By Elizabeth H-The steward's appeal for contributions to sur ort ministers of the Gospel. Brethren, do you love the Saviour ? Do you wish to spread His fame, Till the songs of earth's glad millions Rise from every hill and plain? Do you wish the Holy Spirit, To descend like summer showers, Till your friends, and all around you, Feel his renovating power?

Brethren, faith must come by hearing; Lend, O lend a helping hand, Till the Gospel light appearing. Scatter darkness from the land. He who gave His life to save you From the pit, so dark and deep, Asks for proof of your devotion,-If you love Him, feed His sheep.

Lo they wander on the mountains, Where the cruel wolf doth rove; Lead them to the crystal fountains Bring them to the fold you love. Men there are who fain would seek them Ceaselessly by night and day, But the want of means detains them. Will you help them on their way?

Rich men, come and Heaven will bless you, In your hands your offerings bring, ive to God of your abundance ;-Think of your almighty King, Who was rich, but yet to save you, Lived on earth so poor and low; Tho' your gifts should leave you poorer, Never grudge them,-let them go.

Still bring more to swell the treasure, You who're neither rich nor poor,-You shall have returning measure, * Many blessings shall be yours. Ye who have no goods terrestial. And who by your labor live, Bring your mites, In worlds terrestial, Fadeless honors you'll receive.

God will prize the scanty offering, By the poor disciple brought, More than that from wealthy coffers, Which the rich man misses not. Brethren, let us ask for preachers, Till each hamlet is supplied !-God will send us able teachers, If we will for them provide.

Rest not till salvation's story, On each sabbath all can hear, Till the blessed Saviour's glory, Shall to all mankind appear.

Triumphant Death of a Little Girl 11 years old.

The subject of this brief notice, Little Mary J., 2d daughter of Bro. S. Y. and sister Sarah Reams, Gonzales, Texas, was born Jan. 5th 1840.

She was born of the Spirit, and joined the M. E. Church, October 1849, lived in the faithful discharge of duty to her papents and to her God, was often seen upon her knees in the secret place engaged in prayer. never doubting her conversion, which was as clear as a sunbeam. For many long and dreary months, especially the last three or four previous to her death, she was the subject of deep and sore affliction, all of which she bore with the utmost fortitude, and was never heard.

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Troy.) Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journas of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and the United States.—Such works as 'The Caxtons" and "My New Novel" (both by Bulwer,) "Peninsular Medal." "The Green hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the rages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs, Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.
