Friday Is Wear Red Day

Friday is WEAR RED Day, and everyone is urged to wear as much red as possible. This will be in support of Red Ribbon Week which is a part of the war on drugs, and which is being observed all over Texas this week.

Red Ribbons bearing hearts and the words "Hugs—Not Drugs!" and "Join Me—I'm Drug Free" have been distributed and citizens and students are urged to wear their ribbon every day this week. The ribbons were furnished by the Silverton School and PTA, and the ribbons are available at school and most places of business around town.

A special activity for students in kindergarten through fifth grade has been a banner contest and decoration of classrooms. Students were invited to make mobiles, posters, door decorations, etc.

Judging of the banners was done Monday, and the banners will be on display in the gym during Friday afternoon's Pep Rally, which begins at 3:00 p.m.

There will be Coke parties for the winners of the K-2 and 3-5 divisions of the contest.

Each student who wears his or her red ribbon every day this week will receive a Drug-Free Pencil.

Sixth graders have designed anti-drug posters, and a gift will be awarded to the winner of this contest. Award winners will be announced at the Pep Rally, when it is hoped that everyone in attendance will be dressed in red—in support of the Red Ribbon Week campaign and the Silverton Owls as they enter another district football game, this week with Amherst.

The Red Ribbon Campaign is being sponsored in Silverton by the school, Silverton PTA, Briscoe County Drug Task Force and Briscoe County Law Enforcement Officers.

Jack-O-Lantern Contest Planned Here Sat. Night

L. O. A. Junior Study Club will be sponsoring a jack-o-lantern contest Saturday night at the Halloween Carnival, which kicks off at 7:00 at the Briscoe County Show Barn in Silverton.

There will be two divisions: one for those up to sixth grade, and another for seventh grade through adult. A $50 savings bond will be awarded to each winner.

Royalty to be Crowned At Fall Festival

Halloween Carnival Is Saturday Night

The Progressive Homemaker Halloween Carnival plans are moving right along.

There are lots of booths already reserved, but there is always room for more. If any individual or organization would like to sign up to earn a little money, call with your idea soon. Norma Garcia is keeping the list of booths, and her phone number is 823-2575.

Space is $5.00 per booth and needs to be paid to Norma or Colleen Reed.

A list of booths as of Tuesday were cake walk, pie walk, bingo, helium balloons, face painting, treasure hunt, fishing booth, pumpkin pond, ball toss, 4-H spook house, coin toss, costume contest (for all ages) and the always-popular Mexican food booth.

The carnival will begin at 7:00 p.m. Saturday, October 27, in the Briscoe County Showbarn immediately following the Fall Festival at school. Make plans now to come join the fun.

It's Time Again To Fall Back

Daylight saving time ends Sunday at 2:00 a.m.

In the fall of the year, clocks are turned back one hour to move an hour of daylight to the end of the business day, which seems to be an advantage for city folks, but doesn't affect country folks very much.

If you want to arrive at church at the proper time Sunday morning, it would be wise for you to turn back your clocks one hour before retiring Saturday night.

Activities Association Meets Here Tonight

Don't forget the Briscoe County Activities Association meeting tonight (Thursday) at the show barn.

Note that the time of the meeting has

Each class has nominated candidates for Fall Festival King and Queen or Prince and Princess, and these will be presented in a formal coronation ceremony at 6:30 p.m. Saturday in the school auditorium.

The event is sponsored by the Silverton chapter of Future Homemakers of America. Those attending the coronation will cast their votes for the King and Queen, Prince and Princess, and those crowned will be the ones who capture the most votes.

Chosen from the kindergarten to serve as crown and scepter bearers were Samantha Francis and John Arnold, Tarran Forbes and Monty Wood.

The candidates for Prince and Princess are Andrew Francis and Amanda Estes, first grade; Clint Ivory and Julie Weaver, second grade; Charlie Bomar and Kylie Wade, third grade; David Gamble and Lindsey Jennings, fourth grade; Jared Francis and Shauna Kingery, fifth grade.

Candidates for King and Queen are Zac Baldwin and Carrie Baird, sixth grade; Zeb Holt and Kristi Smith, seventh grade; Jess Brannon and Brandi Brunson, eighth grade; Lance Holt and Maria Justice, ninth grade; Lance Bradford and Melissa Woods, tenth grade; Josh Brooks and Monica Arnold, eleventh grade; Kirk Couch and Carrie Ann Grabbe, twelfth grade.

The FHA invites you to attend and cast your votes so you can share in the excitement of the Fall Festival. Afterward, there will be a carnival at the Briscoe County Show Barn.

Enchilada Dinner To Be Served Friday Night

Beginning at 5:00 p.m. Friday, October 26, the cheerleaders and Booster Bunch will be serving an enchilada dinner in the school cafeteria.

The dinner will include homemade desserts and drinks.

Cost for adults is $3.50 and $2.50 will be charged for children 12 and under.

The Booster Bunch invites you to come out early for the last home football game, and eat enchiladas with them before going to Payne Field. Your support will mean a lot, both to the Booster Bunch and the football players.

Happy Birthday,
McGruff!

Lynda Fogerson is New Swisher County HE Agent

Lynda Fogerson, who has served 12 years as an Extension Agent in Briscoe County, has been employed by the Swisher County Commissioners' Court as Extension Agent-Home Economics in Swisher County. She plans to assume her new responsibilities in Tulia on November 16.

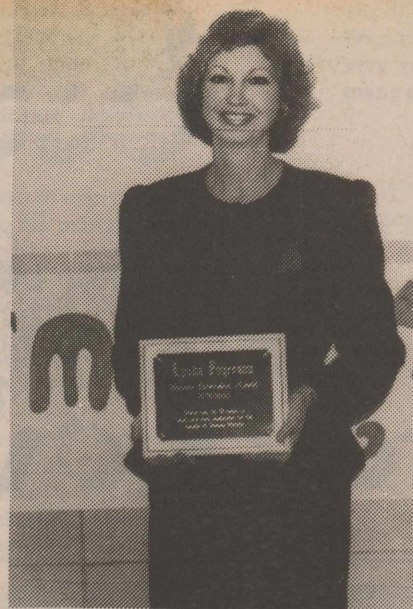

"I think it will probably present a lot of challenges because Swisher County provides many resources and I understand this county has a history of strong programs. This is a larger county which will offer me an opportunity to serve as a trainer agent," Mrs. Fogerson said.

While looking forward to her Swisher County position, the Extension Agent admitted that she will miss working with many good friends in Briscoe County.

She was chosen as assistant county Extension Agent-Home Economics in Briscoe County in September 1978. After serving in that position for two years, she was elevated to Briscoe Home Economics Agent and program leader in September 1980, and has served in that capacity since.

Her professional awards have included the Public Affairs Award in 1989 and the Communication Award for Packaged Program in 1988, both from the Texas Association of Lynda Fogerson was presented a special award at the annual 4-H Achievement Banquet Sunday for twelve years of service to the Briscoe County Extension Program. She will be leaving to begin work as Swisher County Extension Agent-Home Economics soon, and will be required to move her place of residence to Swisher County "within a reasonable length of time". Briscoe County News Photo

Stan Fogerson, is the Silverton School principal. The family will be relocating to Swisher County "within a reasonable length of time," and she will commute until the move.

Mr. and Mrs. Fogerson are parents of two daughters, Kristy Dorman of Patterson, New Jersey, and Penni Fogerson, a freshman student at Texas A&M University.

A graduate of Matador High School, she earned a B. S. degree in home economics education from Texas Tech University and a M.Ed. from Texas A&M University in agricultural education. She has done other studies at the two above-mentioned universities, studied at Tarleton State University and completed a National Businesswomen's Leadership Association workshop.

Winners Announced in PTA Membership Drive

Silverton PTA has awarded certificates good for free ice cream cones to students in the third and sixth grades as the fall membership drive ended.

The two classes had the highest percentage of parents and grandparents joining PTA this year.

Each student will receive one dip of ice cream when they present their certificate at Jerry's Malt Shop. The ice cream was donated by Jerry and Brenda Patton.

All students are congratulated on their efforts to make the 1990-91 PTA year a successful one.

Owls Roll to 48-22 Victory Over Whitharral Panthers

Silverton's Owls took another step toward a district championship last Friday night at Whitharral, as they defeated the Panthers 48-22.

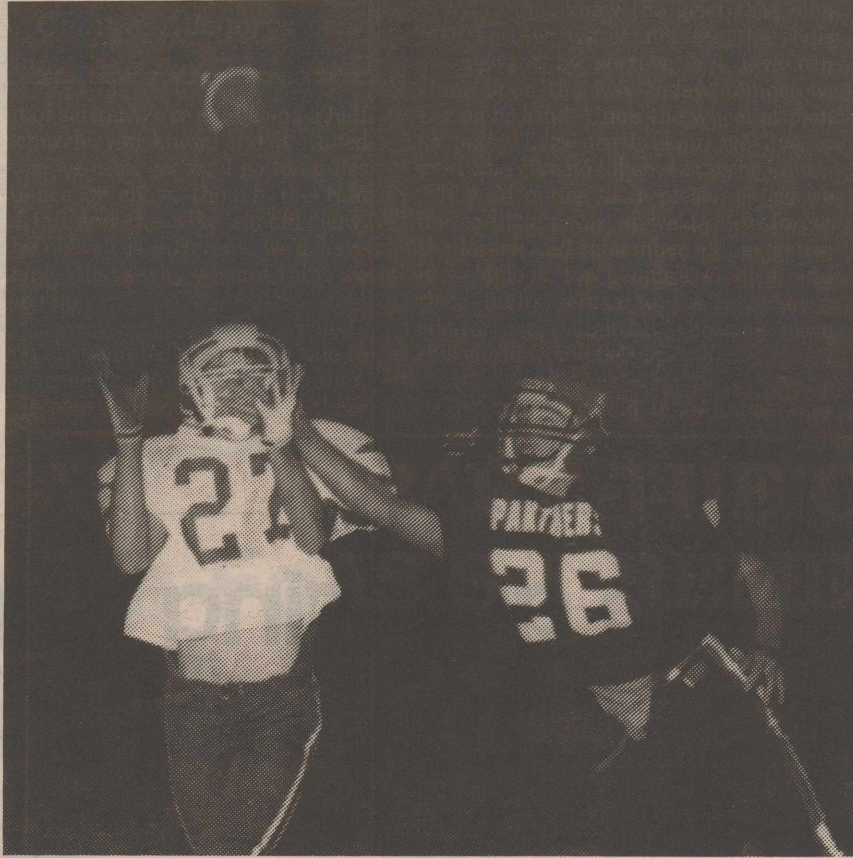

"The Owls are overflowing with confidence," said Coach Clyde Parham. "After the win over Three Way, they have a lot of confidence when they walk on the field. It's beginning to show more and more now. The attitude of the team from the time they walked on the field against Three Way to the time they walked off was completely different. The team I have now is confident. They realize they have a good opportunity to win the district outright."

The Owls will host Amherst this week in the season's last home game. Concerning Amherst, Coach Parham said, "They have a lot of speed and quickness. I was expecting them to give Three Way a run for their money." After Amherst, the Owls go to Cotton Center before winding up on the road against Lazbuddie, the team which currently is tied with Silverton at the top of the district heap.

A strong wind blew dirt in the faces of Silverton fans throughout much of the last half of the ballgame, and as one said, "Those last five minutes were the longest of any game I've ever seen!" The team was having a lot of fun, and all the players were getting into the action behind the alternating quarterbacking of Braden Towe and Josh Brooks, but the fans were wanting to get into their cars and out of the dirt.

The Owls kicked off to the Panthers, and Brian Martin stopped the return at the Whitharral 29. After an incomplete pass, the Panthers fumbled and Lyndell Ivory recovered for the Owls. After a 14-yard run by Bradley Brunson, Brian West picked up a first down on the Whitharral 12. What looked like it would be a quick touchdown turned into disaster as the Owls fumbled and the Panthers recovered on about the ten.

Whitharral completed a pass to their 26 on first down, and two plays later, Brunson burst through the line and took the pitchout from Whitharral's quarterback and went all the way for a touchdown with 8:20 remaining in the first period. The PAT failed, and the Owls held a 6-0 lead.

When the Owls kicked off, the ball went into the endzone for a touchback, and Whitharral set up operations on their own 20. They ran for 13 yards and passed complete to the Silverton 39, after which the Owl defense tightened, and a fourth-down pass moved the ball to the Silverton 27 where the ball was stopped by Ivory and went over on downs.

Martin carried to the 29, and Brunson moved the ball out to the 35 before an incomplete pass. The Owls punted, and Whitharral carried the kick back to the 38. The Panthers passed for a first down on the Silverton 21, after which the Owls shut the door and on third down Brunson recovered a Whitharral fumble.

Martin carried for five yards, and on the next play Brunson went all the way to score. West kicked the PAT, and with 1:03 remaining in the first quarter, the Owls led 14-0.

Once again the Owls kicked off into the endzone for a touchback, and the defense went back to work. On the last play of the first quarter, Ivory sacked the Panther quarterback for a two-yard loss, and as the second stanza began, Brunson partially blocked a punt and it carried only to the Whitharral 25.

Martin scored on the next play, West kicked the PAT, and with 9:46 still showing on the clock, the Owls had extended their lead to 22-0.

Whitharral carried the Owl kickoff back to midfield, and they picked up a first down on the 28. The Panthers completed another pass for a four-yard gain with help from an Owl who tipped the pass, and after two incomplete passes the ball went over on downs on the Silverton 24.

Martin picked up eight yards on the next play, and Quarterback Kirk Couch completed a pass to Casey Frizzell for a first down at midfield. Brunson carried to the 30, and then went for a first down on the 20. The next series concluded with a complete pass to West, but the ball went over to the Panthers at the 17 with 4:21 remaining in the first half.

The defense held, and the Owls got the ball on the 31. On first down, Couch passed to Martin for a touchdown.

There was no PAT, and with 2:37 remaining, the Owls held a 28-0 lead.

The Panthers weren't able to move the ball on their next series, due to defense by Frank Ramirez, jr., Brunson and other Owls. When the Owls got the ball back on the Whitharral 35, Martin ran to the 28 and Brunson picked up a first down before time expired in the first half.

Whitharral kicked into the endzone to start the second half with a touchback, and Ivory ran for a first down on the Whitharral 35. A pass completed to Martin moved the ball to the 26, and Brunson ran for a first down on the 19. Brunson picked up 13 yards more, and Martin carried the touchdown with 7:11 remaining in the third quarter. There was no PAT, and the Owls had extended their lead to 34-0.

Whitharral began the next series on their 17, and was penalized back to the 15 before punting to the Silverton 28. Brooks took the snap, and on second down, a pass from Towe was intercepted and taken to the 38.

The Panthers set up operations there, completing a pass for a first down which moved the ball to the 16. Three incomplete passes later, a field goal attempt failed, and the Owls got the ball back. A pass was completed to West, and West ran for a first down on the Silverton 35. On the next play, a Silverton aerial was stolen on the 37.

As the fourth quarter began, Whitharral made a first down via the pass on the Silverton 20, but after four incomplete passes, the ball went over on downs. The Owls passed to Frizzell for a first down on the Whitharral 32, and after runs by Martin and Brunson, an Owl aerial was intercepted for a Panther touchdown with 6:39 remaining to be played in the game. They kicked the PAT, and trailed 34-8.

A short kick was taken by Silverton on the 18, and Brunson carried to the Silverton 29, and then picked up a first down on the Whitharral 37. Couch passed to Brunson for a touchdown with 5:48 still showing on the clock, there was no PAT, and the Owls had answered with a 40-8 score.

On first down after taking the kickoff, the Panthers fumbled, and Bryan Breedlove recovered for the Owls on the Whitharral 15. A pass to Breedlove was complete for a touchdown, West kicked the PAT, and the Owls moved into a 48-8 lead.

The Owls kicked off, and gave up a touchdown on third down with 4:33 remaining in the game. They kicked the PAT, and trailed 48-16.

The Owls were unable to move the ball on their next series of plays, and punted to the Whitharral 26. The Panthers passed complete for a first down on the Silverton 27, and passed for another on the nine with 1:31 remaining to be played. They scored on the next play, there was no PAT, and the final 48-22 score had been made.

When Whitharral kicked off to the Owls, Langdon Reagan took the short kick to midfield. Lance Holt moved the ball to the Whitharral 30 before time expired in the game.

Silverton made 14 first downs in the game, as compared with 10 for Whitharral. The Owls rushed for 262 yards and passed for 128, for a total offense of 390 yards. Whitharral rushed for 26 yards and passed for 200, for a total offense of 226 yards.

Brunson rushed the ball 13 times for 169 yards and Martin carried 10 times for a 64-yard gain to lead the Owls. Couch hit nine of seventeen passes and had one intercepted, for a gain of 128 yards. Frizzell caught three passes for 65 yards and Brunson grabbed two for 35 yards gained.

This week's game is at home, and this will be the last one at home. Folks, the Owls need your support, attendance

Matthew Kast, District Conservationist, checks mesquite spraying through the Great Plains Conservation Program.

New Chemicals Being Used For Mesquite Control

Several ranches in the area have treated mesquite with a new chemical mixture. The next mixture of 1/4-lb. Reclaim and 1/4-lb. Grazon ET has shown promising results in field trials in the Lubbock area.

"Recent spraying in Briscoe County looks excellent; however, it's still too early to know the percent of root kill," said Matthew Kast, District Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service.

Recent testing also shows that timing is the key to successful brush control. The two most important factors for mesquite control seem to be soil temperature and bean development. Research has shown that soil temperature must be at least 75 degrees Fahrenheit at one-foot depth, for a successful kill. Bean elongation also is important. Recent testing shows that the best time to spray is just after the beans are fully elongated.

Energy within a mesquite plant is

Brunson Is Six-Man Player of the Week

Bradley Brunson was named Player of the Week by the sportswriters of the Amarillo Daily News this week, for the second time this season.

Brunson, senior running back and middle linebacker, has been a force on the six-man level almost since the time he first put on a varsity uniform.

In Silverton's 48-22 win over Whiteharral, Brunson rushed 13 times for 169 yards. He scored touchdowns on a 58-yard run, a 38-yard reception and a 26-yard interception return. He entered the game averaging 16 tackles per outing.

"I'm happy with him and I'm happy with everybody right now," Coach Clyde Parham said. "He's the leader of our team and he's doing a super job. He's playing just as well defensively as he is offensively, if not better."

Honorable mention went to Casey Frizzell, who caught three passes for 65 yards and one touchdown, and Brian Martin, who rushed 10 times for 64 yards and made several crucial tackles on defense.

transferred to the roots during two different stages of growth. One occurs just after the beans have elongated and the second occurs later in the summer after beans have matured. Chemical applications should be made while energy is being transferred to the roots to increase the odds of killing the roots.

"There are a lot of factors to consider when planning any form of brush control," said Kast. "When you're spending $20.00 per acre, you want to rely on the latest information and do the job right."

The Soil Conservation Service will be happy to assist anyone wishing to control brush. Cost-sharing is available through ACP, LTA and GPCP.

LUBBOCK, Friday, October 19, 1990

The farm bill that will govern cotton and other agricultural production operations for 1991 through 1995 moved another step closer to enactment in the wee hours of October 16.

At that time the House-Senate conferees agreed on the language of commodity titles and other provisions, said by Conference Committee Chairman Patrick Leahy (D-VT) to encompass "tough but fair budget decisions."

Both House and Senate are expected to adopt the farm bill package before the Congressional recess, scheduled to begin in the week of October 22. It reportedly has the Bush Administration's blessing, so, barring new and unforeseen cost-cutting demands from the yet-to-be finalized budget agreement, odds are it will become law.

The bill is projected to save the government $1 billion in 1991 and another $12.6 billion over the remaining four years, primarily by reducing deficiency payment outlays. Target prices for major program crops are frozen through 1995 at 1990 levels, but for deficit reduction purposes a "triple-base" plan is instituted which shrinks by 15 percent the crop acreage eligible for payment.

Three categories of the acreage base for each commodity are created: (1) annual acreage reduction program (ARP) acres, (2) permitted acreage on which program crops eligible for payment may be planted and (3) "flex" acres equal to 15 percent of base acreage above ARP acres. The maximum ARP for cotton is maintained at 25 percent.

On "flex" acres producers will be allowed to plant any program or non-program crop except fruits and vegetables. This acreage will not be eligible for deficiency payments, but production will be eligible for the same loan programs available to other production, including marketing loan protection.

TO THE VOTERS OF JUSTICE OF THE PEACE PRECINCT ONE

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your support and encouragement. I feel that it is a privilege to represent you as your Democratic candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace.

I realize that it is a busy time of the year for our farmers with harvest going on, but your time and vote would greatly be appreciated. Absentee voting is under way and if you have the opportunity, I suggest that you stop by the courthouse and vote absentee so that your vote may be counted. YOUR VOTE IS NEEDED!

If elected, arrangements have been made where there will be someone to answer my phone and answer your questions in my absence. My work schedule in Amarillo is just two 24-hour shifts. I work there on Monday and then again on Thursday. I am there from 7 a.m. on Monday and leave there returning home on Tuesday at 8 a.m. Thursdays are the same starting time with me leaving Amarillo at 8 a.m. on Friday morning. As you can see I am in Silverton the remaining 5 days of the week. I have no other interests or jobs that can interfere with the duties of this office.

I want to be your Justice of the Peace. Please remember me at the polls.

Thank you,

Lynn Frizzell

An additional 10 percent flex option is provided under which producers may plant up to 10 percent of program crop bases and receive base protection. Like the 15 percent triple-base flex acres, this 10 percent will be ineligible for payments but will be eligible for loans.

Marketing loans on cotton and rice are continued in the new bill, and a similar program is established for soybeans, with a beginning loan rate of $5.02 per bushel. The loan rate for cotton will be set by the same market-based formula in the current program, and the same maximum 5 percent per year loan rate reduction and 50-cent statutory minimum in current law are retained. Added to cotton's marketing loan program is authority for adjustments in the prevailing world market price to ensure U. S. competitiveness.

Maintained is the current $50,000 limit on direct deficiency payments, and a new $75,000 cap is put on marketing loan gains, loan deficiency payments and "Findley" payments. As a result, according to a House Agriculture Committee news release, the maximum amount any individual can receive is reduced from $500,000 to $250,000.

Unknown as of this writing, say officials of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., are important details of special interest to High Plains producers. For example, the Agriculture Committee release indicates that authority for federal crop insurance is extended, with "changes in current program operations to improve its actuarial soundness." Missing is any clue to what those changes may be.

Temperatures Warmer, Drier Than Normal During Growing Season

The weather across the Texas South Plains during the growing season months of June, July, August and September 1990 turned out to be warmer and drier than normal.

Temperatures averaged 0.7 degree above normal and ranged from 2.1 degrees above normal at Lubbock to 1.1 degrees below normal at Lamesa.

Maximum temperatures averaged 0.2 degree above normal and ranged from 2.5 degrees above normal at Silverton to 2.4 degrees below normal at Spur. Abnormally high and record-setting maximums in June were offset by cooler-than-normal readings in July and August. Numerous records for 100-plus maximums were set in June with some all-time highest maximums recorded. The highest reported during the season was 113 at Levelland on June 24.

Minimum temperatures averaged 1.2 degrees above normal and ranged from 2.8 degrees above normal at Lockettville to 0.3 degree below normal at Tulia. The lowest temperature reported during the season was 45 at Dimmitt on June 4.

Precipitation averaged 2.27 inches below normal and ranged from 7.86 inches above normal at Snyder to 6.57 inches below normal at Lockettville.

Despite slightly above-normal rainfall in July, the remainder of the season saw average rainfall totals below the long-term normals.

Silverton's rainfall for the growing season measured 6.00 inches, 1.95 inches below the South Plains average and 5.30 inches below Silverton's 45-year average rainfall for the period.

Supporting Troops in The Middle East

In September, while Roy Mack and Lois Walker were in Lafayette, Indiana visiting relatives, they attended a gathering which supported troops in the Middle East which Lois said was one of the most impressive patriotic ceremonies she had attended.

About 40 friends and relatives of American soldiers involved in the Middle East crisis gathered on the ribboned yard of Nancy and Carl Connolly to raise a flag and form a support group for families of those overseas.

Carl Connolly, a Korean War veteran, was presented a flag by State Representative Sheila Klinker. The flag was raised as the national anthem was sung.

Members of Kokomo, Indiana's support group, called Honor American's Finest, joined the Lafayette families at the Connolly residence.

Junior High Owls Undefeated In District

Not only are the Varsity Owls undefeated in the district championship race, but also the Junior High Owls are undefeated in their division of the championship. They have beaten Amherst, Three Way and Whitharral, and will be traveling to Valley for a non-conference game this afternoon, with kickoff at 5:00.

The last two district games for the Junior High will be played at home, with Cotton Center and Lazbuddie. These boys appreciate your attendance and support at their games, as they seek to keep Silverton on top.

When Whitharral came to call last Thursday, the Owls kicked off and held for three downs and forced a punt. Jeremiah Brooks carried to the Whitharral 38, and Michael Hill went all the way for a touchdown with 3:14 remaining to be played in the first quarter. There was no PAT, and the Owls held an early 6-0 lead.

The Owl kickoff was returned to the Whitharral 21, and Hill and Cy Comer stopped the ball carrier in his tracks on first down. On the next play, the Owls recovered a Panther fumble, and on Silverton's first down they returned the ball via the fumble route.

Whitharral scored on the first play of the second quarter, there was no PAT, and with 5:30 remaining in the period the score was knotted at 6-6.

Whitharral kicked off and Brooks was grabbed by the face mask on his return, moving the ball out to the Silverton 38. Quarterback Jess Brannon completed a pass to Brooks for a first down on the Whitharral 26, and Brooks ran to the 14. Hill carried the touchdown on the next play, the Owls completed the PAT, and led 13-6.

The Owls kicked off to the Whitharral 37, and on third down the Panthers were backed up to their 27 by a penalty. A pass was completed and the receiver was dropped on the spot by Brooks. Needing 14 yards for a first down, the Panthers passed incomplete and the ball went over on downs on the Whitharral 38.

Phil Patino carried to the 26, and Brooks picked up a first down with 48 seconds remaining in the second quarter. Brannon completed a pass to Hill on the five, but the Owls were penalized back to the 21. Hill ran to the 17, but time expired in the first half before the Owls could score again.

Whitharral kicked off to open the second half, and Brooks carried to the Whitharral 34. The Owls picked up a first down on the 25, after which Brooks ran to the 20. Brannon passed to Patino for the touchdown, Brooks carried the PAT, and with 3:29 remaining in the third frame, the Owls had extended their lead to 20-6.

When the Owls kicked off to Whitharral, Brannon stopped the return man at the Whitharral 10, and on the third play, Brooks recovered a Whitharral fumble on the nine. Brannon carried into the endzone on first down with 1:28 remaining in the third quarter, but the referees had detected an infraction against the Owls on the play and moved them back. Brooks carried for a few yards, and Brannon passed to Patino for the touchdown with 50 seconds remaining in the quarter. Comer caught the PAT pass, and the Owls held a 27-6 lead.

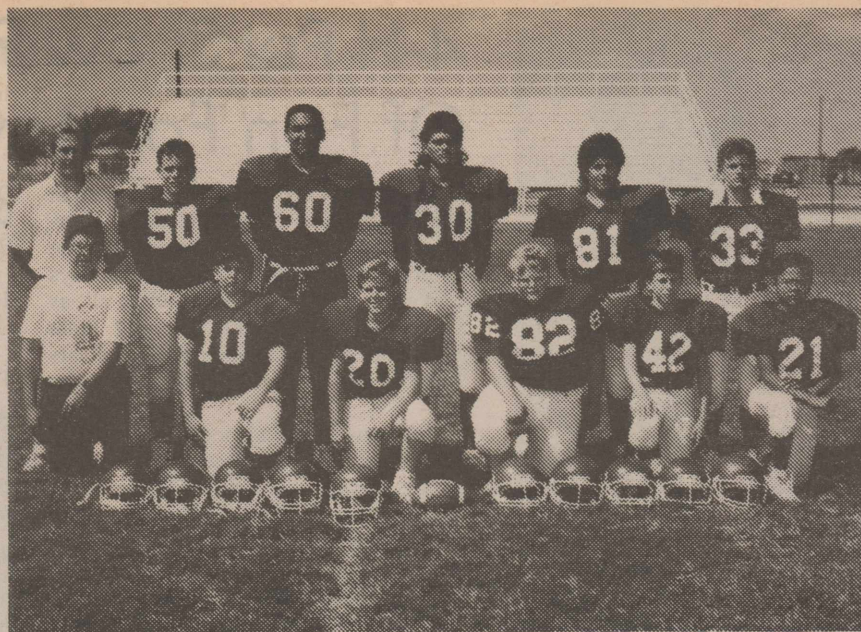

Silverton kicked off to Whitharral, and Patino brought down the returned at the five. Early in the fourth quarter, the Panthers moved to the 15 where Brooks dropped the ball carrier. On third down, the Panthers fumbled, and Patino recovered for the Owls.

The Owls were unable to move the ball, and Whitharral got it back. With Hill and Patino on the sideline, the Panthers completed a pass for a first down on their 26, and moved into the endzone for a score on the next play. There was no PAT, and with 2:25 remaining in the game, the score stood at 27-12.

Whitharral kicked off to the Owls, and Brooks carried all the way for a touchdown. There was no PAT, and with 2:02 still on the clock, the Owls had extended their lead to 33-12.

The Owls kicked off, and Whitharral picked up a first down on the Silverton 35 with defense by Brooks and Brannon. They scored with 34 seconds remaining in the game, but there was no PAT due to Brooks intercepting the PAT pass. The final 33-18 score had been made. The Owls took the ensuing kickoff and killed the clock.

The Owls have only 10 players, so when they get ahead they can't really run in a new team. The Owl coaches show their sportsmanship on all levels by taking out their best players and allowing the opponent opportunities to get on the board.

Earl Cantwell
Gems & Allegorys

A bit of satire: We're a mile and a half from church, you know, and it rained today, so we can't go; we'd go ten miles to a dance or show, though the rain should fall and the wind should blow. But the church is different, we'd have you know—that's why when it rains we just can't go.

If you are tempted to reveal a tale to you someone has told, about another, make it pass before you speak, three gates of gold—three narrow gates: First, is it true? Then, is it needful? In your mind give truthful answer. And the next is last and narrowest: Is it kind? Now, if to reach your lips at last, it passes through these gateways three, then you may tell the tale, nor fear what the result of speech may be.

We cannot know the grief that men may borrow; we cannot see the souls stormswept by sorrow; but love can shine upon the way today, tomorrow. Let us be kind. Upon the wheel of pain so many lives are broken, we live in vain who give no token. Let us be kind.

If we'd notice little pleasures, as we notice little pains; if we'd quite forget the losses, and remember all our gains; if we'd look for people's virtues, and their faults refuse to see — what a comforting, delightful, cheering place this world would be!

Give as you would if an angel were waiting for your gift at the door. Give as you would if tomorrow found you where all giving is o'er. Give as you would to the Master if you met his loving look. Give as you would of your substance if his hand your offering took.

If I knew you and you knew me, if both of us could clearly see, and with an inner sight devine the meaning of your heart and mine, I'm sure that we would differ less, and clasp our hands in friendliness; our thoughts would pleasantly agree, if I knew you and you knew me.

If I'm told to do a thing, and I mean to do it really, never let me do it by halves; but do it fully, freely. Don't let me make a poor excuse, of waiting weak, unsteady; all obedience worth the name must be prompt and ready.

And so to build your character and build it strong and true, use pleasant words, do kindly deeds, and let your thoughts be true.

Once there was a christian—he had a pious look; his consecration was complete except his pocketbook.

He put a nickel in the plate—and then with might and main, he'd sing "When we asunder part, it gives us inward pain."

The wise minister: "Let us be silent that we may hear the whisper of God."

Red Ribbon Week Being Observed Here

This week has been designated as Red Ribbon Week. It is an incentive for all community members to become aware of the threat to young people, community, state and nation that is posed by use of drugs. Talking is not enough if the war on drugs is to be won. Actions reflect true feelings even though a person may be saying something else. Americans seem to be looking for the easy way out. How many commercials do you see on TV that tell you that if you have a headache, a pill will solve the problem? How many times do children see adults in television shows "need a drink to calm frayed nerves after a hard day at work"? Are they seeing this even in their homes?

It is estimated that one out of every six teenagers who use alcohol or other drugs will become addicted. There are approximately 3,000,000 full-blown teenage alcoholics in America. Addiction has been a family affair. Statistics show that 51% of all alcoholics have at least one alcoholic parent. Children with one alcoholic parent have a 33% chance of becoming alcoholic themselves. Children with both parents alcoholic have a 66% chance of becoming alcoholic.

To help steer children clear of alcohol and drug addiction, you should listen to what they are saying to the adults in their lives. The following represents some suggestions children have for their parents.

1. Keep cool and don't fly off the handle. Keep in control of the situation when things go wrong or don't happen the way you want them to happen. Learn positive ways to deal with situations and the good results that occur when you hold your temper.

2. Don't get strung out from drinking or drugs. When we see the use of crutches like that, you influence us to do these things. We often learn to escape like you do: "it's been the worst day of my life, honey, give me a beer."

3. Stop telling us about the old days. We need to know how to live in current times. Preaching about "the way it was" doesn't help us today.

4. Don't tell us about being honest and neat when the "garage hasn't been cleaned by you in over five years; you call into work sick when you are actually going Christmas shopping; and you cheat on your IRS form."

5. Bug us a little. Be strict. Show us who is boss. We need to know we've got some strong support behind us. When you get passive, we get scared and lost.

6. Don't try to dress, act, or talk like us. Sometimes it embarrasses us, so please, respect our position and we'll respect your position.

7. Expose us to all kinds of settings (churches, business clubs, Boy Scouts, 4-H, etc.) Show us other people we can identify with, besides the bad crowd you complain about.

8. We need to believe in something stronger and more powerful than us. Introduce us to a spiritual belief and don't tell us God is sleeping, gone, dead, or on vacation.

9. Scare the heck out of us if we need it. Get tough when we lie, steal, or get verbally or physically abusive. Stress the consequences of repeating such behavior.

10. If we need punishment, do it. Don't wait until Dad gets home. Punishment shows us you care and love us enough to take time to connect with us.

11. Praise us when we deserve it. It's easier to accept mistakes and criticism when we get compliments once in a while too.

12. Don't tell us things about us that we hold onto forever and don't serve any useful purpose: "If I gave a prize for the ugliest—you would win; you're more stupid than your brother; when they handed out brains, you weren't there; you make worse decisions than anyone in our family; I'm not sure you're ours—you don't act like us."

13. Don't be so afraid of us that you fail to call our bluff. If you get intimidated by our threats to jump off a bridge, dropout of school, runaway, or hit you we will just keep doing what we want. We need limits and people that can stand up to those they love. This doesn't mean to play the same games we play with you.

15. Keep promises when they're in our best interest. Be honest. We know you well enough to see when things aren't right. Never being told or only being told part of the whole story seems to make us uneasy.

Children need the support and good example of adults to help them gain the self-esteem they need to avoid falling into the trap of alcohol and other drugs.
