"Lucia" with a message of hope and faith by BILLY GRAHAM

Graham Film Here Saturday

The Billy Graham feature length sound-color motion picture, "LUCIA" will be shown 7:30 Feb. 8 at First Baptist Church.

This is the story of "LUCIA", coming to the motion picture screen with all of the pathos and poignancy that transcends its Latin setting.

"LUCIA" was made in its entirety in Buenos Aires, directed by World Wide Pictures' President, Dick Ross. The fire and excitement of gaucho folk music, South America's unmatched scenic grandeur and the excitement that belongs to one of the world's largest cities, are all enriched by full color and authentic sound.

But the real impact of "LUCIA" is to be found in its intimate, utterly honest treatment of an individual's emptiness and frustration apart from the filling of the "God-shaped vacuum" with which all mankind is born.

Masons Plan Annual Affair

Rotan Masonic Lodge No. 956 will hold their annual Washington Birthday celebration February 22 at the lodge hall.

Irrigated Pastures Pay-off

"Good management of irrigated pastures pays off in higher yields and higher quality forage. This means more dollars per acre," according to Bill Lewis of the Soil Conservation Service, Rotan.

With increased costs of putting in a pasture and lower livestock prices it is more important than ever that good management be practiced. Low or medium pastures will not be profitable.

Good management requires work and "know how". The producer must understand the proper use of grass, water, and fertilizer. The grass represents the factory. The water and fertilizer are essential to make the factory produce.

Proper use of a grass plant means leaving adequate leaves at all times to catch the sunshine and keep the factory running at full capacity. Any time a plant is stripped of its leaves, growth is slowed down or stopped.

Maximum yields can only be attained when grass has periods of grazing. This can be done by dividing a pasture into two or more units and moving the livestock from one unit to another at regular intervals. In this way the grass can be grazed when the quality is at its best.

As long as you live you will never forget "LUCIA".

Too close for comfort

Here's a photograph taken from a kayak. You don't bring a ship this close to an iceberg! For underwater the tentacles of this cruel, cold monster may reach out a mile or more.

Life for some folks is a succession of narrow escapes. But these are adventures we can do without. They don't prove us bold sailors. They simply prove us poor navigators.

Frightened men sometimes turn to religion as a refuge when dangers—moral, spiritual and physical—loom too close for comfort. God does not fail us in crisis.

But the every-day function of faith is to pilot men on a true course through the sea of life. The Church cannot sweep away icebergs. It warns us of their whereabouts and helps us give them a wide berth.

Coach 'Scotty' Going Strong In California

Friends here have received a full page of pictures and story from the Antelope Valley Press of Rosamond, California, in regard to a former Rotan High coach Fred 'Scotty' Schkade. The page carries pictures of he and Mrs. Schkade and Glynn and Bruce.

He came to Rotan in 1959 as assistant coach. In 1963 he moved up to head coach. The year 1965 found Rotan co-league champs with an impressive 8-2 season.

In winding up their story the California writer said:

"Success in 1965 found Schkade moving to Rosamond in 1966 as head coach. First season was drab...as the Roadrunners weren't destined to be winners in 1966. Football in 1967 was on the upswing and things continued to improve this year.

All in all, Schkade has a highly impressive 67 wins, 35 losses and one tie to show for ten years of football coaching.

All good coaches must have a wife who doesn't mind sitting in the stands on those cold nights cheering his football teams on to victory.

Fred was lucky to have Linda around the house. She is a fine cook, finds time to teach fifth grade at Rosamond Elementary School, and is always in the stands for Rosamond football games.

The oldest Schkade boy is Bruce who is seven and in the first grade. Glynn is the younger son. At five he is just entering school, but has yet to develop a fondness for education. Both boys share an avid interest in football.

The Schkade family belongs to the Lancaster Community Methodist Church. Between church life, family life and school duties, Fred and Linda are a busy two-some.

Schkade coaching brings out the best in any football team. It might take a season to find the talent, but win or lose the Roadrunners will always be in there pitching."

Tax Man Sam sex

Many taxpayers resemble the groundhog in their approach to preparing their income tax return and-or in keeping the records that they need to prove their deductions to keep from paying too many tax dollars. Every time these taxpayers come out of their hole—or wherever taxpayers hibernate the year around—the bright sunshine casts such a long shadow on the Form 1040 and that shoebox full of records (?) that it "plum nigh" scares them to death. Sorry! There is only one approach that these folks can take and that is to face right square up to the old Form 1040 and those messed-up tax records and—shadow or no shadow—get with preparing that tax return. However, don't you take any bets that these folks won't find April 15th to still be a mighty wintry day.

You can usually measure one's brain by the mouth, inversely.

Con. Program Shows Influence

"The Great Plains Conservation Program has proved that it has lasting influence," states Charles Black, Work Unit Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service. We all knew some of the outstanding benefits of the program; however, the true test of any conservation program is how well the producer maintains, improves, and keeps the conservation program applied to the land after it is applied.

A recent analysis of 55 expired GP contracts in Fisher County shows that only 4 or seven percent are not being maintained. Most of these contracts that have not been maintained have had a change in ownership. These had only a few acres of grass seedlings being plowed out and put back into cultivation where erosion will be a problem. This is very reassuring as the GPCP is in its eleventh year of operation and it is significant that the program is proving effective in helping landowners complete lasting conservation programs.

In reviewing conservation plans on these contracts we were told by many that without GPCP assistance their conservation plans could never have been completed. Of special assistance has been the cooperating help of the Farmers Home Administration, Agricultural Conservation Program and the GPCP in helping young farmers stabilize their operations so they could stay on the farm. Other outstanding accomplishments have been the establishing of grass on submarginal cropland and eroding rangeland. Especially are the grass seedlings outstanding on deep sands which were non-productive and eroding prior to stabilization.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash Miers were in Dallas over the week end with their aunts, Misses Annie and Alice Yates.

EXCUSES—No. 6

"Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." James 4:7. Satan has declared a "no holds barred" war against all who try to live the Christian life. Make no mistake about it. He is out to get us (I Peter 5:8 and 9) and will leave no stone unturned! Many try to excuse themselves and thus "give place to the devil" Ephesians 4:27. Some further excuses that I often hear are:

1. I JUST DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS WRONG. Did you ever say this to a policeman who stopped you for driving 40 miles per hour in a 30 mile per hour zone? Or did you ever stand before a judge and complain that you "just didn't know that red light was there." You know that in both instances the "law" may say to you "Ignorance of the law is no excuse." He may further explain that as a citizen it is our DUTY to find out the speed limits and location of the stop lights. If we violate the law we suffer the consequences! And so it is in the spiritual realm. It is everyone's duty to find out what is right and wrong. "Study to show thyself approved unto God." II Timothy 2:15. "And the times of this IGNORANCE God winked at; but now he commandeth all men everywhere to repent." Acts 17:30 "Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures." Matthew 22:29. "My people are destroyed for the lack of knowledge" Hosea 4:6.

2. I JUST DON'T CARE. How could anyone be indifferent about where they will spend eternity? Is your heart so hardened that you really don't care if you perish in hell or not? Surely in your more sober moments you would be forced to admit that you do care and are not indifferent to the prospects of eternity somewhere. "Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip....How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation" Hebrews 2:1-3.

3. I GIVE UP. Often I hear people say that they just give up. Friend if you have given up, may I encourage you to not become discouraged. You must not lose heart. You can not afford to slacken your efforts. Do not throw in the towel. Note the following: "He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved." Matthew 24:13. "Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not" Galatians 6:9—Read also Gal. 5:7, I Tim. 5:4, Rom. 8:37, Phil. 4:13 and Heb. 13:5 and 6.

Remember it is not just how you start the race, but how you finish! Don't make excuses for your own failures.

Signed, Scott Mitchell

New State Hiway Map

Austin — A field of bluebonnets beside a Central Texas stream enhances the cover of the 1969 Official State Highway Map released today by the Texas Highway Department.

Like the bluebonnet, the map is a perennial favorite of Texas motorists. Approximately 1.2 million maps were distributed last year and projections for 1969 call for distribution as high as 1.5 million.

Added this year are 127 miles on the Interstate Highway system. They include important links on IH 40 from east of Amarillo to the New Mexico border and 20 miles of IH 635 in the Dallas area from IH 35E eastward to IH 30.

Almost 2.1 thousand miles of Interstate highways in Texas are now open to traffic. Reflecting rapid urbanization of the State, a special inset map of the Longview-Kilgore-Tyler urban region is included on the map. The inset is similar to one added last year for the Rio Grande Valley urban region.

In addition, the Beaumont-Port Arthur inset map has been enlarged to include Orange area.

Texas' new chief executive, Gov. Preston Smith, adds words of welcome to travelers using Texas highways. In his message, he stresses the diversity of the State and invites motorists to use the map in tours on the unexcelled Texas highway network.

Visitors will find expert assistance in planning travels in Texas at 11 tourist bureaus operated by the Highway Department, including the newest at the Roy Bean Visitor Center and Cactus Garden at Langtry. Ten bureaus are marked on the map. The eleventh is in the Capitol Building in Austin.

Three additional pairs of safety rest areas are shown along Texas Interstate routes.

Each new safety rest area includes a comfort station, drinking fountains, fireplaces, special travel displays featuring both Statewide and local points of interest and handy map dispensers. Motorists will appreciate the familiar shaded picnic tables and fireplaces.

Altogether, the Texas Highway Department has provided approximately 1,100 safety rest areas, roadside parks and scenic turnouts for the safety and convenience of highway users in Texas.

Safety rest areas are designated on the map with a small green square, roadside parks with familiar green dot symbol.

The Official State Highway Map is one of the most popular of more than 7.3 million pieces of travel-oriented literature distributed each year by the Texas Highway Department. Copies of the map are available at Highway Department Tourist Bureaus and at Department District offices.

Tourist bureaus and visitor centers are located in or near Anthony (El Paso), Laredo, Orange, Waskom, Texarkana, Denison, Gainesville, Wichita Falls, Amarillo, Langtry and in the State Capitol at Austin.

Trained traveled counselors in these bureaus and centers assisted almost one million tourists last year.

Sumerlin Third Symphony at Houston March 1

Dr. Macon Sumerlin of Abilene has been notified that his Third Symphony will be performed March 1 in Houston during a Symposium of New Music sponsored by the University of Houston. He is son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sumerlin of Rotan.

Dr. Sumerlin was notified by Dr. Michael Horvit of the symposium of the scheduled performance, in the University of Houston music auditorium.

Slated Feb. 27-Mar. 1, this is the second year for the new music symposium at the Houston school. The program includes works for orchestra band, chorus, various ensembles and soloists.

Lecturer in music at McMurry College, Dr. Sumerlin composed the symphony in 1951. It consists of three movements-allegro, moderato and passacaglia—and is scored for a medium sized orchestra, according to the composer.

Dr. Sumerlin said that the symphony will be performed either by the Houston Symphony Orchestra or a combination of the Symphony and the University Orchestra. Conductor will be A. Clyde Roller, conductor of the University Orchestra.

The Houston performance will be the fourth for the symphony. It was performed by the San Antonio Symphony in 1951 and has twice been performed by the Abilene Philharmonic. Conductor for the first Abilene performance was J. Dietzer and it was later presented under the direction of Julius Haygi.

Dr. Sumerlin has written more than 500 works including five symphonies, a ballet, a movie score, three musical comedy scores, a piano concerto, many choral works and smaller pieces. He is author of the books, "How To Play The Hammond Organ" and "Handbook for Organists," published in 1967.

The composer holds the honorary doctor of music degree from the Texas Guild of Composers and has the master of music degree in composition from the University of Texas.

He has done additional study at the Eastman School of Music at Rochester, N.Y. He is a 1940 graduate of Hardin-Simmons, earning the bachelor of music degree there.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil J. Malouf of Dallas were in Rotan Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hardin returned Tuesday from Houston where they had been with his brother, Tom Hardin, who is in M. D. Anderson Hospital, where he had surgery.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS

by Richard Spencer

Farm and ranch operators will need good records for the 1969 census of agriculture. The farm census will be taken by questionnaires mailed out in January of 1970 to be completed and returned by mail. Response is required by law and information for each farm will be entirely confidential.

The census will ask for amounts spent for feed, fertilizer, pesticides, lime, gasoline, livestock, livestock and poultry. Other information will include size of the farm, age of the operator, value of farm sold, of farm employment, income from recreational use of the farm and numerous other items.

Good records are also essential to today's commercial farmer. Top management required for success with narrow profit margins in agriculture must rely on complete and accurate information about the farm or ranch business.

There are two kinds of farm and ranch records... financial records and production records. Financial records are used to make tax reports, analyze the performance of the farm and establish a basis for credit and other services.

Production records combined with financial records can be used to determine the profitability of each practice of enterprise. Production records include yields per acre, weaning weights of calves or pigs, milk production per cow, percent calf crop, the cost of producing a unit of output and other measures of production efficiency.

Good farm records alone will not insure success. Even the best farm records are of little value if they are not used.

Prevention is still the best method of disease control in livestock. And giving attention to the well-being of all animals, including the newborn ones is a case in point.

For example, one of the greatest dangers to newborn animals from infection is through the umbilical cord which connects to the liver and kidneys.

Disease organisms entering the animal's system through this avenue can be reduced by the simple process of dipping the stump of the navel in a solution of iodine. But this should be done immediately after birth of the animal.

The iodine can be applied from a small jar, such as a half pint jelly jar, and the solution should be of veterinary strength, about 10 percent iodine.

The use of iodine normally advised for human use will be of little benefit since the percent of iodine is too low.

Hybrid tea roses may be pruned in mid-February in Central Texas. In North Texas it should be delayed until late February or early March. If not severely pruned, roses will become large and difficult to care for, and the flowers will be small and of poor quality.

Cut the top growth back to 12 to 15 inches above the ground. Retain from 4 to 6 of the healthy canes arising from the bud union or within 4 to 6 inches above the union.

Remove all dead, diseased, injured twigs and branches as well as all the thin spindly growth frequently found at the base of the plant.

Prune climbing roses after the big flush of spring bloom. On climbers any cane over two years old should be removed and last year's growth thinned.

The final step in pruning roses is to seal all cuts one-half inch or larger with a good tree wound paint containing an asphalt base. A new aerosol form of wound paint is available that is easy to use and is very effective as an aid in healing pruning cuts. Use of this material prevents entry of moisture and wood decay diseases, discourages entry of insects, and prevents drying of the exposed tissue.

A light application of urea fertilizer available from most garden shops will do an excellent job of removing the slick, icy surface on walks and drives for concrete which form during ice and snow storms. This material is relatively safe for concrete, asphalt, or brick surfaces and is much safer for your lawn and shrubs than the salt compounds so frequently used. In the absence of urea use any nitrogen type fertilizer rather than the customary salt application.

Beautiful house plants are easy to grow and maintain if a few basic rules are followed. A thorough application of water should be applied so that the moisture will run through the pot into the saucer below the container. This prevents the buildup of soluble salts in the potting soil and insures a good root distribution throughout the soil ball. The excess moisture should be drained from the saucer so that it cannot be absorbed by the plant.

It is best to use water that is the same temperature as the room in order to prevent chilling of the plants.

Use fertilizer very sparingly throughout the winter months unless supplemental light is provided and the plant has good growing conditions.

House plants should not be placed directly in the air stream from heating ducts. Direct exposure to this hot dry air can cause extreme damage.
