A Trip To California

By W. M. Free

Our last week's letter told of our trip to Santa Rosa and back to San Francisco where we spent Tuesday night September the 11, 1928. It would be impossible to give you very much about this wonderful city, San Francisco. We only spent Wednesday morning September the 12, in the city and seeing so much in such a short time taxed our capacity for making sufficient notes to make our story clear enough to be as interesting as we had hoped.

Before most of the boys had gotten up and eaten breakfast, Mr. Jackson and I took a short stroll to the parts of the city near our hotel while the lunch were getting ready for the convenience of our trip. We made a little short walk into the edge of China Town which is a large section of San Francisco which we are told bears every mark of a city in China. The houses have the oriental appearance and every sign and business house bears signs in the Chinese language which was dutch to Jackson and me. It was too early for business hours and all we could do was to walk along the streets and gaze in astonishment at what we beheld. It was interesting enough to see but we had no way of getting any information regarding their customs or the class of merchandise sold. The stories of China town in this city are many and it is said that as much of the city is under ground as you will find on the top. They have basements and tunnels under the ground, that the outside world knows nothing about. We do not know this is true, but we have read this in stories about this section of this wonderful city.

We shall make no attempt to give a description of San Francisco for it would be impossible in the brief space we have for this purpose but will tell you of a few things we saw while making a tour of part of the city. We were favored with a young woman guide who took passage in the bus and directed us for more than three hours over the city, describing briefly the wonderful scenes we passed. San Francisco was founded during the gold rush of 1849 and from the day it was first established it has made a wonderful growth. It is situated on the hills and flats surrounded by bays and inlets of water. Some of the streets were so steep that our bus could not make the grades so we were compelled to work our way through the city and missed seeing many interesting sights because of this. The street car service has two systems. It has electric lines one way and the old trolley lines the other. The lines run up the hills and the electric runs along the sides of the slopes.

The most interesting thing shown us was the Golden Gate Park, which was once a desert covered with sand dunes and not a sprig of vegetation of any kind, but it is now one of the world's most delightful spots with everything imaginable growing in rich abundance, trees, shrubs and flowers galore are seen on all sides of the great concrete roadways running through this large tract of beautiful landscape. Beside the concrete roads are the bridge paths on which men and women are riding horse back through the park. Deer, bear, buffaloes and all kinds of animals are kept in the park. We passed through the military grounds and saw the great forts with their mammoth guns commanding a sweep of the oceans for many miles. We passed a yacht harbor with thousands of these little boats anchored and going over the bay. We also passed the fine arts building which is a relic of the World's Fair which was held in that city a few years back. This building remains as it was at that time. We passed through another section of the U. S. Reservation and saw hundreds of army mules, forts and big guns. We noted Fort Winfield Scott and the big guns behind the reinforced concrete walls. This is the coastal defense of the Golden Gate. And we believe it is defended too. Golden Gate is about a mile wide, is a deep channel through which all vessels of the sea can pass through into the harbor. It is here we saw the seal rocks where thousands of seals play most of the year and get on these rocks to sun. But while we were there we were told that the seals were away and only one or two were there to guard their grounds.

Here the famous cliff house stands which was erected many years ago and remained intact while the greater part of the city was destroyed by the violent earth quake in April 1906. We stood for quite a while on rocks at this famous old cliff house and watched the great ships of the sea pass in and out through Golden Gate.

On going out we passed the palace of the legion of honor donated by Mrs. Spreckles to the city and inside this building are many exhibits. The beautiful Spreckles organ which is played for the broadcasting from this station in San Francisco which doubtless many of us have heard over the radio.

We visited a Japanese tea garden which was a wonderful spot, this is a great place for an hour to be spent in wondering how it all happened any way. This is a beautiful place indeed. We noted a number of squirrels playing among the vines and trees. The lover's foot bridge and many other scenes you will not find else where are in this garden. We can not find words to describe all this.

We visited an Aquarium where all kinds of fish and reptiles that are found in the Pacific Ocean were shown swimming on fresh water in large glass cases inside this building. All kinds of fish, alligators, turtles, frogs, snakes and the man eating sharks which it is said of them that they can swim 200 miles an hour in smooth water. They were not very large in the cases but when they are full grown they are monsters and very vicious. In the yard of this aquarium was a seal pond and a number of seals were pulling stunts for the amusement of the visitors. Many statues of great men and heroes were seen on the campus around the aquarium buildings.

Like a Good Time To Buy

Perhaps you have noticed in the columns of the Free Press the announcement of certain Clearance Sales. They offer some unusual buying opportunities.

Clearance Sales are a merchandising necessity in many stores. Public demand is a fluctuating thing. No buyer of merchandise can foretell it accurately.

As a result, the close of each season finds a surplus in certain lines that must be disposed of before the next season's goods arrive.

That emergency is now being met by clearance sales in a number of Haskell stores. The prices quoted represent sharp sacrifices.

It seems like a good time to buy.

Month in and month out, you can always find reliable buying information in the columns of the Free Press. It pays to follow the advertisements closely. And when you respond, wouldn't it be a fine idea to tell the merchant, "I saw your ad?"

Adults Contract Children's Diseases
Adults can, and do, contract many children's diseases. And, usually, they suffer from them much more than children do. For instance, many adults contract worms, an ailment usually associated with children. Sometimes they suffer intensely and take expensive medical treatments without realizing that worms are the cause of their troubles. Yet the symptoms are the same as in children, loss of appetite and weight, grinding the teeth and restless sleep, itching of the nose and anus, and abdominal pains. And, the same medicine that surely and harmlessly expels round and pin worms from children will do the same for adults. White's Cream Vermifuge, which you can get at Reid's Drug Store or Payne Drug Co.

Unintentional Suicide
Many people are slowly poisoning themselves just as surely as if they drank jodine every morning for breakfast. They are daily absorbing the toxins, or poisons, created by accumulated waste matter in their constipated digestive systems. Sooner or later disease will conquer their weakened bodies. If you have dizzy spells, headaches, coated tongue, bad breath, insomnia, no appetite, bilious attacks or pains in the back and limbs, you are probably suffering from self poisoning caused by constipation. The surest and pleasantest relief for this condition is Herbine, the vegetable cathartic which acts in the natural way. Get a bottle today from Reid's-Drug Store and Payne Drug Co.

Sore Bleeding Gums
Only one bottle Leto's Pyorrhea Remedy is needed to convince anyone. No matter how bad your case, get a bottle, use as directed, and if you are not satisfied druggists will return your money.—Martin's Drug Store, south side square.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Haskell County—Greeting:
You are hereby commanded, that you summon, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the County of Haskell, once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, M. A. Daniel whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court at the next regular term thereof, to be holden in the County of Haskell at the Court House thereof, in Haskell on the 7th day of January, A. D. 1929, then and there to answer a Petition filed in said Court, on the eighth day of September, A. D. 1928, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 3947, wherein Louisa L. Daniel is plaintiff and M. A. Daniel is defendant. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit:
Plaintiff sues for divorce, alleging that at time of filing and exhibiting her petition she is and has been for a period of more than twelve months an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas, and has resided in Haskell County for more than six months next preceding the filing of this suit, that plaintiff and defendant were married in Oklahoma on January 4, 1920, and that defendant left plaintiff with intention of absenting more than three years before the filing of this suit, on to-wit, January 20, 1920.

Plaintiff prays for divorce and the restoration of her former name, Mrs. L. L. Bear.

Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your enforcement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Haskell this 14th day of November, A. D. 1928. (Seal) Estelle Johnson Lee, Clerk, District Court, Haskell County, Texas.

Hog House With a Saw-Tooth Roof Gives Full Benefit of Sunlight

By W. A. RADFORD

Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all problems pertaining to the subject of building work on the farm, for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as editor, author and manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on the subject. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 1327 Prairie Avenue, Chicago, Ill., and only inclose two-cent stamp for reply.

The saw-tooth colony hog house was originated in Iowa where hog raising has become a pretty exact science among the farmers of that state. It is so designed that when the building is placed on the site facing the sun, direct sunlight is admitted through the windows on the low part in the pens on the near side and through the windows in the monitor section to the pens on the far side. The value of sunlight in a hog house at farrowing time cannot be overestimated. The warm rays of the late winter and early spring sun warm the house and prevent the small pigs from becoming chilled. Sunlight also helps in their growth and prevents leg weakness and other troubles.

Small Sanitary Hog House.

This house is 32 feet long and 24 feet wide. This size permits the installation of nine pens all facing a feeding alley which runs through the center of the building. In one corner there is a feed room.

The house is set on a concrete foundation with a concrete floor so that the troughs may be built at the same time the floor is laid. Removable partitions separate the pens, and the floor is covered with an open plank platform raised slightly so as to prevent the pigs from being chilled by the concrete floor. Guard rails run on three sides of each pen so that the mother sow will not crush or smother the young ones.

The building is of frame construction and is designed to get the most from the least expenditure for material and labor. Accompanying the floor plan is a cross-section of the building giving some details of construction and showing the dimensions of the materials used. Also there is a plan of the front of the pen partitions.

Of Crepe Paper Rope

Most anyone would count it good fortune to receive a handsome crepe paper rope magazine holder like this graceful basket-shaped one. It is hand-woven of crepe paper rope, in exactly the same way as raffia or reed work. The flower motif is cut out of decorative crepe paper, then pasted on.

He—Personally, I think the rising generation is going mad.

HASKELL, TEXAS

SOCIETY and Club

South Ward P. T. A.

The South Ward P. T. A. met in their regular Thanksgiving program last Thursday. There were about sixty patrons there including two members of the board and the Superintendent of the schools.

The teachers and pupils rendered a short program with Thanksgiving as the theme. Then affairs were turned over to the entertainment committee who served dainty plates with cherry pie topped with whipped cream, and hot chocolate to each of the guests.

The Magazine Club.

The Magazine Club met last Friday afternoon in regular weekly session with an unusually large attendance. Mrs. H. M. Smith, the president, held the business meeting and then Mrs. B. M. Whiteaker directed the program, which was a continuation of the study of the Bible. Mrs. P. T. Sanders discussed the subject, Wilderness Wanderings. Mrs. H. S. Post, The Three Feasts, and Mrs. A. C. Pierson, The National Hymn of the Wilderness, which is the 136th Psalm.

Lucky Thirteen Club.

Misses Nettie McCollum and Eunice Huckabee were hostesses to the Lucky Thirteen last Friday evening in the McCollum home. Rose buds and shaggy chrysanthemums graced the livingroom, and the Thanksgiving motif further carried out in taily cards and favors each guest receiving a chocolate turkey. Pumpkin pie topped with marshmallow and coffee was served to the following Misses: Agnes Cox, Lewis Manly, Helen Harrison, Ermine Daugherty, Lela Welsh, Elaine Mills, Marguerite McCollum, Lois Earnest, Mesdames Roy Killingsworth and Bert Welsh and the hostesses.

Lucile Reagan Circle.

The Lucile Reagan Circle of the Baptist Womens Missionary Society met in the home of Mrs. W. W. Johnson last Monday. Mrs. D. Scott lead the devotional using the 101st Psalm. Prayer by Mrs. R. P. Glenn. Two letters thanking the ladies for their kindness in conferring special favors were read. Delicious and lovely home made candies were packed in Thanksgiving boxes and sent to girls away at school and of teaching. Those were: Miss Jessie Maul, Hays, Minnie Dell Davis, Mary Couch and Mary Emma Wainaker. This thoughtful group also carried Thanksgiving baskets of fruit to the Deacons, Teachers and Aunt Annie Throckmorton. Members present were: Margaret D. Scott, Leona Gilliam, Edna C. T. Crane, W. W. Johnson, R. P. Glenn. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. D. Scott.

Miscellaneous Shower.

A miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. D. H. Craddock and daughter Lillian on last Friday afternoon Nov. 16, honoring two recent brides, Mrs. Roy Fisher and Mrs. Royce Stephens. As each guest arrived they were asked to register in the brides books which were presided over by Mrs. May Dennis. After each guest had registered they assembled to the prettily decorated reception room where they enjoyed victrola music also Miss Hazel Flenniken read, "A Recipe for Brides." Two little boys and two little girls came in pulling little decorated wagons with the gifts for the brides on them. They received many beautiful and useful gifts. Refreshments of hot chocolate topped with marshmallows, and cake were served to about forty guests.

Methodist Women Observe Week of Prayer.

Monday, November the 19th, the women of the Methodist Missionary Society began the observance of the week of prayer program. Mrs. Bob Harrison conducted the service Monday afternoon. Opening song: "The Kingdom is Coming," devotional group reading; special prayer, for China, Mrs. P. T. Sanders; Korea and Japan Mrs. Guy Mays; Africa, Mrs. J. A. Alexander. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. John Wilson had charge of the program and the first number was "Meditations on the road called strait." Mrs. Elizabeth Martin discussed, Mexico. Mrs. Len Southern read the leaflet on Latin America; Mrs. P. A. Womble, the leaflet on Poland and Mrs. Persons on Sechoulovia. Mrs. Wilson had a very appropriate setting for the afternoon's program, a snow white cross was on the stage and the special songs called attention to the cross. Mrs. W. A. Kimbrough sang as a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross," and two other numbers were, "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross," and "Must Jesus Bear The Cross Alone?"

On Wednesday evening the series of programs was concluded with an impressive program, directed by Mrs. Bob Harrison; she gave the devotional, and talks were made by Mrs. J. M. Gose and Mrs. J. U. Fields. There was a lovely quartet by Messrs. Grissom and Harrison and Mrs. Hill Oates and Mrs. C. L. Lewis. A most impressive psalm was then given by Mrs. Lee Glazner's Missionary children, assisted by Mrs. Guy Mays. This culminated in the lighting of 917 candles in remembrance of the fifty years of women's work as auxiliaries. An older group of girls also had in part of the evening given in responsive reading. Mrs. Harrison read the first verse and a group of ladies responded.

Mrs. J. T. Therwhanger Honored By Her Friends.

Friday November the nineteenth was a happy day at the home of J. T. Therwhanger, Weinert. On that day many friends gathered at the Therwhanger home to honor Mrs. Therwhanger on her fifty-eighth birthday. The general color scheme for the decorations was red and white. White and yellow chrysanthemums were used throughout the house. Marjorie was used with the other decorations.

The dining table was decorated in red and white to harmonize with the color scheme throughout the house. Then menu for the birthday dinner was: chicken, olives, pickles, fruit salad, coffee with whipped cream, jelly, Angel Food Cake.

Those who honored Mrs. Therwhanger on the anniversary of her birthday were: Mrs. A. D. O'Dell, Verma, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller, Weinert, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Reed, Weinert, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Will Lane, Weinert, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bennett, Weinert; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fox, Weinert; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Robinson and daughter of Knox City.

Zone Meeting At Throckmorton.

Today week, Thursday, November the 22, the women's missionary society of the Methodist church held a zone meeting in Throckmorton. This comprises some half dozen or more towns and there was a splendid representation present last Thursday, with two conference officers and one district officer present. These were: Mrs. Hoge of Knox City, Conference Superintendent of the Missionary Voice; Mrs. Rutherford of Stamford, Conference Secretary; and Mrs. F. O. Campbell of Manday, District Secretary. The Haskell ladies had the program of the day in charge, with Mrs. C. M. Kaigler, acting chairman and Mrs. J. M. Gose, secretary. Mrs. Gose was the main speaker of the morning. At the noon hour a delicious luncheon was served all visitors and the local auxiliary rendered a splendid program of vocal selections and readings. The roll call after lunch revealed that Throckmorton won the banner for largest number attending the Zone meeting. After all business was disposed with, including the election of a new president, Mrs. Selley of Throckmorton, the Haskell ladies presented a program the speaker being "From Greenland's Icy Mountains." Those in attendance from Haskell were: Mesdames J. M. Gose, Nyrona, Elmer Irwin, Andrew Shriver, G. W. Tidwell, O. E. Patterson, M. K. Kugler, Cate, John Wilson, Elizabeth Martin, J. U. Fields, Bruce W. Bryant, H. M. Smith, P. T. Sanders and P. A. Womble.

Joueleit Demonstration Club Organized.

Miss Masilda Gunn and the ladies of adjoining communities met at Mrs. E. B. Galloway's Wednesday afternoon, November 21, in order to organize a Demonstration Club. Mrs. J. A. Joueleit, Vice President, Mrs. J. A. Joueleit, Secretary, Mrs. E. B. Galloway, Reporter, Mrs. P. J. Joueleit.

A standing committee was appointed by the president consisting of Mrs. J. A. Joueleit, Mrs. J. L. Toliver, Mrs.

Higgins and Mrs. Edwards. The club was organized with nine members and three visitors present. The club will be known as the Joueleit Demonstration Club. All members are urged to be present at the next meeting day, the first Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 19, at the home of Mrs. Higgins in the Phillips community. All clubs and communities are invited to attend. Reporter.

Farm News

Field Editor

Tuesday Nov. 30

We left home to work out Rule Route 2, which runs through some of the finest farming sections of Haskell county and the folks all along this route are among the most prosperous in any section of West Texas. We found them very kind and in every instance we were accorded a warm welcome to every home.

We made our first stop out of Rule at the home of C. H. Baugh who had just gone to Rule. We met his mother who is one of the finest women in the county. He has reared a fine bunch of boys and girls and has a great pleasure in the success of her children. She gave us a check for the Free Press to make its weekly visit to her home for 32 weeks. Thanks.

E. E. Verner is living on the old home place north of Rule. He is about through picking cotton and made a fair crop for the year. In fact Mrs. Verner stated that the crop on the farm is as good this year as last. They will make plenty of feed, have hogs for the meat and land for the family and they are milking two fine Jersey cows. Mrs. Verner has more than 100 White Leghorn hens and this family with these many blessings are contented and happy.

We next called at the home of E. L. Chubb who had gone to Rule. He has out 18 bales of cotton and will make lots of feed, has one good cow, 2 fine hogs and a small show. They have quite a flock of White Leghorn hens which they like very much. Mrs. Chubb says this is her first year with the White Leghorn but she says she will increase the number of hens next year.

John L. Baugh had killed a fine hog and was helping Mrs. Baugh render the lard. John is one of our old time friends. We made a two weeks trip out the lower Rio Grande valley with him in March 1924 and we sure had a big time. He owns a farm of a little more than a hundred acres which is well improved with good residence and barn.

He will make 30 bales on 60 acres of land that's a half bale per acre. He made lots of feed. He has 250 White Leghorn hens which has fed the hens and bought the groceries for their master. John says that poultry is the best paying sideline the farmer can have on his place.

Mrs. Baugh always makes soap when they kill hogs and uses the grease which would otherwise be wasted. Mr. and Mrs. Baugh gave us some fine home made sausage to bring home and also gave us a check for the Free Press for a year. Thanks.

We called at the home of H. P. Perry who has 200 White Leghorn hens and pullets and he and Mrs. Perry have had experience in the poultry business and know how to make a hens pay. They are paying for their feed and keeping and paying for the family groceries. Mr. Perry is a good farmer. He has out 33 bales of cotton and believes he will make about 40 bales when the crop is all gathered. He has made plenty of feed for another year. He has three good cows and plenty of hogs. He is looking after everything on the farm carefully and Mrs. Perry is keeping books on her chickens and has promised to give them to us later for publication. Mr. Perry gave us his check for the Free Press for a year. Thanks.

J. M. Betts is among our oldest citizens. He has lived on the place he now owns for 24 years. He will make his feed for another year and will make around 18 bales of cotton. Mrs. Betts has both Red and White Leghorn chickens and they have 2 good cows. Mr. and Mrs. Betts are well known in Haskell County and have many friends. They are readers of the Free Press.

We came to the home of T. L. Johnston just at the noon hour who is a reader of the Free Press. He had come from the field with a fine load of maize which was unloading into the barn. He thinks he can get by with his feed crop for another year although he might have to buy one or two tons of maize. He has 3 good cows and some good hogs and a flock of Black Minorca chickens. Mr. Johnston has lived on the farm since 1919, coming from Travis county 21 years ago. He has out 17 bales of cotton and the family have picked most of this cotton. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston gave us a good dinner while we were in their home which we enjoyed very much.

White in the home of Mr. Johnston he dug up from his trunk a old time picture which was made in Travis county in 1892 when he and his brother-in-law had six yoke of cattle to an old time sandy sulky plow breaking sod in the above named county. 20 miles southeast of Austin our State capital. Mr. Johnston stated that these steers were slow but sure and the ground did not have to be grubbed very closely when plowed by this strong and steady team. They could pull most of them up. Mr. Johnston says those were great days to him.

We found our friend W. P. Hines one of our leading young farmers and brother of Frank Hines who is Rural Carrier of Route 2 out of Rule and has been on the route many years, listening to the market report while he was taking his noon rest and Mrs. Hines was quilting. She said she had quilted 4 quilts already this fall. That is a good record. Mr. Hines is interested in poultry and has about 150 hens of the White Leghorn breed. He says they are laying some but have let up during the cold rainy weather. He will make 35 bales of cotton from 78 acres of ground which is near a half bale per acre. He will make plenty of feed for another year. He owns the farm and has plenty of hogs, cows and work stock to run the farm. Mr. Hines gave us his check for the Free Press for a year. Thanks to Mr. Hines.

We made our next stop at the home of W. L. Arrington who was very busy gathering his cotton. Mrs. Arrington is interested in her flock of about 175 White Leghorn hens and pullets and she sold 30 dozen eggs from her flock last week and she thinks they will do as well or better this week. They paid last week $10.00 net above all expenses for their keep and feed. They work on Sunday for their master giving seven days service each week. Mr. Arrington is a good citizen and farmer and we are glad that Haskell county is filled with so many good citizens and Mr. Arrington is one of this number to be appreciated.

We called at the home of O. C.

Cartwright who has just moved to a new place on Rule Route 2. Mr. Cartwright was picking cotton trying to get his cotton gathered before bad weather sets in for the winter. Mrs. E. M. Florence of near Rule was visiting Mrs. Cartwright and they were busy looking over embroidery patterns. Mrs. Cartwright does lots of embroidery work. She has done 21 sheets for her neighbors and herself in a very short time and she has many pretty pieces of work for her home. She is an artist in this class of work and those who enjoy good work will appreciate looking over the many beautiful designs she has in her home.

S. S. Weaver was fast winding up his cotton crop. He had a large bunch of hands helping him pick cotton. From 100 acres of ground he will get more than 40 bales of cotton. He will make lots of feed and will have some for sale. He has two cows and hogs for his meat and has 125 White Leghorn hens. Prosperity is the watch word on this farm.

R. O. Coffey a young farmer was heading maize. He is about through picking cotton and was very busy when we passed. We noted some good hogs and Plymouth Rock chickens about the place.

In going over Route 2 from Rule we found many people who were away from home and we did not get any write up from their homes. We will go over part of this route again tomorrow and try to see the families who were gone.

C. O. Davis Hatchery

We stopped at the C. O. Davis poultry plant as we came home and saw him feed his hens and gather the eggs. He made the trip with us to California and the things he learned over there he is putting in practice and the one thing in particular of keeping his hens in the houses day and night and his hens are more than 50 per cent production. They increased very much after he put them up. It takes less feed and they lay more eggs. He gets 9 cases of eggs every two weeks and gets $13.50 per case net. His flock is all White Leghorns. He has an ad in the Free Press this week read it.

Wednesday Nov. 21

We began our days work Wednesday November 21 on Rule Route 2 going over some of the ground again trying to see some of the folks who were gone from home yesterday.

We made our first stop at the home of S. B. White a prosperous farmer of the Corinth School community.

Mr. White is a good farmer tilling a sandy land farm and Mrs. White says that they made plenty of feed to do them for next year. They have some good cows and White Leghorn hens.

Mr. and Mrs. White are among our best people and have many friends among their neighbors.

B. O. Westbrook who has been living in the Cook Springs community for a number of years and is among the best farmers in that section. He will make more feed this year than he will need and will have some maize to sell. Mr. Westbrook has 5 good hogs to kill and has some good cows. He lives in the deep sand and he did not get a stand until late in the spring but his feed made good but cotton was not so good. Mrs. Westbrook was trying to kill the fleas from her hen house as we passed. She has a large flock of chickens on her poultry yard.

We next called at the home of J. A. Bente who has just finished cutting some fine feed with a binder. Mrs. Bente says they will make 40 or more tons of maize beside the fine bundle feed they will have to put up. They are milking one good cow and have some other good cattle. They have plenty of hogs for meat and some to sell. We noticed some fine plymouth rock chickens on the yard.

Mrs. J. E. Yarbrough with her children are farming near Corinth school building and they have made a fine crop this year. They are very busy gathering their crops. She will make lots of feed and has some of the best cotton we saw in that section. They have hogs for their meat and 2 good cows. She also has a nice flock of chickens.

Our next stop was at the home of F. A. Irvin a good farmer. They have a fine orchard and berries from which they put up lots of fruit. His son B. L. and wife are living with them and helping them with the farming. They have a good cow and 2 good hogs.

J. A. Briles who lived in the Corinth community has moved to Sweet Home community. He and his wife and brother were heading out his maize and he had a number of folks picking his cotton. He will soon be through gathering and ready to begin plowing for another year.

Joe Lowry had gone to Anson when we called. He is a good farmer and has a good crop and has some cotton to pick yet. He has a good orchard and Mrs. Lowry has put up lots of fruit. She has more than 100 White Leghorn pullets which will soon be laying.

We found F. Golden heading maize. He lives on the A. C. Henry farm near Cook Springs School. He will make plenty of maize and some to sell. He will make about 30 bales of cotton on 60 acres of land. His son who was injured by a train at Rule some time ago when the auto in which the family of Mr. Golden was riding was struck is now able to attend school. We do not know whether he has fully recovered or not. Mr. Golden has lived in Haskell county for 21 years. He came from Alabama to Texas.

C. E. Conder is a busy farmer these days gathering his good crop. He has out 22 bales of cotton and will make plenty of feed for another year. He also has cows and hogs to keep up the family expenses in their home. Mrs. Conder has some fine Wyandotte and Leghorn chickens.

J. W. Driskill one of our friends whom we have known many years had gone to the gin at Rule. He has his feed all in the barn and likes only a few bolls to pull which will complete the gathering of his crop for this year. Mr. Driskill recently built a new stucco residence and owns one of the best improved farms in that section of the country. Mrs. Driskill is a very successful poultry raiser. She sold some large fliers which brought her more than $100 each last week. Prosperity is the watchword on this farm.

We found W. G. Hamilton who owns a good farm well improved, at the house about the noon hour. He was needing some cotton pickers to help him gather his fine crop. He says his crop this year is better than his last year's crop. He will make plenty of good maize to run the farm. He has plenty of good hogs for meat and a nice bunch of good cows. W. G. is all O. K. for next year with good health.

We stopped a short while with W. H. Taylor who is a good farmer. He came from Ellis county two years ago and says he likes Haskell county very much. He says the land is much easier cultivated and will make better crops and that the tenant farmer has a better showing here to own a home. He is making a good crop and has it all most gathered.

L. D. Ray had just come to the house when we called on him. He is helping his neighbors pull bolls. He seemed to be a fine young man.

We called on our old friend and former reader of the home paper W. P. Curtis who gave us his check for the paper again. He is a good farmer and is interested in poultry. White Leghorn hens which very highly as egg producers two good cows and his crop bumper for the year, just as ed. He lived in Rule for but is back on the farm to will give much of his time farming with his fine chick Continued on Next

The new Ford
has a very simple and effective lubrication system

THE lubrication system for the engine of the new Ford is as simple in principle as water running down-hill.

A gear pump in the bottom of the oil pan raises the oil to the valve chamber reservoir. From here it flows on to the main crankshaft bearings and the front camshaft bearing. Overflow oil drops into the oil pan tray and runs into troughs through which the connecting rods pass.

As the ends of these rods strike the oil they scoop up a supply for the connecting rod bearing. At the same time they set up a fine spray that lubricates the pistons and other moving parts.

From the tray the oil runs into the bottom of the pan, and is again drawn up through a fine mesh screen and pumped to the valve chamber.

This system is so effective that the five-quart contents of the oil pan pass through the pump twice in every mile when you are traveling at only 30 miles an hour. Yet there is only one movable part—the oil pump.

As a matter of fact, the lubrication system for the new Ford is so simple in design and so carefully made that it requires practically no service attention.

There is just one thing for you to do, but it is a very important thing... watch the oil! Change the oil every 500 miles and be sure the indicator rod never registers below low (L).

If the oil level is allowed to fall below low, the supply becomes insufficient to oil all parts as they should be oiled.

To insure best performance it is also advisable to have the chassis of your car lubricated every 500 miles. This has been made easy in the new Ford through the use of the high pressure grease gun system.

Proper oiling and greasing mean so much to the life of your car that they should not be neglected or carelessly done.

See your Ford dealer regularly. He is especially well-fitted to lubricate the new Ford and he will do a good, thorough job at a fair price.
