League District Meeting

"No Matter the Weather, When We Get Together, We'll have a Jubilee." In spite of thimble, rain and mud, 14 Leaguers climbed aboard the Otha Fast Road truck last Saturday and early set forth to attend the District Meeting at Stamford. We have nicknamed this truck "Ophelia Bumps" for it is the one that takes us over rough roads or wet ones and brings us safely home.

The meeting was peppy and interesting from start to finish, with the worship and spiritual elements all the way through as they always are at our District League meetings. Those attending were: Otha Cass, chauffeur and conductor; Mrs. Gaston Poole, chaperone and ring leader; Jim Isbell and Clinton Herren, mechanics and runaways; Leola Bell Kemp, chief singer; Virgil Bernard, Don't touch me; Virginia Sills, Nancy Guest, Gertie Guest, Verna Lee Harris, heavy weights; Wallace Sanders, Head Brummell; Wilda Brown and Gladys Hamilton, with school girl complexions; Charlene Baughman, organist; Margaret Kober, H. League Delegate; Lillian Kaigler, general flunkie; Elizabeth Gilbert, everybody's friend.

The New Ford

SOLD Economically
FINANCED Economically
SERVICED Economically
RUNS Economically

THE FIRST COST is only one of the savings in buying a new Ford. You also save on the cost of financing, on any accessories you may want and on the cost of operation, replacement parts and service.

The economies of distribution are just as important as economies in manufacture in keeping down the price of the Ford. The money you pay goes into increased value for the car. It is not wasted in excessively high selling costs.

On the basis of performance and the inherent worth of every part, the new Ford is unquestionably the greatest dollar-for-dollar value ever offered in an automobile.

The Motherly Nature

It is a common thing to see a mother who is so much more and different than the mother who is so much less...

The ordinary woman finds it a fine thing to be a mother. She naturally gives her heart to the children's welfare...

It is one of the tragedies of life that so frequently the children have little or no appreciation of all the sacrifices and sorrows...

Developing Industries

Many communities are making very progressive gains by the effort to increase the prosperity of the industries they already have...

tion in scientific farm methods, and in so doing they often succeed in making the agricultural production of the district...

Woman Suffrage Anniversary

The United States has had 10 years of complete woman suffrage. The 19th amendment went into effect on August 26, 1920...

The first traces of this movement appeared in Europe during the French revolution in the latter part of the 18th century...

On the other hand, the more ardent hopes entertained by suffrage advocates could hardly be said to have been realized...

The main reason for granting suffrage was that the women wanted it. It would be generally admitted now that if they wanted it they had a right to have it...

At 30 this Haskell fan is one who can remember when the plumb line had to play the outfield when the pitcher pitched.

Technicalities of the Law

A few days ago dispatches from Austin stated that several murder cases had been reversed because of defective indictments...

The indictment in the Bill Fritts case and other cases contained just such an indictment as Judge Lattimore speaking for the court, said would be sufficient...

There can be no criticism of the official who tried this case but it is another glaring example of the uncertainty of the law and the reversal of cases because of some technicality thereof.

Looks like Republican senators and congressmen up for reelection will have to dig up some other campaign hook...

CHRYSLER

Beat Chrysler performance? You can't even tie it!

THE MOMENT you take the wheel of a Chrysler you sense a difference.

You can't quite define it—but it's a combination of silence, swiftness, nimbleness and remarkable braking control.

The car seems to want to go. You're off and away like a flash.

You feel that you and the car are one. You can do the difficult with ease—negotiate corners, turns, sudden stops and tight places.

You overtake other cars, whip around them—without fuss, hustle or bustle.

It is the thrill the Chrysler gives in performance—the unique way it rides, drives and feels—that inspires pride of possession of its own. You ought to drive a Chrysler.

PANCAKE OF LIGHT

Throwing Mile Wide Layer of Artificial Sunlight. New Airport Lighthouse Solves Greatest Night Flying Problem.

LITERALLY changing night into day, that rapidly developing hub of mid-western air lines, the Cleveland Airport, has just contributed to aviation the solution of one of the most baffling problems of night flying. Beacons, boundary lights and obstacle markers present no difficulties and floodlighting would seem to be equally simple. It is this part of airport lighting, however, that has brought more wrinkles than almost any other, for in flooding landing areas with bright light, they frequently blind the pilots of incoming planes, raising even greater danger. The ideal which long has been sought by illuminating engineers has been some means of providing an even, low-lying blanket of light, of the quality of daylight, that would reveal the entire airport, its approaches, surrounding trees and other obstacles and at the same time keep the pilots of moving planes in shadow. And this is precisely what has been accomplished by Major John Berry, veteran air pilot, builder of the Cleveland Airport, Commissioner of Aeronautics of the City of Cleveland, chairman of the airport committee of the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce and leading airport lighting expert. Using as his light source a modified form of the recently perfected carbon arc lamp which has been selected by the United States Bureau of Standards as the closest artificial approach to mid-summer sunlight, Major Berry has built a unique lighthouse at the Cleveland airport. Housed in a structure that harmonizes architecturally with the new $90,000 administration building at the airport, this miniature sun throws a penetrating light for approximately five thousand feet, which is more than a thousand feet beyond the boundary lines. Its complete popularity with the dozens of pilots who make scheduled landings at Cleveland every night from sunset to dawn is the result of a special shutter arrangement with which the lighthouse keeper lays a narrow strip of shadow across the pilot's eyes, totally eliminating the blinding glare which so often proves a serious hazard to night landing. "There is no doubt about the carbon arc light being the only satisfactory solution to this difficult problem," Major Berry says, "in addition to its close similarity to natural sunshine—the closest in fact that man has ever devised—it lays down a pancake of light penetrating a mile or more in all directions. It illuminates the field without the slightest distortion and is an important contribution to the safety of night flying."

Plane making a night landing at the Cleveland Airport with aid of special carbon arc light. Inset—Close-up of "lighthouse" and huge "pancake" light which permits safe night landing.

The Personal Side

A man knocked down by an automobile in Detroit got up and ran away. He probably was surprised to find himself alive. If we were to believe all that the candidates say about each other we couldn't vote for any of them.

If the long skirt style really stays, the burlesque shows may look forward to better days. The Chinese want to have another civil war, but the other nations probably won't let them have it in peace. After being told that his occupation was that of editor, the census enumerator asked him if he could read or write.

A Brooklyn matador killed four bulls in Spain one day. When he comes home he might try his hand on that Wall Street bear. A Texas paper has a Miss Love and a Miss Huggins on its staff. Some handicap if the editor should decide on an anti-petting crusade. When your radio set is noisy just imagine you're listening to Floyd Gibbons announcing the results of the Literary Digest prohibition poll.

Maybe the reason we're having so much unrest now is because the Republican administration has made everybody tired. "The radio has come to stay," says an advertisement. Unless it was bought on the installment plan.

In Our Town

The big cities will no doubt grow fast so long as many people think that the farther away an article comes from, the better it is. After sending away the cream of their trade elsewhere, some people in Haskell complain because their home merchant does not hustle hard enough for the skim milk end of the same. The man who can't remember to pay his newspaper subscription, is very apt to remember that it is paper time if the same is delivered too late. Towns always have people who have no time to work for public causes, but can always find plenty of it to sit around and tell what ought to be done. The town boosters are doing their best, but they have to holler loud to draw out the silent influence of those who keep disorderly looking places. If the knockers would use their hammers on their own heads, instead of on their home town, it might wake them up a bit to the issues of progress.

S. A. LOE OF NEAR RULE DIED FRIDAY NIGHT AT HOME OF SON

S. A. Loe, 80, died at the home of his son S. R. Loe who lives west of Haskell, Friday morning, April 25. Funeral services were held at the Christian church in Rule, conducted by Rev. G. R. Forrester, pastor of the First Christian church of this city. Interment was in the Pinkerton cemetery. He is survived by his widow and the following children: J. P. Loe, S. R. Loe, J. W. Loe, C. B. Loe, H. R. Loe; Mrs. J. J. Williams, Mrs. R. T. Tibbett, Mrs. H. C. Pool, Mrs. H. C. Irwin, of whom all were present at the funeral. Deceased had been a resident of Haskell county for the past 26 years.

Methodist Missionary Society.

The Methodist Missionary Society met in their regular monthly business meeting Monday afternoon, April 28. Mrs. Earnest was hostess and used exquisite pink poppies and roses as decorations. Despite the pouring rain there were 14 present. All the officers gave written reports of the past 4 months work.

The president reported delegates had attended the council meeting and conference in Amarillo, the Stamford district women's meeting in Seymour and the Stamford district meeting in Seymour.

Her aims for the society for the year are more spirituality; a spirit of charity and good will among the members; cooperation with every department of the church; make things pleasant for pastor and wife; measure up to standard of excellence; increase pledges 100 per cent; executive board each quarter; reports sent to conference officers; special emphasis on Bible lessons.

The study of the life of Christ as depicted in art is proving a most helpful study, each woman making a scrap book with questions and answers and prints in connection with study.

The local treasurer reported $398.59 having passed through her hands since January. The society served the Father and Son Banquet, realizing $80.00, which sum was given to the organ fund. The members donated the food for the banquet, being assisted in this by the other women of the church. The flower committee reported having sent a number of potted plants and cut flowers to the sick. Flowers were also bought for decorating the church on Easter Sunday. Each member gives as many pennies as she is years old on her birthday, in this way the flowers committee has received $12.70 for the quarter.

The chairman of the Gibson Auxiliary reported 11 members and 8 prospective members.

The church committee chairman reported having purchased linen for the sacrament also for the dining room.

Many baskets of beautiful roses were used as decorations for the program.

All business was brought to a close after the yard committees were appointed for the summer and the old officers were unanimously voted to retain their present offices.

IT'S A FINE THING SAYS A. L. BRIDGES

Foreman City Water Department Says He Feels Better Than In Ten Years—Gained 8 Pounds.

Of all the men in Wichita Falls and vicinity, there is none better known than A. L. Bridges, of 1432 Sibley Avenue, foreman of City Water Department having served in that capacity for the past eight years.

While in a conversation with the Orgatone representative, Mr. Bridges said:

"I suffered from stomach trouble and nervousness," he continued, "and was in a very run-down, worn-out condition. I got to where I didn't have an appetite and what little I did force myself to eat, would cause gas to form, and at times I could hardly get my breath, and everything soured on my stomach."

"I had nervous, sick headaches, most all the time, and was so breathless at night, could not sleep, but would roll and toss all night and when morning came actually felt worse than when I went to bed, I was losing confidence in myself, I felt so bad."

"Orgatone had helped so many people here in Wichita Falls, I decided to try it, and it has certainly been a fine thing in my case. I have not only gained eight pounds in weight but feel better than in years."

"I eat anything I want now, and it doesn't bother me in the least and my food agrees with me and gives me nourishment. I'm not nervous as I was, and sleep like a baby at night, and am entirely relieved of all constipation. Orgatone has been a wonderful medicine in my case and I am glad to recommend it."

Genuine Orgatone may be obtained in Haskell at the Oates Drug Store.

John Golden, play producer, is said to have eight bedrooms in his home. Maybe that's how he gets inspiration for bedroom farces.

Mothers' Day Will Be Observed Sunday Morning

Mothers' Day has become one of the great days of the year and should always be observed. It is a day when the mind is crowded with holy memories. Twelve hundred people were asked to write what they considered the sweetest word in any language. Over one thousand wrote the word mother. Nearly all the others wrote the word home. This shows how we all feel toward mother and home.

We extend a warm welcome to the families of this section to worship with us Sunday morning. If mother has gone on to her reward, may the memories that you so fondly cherish make your life more noble. If mother is still living, may she be honored by every word and deed.

Subject for Sunday 11:00 a. m. "THE POWER AND INFLUENCE OF GODLY MOTHERS"

The judgment alone can reveal the power and influence of Godly mothers. Mothers had more to do with driving intoxicating drinks from our land than all others. The moral standards of this world have been lifted higher by our mothers.

Subject for Sunday 7:45 p. m. "OUR NEED OF AN OLD TIME REVIVAL AND GOD'S METHOD OF BRINGING IT ABOUT"

By an old time revival we mean a revival where there is a deep conviction because of sin; a revival where men are saved as well as the children; a revival where there is an outward manifestation on the part of God's people; a revival where the fruits of repentance are demanded before baptism and church membership.

A revival like this will be experienced when the members in our churches begin to live a life of personal holiness and the preachers begin to preach with the power of the Spirit. The preacher problem is just as great as the membership problem. Every service should be a demonstration service. It should demonstrate God's power. The preacher is largely to blame for the lack of this power. Let's make our church a greater church.

DO NOT FORGET MOTHERS' DAY!

Back Quit Hurting

"I was in a very weak condition from a serious sickness," writes Mrs. L. Leonard, of 571 Joseph St., New Orleans, La. "I was so weak, I wanted to sleep all the time. I did not have strength to do anything. My back ached nearly all the time. I was just in misery."

"My mother told me I must arouse myself from the sleepiness, and take something to help get my strength back. She had taken Cardui and had been helped, so I decided to take Cardui, too. After my first bottle, I could see that it was helping me. I took four bottles at this time. My strength came back and I gained weight. Pretty soon, I was my old self again. My back quit hurting, and I haven't had any more trouble since I took Cardui."

FORTY-FOURTH YEAR

OVER 3000 PEOPLE HERE FOR TRADES DAY

Census Gives City Population of 2,611

13 Per Cent Indicated in Face of Bad Business Conditions.

The population of Haskell is 2,611, according to preliminary figures released to the Free Press today from the district census supervisor's office at Lubbock.

1930 figures represent an increase of 311 over the 1920 census. Haskell has a population of 2,611. The increase is slightly over 10 per cent.

It is generally considered that due to the severe business conditions, the population of Haskell is the lowest that it has been for a number of years.

The present census does not take account of homes which are in a part of Haskell but are located outside the city limits. Families are counted in the census.

FIFTY-TWO HASKELL BUSINESS MEN IN GOLF TOURNEY

If you have been unable to transact any business for the past three weeks, it has been due no doubt to the fact that you were unable to locate your man. This condition was brought about by the Haskell Golf Club's tournament.

For the past three weeks, exactly fifty-two business men of Haskell have been battling for the honor of carrying off an assortment of prizes given by the Haskell Golf Club in its first tournament.

Thirty-two of the local Golfers qualified, and were divided into two flights of sixteen in each flight.

B. M. Whiteker had the honor of winning the Medalist's prize for low score. The prize being a decorated pair of plus-fours. (To those that don't know what plus-fours are—we'll explain that they are britches.) Mr. Whiteker was unable to participate in the tournament due to the death of his brother in Arizona.

A. H. Wair defeated R. C. Couch in the first flight, 3 up 2 to go. Prizes: Loving Cup and shirt. Prize for runner-up, Fountain Pen.

Tom Patterson defeated Herman Betts in the second flight 3 up 2. Prize, Loving Cup. Prize for runner-up, 6 Golf Balls.

The Haskell Golf Club was organized about five years ago, and never since its organization has the members shown as much interest in the game as they have during this tournament.

Due to the success of this tournament, there is talk among the members of having another tournament sometime in August.

Colored School Visits South Ward

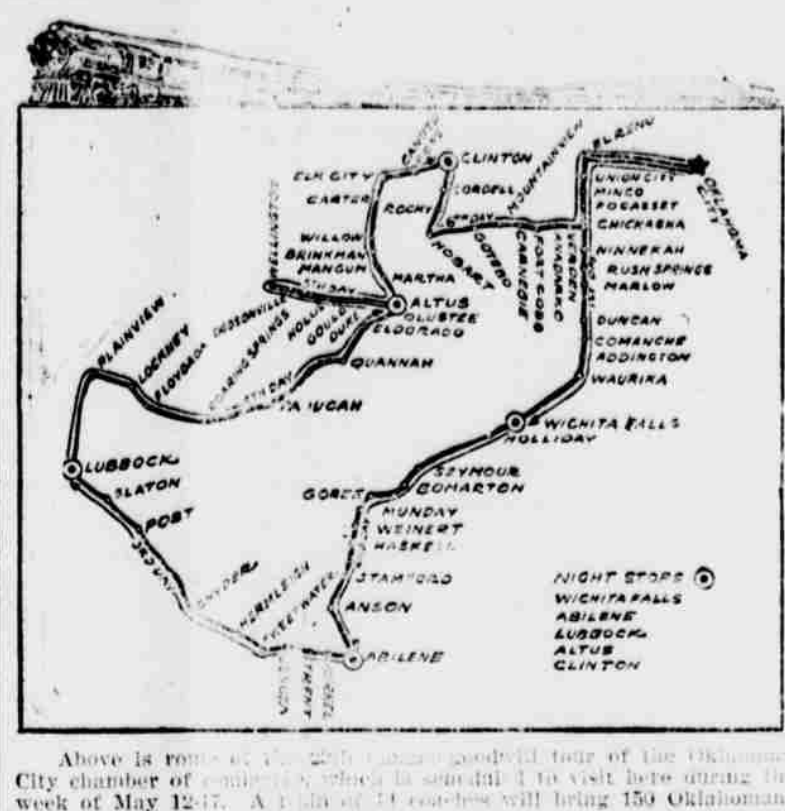

At the suggestion of Mrs. J. M. Crawford, the South Ward P. T. A. voted to invite the entire colored school over to South Ward to see the work this school is doing. Since their school is under Mr. Breedlove's superintendency, we feel it our duty to co-operate, in that we see that the work of the two schools is kept on the same line of training.

Miss Connie Cain, a degree graduate of Prairie View State Teachers College, accompanied her school through each room where about 15 minutes were used in exchanging ideas, posters and songs.

Mrs. Crawford presented each of the colored pupils with all-day suckers, chewing gum and flowers to transplant on their grounds.

We especially want to commend Miss Cain on her excellent training of these boys and girls.

LOUD SPEAKER TO BRING GOOD WILL MESSAGE

Oklahoma City Trippers to Broadcast Message of Friendliness to Entire City on Visit.

A loud speaker—a mechanical one in addition to several of the human kind—will be a feature of the 29th annual Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce Goodwill Tour train which will visit Haskell Tuesday, May 13th at 12:01 p. m. local officials have been advised by M. E. O'Neil, tour chairman.

It is definitely assured that Governor Holloway of Oklahoma and other state and city officials will accompany the party of 150 Oklahoma City business men. O'Neil said.

"Two baggage cars will be filled with souvenirs for distribution to school children and some for grown-ups too," O'Neil said. "There will be two diners on the train and local city and Chamber of Commerce officials will be guests of the Oklahoma City group at dinner at each of the five night stops, Wichita Falls, Abilene, Lubbock, Altus and Clinton.

"The loud speaker will enable speakers to make themselves heard for several blocks and will permit speaking from the train where time or weather may prevent the trippers from going to a meeting place at a distance from the depot. It is being furnished by the Western Electric Company and is guaranteed to call all straying trippers back to the train before leaving time—even should some of them happen to be in jail."

"There will be many members of the party who have nothing to sell. They are coming into southwest Oklahoma and northwest Texas because they realize this entire territory comprises a vast empire of which Oklahoma City, like all the cities along the route of the tour, is a part. They want to become better acquainted with those in all communities in this empire that all may work together in all communities in this empire that all may work together to better advantage in developing it as a whole."

Hardy Grissom of Abilene, was in Haskell last week transacting business.

Success of Monday's Affair Starts Plans for Bigger Trades Day in June.

SEVERE SANDSTORM TUESDAY AFTERNOON IN THIS SECTION

One of the most severe sandstorms of recent years, and one which recalled the "whoppers" of thirty and forty years ago to old-timers, was experienced throughout this section Tuesday afternoon. Extremely high winds were prevalent, but no damage in this immediate section was reported. However, some sections in this territory reported heavy damage from the high winds, with Abilene reporting considerable damage to property.

Sam A. Roberts made a business trip to Wichita Falls and Henrietta last week, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mulkey and children have returned home from a several weeks visit in Plainview and Chillicothe.

Eugene Hunter and Gilley Mulkey made a business trip to Abilene Wednesday.

The first of a proposed series of Trades Days for Haskell was observed last Monday, May 5th, and a crowd estimated at between three and four thousand people literally filled the business section from early morning until late in the afternoon. Business men express themselves as heartily pleased with the success of the first event, and have pledged themselves to co-operate in the next Trades Day, the first Monday in June, and present plans which have been formulated and provide for a number of added features for the day.

A free picture show at the Texas Theatre, which was one of the big attractions last Monday, will also be arranged for on next Trades Day, and if possible, the show will be run continuously throughout the day. Three shows were given last Monday, with the theatre filled to overflowing at each performance.

Band music Monday by the High School Band helped entertain the large crowds—and right here we want to take our hats off to Haskell's junior band, which is one of the best in this section. They will also be on hand on next Trades Day, according to present plans.

Full details of the added events for next Trades Day will be announced next week, and the committee in charge of the matter promises some real worthwhile features in which every person who comes to town on this date may take part without charge and possibly be well rewarded. A fund of between two and three hundred dollars has been underwritten by those participating in the Trades Day for June, and this sum will be expended in making the day both entertaining and profitable for all who are in Haskell on Trades Day.
