELICOPTER ROUTES PLANNED WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board said Monday it had received a request from Herbert O. Nelson, Los Angeles, for authority to operate three helicopter air mail pick-up delivery routes from Seattle.

Landing Barge Gives Italians Invasion Jitters

Italian Morale Said Ebbing

STOCKHOLM — (AP) — The Italian people want to get out of the war and gain relief from Allied bombings that have hammered pre-invasion warnings home to Italy's industrial centers, informants recently returned from that country said Monday. Short of food except in high priced black market trading, short of sleep because of Allied air raids, and short of hope because they have lost faith in Mussolini's Fascist regime, the Italians were reported welcoming invasion or a separate peace as putting them out of their current misery. The Italians talk more and more about their chances of getting out of the war.

Deep Well Flows Average Of 71.4 Barrels An Hour

By Frank Gardner, Oil Editor Standalone Oil & Gas Company and Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 1 W. B. Blue estate, discovery well of the Wheeler-Ellenburger pool in extreme Eastern Winkler County, is shut in with all storage filled after flowing an average of 71.4 barrels of oil per hour for 16 hours through a 1/2-inch choke on 2-inch tubing. Gravity of the oil had increased to 44.7 degrees at the end of the test. Gas-oil ratio was 1,061-1. Flowing pressures were 1,200 pounds on casing and 700 on tubing. Shut-in casing pressure is 1,800 pounds and shut-in tubing pressure 1,700 pounds.

No. 1 Blue, in the SE NW NW section 15, block 46, township 1 south, T. & P. survey, is producing naturally through 300 gun-perforations from 10,647-97 feet, the total depth. Seven-inch casing is cemented six feet off bottom. The discovery topped the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, at 10,493 feet and cored continuous pay from that point to total depth. Thirteen miles west by southwest of the No. 1 Blue, Sinclair Prairie Oil Company No. 1 Seth Campbell, scheduled 11,000-foot Ordovician wildcat in Central Winkler, is building rig and moving in material. Contract was awarded to Loffland Brothers of Tulsa. Girvin In Granite Wash Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1 Roy Girvin, Northeastern Pecos County wildcat failure, drilled from 4,466 to 4,532 feet, then resumed coring. It now is in granite wash and reportedly will be abandoned when present core is pulled. The well showed sulphur water in the Ellenburger. (Continued on Page 5)

Complaining Mexican Locked In City Jail

A Mexican from Monahans struted into Police Headquarters here Sunday raving that he couldn't get anything to eat in a cafe here. After he had voiced his criticism of the cafe, Midland and things in general, he was locked in the city's jail and booked for "drunkenness." "We put him in jail where he belonged," was the police comment.

Father John J. O'Connell Will Go To Large San Antonio Church Soon

Father John J. O'Connell, pastor of St. George's Catholic Church here, will leave this week for San Antonio where he has been selected first assistant to the pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, the largest English speaking Catholic Church in San Antonio. He will be succeeded at St. George's Church here by Father Frank Triggs, who will come to Midland in a few days from San Fernando, Calif.

St. George's church parishioners and friends of Father O'Connell are planning a reception to honor him at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the Catholic Parish Hall. Father O'Connell came to Midland about five years ago and the number of parishioners at St. George's church has increased 50 per cent since he took charge. Extensive improvements have been made to the church property and it now is free of debt. He has been active in civic affairs and welfare work, especially among Mexicans, during his residence in Midland.

Land Warfare On Soviet Front Is Unusually Quiet

MOSCOW — (AP) — Land warfare on the Soviet front lapsed into local scouting operations and sporadic artillery bombardments Monday just one day short of the second anniversary of Germany's attack on Russia. A tense Red army awaited the summer offensive many observers believe Hitler must launch soon if he hopes to try to knock Russia from the war before the Allies attack in the west, but the continuation of day and night bombings was the only indication that a large-scale smash might be expected soon. The Russians announced Sunday night that 276 German planes had been knocked down during last week, boosting enemy aircraft losses to 3,595 in seven weeks. The Russians said their losses during the week were 94. A German transport was sunk and a tanker and two transports were set afire in the Barents Sea during an attack by Russian bombers, torpedo carriers and torpedo planes, the Russians said Monday.

Midland Receives 2.9 Inch Of Rain

Wind, thunder and lightning brought 2.9 of an inch of rain to Midland Sunday night, benefiting farms, ranches and Victory gardens in this territory.

Troops Mobilized To Restore Order

DETROIT — (AP) — Michigan State Police and state troops were ordered to Detroit Monday to restore order after six persons were killed and some 200 injured in widespread race riots.

Captain Donald S. Leonard of Michigan State Police announced shortly before 10 a. m. (Central War Time) that Gov. Harry Kelly of Michigan had ordered mobilization of the state forces.

At that time outbreaks of violence which had spread from an altercation at the Belle Isle bridge late Sunday night were continuing despite the mobilization of the entire 3,500 members of the police force of the nation's fourth city.

Troops Called Out Six negroes had lost their lives. A white physician, attacked while answering a call, and a police sergeant were critically injured. The police sergeant was shot in a gun fight with a negro store-robbing gang. Captain Leonard said the governor had directed mobilization, at two Detroit armories, of 1,000 state troops picked from the best-trained companies in the state. In addition, he said, between 40 and 500 members of the state police force including those in Michigan's upper peninsula, more than 300 miles from Detroit, were already mobilized and standing ready for action if needed.

Governor Kelly arranged to fly to Detroit from Columbus, O., where he had gone for the annual governors' conference. He said at Columbus, "I am not declaring martial law. I am trying to hold the situation without that." "We've got to stop this today if we're ever going to," the governor said.

Damage Is Heavy Groups of negroes and of whites milled about on street corners and in wide sections bordering and northeast of downtown Detroit, hurling stones and bricks at passing automobiles bearing members of both races. Automobiles were overturned. Police reported every window on Hastings Street, "Paradise Valley" of the Detroit negro section, broken for a distance of 2 1/2 blocks. Hospitals were crowded with persons awaiting treatment of injuries. (Continued on Page 5)

Meat Price Reduction Is Effective Monday WASHINGTON — (AP) — An average 3-cent-a-pound reduction in the retail price of most meats went into effect Monday—the second of three price rollbacks undertaken by the Office of Price Administration through payments of subsidies. The cutback affects all meat except cured and processed pork, but those cuts will come under the subsidy plan July 5.

Guardsmen Return Home

BEAUMONT — (AP) — Some 1,600 Texas State Guards departed for their homes Sunday as martial law, invoked Wednesday following racial trouble here, was lifted. Approximately 60 Texas Highway patrolmen and a score of Texas Rangers will remain on duty for several days.

Bombers Staggered In Raids

(First in a series of six stories on the methods of attack used by bombers of the U. S. Army Air Forces, as explained by instructors at the world's largest school for bombardiers at Midland.)

By The Associated Press When you read that U. S. bombers have blasted another German industrial center, you can be pretty sure it happened something like this: The biggest planes, four-motored Flying Fortress or Liberators, came over at an altitude between 25,000 and 35,000 feet. Each formation covered a space about the shape of the area it was to bomb, but somewhat larger. The planes were probably "staggered," with no two of them flying exactly abreast of each other or at the same precise level.

Even though one particular factory might have been the prime objective, each bombardier did not try to lay his "eggs" right down the smokestack. The leading plane aimed for the center of the target and the others dropped their bombs in co-ordination. Big Bombers Need Altitude Combat has proved it advisable that the big bombers, comparatively slow and offering large targets, must seek high altitudes where anti-aircraft fire and enemy fighters present least danger. For this reason, as well as because of their range and loading capacity, they are used against industrial installations, docks and large ships. They seldom attack hostile ground forces.

Attack In Formation A fair bombardier with an American bomb-sight could plant a blockbuster within a city square from an altitude of five miles and think nothing of it. Thus for offensive purposes planes operating singly by precision bombing could cause the maximum of destruction. But heavy bombers coming in singly over a target are just what anti-aircraft gunners hope for. So they will attack in formation which will pass quickly over the target area. When the bombardier of the leading plane has his sight on the heart of the target, he drops his bombs in a "string." They are spaced to fall at definite intervals so they will strike the ground at set distances apart. If the aim is perfect the string will fall across the target.

Only the leading bombardier sights the course. If all the bombardiers sighted the course, a slight error might cause neighboring planes to collide. If the leading bombardier is a little off in his calculations, the bombs from a following plane will strike the point at which he aimed. (Tomorrow: Tree-Top Tricks)

The Fine That Didn't Stick

Harold Ickes, in his split personality role as War Coal Administrator, gave a perfect illustration how not to do things when he slapped a fine onto striking miners and then had to cancel his action.

Either the strikers were violating a hold-over contract or they weren't. If they were, theoretically, Ickes was obliged to fine them $1 for every day they were on strike and, in theory, he cannot now lift that fine by a wave of his hand.

But apparently there was a big question whether the contract still was in effect or whether the men were working without any contract, under a sort of common law agreement, in spite of John L. Lewis' boasts that miners never trespass on employers' properties without a contract.

Moreover, there being at least a reasonable doubt nobody was going to enforce against Ickes or against his principal, the United States of America, as mine operators, the penalty clause contained in the contract that was not in force—maybe, perhaps, and wouldn't you like to know?

Any child in a playground could have forecast that the attempt to levy such a fine would arouse the miners out of all proportion to the small amount of money involved. It was a gesture akin to spitting on a man's shoes when he knows, and you know, that he ought to be knocked down and tied with strong rope to make him behave.

An administration that failed to protect the rights of our fighting men by keeping coal production going, so that war industries need not be slowed down, got tough in the sort of petty way that bruises sensitive feelings without settling anything.

Of all the evidence that this country needs a new approach to the problem of handling strikes in vital war industries, this one took the cake.

Helicopters

The younger generation of fliers created by this war contains many who are as enthusiastic as Igor Sikorsky about the post-war possibilities of the helicopter as a family car of the air, which could do much to stop the concentration of living in overcrowded cities.

The beauty of the helicopter for local commuting, short-distance vacationing and similar purposes is that it would not require a complete rebuilding of existing communities to provide scores or hundreds of big airports.

Misery Loves Company

Before the Middle West is restricted as to gasoline consumption beyond what is necessary to save fires, it should be established beyond reasonable doubt that this would help the afflicted East.

If the serious situation in the East can be relieved by making other sections share the shortage this should be done.

But no section should be penalized merely on the theory that misery loves company. If restrictions elsewhere will not make it possible to get more fuel to the East, there should be none invoked.

Maybe It Can Be Done

There was much reluctance in official circles about believing that there was even an experimental possibility that Henry Kaiser could build the huge plywood cargo planes he proposed, which were and are needed badly.

Thanks largely to public pressure, supporting Donald Nelson's willingness to find out, Kaiser was given opportunity to make good. Now he has produced 16-foot scale models that prove his point and has won the right to build full scale planes with eight motors each, capable of carrying 60 tons of cargo.

It was worth trying wasn't it?

Best Beauty Aids

WAAC OFFICER: healthy.

By Alicia Hart
NEA Staff Writer

If you want proof of the excellent effects of regular hours, balanced diet and a bit of exercise each day—just take a look at a WAAC.

Their clear eyes, blemish-free complexions and winning smiles are attributes every girl can boast about, if she wants to take the trouble to form a few of their simple health habits.

Begin by drinking plenty of water, milk and fruit juices each day. Make certain that you eat some sort of green vegetables or salad at lunchtime and for dinner. And keep in mind that roasted or broiled meat, poultry and fish are much more digestible than fried fare.

Chiropractic Is Scientific Method Of Eliminating Causes Of Diseases Without Use Of Drugs Or Surgery

Chiropractic is a scientific method of eliminating the causes of diseases without the use of drugs or surgery, says Dr. Velma Scott of the Scott & Scott Health Conservatory, 2107 West Wall Street.

The science centers on the study of the spinal column. Health is the result of a well-balanced spine. Every cell of the body is dependent upon the proper supply of vital nerve energy from the brain. If the line of communication is interrupted, the organ supplied by that line will be deficient in its function. If any lines compressed, the full quota of vital energy cannot get through and the result is an impaired function of the organ or organs affected.

Chiropractic Aids Nature
The trained chiropractor locates the exact point of interference and corrects it through scientific chiropractic spinal adjustment or through other treatment. With the accomplishment of this repair, vital nerve energy is able to reach the organ and health is the natural result. "Chiropractic is the natural method to assist nature," Dr. Scott says. Dr. J. Dow Scott and Dr. Velma Scott have been located in Midland for the past year. Dr. J. Dow Scott is in charge of the Watt Clinic in Odessa. They have been practicing chiropractic since 1937—long enough to receive valuable experience in actual practice, recent enough to have received benefits of the latest methods. Both are graduates of Carver Chiropractic College at Oklahoma City and of the Warner Institute of Reflex Therapy.

Dr. Velma Scott returned last week from Philadelphia where she received her master's certificate in endo-nasal therapy from the Endo-Nasal and Aural Society. Endo-nasal work is a new step in treating hay fever, asthma, deafness, epilepsy, and other ailments.

Dr. J. Dow Scott is attending a national naturopathic convention in Nashville, Tenn., this week. He also will study endo-nasal therapy in addition to natural health methods. Conservatory Well Equipped
The chiropractic profession was the first to recognize the severe consequences of spinal displacements and of lagging organs, Dr. Scott says, and it now has gained a wide reputation for the success of the methods of treatment.

Latest methods in the chiropractic science are used at the Scott Clinic, and the most modern equipment is available. Included in this equipment are a Sin-Wave machine for the treatment of colon disorders, arthritis and other similar ailments and conditions; a Faradic Wave machine for heating deep tissues (used in treatment of hyper thyroidism and hypo thyroidism); a Diathermy machine for treating portions of the body with short-wave rays for the treatment of rheumatism, colon troubles, female disorders, prostrate troubles and other internal ailments; and an infra-ray light used in treatment of muscular aches and pains.

A normalizer or tilt table has proven beneficial to many patients. It is used in treating fallen organs, in retoning and replacing internal organs, and in toning muscles. Appointments may be made by calling 305.

Improvements Completed At Midland Baking Company, Home Of Delicious Midland Maid Bread And Pastries

Remodeling of the enlarged retail sales room at the Midland Baking Company, 112 South Main Street, has been completed and interior decorating is expected to be finished this week. O. S. Coupland, owner, said other improvements are to be made soon.

The bakery has acquired the space formerly occupied by the Taylor Pharmacy and has doubled the width of the sales room. Inlaid linoleum will be installed on the floor, and other improvements made. The ceiling has been painted white, and the walls are cream colored to within six feet of the floor, with the painted wainscoting in a colored design.

The room, which formerly was only 12 feet wide, now measures 24 feet, and has an exceptionally attractive appearance. Here bread, cakes, pies, cookies and other pastries are temptingly displayed in showcases in a well-arranged pattern.

More space also has been obtained, and Midland Special Mineral (for cattle and sheep) are manufactured here. The special mineral was recommended especially for this specific area. Cottonseed meal range cake with a 20 per cent protein content, especially good for this season of the year, is sold by the company.

A mill is operated in connection with the feed store here, and the firm does all its own grinding. Equipment includes two mixers, a feed mill, a syrup mill. One mixer has a 2,000 pound capacity, the other 1,000 pounds.

Custom grinding is offered by the Midland Feed Store, with feeds ground to suit the individual customer.

The Sweetwater line is constantly being improved through efforts of experimental laboratories, and is recognized as among the best by West Texas stock raisers.

"Now, above all times, it is necessary to feed properly," McCoy said. "We maintain complete feeding service for farm and ranch and will be glad to discuss feeding problems with anyone."

tained for the bakery shop, and it also has been repainted.

All Midland Maid products are sold over the counter in the show room. These include wholesome Midland Maid bread, delicious devil's feed, angel food and yellow cakes; Boston cream, banana, pineapple, cherry, apricot and apple pies; doughnuts jelly sticks, cup cakes, and a delicious assortment of cookies. Special cakes are baked on individual orders.

Midland Maid bread, known by its white and red wrapper, is becoming ever more popular with housewives of the Midland area because it is energy-packed. It may be purchased at leading grocery stores in this area.

In addition to Midland Maid bread, the company produces whole wheat, rye and French breads.

Coupland, who has had 32 years of experience in the trade, personally supervises all baking in the well-equipped plant, and takes pride in producing better products. He has been employed in some of the larger bakeries of the country in addition to owning his own business, and for five years he was supervisor of a large cake baking plant in Memphis. He has been in West Texas 10 years.

ATTEMPTED MURDER?
CHAPTER XVII
SHAW came back while we were still at the table. He said he didn't want to interrupt our dinner and that he'd talk to the servants first.

I gave him the use of my study and we finished our meal in a depressed silence and retired to the living room to await our turn for questioning.

"It must have been an hour and a half before he finished with the help, Imogene Lake was the last one. Shaw kept her in the study a long time and when she came out she was dabbing at her eyes. She gave one quick scared look at us in the living room, as she passed through the hall, and then she went straight upstairs.

I found myself in sudden panic going over the possibilities of what Imogene could know. She slept in a bedroom in the tower. She hadn't even been in the house last night.

What I didn't know until long afterward was that Shaw hadn't been asking her about the night before. He had been hammering away on our alibi for that first day. And he had worn her down until she had admitted something she had never intended to tell.

Shaw summoned us to the study, one at a time, first Mattison, then Will Grady, his wife—a deputy went over to the tower and brought her back with him—Walter, Connie, and Kathy.

I wondered why he saved me until the last, but I soon found out. He waited until I was seated and then he asked me to tell everything I could remember about the night before. I began with Margaret's hysterics, and my visit to her in the night when I put two of the sleeping tablets into a glass of water to dissolve, and finished with that awful moment when Clint Mattison and I had rushed up to her room in answer to Clara's frightened summons.

SHAW didn't interrupt me once, but I saw him glance frequently at the notes he had taken from the others and I felt the hot blood rising in my face.

"I suppose you thought it necessary to hear the others first, so you could check my story," I said bitterly.

He had the grace to look ashamed. "I'm sorry, Mrs. Kraik. I'm only trying to get to the bottom of this plot on Margaret Grady's life."

I wasn't going to let him get away with that. He had no proof. I cut in. "You make it sound like attempted murder."

He just looked at me for a long moment, and that rattled me more than words. Then softly as a cat on the prowl:

"What do you think it was?"
"Suicide—attempted suicide."
"Why?"

"Why? Her grandson's death, of course. It broke her heart." I realized that I was talking too fast. It made my words sound rehearsed. I tried to relax.

Shaw spoke very mildly. "Let's see—she'd lost other relatives, hadn't she? This boy's mother—and her own husband. Did she try to commit suicide when they died?"

"But this was different," I insisted desperately. "Don't you see. It wasn't only Derek's dying—it was the way he died, the disgrace."

Shaw's eyes held mine. "You honestly believe that she tried to commit suicide?"

I nodded my head, blinking back the tears. A silence fell on the room. Through it I could hear the almost inaudible whir of the electric clock on my desk. The desk behind which Deputy Shaw sat as if it belonged to him.

He shot his next words at me. "Then why did you break the drinking glass that the sleeping medicine was in?"

THE nightmare was not ended! "It was an accident," I tried to sound tart and impatient, but my voice cracked. "We—that is,

Mattison and I—were lifting Margaret up on her pillows, so she could breathe easier, and one of my sleeves—you saw the Chinese robe I had on with the wide sleeves—brushed the glass off the table."

"And then you managed to step on it," Shaw finished dryly.

There was really nothing I could say to that. I waited.

"You did a thorough job of it, too," he went on. "But even at that there were a couple of pieces big enough to get some fingerprints from. We found Margaret Grady's and—yours."

I breathed again.

Shaw looked at me hard. "I just won't wash, Mrs. Kraik. You don't believe that Margaret Grady tried to commit suicide any more than I do. Women your age and hers don't take that way out. You've lived too long. You know there isn't any trouble so bad you can't see it through." He leaned toward me. "Your very action proves that you don't believe it. Sure, her fingerprints were on that glass and yours—both neatly accounted for. But you thought that somebody else's would be there too. That's why you broke the glass."

I knew then that I had been too clever.

Shaw continued to glare at me for a moment and then he got to his feet. I decided it was time to play my last card. "But, Deputy, why would any of us want to harm Margaret, of all people?"

Sam Shaw looked down at me mockingly. "You should have been an actress, Mrs. Kraik. Three of you were at the inquest yesterday. You heard me tell the owner that I was coming out here today to question Mrs. Grady about her grandson's death. Could it be, that somebody here didn't want me to talk to her? Could it be, that somebody was afraid she saw something from her bedroom windows the day Derek Grady was murdered?"

Bomber Crews To Be Equipped With Protective Armor

U. S. EIGHTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, ENGLAND—(AP) — Following exhaustive experiments, the Eight Air Force announced Monday that all crews of American heavy bombers are to be equipped with protective armor reminiscent of that worn by knights of the middle ages.

A London firm, which has specialized in sword-making since 1779, now is engaged in the manufacture of the equipment and it will be issued as rapidly as production permits, the announcement said.

The armor, consisting of a 16-pound sleeveless vest of manganese steel, already has been worn by some airmen on raids over Europe and is said to have proved very successful under stern tests.

The vest is made of heavy canvas to which are attached small overlapping squares of 20-gauge steel, giving complete coverage on chest and back. An apron, suspended by hooks from the vest, provides protection for the stomach and parts of the legs.

Pilots and co-pilots will wear only the half vest for chest protection since their backs are protected by the plane's armorplate. Bombardiers, navigators, gunners and radio operators will wear full vests. The aprons come in two types, full widths for standing men and tapered for seated men.

The half-vest weighs seven pounds, the full apron six-and-a-half pounds and the tapered apron four-and-a-half pounds.

The vest slips over the head and laces up the sides, with the pull of a string the whole gear can be shed instantaneously.

Surprise With A Bang

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The "surprise" 10-year-old Danton Jacobson planned for his parents was a dinner, cooked all by himself.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By William E. McKenney
America's Card Authority

I was glad to see Mrs. R. C. (Sally) Young of Philadelphia playing recently in the Eastern States mixed team-of-four championship in New York. For several years "Sally" was rated the outstanding woman player of the world. She is a petite girl weighing only a little over a hundred pounds. Nevertheless, she took over the task of driving a cab in Philadelphia because drivers and automobile mechanics are needed for the Army. All her earnings go into war bonds. So she still is a "champion."

time skill in the hand shown today. West cashed two high hearts and led the third round. Mrs. Young (South) ruffed, and led a low trump. West went up with the ace to lead the fourth round of hearts, and Mrs. Young had to trump again. She then held only the king and queen of trumps in her own hand and the jack and eight in dummy. She led a low club to dummy's queen, returned to her own hand with a club and led another high club. The ace and king of diamonds were played, followed by the fourth round of clubs. West still had three trumps, but they were worthless. He had to ruff, but dummy over-ruffed, and Mrs. Young won the last two tricks with the king and queen of trumps, making her contract.

St. Andrews, located on the east coast of Scotland, is the birthplace of golf.

No Agreement Reached By Group

ALGIERS—(AP)—The French Committee of National Liberation was reported unofficially Monday to have failed to agree in a morning meeting on the issue of division of military powers between Generals Charles De Gaulle and Henri Giraud.

Thirteen members of the committee met in a plenary session for two hours and forty-five minutes under the shadow of the prospect that De Gaulle might withdraw unless his own proposals for reorganization of French military affairs were adopted.

Unofficially, it was stated that the committee got no further than arguing the question of who should be commander in chief, a position Giraud now holds.

De Gaulle was reported to have demanded an immediate vote on this appointment. The committee was said to have deferred a decision until Tuesday.

A communiqué issued after Monday's meeting said simply: "The French Committee of National Liberation pursued the study of reorganization of the armed forces."

Court Reverses Ruling On Alien

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Supreme Court reversed Monday the action of the federal circuit court at San Francisco in ordering cancellation of United States citizenship of the Communist Party.

Justice Murphy delivered the majority opinion which asserted that clear and unequivocal evidence was necessary to cancel American citizenship and that this had not been produced against the Communist Party.

The decision constituted a victory for Wendell L. Willkie, the 1940 Republican presidential nominee, in the first case he has argued before the Supreme Court.

He represented William Schneiderman, state secretary of the Communist Party for California and a native of Russia. Willkie said he acted without compensation and paid his own expenses.

Schneiderman came to this country in 1908 at the age of three, became an American citizen in 1927, and his citizenship was ordered cancelled in 1940 by the federal district court at San Francisco on the ground that he had concealed his Communist connection.

juries. They stood or sat in corridors. Before noon police had arrested 326 persons on charges ranging from felonious assault to disturbing the peace and carrying concealed weapons.

All saloons in Detroit and suburban Hamtramck were ordered closed. Police directed pawnshop and hardware store operators to remove from windows and shelves all stocks of guns, ammunition and knives and to lock them in safes.

Two negro leaders, the Rev. Horace White of Plymouth Congregational Church and Otis Saunders of the Double-V Committee, a negro ward J. Jetties, they were met by jeers when they toured the area of violence in a police car with sound amplifier, appealing for a cessation of fighting.

White and Saunders said one cause of the emotional disturbance that rested in the riots was a wide and erroneous report among members of their race that a negro woman and child were slain Sunday on Belle Isle, recreational and swimming spot in the Detroit River.

They recommended mobilization of 200 negro leaders deputized as special officers, as the best means to ward off further rioting. Police agreed to the recruiting of 200 negroes as special aides, but said they would not be deputized and would not carry arms.

Auxiliary special policemen trained by civilian defense units to aid the police during air raids were ordered mobilized. Among them are many negroes.

Americans Bomb Japanese Bases

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Heavy bombing raids scoring a number of hits on the Japanese airfield at Tarawa in the Gilbert Islands were reported by the Navy Monday.

A communiqué said that on June 18-19, during the night American Liberators heavy bombers attacked Japanese installations at Tarawa in the Gilbert Islands. A number of hits were scored on the enemy positions. Although seven enemy Zero fighters were in the air over Tarawa they did not press a determined attack against the United States bombers.

On June 19, during the night Army Liberators attacked Japanese positions at Kahili, Buin area. A number of fires were started.

On June 20, during the morning, Navy Dauntless dive bombers and Avenger torpedo bombers escorted by Army Warhawk and Navy Wildcat fighters, attacked Vila, Kolombangara Island. A supply dump was hit and a fire started. Hits were also scored on the runway. On June 20, during the day, Navy Ventura medium bombers attacked Japanese installations at Kiska. Results were not observed.

In all of the above operations all United States planes returned, the communiqué concluded.

Affidavits Opposing Government Motion To Be Filed By AP

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Associated Press prepared to file in federal court Monday more than half a hundred affidavits in opposition to a motion for summary judgment in the anti-trust civil action against the non-profit, cooperative news-gathering agency.

Other affidavits also were to be placed in the record by The Chicago Tribune, a co-defendant, which has made a separate answer to the government charges seeking to open AP membership to all who are willing and able to pay their share of the cost.

Arguments on the summary judgment motion, by which the government seeks a decision against the AP without the taking of testimony from witnesses in open court trial, are scheduled to be heard by a three-judge federal court July 8.

Gunder Haegg Defeats Rice

NEW YORK —(AP)— The "battle of the bad shapes" is in the books Monday as a win for Gunder (The Wonder) Haegg—and the wonder really is a whole lot of foot-racer. But if ever a guy had two strikes on him it was Greg Rice Sunday in tangling with the Gavle Galloper.

Both the swift Swede and the stumpy stepper from Notre Dame had been doing so much hollering about their lack of condition for Sunday's 5,000-meter national championship that you got the idea it was the fatman's race at the annual Sunday school picnic. Haegg Off Form

But, while Gunder the Wonder still was off form—as witness his 14:48.5 time for the 5,000 compared to his world record of 13:58.2—he had a chance to run himself into some kind of workable shape in the New Hampshire hills since arriving in this country.

Rice on the other hand, had only a couple of hours a day off from his duties at the Merchant Marine Academy and had to work on a sun-hardened track near the station. He was so obviously out of shape that he never had a chance as the Swede took the lead in a hurry and won off by himself by some 35 yards.

This wasn't talking a thing away from the Swedish sizzler.

It was worth it to see him strut his stuff. He runs like 16-year old bourbon—smooth and powerful.

He insisted he went into the race expecting Rice to whip him, but he was the head man from the time he stepped out on the track in a canary and blue sweat suit—until he walked back to his dressing room.

In between, he was the boss from start to finish. Only for a half mile or so did he get any kind of a challenge. This was from Fred Witt, former Indiana distance runner, but Fred walked, and Gunder the Wonder just boosted his lead stride by stride. He was 100 yards in front at one time, until Greg started to "kick" in spite of the wear and tear he'd been through.

No. 2 Protects Russo From Hard Line Drives

Facts About Pay-As-You-Go Taxes

Q. Is the "withholding tax" a new tax or an additional tax?
A. Neither. It is a new "pay-as-you-go" method of collecting the Federal Income and Victory Tax. The amount withheld goes toward paying your regular income tax, including the Victory tax.

Q. Why is it called a withholding tax?
A. Because it is deducted and withheld by the employer from the wages paid to his employees.

Q. Is this the "pay-as-you-go" tax we've been hearing so much about?
A. Yes.

Q. Does this include my Victory tax payment, or is that extra?
A. The amount withheld includes the Victory tax.

Q. Does it include employment taxes, formerly called social security taxes?
A. The amount withheld does not include social security taxes.

Q. When does it start?
A. The new "withholding tax" takes effect on July 1, and is applicable to all wages paid on or after that date except for wages paid for payroll periods commencing before that date.

Q. Does the withholding mean that twenty per cent of my pay check will be taken out each pay day?
A. No. Exemptions bring the amount considerably lower, even for the single person with no dependents.

For instance, in the case of a married man with two dependents drawing $50 per week, the weekly percentage of withholding amounts to less than 6 per cent. In other words this man pays approximately $2.80 per week.

Q. Last March I paid one-quarter of the income tax levied for 1942 income, $15.80. What happens to that?
A. The first quarter of the income tax levied for 1942 and paid in March 1943 will be treated as part payment of income tax for 1943.

Q. How about the June 15th installment?
A. The June 15th installment also will be treated as part payment of the 1943 tax.

Q. How can I maintain my regular purchase of War Bonds through the payroll savings plan and at the same time pay out the additional withholding tax?
A. It should be easy under the withholding tax system as at present, since this is not an additional tax but merely an installment or pay-as-you-go method of paying your regular income tax.

Figuring Taxes Is Simple Compared To New Handicap Plan

SALT LAKE CITY —(AP)— Golf Professional Tom McHugh says figuring your income tax under the Ruml or any other plan is a cinch compared with a golf handicapping system he's tried at his Nibley Park course.

McHugh says it is called the Calloway system and works this way:

A golfer shooting between 95 and 100 is given a three-hole handicap and allowed to subtract the total strokes for his three worst holes from his gross score. Thus if he shot a 97 with one nine, one eight and one seven, he could deduct 24 for a net of 73.

As scores improve, the number of holes in the handicap is reduced until the 71-75 shooter gets only a half-hole deduction.

Star Says Broadjump Is Exhaustive Event

ADAMS' HURLING GOOD
NEW YORK —(AP)— Ace Adams, chief specialist on the faltering mound staff of the New York Giants, has hurled in 29 of the club's 33 games this season. He has won four and lost three.

Babe Ruth hit 714 home runs during his 22 seasons in the majors.

are separated by only eight games and six of the mare bunched within 2 1/2.

Startling shifts have been going on in the standings as a result. The Cleveland Indians, who were in seventh place before they started play Saturday, had soared into third at the close of competition Sunday.

Red Sox In Lead
The Boston Red Sox, who dragged along near the bottom for weeks, bounced blithely into the first division. The Chicago White Sox, who were third ten days ago, dropped into a tie with the St. Louis Browns for last place.

The greatest distance between any two clubs is the three games separating the first place New York Yankees and the second place Washington Senators, yet in ordinary times this would be considered a red-hot rivalry.

It is a pretty good one even now, and Sunday, when the Yanks and Senators tangled in a doubleheader at Yankee Stadium, Washington won the first game 5-3 and New York took the second 7-6.

Boston Trims Phils
Wildness by Charley Wensloff and Ernie Bonham gave the Senators the opener. After Mickey Vernon had hit a two-run homer in the sixth, they walked five men to force two runs. The Yanks clinched the nightcap with five runs in the second inning, climaxed by Charley Keller's second home run of the day and his tenth of the year.

Cleveland and the White Sox also split, Chicago nailing the first 10 to 6 with seven runs in the fourth inning and the Indians capturing the second 7-2 with Jim Bagby pitching six-hit ball.

Boston swept a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Athletics 7-3 and 6-5 with an attack that included five home runs. Jim Tabor hit two to highlight the first game and Babe Barna got one with one on to decide the second.

Browns Down Tigers
The Browns downed Detroit twice 6-3 and 5-4 with homers figuring importantly. Chet Laabs hit one with two aboard to decide the first game and Harland Cliff duplicated the feat in the afterpiece.

The National League standings also were shuffled with Cincinnati dropping from third to fifth in one afternoon and the phenomenal Phillies regaining a berth in the first division.

Pittsburgh sunk the Reds with a double victory Sunday, 5-4 and 4-2, and the Yanks ascended to third place. A three-run homer by Elbie Fletcher in the eighth inning decided the first game and a four-run rally in the eighth produced all the Pirates' runs in the nightcap.

Phils Sweep Two
The Phils swept two at Boston 13-7 and 7-0, scoring ten runs in the seventh inning of the first game and getting a dazzling three-hit pitching performance from Schoolboy Rowe in the nightcap, in which Rowe also hit a homer.

The Brooklyn Dodgers nosed out the New York Giants 2-7 in a single game that went 10 innings before a hit by Augie Galan drove home the deciding run.

This cut the first place margin of the St. Louis Cardinals to 2 1/2 games as the world champions divided a doubleheader with the Chicago Cubs. The first was a wild affair in which 10 pitchers were used, the Cards winning 10-9 with a six-run rally after two were out in the eighth. The second game, abbreviated to five innings by weather, went to the Cubs 2-1.

Two Negro Youths Are Held For Burglaries

Two 9-year old negro boys were arrested by police Sunday in connection with breakins at nine business houses here in recent weeks.

One of the youths, officers said, was captured by the Fulton Police. Other places which had been entered by the youths, officers said, included the Fashion Cleaners, Crowley Service Station, Vance Auto Supply Co., John P. Howe Company, Humble Service Station, Standard Service Station, and Lowe's Service Station.

The loot was small at each place, the total for all burglaries being less than $10, Police Chief Jack Ellington estimated.

The boys, officers said, admitted the burglaries, and were turned over to county authorities.

FDR May Demand New Food Subsidy Funds

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The possibility that President Roosevelt may take new demands for food subsidy funds if he signs the Connally-Smith - harness anti-strike bill was forecast in some congressional circles Monday.

Several legislative leaders thought he may approve the bill and then call on Congress to furnish money to effect the roll back in food costs that organized labor has been seeking.

The measure outlaws strikes in government-controlled war industries, sets up restrictions to slow down walkouts in privately-operated plants, empowers the War Labor Board to settle disputes and prohibits union contributions to political campaigns.

Organized labor generally has looked upon the bill as an indirect congressional effort to prevent further wage increases and there remained doubt that labor's opposition to it would be greatly modified by new administration promises to roll back food prices by use of subsidies.

The subsidy question probably will come before the Senate Wednesday on a bill to expand the borrowing authority of the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Turkish Sector Reported Rocked By Violent Quake

London —(AP)— The Berlin radio said Monday that a violent earthquake had rocked the northwest part of Anatolia Province of Turkey and that unconfirmed reports placed the dead in the city of Adapazar alone at 15,000, half its population.

The account, from the none-too-reliable Transocean News Agency said the quake occurred shortly at 7:30 p. m. Sunday night during a heavy thunderstorm, and that a muffled subterranean rumbling from below the earth's surface added to the terror.

The quake's epicenter was placed at Adapazar and the unconfirmed reports, transocean said, were that 40 per cent of the houses were destroyed and another 30 per cent were damaged severely.

Anatolia is the great western peninsula of Turkey between the Black and Mediterranean seas, leading to the Dardanelles.

Istanbul Feels Quake
Earth tremors also were reported felt in other parts of Anatolia, even in the east. Sparse and disrupted communications delayed accurate accounts of damage and suffering.

The earthquake shocks were felt at Istanbul and the German agency said the people there were "seized with panic," rushing from their homes and restaurants. It required more than an hour to restore calm, the report added.

The broadcast, recorded by The Associated Press, said that all telegraph and telephone communications were disrupted and that railway traffic between Istanbul and the capital, Ankara, was interrupted.

Physicians, nurses and medical supplies were dispatched to Adapazar.
