

W. J. Jeter of Center Point was transacting business in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Abdon Holt of Lubbock spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Smith of this city.

Ex-Sheriff Parks and wife of Myers community were in the city Saturday shopping.

J. T. Therwanger of Weinert was in the city early Monday morning. He has been farming for many years on a large scale, stock and hog raising connected with his affairs, but here of late he has been directing his attention to poultry raising and milk and butter production and he finds it to be a very profitable side line for the farmer. He is keeping books and his produce sales on butter and eggs will exceed $50.00 per month. He does the milking and looking after the marketing of the produce himself.

Perry J. Stark was a business visitor to the city Saturday. Perry is a good farmer living east of town.

F. M. Hutchins was a business visitor to the city Saturday. He lives on his farm east of town and said he was now eating backbone and spare-ribs. He killed some good hogs last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cooner and son Cecil, who is with a Dallas business college were shopping in the city Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Cooner live near O'Brien.

I. N. Furrh was in the city Saturday shaking hands with friends. He owns a good farm near Cottonwood but his family live in the city of Weinert. He does the hatching on the farm, or he was hatching the last we heard from him.

W. G. Leflar set his expiration date for toward twelve months while he and Mrs. Leflar were shopping in the city Saturday.

Mrs. T. J. Martin and Mrs. W. E. Adams and boys Chester and Preston of Dennis Chapel were shopping in the city Saturday.

I. H. Harrell, one of Foster community's leading farmers enrolled his name for the Free Press for one year. Thank, Mr. Harrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden McDonald of Howard were shopping in the city Saturday.

Mr. R. L. Medford of Howard, while in the city Saturday renewed for the Free Press and Wichita Times.

Mr. R. S. Edwards of the Weinert District was in the city Saturday on business and while here stated that he had moved to his farm where he had erected a new home and would now be at home on his own possessions where he has become one of Haskell county's happy home owners.

Uncle Whitt Williams of the old Whitt Chapel community was in the city Saturday and while here stated that he was through picking cotton and had sown 25 acres in wheat. Uncle Whitt always grows some wheat if the seasons will permit. He says that "the fellows who fail to sow will not reap." He must be right as that is also a Biblical statement.

Floyd J. Gilliland was in the city Saturday and renewed for the Free Press for two years. Floyd is a good farmer who enjoys reading the news from his home paper. Thanks.

G. C. Newsome, gin man and cotton buyer of Weinert was in the city on business Saturday.

L. S. Gay of the Rose Chapel community was a Haskell visitor Saturday and stated that he only had a few bales of cotton to pick and that his flock of White Leghorn hens were doing nicely and that everything on the farm out his way was prosperous.

E. H. Breeden of the Stamford road south of town was in the city on business Saturday.

C. L. Bird and family of the Roberts community were shopping in Haskell Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Baker of Midway were shopping in the city Saturday.

P. A. Henderson, a habitual reader of the home paper who is now living in the splendid community of Ward school district was in the city Saturday on business and while here renewed for the Free Press for two years. Thanks.

J. D. Boone of Weinert was in the city Saturday and while here handed in his renewal for the Haskell Free Press. He is a cattleman of that section and doubtless "in the swim" this year on the excellent market which is now being paid to the cowmen.

J. R. Mitchell of the Pleasant Valley community was in the city Saturday and while here renewed for the Haskell Free Press and the Star-Telegram. Mr. Mitchell is a successful farmer and the senior partner of the firm of Fouts & Mitchell of this city.

B. W. M. S. met at the church as usual on Monday afternoon, with splendid attendance. The president, Mrs. J. M. Gilstrap, presided during the business meeting. Good reports were given by chairmen of standing committees, including an excellent report of the Young Peoples' work. Mrs. W. P. Trice who has been leader of the Sunbeams, was elected leader of the R. A. boys. Another leader will be secured for the Sunbeam Band.

The treasurer reported $72.00 given to The Lottie Moon Xmas offering, for Missions. More than half the collection came through the Young Peoples Organizations.

Mrs. H. R. Whitley was leader of the Royal Service program on "A Comparative Study of the Teachings of Confucius and Christ." Mrs. R. C. Couch had the Bible study on the one hundredth Psalm, which stresses the fact that Christ is King, Creator and Sovereign Ruler. The lesson topic was discussed by Mrs. W. C. Williams. Mrs. Harry Staicup and Mrs. B. M. Whiteker.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wheatley of Roberts were Haskell shoppers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stovall, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Perdue and children and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stovall of this city returned Saturday from Big Spring, where they held a family reunion at the home of their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Eddie King. They were met there by two sons, Ray of New Mexico and Roy of Lockney. They spent Thanksgiving together and report one of the best times during life. A turkey dinner was served by Mrs. King. At the Baptist Church.
The work at the Baptist Church is going in a great way. Large crowds are attending. There are additions at almost every service. The Sunday morning preaching service is an hour for real Bible study. You are urged to bring your Bible and keep your eye on the Scripture while the pastor preaches. The second chapter of Galatians will be studied Sunday.
