Womanless Style Show.

For its symmetrical beauty, carriage and poise perhaps there has never been a show at the Texas Theatre in its history to equal that of the "Womanless Style Show," of Tuesday evening, a benefit affair sponsored by the Senior Epworth League of the First Methodist church, with Mrs. E. Gaston Foote directing. This part of the show was precluded by a splendid picture, Mother Machree. From start to finish the local show caused shouts of laughter. Mr. and Mrs. Urs Sight (Mr. Gilly Mulkey and Miss M. P. Spurlock) out of curiosity wandered on to the scene before Madame Du Dressup (Mr. E. Siegel) had time to present them. But when Madame Du Dressup did appear she was all ceremony and did the honors of the evening very creditably. The stylish stunts, Mesdames R. L. Harrison and Bill McDonald lent just the dignity and maternal air needed as a background for the Willow Stairs, Misses Ben Bagwell, Rufus Banks, Leo Duncan and Aunt Lucia herself. E. Gaston Foote. It was just like a summer resort when the athletes were loosed in these word games. Mesdames Glazier and Dennis, Ruth, golf girl and vaude, Miss Harry Betts and Thomas Kautler, the garden scene was Ray. A Missions' Night Drama, with Misses Hughes Cook and Fred McElroy, sipping a cooling beverage served by the Maid, Lewis Sherman. The laughing beauties might have been named for the occasion by Mack Sennet himself; these were Misses Collins, Christian, Jr. Ber. Charlie Chapman, Homer Ferguson and Eugene Hunter. The wedding party depicted the latest in sheers material from clinging gowns to wedding veil, the flower girls and attendants were Misses Wair, Patterson, Henry Alexander and Mart Clifton. The dainty little groom, Mr. Leo Southern, in a grand tuxedo, preceded the bride, Miss Hyman Davis, who was gorgeous, corpulent, and gigantic and dominated the marriage ceremony completely. The jurist models wore their dainty little frocks befitting and ruffled, in a very charming manner they were Misses David Patterson, Hughie Cook, Jr., James Leo Southern, Paul Sanders, Dan Oates, Elmer Irwin, Gorman A. McDonald, R. C. Couch Jr. and W. B. Harrison. The Zeigler Chorus furnished the latest song hits and dance ones, these were Misses Chesley, Cass, Buford, Cass, Bates, Thornton, Jewel Gearty, Claud Pippin and Rogers Gilstrap.

The honorable judges showed no partiality and succeeded completely to every group of charming girls that appeared. They were Hon. R. V. Robertson and Misses John V. Davis and C. L. Lewis.

Jack's Flapper Orchestra, Misses Jack Bynum, Elis Merley, James Mullino and Louise Kaigler furnished the music. The finale were the petit "Sleepy Time Girls," in negligee, Misses Milton Simmons, Henry Atkinson, and Theron Cahill. The appearance of Miss Mack Martin, in deshabille, rung down the curtain.

EXPLANATION—Numerous requests have been made for VITAPHONE in Haskell. The only reason why we have not installed VITAPHONE is because the town is not large enough to support it—and Haskell as before, must have the best, therefore we will not install a cheap machine, but will wait until we can give you the best machine that can be bought. We do not want to give the public a cheap machine and degrade our theatre as other towns nearby have done. In the long run we will have the best.

Hundred Dollars." Numerous complaints have been made of violations of the above quoted laws; specific charges having been made that persons residing in the towns have been guilty of hauling out and throwing in the barrow pits along the public roads bottles, cans and other rubbish, in violation of Article 1374, and of farmers plowing across barrow pits into the roadways, and of placing dams or other obstructions in barrow pits in violation of Article 764. All persons are warned to desist from such practices on pain of prosecution for violation of the above statutes.

By order of the Commissioners' Court, Joe A. Jones, County Judge.

"I'M GRATEFUL TO ORGATONE" SAYS WICHITA LADY

"I Don't Ever Remember Feeling As Well As I Do Now Since Taking New Medicine," Says Mrs. H. H. Hopkins

"Orgatone has done me a world of good and I'm now feeling just fine," said Mrs. H. H. Hopkins, wife of the well known field superintendent of the Drilling Rigs of the Petroleum Producers Oil Co., and residing at 3100 Miami, while talking with the Orgatone nurse at the drug store. "My stomach and liver bothered me for several years," she continued, "and I suffered with terrible pains from the back of my head down to the small of my back. My liver was inactive, and I was tired and worn out all the time. I couldn't sleep hardly any and what sleep I did get, didn't seem to do me any good, and I would get up in the mornings without any energy and I just hated the very thoughts of work. I didn't have any appetite and what little food I did eat, did not agree with me, it formed gas on my stomach, and gave me a puffed up uncomfortable feeling. I was just going down hill every day, and it seemed as if I could never find any medicine to relieve me or bring me out of my run down condition. One day I noticed in the local paper here, where Chief McClure had endorsed Orgatone and I too, decided to try it. It has done me more good than any medicine I have ever taken and I have certainly taken my share of it. I have tried everything, and nothing ever did me any good until I got Orgatone. I am certainly grateful to it. I eat anything I want now, my food digests properly, and the gas does not form on my stomach. I've taken a little prescription Orgatone and never do anyone so much good. I know of, who is suffering for I know if he does it help him. I feel like I want every one to experience and get the wonderful medicine I know and I shall continue long as it helps me. Genuine Orgatone is sold in Haskell from the Store.

PAINS
 In Side and Back

"I HAD BEEN miserable for a long time. My health was poor, and I suffered a lot from weakness. At times, my strength was so little that I could not stand on my feet. I would have to give up and go to bed. My sides and back hurt dreadfully.

"I grew discouraged, for I could do so little. I worried about myself, and almost gave up hope of ever being strong and well. I could scarcely lift a bucket of water. My household work went undone, for I was not strong enough to do it.

"After I had taken Cardui for a little while, I began to feel better. I grew stronger, soon found that I could do my work with less effort, and the pain in my back and sides left me. I think Cardui is a wonderful medicine. My health has been excellent since then."

The Oldest Insurance Agency in Haskell

It Costs Very Little To Recondition a MODEL T FORD

The cost of reconditioning the Model T. Ford is small because of the low cost of Ford parts and the established Ford policy of charging all labor at a standard flat rate.

The labor charge for tuning up the motor, including the replacement of commutator case, brush and vibrator points, if necessary, is only $1.00

Grinding valves and cleaning carbon $3.00

Overhauling carburetor $1.00

Installing new piston rods or connecting rods $6.00

Tightening main bearings $5.00

Motor and transmission completely overhauled $20.00

The labor charge for replacing rear axle shafts, drive shaft pinion or drive gear is $4.50

All sockets and joints of front end tightened for $1.00

The steering gear completely overhauled for $3.00

Muffler repair for $1.00

The labor charge for repainting the Coupe is $25.00

Touring Car $20.00

(These prices include 7 Coats of Paint)

Top deck of Coupe or Sedan can be replaced for a labor charge of $4.00

All these prices are approximate, of course, because the cost of materials needed will depend on the condition of each car. They show, however, the low cost of putting the Model T. Ford in shape for thousands of miles of additional service.

Drive in your Model T. and let us estimate on the cost of putting it in first-class shape. We will tell you in advance exactly how much the complete job will cost.

GOOD MOVE BY LAWYERS

If members of the American Bar Association really put into effect the recently announced intention of simplifying the language of laws and legal documents they will earn the gratitude of the public.

Everyone knows that our law books and legal records are cluttered up with useless words, which tend only to confuse and obscure ideas they are supposed to convey.

It seems that the only policy has been to make laws as difficult to understand as possible, so that only a lawyer is able to make sense out of them, while half the time lawyers disagree and the result is a law suit.

Striking out superfluous words and phrases from future legal documents would be a most salutary and timely reform.

"NO BETTER WILL BE MADE"

Looking back only a comparatively few years, we may remember many things which were taken seriously then, but which cause a smile today.

Such a smile may be evoked by an advertisement appearing in the Review of Reviews in 1899. Properly displayed and accompanied with an illustration that looks very much like an ordinary rubber-stamped runaway buggy without a tongue, the advertisement read in part:

"The latest and best Horseless Carriage. Combines all requirements for an ideal and practical pleasure and business vehicle. No better will be made. Time cannot improve it. $600 delivered in sixty days. Send for illustrated catalogue and interesting reading matter about self-propelled vehicles."

The fellow who wrote that advertisement took in quite a lot of territory. "No better will be made." Time cannot improve it. Think of that 30 years ago.

The Free Press appreciates the many compliments it has received from time to time on the splendid county newspaper we are trying to give to our readers. In fact the compliments have been so numerous and sincerely made that we are afraid the boss will have to buy a bigger hat. The management is aware however that these compliments coming to it are to be shared by the merchants and other live wire enterprises of Haskell who have given us such a liberal advertising patronage. To them goes the lion's share of the praise that has been bestowed upon this newspaper, for without their support it would be impossible for us to spend the large sum of money that we devote each year on our news department. The revenue of a newspaper is received principally from advertising—the more advertising in its columns, the more money the management will have to improve its news service. So we suggest to our readers that if they appreciate our efforts, let us give you a live, countervailing newspaper—patronize the advertisers.

The Aspermet Star sales starting cars are being shipped from the Rex Grande in our lots. Reassuring ears are fine feet, but dangerous. We remember back in the days when we were a fetid trail, a spotted mule around a corner porch, we ate a half dozen fresh roasting ears and gave the man the same number, and we came mighty near losing that mule.—Rotan Advance.

One Ohio Town is strong for safety first, having an ordinance which provides as follows: "When two cars come to crossing both shall stop and neither shall start until the other is gone." If this be carefully observed there will not be many collisions, though there might be some slight traffic congestion.

An Atlantic marble works advertisement is headed thus: "You know a lot of people who need monuments." Probably no one really needs them, but some communities will be better off when a few citizens become eligible for monuments.

Frank Clift Makes Good on Oklahoma City Baseball Team

The following comment appeared in the sport column of an Oklahoma City newspaper recently regarding Frank Clift, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Clift of this city. This is the second year Frank has played with the Oklahoma City team.

"Young Frank Clift is rapidly becoming one of the most valuable members of our Indians."

"Today, we would say he is the most improved ball player on the club."

"One reason for this is that at the start of the campaign there was more room for improvement in Clift's play than in the work of most of his teammates."

"Clift was anything but at home on the initial bag, being awkward at shifting his legs, digging out the low ones and so on."

"His inability to feel confident ahead apparently dinned Frank's batting eye for a while."

"Now that he has found himself in the field his big hickory is cracking the horsehide even harder than it did at any time last season."

"Yesterday he got two for three in the second game and three for four in the first. For days he has been smashing liners out."

"Clift has one of the prettiest swings we have ever seen. His hitting all depends on his timing. We know a lot of golfers who would like to have Clift's form."

ALONE WITH A GIRL IN MID-OCEAN IN WHAT HAPPENED?

What happens to a man's soul when he finds himself in mid-ocean, alone with a girl of the underworld, admit, hungry, thirsty and lashed by a brooding sun? A man who has not believed in God or man?

This is the problem that is solved in dramatic fashion in "Scarlet Seas," the latest First National feature starring Richard Barthelmess which comes to the Texas Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

This story of adventure on the high seas was written by Scott Darling and was adapted by Bradley King. It was directed by John Francis Dillon whose record with "The Noose" one of Barthelmess' greatest hits, gave him an enviable reputation.

Barthelmess is supported by an exceptionally capable cast headed by Betty Compson in the feminine lead, and Loretta Young as the featured ingenue. The heavy roll is enacted by Jack Curtis, who is fast becoming one of the meanest villains on the screen, while other colorful roles are played by Knute Erickson, James Bradbury, Sr., Larry Fisher, Fred O'Beck, Bill Wilson, Shorty English and others.

They All Come Back

We are glad to announce that our old friend D. S. Ketrion who is an old time citizen of the Post community, but who has been for the past few years living in the city Sherman, has built a new home in the north part of the city and moved his family here this week. Mr. Ketrion while away always read the Free Press and kept posted on the things at home and finally when he could bear it no longer he returned home to spend his future days with his friends. They all come back.

HIS MISTAKE

"We made a mistake in last week's issue," says the editor of an exchange paper. "A good subscriber told us about it. The same day there was a letter in our postoffice box that did not belong to us. We called for 98 over the telephone and got 198. We asked for a spool of No. 50 thread and when we got home it was No. 60. The train was reported thirty minutes late. We arrived at the depot 20 minutes after train time and the train was gone. We got our milk bill and there was a mistake of 10c in our favor. We felt sick and the doctor said we were eating too much meat. The garage man said the tire was missing because it needed a timer. We cleaned a spark plug and it's run ever since. Yes we made a mistake in last week's issue of the paper." Exchange.

HOW TO KEEP FROM GROWING OLD

Always drive fast out of alleys. You might hit a policeman. There's no telling. Always race with "automotives" to crossings. Engineers like it. It breaks the monotony of their jobs. Always pass the car ahead on curves or turns. Don't use your horn because it might unnerve the other fellow and cause him to turn out too far. Demand half the road—the middle half. Insist on your rights. Always lock your brakes when skidding. It makes the job more artistic. Often you can even turn clear around. Always drive close to pedestrians in wet weather. Dry cleaners will erect a monument to your memory. Never sound your horn on the road. Save it until late at night for a door bell. Few homes have guns. Always try to pass cars on hills when it is possible. It shows your bus has more power and you can turn somewhere surely if you meet another car at the top. Take the shortest route around blind left hand turns. The other fellow can take care of himself if you can. A few shots of booze will enable you to make your car do real stunts. For permanent results quaff often and deeply of the flowing bowl before taking the wheel. Never yield the road on the car behind. The driver may be a boot legger being pursued. New drivers should be shown how to drive fast in heavy traffic. It gives them the experience every motorist should have. Always stand as if you were a man of top class, though you are an amateur driver. Never stop to look at other cars at road crossings. It causes delay.

"HURRY WITH THE SERVICE CAR, THE OIL BROKE DOWN" DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU. STRANDED five miles from nowhere because the oil wouldn't do its job! Has that happened to you? If it has, the chances are that you were not particular the last time you had the crankcase drained—or perhaps you ran too long without changing the oil. This will be a slack summer for service cars if motorists will remember two things: first, to change oil regularly, and secondly, to use only a brand of oil which they know from their own experience or the experience of others will stand up under the most trying conditions of motor operation. You can depend upon any oil which has the backing of the Continental Oil Company. These are the brands which have been tried and tested—in the laboratory and on the road. They lubricate thoroughly, protect every moving part and stand up under intense heat. Ask for these brands at leading service stations and garages. CONTINENTAL OIL COMPANY. CONOCO MOTOR OIL. Years of service in MODEL T FORDS

THE Model T was so strongly and sturdily built that it is still rendering reliable, economical service to motorists in every section of the country. Millions of these cars can be put in shape for two, three and five more years of use at very small cost.

So that you may have this work done economically and satisfactorily, the Ford Motor Company is still devoting a considerable section of its plants to the manufacture of Model T parts. It will continue to do so as long as they are needed by Model T owners. The following list gives the approximate labor charges for reconditioning the Model T Ford:—

BURGLARS FAIL IN ATTEMPT TO OPEN SAFE HERE

Burglars who attempted to open a safe at the R. B. Spencer & Co. lumber yard were unsuccessful, failing to open the safe after the knob and combination handle had been broken off the door. An entrance was gained to the building through a small window opening into a wash-room and officers who examined the scene expressed the opinion that the attempt was made sometime during Saturday night, as several tracks near the window looked to have been made before the rain. Mr. Bert and Mr. Rogers, employees at the lumber yard, noticed the attempted burglary when they opened the office Monday morning and immediately notified Sheriff W. T. Sarralls. The combination and handle of the safe were so badly battered that it was necessary to cut through the door with an oxy-acetylene torch before it could be opened. John A. Couch, manager of the local yard, is in Waco this week on business.

ONE INCH RAIN RECORDED HERE DURING WEEK

This with the heavy rains of the past week has made a bountiful season for all parts of the county.

Gaston Foote as "Aunt Lucia" has a great time masquerading as a wealthy widow, when in reality he is only Jerry Watson, one of the college boys. Jerry persuades Betsy and Molly, played by Mrs. French Robertson and Lois Earnest, to confide in him their most secret, before the very eyes of their sweethearts, who can do nothing for fear of revealing Jerry's identity and getting them all expelled. Jerry has a great time accepting the proposals of all of the old men. F. M. Spurlock as Professor Gaddis, O. E. Patterson as Mr. Collins, and Bob Wilcox as the Butler and Egg Man, all take their turns at proposing to Aunt Lucia. Bob Whitman and Henry Atkinson are George and Dick, two buddies of Jerry, who try desperately to get Jerry out of his predicament. 15-YEAR SENTENCE GIVEN IN DISTRICT COURT IS UPHELD

The Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin Wednesday affirmed the 15-year sentence imposed in District Court here last summer on J. W. Adamson, charged with Arson. The case was appealed to the higher courts by Adamson's attorneys. Adamson was indicted and charged with arson in connection with the burning of a residence in the south part of town last summer. The house at the time was occupied by Wiley Quattlebaum and on the night of the fire, Mr. Quattlebaum and family barely escaped from the house before the roof fell in losing all their household effects in the fire. During the trial of the case, a young man by the name of Luther Rogers testified that he had been hired by Adamson to set fire to the house, Adamson agreeing to pay him $100 to burn the place. Rogers faces an indictment in District Court here in connection with the burning of the house.

Deer on Ballard Ranch Satisfied With Location

In a short interview with T. E. Ballard one of Haskell County's ranchmen, he stated that the deer which were placed on the game preserve on his ranch east of the city seem to be satisfied with their surroundings and it is thought by Mr. Ballard that they are located. He wants the people of Haskell county to feel that these deer are as much theirs as his and he is asking the full cooperation of every citizen in the protection and promotion of these animals and he believes in a few years Haskell county will be well stocked with these beautiful animals. Mr. Ballard takes much interest in this kind of work and enjoys it and he wants the people to help him in every way possible in the project. He further states that the turkeys are doing very well. They are setting now, but of course he does not know yet what the results will be. Last year he says was a hard year on these birds and they did not increase as fast as he would like for them to have done.

Floyd Rose Builds Second Section to Weeks Hen House

Floyd Rose who built the first Week's poultry house in the county is now adding another section to his house for the purpose of housing his two hundred pullets which are coming on. His first house was 20x30 feet and the new section will be of the same dimensions. Mr. Rose lives in the west part of the city. He completed his first section last November and his hens have been confined in the building since that time and they are today one of the healthiest bunch of birds you ever saw and have been on egg production all the while. Mr. Rose after trying the system knows what he is doing and he is not uneasy about the production of the White Leghorn hen when given a chance.

Rains Brighten Rochester Trade Territory Prospects

The bountiful rains which have fallen in the Rochester trade territory this spring have put plenty of moisture in the ground to insure a stand of all crops which are now being planted and the earlier plantings of feed and cotton are growing nicely and the farmers believe that there is enough moisture in the ground to make the early maize crop. Quite a lot of early corn has been planted in this section and it is looking fine at this time. According to statements from business men and farmers the conditions of this great farming section is very good and it is thought to be better than last year.

PLANS PROGRESSING FOR BIG BARBECUE HERE JULY FOURTH

From present indications, Haskell's free barbecue to be given on July 4th will be the biggest event of its kind ever staged in this section, and plans are being made by those in charge of the affair for entertaining the largest crowd ever to assemble in Haskell. Chairman Siegel of the entertainment committee states that a number of feature events for the day have already been arranged, with enough variety offered to please both young and old. In fact, Mr. Siegel indicates that he is planning to have some sort of entertainment for the crowds every hour of the day, with possibly several night attractions. It will be borne in mind that the barbecue will be free to everyone, all expense in this connection being taken care of by the business men of our city. In order to do this, and make the day the real event that is planned, it will be necessary to have the cooperation of every business firm in Haskell, and Mayor Cahill who is in charge of the finance end of the matter, reports that the work of raising the funds will have to be completed just as soon as possible, and he and his committee will make a thorough canvass of the town within a day or so. Henry Alexander, chairman of the racing program for the day, has received replies from a number of letters sent to motorcycle racers last week. George Zerechowsky of Austin, conceded one of the fastest and most daring racers of the Southwest, has sent in his entry as has Rural Murray, world's champion motorcycle rider. Both racers state in their letters to Mr. Alexander that they will bring several other riders and machines with them for the meet. Both Zerechowsky and Murray have raced on the local track several times, and have been consistent winners in all events entered. Still competition is offered them however, in the persons of E. A. Cathcart of Waco and Gus LaBuda of Wichita Falls. Other racers from South Texas and Oklahoma have signified their intention of entering the Haskell meet, and the list of entries will likely be larger than that of any previous year. It is hoped that a complete program for the day can be arranged within the next week. However, the main event—the big free barbecue—is an assured fact, so make your plans now to spend July 4th in Haskell at a real "old time" barbecue and jubilee!

Local Anglers Report Catching 29-Pound Fish

The record fish in poundage was captured by two local anglers, John E. Fouts and Tom Holland of this city last Tuesday. The monster was taken from the waters of Big Paint below Scott's Crossing and by the use of a cable he was landed safely on the shore. There were no other fishermen near and the honors belong to these two gentlemen exclusively. The fish, which was a yellow cat, actually weighed 29 pounds—but it being the first fish that John Fouts had ever helped to land we are going to give below his story of the fish to a friend. This fish, according to Mr. Fouts, would have weighed around 1600 pounds—was broader than it was long in fact he stated that it was heavier than a Ford car and would weigh more than six of the largest men in Haskell. It looked, according to Mr. Fouts, to be about 15 feet long and had a mouth plenty large to have swallowed a good-sized man, but the fish could not say whether it had ever swallowed a man or not but John took care to steer clear of all danger that he might wish to tell the story. He did not wish to go the route that Old Jonah traveled. Mr. Fouts is also wondering how the monster found food for sustenance in such a small stream. The boys folded their tent and left for home as soon as the fish was made secure on the truck. Mr. Holland stated that Mr. Fouts, who is the junior partner of the Fouts & Mitchell Dry Goods Store of this city, talked as if he might give all his clerks a two week's vacation on full pay in honor of the event of the wonderful catch.

Representative of Girls Rescue Home Warns of Imposters

Miss Blanche Welch, state representative of the Volunteers of America Rescue Home of Fort Worth was in Haskell Thursday soliciting for the home and attending to other business. Miss Welch has visited Haskell for the past eight years in the interest of this home for unfortunate girls, and has always met with liberal response from Haskell people. Miss Welch on this trip was showing pictures of the new home being built at the present time, which will care for many more girls than the old home and will give better facilities for taking care of their work. Miss Welch stated that at present they have several babies in the home for adoption, and that this is unusual as there is generally a waiting list of persons wishing to adopt babies. The following paragraph was given for publication by Miss Welch because imposters have been reported in West Texas who have solicited funds for the home and kept the money. "The Volunteers of America wish to advise the people of this vicinity that they do not have any men to solicit funds. Women only are engaged in this work and they have the proper credentials which they will be glad to show. Should any man ever call on you soliciting funds and representing that he is from the Volunteers of America, please have him arrested and notify the Volunteers of America at 1608 1-2 Main St. Fort Worth, and they will be glad to prosecute any such imposters. If in doubt at any time as to the worth of our solicitors or their credentials please wire at our expense for verification."

PULLETS LAY BEFORE THEY ARE 4 MONTHS OLD

Will Harrell farmer-poultryman of the Foster community brought to this office Saturday an egg which was laid by one of his White Leghorn pullets before she was four months old. He bought the baby chicks from the C. O. Davis Hatchery of Rule January the 20, and two of these pullets produced an egg on May the 24, which was five days before they were 4 months old. Mr. Harrell has three sections of the Week's Poultry house and will house these pullets and have them under full production by the 1st of September then he will have six months of peak prices on eggs. Hens lay eggs all winter when housed in a Week's poultry house. Mr. Harrell had one section last year and liked it so well that he built two more sections this summer. He bought 1,000 baby chicks and raised about 600 pullets from the lot which is another record unsurpassed.
