An Unpleasant Subject

All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some mothers refuse to think that such symptoms as restless sleep, loss of flesh, lack of appetite or itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by round or pin worms. Many mothers have proven, however, that a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, that sure and harmless worm expellant, will make these symptoms disappear. You can get White's Cream Vermifuge for 35 cents per bottle from Reid's Drug Store or Payne Drug Co.

The new Buick is the new Style

More than handsome... more than luxurious... a wonderful new type of motor car beauty thrilling turning point in body design.

It will be imitated, of course! The new, the fine and the beautiful always inspire emulation. But so great is the cost of building the magnificent new Fisher bodies for the Silver Anniversary Buick that imitation will be possible only to much costlier cars, and even these will find difficulty in following where Buick leads!

$1,300,000 has been expended in manufacturing the dies alone for the new Buick bodies, and the gracefully curving side panels which form one of their distinguishing characteristics represent the most expensive steel paneling work employed on any automobile in the world!

Remove from canner and seal.

Canned Baked Apple
Wash and core sound tart baking apples. Fill the cavities with sugar to which a little cinnamon has been added. Place in a baking dish containing a little water. Bake in a hot oven until tender. Pack quickly into hot jars and cover with a syrup made using 1 part sugar to 1 part water.

Peaches (Canned)
Select peaches which are ripe but not soft. (Those which are over ripe may be used for jam or peach butter). (scald) quickly to loosen skins; cold dip for 1 minute, remove skins and pack halves evenly without crushing into clean jars. Fill jars with syrup made using 3 parts sugar to 2 parts water. Partly seal and process in hot water bath for 20 minutes. Seal immediately.

Peach Butter
Peel and stone peach. Cook in a small amount of water as possible until they are reduced to a pulp. Add 12 as much sugar as pulp and cook mixture until it is thick and clear, stirring to prevent burning. Spices may be added if desired. Pack into sterile hot jars and seal at once.

Peach and Apple Conserve
Use equal parts of peaches and apples (diced). If apple skins are of good color do not peel apples. Add 3-4 as much sugar as fruit. Cook slowly until it is clear and thick. Seal in clean hot jars.

Pear Butter
Wash pears and without peeling boil them until they fall to pieces. Press through a colander to remove cores, seeds and stems. Measure pulp and add 1-2 as much sugar as pulp. Add spices to suit taste. Cook mixture slowly until it becomes smooth and thick stirring frequently to prevent burning. Pack while hot in clean hot jars, seal.

Plum Butter
Cook plums in cold water to cover them. Drain and reserve the juice for jelly. Press plums through a colander, measure pulp and add 1-2 as much sugar as pulp. Cook slowly until thick and clear. Seal in clean jars.

Canned Greens
Wash and pick out, faulty leaves; scald for 2 minutes in soda water using 1 teaspoon soda to 1 gallon of water. Drain and rinse in clear water. Pack quickly in clean jars, add 1 teaspoon salt to each quart, fill with boiling water, partly seal. Process for 2 hours in hot water bath or for 60 minutes at 10 pounds pressure.

Canned Carrots
Carrots may be left in the ground if season is a dry one and will keep very satisfactorily. In some sections they may be stored as are potatoes or onions, but in some places they dry out and lose flavor and food value. It is therefore advisable to can them when young and tender.

Sort and grade for uniform size; wash and scrub with a stiff brush. Scrape if carrots are old; blanch (boil) for 10 minutes. Cold dip or hold under running water for 1 minute. Slice or pack whole into clean hot jars. Add 1 teaspoon salt to each quart, fill with boiling water and process for 1 1/2 hours in hot water bath or for 40 minutes at 10 pounds pressure in cooker.

Vegetable Soup Mixture
Use vegetables which suit the family taste. An excellent mixture is made with tomatoes, corn, carrots, celery and beans or peas. Prepare vegetables as for canning, blanch together vegetables which do not require peeling, for 5 minutes. Pack immediately into clean hot jars, add 1 teaspoon salt to each quart, partly seal and process for 3 hours in a hot water bath or for 60 minutes in a steam pressure cooker at 10 pounds pressure. Seal immediately.

Over a Billion Deadly Germs in a Single Drop of Water
Germs are so small that there may be as many as one billion, seven hundred million of them in a drop of water. And just a few of these tiny germs, if they get into your blood through a cut in your skin, may make you so sick you will be in bed for weeks—may cause the loss of limb through blood poisoning—may even infect you with that most dreadful and fatal of diseases, lockjaw.

Just because you can see no dirt in a cut does not mean that it is clean. You cannot see germs. The only safe and sane thing to do, is to thoroughly wash every cut, no matter how small, with Liquid Borozone, to kill the germs, and then dust it with Borozone Powder, to hasten the healing. Liquid Borozone costs 30 cents, 60 cents, $1.20 and $1.50; Borozone Powder, 30 cents and 60 cents, and can be had at Reid's Drug Store or Payne Drug Co.

INDIANS USE SPEAR TO CATCH SALMON

Reap Food Supply During Fish Harvest Time.

Toppenish, Wash.—It is salmon time in the big rivers of the northwest states. Indians know it as the harvest time when they catch fat fish and preserve the filets for winter.

Hour after hour Indian fishermen—from ten to twelve tribes—all on the stone masonry of the Sunnyside irrigation dam, near here, spears poised, ready to lunge at large leaping chinook or coho salmon which are running up the Yakima river to spawn. Tense, immovable as statues, they wait. Onlookers see the flashing back of the salmon leaping up the smooth waterfall. There is a lightning quick strike and the struggling silver beauty, safely speared, is drawn to land to be unjavelined and the spear is ready for another victim.

The best salmon spears are fitted with barbed hooks and the fish is gaffed, rather than speared. The hook comes off the end of the shaft and dangles on a cord tied to the pole. This, the Indians point out, prevents breakage of the shaft when a thirty or forty pound fish is taken.

Sometimes a lusen (big salmon) will be hooked by one Indian in a day. At other times days pass without a catch. But the redmen never complain about luck. They poise over the shimmering, tumbling water patiently waiting until fish do come within range.

This primitive life is reenacted at a score of rapids and dams in other rivers of the Northwest.

On shore squaws and young folks from the tribes split the salmon, hanging the meat over lines or slender poles to sun dry. Before the fish season is passed northwest Indians will have filled many willow baskets with dried fish steaks, insuring them against hunger at winter's coming.

Only Indians from reservations may so fish in northwest streams, being permitted by treaty to do so.

7-Month-Old Alabama

Baby Talks Fluently

Birmingham, Ala.—Birmingham is laying claim to possession of the prize infant prodigy—a seven-month-old baby who converses as fluently as a child of several years. When she was one week old she could pronounce words distinctly, and at three weeks she could pronounce a number of words, such as "daddy," "eat," "I want up," and "I want to get up."

The child is Yvawn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Shotts. She was born November 23, 1927. One of the amazing things is that she has cried but twice since she was born—once immediately after her birth, and another time when she had an attack of colic.

Wyolain, her sister, now six years of age, is an accomplished musician. She has memorized pieces of music and can play more than 200 from sight reading at the piano.

Both children are normal and healthy. Both their parents are college graduates, readers and musicians.

U. S. Sets Standards for Wheat Middlings

Washington.—Official standards for purified middlings, semolina and farina have been promulgated by the Department of Agriculture.

The new definitions characterize purified middlings as the clean, sound, granular product obtained in the commercial process of milling wheat, and is that portion of the endosperm retained on 10 XX silk bolting cloth. It contains no more flour than is consistent with good commercial practice, nor more than 15 per cent of moisture.

Semolina is the purified middlings of durum wheat, and farina is the purified middlings of hard wheat other than durum.

London.—A 200-word will be quanting large sums of money to several persons has been tattooed on the back of a man who walked into a tattooing establishment in Waterloo road.

He had the will written out on a piece of paper, and asked that it should be transferred to his back. He sat for five hours while the work was done and the will was duly witnessed.

"He was a Colonel, and about thirty years of age," George Burchett, the tattooist, said afterward.

"This is the first will I have ever tattooed during a long experience, and it was difficult, tricky work."

To All Users Of Natural Gas In Haskell

Haskell has been, and is now enjoying natural gas and as the fall season comes on more people will be using this commodity. We want to advise that your present fire policy does not protect you against a gas explosion. To provide this protection the policy may be amended by attaching a gas permit to your present fire policy which will cost you the sum of $0.05 per $100.00, or fifty cents per $1,000 insurance, and we strongly recommend the attaching of this clause to each and every fire policy.

It is our intention to attach this clause on all renewal policies unless otherwise advised, and if any present policy holders should want this protection before his or her policy expires, kindly notify our offices and the clause can be attached to the unexpired term of your policy.

We offer this explanation mainly for the information of not only our Haskell and Haskell County patrons but the public in general. We always stand ready to give the utmost in insurance service and satisfaction.

Valuable Minerals Are Contained in Spinach

Spinach should always be cooked as little as possible, so that its vitamins will not be destroyed. All the liquid that cooks out of the leaves should be saved and served, for in it are dissolved some of the valuable minerals which the spinach contributes to the diet. Everyone is familiar with the story of the little boy who was sure he could "taste the iron" in his spinach, so it was scarcely necessary to warn the good cook to wash spinach thoroughly, through five or six waters, lifting it each time from the surface of the pan so that any grit will sink. Cut off the roots before the first washing because considerable grit is held at the base of the stems. The bureau of home economics gives these directions for cooking spinach:
 Wash the spinach through many waters and when all grit has been removed, drain well and chop the spinach very fine. To each pound of spinach melt in a saucepan three or four tablespoonfuls of butter and when lightly browned add the spinach. Cover the pan a few minutes until the spinach has wilted, then remove the cover, add the salt and cook for eight or ten minutes, stirring frequently. For children, serve on crisp toast to conserve the liquid.

COTTON FABRICS USED FOR DRESS

Attractive Garment Designed for Hot Weather.

 Any of the firmly woven printed cotton fabrics might be used for this attractive dress for a hot day, designed by the bureau of home economics. Broiled Liver Is Most Excellent for Change

Liver need not always be fried. One of the best ways of cooking any kind of liver—beef, calf, lamb, or hog liver—according to the bureau of home economics of the United States Department of Agriculture—is to broil it under the flame of a gas oven. For a family of six, buy about a pound and a half of liver, cut in slices a quarter of an inch thick. Wipe the slices with a damp cloth. Place them on a greased baking sheet and put it under the flame of the broiling oven. Cook from eight to ten minutes, turning frequently. When done, sprinkle with salt and pepper, pour over it some melted butter, and serve at once. Good vegetables to serve with broiled liver are: Baked onions, baked tomatoes, green peppers stuffed with an onion, tomato and bread crumb mixture, spinach, kale, or cabbage.

Some of the political changes that are being slung back and forth remind us strangely of the story about the pot and kettle.

low enough for warm weather. It is finished with a binding of the same plain material as the tie, and matching one of the colors in the prints. The set-in sleeves are short for comfort, but not extreme. The cuffs and belt are also bound like the neck.
 Front fullness in the waist is made by a yoke of little tucks. Below the low waistline four plaits give ample width to the skirt. The long flat tie and large pearl belt buttons give a touch of tailored trimness.

HOMEMADE PEACH ICE CREAM POPULAR

Time to Take the Dasher Out.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Time to take the dasher out of the ice cream freezer—and be rewarded by a first taste of the product you have helped to churn! Evidently these children, like all others, believe there never was a more blissful moment in the summer time than this. What extraordinary sharp ears the neighborhood youngsters develop when there's ice cream being made on anybody's back porch! They flock around so hopefully, all eager to help, on the chance of even a small sample of the delectable contents of the freezer.

Here's a recipe from the bureau of home economics for that most popular of all homemade ice creams—fresh peach. In some parts of the country you can make it as early as July and in others as late as October, depending on the state of the peach crop:

Peach Ice Cream.

2 cups single cream 1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups soft cut peaches 1/2 to 1 tablespoon lemon juice, depending on acidity of peaches
1 cup sugar

Wash and pare the peaches, cut them in small pieces, cover with the sugar and let them stand for a short while. Press the fruit through a colander, so that a pulp is formed. Add the salt, cream, and the lemon juice if needed. Use a freezing mixture of one part salt and four to six parts of ice. Turn the crank of the freezer slowly. After freezing remove the dasher, pack the freezer with more ice and salt and let the cream stand for an hour or more to ripen.

J. W. Collins of Mineral Wells is here this week visiting friends and attended the Old Settler's Reunion last Thursday.

Grady Harcrow and family of Little Rock, Ark., were in the city Friday visiting Mrs. Harcrow's brother, Claud Menefee and family. Mr. Harcrow is now superintendent of the Baptist Hospital of that city and is making good with his work. Mr. Harcrow was a former postmaster of Rochester and is the man who established the Star Route from Haskell to Rochester, which has been a great blessing to the people of Haskell county in shortening the route from the cities along the Orient railway to Haskell.

Arthur Edwards and family returned last week from San Angelo and Christoval where they visited relatives. At Christoval they went into camp for a few days with a number of relatives and report a fine time.

POULTRY

PROPER TIME TO FATTEN POULTRY

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Early autumn is the time poultry raisers will usually find advantageous to fatten and dispose of surplus cockerels as well as early hatched pullets of a quality not desired in the flock for winter layers. Market poultry prices are usually highest just before Thanksgiving and Christmas. Another advantage in selling surplus stock fairly early in the season is found in the saving of considerable food material.

Dr. M. A. Jull, poultry husbandman, United States Department of Agriculture, recommends as a fattening ration a soft mash, measured by weight, composed of corn, four parts; oatmeal, two parts; middlings, two parts, and beef scrap, one part. The ground grain should be mixed thoroughly and moistened with sour skim milk or buttermilk. Milk is excellent in fattening mixtures and about two pounds, or a quart, of milk is used to each pound of mash.

Care should be taken not to feed the birds too much during the early part of the fattening period. For the first few days of this diet feed lightly three times a day. For the rest of the period give the birds all they will eat three times a day but do not leave it before them. A four-pound cockerel should add a pound in two weeks. Four pounds of the grain ration may produce a pound gain.

Experienced fatteners sometimes keep poultry on the fattening feed for as long as three weeks; but in most commercial fattening plants the birds are fattened for from seven to ten days. There is often a difference of 5 cents a pound between the market price of thin and plump birds. However, farmers in many parts of the country may not find such advantageous marketing opportunities, and the prices received may not pay for the expense and bother of fattening the birds. In such cases it may prove wisest to sell direct with no attempt to fatten the fowls. Many such birds are bought at the market by fatteners and conditioned and fattened for resale.

Culling Undesirable Hens From the Flock

Culling should be a continuous process from the time the egg is selected until disposition is made of the bird. With the young stock this constitutes removal of unthrifty birds. The pullets should be selected from the standpoint of size, relative rate of maturity, and health. On the other hand, with laying hens, other than the occasional removal of outstanding poor individuals, the ideal time for culling is at the end of the laying season, which runs from July to November. From July on the flock should be examined each month for the purpose of removing the poorer hens. Just how rigid the culling is depends upon the desired reduction of the flock. The later culling enables one to be more exacting in the selection of the superior birds. Obviously it is to the advantage of the poultryman to make more than one culling as he is thereby able to immediately cut down production costs.

Poultry Notes

If pullets are too slow in starting to lay, give them a wet mash daily for a week or so. That often starts them.

Ground yellow corn, with plenty of milk and a range of rape, clover or alfalfa, will keep the young chicks in good condition.

An effective way of eradicating lice is by means of sodium fluoride. It is easy to apply and inexpensive, and yet how many fail to take advantage of this valuable procedure.

The ventilation problem in the poultry house is much easier to solve if the hens are given enough floor space. Three and one-half square feet of floor space should be allowed for each hen in the flock.

The development of chicks will be checked and hens will stop laying if the common red mites are permitted to grow and develop. In warm weather mites multiply rapidly.

More than $15,000,000 are lost each year because of fertile eggs put on the market from June to October. Most of this loss comes from the farms because the male birds are kept until fall or winter. It is the eggs fertilized by these males that rot after they leave the farms, causing heavy losses all along the marketing line.

Good poultry is necessary if there is to be a profit made by keeping it. Specialized farms are becoming more numerous, but for many years to come the main output of eggs and poultry meat will be supplied by the general farms.

Sweet or sour milk seem to give equally good results in chick feeding. When liquid milk is not available on the farm, it pays to buy a milk substituter. Dried buttermilk is a convenient form of milk substitute to use as it can be mixed with the mash.

NOW PRESIDENTS ARE ELECTED

To millions of citizens who are to cast their first ballot for president this fall it may not occur that they are only indirectly voting for the man they would see in the White House. Whatever the "popular vote" be, does not itself elect.

The final choice is made by groups of men selected to choose a president, and in no way bound except by unwritten rules to obey the will of those who have called them into office. They comprise the electoral college, strange relic of the belief of the Fathers of the Republic that presidents and vice presidents should be selected by the council of a few wise men. By certain changes in the Constitution and the federal law the college has been so hedged about with limitations that it probably never could thwart the expressed will of the Nation. Compared with what they once were, its methods of operation are simple.

Each state is entitled to as many presidential electors as it has members of the United States Senate and its college of electors convene in its capital. These copies of the vote including the names of the electors are then signed and certified and forwarded to Washington duly sealed by the state authorities, usually the governor. One copy is forwarded by mail to the president of the senate and another copy sent to him by special messenger. The third copy is filed with the federal judge in the district in which each college meets. If the president of the Senate should fail to get either copy of the two returns, a messenger may be dispatched to ask the federal judge for his extra return. Many years ago before the railroad and before the mail was so swift and certain as it is now, these precautions seemed necessary, although now they are mere forms.

Balloting of the electoral college must be transmitted not later than the First Monday in January and at least six days before the votes are taken any contest or disputes are supposed to be settled. The returns must be ready for the consideration of Congress on the second Monday of January.

As soon as the president of the senate has received his votes from the various colleges, he calls the senate and house into joint session. In their presence he opens the sealed envelopes, removes the certificates and tells representing both house and senate count the votes, if such number of electors appointed, is named as president.

If no candidate has a majority then from persons having the three highest numbers on the list of those voted for as president the house of representatives shall choose a president by ballot. This procedure, which has been followed several times in closely fought campaigns, is known as "throwing the election into the house." The representation from each state has only one vote. A majority of all the states are necessary to a choice—New York Tribune.

Dangerous Business

Our stomach and digestive systems are lined with membrane which is delicate, sensitive and easily injured. It is dangerous business, then, to use medicines containing harsh drugs, salts or minerals, when we are constipated. In addition to the possibility of injuring the linings of our digestive system, these medicines give only temporary relief and may prove habit forming. The safe way to relieve constipation is with Herbine, the cathartic that is made from herbs and acts in the way nature intended. You can get Herbine at Reid's Drug Store or Payne Drug Co.

FORTY-FIRST YEAR

WORM CONTROL IS NOT PRACTICAL

Not practical for farmers to attempt control of the cotton boll worm causing unusual damage this year in North and East Texas, according to R. R. Reppert, Entomologist, Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. "Earlier experimental work indicated that a considerable degree of control could be effected by the foliage covered with arsenites applied at frequent intervals and observations made over a few years show that not a small degree of control can be expected from such means," says Mr. Reppert. "Certainly the results of the experiment show that the farmer might as well rely on natural control factors as the arsenites which destroy heavy infestations of the boll worm in a short time. The finding of an occasional pink boll worm has led some to say they had discovered the pink boll worm. The insect does not grow to a length greater than one half inch while the boll worm when mature measures one and one fourth inches in length of a varied coloration from green through lighter shades to white. Unlike the pink boll, the larger boll worm which is a species that attacks corn (the corn ear worm) has long hairs. Damage done by the cotton boll worm to the bolls, the worm boring into the bolls and often following them completely. During its later stages the insect is unaffected by amounts of poison it may eat on its way inside. Experience shows that poisoning for this worm at earlier stages is not uniformly effective and hence the admonition to farmers to save money by leaving its control factors. It is impossible to say just how these factors may be given any locality.

MIDWAY SCHOOL TO OPEN SEPT. 17

School Board of Midway met August 31st, and decided that the majority of the patrons needs would open on Sept. 17. Pupils who expect to enroll please come Saturday the 16th. The regular session will be held on Sept. 17th, which will be done by the school board. The year's work will be put forth every effort to make of the year's work and have a better school than ever.

SCHOOLS OPEN WITH CROWDED CLASSES

The new session of the city schools found an eager and waiting patronage. The enrollment in all departments broke all previous records. The crowded conditions in the lower grades are acute and will have to be remedied. The high school enrollment also soared to new heights. This was due to the return of practically all the former enrollment plus a large number of out-of-town pupils. The almost unanimous return of the former students and the unprecedented attendance from the outlying rural districts speak favorably for the reputation of the high school. A partial list of new and out-of-town students is given below. At noon Wednesday, it was reported from the principals offices that the organization was complete and the schools were running in midseason form.

OLD SETTLERS HOLD ANNUAL REUNION

The fourth annual Old Settler's reunion picnic was held in the same place, Baldwin's pasture last Thursday, August the 30th. There was a large gathering of the old settlers who have lived in Haskell county through out the years for thirty-five years and many who have moved away but returned for the reunion. The morning was passed in greeting each other and talking over "old times." Then the big event of the day took place the barbecue and picnic lunch. The barbecue was furnished by donation from the resident pioneers. A bountiful basket picnic lunch was brought by the ladies. An abundance of ice water and lemonade was furnished by the West Texas Utilities Co. A produce house of Brockbridge and one of Stamford supplied the lemons. A down pour of rain broke up the gathering before the feast was ready over but they had the morning together and so the fourth annual reunion picnic passed into history.

HASKELL MILL & GRAIN COMPANY MAKE EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS

The Haskell Mill & Elevator Co., Haskell's largest manufacturing concern, one of the largest of its kind in West Texas, is completing extensive improvements at its plant and elevator, which will greatly increase their capacity and enable them to better care for their growing volume of business.

The improvements under way include additions to the present large building, as well as the installation of new machinery. When completed, the mill will have a capacity of a car each day of mixed feeds, including all kinds of poultry feed. At present their manufacture of feeds is far behind the demand, and their products are shipped throughout West Texas. With the new machinery now being installed they will have one of the most complete mills in this section for the manufacture of mixed feeds of all kinds.

The additions to the building includes an additional story to the elevator, and extending building to the Wichita Valley tracks nearby which provides additional storage capacity. With the completion of the new additions to the building, the combined capacity of the mill and elevator will be increased to 29 cars, as they will be able to store 4 cars of mixed feeds, 17 cars of headed maize, 4 cars of hay and 4 cars of hulls, this variety of feeds being used in the various manufactured brands sold by this firm. This does not include the small grain storage capacity of the elevator proper, which is one of the largest of its kind in West Texas.

From the above it will be seen that our city can boast of a real manufacturing concern, modern in every respect, which adds hundreds of thousands of dollars yearly to the industrial activities of our town.

Program at the Presbyterian Church Thursday Night

Next Thursday evening Sept. 13, at eight o'clock Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Cunningham will give a very interesting and instructive program at the Presbyterian Church. Rev. and Mrs. Cunningham have recently made a tour of the Holy Lands. Their program will consist of an illustrated story of the Reign of Solomon, using stereopticon slides, and also a lecture by Mrs. Cunningham, "From Boston to Bethlehem." The public is cordially invited to see and hear this program you will find it varied and interesting all the way through.

Fire Alarm Tuesday

The fire department was called to the home of Mrs. J. C. Hill south of the square Tuesday afternoon to extinguish a fire in the storm cellar at her home. Mrs. Hill had a number of quilts and some winter clothing stored in the cellar, and sustained considerable damage from the fire before it was discovered.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Whitman of Abilene were here last week attending the revival of the First Baptist Church.

ABILENE BOOSTERS COMING HERE FRIDAY

The 1928 Friendship Tour which will be begun by Abilene business men on Tuesday, September 4th, which will lead them through fifty or more towns, has added an extra feature in the Cowboy Band of Simmons University, official West Texas Chamber of Commerce band.

The motor caravan will reach Haskell on the afternoon of the last day's travel, Friday, Sept. 7th, after having made an extended far western tour. It is scheduled to stop at Haskell at 2:25 for an hour's stay.

The band has been added to play merry tunes along the way, and add much to the entertainment of the crowds in the towns visited. It has always proved a great success on occasions of the kind in the past.

Every citizen of our town who can possibly do so, should turn out and give our visiting neighbors a hearty welcome, one that they will remember Haskell for long in the future.

Short talks will be made by several of the Abilene boosters, and well-known Cowboy Band will provide the music for the occasion.

MRS. JOSSELET BURIED IN WILLOW CEMETERY

Funeral services were conducted for Mrs. Catherine Jossilet last Wednesday afternoon August the 29th, at the First Methodist church, Haskell. After a short illness at the family residence ten miles north of Haskell Mrs. Jossilet passed to her reward the previous day August the 28th, 1928. Rev. Cecil Fox pastor of the Weimert Methodist church conducted the funeral services, assisted by Rev. H. R. Whitley, pastor of the Baptist church of Haskell, Rev. W. B. Vaughn, pastor of the Methodist church of the Stamford District, after which the remains were laid to rest in beautiful Willow Cemetery. It was a benediction surrounded by one whole section of the church of children, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grand children and great grand children and the remainder of the church taxed for standing room. The pall bearers were Messrs E. W. Kreger, Fred Monk, J. T. Therphanger, John F. Thomas, Green Ammons and F. J. Trimmer. Mrs. Catherine Jossilet was born in the republic of Uruguay, South America on March 10, 1860 and was 68 years, five month and eighteen days old when the death Angel summoned her home. Mrs. Jossilet's parents were born in Italy. They moved from there to South America, then to Missouri and thence to Fannin county, Texas. From there Mrs. Jossilet moved with her husband to Haskell in 1900. Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Jossilet were married on the 14th day of February, 1880. There were born to this union eleven children, seven boys and four girls, two boys died in infancy. All of the other children were present at the funeral as were thirty-one grand children and four great grand children. Mrs. Jossilet united with the Methodist Church forty years ago and has been a consecrated member ever since. Mr. V. J. Jossilet's parents were born in Belgium and his mother died when he was 10 months old and his father when he was seventeen and before coming to America he served three years as a soldier in Belgium, that being compulsory in that land. Mr. Jossilet came to America when he was 27 years old and settled first in Illinois, moving to Texas in 1875 and lived for a while at Savoy in Fannin county.

Mrs. Jossilet was the old type of Christian wife and mother and was the friend of all. By special request Misses Mae and Fay Free sang, "Tell Mother I'll Be There" and they with their father Mr. W. M. Free sang, "Mother and Home." The Haskell Free Press joins the sorrowing loved ones and a host of sympathizing friends in mourning the going of this great character.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reynolds and children of Dallas, returning from a Western trip, stopped over for the week end with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilson and other relatives.

Mrs. W. M. Souther, mother of Mrs. J. Horace Bass and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Young and children, all of Cleburn, were last week and guests of Mrs. and Mrs. J. Wilson.

OCT. 4 IS ABILENE DAY AT THE FAIR

Abilene is coming to our Fair, Thursday October 4th, has been designated Abilene Day. T. N. Carswell, manager Abilene Chamber of Commerce states that a delegation of more than a hundred will come and in all probability a great many more. The first day of our fair this year will be a big day. The fair will be formally opened with the usual parade, which Director J. B. Post, states will be even better than former years as new ideas will be used and the promise of more entries makes him enthusiastic over the prospects. The Abilene delegation will have a place in the parade. The parade will be formed just out side the city limits on the Haskell and Rule Highway, come down the new brick pavement and reach the public square between the Haskell National Bank and the Sherrill building thence around the square. Every thing for a big fair this year looks good. Much interest is being taken all over this section. The advertising matter is ready to go out the catalog is about complete, work is being done on the grounds and race track and by the opening day everything will be shining with new paint, new decorations and better and more exhibits. The Fair Association feels proud that Abilene is coming to its celebration. Every year a number of Abileneans have graced our grounds and grand stand, but this year they are coming strong and Haskell will make a special effort to show them a real county Fair. Let every body do their part.

EDITOR LEAVES FOR ROCHESTER MINNESOTA

Sam A. Roberts, editor of the Free Press, left Tuesday morning for Rochester, Minnesota, where he expects to undergo a minor operation at Mayo Bros. Clinic in that city.

Mr. Roberts has been suffering for the past two or three years from a broken wrist sustained during his boyhood days, and for the past several months his right hand has been giving him considerable trouble. He will probably be away for three weeks or a month, and his friends trust that the operation will enable him to regain the normal use of his hand.

SCHOOL ORCHESTRA MAY BE ORGANIZED

Prof. Joe Meacham, director and instructor of the Haskell Band, believes that he will most with the Haskell Schools at the school auditorium Friday afternoon, at which time the organizing of a High School orchestra will be discussed. All parents interested are invited to come to the meeting and hear the professor's plan.

HASKELL INDIANS ROUNDING OUT

The Haskell High School Indians are rapidly taking on that old war tan and warring disposition that brought fame to the coach and squad the past season. There is a record-breaking number of candidates working out daily under coach J. O. Dodson. Mr. Henry is giving valuable assistance in coaching the large squad. Practically three teams are in uniform now daily.

The following men are reporting: Virgil Reynolds, Glenn Marrs, Claude Phippen, Herman Pittman, William Kimbrough, Wallace Sanders, Ellis Medley, John Clifton, Spencer Watson, Rogers Gilstrap, Joe Smith, Joe Short, Marshall Pierson, Raul English, Floyd Taylor, Garland Bynum, Clyde Edwards, Robert Darnell, Jack Bynum, Earnest Carr, Clarence Whiteker, Jerry Irby, Alford Gardner, Clovis Pinkerton, Joe Bryant, David Ratliff, O. B. Ratliff, Hollis Hisey, Tom Patterson, David Smith, Austin Coburn, John Grindstaff, Barton Welsh, Julian Frazier and Albert Hanzs. Coach Dodson is rather non-committal but it has been reported that he rates the squad stronger than that of last season at this time. However, much of the material is inexperienced and their ability to deliver is problematical.

Thus far four games have been scheduled. September 14th, the Indians journey to Cisco to open the season for the Big Dam Lobos. Ranger also honored the local aggregation by asking for the opening date. Abilene gave the Indians second choice for the fair dates. By custom the date goes to Anson. The date was offered to Haskell provided the Anson coach did not accept it. The Eagles gave the Indians Oct. 12th, for their date at Abilene. The other two games are at home. The Knox City Greyhounds come here Sept. 28 and the Munday Moguls come on Oct. 28. Other games will be scheduled and will include Stamford, Anson and Hamlin.

A. A. A. SANCTION FOR AUTO RACES

Sanction for the Automobile Races during the fair has been received from the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association, being Number 2085. Two days of racing will be featured at our coming fair, October 4th and 6th. The races are going to be absolutely first class this year. Dozens of Drivers are asking for entry blanks and the race director expects a very large list. Dick Calhoun will be here this year for the first time since his appearance when the track was opened and when he set a record for the track. Dick has a new car and expects to take away some of our money again this year. The track has been completely worked over since the July 4th races and is as smooth as a ball room floor and all loose dirt and sand has been removed making a hard surface. No doubt all track records will be lowered again at this meeting. The present record of 72 seconds made last year by John Gilbert of Colorado may stand, but new fast cars never before tried on this track will be here to try for our cup this year.

Mr. Cal Wilfong has purchased the old J. O. Chitwood residence in the South part of the city and has moved his family into it. Mr. Wilfong's children will attend the Haskell schools.

Mrs. J. E. Fitzgerald and son and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald and Miss Olive Fitzgerald of Brownfield, were last week's guests of Mr. and Mrs. Watt Fitzgerald and attended the Old Settler's Reunion.
