PETAINE DEFIES NAZIS

French Chief Of State Attempts To Set Up Democratic Government; Renounces Pierre Laval As Successor; Germans Silence Decrees

BERN —(AP)—Marshal Henri Philippe Petain has drafted a new French constitution along democratic lines which the Nazis have prevented him from promulgating, and has renounced Pierre Laval as his successor in a decree also hushed up, it was disclosed Friday.

The 77-year-old chief of state's abrupt turn from German domination, which he had previously declared France honor-bound to follow, was revealed in the publication of a speech he never permitted to deliver.

Crises Is Created

Petaine had named Nazi-collaborationist Laval as his successor on Nov. 17, 1942, and gave him power to make laws and issue decrees after German troops crossed the armistice demarcation line into Vichy French territory.

In the unpublished decree directing France back to the democratic constitution of 1875, Marshal Petain stated his intention of retaining powers as chief of state until his death, unless the new constitution he drafted is ratified.

Partisans Battle Reinforced Nazi Units In Balkans

LONDON —(AP)— Yugoslav partisans were battling heavily reinforced German and native forces in widely-scattered areas, scoring successes in Serbia and Herzegovina but falling back before steady enemy pressure in Dalmatia, a Yugoslav Liberation Army reported Friday.

Severe losses were inflicted on the Nazis and Chetniks on the Bosnia-Serbian border near Sjenice, more than 100 enemy dead being counted in fighting which still continues, the bulletin said. Other German attacks were repulsed at Dragovec, near Smederova, the report added.

Nazis Capture Towns

Reinforced German forces on the Dalmatian sector blasted the partisans out of the towns of Trogir, Makovo and Vukovar in their drive to clear the coastal regions although they were checked in several other thrusts.

Gen. Josip Broz' (Tito's) Yugoslavs faced a new thrust in the northwestern provinces of Slovenia and Croatia, where the Germans were reported concentrating large forces around Plume, Susak, Crkvenica and Kraljevica, with the evident intention of launching a full-scale offensive. One German armored column operating in West-Croatia, south of Croatia, was scattered after bitter fighting, the Yugoslavs said.

Demaret came here less than two weeks ago from Plum Hollow Country Club in Detroit to become professional golfer at River Oaks Country Club.

He is the father of a nine-year-old girl.

War Bulletins

STOCKHOLM —(AP)— It was announced Friday that the Swedish university town of Lund was thrown into a panic Thursday night when showered by incendiary bombs by "a single foreign plane" and at least one high explosive which fell in a garden. The only casualty reported was one woman cut by glass. The incendiaries burned one building.

LONDON —(AP)— Fresh peace demonstrations were reported in the Balkans Friday, particularly in Bulgaria. Berlin radio said Sofia would be evacuated following the recent American bombing of the city.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS —(AP)— Pressure of the Allies in Italy and Yugoslav partisans in the Balkans was reported Thursday to have forced Hitler to dispose 50 divisions in those regions, ten against the American-British line in Central Italy.

Istanbul Paper Prepares Turks For War On Axis

Turkish Ambassador To Germany Returns To Report On Nazis

By WILLIAM B. KING

ANKARA —(AP)— The Turkish ambassador to Berlin returned to confer with his government Friday on conditions in Germany as the popular Istanbul newspaper Tanin published an editorial which appeared to be a preliminary step to prepare the Turkish people for eventual war against the Axis.

The Turkish diplomat, Saffet Arkan, returned while Franz von Papen, German ambassador to Turkey, was conferring with Adolf Hitler in Germany, presumably about the Allied Moscow conference and European conditions in general.

Key To Puzzle

Tanin, whose editor is a member of the national assembly, has been maintaining an independent course and its comment therefore could not be considered a government line. Nevertheless importance was attached to its assertion that Turkish Foreign Minister Numan Menemencioğlu's recent talks with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden in Cairo were "obviously not merely informative."

Certain words in the communique issued after Menemencioğlu had held a lengthy conference with the people's party parliamentary group early this week on his return from Cairo, "give us the key to the puzzle," the editorial continued.

"The communique," it added, "said that the foreign minister had explained Turkey's activity in the light of the necessities of the Turkish-British alliance. Turkey's position is now very definite: 'One—Turkey is England's ally. Provokes Curiosity

Giant Army Refund Causes Demands To Halt Father Draft And Cut Taxes

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Army's disclosure that it has more money than it needs touched off Friday a series of developments and demands that gave an entirely new complexion to the nation's war production effort to date, and what's needed in the future.

Out of the announcement that the War Department is turning back $13,000,000 to the budget bureau, came these significant turns:

1—The Army was pictured as considering the mighty production effort at its expansion peak. Some drastic cutbacks, notably in small arms ammunition, already have been made because enough material is on hand or because battle experience has dictated shifts.

2—The Army's manpower needs have been revised downward by more than a half million men and, so, opponents of the father draft in Congress promptly seized on this as a basis for their point.

3—It was disclosed that preliminary steps already are under consideration for government and industry to work out tentative plans to reconvert war factories to peacetime production. Some officials said this would have been done before but there was a fear of giving the impression the war was won and thus engendering a letdown.

Announcement of the giant refund was made by Chairman Snyder (D-Pa.) of an appropriations subcommittee that handles Army finances. It immediately brought demands on Capitol Hill for lower taxes, closer scrutiny of federal expenditures and a stop to the father draft.

OIL SUBSIDIES DENOUNCED

First Trainload Of Crude Moving From Rack Here

The first trainload of Permian Basin crude oil from the new Atlantic Pipe Line Company loading rack at the Midland tank terminal was to start rolling late Friday afternoon.

At 8:30 o'clock Friday morning 51 tank cars were on the track and the railroad pouring into them. The full load was due to be pumped in by about 4 p. m. The shipment is to move by rail to the Atlantic coast.

Filling of the cars was moving slower than the work will go when the full rack is completed, only a part of the facility being used for the first shipment.

Finished and put in operation two weeks ahead of schedule the Atlantic rack will handle at least 30,000 barrels of petroleum each 24 hours when working at top capacity.

Operation of the unit likely will bring allowable increases in Permian Basin allowances to about the amount of oil it can dispatch.

The capacity of the rack is 76 cars.

London Police Break Up Crowd Protesting Release Of Mosley

LONDON —(AP)— Police broke up a muttering crowd of war workers who marched from Charing Cross station down to Whitehall Friday to protest the government's decision to release from prison Sir Oswald Mosley, pre-war leader of British Fascists, and reports indicated a nationwide storm was mounting.

London hobbies also blocked the entrance to No. 10 Downing Street as some 200 delegates from a suburban aircraft factory sought to gain entrance to Prime Minister Churchill's official residence.

A mass meeting was called for Saturday in London.

LONDON —(AP)— A nationwide storm of protest over the British government's decision to free Sir Oswald Mosley, pre-war Fascist type leader, mounted Friday with fresh delegations of war workers protesting to Home Secretary Herbert Morrison.

Representatives of more than a million workers have objected to the planned release, for asserted medical reasons, of the man who organized the British blackshirt party, and the government was faced with new disruptions of the home front's war effort, which already has been upset by the worst year of strikes since the war began.

Farmers Speak Out

The American Farm Bureau Federation in an official news letter several months ago criticized the FSA and saw no reason to justify its continuance, and now the Texas Farm Bureau Federation has gone on record opposing subsidies on farm products.

The Texas federation said "we do not believe in a low-priced food guarantee for a high income population as a means of preventing inflation." Continuing, its resolution said, "We hold it is unfair to pass on to present and future taxpayers part of the grocery bill of civilians who today are receiving the highest wages and salaries ever known, and which must be paid in taxes by the men and boys who return at the end of the war."

Congress recently declined to appropriate $44,000,000 for FSA, threatening the life of that federal agency. Taxpayers are getting wise to claims made by federal agencies to justify their request for more money, and taxpayers realize that their money is being used to pay the salaries of these men to pay the losses on loans.

"Analysis Does Not Support FSA Claim of Food Increases," was the heading on the American Farm Bureau Federation's official news letter to its members.

"In an attempt to justify its continuance at a time when other relief agencies have been liquidated, FSA is suddenly being hailed as an important, even indispensable contributor to the war effort," the article said. "It bases this claim on the alleged phenomenal increases its clients have made in food production."

"In support of this fantastic claim, FSA lists nine crops (not including wheat, corn or cotton) in which it alleges its borrowers have far outstripped the other farmers of the nation in production increases. It claims that last year its 463,941 'clients' achieved a food production of $836,303,000 or an average of $1,802 per client."

These claims were termed "fantastic" and "unsupported" by the federation which then cited "facts" to back its stand.

"FSA claims are made further ridiculous," the article continues, "by the fact that United States Department of Agriculture statistics prove that the subsistence farms served by FSA contribute practically nothing to the marketed commercial food supply. They exist mainly to feed themselves, and many of them do not even do that."

Woman's Club Hears Life Of Former Member's Son Reviewed Wednesday

Mrs. Clyde Cowden was leader Wednesday when the Woman's Wednesday Club met with Mrs. Ernest Sidwell, 1907 West Indiana. Reports on the convention at Austin last week were given by Mrs. James Goodman and Mrs. O. B. Holt, who also gave her impressions of personalities at the convention.

In Mrs. J. M. DeArmond's discussion on current books, the highlight was her review of Evett Halley's book, "George W. Littlefield, Texan," a recent publication of the University of Oklahoma Press at Norman. The book is of special significance to Midland people since Littlefield's mother, the late Mrs. John H. Littlefield, was for many years prominent in intellectual and social circles of Midland. She was a member of the Woman's Wednesday Club.

Members attending the meeting were Mrs. C. W. Chancellor, Mrs. Cowden, Mrs. DeArmond, Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Holt, Mrs. R. L. Miller, Mrs. Eric Payne, Mrs. Sidwell, Mrs. Robert Turpin, and Mrs. W. G. Whitehouse.

9. Who wastes the most food? <input type="checkbox"/>	10. Are American civilian families going to get enough to eat? <input type="checkbox"/>

Can you score 100 on this Food Quiz?

These are important food questions of the hour. How many can you answer? Give yourself 10 for each one you get right. Check yourself against the facts below . . . facts straight from the War Food Administration.

No. 1: The Answer . . .

We are producing more food than ever before in history.

Despite shortcomings in manpower and machinery and weather handicaps—the American farmer is doing a miraculous job these days.

He broke the U.S. record in 1940 . . . beat that in '41 and beat that too in '42. For 1943 he's topping all records again!

No. 2: The Answer . . .

Despite record food production, we can't have all we want of what we want for the simple reason that THE DEMAND FOR OUR FOOD FAR EXCEEDS THE SUPPLY. That greatly increased demand has been created by (1) the needs of food for direct war purposes, (2) the tremendous boost in civilian purchasing power.

No. 3: The Answer . . .

We American civilians are getting the bulk of our total food production—actually 75% of it for the next twelve months! This is as much food as we had in prewar years. The remainder is divided this way: 13% to the Army and Navy . . . 10% to our fighting Allies (Lend-Lease, etc.) . . . 2% to our territories (Puerto Rico, the Hawaiian Islands, Alaska) and to friendly countries to maintain our normal trade relations.

No. 4: The Answer . . .

To be certain that the right food will always be available at the right time, our armed forces require at least a 90-day supply for men quartered in this country . . . a 9-month supply for each man overseas.

No. 5: The Answer . . .

Geographical position of the U.S. assures speedy transportation to battlefronts. Our space and soil enable us to provide what other nations can't.

It would be shortsighted and poor strategy not to send food to our Allies (the English and Russians). It is food they sorely need to give them an extra "fighting edge" . . . to help them knock more of the enemy out of the war. AND REMEMBER, every German or Jap out of the war means one less who'll have a chance to kill American soldiers.

No. 6: The Answer . . .

When our armies win a victory, there'll be less of some foods at home—not more. The people we free from the Axis yoke must be fed and helped to feed themselves so that they may become active Allies, fighting side by side with us.

No. 7: The Answer . . .

Rationing is necessary—to see to it that everyone gets an opportunity to obtain his fair share of some of our most popular foods, among them foods that are vital for proper health. Without rationing, it would always be a case of who gets to the store first!

No. 8: The Answer . . .

The ONLY way food prices can be kept down is this way—by your complete and conscientious coöperation.

Your Government has established top legal prices on food. The rest is up to you and every other American! Look for official prices posted in your store or Ration Board or published in this newspaper. Learn what these top legal prices are and never pay more!

No. 9: The Answer . . .

WE, THE AMERICAN CIVILIANS annually waste almost enough food to feed our armed forces at home and abroad! The armed forces are working to reduce food waste to an unprecedented low, through better meal planning and education. So can we at home.

No. 10: The Answer . . .

Your Government promises that under no circumstances will the food supply be divided in such a way that American civilians will be deprived of Basic Food Requirements.

YOU have a positive part in the wartime food program. You and the 130,000,000 others who are America. You can insure your share, your family's share and help increase the total supply. YOU can make food fight for freedom.

Here's How:

PRODUCE FOOD, where and when you can. Farmers are urged to meet farm goals. City families are urged to plan a bigger Victory Garden, to help out on a farm or in a food processing plant if possible.

CONSERVE FOOD. Can and preserve food. Cut waste. Stretch your food supply by substituting plentiful for scarce foods. Balance your meals for good nutrition.

SHARE FOOD. Put the war's food demands first. Share the supplies willingly with your armed forces, your Allies, your neighbors.

PLAY SQUARE WITH FOOD. Accept no rationed foods without giving up ration stamps. Pay no more than top legal prices under any circumstances.

THE ELSTERS CHAPTER XVII

WHEN they reached the Hall house a little after one on the following morning they found the lights blazing in the lower hall and kitchen. Emily said, startled: "I wondered if anything's happened?"

But, when she went in with Frank following, it was only Jim and Nancy. Nancy, in sea-green pajamas under a broadcloth coat, with bare feet thrust into mules, at the kitchen table drinking milk and eating crackers, and Jim sitting on the table.

"Home early," said Nancy, yawning, "have a good time?" "Gimme that milk," said Frank, seizing the pitcher, "and by all that's holy, do I see huckleberry pie?"

"Don't they feed you at the club these days?" asked Nancy idly. "Watered punch," said Frank, "and sloppy sandwiches. I didn't know I was hungry." He regarded Nancy reflectively. "You look delightful," he said with extreme courtesy, "I admire that al fresco getup."

"It's hot," she explained, carelessly. "I couldn't sleep. Jimmy was called out just before midnight. I heard the telephone. So when he came in I thought he might relish a little hospitality."

Jim was staring at Emily. He announced, solemnly: "I've never seen you dressed up before."

"She should make a habit of it," commented Nancy. "Looks elegant, doesn't she—Frank?"

Frank said, "I've been telling her so most of the evening, but she won't listen."

Emily smiled. She said, "I'm going to bed. . . . Thanks, Frank, for a very nice evening. Nancy, see that the lights are out and the house locked, will you?" She looked at Jim, hesitated and then asked, "Father all right?"

"Rarin' to go. He'll be back on the job Monday," said Jim, "and I'm delighted. But I hate to think how many cases he'll decide I've bungled."

Going up the stairs, her skirts gathered in her hand, Emily thought, "Well, she's welcome to them."

SUNDAY was a dull day. Emily had promised her mother to drive with her to the nearby town of Harmouth and call upon some relatives during the afternoon. Nancy flatly refused to go. Sunday night Doctor Hall insisted upon resuming office hours. And Monday was like any other Monday, a work day.

Emily spent some time Monday morning with a new patient, a Mrs. Elster. The Elsters' doctor had called in at headquarters and given his report. They were pitifully poor, he said, since Elster was out of work. There was a 13-year-old daughter. If the V. N. A. could send a nurse in to instruct the child a little in the care of her mother?

Mrs. Elster's illness was patent. Overwork—she had been going out to do housework by the day—and undernourishment. A tricky heart and a recent bout of flu. She was a frail, small woman, with a determined chin and tired eyes. But the child, a small wisp of a creature with huge eyes, was a competent little thing.

Thirteen. She looked eleven, she was so small. Her name was Mary. She had an astonishingly deep voice. She watched Emily bathe her mother, she watched her remake the bed.

"You understand about the medicine Doctor Manning left?" said Emily. "If your mother feels faint, if she calls you . . . you measure it out, just this many drops in the little glass."

Mary nodded. "What are you giving her to eat?" asked Emily.

The child took her into the small dark kitchen, there was very little in the cupboard. But there was some ice in the old refrigerator and a bottle of milk. There was oatmeal, in a box, crackers in a tin, a loaf of bread, and some tins of soup.

EMILY noted the lumps, made suggestions, asked, on impulse: "Has your father tried to find work at any of the mills?"

"Everywhere," said Mary. Her little head poised on a neck too thin shook solemnly from side to side. "There isn't any . . . for him," she added, pitifully.

"What can he do?" "He'd do anything," said Mary. She twisted her hands together, but kept her voice down even when the huge eyes spilled over and the small stricken sobs tore at the thin throat. "He used to be an accountant," she said, "and then he lost his job. In Lynn that was. He—he drank too much. He doesn't now. He promised me, after Mother was taken sick. He hasn't since."

Emily asked gently: "How did you find Doctor Manning?" "I—just ran out on the street . . . my father was looking for work, and we didn't know anyone. The lady next door was nice but she was away. I didn't know what to do and my mother was awfully sick. So I ran out and down the street and on the next block I saw his sign."

Emily nodded. "Manning was a good man, old, poor in means, rich in service. The neighborhood had been degenerating for years. But Manning had refused to move."

She gave the little girl some further instructions, promised to return the following day. After she had said goodby to Mrs. Elster she went downstairs and to the nearest grocery where she bought the simple necessary things and had them sent immediately to the Elsters. She thought; walking to the Manning house, such things shouldn't be permitted, a child that age—years older than she should be—with all that responsibility.

Banishing Of Malaria In United States Is Predicted By General

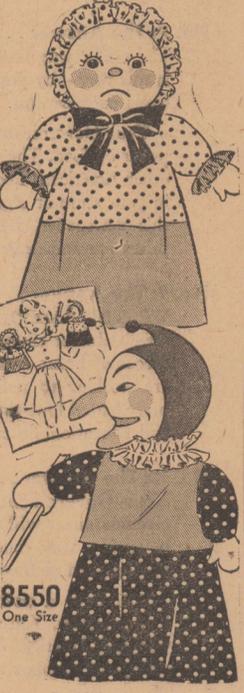

CINCINNATI—(AP)—The failure so far of foreign malaria to spread to the American civilian population even though several thousand malarious troops have been brought home for hospitalization offers evidence that war-born control measures eventually can banish the disease as a problem in the United States.

This is the prediction of Brig. Gen. James S. Simmons, chief of the Army's preventive medicine division, who said wartime programs instituted by the armed forces, the U. S. Public Health Service and other agencies could achieve that objective if coordinated into a single national program that would be carried out after the war.

The general said the programs now in effect ranged from establishing virtually mosquito-free "safety zones" around military posts and hospitals to the training of hundreds of civilian doctors to cope with malaria in case of releases among cured troops.

LONDON—(AP)—Reflecting the Allied anti-submarine successes, reduced cargo insurance rates were announced Friday by the government war risks office effective Nov. 22.

Picks Right Hole

WITH U. S. FORCES ON BOUGAINVILLE, SOLOMONS—(AP)—An Army specialist whose name and work are unmentionable because his job is an Army secret, played a lucky hunch on the Bougainville beachhead.

He had two foxholes, one well sandbagged and clean. The other was just a hole in the ground.

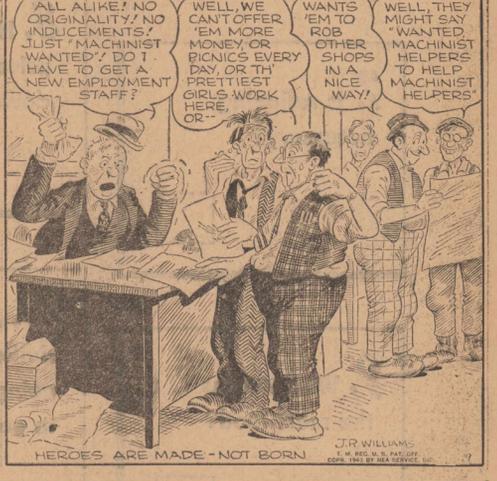

When bombs whined down Monday, he leaped into the hole in the ground. A bomb landed directly on the fancy foxhole. The specialist was covered with sand, but uninjured.

was covered with sand, but uninjured.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

At the annual Metropolitan tournament held in New York recently, a new event was introduced, "Mr. and Mrs." event open only to married couples. It was inaugurated at the suggestion of A. M. Sobel, the league's national tournament director, and Mr. and Mrs. Sobel put up the trophy. Forty pairs entered the contest, and there wasn't nearly as much argument as one would imagine. While Mrs. Lewis M. Jaeger of New York, who won the event with her husband, accused him of being too optimistic in his bidding, that did not stop her from playing the hand shown today exceptionally well and making her contract.

Since Mrs. Jaeger (North) had bid hearts, East could not be blamed for not opening that suit; that is why he chose a spade opening. Dummy's nine forced West's jack and Mrs. Jaeger won with the king. She immediately led the four of diamonds and went up with the ace, then ruffed the eight of diamonds with a low spade. A spade was led to dummy's ten, and the ten diamonds forced West's king. Mrs. Jaeger ruffed and then spread the hand. She could now discard two of the hearts on the good clubs and the other two on the two good diamonds.

 A stranger, who came along volunteered to haul the carcass to Streich's car and push the machine to the nearest town.
 All went well until they reached a long, long hill. The stranger gave Streich's car a good vigorous shove. It coasted fast and far.
 At the bottom of the hill Streich waited a long time for the obliging stranger—and Streich's fat deer—to show up. He's never seen neither of them since.

Cap Visor Idea Is Adapted To Houses

CHICAGO—(AP)—The visor of a man's cap has been adapted as the principle for a new architectural trend.
 In order to utilize raps of the sun as an auxiliary heating unit, and thereby reduce fuel bills, an architect here has designed "solar houses" with flat, extended eaves which permit the low-hanging winter sun to penetrate deep into the living rooms in winter, but block out the glaring rays of the sun in summer.

Bulldogs Meet Lamesa Friday

The curtain was to be lowered on 1943 home games for the Midland High School Bulldogs after the battle Friday afternoon with the Lamesa Golden Tornadoes on Lackey Field. Game time was set for 2:30 p. m.

The Friday tilt also marks the final appearance here for several of the Bulldog gridgers. Among these are Ivan Hall, four-year letterman; Jack Taylor, two-year letterman; Joe Stickney, two-year letterman; Copper Daugherty, James Moore, L. C. Neatherlin and John Spurge.

Next Thursday the Bulldogs journey to Odessa for the annual Thanksgiving clash with the Bronchos at 2:30 p. m., winding up the grid season.

Coach Gene McCollum said Friday all members of the Bulldog lineup were in good shape and ready for the Lamesa fracas. The boys expressed themselves as prepared to turn out a good brand of football in their final appearance here.

A good crowd was expected to attend the melee.

Scattered Games Played Thursday

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Scattering skirmishes, none meaning anything in district conference standings, opened the week of play in Texas schoolboy football Thursday night.

Masonic Home defeated Amon Carter-Riverside 32-0 in the Fort Worth district and Champion Jeff Davis of the Houston district beat Sam Houston 37-0.

Graham crushed Burk Burnett 47-0 in District 2.

Sweetwater plays at San Angelo Friday night in the week's feature game. This contest not only matches undefeated, untied teams but will determine the leadership of District 2.

Waco meets Bryan at Bryan for the District 10 championship in another important game on Friday night's schedule.

The character "&" the abbreviation for "and," is called an ampersand.

Wink's Turbulent Wildcats Remain Undefeated In Class A Ball Again

WINK —(AP)— It's the same old story in West Texas Class A high school football circles.
Wink's Wildcats are on the prowl. For more than a decade—during which they have won 125 games, lost 12 and tied 5 and averaged more than a half-point per minute—the Wildcats have been monarchs

Lamesa Juniors Hold Midland To 13-13 Deadlock

A long pass from Rhodes to Morris gave the Lamesa Junior Tornadoes a fourth period touchdown and a 13-13 tie with the Midland Bulldogs in a junior game at Lamesa Thursday afternoon after the Midland team had led the way throughout the game. The two junior teams played to scoreless tie last Friday in Midland.

Fumbles spelled the margin of difference between the two squads, with the Bulldogs being set back three or four times when they butter-fingered the ball after long sustained drives. The Midland juniors played their best game of the season, however.

Yeager set up the first score of the contest in the second period when he raced around end for a 50-yard run, only to be dropped on the five-yard stripe. He then passed to Bobby Drake for the tally.

Late in the same period the Lamesans tallied when Rhodes shot a 40-yard pass to Morris.

The Bulldogs' second tally came in the third period when Woody pulled a Lamesa pass out of the air and ran it back 40 yards for the score. Yeager passed to Benny Bird for the extra point.

First downs were 13 and 7 for the Bulldogs.

The Midland team Friday turned in their uniforms, the Lamesa game marking the last contest of the season.

New Mexico To Pick Sun Bowl Opponents

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. —(AP)— With half a dozen teams under consideration and "feelers" having been extended to all six, University of New Mexico athletic council members Friday were to decide on an opponent for the NMU Lobos in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas, New Year's.

George (Blanco) White, director of athletics at the university, said these teams had received favorable consideration:

The College of the Pacific, Colorado College, Tulsa University, Southwestern Louisiana Institute, Southwestern of Texas and Randolph Field, Texas.

Yankee Manager Is Looking For Players
NEW YORK —(AP)— The New York Yankees aren't going to stand pat on their world championship club of 1943. Manager Joe McCarthy is on the hunt for an outfielder and catcher just in case. That means that rookies Russ Derry, Don Savage, Al Lyons and Bill Drescher will get a good going over in spring training at Atlantic City.

Hoople Selects Leahy As Champ Underestimator

By MAJ. AMOS B. HOOPLE
The Perfect Prognosticator
Egad! Here we are practically at the end of another season in which modestly forbids my mentioning the name of the man who scored the highest number of correct predictions. How!

- Notre Dame 13, Seahawks 7
- Army 27, Brown 6
- Colgate 20, Columbia 6
- Penn State 33, Pittsburgh 13
- Duke 12, N. Carolina 0
- Tulane 20 La. State 12
- TCU 26, Rice 14
- Northwestern 14, Illinois 13
- Purdue 12, Indiana 7
- Great Lakes 13, Marquette 7
- Michigan 12, Ohio St. 0
- Minnesota 20, Wisconsin 7
- UCLA 14, St. Mary's 6

We haven't received any (to date). My principal all-star man is Coach Leahy of Notre Dame. He is what I would call the All-America Underestimator.

My congratulations go to Notre Dame for playing such excellent football, and I also felicitate the University of Chicago—and Columbia—for not playing at all.

In passing around All-America mention, my highest words of praise go to our flyers of the Eighth Air Force, who have been scoring their goals over Germany.

For most yards gained from scrimmage, I nominate as All-America our Marines in the South Pacific.

One of the outstanding coaches of the year, of course, is Admiral Halsey. For quarter-backing honors, give me General Eisenhower.

Note my perfect forecast for this week—har-rump!

Blaze Taken To Firemen

DENVER —(AP)— Firemen couldn't reach this fire so they had the fire brought to them.

A caboose on a 90 car freight train caught fire as it was leaving the rail yards.

The fire department telephone operator realized the firemen couldn't reach the freight train promptly, because of intervening tracks, so he instructed the train crew to uncouple the caboose and shove it four blocks down a siding to a hydrant.

Within a matter of minutes a hose truck was at the hydrant, waiting for the fire to arrive.

Farmer Bags Three Birds With One Shot

RAVENNA, NEB. —(AP)— Farmer George Yanda, flushed a flock of pheasants at the edge of an alfalfa field. He fired on a double and was amazed to find three dead roosters.

"I never saw that third bird," he said. "Must have flown between the two birds I had the head on when I went for the double."

Sports Roundup

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK —(AP)— Drum Beater Harry Markson is beginning to wonder if the 135-pound boxing division wasn't misnamed "lightweight" when it should have been "welterweight."

Because, he says, "The lightweight title always is in a welter of confusion."

That leads right up to the fact that Bobcat Bob Montgomery and Beau Jack will fight for the New York Pennsylvania version of the title Friday night and ten days later Sammy Angott, who regained the Slugger White, will appear merely as a "leading contender."

The lightweight and bantamweight titles are the only ones that haven't been "frozen" for the duration, which explains the concentration of chaos. . . . Adding a few more items on the same subject, besides two world champions and one ex-champion, the next two Garden cards will present the lightweight champions of Louisiana (Ruffin) and of Texas (Mike Della) who fights in a prelim Friday night.

One-Minute Sports Page
Young Johnny Lufack really is filling Angelo Bertelli's shoes at Notre Dame. When he needed a new pair of gridiron brogans recently, the equipment manager brought out a pair of 10 1/2's that Bertelli had ordered but never had used.

Horned Frogs Start Basketball Practice

FORT WORTH —(AP)— With 20 men on the squad, including seven with previous college experience, Coach Tub McQuillan had his Texas Christian University Horned Frogs in the midst of basketball training.

There is only one T.C.U. letterman from last season—Zeke Chronister—but there are four from the V-12 trainees group who have carried varying letters at other schools. These are: Neal McFarland, Southern Methodist; Bruce Johnson, East Texas State; Jack Vaughn, Texas Tech; and Joe Wick, Butler University.

Gene Hicks from Abilene Christian College and Stuart Allen of Oklahoma A. and M. were squaddies last year.

Montgomery Battles Jack Friday Night

NEW YORK —(AP)— Bobcat Bob Montgomery tosses his world lightweight championship into the pot in Madison Square Garden Friday night, and not even the long-shot players—who will be against death and taxes, at a price—think there's a chance Beau Jack can take the bauble away from him.

The charitable 49th Street wagering wags, who often will give you the right time—if you lend them your watch—have installed Bobcat Bob at 1 to 3 on the slates to hang on to his crown in this 15 rounder against the challenge of the one-time Georgia shoe-shine boy from whom he took it last May. Yet, the Jacobs seasoners—to a man—think the Philadelphia flatter is a shoe-in this time.

Robertson Grabs Rabbit's Foot To Pick Grid Teams

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK —(AP)— With the hopes that Lady Luck continues to enjoy our company for the last big Saturday of the 1943 football season we give you:

Iowa Pre-Flight-Notre Dame—Until three days ago we were tempted to pick the Seahawks to win this battle of unbeaten gridiron forces. But now that Maznicki is injured and three other regulars have been transferred, we give you the Irish and their ninth successive triumph.

Ohio State-Michigan—It's Michigan in a romp.
Missouri-Over Kansas
North Carolina-Duke—The Tarheels surprised by whipping one of the North's best, Penn, last week but that doesn't mean they're going to square matters for the season with the Blue Devils. Duke in a close shave.

Purdue-Indiana—The old oaken bucket and at least a share in the Big Ten title goes to unbeaten Purdue.

Louisiana State-Tulane—Tulane hasn't got what it takes to stop Steve Van Buren. LSU.

Missouri-Kansas—Missouri.
Wisconsin-Minnesota—The Gophers in a battle of Western Conference also rans.

Colorado College-Colorado—The unofficial Rocky Mountain championships goes with this one and it'll be Colorado College.

Dartmouth-Princeton—Dartmouth.
Picks Cadets To Win
Brown-Army—If Doc Savage is right look for a free-scoring battle with the Cadets on the long end.

Colgate-Columbia—The Lions haven't won a game this season. Colgate.

Clemson-Georgia Tech—Eddie Prokop and the Engineers by themselves—Georgia Tech.

Harvard-Boston College—A couple of "informals" with Doherty of BC the difference. Boston College.

Marquette-Grant Lakes—A good workout for the Sailors before meeting Notre Dame next week. Grant Lakes.

Still holding the rabbit's foot tightly: Iowa over Nebraska; Iowa State over Kansas State; Arkansas over Okla. A. and M.; Penn State over Pittsburgh; Pacific over San Francisco; Rutgers over Lafayette, Rice over Texas Christian; UCLA over St. Mary's; Villanova over Temple; Texas Tech over Southern Methodist.

Chicago May Be Convention City For Both Parties

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Not that they are necessarily superstitious, but both Republicans and Democrats might have good reason to favor Chicago for their presidential convention city next year.

A better reason, that is, than the transportation squeeze.

Past performances show that candidates selected in the Illinois city have won the election in two out of every three contests.

Both parties will meet in January to pick convention sites.

Because of its central location and for the added reason that political dividends usually accrue from choices made in the heart of the farm belt, the Republicans have held 11 of their 22 national conventions since 1856 in the windy city on Lake Michigan.

Of these 11 candidates, seven have been elected: Lincoln, Grant, Garfield, Harrison, Theodore Roosevelt, Taft, and Harding.

Six other Republican conventions have met in the Midwest—at Minneapolis, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Kansas City, and twice at Cleveland, making 17 midwest conventions out of 22 since the party was born.

Out of these six came four other presidential winners—Hayes in 1876 after a four-state ballot dispute threw the election into Congress; McKinley in 1896, Coolidge in 1924; and Hoover in 1928.

Texas Technological College is experimenting with the use of mechanical cotton pickers in the plains country.

British Consul Has Excellent Memory

DENVER —(AP)— Roger Stevens, British consul in Denver, has a long memory.

"Haven't I met you before?" he inquired, when he was introduced to Louis Ackerman, an engineer.

Ackerman admitted that Stevens' face "seems familiar."

Stevens reflected for a moment then said: "You were in Antwerp in 1939 and I wrote you a visa to Britain, did I not?"

"That is true," exclaimed Ackerman.

Lesson In Safety — In Silent Fashion
ROANOKE, VA.—(AP)— A police officer, observing a pedestrian jay-walking, handed the man a safety pamphlet. The officer then hastened across the street without conforming to safety rules to warn a motorist who was parking. A moment later he looked up to find the pedestrian standing before him. Without comment, the man handed back the safety pamphlet.

How many miles older is your car this week?

"Every mile you drive makes it more important than ever to Care for your Car for your Country"

IF TIRE AND GASOLINE RATIONING were removed tomorrow, no victory-minded American would permit himself one single mile of unnecessary automobile driving!

Let the truth of this fact sink in. Even if gasoline and tires were plentiful, cars are not. There will be no new cars for the duration. And every mile you drive, today and tomorrow and the day after, is an irreplaceable withdrawal from the Nation's bank of total transportation miles.

That is why your Uncle Sam is talking like a Dutch uncle when he tells you to care for your car for your country. You must protect and even pamper your car to coax every last bit of mileage from its aging engine and chassis.

Phillips 66 Service Wardens are pledged to do their utmost to perform all services which will improve the efficiency of your car and lengthen its life. Remember, the car which is driven this winter with tires unchecked . . . with battery un-inspected . . . with friction points unlubricated . . . may literally be running at the expense of the Nation's war effort.

The Phillips 66 Service Warden is waiting at every Phillips 66 Service Station, ready and anxious to do his part to help you "Guard America's Mileage." Drive in soon for complete Service-Warden Service at the Orange and Black 66 Shield . . . sign of famous Phillips 66 Gasoline and Phillips 66 Motor Oil.
