Italians Battle Germans

Italians Occupy Brenner Pass In Surprise Action

Nazis Claim Forces Hold Most Of Italy

LONDON — (AP) — The Germans announced Thursday night that Italian troops "occupied Brenner Pass" on Tuesday — one day before the announcement of Premier Pietro Badoglio's unconditional surrender — and acknowledged that Italians have been fighting the Nazis in some parts of Italy.

Invasion Prelude? —

Strongest Daylight Bombing Formations Pound At Europe

LONDON — (AP) — With Allied forces swarming into the heart of fallen Italy, the greatest formations of American and British bombers ever hurled across the channel by daylight pounded Thursday at enemy ports and air fields in Northern France, carrying into the eighth consecutive day a terrific aerial offensive which may form the final prelude to invasion from the west.

The unprecedented assault, launched in conjunction with the largest invasion exercise ever seen in the channel, climaxed 18 hours of steady pounding of Hitler's Atlantic fortifications during which not a single Allied plane was downed by German air units charged with defending Europe against the long-awaited push.

President Warns Of Smugness Over Italian Victory

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Axis Italy has fallen, Berlin and Tokyo are surely next, but the task ahead is "bigger and tougher" and Americans should fend off any rocking chair philosophy that the war is won.

In this vein, President Roosevelt touched off the Third War Bond Drive for $15,000,000,000 Wednesday night.

Anticipating a wave of optimism, the President warned in a radio speech that the "time for celebration" hadn't yet arrived. Moreover, he asserted, he has an idea that the day of final victory will find this nation in a mood of "grim determination that this shall not happen again," rather than in a celebrating frame of mind.

After referring to the hard job yet to be done, Roosevelt perhaps leaped after the war and suffering and degradation.

The Mediterranean war is far from finished, however, he declared for "we must drive the Germans out of Italy. We must drive them out of France and all other captive countries; and we must strike them on their own soil from all directions."

The Italian denouement consummated plans made at Casablanca last January, said Roosevelt, and he and Prime Minister Churchill have made "new, well-considered plans for the future."

At the same time the spokesman declared Allied troops which landed Tuesday on the Gulf of Eufemia, north of Palmi, had been enveloped by German troops and "their annihilation was imminent Wednesday evening."

Reuters reported from Stockholm that Adolf Hitler had held a war council Thursday at which it was decided to reinforce the German Po line and fight to the last man.

72,000 Allied Troops In Italy May Be Freed

LONDON — (AP) — Italy's surrender is expected to mean freedom for approximately 2,000 Americans and 70,000 British and Canadian troops and civilians now held as Italian prisoners of war.

"It can be assumed that the unconditional surrender accepted by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower took into account the immediate release of all prisoners of war and that they will reach Allied hands as soon as conditions allow," the British war office said Thursday.

CHINA ELATED OVER NEWS

CHUNGKING — (AP) — The news of Italy's unconditional surrender was received with elation by the Chinese Thursday.

War Bulletins

NEW YORK — (AP) — Radio France in Algiers Thursday broadcast a message to residents of Axis-occupied Corsica to "prepare x x x calmly and confidently" because they "are on the threshold of liberation." The message was broadcast by the president of the federation of Corsican groups in North Africa.

MADRID — (AP) — Dispatches from La Linea Thursday reported that four American destroyers had passed through the Strait of Gibraltar Wednesday night and continued eastward into the Mediterranean at top speed after a brief exchange of signals with Gibraltar. The only large warship remaining in the harbor of Gibraltar Wednesday night, the dispatches said, was a United States battleship of the Texas class.

SAN SEBASTIAN, SPAIN — (AP) — Sounds of heavy firing, apparently coming from a point off the French coast, were heard late Wednesday night in this town on the Bay of Biscay near the Spanish-French frontier. The noise stirred speculation that Allied warships might have been exchanging fire with German coastal batteries.

Russians Sweep On After Taking Big Donets City

LONDON — (AP) — The Russians in a special order of the day Thursday night announced the capture of the North Ukraine center of Bakhmach, 15 miles west of Konotop and 110 miles east of Kiev.

MOSCOW — (AP) — With the great steel center of Stalino and the rich Donets industrial basin safely in their grasp, two victorious Red Armies swept forward Thursday on the heels of the demoralized Germans fleeing toward the Dnieper River, their last main line of defense on Russian territory.

Front dispatches placed the Russian troops less than 70 miles from the Dnieper at some points, but the Germans were exposed to a greater immediate danger in the region to the south of Stalino. Here their entire southern flank was exposed to the terrific pressure of the Russian armored offensive, from Mariupol on the Sea of Azov westward to the Isthmus of Perekop and the gateway to the Crimea.

The entire 600-mile front stretching as far north as Smolensk was ablaze as the mighty Russian war machine plunged ahead to rid Russian soil of the invaders before the heavy autumn rains—already beginning—make mobile warfare impossible.

Red divisions, slashing west of captured Konotop in the north, the center of the Dnieper defense wall.

More than 200 towns were scooped up in the Soviet drive from Kharkov north to Smolensk Wednesday, the Moscow midnight communique reported.

GERMANS CONFISCATING BUILDINGS IN DENMARK

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Danish Kalunborg radio Thursday announced a Nazi decree authorizing the confiscation of Danish lands and buildings for the use of the German army of occupation, the Office of War Information reported.

Midland Launches $1,744,400 Third War Loan Drive

Earl Ray Purchases First Bond Thursday

Midland opened its gigantic Third War Loan drive for $1,744,400 at a breakfast Thursday of 40 business and professional leaders who will serve as campaigners.

The goal is the largest ever set for the city but leaders expressed confidence that if every citizen does his duty, Midland will even exceed the quota.

Within a few minutes after the big campaign opened, the sales started. Earl Ray was first with the purchase of a $1,000 War Bond.

Other purchases announced included Perry Brothers, $1,000 bond, Standard Oil Company of Texas Sales Dept., $5,000, and Higginbotham-Bartlett Company, $5,000.

"You are called upon to sacrifice," Charles L. Klapproth, Midland County War Bond chairman, told the campaigners at the breakfast. "Loan your money to our government. Purchase bonds to the limit of your ability."

At the conclusion of the breakfast, the campaigners started their work of visiting citizens of the community.

"No Excuse For Failure!" M. C. Ulmer, district War Bond chairman, explained that county quotas are based on bank deposits and asserted "there is no excuse for failure to meet the quota here."

"Invest 20 per cent of your cash on hand in War Bonds," Ulmer urged. "Our money should fight along with the men at the front."

By JAMES C. WATSON Oil Editor

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company No. 52-Lane, Account 2, Upton County wildcat, topped to go to 9,000 feet if necessary, has topped a lime and shale formation at approximately 7,040 feet.

For several weeks this operation has been grinding away in hard chert. It was reported drilling the newly-encountered section below 7,070 feet Thursday morning.

Days Wildcat Testing M. A. Smith, wildcat west of the Yates field in Pecos County, is testing show for production with the hole at a total depth of 1,798 feet.

Early in the week the well had around 1,000 feet of oil standing in the hole and was flowing at eight-hour intervals into the pits.

A swabbing test Wednesday was recovering approximately one barrel of oil per hour with no water. The operation was reported to be showing 500,000 cubic feet of gas per day.

The new showing is in section 11, block 194, G.C.S.F. survey and is on a farm owned by Ohio Oil Company.

Back The Attack—Buy War Bonds

(An Editorial) Will the fall of Italy mean a home front defeat? The fall of Italy is glorious news—if we take it as the end of round one instead of the finish of the fight.

It could mean a home front defeat—if Americans start pulling their punches. It could mean good news to our two major enemies—if anybody takes it as a signal to slow up, let down, or quit backing the war with everything they've got.

As a matter of fact, the long hard march to Berlin and Tokyo has just begun. If you think it will be easy, if you think we can win this fight with one hand—then you are wrong, dangerously wrong.

Before the last shot is fired, a lot of lives are going to be lost and a lot of billions spent. The more American dollars that go into superior equipment, the less American blood is going to reddens foreign soil.

It cost 46 million dollars to lay Hamburg low. It cost another 300 million dollars to train, equip and transport the crews and ready everything for the task. And Hamburg is just one enemy city.

War Bonds must provide much of the money for the bitter struggle yet ahead. You—not the fellow next door—have a personal responsibility to dig deeper than is pleasant and convenient to make the Third War Loan a success.

It will be a success only if every American opens his heart and his pocket and decides to back the attack. Midland has a gigantic quota—$1,744,400, but Midland will shoulder its responsibility.

Construction Of New 12-Inch Pipe Line From Midland To Corsicana Is OK'ed

Construction on the new Magnolia Pipe Line Company 12-inch line from the Midland tank farm and terminal to Corsicana will start around the middle of November, according to information announced Thursday. The conduit will be 335 miles long.

Final approval of the new crude carrier was given by the War Production Board in Washington Wednesday. That means the "green light" has been hung out on priorities for getting the pipe required for the line.

Material is moving in for the 46-mile loop Magnolia was recently authorized to construct from Midland to the Seminole area in Gaines County. Work on that project will be actually underway in a short time.

Gathering Lines Started In connection with the enlargement of the carrying capacity of the Midland-Seminole trunk, Magnolia is also preparing to augment the system from Seminole to the Slaughter field in Hockley, Cochran and Terry counties so more crude can be moved out of that district.

Laying of about seven and one-half miles of 2.3 and 4-inch gathering lines in the Apco-Warner Ordovician area of Pecos County is well advanced. Magnolia will take the oil collected by those feeders to the Imperial pump station through 12 miles of four-inch line, now being strung.

Another Body Found In Ruins Of Hotel HOUSTON — (AP) — Another body was found Thursday in the blackened and charred ruins of the Gulf Hotel at Preston and Louisiana, bringing the total casualty list of the Tuesday morning fire to 51.

The body was that of Elton Joseph Hoffpauir, Brown Shipyard Company worker.

The body was found under a bed which was under a pile of debris on the third floor by Deputy Fire Chief V. Dorsett who with other firemen were going back over the ruins, still searching for bodies.

Mussolini Reported Removed To Island LONDON — (AP) — The Swedish newspaper Dagens Nyheter published a dispatch from its Zurich correspondent Thursday which said that Benito Mussolini has been removed from Italy to the island of La Maddalena off the northern coast of Sardinia to prevent any attempt to rescue him.

Big Allied Force Is Driving Inland

Neutral Sources Report Other Landings On Western Coast Of Italian Peninsula

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA — (AP) — A powerful American and British force under U. S. Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark surged ashore in the vicinity of Naples, a third of the way up the Italian boot, at 4 a. m. Thursday.

It was immediately engaged by German forces fighting fiercely in the midst of the chaos of Italy's unconditional surrender, but Allied headquarters announced that operations were going according to plan and that prisoners already had been taken.

At the same time it was announced that waves of Flying Fortresses, striking six hours before the armistice with Italy, Wednesday had wiped out German military headquarters in Italy with a terrific half-hour bombing of Frascati, 12 miles outside Rome.

Official reports said the town, nearly every building of which was occupied by German officers, was leveled. The town, with a population of about 12,000, is famous for its wine.

Alexander In Command The landing operation Thursday morning putting Americans into combat in Italy for the first time, initiated what was likely to prove the grimmest campaign yet fought in the Mediterranean theater.

British Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, who commanded Allied ground forces through the Tunisian and Sicilian campaigns, is directing the new operations of all troops in Italy.

(The make-up of General Clark's force was not announced. He has been commanding the American Fifth Army in North Africa, but Swiss and Swedish radio reports said it was the American Seventh Army which has engaged in the Naples area.)

Naples May Fall The opening of the new Italian front in the Naples area promised the seizure of Naples, Italy's second greatest port, and also put the Germans in Southern Italy under pressure from two directions as the British Eighth Army under Sir Bernard L. Montgomery continued to dive up the tortuous Italian toe.

While other Allied forces executed a second landing early Wednesday at Vibo Valentia on the Gulf of Eufemia, 30 miles north of Palmi, the Eighth Army, it was announced, swept forward until it held the road running across the peninsula from Locri to Gioia. This gave the Allies complete possession of the area.

Following the official car was the crack MAAF Band, directed by Master Sgt. Thomas Marcell. Midland Cadets March Then came cadets from the Bomber School, marching in military formation.

American Legionnaires were next in the line of march. Third War Loan campaigners rode in jeeps and some of the cars were driven by WACS.

Army transport trucks, an Army gasoline transport and trailer, anti-aircraft guns, machine guns, practice bombs, demolition bombs, ranging up to the 2,000-pounders; a large crash truck, sweep, Army ambulance and a Midland Fire Department truck were displayed in the parade.

The Army equipment was displayed on the courthouse so bond purchasers may see what their money buys.

School Classes Dismissed Scores of bonds were sold at the opening of the campaign here, but no check of the total amount was available immediately.

The parade was one of the largest military displays ever staged in West Texas and Colonel Kenny has promised 100 per cent cooperation with Midland in meeting the huge bond quota.

Major R. B. Brown, special services officer, was in charge of the Army equipment and C. V. (Cap) Lyman was parade marshal.

School students were released from classes at 11 o'clock so they could see the parade and most of them came to the business district.

U. S. Subs Sink Six Jap Vessels

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Six more Japanese merchant ships have been sunk by American submarines and four have been damaged in attacks on enemy supply lines. The Navy announced Thursday.

These ten successful attacks raised to 319 the total of Japanese transport, cargo and warships which have been reported sunk or damaged by American submarines since the war started.

This total includes 223 ships definitely listed as sunk.

Milk Quotas To Be Set Up For Dealers WASHINGTON — (AP) — Striving to avoid either milk shortages or point rationing, the War Food Administration has decided to establish quotas for dealers, holding them generally to the amounts they have been selling in recent months.

The dealer quota plan announced Wednesday night follows up earlier announcements that consumption of milk and dairy products must be kept from increasing or shortages were inevitable.

The quota system will be put into effect first in urban areas, the agency said, and will be extended as facilities permit.

Big Parade Opens War Loan Drive Here Thursday

Total War Bond sales in Midland the first eight days of September were $8,100, issue value, Third War Loan leaders said Thursday. The amount will count against Midland's quota in the Third War Loan.

With a military parade, exhibiting the might of the Army Air Forces, Midland launched its Third War Loan Drive Thursday morning and War Bond sales started at a brisk pace.

The goal is $1,744,400—the largest task ever assigned the city—but Midland citizens are determined to exceed it.

Headed by a police motorcycle escort and military police, riding in a jeep, the parade went through the business district on schedule.

Band Leads Parade The Midland Army Air Field Band, immediately after parading, went to the courthouse lawn and played a concert. Bond booths were opened and jeep rides were provided for War Bond buyers.

In the official car of the parade were Colonel John B. Kenny, commanding officer of the Midland Army Air Field, Congressman R. E. Thomason, Mrs. Hal C. Peck, War Bond regional co-chairman, Mayor A. N. Hendrickson and Charles L. Klapproth, Midland County War Bond chairman.

Following the official car was the crack MAAF Band, directed by Master Sgt. Thomas Marcell.

Food Follies It seems incredible that Washington should appear so unconcerned about the serious breakdown in the food marketing system.

However, there is no excuse for our having to go without beef or patronize the black market, knowingly or ignorantly, when the backlog of available cattle is of record proportions and still growing.

Every housekeeper, and the folks who eat at her table, know what the situation is in stores. Newspapers are filled with detailed data about its background.

Washington does nothing that can be observed. Not yet. But we predict that some day soon Washington will break into a rash of hectic experimentation in connection with food distribution.

Hull's Pro-Russian Record Anyone taking the trouble to check up on the state of diplomatic relations between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, commonly known as Russia, will find an official record which would sweep into the ash can all the loose talk currently noised about on this moot question.

It reveals, among other things, a clear-cut record on the part of Secretary of State Cordell Hull to better relations between the United States and Soviet Russia, right from the time he took office in 1933, when he recommended American diplomatic recognition of the U.S.S.R.

On the Sunday morning when the Nazi army invaded Soviet territory, Hull telephoned the State Department to urge his associates to brush aside all narrow-minded individuals and agitators who might want to interfere with Russian self-defense.

Japs Depleting Asia Air Forces For Pacific Aid

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC (AP)—The Japanese air force, staggered by losses approximating 1,000 planes in little over a month in the South and Southwest Pacific, is believed depleting its strength in China and Japan to support worsening ground situations in New Guinea and the Solomons.

Lecture By Mrs. Rugel Is Highlight Of Fine Arts Presentations

Just as the announcement of Italy's capitulation to the Allies was learned here, Mrs. Clara Hood Rugel was bringing to a conclusion her lecture on "The Boot Is Empty," a talk on Italy, before a large audience of club women and Army wives in the Yucca Theater Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Rugel had brought out in a most interesting manner how Mussolini had wrecked Italy, and had proved to be a better student at devility than was his master, Adolph Hitler.

The Fine Arts Club sponsored the lecture and it proved to be a highlight on the year's programs of the club.

The lecture was a most enlightening one, inasmuch as the speaker had traveled extensively in Italy, and had had interviews with high officials there as well as with Mussolini himself.

At the conclusion of her lecture, she asked for questions from the audience, and gave most comprehensive responses to all questions.

Those who heard Mrs. Rugel included representative club women of Midland and wives of service men.

Present were Mesdames W. L. Blades, Mary Lou Snodgrass, Fred H. Fuhrman, J. Howard Hodge, Fred H. Wilcox, A. P. Loskamp, Foy Proctor, H. S. Collins, C. H. Shepard, George Vannaman, H. S. ### Capitulation Of Italy Parallels War One Pattern

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Knocking Italy out of World War II parallels the first capitulation among the central powers—that of Bulgaria—in the first world war. The first Axis power to collapse, Italy quit almost exactly four years after the current conflict began Sept. 1, 1939, with the German invasion of Poland. Italy entered the present conflict June 10, 1940, Bulgaria, crumpling under a brilliant offensive carried out by French, British, Italian, Greek, Serbian, Czech-Slovak and Yugoslav forces, signed an armistice of unconditional surrender Sept. 29, 1918. That was four years and two months after World War I started July 28, 1914, with the Austria-Hungary declaration of war against Serbia.

Started Peace Moves
World War I was all over 43 days after Bulgaria surrendered. In fact, it was only four days later (Oct. 3) that Germany, suffering from crushing blows by Allied armies and straggling economically in the grip of the British naval blockade, sent President Wilson an appeal for an immediate armistice. But before the armistice with Germany was worked out and signed Nov. 11, 1918, the two other remaining central powers, Turkey and Austria-Hungary, capitulated. Both gave up on Oct. 30. Factors leading to their surrender were the rout of the Turks in Syria by the British forces of General Allenby and the rolling back of the Austro-Hungary army in Northern Italy by Italian forces, reinforced by French and British troops.

Allies Believed Planning To Ruin Nazi Oil Sources

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Allied forces sweeping through fallen Italy are believed to have one prime military objective—the occupation of air bases from which to destroy Germany's oil sources in Rumania and Hungary. Bases within easy bombing reach of the great oil center at Ploesti, Rumania, and the lesser fields in Hungary may prove to be the key to Hitler's whole European fortress.

At the same time, military experts here say, the launching of an Italian-based aerial offensive against Southern Germany and enemy industrial centers in the occupied countries to the east would place an insupportable strain on Germany's fighter defenses and hasten the breakup of the German air force as well as the destruction of vital war plants.

Nazis May Collapse
These are among the reasons why official Washington believes that the surrender of the Mediterranean Axis power has advanced by several months the end of the European war. All the forces formerly marked for conquest of the boot now can be turned speedily against Germany.

The highest Allied leaders are not counting on an internal German collapse and their plans, so far as known, are based even on the possibility that Germany may still retain some limited offensive power next spring. Their view apparently is that victory now appears certain by the winter of 1944 with the remote but nevertheless real possibility of a German collapse in the winter immediately ahead.

Military Courtesy Returns Dividends

LOGAN, W. VA. — (AP) — A new and popular type of "bill collecting" has found a willing disciple in Sgt. Ohley Bennet of Logan, now stationed with the Ferry Command at Romulus Army Air Field, Detroit. Because he is invariably the first enlisted man a newly commissioned officer salutes, Bennet has picked up a neat nest egg of 53 one-dollar bills, but because they're autographed he hesitates to spend them for sentimental reasons. Army tradition dictates that every new officer must present a buck to the first enlisted man who salutes him. At Romulus field, that is always Bennet because he processes the oaths of office. If no better solution presents itself, Bennet proposes to keep accumulating bills and remembering the donors after the war with some sort of gift.

Obliging Pheasant

ABERDEEN, S. D. — (AP) — H. F. Jorgenson, manager of a department store, wonders if South Dakota hunters aren't making too much of a fuss about the war-time shortage of shotgun shells. A sight-seeing pheasant walked into his store and was caught by hand. "A bird in town is worth two in the bush," he said.

It has been estimated that there are 114,000 blind persons in the United States.

With wartime demands on home front housewives, every minute saved is like the penny earned. So cut out difficult cookery. Avoid main dishes that require constant attention; select instead meat dishes that can be prepared and then left alone in the oven or on the stove until they are ready to serve. Look over your recipe file and single out those that will free you from the stove for your home front duties. Typical examples are the following which do not require more than 15 to 20 minutes to prepare, and can be forgotten until ready to serve.

Spareribs With Celery-Onion Stuffing (Serves 4)

One cup chopped onion, 4 tablespoons pork drippings, 1 cup chopped celery, 3 cups soft bread crumbs, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, 1 1/2 pounds spareribs (in one piece).

Brown onion in drippings; add celery, bread crumbs, salt and pepper. Put out stuffing in baking pan; place spareribs on stuffing. Rub spareribs with additional salt and pepper. Bake in uncovered pan in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 1/2 to 2 hours.

Kidney And Bacon Loaf (Serves 6)

One pound of beef kidney, 1 cup milk, 8 slices bread, 4 tablespoons bacon drippings, 2 eggs, slightly beaten, 1/2 cup finely chopped green pepper, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 3 tablespoons grated onion, 1/2 teaspoon powdered sage, 3 slices bacon.

Wash kidney in cold water; drain well. Remove fat and tubes; put meat through food chopper using medium blade. Pour milk over bread; let stand until absorbed. Combine with ground kidney, eggs, green pepper, salt, pepper, onion and sage; mix well. Lay bacon strips in bottom of loaf pan; pack kidney mixture firmly into pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 1/2 to 2 hours.

Family Photographs And Letters Wanted By Soldiers Overseas

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Letters or family photographs are No. 1 items on the Christmas lists of men and women serving overseas. The Office of War Information, after quizzing recently returned officers, overseas "Yank" correspondents and the Army exchange service, announces that: "More than the most elaborate gift, soldiers will welcome newsy, cheerful letters from home and recent photographs or snapshots of family and friends."

Other gifts rated highly are: cigarette lighters "that will light in a strong wind," shockproof and waterproof wrist watches, hunting or Boy Scout knives and small inexpensive cameras with film. Items not wanted, according to OWI, include: cigarettes, assorted commercial packages of goodies, elaborate shaving kits, or food, except for a well-packed fruit cake.

A tip passed on by the Army exchange service is that leather rot quickly in hot, damp climates, so if your gift is going to the South Pacific canvas or cloth goods are better bets.

OWI stressed that gifts should be mailed between Sept. 15 and Oct. 15.

New Fashion Era Inaugurated By Federal Orders

By DOROTHY ROWE
AP Fashion Editor
This is wartime, Mrs. Brown. You don't need ruffles on that gown. You hid your neckline with frills before. But you can't hide it thus any more.

We're plung in the middle of a new era of fashion, and its name is L-85, which is government code for slim, straight and narrow. In case you've been wondering about the meaning of that apparently mystic symbol, it's simply the number of the original government order restricting the fabric used in clothes. But, so sweeping have been its results, that it is now being used to describe the whole current cycle of fashion.

No Extra Fabric
There's not an extra inch of fabric in the new streamlined models, no peplums, tunics or drapes to conceal those bulges. Like is the all-important theme, and the line is straight.

For slim figures the new mode is flattering. For the not-so-slim, there is just one course of action: make over the figure to fit the clothes, by means of diet, exercise—and a good girl.

Designers this fall have gone far beyond the official regulations of the "body basic," which is another government tag for the slim silhouette. In practically all the important collections, skirts are narrower than required, jackets are shorter, lines are straighter.

Trimming, instead of being applied in the form of ruffles and flounces, more often is used in surface ornamentation, such as appliques, embroidery and braid, which add interest but no inches.

Special Allowances
Some designers simulate peplums and tunics by means of applique bands. It fools the eye, but leaves no more room for the figure. Others resort to glitter in the form of intricate beading, sequins and paillettes to give a dress importance. But underneath it's still the body basic.

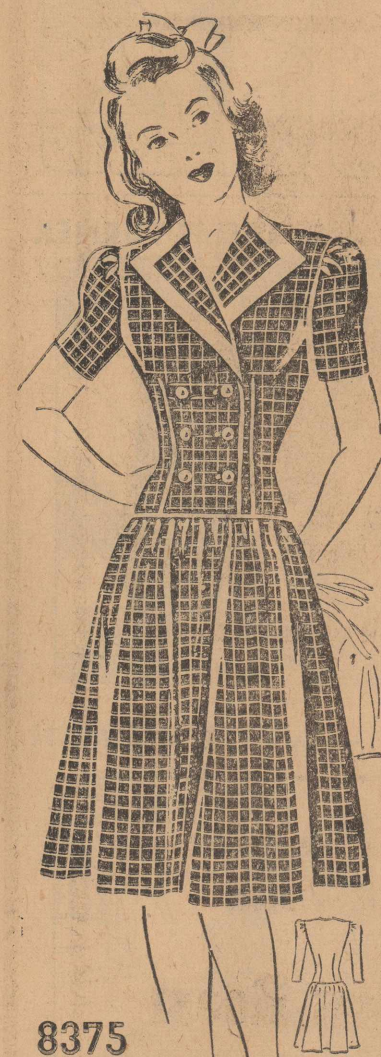

Once you get over your yen for fluffy ruffles, you're going to like these new L-85 clothes. They're trim and functional, and there's no nonsense about them. They depend for effectiveness on skillful cut and handsome fabrics.

Special allowances have been made for outside figures—but who wants an outside figure in this day when even kitchen stoves are streamlined?
Smart girls this year are cutting down on pounds as well as purchases.

ROYAL NAPERY
To keep food from spilling her dresses, Queen Victoria used a full figure table napkin, which draped from her chin to her shoe tops.

Avoid Lunch Box Blues

Ribbon meat loaf is made with potato filling.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Over eight million lunch boxes are now being carried to defense plants and even to offices. And with the start of another school session, many thousands more join the procession.

Avoid lunch box monotony by including a surprise now and then, such as a piece of candy. Vary sandwich fillings, of course, but also vary your sandwich breads in color, taste and texture.

Bologna Potato Salad
(Serves 4)
Two cups cubed cooked potatoes, 1 cup diced celery, 1 cup cubed bologna, 1 teaspoon grated onion, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, salt and pepper.

Combine potatoes, celery, bologna and onion. Moisten with mayonnaise. Season with salt and pepper.

Keep-Well Sandwiches
(Serves 4)
One cup chopped tongue or ham, 2 tablespoons chopped pickle, 1/2 cup grated carrot, 1 cup finely shredded cabbage, 1/4 cup mayonnaise, salt and pepper, 8 slices bread.

Combine tongue or ham, pickle, carrot and cabbage. Moisten with mayonnaise, season with salt and pepper. Spread between bread slices.

Ribbon Meat Loaf
One and one-quarter pounds beef, ground; 1/4 pound pork, ground; 1 tablespoon onion, chopped; 1 1/2 cups dry bread crumbs, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 can condensed tomato soup, 2 eggs.

For potato filling: 2 cups well-seasoned mashed potatoes, 1 egg, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup onion, 1/2 cup pimiento to the mashed potatoes and mix well.

Combine the ground beef, ground pork and chopped onions and mix thoroughly. Then add bread crumbs, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup onion, 1/2 cup pimiento, slightly beaten, and mix again. Put 1/3 of the meat mixture in a greased loaf pan about 9x4x3 1/2". Spread 1/2 (1 cup) of the mashed potato over the meat, then add another third of the meat loaf mixture and spread; then another layer of mashed potato and another layer of meat at the last. Bake at 375 degrees one to one and a quarter hours or until firm. Remove from oven and let stand in a warm place for 15-25 minutes before serving. It slices better after standing.

Barbecue And Program At Cloverdale Concludes Annual 4-H Club Calf Tour

Approximately 75 persons attended a barbecue at Cloverdale Park Wednesday night concluding an annual tour during which boys who are feeding 4-H Club calves were visited and their feeding practices observed. About 50 persons took part in the tour.

J. D. Prewitt, district club agent, told the group during a short program following the barbecue that the demonstrations showed the club members are progressing well with their projects. He said the majority of the lots inspected were clean and the feeding practices showed signs of good organization and pride in the work. He was especially impressed by the self feeders being used in almost all of the feed lots.

Vest Directs Program
Prewitt came here especially to make the tour. Other guests included L. L. Johnson, state boys club agent; Dr. H. G. Johnson, entomologist of College Station; G. W. Barnes, beef cattle specialist; Wade Simmons, Extension forester; and S. W. Clark of the Texas Gulf Sulphur Co.

R. C. Vest Jr. had charge of the program at the park and introduced the club members, who told what projects they are carrying on and introduced their fathers. I. O. Sturkie, county agent, introduced the guests.

A short talk was made by Bill Collins, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, who congratulated the boys on their interest in their projects and called attention to the third war loan drive.

L. L. Johnson, state club agent, gave a short history of 4-H Club work, which started in Jack County, Texas in 1908 and has become a national organization. He said that the slogan for this year, "I'll feed a fighter in '43," also originated in Texas and has been adopted throughout the country. The organization now has a national membership of 1,500,000 boys and girls, he said. He urged the members to continue to produce as much food as possible, pointing out that the Allied fighting men need food as well as munitions. "It was the lack of food and medicine, not ammunition, that caused the fall of Bataan," he said.

Club Members Introduced
Other visitors here for the tour included Jimmie Martin, county agent of Martin County, and Dogie Stone, Martin County rancher. Club members who are carrying on feed projects this year and were introduced during the program include Miss Hazelle Midkiff, O. C. Collins Jr., Eugene Jones, Fred, Alton and LeRoy Hall, Weldon and Alton Free, John McCarter, Barry Boone, Douglas Gibson, Royce Howard, Alvin Spiegler, Fred, Harvey and Tom Willis, Glenn Casey, Glenn Drake, T. O. Midkiff, Bill Brown, Charles and Frank Locklar, Jerry Bohannon, and Delmar Ray Bizzell.

The barbecue was prepared by Earl Ray and Jack Williams. The food committee was composed of Eugene Jones and Delmar Ray Bizzell.

Short talks were made by Judge E. H. Barron, Forrest King, Paul McHargue, Frank Monroe, Clarence Scharbauer Jr., B. B. Rush, Bill Conner, Luther Tidwell, Gordon Holcomb, Harlan Howell, Paul Nelson, Jim Allison and T. Paul Barron.

Japanese Informed Of Italy's Capitulation
NEW YORK —(AP)— The Tokyo radio, in a broadcast recorded by United States government monitors, told the Japanese people Thursday that Italy had surrendered unconditionally to the Allies and that the Japanese government "deems this most regretful."

Nevertheless Japan is resolved to "crush America and Britain to the very end," thus putting Emperor Hirohito "at ease," the broadcast said.

The broadcast informing the Japanese people of Italy's capitulation was made 14 hours after the Allied announcement of the event.

Biggest Aircraft Carrier Force Ever Sent On Single Mission Raided Marcus

By TOM YARBROUGH
PEARL HARBOR — (AP) — The biggest aircraft carrier force ever sent on a single mission in the Pacific, boldly appearing 900 miles past Japanese-held Wake and within 1,200 miles of Tokyo, sent bombing planes for eight hours over Marcus Island Sept. 1 until enemy defenses there had been laid waste.

Not a Japanese plane got off the ground. Not an enemy bomber showed up from other bases within range. Not a ship from Nippon's war fleet interfered at any time with the American task force, simply bruiser for a fight in so-called enemy controlled waters.

One-ton blockbuster bombs, dropped for the first time from carrier-based planes, blew up Japanese hangars, fuel, ammunition stores and living quarters and poorly marked two mile-long runways—facilities which the enemy had improved 400 per cent since Marcus first was raided in March, 1942.

From an aircraft carrier near Marcus, I saw these planes take off the job of reducing Marcus to ruins. Hour on hour into mid-afternoon, dive bombers, torpedo bombers and fighters—Grumman Hellcats making their debut in combat only to be disappointed by the complete absence of enemy air opposition—kept up a methodical pounding.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, in a communique Wednesday disclosing the first details of the raid, estimated that fully 80 per cent of the military installations on Marcus were destroyed.

The bombers made 300 individual runs. The fighters, which wiped under the command of Rear Admiral Charles A. Pownall, was two fighters and a torpedo plane.

Despite such devastation, the task force stood ready and willing to deal more. Capt. Wallace M. Beakley, of Vineland, N. J., air operations officer, said the American ships were on the prowl for a Japanese naval task force and "were fully prepared for anything we expected to meet."

UNLOCKING ADVENTURE

By Charles Courtney

COPYRIGHT, 1943, NEA SERVICE, INC.

Charles Courtney is the world's highest paid legal Jimmy Valentine. This is the true story of his many adventures unlocking safes around the earth and under the sea.

CHAPTER X

The strongest lock is useless if it is set in a rotten jamb or a thin piece of trim with nothing behind it.

One late Friday afternoon a wealthy broker telephoned me to give a lock to his chauffeur, adding, "Don't charge it. I'll stop by and pay cash." Whenever a customer says, "Don't charge it," I am fairly sure that he is going to tell me confidentially about a hideout in which he rests his jangled nerves when he can no longer endure the high tension of business life.

This time I did not receive any such confidences, for the chauffeur paid the bill. About six months later, the broker telephoned, saying indignantly that I had sold him a poor lock. He wanted me to replace it immediately, also change the combinations on all the doors.

The number he gave me was in the Bronx, a gray stone house surrounded by a maze of hedges and vacant lots. The place was locked as tightly as a bank vault, with shatterproof glass in the windows, steel shutters that could be let down over them, two outer doors with steel-lined vestibules between them, and pin tumbler dead locks, chains and bars on each. I wondered what was inside this fortress. Luxury in a Hollywood version of the Arabian Nights, carpets to wade in, old masters on the walls, silks and satins upholstering French gilt furniture, and a half-dozen or more blondes, brunettes, and red-heads who looked like refugees from an Earl Carroll chorus.

The housekeeper showed me the door and the forced lock. The frame was heavy and had been well built in its day, but the jamb was so soft and rotten that it was no trick to force the lock. I blocked out the jamb, built it up with a solid four by four, and reset the lock.

After that I went frequently to the gray stone house, as I was called to change the combination whenever there was a shift in the inmates. The mansion, I learned, was run as a sort of syndicate by the tycoon and his friends. After a year or two the calls stopped coming, and the papers were full of the divorce suit brought by the owner's wife.

It is amazing how safe people feel when they have barricaded themselves behind a heavy door chain, never thinking to examine how the chains are attached to the door. More often than not, they are held by nothing but two small screws.

People may be careful about their locks and keys; they may have the combination changed every time they discharge a maid, move to a new house or a new apartment, or lose their keys, and still forget about their windows. Most modern windows are fastened with a broad cam on the lower sash that interlocks with a receiver on the upper one, but in old houses, especially in the country, the window fasteners are likely to be no problem to a thief.

"Do you want to know a way to keep out the kidnapper?" I asked a Wall Street farmer with two young sons for whom he was making a home in the country. "On each side of the sash," I told him, "drill a hole. Put it through the window sash and into, but not through, the frame. Stick in it a pin, a screw, or a nail long enough to engage the outside sash, and you will have a fastening that is difficult to tamper with."

FINE locks go on for an amazingly long time without giving trouble if we take care of them. Generally, when they won't work, the fine springs of the tumblers have been gummed up. The lubricant to use is a dusting of powdered graphite, squirted through an old perfume atomizer or blown in through a paper funnel. Or if you don't happen to have graphite, rub your key with a lead pencil.

If graphite doesn't help your lock, never force it. Then you will need a locksmith, if you don't happen to live near a zoo from which you can borrow a carpenter bird and a half-dozen monkeys.

One evening a friend told me solemnly, "Courtney, your business is being invaded from South America. A liner from Caracas docked this morning with 18 ring-tailed monkeys and a carpenter bird in full possession of the ship, and they can beat you at lock picking with nothing but a beak and a buttonhook.

"That bird has a beak like a pickaxe which it uses for a saw, a chisel, and a jimmy. Four times on the way up, it carpentered its way out of its cage. The last time, it went over to visit the monkeys, who were working away with a buttonhook that one of the sailors had given them. The monkeys had torn a hole in the netting next to the door frame and were fumbling with the padlock, but because the door was so wide that they could barely reach it, they were unable to get the buttonhook into the keyhole. In half an hour the carpenter bird had gouged a hole in the wood large enough for a monkey's arm. One of the monkeys worked the hook into the keyhole of the padlock and tripped the spring. When the boat docked, the carpenter bird was sitting surgically in the rigging, whistling his beak or the mainmast, and the sailors were chasing the 18 monkeys, who had snipped the padlock on the crew's galley and were bursting out of the booby hatch."

Italian Forces In Balkans Told To Stop Fighting

CAIRO (AP)—Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson, Allied commander-in-chief in the Middle East, called upon Italian garrisons in the Balkans Wednesday night to "cease all hostile acts" and surrender their equipment to the Allies.

In a special broadcast Wilson said that Italian troops in the Balkans are "now obeying my, not German orders."

"Their ships must be handed over to the United Nations, their aircraft must be flown to Allied airfields. They must not hand over their arms or equipment or defended points to the Germans," Wilson warned.

He directed units of the Italian navy and merchant fleets in the Eastern Mediterranean to proceed to Cairo and Haifa in Palestine. Italian aircraft were to be received at Allied airfields at various points along the Mediterranean.

Wilson warned the guerrilla bands which have been hammering relentlessly at Axis forces in Greece and Yugoslavia that "the day of liberation is not yet at hand" and that they should "await our signal for a general uprising."

Stand On Secret Treaties Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—A stiff, plain-spoken congressional stand against secret arrangements between this nation and foreign powers was proposed by Rep. Cole (R-N.Y.) Tuesday in a warning to the word that such pacts will not be binding upon the American people.

In the midst of mounting debate over United States foreign policy after the war, Cole drafted a 54-word, one-sentence measure which would serve notice on friend and foe alike that no official can commit this government except under specific law. His bill read:

"No promise, agreement, commitment or undertaking made by any person with any foreign country, government or power, shall be binding upon the people of the United States, except such as may have been made or be made in accordance with and under authority expressly and specifically contained in a statute of the United States."

Cole, a member of the House naval committee, emphasized that he was not against American participation in world affairs; that, to the contrary, Americans now must "look beyond our coastlines."

Plans for postwar collaboration like those advanced by Governor Dewey of New York, former Governor Stassen of Minnesota, and Clarence Budington Kelland, Republican national committeeman, were described by Cole as "wholesome and healthy."

Beeville Marine Is Lucky To Be Alive

CAMP ELLIOTT, CALIF. (AP)—Corp. Sedon C. Wilson of Beeville, Texas, is a lucky Marine. Lucky to be alive to receive the Purple Heart medal recently for wounds received in action against the enemy during the Solomons Island campaign.

While advancing in an attack against the Japanese entrenched on Guadalcanal, Wilson was struck on the top of the head by a machine gun bullet.

"I had to go and stick my head within two inches of where it wasn't supposed to be. As it was, that chunk of lead just bounced off the top of my noggin," he said. "After I was hit," he went on, "they put a bandage on it at the field dressing station and a few hours later I was in a plane along with some others on my way back to a base hospital."

Soldier Proves Point

WENDOVER FIELD, UTAH (AP)—Pvt. William A. Erwin boasted of the size of Arkansas watermelons. He had a sister at Hope, Ark., who responded with proof.

So one hundred of Pvt. Erwin's G. I. companions sat down to a melon bus—with one melon. It weighed 100 pounds.

A Drop In The Bucket

CHILMARK, MASS. (AP)—What rationing board officials described as probably the smallest gasoline allotment in the country has been granted to Mrs. Goldie Norton, Chilmark town clerk.

She was awarded one gallon for a period of six months—to operate her gasoline flatiron.

Rain never falls in the interior of Antarctica; moisture falls there in the form of snow.

Methodist Natives Save Texas Aviator In South Seas Area

AN ADVANCE SOUTH PACIFIC BASE—(AP)—A Marine fighter pilot has told how South Seas natives saved him from drowning, fed him, and put him to sleep with crooning lullabies and bedtime prayers. "They were Methodists, and so am I," said the flier, Lt. E. L. Blain, Jr., 23, of Electra, Texas, "and we got along fine."

"They played something that looked like a banjo. It sounded pretty good, and they sang fairly well. Then they started a prayer meeting. I could watch from my bunk. They were very quiet about it all. It still was going on when I went to sleep."

The next morning the chief of the tribe and eight of his warriors took Blain in a dug-out canoe to an American base in the Solomons.

Blain was forced down at sea by engine failure. His lifebelt leaked and his gear dragged him down. "I had about given up when a native canoe drew up and the natives pulled me inside," he related. "I had heard that some of these natives were pretty tough customers. But it couldn't have turned out better. They told me they were Christians took me ashore, and put me in a hut with two boys as orphans."

Total value of farm real estate as of March, 1942, was estimated at more than 38 billion dollars.

New Drive To Ban Draft Of Fathers Given Momentum

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Italy's unconditional surrender gave momentum Thursday to a congressional drive for a ban on the drafting of fathers.

On both sides of the capital demands were voiced for quick action to halt the projected induction of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers and for a general congressional survey of manpower resources.

"There just isn't any need for the drafting of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers," said Chairman May (D-Ky) of the House military committee as he predicted prompt enactment of legislation to block the move or at least to forestall it until the middle of next year.

Calling a Senate military affairs subcommittee into session to consider the specific problem of a labor shortage on the West Coast, Senator Downey (D-Calif) demanded "A review of the whole military manpower situation."

Chairman Reynolds (D-NC) of the Senate military committee, who already has called for "a general reassessment of the entire manpower program," told reporters the necessity for inducing fathers would have to be proven before it would win his approval.

20 Stricken By Food Poisoning

HOUSTON — (AP) — Twenty men were stricken with ptomaine poisoning at Baytown late Wednesday and were rushed to two hospitals in Goose Creek, where several were said to be critically ill.

The men, employees of the E. B. Badger Construction Company, Stone and Webster of the Baytown Ordnance Work apparently were poisoned from food in their lunches which were obtained from the same boarding house in Baytown.

Wednesday night others taken ill were being brought into hospitals, but the exact number could not be learned.

One Goose Creek doctor advanced the theory that the food poisoning was caused by one of two foods, either ground meat or goose liver sausage, both of which would easily deteriorate in the hot weather of the next few days.

Thursday morning all victims of the food poisoning were still living, although three of the men were still ill to give their names.

BERN — (AP) — Little Switzerland in the heart of German-held Europe rushed troop reinforcements to her frontiers Thursday to await any eventually as published press reports here said tension between Germany and Italy was fast approaching a climax.

All Swiss newspapers published a federal council order reinforcing frontier units.

(The Berlin radio in a Bern dispatch recorded by The Associated Press said the federal council had mobilized the special frontier troops and they were moving into positions on the Swiss border.)

A German frontier report to the Gazette of Lausanne, meanwhile, said Nazi police were refusing exit visas since last Tuesday to Italian workers in Germany who were besieging the police bureaus in great numbers.

A dispatch to the Bern newspaper Der Bund said strong Italian formations were drawn up within a few miles of German troops in the region of the Etsch River in the Trentino district of Northern Italy and near Venice.

Bond Purchasers To Get Tickets To Premiere Here

In cooperation with the county's war bond drive, a world premiere of "Bataan," starring Robert Taylor, will be held at the Yucca Theater at 8 p. m. Thursday of next week. J. Howard Hodge, manager of the theater, announced Hodge has been appointed Midland motion picture chairman for the war bond drive by L. C. Griffith, general chairman of the War Activities Committee of the motion picture industry and by R. J. O'Donnell, state chairman.

Each purchaser of a war bond will be admitted free to the premiere. A stage show also is being arranged for the program, Hodge announced. Charles Klapproth, county bond chairman, is assisting Hodge with plans for the bond premiere, and each person who purchases a bond by next Thursday will receive a ticket.

"We in the motion picture industry and the employees of the Midland theaters are proud to be a part of the All-American team that is working to attain the bond quota for Midland County," Hodge said. "Each individual already has made contributions in this war, but this time we will have to dig deeper and buy more bonds."

Pope Talked With FDR By Telephone Sept. 4

LONDON — (AP) — Reuters reported Thursday that the Italian news agency Stefani, in a Rome broadcast, quoted the newspaper "Il Popolo Di Roma" saying Pope Pius XII had a 50-minute telephone conversation with President Roosevelt Sept. 4.

The broadcast said it was believed they discussed "certain misunderstandings which had arisen between the Holy See and the Anglo-Saxon powers in the last few days since the Pope's latest message." In his broadcast Sept. 1, the Pope called for a just peace to end the war in its fifth year.

Collins provided instructions and materials for the campaigners, and invited them to ride in jeeps, driven by WACS, in the big military parade.

Homers By Musial Cause Sewell To Lose Eighth Game

By The Associated Press

Action in the major leagues Wednesday was limited to three games in the senior loop, but there was plenty of it in those encounters.

Truett (Rip) Sewell dropped his eighth game of the season when lanky Stan Musial blasted out two homers to lead a nine-hit St. Louis Cardinal offensive which downed the Pittsburgh Pirates 5 to 1. Sewell has 20 wins.

Whitlow Wyatt pitched one hit ball to gain his 11th victory of the season and his seventh straight win as the Brooklyn Dodgers defeated the Boston Braves 3 to 0.

Babe Dahlgren's fifth homer of the season in the seventh inning gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 3 to 2 decision over the New York Giants. Ernie Lombardi and Buddy Kerr also rapped out round-trippers for the Giants.

Bond Traps Will Be Hazards For Golfers

Midland Country Club officials Thursday announced plans to install "bond traps" near four greens on the golf course.

They will be placed near greens of holes No. 3, 5, 7 and 9.

Golfers whose balls go into the traps will be expected to purchase $25 War Bonds when they return to the club house.

C. V. (Cap) Lyman predicted the "bond traps" would result in the sale of an additional $2,000 worth of War Bonds this month.
