Slight Relief From Bitter Weather Seen

Fisher County citizens are enjoying a slight warmup at press time Wednesday, following over two weeks of real winter weather.

This is a wonderful season for farmland, small grain and rangeland, but many farmers have some cotton left in fields. An estimated 2,000 bales is to be ginned yet in Rotan.

This was one of the latest gathering years in recent history.

Cotton Grading Report Given

The U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service reported 14,823 cotton samples graded last week. B. B. Manly, Jr., In-Charge of the Classing Office said there was very little cotton harvested during the week. About 1/2 of the samples classed were carried over from the previous week, while the remaining 1/2 was what was accumulated on gin yards and ginned during the week-end and the first part of the week.

The Grades of District 2 cotton dropped last week. White grades dropped from 7 to 3 per cent of the total, light spotted qualities declined from 77 to 70 per cent, spotted cotton increased from 15 to 25 per cent and tinged cotton increased to 2 percent.

Predominant grades last week were: Midding Light Spotted, 9 per cent; Strict Low Midding Light Spotted, 54 per cent; Midding Spotted, 9 per cent; and Strict Low Midding Spotted, 13 per cent; Midding Spotted, 9 per cent; and Strict Low Midding Spotted, 13 per cent. The Largest change in percentage was for Midding Light Spotted which dropped from 19 to 9.

Samples reduced in grade because of bark increased from 7 to 12 per cent of the total classed.

Sixty-seven percent of the samples stapled 15-16 inch compared to 76 per cent for the preceding week, while 29-32 staple lengths increased from 22 to 32 per cent. The remaining 1 per cent stapled 7-8 inch.

Micronaire readings were unchanged compared to the preceding week. Forty eight percent of the samples miked 3.6 through 4.8, 26 per cent miked 3.3 - 3.5, 18 per cent was 3.0 - 3.2, 8 per cent went 2.7 - 2.9 and 2 per cent miked 2.6 or lower.

The market became more sluggish as Strict Low Midding Light Spotted cotton became more difficult to sell. Most of the cotton that graded Midding Light Spotted or higher went into the Commodity Credit Corporation loan as did the Strict Low Midding Light Spotted cotton at a few places. Prices received on the lower colored qualities ranged from $1.00 to $3.75 per bale above OCC loan rates.

"NOTE"

This is the last of the weekly quality and market releases until the cotton harvest is complete. A summary article will be released at that time.

The RESPECTED WORD

The bible is a book translated into every known language. It is the word that men have died for, in order that it may be available to all men. It is the textbook for God's people.

The bible, itself, is not worshipped, but is respected, for it is the story of God and his relationship to man. It is man's guide for worship and daily living.

Attend church regularly, study, and seek God's will in your life.

"I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Five Ag Boys Enter Abilene Stock Show

Five Vocational Agriculture students entered animals in the Abilene Livestock Show January 25-27.
Terry Floyd and Marshall Hariman showed two crossbred lambs each, and Freddie Alls entered two Hampshire lambs. James Soliz showed two Duroc barrows and Mickey Counts took a heavyweight steer.

Although none of the animals placed in the judging, Mr. Ray Womack, Ag teacher, felt that the livestock the boys showed was "as good as we have ever had." He said, "The Abilene show qualifies as one of the finest in Texas, and although our stock was good, the other animals were of very high quality."

New Books Ordered For Primary Library

Rotan Primary has ordered 1,121 library books and nine sets of encyclopedias to increase their library facilities.
Most of the library books ordered were readers to supplement the basic readers for slower children. These come in sets of books in order that the children will not have to read the same stories over again.
Each teacher made a list for their grade level, and these books were ordered to aid all four grades.

Price G-Daughter Named School Beauty

The following article is in regard to Miss Beth Hendrix, who with her family formerly lived in Rotan. She is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hendrix of El Paso and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Price of Rotan who visited the Hendrix family during Christmas.
The article is taken from "Aquila" high school paper of Andress High School of El Paso.
Miss Beth Hendrix, a senior, was selected most Beautiful Girl of Andress High School in the Talon Beauty Contest, held in the cafe.
Nancy Trent, last year's beauty, presented Beth with a corsage of roses, and the four runners-up received white feathered mums.
All the girls wore semi-formals. Beth was attired in a gold brocade.
Miss Hendrix, now a senior, has been in the beauty finals for the last two years, but this is the first time she has placed. Beth was crowned band sweetheart in her sophomore year, represented the Senior Honor Society in Andress Aglow last year, and was chosen Rifle Team Princess in the Military Ball this year.
Beth has been president of the Future Teacher of America and band, vice-president of the National Junior Honor Society, secretary of Student Council, and a member of the Senior Honor Society.

County Agricultural Agent Texas A. & M. College Extension Service

Fisher County farmers and ranchers can get low cost tree and shrub planting stock to set out as windbreaks.

Seventeen species of trees and shrubs are available from the Texas Forest Service at a delivered cost of $1.50 a hundred, plus sales tax. The plants will be shipped to landowners beginning in Mid-February.

Application forms for ordering the trees are available from the local county office.

Seedling orders will be packed in moss and moisture proof paper and shipped prepaid direct to the purchaser.

In addition to the windbreak application form, a guide sheet for setting the stock is available at the county agent's office.

The 1966 edition of the "Farmer's Tax Guide," prepared especially for farmers to use in working up their 1965 income tax reports, is available at the local county Extension office or from offices of the Internal Revenue Service.

It would be hard to place a value on this publication, for it is written and illustrated for farmer use and is just about a must for tax filing purposes.

One of its most useful sections is the example tax return. On this sample tax return, Schedules B, D, and F are used. Also the major form of all, Schedule 1040, is shown with the completed return and computed tax. Each step in preparing the return is illustrated and explained.

Every tax payer who received two-thirds of his gross income from farming is due to file his return and pay the tax by February 15, 1966, unless he files an estimate and pays this amount by January 17, 1966.

If it isn't convenient for you to come by the county extension office, call or mail us a card and we will send you a guide by return mail.

Prevention is still the best method of disease control in livestock. Giving attention to newborn farm animals is a case in point.

For example, one of the greatest dangers to newborn animals from infection is through the umbilical cord which connects to the liver and kidneys.

Diseases entering the animal's system through this avenue can be reduced by the simple process of dipping the stump navel in a solution of iodine. This should be done immediately after birth.

The iodine can be applied from a small jar, such as a half-pint jelly jar, and should be of veterinary strength, about 10 percent iodine. The use of iodine normally advised for humans will be of very little benefit since the percentage of iodine is too low.

There is still time to plant bare-root trees and shrubs throughout the Texas area. Every effort should be made to complete plantings by March 1 for best results. The later planting is delayed, the less time there is for good root development before the active growing season starts. Good root development is important and results in better survival of newly transplanted trees and shrubs.

Beware of the itinerant door-to-door salesman, or the fly-by-night peddler who locates his truck on a vacant lot. These individuals sell on price alone and the buyer usually gets what he pays for. It is safer and in the long run more economical to purchase landscape materials from reputable, well established nurseries and garden stores in your area. The itinerant nursery salesman may give a verbal guarantee with his plants but how does one locate him when the plant has failed to grow?

Size should be one of the least important factors to consider when selecting dormant bare-root nursery stock. Characteristics to consider are plumpness of buds, condition of the bark and cambium layer, and the condition of the packing material around the roots. If the roots are dry and brittle, it is a good sign that the plants have been improperly cared for. The general appearance of the sales card and the overall appearance of the plants can usually give an excellent indication of the care the plants have received and the condition they will be in if purchased.

FRUIT TREES NEED MORE COLD

Because of the mild weather up to mid-January, fruit trees in Texas need a lot more weather like that of the past 10 days to insure enough hours of cold for their rest period or dormancy, says Blueford cold, he says, most peach and plum producing areas had logged less than half of the cold needed for dormancy. Unless a tremendous number of cold hours-below 45 degrees, as logged within the next 45-60 days, the rest period of chilling requirements of most of the state's peach and plum trees will not be satisfied.

Accent on Health
J.E. PEAVY, M.D.
Commissioner of Health

Austin—Suppose you had $25,000 to invest . . . where would you turn for advice?

You have two choices - an amateur or a professional advisor.

The same goes for your health, whether you realize it or not. Good health, the experts say, is worthy of a $25,000 price tag.

Where will you turn for advice about your health investment . . . your neighbor, a health quack or a physician?

Undoubtedly, your neighbor is both interested and concerned about your health and welfare. But beware words such as "I know someone who had just the same thing you do and she . . ."

Stop listening right there. Only your doctor can diagnose your case, of Mrs. Jones. Different diseases may have similar symptoms.

Whatever the source, always question a cure-all or sure-fire remedy. Carrot juice will not cure varicose vein or gout. Yeast flakes will not rehabilitate weary and worn body cells. And wheat germ oil will not cure arthritis, gallstones, cirrhosis of the liver or epilepsy.

Above all, beware the health quack. This self-designate health authority is a fake. He is intensely interested in you, . . . not in your well-fare, but your money.

The old-time medicine show pitchman has given way to a much more suave and impressive scientific operator. Today the bogus health expert usually dribbles impressive scientific language into his spoken and written come-ons.

The quack may be selling copper bracelets to cure arthritis or a serum to cure cancer. The cancer quack imposes a two-fold problem. Not only is he wasting the money of the hopeful patient, but he is wasting time. And time, spent on a false cancer cure, may cost the person his life.

Pay no attention to oral promises or a friend's advice about health products or devices. Read the product's label before you buy. False claims on labels are subject to prosecution; they therefore tend to be much more subdued than unpoliceable sales talk.

In any case, remember, your good health is worth $25,000. Be wise, use only your physician's advice on your investment.

New Ruling On Natl. Guard For Draftees

Austin, Texas, Jan. 28--Men who receive orders from draft boards to report for armed forces service will no longer have their orders cancelled if they subsequently join reserve or national guard units.

This change in draft policy was announced Tuesday by Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director.

A man will still be able to enlist in the regular active-duty forces under the same circumstances, Colonel Schwartz said, if a representative of the regular armed forces is prepared to enlist him on or before the date set for his induction.

Colonel Schwartz said the new policy, announced January 20 by Lieutenant General Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, reached him and Texas draft boards Monday.

Action was taken after the following recommendation was received by the director of Selective from the assistant secretary of defense for manpower.

"I . . . recommend that you revise your Selective Service procedures to restrict cancellation of induction orders by your draft boards to individuals who have been accepted for regular enlistments."
