Janice Hill presented "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," and Ted Kingery delivered the rally speech.

The Genesis Eight from the Rock Creek Church of Christ sang "God of Our Fathers," after which Maebelle Francis sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," asking the audience to join in the chorus.

The group was dismissed with a prayer by Rev. Bryan Donahoo, after which "God Bless America" was sung. Mary Ann Rauch accompanied the singers at the piano.

A huge American flag was used as the backdrop for the program, and miniature American flags decorated the area. Some in attendance waved small flags or held up signs.

Each one attending had been presented a red, white and blue ribbon and buddie poppy as they entered the building.

County Judges, Commissioners Convened in Aggrieland Recently

About 800 county judges and commissioners from across Texas, including Briscoe County Precinct 3 Commissioner L. B. Garvin, took part in the 33rd Annual County Judges and Commissioners' Conference at Texas A&M University February 18-20.

The program, developed around the theme, "County Government Works," was sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service's Institute of County Government in cooperation with the County Judges and Commissioners' Association of Texas.

Also cooperating in the training conference for county judges and commissioners were the Texas Association of Counties, the Conference of Urban Counties, Technology Resource Center of the Texas Engineering Extension Service and Texas A&M's Office of Continuing Education.

Newly-elected state officials, including Governor Ann Richards, addressed the association members.

Discussions centered around environmental concerns, ethics reform in government, legislative updates on urban county issues, and indigent health care.

A keynote address was presented by County Commissioner Mike Stewart of Salt Lake County, Utah, who also is president of the National Association of Counties of the United States.

Conference participants included many of the newly-elected county judges and county commissioners from across the state. About 100 new judges and some 200 new county commissioners were elected last November.

County judges who attended the special judicial training at the conference received continuing education units from the Texas Center for the Judiciary and Texas A&M's office of continuing education.

The extent of George Washington's formal education corresponded to about the fifth grade in a modern public school.

Owls Drop Playoff to Ninth-Ranked Farwell

Had it been a free-throw shooting contest, Silvertown would have beaten ninth-ranked Farwell by five points in their bi-district game Friday night at the Plainview High School Gym.

Free throw shooting was about the only flaw you could find in Farwell's game as the quick and aggressive Steers roared past the Owls 97-46 for the right to meet Paducah in an area-round game played Tuesday night at Wayland's Hutcherson Center.

"They just got us flustered early," said Coach Bob Libby, who had hoped to slow the tempo down and stay with the Steers, who had lost three practice games.

Instead, Farwell put on an early press and forced 12 turnovers in the first quarter, turning seven of them into 14 points. At one stretch starting midway through the first quarter, Farwell converted six straight Silvertown turnovers into points. "They are so quick and intense; they really taught us a lesson," Coach Libby said.

For the night, the Owls had 29 mistakes and Farwell, utilizing its transition game to the fullest and showing off sharp passing, capitalized on 15 of them for points.

Farwell's defense limited the Owls to no more than 12 shots in any quarter.

The pesky Owls never game up, though, in closing their season at 9-18. They hit 14 of 25 from the line compared to 9 of 24 for Farwell, including seven of eight, by Frank Ramirez, jr.

Kirk Couch led the Owls with 15 points, including a pair of three-pointers in the third period when he

Little Dribbler Games To Begin March 12

Games for the Little Dribblers are scheduled to begin Tuesday, March 12, in the school gym. There are four teams in the third and fourth grade divisions, and four teams in the fifth and sixth grade division. The games will be played with the clock running continuously the first three quarters, so that the boys and girls won't be kept out late on school nights.

Included in this week's paper is the schedule of games and game times, those who have been assigned to work at the gate, in the concession stand, at the scorers' table and as enforcers of the rules.

The rules enforcers will be charged with the responsibility of keeping order in the gym and making sure that the boys and girls remain inside the gym. No outside play will be permitted because it is unsupervised and usually results in some damage being done to school property.

If you cannot work at the times you have been assigned, you are asked to find a replacement for yourself or trade with another worker. If you will not be able to work at the time you have been assigned and cannot find a replacement for yourself, please call Mary Ann Sarchet, 823-2333.

A list of those who are being asked to bring brownies or Rice Krispie treats to the concession stand also is included in this issue of the paper. You are asked to bring one dozen of whatever treats you are assigned, with each square individually wrapped and ready for sale. If you won't be able to bring the food you have been assigned, please contact Bena Hester.

YOUR FAITH CAN HELP YOU OVERCOME YOUR BAD HABITS

Because of the stresses of your hectic life, like many of us you may have fallen into the trap of smoking, alcohol or some other substance, and weren't even aware that you had become addicted. This can jeopardize your job, your marriage, your health, and even your life and the lives of others, besides being a big waste of money and a terrible example for your children. But take heart, you can quit if you really want to. Go to a treatment center if you like, but perhaps you don't really need one. It will be hard at first, but it will get easier. Just keep busy, and think of how nice it will be to get rid of that dependency. Also, turn to your House of Worship. It can be a real source of help in straightening out your life.

*Ill habits gather by unseen degrees -
As brooks make rivers,
rivers run to seas.
-John Dryden*

*"And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us
from evil..."
-Matthew 6:13*
