Reese T-38 teams launch Top Flight '95 T-37 teams to compete at Sheppard AFB Wednesday

Reese's T-38 teams opened the Air Education and Training Command Top Flight competition here Wednesday with the first two training sorties of the contest.

The Reese team was the first of the five competing wings to launch Wednesday.

Others participating in Top Flight here were the 47th FTW, Laughlin AFB, Texas; the 81st FTW Vance AFB, Okla.; the 14th FTW, Columbus AFB, Miss.; and the 82nd TRW, Sheppard AFB, Texas.

Members of the Reese T-38 flight team are: Capt. Lloyd Hubbard, 54th Flying Training Squadron D-Flight commander, and Capt. Brian O'Rear, D-Flight instructor pilot.

The T-38 maintenance team includes team chief James Lee and crew chiefs Gerald Thorpe and Tim Martinets, Lockheed.

The T-38 competition is the first of three short-notice events involving Reese aircraft.

The T-37 team will compete at Sheppard Wednesday and the T-1A team will compete at Vance on May 17 and 18.

Reese's T-37 flight team is expected to be announced by AETC officials today. The two-person team will include one of the 35th FTS flight commanders and an instructor pilot.

were selected earlier. The T-37 maintenance team includes team chief Andrew Currie and crew chiefs Daniel Stoutenburg and Lori Oliver, Lockheed.

In the first phase, pilot training and airlift competitors fly predetermined flight profiles with flight examiners accompanying the flights and grading areas such as mission briefings, instruction maneuvers and error analysis.

Maintenance teams are judged on preflight, launch, recovery, refueling and forms documentation.

During the final phase of the competition, each participating flight team will be assigned a specific arrival time at Laughlin.

The individual competition winners will be announced at an awards banquet at Laughlin on June 16.

General Boles becomes AETC vice commander

RANDOLPH AFB, Texas (AETCNS)—Lt. Gen. Billy J. Boles has assumed new duties as vice commander of Headquarters Air Education and Training Command here.

He replaces Lt. Gen. Eugene Habiger, who had been vice commander since August 1991. General Habiger replaced General Boles as the deputy chief of staff for personnel, Headquarters U.S. Air Force in Washington, D.C.

General Boles has been nominated for promotion to general and will succeed Gen. Henry Viccellio Jr., as AETC commander, in June 1995.

AF lists FY-1996 force reductions

RANDOLPH AFB, Texas (AFMPC)—As a sign the largest portion of the Air Force drawdown is complete, the service is only offering an early retirement program and not the Voluntary Separation Benefit or Special Separation Bonus for fiscal 1996.

To meet its fiscal 1996 force reduction targets, the Air Force needs 1,000 officers and 1,500 enlisted members to separate.

This is the first year since fiscal 1992 the Air Force did not offer VSI/SSB.

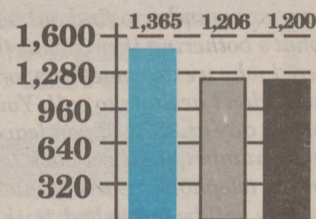

The people eligible for early retirement is more limited than last year when the Air Force needed 1,800 officers and 17,000 enlisted to voluntarily (Continued on page 4)

Recycling helps Reese, environment

by TSgt. Larry Kime
Reese RRRP manager

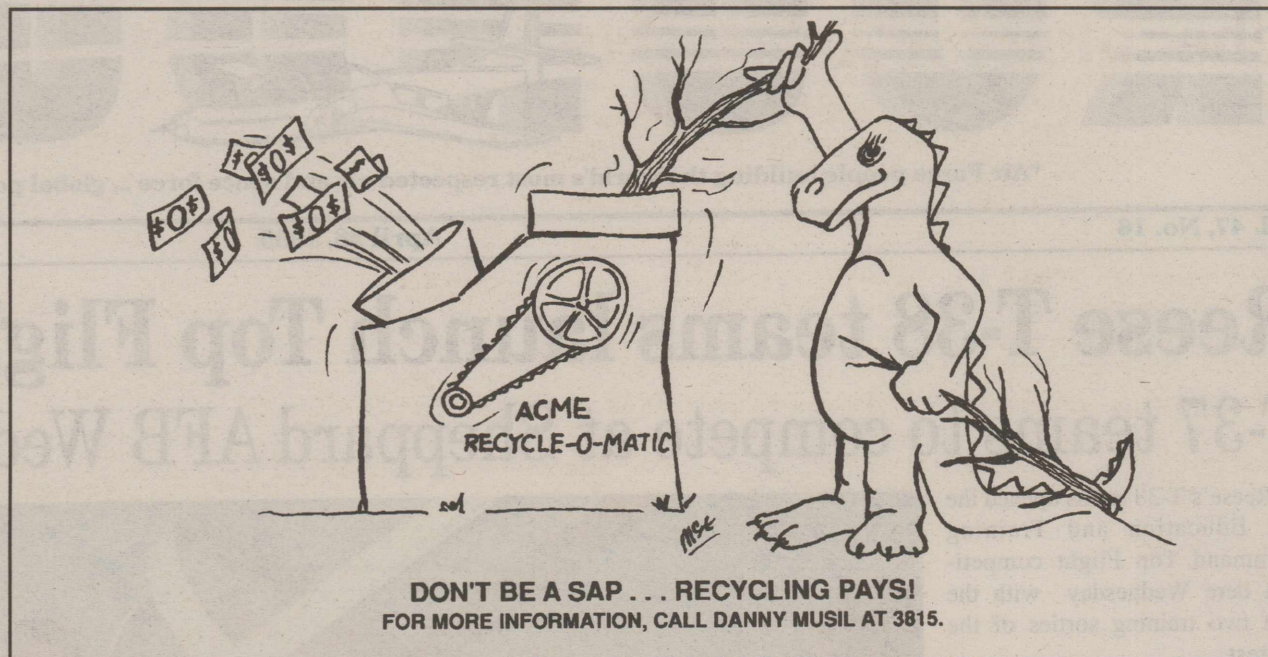

Do you know what recycling is? Why do we need to recycle? What are the benefits of recycling? What do you need to do if you have recyclable goods and who do you need to contact?

Webster's dictionary defines recycling as, "to put or pass through a cycle again; to recover useful materials from garbage or waste; to extract and reuse useful substances recovered from waste; to recondition and adapt to a new use or function."

Recycling saves energy, natural resources and landfill space. If current trends continue, Americans will throw away annually more than 1 million tons of aluminum cans and foil, more than 11 million tons of glass bottles and jars, more than 4.5 million tons of office paper and nearly 10 million tons of newspaper.

Much of this could be recycled, reducing the environmental damage caused by mining, logging and manufacturing raw materials, and decreasing the amount of garbage being sent to landfills.

By recycling, we can save or recover a significant portion of the energy and raw material used in manufacturing new products. For instance, 20 cans can be produced from recycled aluminum with the same amount of energy that it would take to manufacture a single new can from raw materials. In addition to saving energy, recycling can extend the useful life of existing landfills. Where trash is incinerated, removing glass and metals can actually improve the combustion process.

Each building on base has recycling locations for office and industrial recyclables. The Resource Recovery and Recycling Program workers pick up from housing residents every Tuesday, as well as offer drop-off services at the Base Exchange parking lot recycling trailer. RRRP personnel also provide special pick up services for bulk items. If you're having a party, they will also provide containers to put empty cans, glass and plastic bottles in and pick it up for you. This makes clean up a snap.

The RRRP shop is now providing a new service. Every Tuesday, along with recyclables, they will pick up yard waste. Please put any yard waste such as grass, leaves, or small branches in a plastic bag and set it on the curb along with your recycling bags. This waste will be hauled to a large composting facility located southeast of Lubbock, keeping these bulky items out of our landfills.

To request pick-up service of bulk items, or if you would like additional information on recycling, call the RRRP office at 3815.

Careline

"A Careline column provides one of many opportunities for a commander to find out what people are thinking, what's bothering them, what they like, etc. If you've wondered why we do something, or just want to make a comment, don't hesitate to call. You can call the Careline 24 hours a day at 3273. If you leave your name and telephone number, we'll get back to you and answer your concern by telephone. Calls of interest to the Reese community will be published, without the caller's name, in the Roundup the following week. I look forward to hearing from you."

Col. Roger Brady,
64th FTW commander

Industrial gate hours

I was wondering why the Industrial Gate is open on some days and closed on others?

The Industrial Gate is open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. on duty days. It is closed on weekends and holidays. Recently we have had mechanical problems which caused the gate to not operate properly. Hopefully we have taken care of the "gremlins." Sorry for any inconvenience you may have experienced.

Spring safety

Reese officials offer seasonal tips

Reese safety officials offer the following tips for a safe spring.

- Be sure that your gasoline can is in satisfactory condition before filling for the mowing season.
- When removing the cutting blade from a rotary mower be sure that the spark plug wire is disconnected.
- If planning to buy a motorcycle, contact the safety office for a Motorcycle Safety Foundation Course.
- T-Ball and Little league Baseball season will start soon. Watch out for small ball players when driving around the league ballpark parking lots.

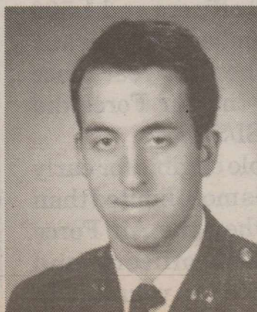

- Remember that when the 30 mph school zone light is flashing on 4th Street, it is 30 mph not 33-35 mph.
- Make sure your water hose does not become a hazard when it's laid across a sidewalk.
- During thunder and lightning storms take all necessary precautions to prevent loose objects from flying around in the high winds.
- The primary cause of softball injuries is over-aggressive play. Coaches and players must use proper restraint to eliminate future injuries. Call 3045 for additional information.

Tree planting ceremony scheduled for Arbor Day

by Dennis Tates
Reese Environmental Flight

Reese officials will observe National Arbor Day by planting a tree near the headquarters building today.

Participating in the 10 a.m. tree-planting ceremony will be: Col. Bill Reynolds, 64th Flying Training Wing vice commander; Lt. Col. Mike Jones, 64th Support Group deputy commander; Maj. Leonard Fischman, 64th Civil Engineer Squadron commander and CMSgt. David Ptomey, 64 FTW senior enlisted advisor.

In addition, Reese will be recognized by the Texas Forestry Department as a "Tree City USA." This is the second consecutive year that Reese has earned this honor. Colonel Reynolds is also expected to read and sign an "Arbor Day Proclamation."

The idea for Arbor Day originally came from Nebraska. A visit to Nebraska today wouldn't disclose that the state was once a treeless plain. Yet it was the lack of trees which led to the founding of Arbor Day in 1872 by J. Sterling Morton.

As a journalist, he expressed the need for trees to serve as a source of fuel, provide wind-breaks against soil erosion and be used as building material for Nebraska.

More than one million trees were planted that first Arbor Day in 1872. Since then every state has observed Arbor Day.

Reese cites top volunteers

Four Reese people have been recognized for their volunteer efforts during an awards social here Thursday.

The volunteers of the year are: Pamela Appell, 64th Mission Support Squadron; Gladys Tharrington, 64th MSS, MSgt. Harry Washington, 64th Flying Training Wing; and SSgt. Robert Palos, 64th Communications Squadron.

Appell, the Community Services Volunteer of the Year, was cited for her work with several base organizations.

Tharrington, the Religious Support Volunteer of the Year, was cited for her work with young adults at Hope Baptist Church.

Sergeant Washington, the Youth Activities Volunteer of the Year, was recognized for his work to stop adolescent drug abuse.

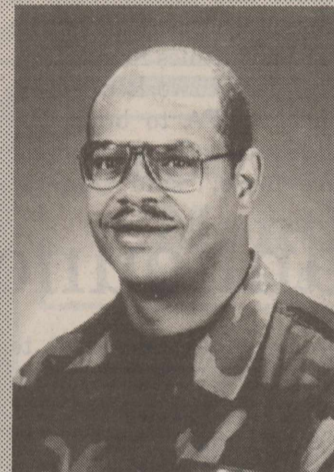

Sergeant Palos, the Family Support Volunteer of the Year, was praised for his work with various youth groups and family organizations.

AFA begins annual membership drive

The Lubbock Chapter of the Air Force Association will kick off its annual membership drive with a general membership meeting Wednesday at the Reese Club.

The meeting begins at 4:30 p.m. Col. Bill Reynolds, 64th Flying Training Wing commander is scheduled as the guest speaker.

The theme for the 1995 AFA membership drive is "It works for our country, it works for you."

The AFA has historically been a strong voice in Washington D.C. for military readiness and quality of life improvements. Membership in the AFA is strictly voluntary.

Gen. Ronald Fogleman, Air Force Chief of Staff, cited the importance of the AFA in a recent memorandum to all Air Force agencies.

The general said, "AFA's mission is to promote aerospace power and a strong national defense, support the needs of the Air Force and its people and explain these needs to the American people. Additionally AFA provides a variety of benefit programs and services to its members.

"Participation in AFA activities is a personal and totally voluntary decision by the member and membership in AFA is authorized under the DOD Joint Ethics Regulation. We continue to work in concert with the AFA to build the world's most respected air and space force," said General

"AFA's mission is to promote aerospace power and a strong national defense, support the needs of the Air Force and its people and explain these needs to the American people. Additionally, AFA provides a variety of benefit programs and services to its members."

Throughout May, local volunteers will be offering Reese people an opportunity to join the AFA.

For information on member-

The AFA is also hosting its annual golf tournament today. Proceeds from the tournament, played on the High Plains Golf Course here, go toward the AFA's many charitable programs.

The tournament trophy will be presented at Wednesday's membership meeting.

Terror in Oklahoma

Emergency response forces from nearby Tinker AFB were among the first to provide on-scene assistance.

WASHINGTON (AFNS) — Within hours of the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City, Air Force members were on scene helping to rescue the victims.

Officials said a powerful car bomb exploded outside the building at approximately 9 a.m. April 19, killing more than 95 people — including several children — and injuring hundreds. They said the death toll is still rising.

An Army soldier and a military family member were killed in the explosion, Department of Defense officials said April 20.

Approximately 56 Army and Marine Corps recruiters work in the building. Two soldiers and four Marines have been hospitalized, while another soldier, five Marines and six military civilians are unaccounted for, DOD officials said.

An airman assigned to Tinker AFB, Okla., also is unaccounted for, said Air Force officials at the Air Force Military Personnel Center.

A fire and rescue team from Tinker, located about seven miles southeast of Oklahoma City, was the first Air Force unit to arrive at the scene.

Tinker officials were called at 9:55 a.m. and by 10:14 a.m. the team was on site, said Alfredia McGill, a base spokesperson. Two ambulances were dispatched shortly after that.

By mid-morning the following day, McGill said, more than 300 Tinker medical, fire, rescue, civil engineering and bomb dog teams were helping local authorities.

Tinker has been named DOD's primary support — central staging — facility to dispatch military assistance to the site, said Army Maj. Gen. Robert H. Scales Jr., DOD's director of military support, at an April 20 Pentagon press conference.

Hundreds of Air Force and DOD people have mobilized to help in the rescue effort, said military officials, although a by-service breakdown of the participants is not yet available.

tion donated $750 to the EWC program.

The remaining scholarship funds were generated by various Reese organizations and through EWC fund raising events.

Lubbock schedules veterans job fair May 18

People helping people. Veterans helping veterans. A coalition of local community agencies have joined forces to sponsor the first-ever Regional Veteran's Job Fair in Lubbock on May 18.

The Job Fair will be held in the Lubbock Civic Center from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. It is open to all veterans.

Col. Bill Reynolds, 64th Flying Training Wing vice commander, said, "The Job Fair is another prime example of the team approach Reese and the community take to support our common interests. Our joint effort is a great chance to show how much we all care and work together to help local veterans."

Don McCullough, from Lubbock's JobSource+, said, "Job fairs are always opportunities. Employers aren't selected unless they have vacancies and that means potential jobs. We are trying to help the large number of unemployed veterans - or even those who are under employed - and just seeking better jobs."

Members of the group represent the following organizations: Texas Employment Commission, JobSource+, Lubbock Vet Center, Reese Transition Office, Texas Tech University Vet Office, American Legion Post 575, American Legion Auxiliary Unit 575, U. S. Department of Labor, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, Texas Veterans Commission, Veterans Land Board, South Plains College, Texas Tech Health Sciences Center Vet Office and the Disabled American Veterans Chapter 44, VFW Post 2466.

Larry McAuley, Local Veterans Employment representative from the TEC said, "I am very excited about our first Job Fair. The participation of veterans organizations and other veteran-related businesses has been exceptional. Without their assistance the job fair could not occur."

Danny Cook of the VA Benefits office will be on hand to answer questions regarding VA benefits for qualified veterans. Bobby Farmer of the Texas Veterans Commission said, "This would be a great opportunity for the area vets to have their benefits and rights questions answered at the same time they get help with job placement."

Lorenzo Sedeno with the Texas Veterans Land Board will also be on hand to give information about Texas veterans programs: the land program, housing assistance and home improvement. These are all low interest loans.

Veteran service organizations that are sponsoring this event will be there to provide information.
