Reports Indicate Nazis Are Running Short Of Gasoline

LONDON — (AP) — A mighty Russian tank force crushing down on Krivoi Rog, strategic Dnieper loop city, from the north, began its second day of battle Friday with last-ditch German armor in a fierce struggle for possession of the iron mine and rail center.

The battle is "still in full progress," the German high command communique said. The Nazis asserted they had destroyed 115 Russian tanks.

3,000 Germans Slain

South of Dnieper loop, Red Army troops were plunging through the wide steppes of the Southern Ukraine less than 60 miles from Perekop, last door of escape open to the Nazi Crimean garrisons, Moscow said.

The Russians, advancing at a rate of from 12 to 18 miles a day, would reach the gates of Perekop within a week if that pace is maintained.

Capture of the village of Nizhne-Saragozhy, highway junction 46 miles west of Melitopol, cleared the way for the rapid westward surge. More than 3,000 Germans were killed in the battle for Nizhne-Saragozhy. The Russians found 250 freight cars left behind when the enemy fled the town.

Capture Of City Imminent

At Krivoi Rog, a strengthened German garrison was stubbornly resisting massed Russian assaults from three sides, but capture of the city appeared inevitable as the Russian pressure increased.

In clean-up operations southwest of Dnepropetrovsk, Soviet troops swept into several towns and captured additional stores of German military equipment.

Increasing the pressure on the Crimean units of Gen. Fedor Tolbukhin's southern "desert" army, they were swinging down from Melitopol to stab at Perekop, northeastern gate of the peninsula less than 60 miles away, Moscow said they were close on the heels of the fleeing enemy.

Axis Source Admits General Kesselring Relieved Of Command

LONDON — (AP) — An Axis source confirmed Friday that Field Marshal Gen. Albert Kesselring has been relieved of his command in Southern Italy and that Gen. Heinrich Von Wittinghoff has succeeded him.

The Nazi-controlled Vichy radio, in a broadcast recorded by the ministry of information, made the announcement, quoting Berlin as its source.

There were many stories of enmity between Field Marshal Erwin Rommel and Kesselring. Unconfirmed Swedish reports some days ago said Rommel demanded Kesselring's dismissal on the threat of resigning himself.

Bougainville Is Threatened After Allied Landings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Allied amphibious forces were poised on the threshold of Bougainville, last major enemy possession in the Solomon Islands, Friday as submarines presumed to be American struck twice in waters immediately below Japan's home islands.

China was heartened by Japanese evacuation of an important highway point some 85 miles southeast of Nanking. A Chinese army spokesman at Chungking in announcing the evacuation said it indicated the enemy grasp on East China was weakening. The situation remained unchanged on the Salween River front where 30,000 Chinese troops are attempting to nip a Chinese counter-thrust against North Burma.

Two Jap Ships Sunk

American and New Zealand combat teams landed Wednesday on the Treasury Islands, Mono and Stirling, in the face of mortar fire. Allied headquarters described opposition as "minor" and said our casualties were light. It brought Admiral William F. Halsey's South Pacific forces within range for the final battle of the Solomons, the battle for Bougainville. American airpower already has neutralized Japan's air strength on that island as "minor" airfields useless for the time being.

A Tokyo dispatch, broadcast by Radio Berlin, said that two Japanese merchant ships—Kamu Maru and Fuji Maru—had been torpedoed in the East China Sea. One vessel sank and the other was badly damaged.

Vital Railroad Is Slashed In 130 Places By Slavs

Bitter Fights Of Citizens' Forces Are Flaming Anew

LONDON — (AP) — Partisan forces of Josip Broz (Tito) have struck one of their most effective blows against Germany's campaign in Yugoslavia by cutting the important Zagreb-Belgrade railway in 130 places along a 40-mile stretch just east of Zagreb, a Yugoslav National Army communique said Friday.

The communique, broadcast by the Free Yugoslav Radio and recorded by The Associated Press, said that two large and several small bridges were blown up, four trains destroyed, and more than 270 German troops were slain, the bulletin asserted.

This and other new successes were announced while Yugoslavia's bitter inner strife was flaming anew with Tito and the opposing faction, led by Gen. Draza Mihailovic, denouncing each other in a written statement. Balkan advisers indicate may have been German-inspired.

Nazi Landing Repulsed

Adding fuel to this fire, Tito's communique Friday asserted that his followers had clashed in a sharp action near Bistrica with units of Mihailovic's army who, the bulletin said, were aided by Italian "blackshirts" and "Quislings" led by pro-Nazi Milan Nedec. Nazi uniforms also were reported in this engagement.

The communique said that units of the 27th Division stormed the enemy-held mountain stronghold of Rogatica, 30 miles east of Sarajevo, and captured stores of sorely-needed war material, killing 100 Germans and wounding 120.

The Yugoslav communique reported that German amphibious forces had attempted a landing on the large Dalmatian island of Brač which faces the port of Split. The entire landing force was destroyed, the bulletin stated.

Officers Checking Other Clues In Littlefield Murder After Questioning Former Convict

LUBBOCK — (AP) — A long, hard job of checking hundreds of small but vital facts faced officers Friday investigating the connection, if any, of their first arrested suspect in the brutal slaying of Dr. and Mrs. Roy Hunt in Littlefield Tuesday morning.

Sheriff Sam Hutson of Lamb County, co-investigator of the case with Ranger Capt. Maney Gault, disclosed that the suspect, a middle-aged, boot-tough convict, had voluntarily made a written statement of his recent activities—and then laughingly refused to sign it. The statement was given over a two-hour period, Hutson said, but the suspect cagily sidestepped important items in his story. Then he refused to put his name to the document.

Questioning of the man, who was paroled from the Texas State Prison last May, probably will be recessed for a few days, Hutson said, until he and Gault can make investigations in South and Central Texas.

Hutson said it appeared to him that the killer (or killers) of the well-known couple, who were found bound, beaten and dead on their blood-soaked bed, was intent only on "getting Roy Hunt out of the way."

"It looks like he didn't mean to kill her (Mrs. Hunt, 26) but that she just got hurt in all the excitement."

War Bullelfins

LONDON — (AP) — The Berlin radio said Friday that the possibility of a shake-up in the puppet French government of Pierre Laval "is not being disputed" in German foreign office circles.

LONDON — (AP) — German units have landed on the Pylesac Peninsula, 100 miles down the coast from Split, and established a bridgehead, the Free Yugoslav Radio announced Friday.

LONDON — (AP) — The Cairo radio Friday reported street fighting in Milan, Northern Italy industrial center, between Italians and Germans, and Swiss reports said 1,200,086 German civilians had been killed to Oct. 1 by the Allied air offensive.

President Says Moscow Conference Of Allied Leaders Is Great Success

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Roosevelt said Friday that the Moscow conference has been a great success and he indicated it was in its final phases where formal documents of agreement are being drafted.

Roosevelt told a press-radio conference also that he was very much in favor of a Senate declaration that, to avoid war in the future, this country will cooperate with others. But he did not care to say that the Connally resolution under discussion in the Senate was adequate.

The Chief Executive asserted that the net results of the meeting of Russian, British and American foreign ministers make it a tremendous success not only from the point of view of definite items of agreement, but also from the standpoint of the spirit of it.

The overall objective, of course, he said, is peace in the world and the end of aggression. That is far and away the most important thing before the conferees, Roosevelt said.

A reporter remarked that the President seemed "confident on Russia's willingness to cooperate in maintaining peace," and Roosevelt said emphatically that he had always had such confidence. To a question whether he thought the Moscow parley had "confirmed and strengthened" this confidence, the Chief Executive replied in the affirmative.

$3,787 Is Collected In Campaign For United War Chest

Midland's United War Chest special gifts committee Friday had collected $3,787 in its whirlwind drive to meet the county's quota of $15,000 in the National War Fund.

Tom N. Sloan and Mayor A. N. Hendrickson are in charge of the solicitation of special gifts.

"Sure We'll Take a Texan's Share," is the slogan of the campaign, which leaders hope to conclude here at the earliest possible date.

Every citizen of Midland will be called upon to donate to the fund which combines the appeals of 17 war-related agencies.

Members of the committee which will conduct the drive in the business district next week met Friday in the office of Mayor Hendrickson to receive final instructions and supplies.

The drive will start in residential sections of the city Monday.

Contributors of $100 Friday included Harry Adams, Wes-Tex Food Store, Gibbins & Heasley Inc., Stubbeman, McRae and Sealy, Midland Farms Company.

Contributors of $50 were H. G. Bedford, Black Brothers, J. E. (Bob) Hill, J. L. Greene, Fred Hogan, M. F. Kling, Mims and Crane, Paul F. Osborne, George Sheldon, Fred Fuhrman.

Contributors of $25 were E. H. Barron, Cameron Drug, Walter Cremmins, Harris Eastham Jr., Log Cabin Inn, J. W. McMillen, Addison Young.

Health Problems Here Are Discussed

Major J. A. Olean, director of the Midland-Ector-Howard Health Unit, discussed community health problems at the meeting of the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce in the Cactus Cafe Friday noon. He was introduced by Clint Dunagan, program chairman.

His address was divided into three parts: Typhus control and rat eradication; venereal disease education and control, and general health education.

He discussed the advisability of forming an official health board in Midland County and said the health unit soon will start planning the organization of such a board.

Discuss Plans

Major Olean told of work done this year in the control of typhus fever by rat eradication and mentioned future plans in connection with the program.

He told what is being done by the Army and by the health unit in controlling venereal diseases and said the problem is one in which every citizen should be interested.

Health control is a community problem and any program cannot succeed unless it has the support of the citizens, he said.

Fifth And Eighth Armies Punch Out Short Advances In Face Of Massed Artillery Fire By Desperate Nazis

Opposition Strengthens As Allies Drive Toward Teano, Road Junction Pointing To Mountain Anchor Of Marshal Rommel's Line

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS — (AP) — An American cruiser and destroyers, pouring broadsides into Marshal Erwin Rommel's line of communications along the ancient Appian Way, pounded the Minturno area to the rear of his Mt. Massico positions, Allied headquarters announced Friday, as the Allied Fifth and Eighth Armies punched out short advances in the face of massed artillery.

Fighting through a driving rain, the Americans of Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark smashed through rivulets and up bristling mountainsides for a gain of three miles in the Sparanise area. They threatened the town of Teano, where four roads join to the east of Mt. Massico, the lofty anchor of the Rommel line defending Rome. Teano is 94 miles southeast of the Italian capital.

The Fifth Army's coastal flank still faced the Regia Canal, only four miles north of the Voltorno, in its frontal advance on Mt. Massico and Mondragone, with British elements for the most part not yet over the barrier.

Fifth Consolidates Gains

Farther to the northeast, in the Ravennan region, the Fifth Army consolidated its gains in important high ground dominating valley roads leading north along the Upper Voltorno toward Venafro, another key point in the Rommel line.

(The German communique said Nazi forces had been obliged to withdraw to new mountain positions on both sides of the Voltorno in the face of powerful Allied assaults.)

On the Eighth Army front Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's veterans clashed bitterly with the enemy on the Adriatic coast road near San Salvo, two miles north of the Trigno River and three miles inland, where the Germans were making every effort to prevent enlargement of the shallow Allied bridgehead north of the stream.

Montefalco Taken

Fifteen miles inland, where Montgomery's forces have not yet reached the Trigno, Eighth Army units occupied Montefalco after a five-mile advance from Castellmauro.

Still farther inland, Montgomery's forces captured Molise, on a 2,500-foot mountain one mile west of Turella Del Sannio, taken Thursday.

Molise is about 18 miles east and slightly north of the mountain communications center of Isernia where the Germans had natural defenses.

These gains were scored through German heavy and medium artillery placed in the hills where it would cover every approach. Bad weather washed out much of the Allied air support.

Coastal Guns Bombed

The Minturno area, bombed Wednesday night, is some 12 miles north of the front and just behind the strong German line on Massico Ridge.

Minturno is on the Gulf of Gaeta near Formia and the town of Gaeta where Allied warplanes twice bombed German coastal guns recently.

Slipping close to shore during a moonless night, the American gunners swept the road, railroad and coast defenses around the mouth of the Garigliano River with a devastating fire.

The region along the Adriatic where Montgomery's men were engaged in Thursday's stiffest combat is known as the Sant'Angela plain, a shelf-like area five or six miles wide rimmed by mountains from which the Germans poured their fire much as they did at Salerno. The Germans had heavy concentrations of guns and armor to oppose the Allied advance.

Bus Station To Be Moved Monday To New Location

The Midland station of the Greyhound Bus Lines will move Monday from its Loraine Street location to its new home at 113 North Colorado Street, the building formerly occupied by Virginia's Novelty Shop.

Ralph J. Auld, manager for the Greyhound Lines here, announced plans for the move to the new location.

FRENCH PLAY ROBIN HOOD

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Office of War Information, quoting a Bern dispatch in the Swedish newspaper Aftonbladet, said Friday that French patriots, acting in the manner of Robin Hood, frequently stop Germany-bound freight trains and distribute the merchandise to residents of the surrounding countryside.

More Than 76,000 Miners On Strike

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The spreading work stoppage in the soft coal fields Friday sent the total of idle bituminous miners above 76,000.

These figures did not include an estimated 52,700 anthracite miners who were taking a traditional holiday Friday in the Pennsylvania hard coal fields in honor of Mitchell day, memorializing John Mitchell, a founder of the United Mine Workers. Mitchell day is observed only in the anthracite area.

Changes In Ration Values Of Canned Foods Become Effective Sunday; OPA Announces Values Of Jams, Jellies

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Jams, jellies and fruit whips which will be rationed beginning Sunday, were assigned values of four and six points a pound by the Office of Price Administration Friday.

Accompanying this announcement in the agency's November chart of point values for processed foods were increases of from two to five points in the ration cost of berries, apples, fruit cocktail, pears and pineapple in cans or bottles. Boosts were ordered also for pineapple juice and three tomato products, but the values on beets, pumpkin and squash and grapefruit juice were reduced.

OPA announced also that beginning Sunday the ration cost of 42 cuts of pork, veal, lamb and mutton cuts will be lowered one to two, with beef unchanged. Butter will stay at 16 points.

Other changes in the meats-fats program included a two-point increase for margarine to six points a pound; boosts of one point for shortening as well as salad and cooking oils, raising the total to five points a pound; and increases of two points to a total of five a pound for cream and creamed cottage cheese and cream spread.

Many Changes Made

In other processed food changes, all effective Sunday, pickled, spiced and branched fruits were eliminated from rationing and the frozen foods category was revised.

A value of six points a pound was assigned to jams, preserves and non-citrus marmalades, while the ration cost of jellies and fruit butters was fixed at four points a pound.

Changes increase the point value of common No. 2 cans of apples and berries of all varieties from 10 to 15 points. No. 1 tall cans of fruit cocktail get a 20-point value instead of 18, while the boost on a No. 2 1/2 can of pears is from 21 to 24 points. Pineapple in No. 2 1/2 cans goes from 24 to 36 points.

Beets go down to 5 points from 8, for a No. 2 can. A No. 2 1/2 can (Continued on Page 6)

Papa Knows Best

The Army added further exasperating evidence of its "papa knows best" news policy the other day when it insisted that a group of high-ranking military leaders address the House of Representatives in secret session. After the meeting several congressmen said they thought that these leaders' reports, variously described as "highly informative," "very convincing" and "straight from the shoulder," should be made public. Yet if it had not been for the usual "leaks," not a single crumb of information would have been thrown to the ordinary news-hungry citizen.

Some of the news that leaked out was already known. The rest of it was a sort that the public could and should know, since it obviously is known to the enemy: that Japan's manpower problem is less serious than ours; that she is building planes faster than we can destroy them; that a half-million Jap troops menace Russia's much-talked-of Siberian air bases; that German fighter pilots are dodging ours not because they are afraid, but because they are concentrating their strength on our bomber formations.

We are accused, as a nation, of being complacent—and why shouldn't we be, since most of the news we get is sugar coated? But the great wonder is that we haven't come panicky. We read of advances in Italy and the Solomons, of German factories leveled, and great fleets of Jap planes smashed. Then we hear from congressmen who attended this secret meeting that the speakers "debunked a lot of optimism," and that General Marshall gave the impression that "we are in one hell of a war."

It certainly would not be surprising if some newspaper readers are contrasting the enthusiastic tone of official news releases with these pessimistic hints from behind closed doors, and are beginning to wonder just how much of anything they can believe.

News "leaks" and speculation are scarcely the ideal mediums for reconciling this bewilderment. But the press can't be blamed for falling back on them when nothing better is offered. And the public can't be censured for the very human reaction of exaggerating the perils of the unknown and the untold.

Naturally, nobody wants any information made public that could possibly hamper our prosecution of the war. But the secret session of the House is only one of several incidents that add up to the conclusion that considerable "confidential" information is so designated through the caprice of the powers that be.

The Army isn't the only capricious power, by any means. The Navy is given to similar lofty attitudes. And the civilian government on occasion has fallen into the services' habit of regarding the public that is fighting and paying for this war as an irresponsible group to be dismissed with a pat on the head and the admonition to run along now, papa's busy.

Exit Small Business

A big businessman, Robert R. Watson, sees little hope for the survival of small business after the war. Crisis comes to small business, he says in a recent article, when it attempts to emerge from a one-man business and become an organization. And to survive, these organizations must be built larger, he believes.

Here are his reasons: "In the pre-war years the small manager found it impossible to employ and pay for Social Security accounting, unemployment tax accounting, a labor relations department, an increased purchasing department, a questionnaire re-answering department, and compete with organizations already large enough to afford these new requirements forced upon business by Washington bureaucracy."

Jobs And Taxes

The great majority of the public including those in public office have indicated their desire that free enterprise rather than government supply jobs after the war. This is all well and good, but it takes more than saying to accomplish. Industry has emphatically accepted the task of keeping production at a high level during peace time. It knows that production would mean more goods, jobs, and a higher standard of living.

However, more and more people are also coming to realize that industry cannot possibly plan for expanded production after the war if it continues to be taxed to its very utmost. For one thing, business must have capital invested in it—and people who have suffered tremendous income taxes will be loath to risk what is left in any business which will yield little profit after its taxes have been deducted.

And if private enterprise does not supply employment, government will surely step in. This means vast public works programs, to be paid for by taxes. Beardsley Ruml, chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, and author of the pay-as-you-go income tax, has come forth with a practical suggestion. He proposes that instead of levying high taxes to keep a large public works program going, taxes should be reduced after the war so that money can be left for individuals to invest in industry.

To those who really want to see private industry embark on a full production program after the war and provide the bulk of employment, the logic of this recommendation is apparent. It is a businessman's way of putting the horse before the cart.

Gosh, It WOULD Be Fun!

Lots Of Fun And Big Contribution To Wartime Morale Can Be Had In Hallowe'en Party For Those In Service

By NEA Service
"The goblins will getcha" is the year if you forget to throw a Hallowe'en party for servicemen and women. So mark Oct. 31 on your calendar as a reminder that on that night you're going to make a real contribution to wartime morale—and get some fun out of it yourself.

A telephone call to the USO club, the Special Service Officer or chaplain at the camp will assure you of a capacity crowd.

It's a good idea to put your ingenuity and a few yards of crepe paper to work so that your living room, church hall, or wherever you decide to have that party will provide an attractive background for the fun. Dark crepe paper over the lights, some grinning jack-o'-lanterns, a few friendly cardboard skeletons and black and orange streamers hanging from the chandelier will give you the traditional cherie-cerie effect.

Dress up the refreshment table with a colorful paper cloth, napkins and some crepe paper streamers. But more than likely the guests will be most interested in what's on the table in the way of food.

Be sure that you have plenty of everything and that you keep the refreshments easy to eat, unless you are planning to seat your guests. Platters of sandwiches, stuffed celery, pickle, potato chips, pretzels, pop corn, fruit, candy, gallons of cider and stacks of doughnuts, are easy to prepare and are always enjoyed.

If you want to do something extra-special in the food line, try dessert made by placing a ball of orange ice in the center of a doughnut with bits of chocolate for eyes, nose and mouth, capped off with an inverted empty ice cream cone to give the effect of a witch's hat. Dancing and time-honored Hallowe'en games, like ducking for apples, should be arranged. A gala touch is added by having the girls wear fancy dress of some kind, even if they're just playsuits.

Cattle And Sheep Raisers Protest Inventory Change

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Cattle and sheep raisers, through a special committee representing principal growers' organizations, will protest to Bureau of Internal Revenue officials Friday against changes in the inventory method used for thirty years in computing income taxes of livestock producers.

Headed by Frank S. Boice of Sonita, Ariz., the twelve-man committee will present a brief asking that the constant unit cost method be officially sanctioned as the procedure for calculating income taxes.

H. K. Fawcett of Del Rio, Texas, chairman of the committee, predicted that denial of the request would mean "financial ruin" to cattle and sheep raisers through the imposition of what he described as inequitable, excessive and prohibitive taxes.

Want Other Methods
The grower representatives were fearful that the commissioner of internal revenue would insist that the constant unit cost plan be abandoned in favor of one of these methods: assessment on market value, or capitalization of a herd subject to depreciation.

The constant unit cost plan was developed, committee members said, to show the variation in numbers of livestock valued at a constant price. Such price represented either the first per animal cost of his herd to the stockman, or his estimate of its normal, conservative value.

The livestock committee contends that the essence of this system is consistency, in that year after year each animal in each class is valued at the same price.

the building and fell into conversation with the sentry. There was my chance! I killed past the car; then, making sure I wasn't observed, picked the simple lock on the luggage compartment with a bit of wire I carry for the purpose. It was the work of a minute to lift the lid, climb in and close it down over me. Those top-flight Nazis were sure to talk when they left the factory and now I had a front-row seat.

"Everything went like clockwork. Once in the car and on their way again, did they talk? "Luck had been with me so far—but now it broke. A blow-out! I was out of that luggage place and down the road before the chauffeur could leave the car. But of course the setup in the rear gave the show away.

"They almost got me in Stuttgart. They had my description from people in Chemnitz, where a fast check probably showed me as the only missing person. And they thought I'd head for the frontier, as I did.

"The close call in Stuttgart made me change plans. With the frontier hermetically sealed to me I was sewed up in Germany, for a while anyhow. So I sent out my message through the Dutchmen.

"In Stuttgart I wrote and mailed the Zellen letter and also, in case one of my messages got into Gestapo hands, a letter to one Stolz in Bingen, in meaningless code. Then I broke north, pulling up in Frankfurt, sneaked out to Wiesbaden to park my stuff in the library there and mail the Q-74 letter. Then back to Frankfurt to go to earth in the jail.

"The rest of the story you know," Enzell concluded matter-of-factly.

The little audience of three which had listened quietly without interruption now burst into excited comment. Rick's voice shrilled somewhat plaintively.

"I say," he protested, "I catch the drift of most of what's been afoot but there's one thing everybody but me seems to be in the know about. What is this 'stuff' of yours anyway, Enzell—or shouldn't I ask?"

WTCC Plan Draws Heavy Opposition; Barron Protests

ABILENE—(P)—The Reporter-News says that quickly-developing but belated opposition to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce referendum platform plank on sectional selection and residence of Texas highway commissioners "set West Texans abuzz today."

A West Texas Chamber of Commerce committee has pressed for adoption into state law of its plank calling for strict adherence in selection of commissioners from the three districts in the state, West, East and South Texas, and insisting upon vacation of office where such officials move from the section.

The Reporter-News said: Contacted at Greenville, Charles E. Simons, executive secretary of the Texas Good Roads Association, voiced his opposition to the proposed plan, and said he would make every effort to be in Abilene Nov. 3 to air his views on directors of the chamber convene in referendum session.

Barron Opposes Plan
D. A. Bandeen, manager of the chamber, reported the proposal held an edge in mail balloting, but admitted the issue was close.

At Pampa, Garnett Reeves, chamber of commerce manager, told of opposition in his section to the plank.

County Judge E. H. Barron of Midland also voiced opposition and revealed he had contacted officials of the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners' Association who, he stated in his letter, expressed like sentiments.

After winning the opening lead with the ace of hearts in dummy, declarer cashed the ace and queen of trumps, then led the ten of hearts, which East refused to win. West discarded the nine of diamonds, which led the declarer to hope that East held a singleton diamond.

South cashed the diamond ace, played a low trump to dummy's king and led the jack of hearts, on which East played the king, and South discarded a small diamond. East could not lead a heart, as all the hearts in dummy would be good. He led the jack of clubs and South let it ride to dummy's queen. The other diamond losers were discarded on dummy's good hearts.

BANISH CARE with Enginair. We have just received another small shipment of Enginair Tire Pumps. They are now available to all motorists and with the increase of tire trouble, a good tire pump is indispensable. Enginair relieves the back breaking drudgery of tire pumping since you simply insert Enginair connection in place of a spark plug and watch your motor pump up your flat tire. A gauge is built into the flexible hose line to prevent over-inflation. The cost—only $4.95—Western Auto Store, across from Western Union, downtown Midland. (196-1f)

(Cordova-Union) is reported trying to drill the well to shut off gas so drilling toward the Ordovician can be resumed from 3400 feet. The operation reported twenty million cubic feet of gas and a spray of oil and water at that depth.

The development logged streaks of saturation and porosity from 3220 feet to the present bottom. The operator has indicated that those shows might make a well in the Tubb zone of the Permian. That horizon likely will be tested.

Magnolia and Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation No. 2-95, State-Powell, Pecos County Elenberg test, is preparing to run retainer to 4,575 feet to squeeze off section under that level.

Lane Bailed Dry
Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company No. 52-A Lane has bailed the hole dry and is preparing to measure and start perforating pipe above the plug which is supposed to be drilled out to about 3,340 feet.

Continental Oil Company No. 1 Eilers, southeast outpost to the Fullerton field, has cored from 6,779 feet to 6,810 feet and has recovered sufficient saturation and porosity to indicate that the project can be completed as an oil well.

The operator is now preparing to mud off the gas and core ahead. Bay Sets Pipe
C. U. Bay 1 Bidler & Lowe, prospective producer two and one-eighth miles northeast of the Fullerton field has set 5 1/2-inch casing at 6,887 feet with 300 sacks and is getting ready to test the section below that point which have shown signs of oil.

Honolulu Oil Corporation No. 1 Honam, wildcat venture six miles northeast of Seminole in Gaines County, is running 5 1/2-inch pipe to set about 5,400 feet so that the zone under that level can be tested. Jones Under 10,000 Feet

Continental No. 1-A Jones, North-west Gaines venture, has drilled below 16,001 feet and is still in the Pennsylvanian lime. Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 15 American Warehouse Company in the Cedar Lake section of Northeast Gaines, has progressed below 11,322 feet in lime and chert.

Globe Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Ellwood, Southeast Hockley County test, is drilling ahead around 5,519 feet in lime. Globe No. 1 Colden, Pecos County wildcat, has set 8 5/8-inch pipe at 2,612 feet with 400 sacks.

Member Of Japanese Diet Commits Suicide After Hearing Tojo

CHUNGKING—(P)—A Japanese Domei news agency broadcast from Tokyo reported the death by suicide of Seigo Nakano, ultra-Fascist member of the Japanese diet, after a speech by Premier Tojo before the diet Wednesday night. Chinese monitors said Friday.

Chinese newspapers attributed Nakano's reported suicide to his conviction that Japan faced ultimate defeat in the present war. Nakano, characterized as perhaps the most ardent advocate of aggression against the United States and Great Britain, was believed here to have taken his life after something he heard during Wednesday's session of the diet convinced him Japan was doomed.

On returning home early Thursday morning, the Domei dispatch said, Nakano was alleged to have written a three-page letter containing the phrase: "I gaze at Japan and die, but I have no regrets."

taken by the Red Army suggested a breakdown in German transport. This belief was strengthened by a Madrid dispatch which quoted a neutral informant who has just returned from the Russian front as saying that because of fuel shortages German planes no longer are allowed to taxi to starting points, but must be pushed. Tanks are transported by rail and even motorized reserves are moved by rail except in great emergencies.

The Red Army command has begun a fresh offensive in Upper White Russia, 600 miles to the north. Gains of from three to five miles were recorded there, the Moscow war bulletin said.

Many Players To End Careers In Games Saturday

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Southwest Conference football moves into the stretch Saturday but for a sizable group of stars it will be the end of the season.

Four of the six teams are losing keymen in the naval training program.

Joe Parker, a great wingman, will be playing the last time this year for Texas when the Longhorns battle Southern Methodist at Dallas. It also will mark the close for Billy Shaw, guard; Ed Cloud, center, and Bill Squires, tailback, at Southern Methodist.

Rice Loses Malmberg
At Houston, where Rice plays Texas Tech, Charles Malmberg, one of the country's finest tacklers, will be bowing out as keyman of the Owl line.

At Baton Rouge, where Texas Christian plays Louisiana State, the Horned Frogs will say goodbye to Harry Gardner and Doug Carter, backs; Billy Hale, center, and Dick Smith, tackle.

Only at Fayetteville will the teams leave the field intact after the Texas A. and M.—Arkansas battle. There are no trainees at Aggie land or at Arkansas, so no players will be lost.

Texas, Texas Christian and Texas A. and M. will be favored to win but Rice appears to have a terrific battle on its hands with the scrapping Red Raiders of Texas Tech.

of pumpkin or squash will cost 15 cents compared to 21 previously.

The value of a 48-ounce can of grapefruit juice is reduced from 4 to 3 cents, but a No. 2 can of pineapple juice will cost 12 instead of 10 cents.

New Stamps Valid
Values of such tomato products as catsup, chili sauce and tomato sauces are increased 1 to 3 points.

Pickled, spiced and branded fruits, more perishable than ordinary canned foods, were removed from rationing to move out all old stocks in wholesalers' and retailers' hands, OPA said.

Dried and dehydrated soups and peas and lentils, listed at zero value for several months, have been dropped from the chart.

A zero value still is assigned to citrus marmalades in connection with rationing of fruit spreads. Supplies are plentiful, OPA said, but they are brought under ration control because of their importance in the over-all picture.

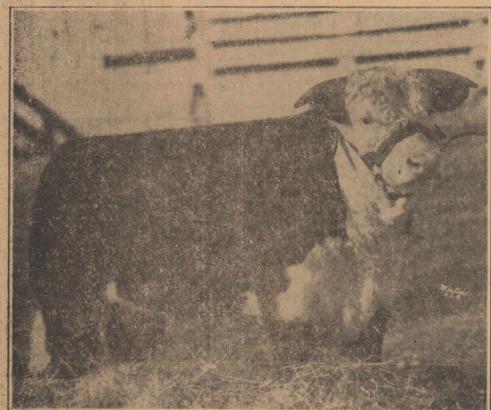

Starting Nov. 1, green stamps A, B and C from the new war ration book will be used to buy processed foods. They will be valid through Dec. 20. In addition, the last blue stamps in book two—X, Y and Z—may be used through Nov. 20.

Sports ★ Roundup

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Although Macomb, Ill. High School won its game at Havana last week, fans still are demanding a recount on a 85-yard touchdown run by Fullback Don Daniels. . . . Looking around after the play, officials could find only ten Macomb players on the field so they nullified the score. . . . The eleventh man was there, all right, but so many sideline fans crowded onto the edge of the field to watch the run that the missing player was lost in the throng.

Observation Post
College athletes who used to vow they wouldn't shave until they won a game now have given way to college athletes who likely won't win a game until they're old enough to shave.

Service Dept.
Lt. Vaughn Bennion, former all-Big Seven basketball center at Utah, credits the Manies with doing something basketball couldn't—taking 20 pounds off his well-padded frame. . . . Sports boost: Capt. Elmer Salter reports that the boys at the Bainbridge, Ga., Army Air Field cheer the newest shots of the big-time football games almost as loudly as they do the glimmer girls who appear on the post theater screen.

Cleaning The Cuff
The Orange Bowl already is two-thirds sold out for the New Year's Day grid game although the committee hasn't any idea what teams will play. . . . Which helps explain why they're planning to increase the bowl's capacity to 70,000 after the war. . . . Coach Jimmy Phelan of St. Mary's cheer the newest shots of the big-time football games almost as loudly as they do the glimmer girls who appear on the post theater screen.

Italian Prisoners Put In Trusty Roles

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Italian war prisoners who have been in custody for at least six months and "who have shown by their demeanor that they can be trusted" will be allowed to do work outside of prison camps without guards.

In making this announcement Friday, the War Department said the new system for prisoners will be instituted gradually, with its operation "closely supervised by the military authorities." The department said "no prisoners will be paroled; that is, released into the custody of individuals who would assume full time responsibility for them."

KAROW AT JACKSONVILLE
JACKSONVILLE, FLA. — (AP) — Lt. Marty G. Karow, former backfield coach at Texas A. & M., has been named athletic and welfare officer at the Naval Air Technical Training Center here, succeeding Lt. (jg) R. W. Womach.

BUDGE TO PLAY ALLOO
PAMPA — (AP) — Two of the nation's top tennis players will be seen in a match here Sunday when Lt. Don Budge meets Lt. Edward Alloo at the Pampa High School courts.

WHO INQUIRED, PLEASE?
LEAVENWORTH, KAS. — (AP) — Pedestrians in Leavenworth looked a second time when they noticed a sign on a city garbage truck, which read: "No riders."

Visitors Display Both Deception And Power Plays

With anything and everything expected to happen, the Midland High Bulldogs will be hosts Friday at 8:15 p. m. to the Abilene Eagles in a District 3-AA tilt on Lackey Field.

The Bulldogs will be seeking their fourth win of the season, the Eagles their second. Each team has lost three tilts thus far this season.

Eagles Have Power
The Abilene squad has power to spare in its lineup and in its reserve list, but for some unknown reason has been unable to click except in one game. But most observers agree the Eagles are a good team and that they are destined to start hitting on all four right away — possibly Friday night.

The team averages 162 1/2 pounds per man, while the Bulldogs average slightly more than 150 pounds. Working from a punt formation, sometimes shifting into a T, the Eagles have turned in some good performances in their games and if they get a break there's liable to be another loss marked up on the Bulldog season record.

To offset this threat, Coaches Gene McGilton and Jack Atkins have put their players through intensive work this week on known Eagles plays. Linemen have been getting plenty of attention in an attempt to prepare them for the hard-charging Eagle forward wall and the battering Eagle backs.

Edwards Crimped
The Abilene quarterback, Spires, is outstanding in the ball carrying department and is exceptionally shifty. Bradshaw, fullback, is a battering ram and has picked up much yardage in smashes through the lines, while Duff, halfback, combines both power and speed to bewilder opponents.

With Jimmy Edwards apparently on the sidelines because of a knee injury, Black Jack Taylor likely will start at the center slot, and Ralph Vertrees will go into the guard slot vacated by the transfer of Taylor. Although there are several stiff joints and a number of bruises, the team is in good shape for the fracas.

The spotlight of District 3-AA competition is focused Friday on the San Angelo-Odessa tilt at Odessa, with the winner destined to play Sweetwater for the conference title. In the only other conference game, Lamesa takes on the powerful Mustangs in Sweetwater.

The probable starting lineups:

Abilene	Pos.	Midland
Dillingham	LE	Watson
Frost	LT	Spurges
Proffitt	LG	Vertrees
Stubbs	C	Taylor
Grant	RG	Funk
Sandlin	RT	Roy
Patton	RE	Daugherty
Spires	QB	Richards
Duff	HB	Stickney
Murphy	HB	Hale
Bradshaw	FB	Hall

Pooh On Bertelli And Samuel Baugh Dell Morgan Prefers Rogers Smith

LUBBOCK — (AP) — Angelo Bertelli, Sammy Baugh, John Kimbrough? Pooh! Take a gander at Rogers Smith of Lubbock Army Air Field. Says Dell Morgan, coach of Texas Tech who has known plenty of football stars:

"Rogers Smith is the greatest triple-threat left halfback in the nation, and I am including all the Notre Dame backs, all the Southwest Conference backs, and all the touted all-America backs for this year."

"Nope, you can have all your ball players, all the stars of the game, but if there ever were two all-Americans, one was Jim Thorpe and the other is Rogers Smith."

Smith is credited by Morgan with not only beating Texas Tech single-handed but winning two more games for Lubbock Army Field.

The 185-pounder played four years at Rising Star Texas High School; performed as a freshman at Tech in 1940, and was the varsity's leading ground-gainer in 1941 and 1942.

This year at LAAF he was called upon to face his old school twice. Although he had reported just the day before, in that first game, which LAAF lost, Smith carried the ball for 102 yards, threw five passes for 156—one gaining 70 yards—scored two touchdowns and converted for all the Army points.

Then he really began to roll, carrying LAAF to victories over South Plains Army Air Field, Fort Bliss Commandos and Tech.

Robertson Makes Grid Selections But Doesn't Guarantee Accuracy

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK — (AP) — Plunging into this week's football selections without any attempt to establish an alibi:

Navy-Notre Dame—Angelo Bertelli says farewell to the Irish with the Navy probably wishing he had said it a week sooner. Notre Dame, Army—Pennsylvania—Another game with top billing. Army, Duke-Georgia Tech — The only thing certain about this Southern classic is that each team will put 11 men on the field. We pick Tech, Southern Cal Lined.

California-Southern California — The Trojans won their first meeting of the season, 7-0, and Howard Callahan has left. But they still look like the top college team of their section, Southern Cal.

Minnesota-Northwestern — Can't see how the Gophers are going to stop Otto Graham, now that the Wildcats are rolling.

Michigan-Illinois—Bill Daley and Marv Pregulman to lead the Wolverines to a one-sided triumph in their final game for Michigan.
