Official Board Meeting 1st

Dear Pat.

I know it has been a long time since I've written. As you can imagine, I've been very busy getting settled here. Everyone has been wonderful, and what an experience it is teaching these first grade children! It's a real to watch them as they learn to read. I've already met some wonderful people, both here at school and in church ...

So she writes her letter, and although "it has been a long time . . ." these words will stretch across the miles and the fibres of this friendship will be as strong as ever.

If you were never to write a letter you would lose touch with people who mean a great deal to you. By the same token, if you never were to go to church, you would fail to keep the fabric of your faith woven tight and strong. True, you might still believe firmly in God, but the affirmation and continued growth of this faith requires worship in His presence and in His house.

Thinking about a friend isn't the same thing as writing a letter to him - wanting to be in that person's presence. Believing in God isn't the same as professing that belief by attending church regularly.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SCS Urges Rotation Grazing

Considerable interest is being generated in the planning and application of deferred rotation grazing systems, according to Virgil Helm, range conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service in Rotan. As applied to rangeland management, this term means a system of grazing whereby grazing on a portion of the land is delayed until after seed maturity for purposes of revegetation.

The benefits of deferred grazing are numerous but the three primary advantages are: (1) improves the vigor and forage production of the better vegetative species by providing greated leaf areas and deeper root penetration. (2) permits the better vegetation to produce seed, and (3) provides a period of rest to permit seedlings to become established.

There are several variations of the deferred rotation system. So far, the best results have been obtained from 4 pasture systems. In a four pasture system, one pasture is rested each four months and the other three are grazed. At the end of four months, the livestock in one pasture are moved, and a different pasture is rested the next four months. Thus each pasture is grazed twelve months, then rested four months. The rest periods fall during a different season each year.

A 25 percent increase in range condition and forage production was obtained from a four pasture rotation system of grain on the Sonora, Texas Experiment Station as compared to continuous year long grazing with the same number of livestock. 1967 results obtained from a four pasture rotation system at Throckmorton point out that the calves averaged 10 lbs. heavier than calves from continuously grazed pastures. Also, a slightly higher calf crop percentage was obtained on the rotation pastures (95 vs. 90%). The most outstanding fact is that rest periods were applied providing for periods of vegetative improvement in the rotation pastures.

A deferred rotation grazing system is only valuable when the intensity of grazing is adjusted to the ability of the land to produce a grazing crop. The poorer the range condition, the lower the starting grazing rate must be. As the range improves, the grazing rate can be increased. A thorough inventory of forage resources plus help in developing a rotation grazing system on each ranch can be made with the aid of the Soil Conservation Service at Rotan working through the Upper Clear Fork Soil and Water Conservation District.

Book Review Club To Meet

The Rotan Book Review Club will meet Tuesday afternoon, March 5, at 4:00 in the parlor of the First Methodist Church.

The program to be presented by Mrs. J. B. Pumphrey of Old Glory, will hold special interest for those who attended Rotan junior high school with the speaker, who later was graduated from Sweetwater High School.

Mrs. Pumphrey will review "Nancy MacIntyre," a story of pioneer days on the prairie, written by Lester G. Parker.

Mrs. Pumphrey is the mother of one son, who lives with his family in Fort Worth. She personally supervises her ranch at Old Glory. Her interests are many: she holds a life membership in the National Woman's Club, is a member of the State Garden Club, and serves as Elder in the Presbyterian Church. She has traveled abroad extensively and will embark for Australia early in March.

Baptist Plan Adult Banguet

The First Baptist Church of Rotan is having an Adult banquet at 7:30 p.m. on Fridav, March 1.

Entertainment will be furnished by One Sharp and a Flat, and the featured speaker will be Don Timberlake who is paster of First Baptist Church, Rising Star.

Timberlake attended H-SU and Southwestern Seminarv and has served as youth director of University Baptist Church of Abilene and assistant pastor of Zirchman Avenue Baptist Church in Fort Worth. He has spoken at over 400 banquets for church, school, and civic groups all over the United States.

Adults, come to fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church for fellowship and a wonderful time.

Provisions wil be made for children birth through twelve.

CONGRATULATIONS

The Advance received a unique announcement on the birth of a son to Dr. and Mrs. Donald H. Lewis at Bryan. Information revealed that John Malcolm arrived at 8 p. m. Feb. 21, weighing 8 pounds 2 1-2 ounces. Among his relatives are his brother, Donald H. Lewis Jr.; his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis and grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Randolph. The announcement also stated that he was most welcome into the Lewis family.

Herman McSpadden, Faye and Wayne were in San Angelo Sunday visiting Mr. Mc-Spadden's brother-in-law, R. E. Dodds who had been in a hospital, but had improved enough to be dismissed last weekend.

Mrs. Wilson Barton gave the message from the President General of the National Society. She also announced the acceptance in Washington D. C. of the applications for memberhsip for Mrs. Gary Blair, Mrs. Walter A. Greafe, and Mrs. D. T. McDonald. The chapter now has a membership of fifty-three.

National Defense News was given by the chapter chairman, Mrs. Kirby Kinsey. Only information which has been authenticated by the National Society as to accuracy is presented to the membership by chapter chairmen.

The program, commemorating American History Month, was presented by Mrs. Robert Faver. She chose as her topic. "What Manner of Men and Women were the Revolutionary Soldiers?" Mrs. Faver stated that ever war produces its unsung heroes and to them we owe both the existence and the preservation of our nation. There was a unique quality about the men of the Revolution. The 13 colonies had no professional soldiers, no army nor navy, nothing more than a raw militia without even the esprit decorps that comes from a bright tradition of battle and success.

THE "EKKLESIA" OF THE LORD

The word CHURCH is used 112 times in the New Testaportant facts were: Regina ment and comes from the Greek word "ekklesia" which means a "called out body of people," literally "the called Renee Berry, Cruz out." It is applied to God's people because it accurately Martinez, Susie Garcia, Mike describes them. They have been "called out" of sin into Cade, Joe Vann, Robert Kerns, Scot McKinney, Gayle Posey, holiness of living; called out of darkness into light; out of the world into the kingdom of God. The word is used in Melanie Cox, Jessia Almantwo senses in the New Testament:

> 1. The general sense in which it embrases all those 'called out" of the world into God's service, thus designating all the saved. Jesus used the word in this sense in Matthew 16:18: "Upon this rock I will build my CHURCH and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." In Ephesians 1:22 we read, "And He (God) put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the CHURCH, which is His body, the fulness of Him. that filleth all in all." And again, "For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the CHURCH, being Himself the savior of the body-Husbands, love you wives, even as Christ also loved the CHURCH, and gave himself up for it" (Ephesians 5:23-25).

In this usage of the word church (ekklesia), humanity is divided into two classes of people - those who have been called out of sin and those who have not-the ekklesia and the world. In the spiritual realm there are two kingdoms: the kingdom of Satan (the world) and those who have been "called out" of the world which constitute the kingdom of Christ. Every responsible person is in ONE or the OTHER. Every year Rotan Junior If a person is not in the church, THEN HE HAS NEVER High School receives new li- BEEN "CALLED OUT" FROM HIS SINS.

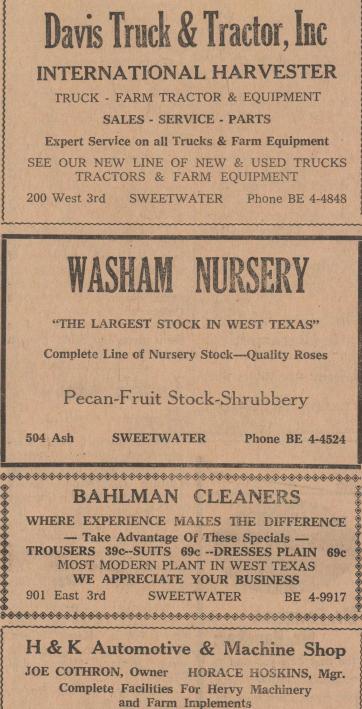

> 2. The word "ekklesia" is used also of the local congregation of Christians in a given locality. It is used in this sense in Acts 8:1 where we read, "And there arose on that day a great persecution against the CHURCH which was at Jerusalem." Paul wrote unto the church (ekklesia) of God which is at Corinth" (I Corinthians 1:2). Whether in the general or local sense the idea is the same in that it embraces the called out, the saved, in the territory mentioned.

> Every one who in obedience to the gospel call has separated himself from sin is a part of the called out, a part of the church, the "ekklesia" of God for the Lord adds him (Acts 2:47). He then meets with the local "ekklesia" for the purpose of worshipping God (Acts 20:7; I Corinthians 11:17-34).
