Austin — The waning days of summer vacation activities are attracting more and more Texas parents and their children out into the wonderful outdoors for a last fling at fun in the sun before the re-opening of school starts confining them to home.

This is a time of increased exposure to the hazards of accidents and unexpected emergencies which inevitably come with accelerated outdoor activity.

Of the approximately 70,000 people who die each year in Texas, about 10 percent die as a result of accidents. Doubtless, many are saved by prompt emergency care, but many more could be saved.

It's not at all uncommon to find that many people throw all responsibility on the on the physician or rescue squad personnel who respond to emergency calls, undertaking none themselves except to telephone for help.

Many times they simply do not know what to do; other times they are too excited to think or act wisely. The urgency of the situation may lead people to give grossly improper care for burns, internal injuries or extensive lacerations and abrasions.

The person telephoning for help should not rely solely upon the physician or ambulance attendant to give him advice; he should find out by asking directly what to do until help arrives.

In most situations the telephone conversation need not be rushed; there is time, for instance, for careful directions in cases of hear attack, burns or head injury. Even though the caller has never had a course in first aid or has forgotten what he has learned, he can still obtain directions that may save a life.

"Hurry cases" of first aid include cessation of breathing, severe bleeding and poisoning. In such cases a delay of even a few minutes could result in death. Rescue squads save extremely few people who have stopped breathing unless someone has given artificial respiration or resuscitation on the spot.

Teaching Texans to react promptly and efficiently in emergencies is one of the prime goals of the "medical self-help" courses conducted around the state by local medical societies, local health departments and civil defense organizations.

The important rule to keep in mind when summoning medical help or an ambulance in event of serious injury of sudden illness is this: ask what first aid measures you should take.

Minimum Wage On Farm Work Will Boost Cost of Living

Memphis, Aug. 24 — (Special) — Higher costs not only for farm labor but for the goods and services cotton producers buy would result from extension of the minimum wage to agriculture, the president of the National Cotton Council warned today.

"It is most distressing that so many rank-and-file farmers are not aware that they are facing loss of their minimum wage exemption," G. C. Cortright, Jr., Rolling Fork, Miss., declared in a letter to cotton producer groups urging opposition to the Roosevelt Bill — H. R. 10518.

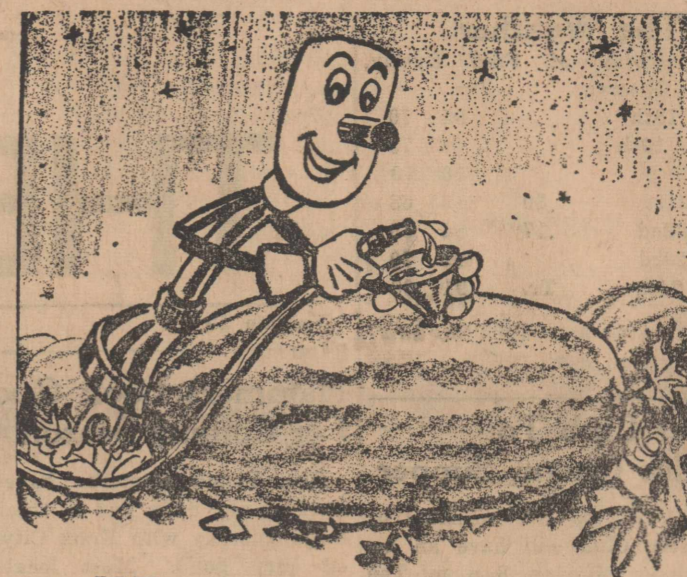

This bill, Mr. Cortright explained, has been reported by the Hous Labor Committee. It would increase the minimum wage to $1.75 per hour and extend coverage to farm workers, workers employed by gins, and to those not now covered who work in warehouses, compresses, and cottonseed crushing mills. The only exemption which would be retained would be the overtime exemption for gins.

"The bill," he continued, "brings all seasonal or temporary farm workers (or those who work 12 consecutive weeks or less for an employer) under coverage of the Act.

"While it does exempt 'other' farm labor if less than 300 man-days of labor are performed on a farm in the preceding calendar quarter, those employing four or more people obviously would be covered.

"The minimum rate for farm labor would be $1.15 an hour from July 1, 1966, to July 1, 1968, and $1.25 thereafter. With the national minimum of $1.75 per hour, however, the $1.25 rate wouldn't prevail very long. It would only be a question of time before the national minimum would be made to apply to all farm workers. Moreover, political pressures tend to force up the minimum at regular intervals."

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. McNaron Larry and Janice, Abilene visited Saturday and Sunday with his father W. W. McNaron.

Who put the WATER in the MELON?

When there's plenty of rainfall . . . nature puts the water in the melon. But when the dry years come, the Midwest Electric Cooperative shares this honor . . . with water for irrigation pumped with electric power.

Over the state the crops may vary . . . but the ubiquitous watermelon is likely to be found most anywhere, hunting water. In areas served by the member-owned Midwest Electric Cooperative, when nature fails to deliver the rain, electricity takes over, pumping the water for irrigation.

The tender, juicy watermelon, while not the most important, must be the most delicious contribution made by the Midwest Electric Cooperative, Helping Texas Grow.

'As It Looks From Here'

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

Washington D. C. — This column has on several occasions discussed the rising rate of crime in the United States. As a matter of fact, it is on the rise all over the world. Recently the president of the American Bar Association said, "The rising crime rate in the United States is the Nation's number one domestic problem."

There are all sorts of reasons advanced by the experts for this alarming condition. The sociologists, the psychologists, and even the official view of our Government, lays the blame chiefly to economic conditions. They have even said that unless the plight of those in low economic status is relieved by Government action, we can only expect crime, riots and uprising. From all indications, this has been a go-ahead sign to the agitators.

The F.B.I. shows that the rate of serious crimes in this Country is increasing six times as fast as the population. On the average, a murder, forceable rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary and automobile theft occurs every 15 seconds. The annual increase in these serious crimes is 11 percent.

The figures also show that young people are involved in a great disproportionate share of serious crimes. Those under 18 accounted for 48 percent of the arrests last year. In this last statistic there is something rather significant. It is that the larger part of this 48 percent represent repeated offenders. To put it another way, 95 percent of our young people never become involved in law violations. This being the case, there is something radically wrong with our judicial system. The Courts have yielded to the influence of the reformers and the "do-gooders" to the extent that in many places there is no fear or respect of the law. When 76 percent of all persons arrested last year were repeaters in crime, it is obvious that something is lacking.

Many judges in the Lower Courts are forced to release criminals because of the ruling of Appeals Courts in reversing cases.

In Washington, D. C., a Judge recently said, "I was most fearful that in releasing the accused I was making possible the rape of another innocent District resident." Sure enough, it happened, not only once but three times in the space of the following ten days. The Judge said

The above group of people have two things in common — they all have at one time or another been residents of the Roby vicinity and are all related to the O'Briants of Fisher County. Hints To Make School Starting Easy Task

The story goes that a neighbor told an apprehensive young mother whose daughter was entering the first grade, "Don't worry, dear, you're not losing your child; you're gaining a P.T.A."

Be that as it may, starting to school can be trying experience, for mother and child. But experts advise that by following certain rules the transition for both can be made easier, and even enjoyable.

The burden of preparing for school and helping the firstgrader over unfamiliar hurdles naturally falls on mother. To help make her task easier, here is a compilation of helpful hints.

Long before school starts, take your daughter (or son) shopping for new clothes, school bag and other supplies. Let her help in the choices - it will give her confidence in making decisions. If she is not familiar with the school, take her there for a visit before opening day. Refer to it as "her school." In every way possible, build excitement and anticipation in the child.

If you accompany her the first day, be casual and confident. Any display of nerves, apprehension, or tears on your part will almost certainly frighten the beginning student. If you are tired, or your head aches, take two Bayer aspirin tablets. By the time your little darling come home, you'll be refreshed for the next round of activity.

Mother's home routine will be drastically altered when daughter starts to school. What used to be a free-and-easy schedule must now be planned to accommodate school hours, possible car pool service, and other duties. After school activities for the first grader, either at school or home, must be planned as the student explores new worlds and relationships.

Highlights At Cross Roads

Cross Roads Baptist Church enjoyed a glorious week this past week in revival, with Bro L. L. Trott, Area Missionary, bringing marvelous heart warming messages each morning at 11:00 and each evening at 8:00 o'clock.

We had many visitors from all over the area and each one was a blessing to the church and its members.

We had an average of 47 in prayer groups each evening before the services.

The theme for the week was "Christ Is The Answer" with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Copeland directing the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Turbert Moore came for membership to the church, we pray the Lord's richest blessings will be upon them.

Our very dedicated pastor, Bro. D. S. (Bud) Moore and family are always ready to do the Lord's work in helping anyone, anywhere, any time.

Bro. Moore will be in revival this week in Melrose, New Mexico. Pray for him as he continues trying to win lost souls to the Lord and enlisting those that are out of service.

We take this opportunity to cordially invite everyone seeking a friendly place of worship and fellowship to visit us. Our doors and hearts are always open to you.

"Remember the Sabbath, to keep it holy," Ex. 20:8. Take your family to church with you Sunday.

Letter From Lotief

On Tuesday September 7th, 1965. Every good citizen should vote against that constitutional amendment to increase The Texas Senate from 31 to 39 members. This means more cost and higher taxes on home owners, and all other taxpayers of Texas. Such an office rents more help for nothing. It will heap only the present senators to keep their seat at our expense. This is useless - an election on an off year and on wrong day of the week - Tuesday. So the people won't vote.

Texas already has 181 members in both Houses. Speaking from experience as an ex-member, I honestly do believe that 100 members are enough to transact all the state's business if it is properly conducted and fairly presided over by real experienced honest, and fairminded men. There is no valid reason to hold this election and spend over 1/4 million dollars just for the sole benefit of the present senate to hold on to their easy job. We need new blood in Austin. We need men and women who have the taxpayers at heart. While we have some good people in legislature but not enough from West Texas. Be sure to vote against this greedy, amendment for the protection of you and your family. And remember your higher insurance rates, it was all done under your maker's nose in Austin. Please vote no and protect your home.

CLOWNING AROUND—Margaret Trenkler, whose father is Freddie Trenkler, the Bouncing Ball Clown of Ice Capades, will celebrate her third birthday at the 1965 State Fair of Texas. Margaret's birthday is October 16, which always comes during the State Fair—and makes Margaret its honorary birthday girl. Racketeers Swindle On Medicare Plan

An amazing and reprehensible situation has come to light in our state in recent weeks, and all Texans must be advised about it so that all of us can help combat it.

Racketeers posing as representatives of the Social Security Administration have defrauded several elderly Americans by pretending to sign them up for Medicare coverage. At least two of these frauds were in our state.

Two elderly Texas ladies have been cheated by swindlers pretending to sell them Medicare insurance. One lady lost $100 to the con-man.

Of course, Medicare is not for sale, and neither is any other portion of Social Security coverage.

Here is how the racket has been working:

The crook shows up at the home of an elderly person and introduces himself as a Social Security field agent. He says he is there to explain the new Medicare program.

After giving the intended victim some authentic information about the law and showing him some official brochures, which anyone can get at a Social Security office, the fast-talking crook says he will be glad to take care of the "enrollment paperwork."

He then says that a special discount on Medicare insurance "premiums" can be had by paying in advance to him right then. If he succeeds in getting any money, he simply pockets it and disappears quickly.

This is an unspeakably vicious racket. All Texans must join in foiling these swindlers. (No bona fide Social Security worker ever will try to collect cash for Medicare enrollment.)

No Texan should make any cash payment to anybody who claims to be "selling" Medicare.

If you see or hear of one of these crooks, call your police or sheriff's office and, if possible, the nearest FBI office. Posing as a Social Security official is a Federal crime punishable by up to three years in jail.

Mrs. Katherine Willingham visited with Mrs. Bertie Burrow over the weekend. They attended the rodeo in Roby Thursday night.

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The Industrial Team selling a community to industry

WTU area development representatives are available to assist growth-conscious communities in planning economic development programs

When a community prepares itself to attract new industry, a strong industrial team is essential. Industry representatives want all the facts. And only informed team members can sell a community's story accurately plus solving the industry's problems on a new location.

Team members must be thoroughly and completely informed on labor . . . taxes . . . utilities . . . transportation . . . sites . . . insurance . . . city commitments . . . and financing . . . thus indicating a minimum of seven members on the team.

As a PATTERN FOR PROGRESS a permanent Industrial Team is a definite requirement in a community's economic development program.

WTU's area development representatives have information about the organization and operation of an industrial team. This service is available to growth-conscious communities on request through your local WTU manager.

It is no Secret...

One of the great joys that children have is in telling a secret. This is one way that secrets have of becoming known.

However IT IS NO SECRET what God can do for you. This was never intended to be a secret, for God wants all to know the good news.

Isaiah said: "The Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings

...to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

Attend church regularly and hear God's word preached.

is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without living in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long endure and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of the world and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and praise the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the Church alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
