Screwworm Eradication Drive Is Underway

Fisher County's drive to raise $1613.00 as its quota to keep the highly successful screwworm eradication work going in the Southwest until July 1, is underway.

Roger Smith, County chairman of the screwworm eradication program, has asked all members of the original committee to serve again and aid in raising this county's emergency quota.

With the highly successful campaign to eradicate the screwworm through the release of sterile flies well over the hump, the Southwestern Animal Health Research Foundation is in need of emergency funds to maintain the program until a new federal appropriation is available according to information received by Smith from Dolph Briscoe, Jr., Uvalde, president of the Foundation.

In his letter to Smith, Briscoe outlined the need as follows:

Contribution from producers of $300,000 to be supplemented by a state appropriation of $250,000 and a federal contribution of $550,000.

To operate the program for the three-month period, April, May, and June. These government funds cannot be spent, however, unless producer money is also made available, the county chairman stressed.

Our quota is to be collected during the period March 29 to April 12, according to Smith. Contributions may be made to the following members of the county committee or may be deposited at the Citizens State Bank in Roby or the First National Bank in Rotan in the Fisher County Screwworm Eradication Fund.

Committee officers, and members are: Smith, Chairman; W. J. (Dub) Harvey, vice-chairman; James Cave, treasurer; Barton Willingham, M. W. Strickland, Richard Floyd, B. K. Newhouse, Sterling Willingham, R. T. Williams, Sam Swann, Glen Webb, Elbert Payne; Jack Willingham, Gordon Davis, E. M. Hicks, and Charlie Nunn.

The screwworm fly has been eradicated from the Southwest, but a barrier of live, sterile flies must be maintained along the U. S.-Mexico border to prevent fertile flies from Mexico reinfesting the U. S. Approximately 100 million sterile flies will be needed each week during April, May and June. If funds are not made available, the Southwest stands to lose the gains that have already been made.

James S. Norman, County agricultural agent, said in the three years the program has been in existence, savings of more than $168 million have been realized by producers. He said 12 cases of screwworm infestations were detected in this county in 1963 and none last year.

Congress is considering a USDA request for $5 million which would make the program financed entirely by the Federal government beginning July 1.

Good Well Expected On Unit 13 Test

No official news was available on the oil test in Unit 13 on property of Mrs. Eva Day at press time, but reports and type of work seen going on Wednesday indicate final stages of flowing well. Unofficial reports are that the well would flow more than allowable production.

The rig will probably be moved in a few days and clearing of the grounds will be done. Mrs. Day has lived at Rotana Inn since the well was spudded.

Probably the most interested local follower of the test has been Mrs. Ida B. Montgomery, whose bedroom is about 80 feet from the rig. Drilling officials offered her the same facilities to get away from drilling noise, but she stated she would enjoy it and could watch the crews better from her window and probably give them much good advice on drilling operations. No one knows just how much advice she gave, but she became fast friends of the crews as she always had a pot of hot coffee when they could run over for a cup.

In addition to this well, almost in her front yard she has production on her farm east of Rotan.

'As It Looks From Here'

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

Washington, D. C. - Senator Bob Bartlett of Alaska recently stated on the Senate Floor that doctors had found a high percentage of toxic poisons in the bodies of Eskimos. The theory is that some migrating fish from the United States and Canada are supposed to account for a part of it. The remainder has been accumulated from caribou and reindeer meat, but certainly neither has been down in this part of the country. It was determined that they fed on perennial grasses which, unlike seasonal grasses, had collected a large amount of pesticide fallout. Since no pesticides have been used within hundreds, and probably thousands of miles, the theory is that, like radiation fallout, residual poisons from pesticides can, in one way or another, travel vast distances.

In 1961, this column quoted Dr. Clarence Cottam, Director of the Welder Wildlife Foundation of Sinton, Texas, who said, "When man in his frenzy to make a quick dollar depletes the productive soil, encourages its erosion or adds poisons to it that, directly or indirectly, endanger plant and animal life, he is jeopardizing his own security and future."

The four basic ingredients for life on earth are soil, water, air and sunshine. Life is curtailed or handicapped to the extent that any of these requirements are made unobtainable or unavailable.

Pesticides, when used wisely and skillfully under responsible practices, have done much to improve agriculture and effect better health.

Improperly and extravagantly used, they are doing much unnecessary damage to wildlife and to human health.

Rachel Carson wrote her book, "Silent Spring," in 1962, but it was obvious a long time ago that the problems of pesticides and insecticides was bound to mount and grow before adequate answers were found.

Again in 1961, this column pointed to the need for research on direct and indirect effects of residual poisons to humans and wildlife for these reasons:

1. Some medical authorities believe cancer and blood diseases, as well as serious nutritional disorders are related to chemical poisons and their carriers.

2. Highly toxic and long lasting pesticides cause numerous deaths of birds, mammals, fish and other organisms beneficial to human life. Tests thoroughly indicate some of these chemicals reduce natural reproductive rates in birds and animals and weaken them to the point where they fall victim to predators and disease.

3. Poisons washing from fields into streams and lakes not only kill fish, birds and mammals but threaten to contaminate surface and subsurface public water supplies.

Residues of poisons build up or accumulate in tissues and can be transmitted to man through the consumption of domestic meat products and wild game as well as milk and raw vegetables.

5. A rapidly increasing list of pests are developing immunity to some chemicals, requiring larger and larger dosages, which creates additional hazards.

Rather exhaustive studies already show:

1. Minimum dosages required to control pests should not be exceeded.

2. More emphasis be placed on the development of selective chemical pesticides which will control specific pests without damage to valuable resources.

3. It is important that emphasis be given to biological control methods. As an example, the sterilization of the male fly by radioactive cobalt has proved successful in the control of screwworm.

As was pointed out in this newsletter in 1961, "The use of poisonous chemicals will become a more acute problem unless, by research, better methods and practices can be developed."

MERLIN

THE MAN OF 1000 MYSTERIES

Exciting Full Evening Show

Awe, skepticism, and bewilderment are just some of the thrills in store for those who attend the performance of "Merlin, The Man of 1000 Mysteries." This fascinating figure of the entertainment world is being brought to

Roby by the Roby Lions Club

The Merlin Show is a colorful, fast-paced performance, using more than a ton of special equipment and presented by a top-notch entertainer who has amused and befuddled audiences for years by, among other things, reading the minds of people right in their own seats in the audience. If you can concentrate, Merlin claims to be able to read your mind and hypnotize you. It is said that he has often hypnotized individuals with a single glance.

Merlin has made a special study of Oriental Mysteries. The Orient has always been considered the home of the mysterious, the unknown and the uncanny. What is the secret of the fabled Hindu Rope Trick? For more than 400 years, strange tales have been told of the mysterious occurrences from India in which a Hindu Mystic takes a long rope, coils it, and sets it on the ground. He ties a knot in one end of the rope. Slowly and mysteriously, the knotted end begins to ascend upward, until it is perhaps 50 feet in the air; the lower end still touching the ground. Then a small boy climbs the rope to the top and disappears. The rope falls limply to the ground. What is the strange secret of this and other mysteries of the Orient? How is it possible for one solid object to pass through another solid object? What is the secret of levitation? Of hypnotism and mind-reading? Many of these secrets have been carefully guarded for hundreds of years. All these and many more are mysteries at which Merlin is a past-master. Curtain time for Merlin, The Man of 1000 Mysteries, is 8:00 P. M. at the Roby High School Auditorium.

He was followed by Mr. Bruce Evans in 1960 and by Mr. Wendel Gideon in 1961. When Mr. Gideon left in 1964, he was replaced by Mrs. Strayhorn.

The band is again under the direction of its founder. This year the band has 79 members which is a 31 member increase in the original number.

Christian Science Service Sunday

The conversion and baptism of Saul of Tarsus, as told in the Acts of the Apostles, plays an important part in the Bible Lesson on "Reality" which will be heard at Christian Science churches Sunday.

Also included will be these lines from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (pp. 324-5): "When the truth first appeared to him in Science, Paul was made blind, and his blindness was felt; but spiritual light soon enabled him to follow the example and teachings of Jesus, healing the sick and preaching Christianity throughout Asia Minor, Greece, and even in imperial Rome. . . . He who has the true idea of good loses all sense of evil, and by reason of this is being ushered into the undying realities of Spirit."

"It's nothing," a neighbor gossiped to her friend across the fence one day, "I just have a sore throat."

Her flippant dismissal of a sore throat unfortunately reflects the way many people feel. But what most people don't realize is that a sore throat is nature's way of warning you of some disorder in your body.

True, a sore throat often accompanies a common cold and will pass in a few days with no further affect. But it can be a symptom of a wide range of diseases, from diphtheria to influenza.

Allergies can cause sore throats. Cold, dry winter air can trigger a raw throat. So can extreme thirst, excessive smoking or mouth breathing. Anything that dries out the throat and cuts off secretions that normally wash dirt away can make your throat sore.

Virus infections of many types can also cause a sore throat. And anyone who has had flu knows that this particular virus disease often causes the throat to hurt.

"Strep throat" is a serious infection. Scarlet fever is, in fact, "strep throat" with a rash. This type of infection begins suddenly, and the rash - if there is to be any - will appear within 72 hours. Fever, headache, chills and a strawberry-

The Rotan Advance

Thursday, March 25, 1965 No. 8

like tongue may be other accompanying symptoms.

The danger in "strep" infections is that they can lead to rheumatic fever and possible heart damage or other side effects. Penicillin, however, can almost always knock the infection if it is diagnosed in time.

If your sore throat persists, see your family doctor. By doing a swab test, he can identify "strep" and other germs that are causing you discomfort.

You can ease the pain of a sore throat temporarily with various preparations and medications. But if the condition continues, don't be a do-it-yourself physician, let your doctor find out what is causing the trouble.

Remember, a sore throat may be your body's signal of distress. Heed the warning, and you may save yourself from serious sickness in the future.

Washable Fabrics Are Popular This Spring

Cottons and cotton blends are among the feminine fabric choices for spring, says Lynn Parks, Texas A&M Extension consumer education specialist.

These washable favorites are brightened by print on texture this spring. Cotton crepes are crinkled for texture and spotted with woven dots. Patterns range from interesting water colors or vivid splashes of warm colors and bold primitive prints.

Knits are bubbled and crimped or woven with both thick and thin yarn to add interesting texture.

Many of the new fabrics have built-in boons for home sewers. Ribbons effects on solids, or tiny patterns and cording on delicate sheers, help create an illusion of hand-sewn trim. Many knits are backed for added firmness and easy handling.

It is important to remember that washable fabrics make washable fashions only if the bindings, facings and trimmings are also safe in soap or detergent suds. Some trims benefit from prelaunders before sewing in order to avoid subsequent shrinkage, Miss Parks says.

Plans Made For Clothing Workshop

A second workshop on clothing construction skills is being planned by the County H. D. Agent, Mrs. Alice Ballenger. This workshop is being planned because a number of women have requested that the workshop just concluded be repeated for those unable to attend the first one.

The workshop includes methods in putting in sleeves, putting on collars, making tailored buttonholes, covering belts, putting in zippers and many other construction details important in home sewing.

A minimum number of six women must be enrolled and participating in order to conduct the workshop. Anyone interested in enrolling and participating in this workshop must contact the Home Demonstration Agents' office in the courthouse in Roby by April 2. Office phone number is 2181 in Roby.

The workshop will be one afternoon meeting where material and equipment are discussed. Following this the workshop will be four full days for construction of a garment. Workshop days are not consecutive, but will be only two days in each week.

It is most important that those desiring to participate in the work-

Carrier costs only this much more than "price" brand air conditioning

Just because Carrier is the recognized leader in air conditioning, some people have the mistaken idea it costs more. Truth is, you can have world-famous Carrier air conditioning in your home for about the same price you might pay for ordinary, compromise brands! And remember, we are air conditioning specialists, not general merchandisers. Our experienced installers know the job, do it right, and back it up with a written guaranty of performance. The result: through the years you enjoy the low operating costs that only fine equipment plus expert installation can provide.

The track team took top honors at the annual Double Mountain Relays held in Rotan March 13, thus adding two new trophies to the collection in R. H. S.

Three trophies were given at the meet. Two trophies featuring the symbol of the sport, winged feet, were awarded the winner of the 140 and Mile relays. The grand prize, a larger trophy, topped by a runner, was reserved for the winner of the over-all meet.

Interesting Facts About Rotan Schools

When Rotan was first established in 1907, the first school buildings were made of wood and were grouped around the "Grammar School Hill."

The first buildings were small and primitive. Some children sat on benches composed of two boxes spanned by a board. Some sat on just boxes. In 1909, Rotan constructed a three-story, brick building on, perhaps, the highest and rockiest knoll in town. This building of some 13 rooms, including boiler room and auditorium, cost $21,000.00. Architects of the time seemed to want to place the school buildings in a place easily seen. Also involved was much waste space and expense in such things as, in this case, three large halls, big enough for at least 4 or 5 classrooms and, outside, heavy pillars for decoration only. In 1925, the architects had made an important step forward by learning not to waste space. This was shown in the construction of another, three-story building, but with the same disadvantages as the first three stories, instead of one.

This building, however, cost much more than the old one and provided two more classrooms. This is now the high school department. Later, the old City Hall, which housed the primary department, was torn down and the two modern elementary buildings were added to the physical facilities. Other buildings which were added include

Interscholastic League Work Continues

Much work is being put into preparations for Interscholastic League events.

Students who have been working on debate are David Canfil, Bruce Baugh, Gerald Ashbrook, Sonja Ackers, and Linda Wallace. These students have been gathering information on the subject of Nuclear Weapons Control. They are coached by Miss Josie Baird.

Competing in shorthand will be Judy Byrd and Beverly Randolph. Students practicing typing skills are Myra Burrow, Mary Lou Neely, Zana Thompson, Raford Hargrove, Mike Thornton, and Bob Witherspoon. Mr. Robert Witherspoon is sponsor for these events. From the students interested in typing, three participants and two alternates will be chosen to compete in the district meet.

Mrs. Whit Clark has been giving tests in spelling to Argentina Velez and Rebecca Crawford, who will be entered in this event. Students signed up to enter ready-writing are Carroll Patton, Sherry Edwards, Janet Kelley, Mary McDonald, John Witherspoon, David Canfil, Larry Van Loon, Joe Kelley, and Pooky Hale.

Trying out for poetry interpretation are Sheryl Moore, Linda Wallace, Sonja Ackers, Glenda Cornelious, Robert Carter, Floyd Garcia, and Steve Edwards. Those in prose reading are John Witherspoon, Candy White, Sharon Dorman, Janet Kelley, and Sherry Edwards. These students have read their selections to Mrs. Yantis. The play cast which consists of Mike Thornton, Jimmy Heathington, Jesse Hudnall, and Susan Weatherman, has been rehearsing every day. The play, prose reading, and poetry interpretation are coached by Mrs.

Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe

No matter how you look at it, this car makes a lot of sense.

If you're interested in value (and who isn't), the eleven features above give you a good idea why more intermediate-size car buyers are thinking Chevelle.

If you're looking for a wide power choice, Chevelle starts out with a standard 120-hp Six, an ideal city performer. After that you may order from a variety of engines that turn it into an even greater highway performer.

Room? Large door openings. Wide curved side windows for extra shoulder room. Great front and rear leg room. Those four, five or six passengers have it made. And so do you. Chevelle may seat like a big car but it handles like a smaller car.

Comfort? Thick wall-to-wall carpeting in Malibu models. Foam-cushioned seats. Easy-to-read instrument panel. The whole interior looks like those in cars costing far more.

Come on down to our showroom and take a drive soon. Chevelle begins to make even more sense after you've gone a couple of miles.

Partnership

...means a joint interest. But in family life it means more than that. It means planning together, working together, going together and doing together... It means sharing the finer things of life. The husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. The wife is to be devoted to her husband as the church to Christ. It takes more than thrills in courtship to avoid spills in marriage. Be he governor or gravel shoveller, he is happiest who finds his happiness in his home and in his church. This is proof of a truly great partnership.
