VOLUME 83

NUMBER 48

ASCS News Notes

Because Texas is a community property state, all future contracts with ASCS, including contracts to participate in the farm program, will list your spouse as a producer, along with yourself; therefore, spouses' signatures will be required. The office will be contacting producers to verify that the correct name and social security number is on file for spouses.

1992 FARM PROGRAM

The tentative signup period for the 1992 ARP program, as announced by the Secretary of Agriculture, will be February 10 through April 17, 1992. A five percent acreage reduction is required for wheat, barley, corn and grain sorghum; acreage reduction requirement for cotton is 10 percent. No acreage reduction will be required for oats.

FINAL PLANTING DATE

The final planting date for small grains (wheat, barley and fall seeded oats) in Briscoe County is November 15.

LOAN DEFICIENCY PAYMENT

Cotton loan deficiency payments are available for producers who are not interested in placing their cotton in the CCC loan program. When the Adjusted World Price (AWP) for upland cotton falls below the national average loan rate, cotton could be eligible for cotton loan deficiency payment.

The Loan Deficiency Payment rate for each bale of cotton is equal to the difference between the National Loan Rate and the higher of (1) the loan level for the cotton multiplied by 70 percent, or (2) the AWP determined by CCC. The AWP is announced each Friday.

Christmas to be Celebrated at the Nance Ranch

Christmas at the Nance Ranch is open to the public. The ranch is located six miles east of Canyon, just south of the Palo Duro Canyon Highway 217. The festivities will be held from 7:00 until 9:00 p.m. on Saturday, December 7.

There is no admission charge. Just come have a cup of cider and enjoy the Christmas open house.

This will be a celebration of Christmas and an open house for Panhandle neighbors. Christmas at the Nance Ranch will feature friendly western hospitality—a chance for everyone to express appreciation for your support during their first year.

Leading area florists will provide the atmosphere. The headquarters will be decorated for Christmas by Flowers by Valentino, H. R.'s Flowers, Boston Greenhouses and Irwin Greenhouses.

Western artist Jim Ward of Canyon is featured in the exhibit area during December. His work will be shown and sold through December 21.

Christmas at the Nance Ranch will combine traditional elements of the West Texas Christmas Season—hot spiced cider and cowboy Christmas carols, western art and gifts in the elegant setting of the Nance Ranch headquarters. Silversmith Wayne Dyess will be crafting delicate silver buckles, bits, spurs, and jewelry in the Nance Ranch gift shop which features unique western gifts created by area artists. Look for the first leather Nance Ranch collectors' calendar.

Make plans to get your Christmas season off to a colorful start by being at the ranch for an exhibit of art and music, elegant decor and refreshments. For information about scheduling your Christmas party at the Nance Ranch, call Sara Wieck at (806) 488-2265.

Continue the evening at the Victorian Christmas at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon from 7:00 until 9:00 p.m.

Travel is Heavy During Holidays

One of the most heavily travelled periods we encounter is during the Thanksgiving holiday. This increased traffic has area and statewide law enforcement officials pondering what can be done to raise traffic safety awareness during this critical driving period.

Major V. J. Cawthon, Regional Commander for the Texas Department of Public Safety, stated, "We know that the potential for injury and loss of life is greater during holiday periods, especially a high-volume holiday like Thanksgiving. We are asking people to drive defensively."

Many motorists have heard the term "defensive driving;" however, it seems few know what it involves. "Most of the art of defensive driving comes from common sense and your own instinct. Training and knowledge of the proper procedures make these senses more effective," Cawthon explained.

Defensive driving can and should become a way of life for all drivers regardless of age or experience according to safety experts. Don't assume the other driver will make the right move. Be prepared for anything.

INTEREST RATE

The CCC loan interest rate for November is 5.375 percent.

LDPs are available through May 31, 1992.

Producer must have control of and have a beneficial interest in the cotton.

Warehouse receipts and class cards must be furnished.

Cotton receiving LDP is not eligible for loan.

COMMITTEE ELECTION

Ballots were mailed November 22 to eligible voters in "B" community (LAA-2) for the election of the Community Committee from that community. Voted ballots must be returned to the office by December 2. Producers elected to the Community Committee will then elect a County Committeeman to replace Glenn Ramsey, who is completing three consecutive three-year terms as Committeeman from that community.

ACP

Applications for conservation practice cost-sharing are being taken on a continuing basis. Funds have not been received for the 1992 fiscal year, but if you are interested in carrying out conservation practices (terracing, pipelines, brush control, etc.), you may apply for these practices anytime during the year.

PEANUTS

Remember that peanuts dug and baled are considered marketed, and the appraised quantity will be considered quota peanuts. Producers who do not intend to harvest all their peanut acreage or to not fill their quota pounds should contact the office.

Defensive drivers are in tune with their minds and bodies as well as the road. They are ready for any situation the road might hand them.

But, some drivers are out of tune. They give in to distractions: daydreams, fatigue, anger, stress, frustration or perhaps alcohol. They are not prepared to react when a dangerous situation arises.

Defensive drivers also make fewer mistakes. Drivers on the average make one error for every two miles they travel. While not every mistake leads to an accident, about 85% of all collisions are the result of driver error. "The most common mistake is speeding. Most people don't match an appropriate speed with driving conditions," Major Cawthon added.

CECIL JANE NELSON

Funeral services for Cecil Jane Nelson, 86, were conducted at 2:00 p.m. Thursday at Wallace Funeral Home Chapel in Tulia with the Rev. Charles Davenport, pastor of First Baptist Church, and Earl Cantwell, minister of the Rock Creek Church of Christ, officiating.

Burial was in the Silverton Cemetery. Mrs. Nelson died Tuesday, November 19.

Born November 10, 1905 in Indian Territory of Oklahoma, she married Leonard Lawrence Nelson on May 1, 1921, at Tulia. He died June 20, 1982.

She moved to Tulia in 1926 from Silverton. She was a housewife and a member of First Baptist Church.

Survivors include a daughter, Wynona Jane Nelson of Plainview; three sons, Don W. Nelson of Lubbock, Jimmie W. Nelson of Horseshoe Bay, and Darrell L. Nelson of Tulia; five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The family suggested memorials be to the American Cancer Society or to the Silverton Cemetery Association.

SPS Was Honored in New York Recently as National Award Winner

Electrical World magazine honored Southwestern Public Service Company recently as the national winner of its 1991 James H. McGraw Award for management and leadership.

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Bill Helton accepted the honor's commemorative medallion on behalf of all employees at a ceremony in New York City during the magazine's annual Executive Round Table of industry leaders.

The McGraw Award, named after the founder of the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, is presented annually "for the purpose of giving public recognition and expressing industry appreciation of the contribution to the advancement of the electrical industry."

McGraw-Hill is the publisher of Electrical World as well as other magazines, including Business Week.

In singing out SPS, Electrical World's Editor-in-Chief William Hayes said the award honors the company for:

- Effectively pursuing a policy of "dynamic conservatism" that has produced rate reductions in each of the last seven years.

- Gaining a rating of excellence in service from 97% of its customers as opposed to an industry average of 73%.

- Earning awards in two states for its economic development efforts (SPS actively participates in two economic development coalitions: The High Ground of Texas and the Business Quarter of New Mexico).

- Raising interest coverage to almost five times (a measure of how well the company controls debt).

- Winning EPA and national attention for its pioneering environmental efforts (such as SPS's development of air quality control equipment for power plants, conservation of fresh water, marketing of coal ash and other achievements).

Nominations are not solicited. Electrical World monitors the industry and selects appropriate winners. Last year's winner was Florida Power & Light Company.

Helton said the McGraw award is recognition of the foresight and commitment of the company's former and present directors and management team; and the hard work, dedication and contributions of every employee.

"It's gratifying to be honored nationally," Helton said. "Every employee has a right to be proud of this major award."

Southwestern Public Service Company primarily provides electric service to a population of about one million in a 52,000-square-mile area comprising eastern and southeastern New Mexico, the South Plains and Panhandle of Texas, the Oklahoma Panhandle and southwestern Kansas. Corporate headquarters is in Amarillo.

Good Health Habit
 Most breast cancers are first discovered by women themselves. The American Cancer Society recommends the monthly practice of breast self-examination (BSE) by women 20 years and older as a routine habit.

Breast Exams
 The American Cancer Society advises women 20 to 40 to have a physical examination of the breast every three years. Women over 40 should have their breasts examined by a physician every year.

Friendship Quilters

by Nina Martin

Seven of our group met early this Thursday and quilted all day like miners digging for gold. We did break for lunch. Eating together is such a joy. The strands of conversation wind around our hearts as we talk about everyday comings and goings of our families and loved ones.

When the last girl went home, I ran my hand over the backbone that was left to do and thought: Needles in and needles out all day long, building friendships tight and strong.

We will not quilt next Thursday because it is Thanksgiving. The next meeting will be back at the senior citizens center and we will begin Virginia's quilt.

make your burdens lighter? Why not then tell him so. Does a handclasp lift you from the depth of grief and woe, when an old friend shares your sorrow, then why not tell him so? Does your heavenly Father give you blessings here below? Then on bended knees before Him, frankly tell him so . . . Be careful for nothing; be prayerful for everything; be thankful for anything . . . Gratitude is not only the memory, but the homage of the heart—rendered to God for His goodness . . . When I find a great deal of gratitude in a poor man, I take it for granted there would be as much generosity if he were rich . . . Unfailing gratitude makes a human magnet out of a common personality.

A smile will give top-rating to our personality, a frown will reveal our true self . . . He smiled—and his home was a happier place for his family . . . He smiled—and those with whom he worked had a more pleasant day . . . He smiled—and the neighbors spoke well of him on the street . . . He smiled—and folks were glad to see him in church . . . He smiled—and the world was a better place to live . . . He smiled—and he lived longer, in a more pleasant world.

A smile cannot be bought; neither can it be begged, borrowed or stolen . . . To be of any value, it has to be given away willingly and cheerfully . . . A smile will help any situation, a frown will create one . . . It is almost impossible to smile on the outside without feeling better on the inside.

Gems & Allegorys

I should like to feel that, in every American family, some place is made for an expression of our gratitude to almighty God, and a frank acknowledgment of our faith that He can supply that additional strength which in the trying times is so sorely needed . . . Give thanks part of the time and live thanks the rest of the time . . . Thanksgiving of the heart gives a fine freshness, a tingle, a tang to one's spirit that not only assures but increases victory.

Giving thanks is a course in the school of life, from which we should never graduate . . . He who thanks but with the lips thanks but in part, the full, the true thanksgiving comes from the heart . . . The debts which gold can't pay, would stand for aye, if we should never have Thanksgiving Day . . . If you have nothing to be thankful for, make up your mind that there is something wrong with you. ## Top-Ten Teams Toppled Last Friday Night

At least two of the state's top-ten teams were defeated in their playoff games last Friday night, these including the Silverton Owls and Coach Jack Sheley's Trinidad charges who recently were featured on national television.

Valley (8-4) will advance to play Sands (11-0) at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Jayton, while Lazbuddie (11-1) will advance to play Fort Hancock (11-0) at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Wink. Valley and Lazbuddie are the last teams from this area of the state remaining in the six-man football playoffs.

Having already rewritten two chapters in the local football history book, the Owls had their pencils sharpened and were ready to crank out a third volume at Payne Field Friday night. But the Owls—taking on the Valley Patriots in an area round of the six-man playoffs—ran head-on into a major case of writer's block, and the Clay Edwards-led Patriots abruptly ended Silverton's storybook season with a 30-26 victory.

The seventh-ranked Owls, hoping to record their first-ever second-round playoff victory, couldn't erase the lightning-fast Edwards, who rushed for 274 yards on 36 carries as the Patriots took the victory.

While Silverton ends its season, Valley moves on to face its third straight top-10 opponent in second-ranked Sands this week. The undefeated Mustangs qualified for the state quarterfinals by drumming Sierra Blanca, 54-6.

"We didn't think they (Valley) were ready, but they were," said Lyndell Ivory, one of six Owl seniors who helped claim Silverton's first outright district title in 44 years as well as the team's best season record ever. "We wanted to win because (Silverton) has never been farther than this. I guess they wanted it more than we did."

The Owls have everything to be proud of in their season just completed. They have won two trophies, beating some good teams to win them. Lots of other teams around the state don't have a post-season trophy, and as one of the elite teams the Owls have every reason to be proud.

Valley, which tripped fourth-ranked McLean 24-21 a week earlier, certainly appeared hungrier than the Owls in the game's opening eight minutes when the Patriots jumped out to an 18-0 lead.

Silverton got on track and pulled to within 24-20 midway through the third quarter, but another Edwards-flavored touchdown drive and some tough defense down the stretch proved just enough for Valley to hold on.

"I still think we've got a better team than they do. We just had a bad night," Silverton coach Clyde Parham said. "It's one of those deals where if we played them another 10 times we would win probably nine of them. We just weren't clicking," Parham, shaking his head, added. "We couldn't get it going offensively or defensively. There were too many mental breakdowns."

Edwards, who came into the game averaging 182 yards an outing, was clearly the difference. Although he scored just one touchdown, Edwards, who had carried 19 times for 172 yards by halftime when Silverton owned just three first downs, kept the normally airtight Silverton defense on edge the entire evening.

"He's quick," Ivory said of the 154-pound senior with 4.56-speed in the 40-yard dash. "We knew he had outside speed, so we wanted to try to stop him there and make him run inside. There were a bunch of plays we should have had him in the backfield, but we didn't do a very good job tackling."

We felt we had the speed to stop him, but their front line did a good job," Coach Parham said.

Valley Coach Cliff Gilmore has seen Edwards do it all season long, but even Gilmore said Edwards was nothing short of remarkable.

"We wanted to try to give him the ball 25-30 times," Gilmore said. "He played hard and took the hits."

Gilmore also praised the Patriot defense, which limited the Owls to just eight first downs and 167 total yards—107 fewer yards than Edwards alone and 171 fewer than Valley's total.

"We shut them down," Gilmore said. After Valley made it 30-20 with 8:28 left, Silverton failed on two scoring opportunities that would have put the Owls back in it.

A 25-yard run by Brian West and a roughing-the-passer penalty set Silverton up with a first down at the Patriot 19-yard line. But a clipping penalty brought back a would-be touchdown pass from Josh Brooks to Langdon Reagan to foil the first march.

A 15-yard Valley punt gave the Owls the ball with 4:12 left at the Valley 37. Two Brooks passes to Bryan Breedlove and Reagan moved it to the 16, but a 13-yard run by Brian Martin on fourth down came up four yards short of a first down when he was shoved out of bounds at the five.

Ivory, who earlier recovered two fumbles, caused a third which Lance Holt recovered with 12 seconds left. Martin scored on the last play of the game on a three-yard run but it was too little, too late.

Silverton missed three extra-point opportunities and lost two more points when Valley tackled West in the endzone for the first points of the game after the Patriots drove to within one yard of scoring on their first possession.

After Silverton's second failed inside kick, Valley drove 35 yards in three plays with Edwards weaving his way in from nine yards out.

Valley scored its 18th point before Silverton had gained a first down, when stalking freshman Josh Scoggins ran in a four-yarder with 2:08 still left in the first period. Scoggins' score was set up by a 19-yard run by Edwards after a 23-yard Silverton punt into a stiff northerly wind.

Silverton's first score came after Ivory downed Martin's 56-yard punt on the Valley one. One play later Ivory recovered the fumble that led to Brooks' lob touchdown pass to West.

Silverton went only seven yards on its next score after a foiled Valley punt attempt. Martin busted through on the second play, and West's kick made it 18-14 with 3:01 left before intermission.

But Valley and Edwards weren't through. Edwards scampered for gains of 32 and 28 yards to pre-empt a one-yard scoring crawl by Bradley Price with 1:24 left.

Ivory almost single-handedly pulled the Owls to within 24-20 with 5:37 left in the third when he scored on a 36-yard run two plays after recovering his second fumble.

Despite the loss, Coach Parham said the Owls can look back and be proud of what they accomplished this season.

"We won the first outright district championship in 44 years and we have the best season record in history," Parham said.

The Owls have now begun working on their roundball campaign which will continue following the Thanksgiving holiday break.

THERE WILL ALWAYS BE MANY THINGS TO BE THANKFUL FOR

We hear so much depressing news,
While every night throughout the week
It seems each commentator views
Our country's future looking bleak;
Recessions, wars and all of those
Calamities we must survive;
And yet, despite the nation's woes,
We're thankful just to be alive.
We all have problems we must face,
Financial or some other kind;
But when we put them in their place
We then regain our peace of mind.
And so, for ways in which we're blessed,
By which we find our faith restored,
Our gratitude should be expressed;
Let's give our thanks unto the Lord.

— Gloria Nowak

me life, lend me a heart replete with thankfulness!*
