

A LETTER FROM A FORMER READER

Below we give a short letter written by a friend of the Free Press who can not do without the paper longer as his letter states. Glad to be remembered by our friends who have once read our paper.

Bula Texas.

Haskell Free Press
Dear Editor:

Inclosed you will find $100 for which enter my subscription for my old home county paper for the remainder of the year.

I have been a reader of the Free Press for many years. But have been without it the past 3 years and have done without it just as long as I can.

I am beginning on my fourth year here. I like it fine and think we have a fine country. But the Bula land we have here is not exactly as the old song of Beulah Land we used to sing. This is Bula land of cotton, corn and maize, a land of toil and trouble.

If any of the paper force happen to visit out here this summer, be sure to stop over. We will give you a feast of watermelon and fresh vegetables, if it ever does rain any more.

With best regards to Free Press and force, especially Mr. W. M. Free as I am better acquainted with him than any of the force.

Yours truly,
Oscar E. Lee

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OBSERVES MOTHER'S DAY

There was a large congregation at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning despite the cold rainy weather which was prevailing and Mother's day was observed with a splendid program.

The services began on time with congregational singing and after a prayer, Mrs. Harry Stalcup sang a special song which was a tribute to mother after which Frank Fairwell gave the reading "Mother's of Men" following which Miss Mae Free sang "Sweetest Mother".

The pastor Rev. Whatley took for his text Mother's Love of the Bible in which he likened the love of God to the love of mother for her children and after a short sermon on this wonderful subject the congregation was given the opportunity to testify for their mothers love and care for them and a number of the congregation responded and many good talks were made.

At the evening services the Senior B. Y. P. U. put on a splendid program. The pastor closed the services with a short Thanks Giving sermon.

HIDES 100 MILES WITH BROKEN LEG

Uncle Tom Lemmon of this city brought to this office the following clipping which was taken from an Idaho paper. Frank (Tex) Armstrong referred to in the clipping is a brother of Mrs. Lemmon and as the story is self explanatory we reproduce it to show the hardships the westerner had in this and all other frontier countries.

Frank "Tex" Armstrong, well known vaquero and horse owner of Nevada and Southern Idaho, was brought to Paradise Saturday at midnight suffering with a broken leg. The accident occurred on Sunday, April 22, seven days previous to Tex's arrival here.

In company with George and Harvey Winsor he was engaged in running horses, mostly branded with Armstrong's brand but also a few "oronas," corralling them for shipment, at Juniper Basin, about twenty-five miles north of the Nevada line, in Idaho, and one hundred miles from Paradise.

In the band of horses were a number of tiny colts and one of these little fellows was lagging behind Tex's saddle horse just as the band was going through the gate. Armstrong turned to look back to see if the colt was coming, and his saddle horse impatiently crowded a stallion in the bunch, which let fly with both hind legs, the blow landing squarely on Armstrong's left shin breaking both bones.

At first it was thought the leg was only bruised, but as the pain and swelling did not yield in a week's time to the meager remedies in their "war sacks" it was decided to leave for Calico fifty miles south to the nearest car, owned by Frank Sellers.

Tex was placed on his horse, his blanket-banded leg fastened to the horn with hobbles, and accompanied by George Winsor, a bee-line was made for Calico peak, disregarding trails. Every jolt of his horse was agony for Tex but nevertheless the fifty miles was made in less than twelve hours. Nearing Calico Winsor galloped on ahead, only to find that Frank Sellers' car was broken down on the desert. Sellers took his horse and set out for Mud Springs where "Wild Bill" Guericca lives. The fifteen miles was made in record time. Guericca returning to Calico in his car, when the injured man began the second fifty mile trip over rocky roads. They arrived in Paradise just at midnight, the man was placed in the emergency hospital at the Paradise hotel and Dr. Webster was summoned and set the broken bones.

In 1917 "Tex" was thrown from his horse in Elko county and his collar bone and shoulder blade broken. It was forty degrees below zero and the Elko summit unpassable to even the mail stage so Tex just made the best of things. The bones knitted without ever being set.

Winsor is, experienced in the line of escort to the injured, as Armstrong is the third man he has taken out of Juniper Basin in the past year. One of the others had a crushed chest from a kick and the other a broken leg and rode three days to Jordan Valley to be treated.

Tony Patterson of the Rose community was in the city Monday and says that the rain was very light in that section Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex DeSpain of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Baker of Dallas were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pinkerton and other relatives last week.

HASKELL CO. CITIZENS ANSWERS SUMMONS

F. W. Zelisko a man of wide acquaintance throughout this section and held in highest esteem by all passed away at an Abilene Sanitarium Thursday May 10th, at 9:30 p. m. after an operation for appendicitis which he underwent earlier in the week. He was born in Bohemia, December the 6, 1856 and was 71 years, 5 months and 4 days old when the end came. He has lived in Haskell county in the Irby community for the past 21 years.

The remains of Mr. Zelisko were sent to Cameron, Texas, his former home where they were laid to rest in the old family lot Saturday morning following his death.

He was quiet and unassuming and loved by his friends and he will be keenly missed by loved ones and neighbors, but he leaves to all a memory that is unperishable.

He is survived by his faithful wife and seven children, three boys and four girls. Will and Joe live in Haskell County and R. A. lives at Cameron. The girls, Mrs. J. P. Moeller lives here, Mrs. H. P. Moeller lives at Cameron, Mrs. Louis Brueggerman lives here and Mrs. Otto Peiser lives here. One son had passed on before the father and his widow lives at Cameron. There are also 23 grand children surviving. All children and grand children were present for the funeral.

The life of this good citizen is closed here, but he will live on in the hearts and minds of many while the cycles of time roll on. May the God of Heaven who is too wise to make a mistake and too good to be unkind comfort the bereaved loved ones in this dark hour of sorrow.

Commending Music Week

As chairman of Music Week, I wish to say I am glad Haskell has gotten in line with other progressive towns in observing this National Week.

We are hoping the entire county will make Music Week an annual affair. We wish to thank everyone who in any way helped to make it a success and especially do we thank the Haskell Music Company of Abilene for furnishing pianos for mass recital, the picture show for running slides and the Free Press for space in the paper. Hoping everyone will plan to make Music Week next year even better than this.

—Mrs. O. E. Patterson.

To Organize Dunning Class

A Dunning Class will be organized by Mrs. Geo. H. Morrison at her studio beginning May 21st. Mothers who wish to begin their children's musical education will please call 420. Itc.

An Appreciation

In appreciation, I want the people of Haskell, many of whom could not be present on account of the rain, to know that the last evening of our Music Week celebration might well have been called Artists Eve, for such it was. It was an hour of real inspiration.

I don't know of a town this size that can boast of the pianists that we have.

We hope they will plan a Massed Piano program for Music Week each year.

Electric Service!

--do we appreciate it?

We wonder how often, here in Haskell, we stop to count our many blessings.

Take for instance the matter of electricity. We take it for granted now. Yet, remove this convenience from your home and you would feel hopelessly handicapped.

And since we've mentioned electricity, here is another thing we've noticed: We never appreciate our electric lights until they go out. Even then we don't express our appreciation. We simply complain about the service.

Here in Haskell we have excellent electric service. Seldom is it interrupted. Rarely does it fail us.

We are not employed to sing praises to the West Texas Utilities Co., but isn't it just and right that we recognize good service?

We think so.

His Crowding Days Are Over

Gasoline is a dangerous article to play with. The owner of a rooster left his automobile standing in the driveway at the gate of his house while he went inside to get tools with which to repair a leak in the gasoline line of the car. Along came a rooster and decided to scratch the grass in the roadway. It didn't mean anything to him that gasoline was dripping down beside him—he didn't know he might better have been scratching on his comb! Evidently his claws struck off a spark for the next instant the air was full of fire, cushions, twisted metal and white leather seatings. That rooster will never smoke.

SOCIETY and Club

Mothers' Tea.

The T. E. L. Sunday School Class had their annual Mothers' Tea, honoring their mothers and the aged mothers of our town, Saturday afternoon. We look forward and plan for this occasion with joy, it is a service of love and tender memories. About a hundred members and guests of the class were greeted at the door of the First Baptist Church by the teacher, Mrs. B. M. Whitaker and president Mrs. K. D. Simmons. They were ushered to seats facing an old-fashioned setting room that had been arranged. The fire place with its mantle holding an old clock, vases and ornaments, the rag rugs on the floor, the stand table with the family Bible, and a rocking chair, foot-stool and work basket before the fire reminded us of our old home with mother, even though it was not the same.

With Misses Marjorie Rogers at the piano, Martha Lou Rogers, Maxine Simmons and Mrs. Virgil Meadors with their voices, sweet old songs delighted the listeners while the crowd gathered. After the devotional, Mrs. Leon Gilman told us of some of the amusing experiences she and her mother had enjoyed together.

Whatley talked on "My Favorite Woman Bible Character" and played a beautiful tribute to Mothers. The reading by Mrs. W. C. Williams and special song by Mesdames B. M. Whitaker, M. Pierson, Harry Staleup, W. C. Williams, Moses Oeta Bland, Mac and Fas Free, was in keeping with the occasion and thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Whitaker expressed her pleasure in having the mothers as our guests read two poems she had written, one to her mother, another to the young mother. They were so good the latter was printed below. Refreshments of tea and ginger bread was served.

THE YOUNG MOTHER The Artist may paint his brush with a great skill. And blend his colors with care. A beautiful picture may be the result. And the world his fame will declare.

The sculptor models with hands the soft clay. And the clay and perfect it seems. But the world remains lifeless and never responds. It is only the substance of dreams. Not far her greater the task that is mine. Who are quailing, coding footsteps tonight. Do not inquire for the time you have spent. In painting them to the light.

His Artist's workman, he is crowned with a crown. The weight may touch his goal. But success alone is the work of four hands. You are moulding a human soul.

Directs State Champion 1 Act Play. Two hundred high schools contested in one act plays in their districts then at East or West Texas division and the two champions met in Austin last week and competed for State honors. The Plainview High School won State honors. Miss Annie Kate Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lee Ferguson, who teaches English in the Plainview High School directed the one act play, "The Valiant" and the major part of the honor goes to her. Miss Ferguson majored in speech arts when she was a student in State University and has since studied in the Boston School of Expression and last summer studied in the Iowa State University and those of her close friends are not surprised to hear of her scoring this high honor. The Temple High School was second place. Among the all stars in the two plays were named those of the Plainview players. These were: Faye Koster, Hester Baird and Mabel Hawkins. It is probable that a contest will be staged at an early date between the Texas winners and the Oklahoma winners. All of Haskell feels a thrill of pride in the signal honor thus bestowed upon one of her home town girls.

How Many Miles are left in your car

ONE factor more than any other will determine the number of miles left in your car. That factor is lubrication. Feed your motor the right oil regularly and you'll prolong its life indefinitely. Feed it the wrong oil—then watch it wear out.

Conoco Motor Oil specializes in keeping cars young. It protects the moving parts—thus reducing wear and tear and staving off "old age." Conoco Motor Oil fights friction—the motor's worst enemy—and clings to the cylinder walls with its constant oily film under practically all conditions of motor operation and strain.

There's a particular grade of Conoco for your motor. Ask for it.

GRAND JURY MAKES THEIR FINAL REPORT

The Grand Jury organized for the April term of District Court, after having been in session for two days, made their final report and were discharged by District Judge Bruce W. Bryant, Monday afternoon. Forty-two indictments were returned by the body, twenty-five charging the commission of felonies and sixteen for misdemeanors. The final report is given below. In the District Court of Haskell County, Texas, April Term, A. D. 1928. To Hon. Bruce W. Bryant, Judge of said Court.

We your Grand Jury, duly organized for said term of Court respectively report to your Honor that we have been in session twelve days and have diligently inquired into all violations of the law known to us so far as our limited time has permitted. We have heretofore returned into Court twenty-five indictments for felonies and sixteen indictments for misdemeanors. We herewith present our indictments for felonies and misdemeanors for said term.

We regret that in some portions of the country there has been during this term of court a two-week strike and the time consumed by the grand jury by people who do not and should not know all of the facts before the grand jury; we also regret that some of these people, without having all the facts before them, have made statements about the officers of the court and the grand jury and the court that are unfounded on any facts and which statements are calculated to interfere with the orderly procedure of the court and the enforcement of the law. In this connection we call upon the law-abiding citizens of the county to refrain from such actions hereafter and cooperate with the officers and the court to the end that such officers may have the confidence of the people and therefore be more capable of fairly and impartially enforcing the law with respect to all persons charged with violations of the law.

We suggest to all business men who handle or offer for sale any medicine or thing which might be a violation of the prohibition law to carefully observe said laws and refrain from selling any medicinal preparation, or other things, which might be used as a beverage. We desire to express our confidence and appreciation of the District Attorney, the Court, the Sheriff and all officers of the County who are endeavoring to enforce the law. We desire to thank them and all of the officers of the county and the grand jury for their work and assistance to the grand jury.

On examination of the jail we find the parties confined are all dissatisfied, but we do not think they have just cause for criticizing the officers. We do recommend that the county place a bath tub in the jail for the use of prisoners. The food served looked to be wholesome and sufficient.

Having now completed our work we respectfully ask permission of the court to finally adjourn, after having examined about 200 witnesses.

R. C. Montgomery, Foreman of the Grand Jury
