Global Jitters And The UNRRA

Any fears as to the motives of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration should be quieted by the admirable address which Herbert H. Lehman made when he assumed the directorship of that organization.

Lehman stated that he would act "as a representative of all the member governments, neither seeking nor accepting instructions from any individual government."

He also re-emphasized certain conclusions and conditions that should be obvious to all of us, but apparently have not been: that no one nation or any small group of nations has the resources to meet the problems confronting UNRRA...

These are only some of the practical aspects of UNRRA policy, uttered by a man whose public life testifies to his truthfulness and sincerity.

The purpose stated by Lehman are of a sort which should be able to rally the support of a wide variety of political philosophies in this country.

Overseas Oakies

New York's Mayor La Guardia has proposed a new immigration policy for the coming days of peace. He thinks that, if we continue our "splendid course" of education, we shall soon give our citizens so much book learning that there will be practically no unskilled labor or farm labor left in the country.

As for importing unskilled workers, it seems like transplanting the potential headache of migratory labor without curing it. We hope that in the future the Okies of John Steinbeck's "Grapes of Wrath" will not reappear.

Censorship

Our dispensers of information in Washington might ponder with profit the wise observation made by Paul Bellamy, editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, in a recent address.

Said Bellamy: "My quarrel with much of the censorship idea entertained by both the Army and Navy, and to a certain extent by other departments of the government, is that many of these officials do not seem to realize that the American people are an adult race..."

No Cause For Complaint

The people who make auto trailers are complaining that their industry is "still without a home in any government agency." The boys shouldn't fret. Maybe rationing has curbed the nomadic instinct of the trailer people, but Washington is no place to settle down.

Alfred P. Sloan predicts America will produce 6,000,000 autos a year after the war. And we predict the greatest traffic jam in history.

Think what you will, but have will enough to keep some of your thoughts to yourself.

Thomason Seeks Feed For Stock In West Texas

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Representative Ewing Thomason of El Paso has urged the War Food Administration to give livestock growers, particularly in drought-stricken sections of West Texas, assurances that they will receive sufficient protein feeds throughout the winter months.

Such assurance is absolutely necessary, the congressman said, to curb black market buying of cotton seed and cotton seed meal and cake by ranchers who are afraid that they might be caught short on feed for their livestock.

The need for a positive statement on the feed situation was described by Thomason in a letter he received from Howard Gholson, Office of Price Administration official in Lubbock.

"References are that soy beans would be sent into West Texas to supplement our protein feeds," he said, "but we have never been able to get anything of a definite nature, and there is a widespread belief that there is an acute shortage. The ranchers have become frightened and are using every means possible to acquire cotton seed cake and meal."

"The livestock men are so desperate that they are willing to pay high prices and we have been unable to get their cooperation as to the black market phase of it, because they are afraid they will not get any more meal or cake."

Thomason's conference with War Food Administration officials, and those of the Commodity Credit Corporation who directly handle the protein feed allocations, was the latest of a series of efforts made by West Texas congressmen to get relief to livestock growers in their districts, which were particularly hard hit by drought.

The CCC has given some relief through shipment of soy beans from the Midwest for crushing in converted cotton seed oil mills throughout Texas.

Strenuous Struggle To Continue Life Of FSA To Start Monday

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Another strenuous struggle to provide funds for the Farm Security Administration will get under way Monday under the leadership of Senator Russell (D-Ga.).

"I think the subcommittee and the full committee will support the appropriation," Russell said Saturday. "Certainly in the midst of war with the vital need for food, the little farmer is entitled to rehabilitation loans to enable him to produce crops."

If the committee should add the FSA money to a pending deficiency appropriations bill the item will head into a fight not only in the House, which denied it any money, but on the Senate floor itself where Senator Byrd (D-Wa.) and others have demanded FSA's liquidation.

There is ample reason for Thanksgiving in the heart of every one of us. Actually, there'll be more Thanksgiving in our hearts, knowing that our small "doing without" makes it possible for our men at war around the world to at least be warmed by the home-y spirit of Thanksgiving: the important thing is that each of them has a heaping portion of turkey!

Thanksgiving is as American as the spirit of freedom we now are engaged in keeping alive at any cost. And the observance of this Thanksgiving is for each of us a rededication to the most Liberty-insuring precepts by which we live.

The announcement of the selection was made by the Orange Bowl committee to come at the end of Louisiana's traditional game Saturday with Tulane, which the Tigers lost, 27-0.

The list was believed to include Penn State, Franklin and Marshall, Wake Forest, Holy Cross, Tulane and Arkansas.

Pirates Defeat Arkansas Aggies

SHREVEPORT, La. — (AP) — The Southwestern Pirates of Georgetown, Texas, moved a step closer to a bowl game bid here Saturday when they defeated Monticello, Ark. A&M Bollweevils, 7 to 0 before a crowd of about 5,000.

The contest featured two strong defensive clubs with the Pirates having a slight advantage due to the brilliant punting of Bill Hearne, wingman, former Texas Christian University player, whose long boots kept the Bollweevils well back in their own territory.

The Pirates won the ball game in the first two minutes of play, after recovering a Monticello fumble on the second running play of the game.

Jim Mitchell, fullback, formerly of Oklahoma University, drove 33 yards off right tackle and fell on the one-yard line. On the next play he hit center for a touchdown. "Spot" Collins, former Texas University back, who was brilliant throughout, kicked the extra point.

Cadets Trounce Brown By 59-0

WEST POINT, N. Y. — (AP) — It is an OPA regulation that no red ration points are required for Bear steak — so Army's footballers had their biggest banquet in 24 years Saturday.

Apparently operating on the theory of feasting while the feasting is good, the well-drilled Cadets warmed up for next week's Navy brawl by eating their fill of the battered Brown Bruin for a 59 to 0 triumph—the biggest score any Army team has rolled up since the 1919 outfit tossed out Villanova 62-0. Army Coach Earl Blaik had his bench cleaned off at the finish, and even the fourth stringers, almost every one but the water-boy, scored.

Trip Into Mexico Results In New Career For Texan

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN—(P)—A casual trip as a tourist to Mexico in 1939 led to a new career in diplomacy for Mrs. Pauline Kibbe of Austin.

Today she is the executive secretary of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission. Her job is to put into effect the policies set up by the committee of Texans named by Gov. Coke Stevenson to make the good neighbor principle a reality. In this unique assignment, she inherits all the headaches that naturally funnel in her desk, but at the same time, finds vast personal satisfaction in doing all in her power to remedy these ailments by rubbing out their basic causes. Mrs. Kibbe, who just a few years ago was a public stenographer in San Antonio, came to the Good Neighbor Commission recommended as a person who had the necessary tact, good nature, understanding of both Latin Americans and Anglo Americans, and horse-sense to handle the task.

Greatly Impressed
"I went to Mexico City as a tourist in 1939, and returned greatly impressed with the fine characteristics of the people, the beauty and resources of the country, and with an idea that there was no real reason for misunderstanding between Mexicans and citizens of the United States," Mrs. Kibbe said.

A commercial venture as a shoppers' agent further convinced her of the tremendous possibilities of a more cordial relationship between the peoples. She found that Texans really wanted to know the Mexican people and Mexico. She shared this feeling and Mexico became first a hobby, a business, then a career. She became a field assistant to the Inter-American Committee of the University of Texas after serving as chairman of the international relations committee of the San Antonio Business and Professional Women's Club. As a member of the Pan American Round-Table, she was active in promoting civic affairs related to Pan-Americanism.

Coin Lost Sixty Years Recovered For Owner

MOUNT VERNON, WASH.—(P)—Franklin Good, 77, has recovered a 50-cent piece he lost in 1883. The coin, which Good earned by shooting ducks with a single-barreled muzzle-loading shot-gun, fell out of his pocket and rolled into a mortise of a home he was helping his father to build.

Recently he heard a new owner planned to raze the building and told him of the lost coin. It was found within a few inches of the spot where Good remembered dropping it 60 years ago.

Madame Curie was the first woman appointed to the French cabinet.

Midland Jaycees Cooperate In Drive To Collect Old Clothing And Rags

Cooperating in a nation-wide campaign to collect discarded clothing and rags for war and relief needs, a two-week drive for old clothes will start here Monday, Clint Dunagan, chairman of the Midland County salvage committee, announced.

The drive will be sponsored by the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce. A committee composed of Dunagan, R. J. Graham, Elmer Adams, H. K. McKinnon and H. W. Anderson has been appointed by Russell Howard, Jaycee president, to direct the campaign.

A collection depot will be opened early this week. Clothing and rags, the sponsors said, are urgently needed both for domestic and foreign use and for war purposes. Garments are needed to help clothe and rehabilitate peoples in liberated countries abroad and for relief purposes in the United States. Rags are critically needed for wiping cloths and other essential needs.

To Supply Local Needs
The sponsoring organization may deduct up to 10 per cent from the total collections to be used for domestic relief purposes in Midland. Dunagan said sufficient garments will be retained to meet local needs. The remainder will be allocated by the Textile Requirements Committee of the War Production Board for the most essential domestic and foreign needs in the war program.

Only discarded clothing is wanted in the campaign. Any clothing which the owner knows will be used now or in the immediate future should not be salvaged.

Clothing is needed for men, women, girls, boys and infants. Any unwearable clothing that can be reduced to rags also is desired.

Donors are requested to see that woollen garments are brushed and that cotton garments and rags are clean. Mending is not required. Dry cleaners of Midland will cooperate with the committee in cleaning the clothes in accordance with given recommendations.

Record Landslide

One of the largest landslides in history wiped out a part of the town of Frank, Alberta, Canada, in 1902. Ninety million tons of rock gave way and rushed down on the sleeping population at terrific speed. A crew of miners, working in a shaft on the slopes, dug their way out after the slide had passed over.

INTERPRETING THE WAR NEWS — Observers Expecting Drastic Changes In War Situation Despite Reverses

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst
Despite minor reverses in the Aegean and difficult Anglo-British advances up the Italian boot, key plays are about to be made on the global war chess board.

Some of the forthcoming moves are self-revealing, others still closely guarded. United Nations military secrets. Taken together, they give observers the strong impression that within days or a few weeks at most the war scene in the Pacific as well as in Europe will undergo a drastic change.

Main Action In Russia
Despite a minor Soviet setback in the Zhitomir rail center, the main action in the battle to smash the reeling Axis continued to be the Russian front.

chairman, and Mrs. Joe Haygood, acting secretary, directed the meeting.

Mrs. S. S. Stinson led the discussion of magazine purchases for the post hospital and it was voted to join the Book-of-the-Month Club for the hospital reading room.

Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Bridgewater gave a report on mending done for the hospital. Rules and regulations from the Red Cross manual for the hospital and recreation corps were read. Plans were made to assist in Christmas decorations for the hospital wards and the recreation room.

British victories in Egypt and Italian Africa and Anglo-American-French triumphs in North Africa, Sicily and on the Italian mainland help greatly. But it still is in Russia that the seeds of complete military disaster for Nazi Germany are ripening to unpredictable fruition. Nor is it to be doubted that the advance of the Russian steam-roller is about to be intimately coordinated for the first time with Allied second-front attacks in progress by air or in preparation by land and sea. Word of new Allied-Russian interchanges that, end may be expected at any moment—may swift joint action to follow them up.

Fresh mass Allied bombing raids over Germany stirred speculation in London that the on-set of the final, deadly winter air attack to shatter Nazi war industry, undermine German war morale and pave the way for an Allied invasion from the west, has begun.

Pacific Area Teems
There are intimations from Italy, meantime, that German armies on all fronts are going into winter action badly crippled by motor transport shortages and, with depleted divisions.

In the Pacific where the bulk of American sea power is massing without prejudice to the campaigns in Europe, there is every indication of impending major aggressive action against Japan. Tokyo must be

Arms Production Scores Big Gain During October

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Arms production in October scored its biggest gain since April, Donald M. Nelson reported Saturday, with aircraft output reaching a record-smashing total of 8,262 planes. Measured by dollar value, October production advanced five per cent over September.

"Manpower, occasional shortages of material, and design changes gave less trouble than in recent months," the War Production Board chairman said in his 16th monthly report.

'Know How' Is Reason

"Better management, better effort by labor, better trained workers—in a word, 'know how'—can be seen clearly in last month's performance."

While overall production showed substantial gains, there was only a one per cent rise in gun output, which is a stable program, and there was a decline in combat and motor vehicles which Nelson said is "according to plan."

The expanding programs—those getting the most pressure for reasons of military strategy—showed these production tallies:

Aircraft, up 10 per cent in number, 9 per cent in weight and 10 per cent in value.

Munitions Output Gains

Ships up five per cent (in terms of construction put in place).

Ammunition, up 11 per cent.

Communication equipment, including radar, up 9 per cent.

The WPB munitions index gained 23 points over September, the best showing since April's 30 points over March. The index, which takes arms production in the pre-Pearl Harbor month of November, 1941, as 100, now stands at 648. In other words, armament output is nearly 6 1/2 times as great as when the country went to war.

The index revealed that September production was better than was reported a month ago. Whereas the last report showed only a 1-point gain in September over August, figures revised on the basis of later reports showed a 9-point climb.

Public Health Notes

J. A. OLEAN, M.D., Director
Midland-Ector-Howard
County Health Unit

Reported cases of communicable disease in this area for the two weeks ending November 13: influenza, 34 cases; dysentery, 17 cases; chickenpox, two cases; measles, one case.

Influenza is still three times as prevalent at this time as it has been for the past five years. Pneumonia, a complication of the "flu," is also being reported in large numbers throughout the state. A severe respiratory infection with cough, pains and fever calls for rest at home. This protects the patient as well as others in school or at business. All respiratory ailments are contagious.

Dysentery is usually contracted through eating contaminated food or through using dirty eating utensils. Dirty hands, and flies, roaches, improperly washed and sterilized utensils, food handled too much or kept too long are all factors in the spread of this severe intestinal ailment. Worse still is the fact that where dysentery occurs, typhoid and infantile paralysis germs may also be present. Public eating places bear a great responsibility in seeing that patrons are protected against intestinal diseases contracted through contaminated food, dirty hands, and flies and roaches.

Chickenpox is highly contagious among young children. Occasionally a mild case of smallpox may be mistaken for chickenpox, especially in adults. Epidemics of smallpox have often started in this way. Only vaccination in infancy, before grade school and before high school, and the fever calls for rest at home. This protects the patient as well as others in school or at business. All respiratory ailments are contagious.

Measles is also a highly contagious disease among young children. The danger of pneumonia as a complication is great in children under three years of age. Inflamed eyes, runny nose, cough and fever are first signs of measles. Children with such signs of illness should be kept at home and away from other children.

Contagious Disease

A child with fever, sore throat, severe cough, vomiting or diarrhea is usually a sick child. He may be coming down with a contagious disease. Being sick, he cannot accomplish much in school except to spread his illness. Mothers should keep such children at home. Mothers first and teachers second are in a position to recognize a sick child. The mother can keep them at home; the teacher can only send them home after they have exposed numerous classmates to a contagious disease. Sensible precautions help the sick child and protect the others.

Police Saturday were asked to search for Dorothy Nell Miles, 11 year old Hobbs, N. M., girl who disappeared from her home a week ago. She has red hair.

Administration Confronted With New Challenges

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The administration's price control machinery collided with another challenge Saturday—a threat to remove coal and oil from OPA jurisdiction—as President Roosevelt's stalwarts waged an apparently losing battle to save the consumer subsidy program.

With the subsidy showdown due Monday in the House, a bloc of lawmakers from coal and oil producing states announced that 209 signatures—just nine short of the required 218—had been collected on a petition to force action on their proposal.

Difficult Situation

The move—another in a series of rapid fire developments on the nation's economic front—left the administration confronting this situation as it strove desperately to preserve the program it has chosen for holding the line against inflation.

1. Likelihood that the House will approve legislation containing a prohibition against subsidy payments—a device which the administration intends to use to keep down retail food prices.

2. Refusal of the House ways and means committee to approve more than one-fifth of the $10,500,000,000 in new taxes which the Treasury said is necessary to help curb inflation.

3. A new drive for creation of a single food administrator, with control over prices as well as production, which would leave the OPA an empty, executive shell.

4. Mounting demands on Capitol Hill for the scrutiny of executive appropriations, including war expenditures.

5. Demands of coal operators for increased prices.

Meanwhile, pleas for the preservation of the subsidy program by Secretary of the Navy Knox and War Production Chief Donald Nelson were made public by Representative Patman (D-Tex.).

Knox wrote that elimination of subsidies would result in an increase in the cost of living and thus nullify the recently approved boost in allotments for dependents of servicemen.

Committee Says Public Can Take No More Taxes

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The powerful House ways and means committee, in bi-partisan chorus, declared Saturday the public can stand no more taxes and told the administration to cut down spending if it wants to block inflation.

The committee said its second war-time revenue measure, calling for $2,140,000,000 in new taxes—is all that "can reasonably be borne by the taxpayers at this time." The total was only a splash in the bucket to the $10,500,000,000 the administration asked to fight the war and inflation.

Although firm in its opposition to further taxes, the full committee report hardly went as far as a separate statement by Republicans on the committee who told the administration it must stop its tax demands.

Evidence Cited

The Republicans pointed to the recent action on the War Department in turning back to the Treasury $13,000,000—more than the government asked in new taxes—as "abundant evidence of the fact that the government cannot spend the amount previously estimated."

The new tax bill, bearing small resemblance to the revenue producing measures Treasury Secretary Morgenthau placed before the committee two months ago, will come into the House for consideration next week. It makes only slight changes in present individual income taxes, absorbs the victory tax into surtax levies and draws most of its revenues from higher taxes on luxuries and excess profits of corporations.
