Rebels Gain on Vets In Little League Play

	Won	Lost
VETS	9	3
REBELS	3	4
YANKEES	6	6
P. PEDDLERS	1	11

As a result of last week's action, the Vets continue to remain in first place with the Rebels close behind, one game back. Hank Day gained a stronger hold on the batting lead. Sidney Hariman pushed further ahead in the home run derby. Larry Lee, Larry Dickson, and Walter Hargrove stayed in close contention as leading pitchers.

In a makeup game last Wednesday, the Rebels defeated the Prune Peddlers 9-3. Emilio Yanez was the winner for the Rebels, limiting the Prune Peddlers to two hits.

Thursday, the Rebels beat the Yankees 10-7. Sidney Hariman led his team to victory with two and three run homers, his sixth and seventh of the year. Hariman was also the winning pitcher. The Yankees were not without their sluggers though, as Steve Nowlin knocked off his first homer of the year and Hank Day went three for four.

The Vets blasted the Prune Peddlers Friday, 15-5. Walter Hargrove headed the batting statistics with his third and fourth home runs of the year, one a grand slam and the other a two run homer. It was not a one man effort though, as Larry Lee, Ronnie Martin, and Mike Heron all collected two hits. Lee picked up the win, his fourth against no setbacks.

Back-to-back home runs boosted the Rebels to a 6-0 shutout over the Vets Monday. In the fourth inning with two teammates on base, Chico Garcia belted his fourth homer of the season. Three pitches later, the next batter Sidney Hariman also blasted a four-bagger. It was number eight for Hariman which tied an all time Rotan Little League record for the most home runs in a season.

Tuesday the Yankees blanked the Prune Peddlers 20-0. The Yank's Hank Day hit his fifth home run which was one of his three hits in four at bats. Hank Martin and Norville Kennedy both had two for four performances at the plate. Steve Nowlin and Pee Wee Wynn teamed to not allow a Prune Peddler hit. The victory went to Nowlin. The top ten hitters remain the same for the third straight week but averages and positions again have changed:

H. Day (Y) .616; H. Hariman (Y) .483; S. Hariman (R) .472; Steve Nowlin (Y) .401; B. Roa (V) .385; W. Hargrove (V) .367; C. Garcia (R) .333; N. Kennedy (Y) .308; J. McCall (PP) .300; E. Yanez (R) .296.

Burleson Opposes Basis Of Reapportionment

In a statement before the Committee on the Judiciary on June 23, Congressman Omar Burleson of Anson again strongly protested the Supreme Court Decision regarding reapportionment of State Legislatures. The Committee is holding hearings on a proposal for an amendment to the Constitution that nothing in the Constitution shall prohibit a State, having a bicameral legislature, from apportioning the membership of one house of its legislature on factors other than population.

A similar statement was made last year by Burleson, but the effort is now being continued by Members of Congress such as Omar Burleson, who have introduced legislation on the subject.

In commenting on the present effort, Burleson stated that since our own Legislature and many other State Legislatures either have or are in the process of reapportioning themselves, he felt that the current move, even if successful, would not accomplish what they would like to have seen accomplished last year, in those places where action has already been taken. The Congressman continued, "Be this as it may, the principle remains and should be protected. It is fundamental to the well being of the minority, which in this case is the more rural areas, that they have representation in the State Legislature on a basis other than population alone. I strongly feel that our State Senate and any other State Senate should not have to reapportion itself, not taking into consideration a community of interest and that of the people living in less populous areas.

The annual Turnbull Reunion will be held in Rotan at the VFW Hall, Sunday, July 4.

Bonanza Day Proves Very Successful

Bonanza Day proved very popular in Rotan last Thursday according to Tye Harrison, president of Rotan Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the events.

Harrison has called a meeting of directors of the C of C early next week to lay plans for the July event. This will be Thursday, July 22.

Most merchants report good response to their Bonanza Day Specials and much interest, and plans call for a still better event in July.

Announcements on this will appear in the Advance.

'Head Start' Flag To Fly At Postoffice

Mayor Joe D. Burk designed Wednesday, June 30, to mark the launching of Project "Head Start." A specially designed Head Start flag has been raised over the Post Office Building in tribute to the many businessmen, doctors, lawyers, housewives, teachers, nurses and volunteers who are making project Head Start possible in our community.

On the same day, in a ceremony at the White House, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, honorary chairman of Project Head Start, received from Sargeant Shriver, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, a flag symbolizing the thousands of flags which will be flown across the country to mark Head Start day. OEO officials say that it is planned later to award flags to individual centers on the basis of their achievement and merit in attaining the required standards and objectives of the program.

Project Head Start is administered by the Office of Economic Opportunity. It is designed to provide more than one-half million children with an eight-week's preschool training, to prepare them for entry into school in the fall. They will literally be given a "Head Start."

The children will be enrolled in more than 13,500 Child Development Centers across the country using the services of nearly 40,000 professionals. More than 42,000 neighborhood residents will assist the professional staff in paid capacities. Half a million volunteers are being called for to fill approximately 100,000 non-paying jobs. WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT, THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL, THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN INALIENABLE RIGHTS, AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS, THAT TO SECURE THESE RIGHTS GOVERNMENTS ARE INSTITUTED AMONG MEN. WE SOLEMNLY PUBLISH AND DECLARE, THAT THESE COLONIES ARE AND OF RIGHT OUGHT TO BE FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES AND FOR THE SUPPORT OF THIS DECLARATION, WITH A FIRM RELIANCE ON THE PROTECTION OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE, WE MUTUALLY PLEDGE OUR LIVES, OUR FORTUNES AND OUR SACRED HONOR.

It's time to celebrate! It's time to rededicate yourself to God and Country! It's Independence Day! The Spirit of 1776 still lives. The right to freedom of worship must prevail. It is the Fourth of July!

The influence of Washington, the "Father of Our Country," is felt in every forward step America takes. The Flag, the Stars and Stripes, waves over a loyal and sacrificing people. The Eagle for strength and elevation of thought and purpose is affixed on our coin to show our exclusive right. All this reminds us that a Free People had to learn to be a united people. Out of the many came one nation... E Pluribus Unum.

The great Document above, The Declaration of Independence, was adopted on that memorable day. This noble experiment of government, "of the people, by the people, for the people," guarantees every citizen of our country "certain inalienable rights... Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness." We have no ambition for conquest and military glory. We want no loot. But we mean to have our freedom and independence, whatever the cost. This is Independence Day!

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU
Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

NEWS

County Agricultural Agent Texas A. & M. College Extension Service

Herbicides can be useful tools for controlling weeds if they are properly applied. But improper application can cause crop damage and lawsuits from neighbors.

To get satisfactory results from herbicides, follow the directions on the label as approved by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

These directions should be followed exactly.

To avoid chemical wind drift onto susceptible broadleaf plants, make application only when wind velocity is below 10 mph. All herbicide users should have some type of wind gauge in the field so they can know when conditions become dangerous.

Amine salt or low volatile formulations are fastest. They do not vaporize and drift as much as the high volatile formulations.

Here are three rules for applying herbicides:

1. Use chemicals only on crops for which they are recommended.
2. Use only the quantity called for on the label.
3. Apply the chemicals only at time recommended on the label.

Texas A&M University specialists report that the greatest problems with herbicides are occurring where inexperienced operators are making applications. They suggest that even on extremely small plots, great care be taken when applying chemicals.

Nuisance pond weeds or "moss" is a major problem interfering with fishing and fish production in many ponds and tanks. The problem of catching more weeds than fish can be remedied if proper practices are followed.

Weed control should begin at the very start of pond or tank construction. Unwanted weeds are most prevalent in tanks with an excessive amount of shallow water. If the water is shallow enough for sunlight to penetrate to the bottom, then unwanted weeds are sure to grow.

To overcome this problem, new tanks should be constructed so that there is very little water with a depth less than three or four feet.

If the pond has already been constructed, two other weed control practices may be used effectively.

One method used to control weeds that grow beneath the surface of the water is proper fertilization.

Commercial inorganic fertilizer used to increase fish production can also help keep weeds under control by increasing plankton production. Plankton, a bloom in the water, may retard plant growth by reducing the amount of sunlight that penetrates the water.

However, if these plants are already a problem, chemical herbicides probably offer the most satisfactory means of destroying them. A large number of chemical herbicides are effective in controlling all different types of pond weeds. For this reason, it is essential that the weed or weeds to be killed are identified and the proper herbicides applied in the correct amounts.

Most herbicides will not cause apparent harm to fish, livestock or humans, of the necessary precautions are taken. Because of this, it is mandatory that the instructions on the label of herbicides be read and strictly followed.

A new bulletin giving aquatic plant identification, characteristics, and control suggestions, is available for the asking, at the county extension office.

'As It Looks From Here'

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

Washington, D. C. -- Great Moments in American History: Columbus refuses to turn back. The Mayflower lands at Plymouth Rock. A steelerment starts on the James River. The Colonies break with England. 'Tis the "Star Spangled Banner." The defenders of the Alamo answer Santa Anna. Our Flag is raised over Alaska. Gold seekers rush to California. American women get the right to vote. Two Americans orbit the earth together.

On July 4, 1776, America declared its independence from the British Crown. Of all events affecting our Nation, this is the greatest.

The Central Eastern Seaboard of our country, of which Washington is the centre, is full of history and historical reminders.

From the crest of the Blue Ridge Mountains to Gettysburg, to Philadelphia, to the Capitol in Washington, Virginia and Chesapeake Bay, is history itself -- Jamestown, Williamsburg in Virginia, and Fort McHenry at Baltimore.

On the night of September 13, 1814, Francis Scott Key, whose home stands on the District of Columbia side of the Potomac River, bridge named after him, wrote the "Star Spangled Banner." Our Flag and the song it inspired are inseparably woven into the American fiber. It was the Garrison Flag of Fort McHenry, still flying defiantly after 25 hours of bombardment of the Baltimore fortress by the British, which led Francis Scott Key to write the poem, since set to music, that is now our National Anthem.

As a young Washington lawyer, Francis Scott Key had sailed under a flag of truce to the British Fleet in the Chesapeake Bay. His mission was for the release of a friend, Dr. William Beanes, who had been captured by the British after burning the Capitol and the White House. Although Beanes was released, the truce team headed by Mr. Key was detained by the British during the attack on Fort McHenry in Baltimore.

In his anxiety for the outcome of the battle, Key remained on the ship's deck all night. When "by the dawn's early light" he saw the Flag waving, his pent up emotions gave way and he expressed himself in the immortal lines.

The report goes that he was unable to put all his thoughts on paper during those turbulent moments, but finished that night when he had safely returned to Baltimore.

A few days later, without title or the Author's name, it was printed in handbill form and distributed on the streets, in the shop and hotel lobbies.

Soon the lines were being sung to the tune of an English ballad popular at the time. Its name, "To Anacron in Heaven." Slowly the song grew in popular affection, and in 1931, President Hoover signed the bill making it our official National Anthem.

The original manuscript of "The Star Spangled Banner" is enshrined in the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore, which paid $26,400 for it. It was purchased from the Estate of a Henry Walters, a citizen of Baltimore. The huge original Fort McHenry Flag, which measures 42 by 30 feet, is displayed in the new Museum of History and Technology in Washington, D. C., and Fort McHenry is a National Shrine.

To remember and appreciate these incidents of our heritage is to exercise our patriotism. On this Fourth of July we might remember too how Daniel Webster described our Constitutional Government, "A more florid edifice than Greece or Rome ever knew."

"Certainly I will be with thee" (Exodus 3) was God's assurance to Moses before he led the children of Israel in their escape from Egypt. How Moses continued to rely on God's power in the wilderness will be brought out in Christian Science services this Sunday. The subject of the lesson is "God." Included in the readings will be this passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Ed-

Girl Scouts To Attend Sweetwater Party

In a recent letter from our District Advisor, Fane Downs, all Rotan Girl Scouts, including Brownies, were invited to a party honoring two visitors from Colombia. This party will be at the First Methodist Church, Sweetwater, on July 6th, at 10:30 A. M. Leaders are also invited to attend this informal event. Scouts and leaders should wear uniforms if they have them.

This will be a fine opportunity for the Scouts to meet and hear these visitors and I do hope all that possibly can, will attend this party.

ELECTRIC POWER-

needed . . .

Motivated only by the needs of the consumer, cooperative electric systems are proud of their efficiency and ingenuity.

Recently, a co-piloted a helicopter to set the 28 poles, weighing 1100 pounds each, and string two miles of heavy wire. What would have normally been a five-week construction job was accomplished in two days, and a new area has been supplied with reliable electric service.

Providing scattered consumer-members with electric power often requires extra effort, but we know from first-hand experience that bringing electricity to a new area benefits the entire community.

SCS Information On Brush Control

Initial steps taken to control the undesirable brush species are only a beginning when trying to overcome the brush invasion problem. Many methods of brush control are used today, but none are actually a control, but only a suppressor to the brush invasion problem.

Brush control requires maintenance at timely intervals in order to fulfill its purpose. It is known that following any method of control, on any type of brush in our area, that resprouting of the brush takes place from two to five or more years after the initial steps of control. If this resprouting is not properly controlled, the brush problem will become greater in a few years than it was before initial control.

The most common brush problem in our area is the invasion of the mesquite and shin oak. An aerial spraying program is an excellent type of maintenance for these two types of brush. Follow up spraying about every four or five years after initial control, and continued over a period of years as needed, is an excellent method of control. If regrowth is not adequate to justify aerial spraying at this interval hand application of chemicals or hand grubbing would be good.

In all cases, good grazing management practices should be included in a brush control program. Pastures should be deferred at least three months after follow up applications of chemicals and if possible, the entire growing season of the grass following control. Range proper use should be obtained every year. An overgrazed range reduced the vigor of the grasses, allowing more brush to invade. A healthy range is fighting the brush invasion as hard as the person applying the brush control measures.

If you have a brush problem, either or initial control, or developing a follow up and maintenance program, technical assistance is available to you through the Rotan office of the Soil Conservation Service, which assists the Upper Clear Fork Soil Conservation District.

Housing Credit For Senior Citizens

Elderly people, if they live in rural areas, need not give up the idea of building, buying or repairing their home on credit.

This word comes from George M. Dorman, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor, serving Fisher County, Texas.

Dorman said citizens who are 62-years and over, living in a rural community of 2,500 or less, may be eligible for a 33-year loan bearing 4 percent interest to buy an older home or build a new one.

The FHA supervisor said elderly residents may also be eligible for smaller loans for home repairs.

He pointed out the increasing demand in small towns for rental units designed to meet the housing needs of older folks.

The Farmers Home Administration can loan direct funds to non-profit organizations for independent living.

Funds for construction of senior citizen rental housing units may also be provided by private investors with FHA guaranteeing repayment.

This fiscal year through April 30 Farmer Home Administration has advanced $5,586,876.00 to senior citizens for construction, buying and repairing of individual homes. The total loaned is up 17 percent over a similar period last fiscal year.

Over 1,200 elderly people in the 30 states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands were able to get loans for new or improved housing through the senior citizen rural housing program of Farmers Home Administration.

Another $1,248,510 was advanced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture agency for the construction of rental housing units for senior citizens during the same period, July 1, 1964 through April 30, 1965.

senior citizens housing loan program offers citizens, 62-years and older, an opportunity to have housing suited to their needs in the community in which they have spent their working years." Dorman said. This program also stimulates the local economy by providing jobs for workers engaged in the construction industry and customers for local trades and services."

In 1962 Congress authorized Farmers Home Administration to make direct loans and insured loans to individuals and corporations to finance rental housing for the elderly. FHA direct loans for senior citizen rental housing in rural communities bear 3.75 percent interest, with up to 50 years for repayment.

But loans insured by the agency for rental housing currently bear 5.75 percent interest. Borrowers have up to 40 years to repay.

Additional information about the senior citizen rural housing loan program is available at the Farmers Home Administration office, 202 Snyder Avenue, Rotan.

"Fasten your seat belts, please," is a customary warning for airline passengers. But, it's an admonition for motorists, too.

Your chances of being killed in an accident increase five times if you are thrown from the vehicle. Using your seat belt can keep you safe. Accident studies show that use of seat belts can eliminate at least one-third of all automobile injuries.

Seat belts are the best low-cost safety available for a car, yet many people fail to install and use them.

One person may use "claustrophobia" as an excuse for not using seat belts. He may tell you, "If the car should catch fire or submerge, I wouldn't want to be trapped inside."

What this person doesn't realize is that less than one percent of all injury-producing accidents involve fire or submersion. By helping you remain conscious for quick escape, seat belts improve your chances of surviving. They can be unfastened instantly with one hand.

And anyone thinking seat belts are strictly for the speedsters, is sadly mistaken. More than half of accidents causing injury or death involve speeds of less than 40 miles per hour. Seat belts offer the same protection at low speeds that they give on the race track.

"I never take the car on trips," a man said recently, "So why should I use seat belts?"

Here's why three out of four traffic deaths occur within 25 miles of home. Seat belts give protection in town as well as on the highway.

This year one of every four cars, according to statistics, will be involved in a traffic accident. True, it is an important as ever - if not more so - to buckle your seat belt. They will reduce deaths and injuries.

Before you turn the ignition key in your car, fasten your seat belt. And if you ride with someone else, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Corley and daughter Karen of Haskell visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts Sunday.
