The Borean Glass

Well our president is in Austin this week and we are expecting a fine report from him this Sunday. I told you once before that they Boreans don't do things half-way and just as proof of that statement I offer the information that the president is accompanied by a second delegate to the convention in the person of Marvin Hudson. So you see with two reports from the convention it will seem almost as if we had been present. All members are urged to be present next Sunday and hear these good reports.

Home Town Thoughts

People who claim they are saving a few cents by going to another town to buy goods are frequently losing dollars by their failure to spend their money where it builds up home town business.

The Spirit of Improvement

People's minds fall into two classes as respects their environment. One set of people always favors letting well enough alone. They look around at their disorderly home place, and think it is well enough, and not worth fussing to improve. They see many unattractive and ugly features in their home town, but they are not interested in movements to substitute anything better.

Your Easter Rabbit

When you buy one of those fuzzy wuzzy Easter rabbits for the children, did you ever think how the old idea originated? In Germany the Easter hare, or what is nearly the same thing, the rabbit, is almost as much of a feature as our Santa Claus at Christmas.

Get Good Seed

Gardeners and farmers who are about committing the seed to the soil, can well be warned that it never pays to buy poor or doubtful seed. It costs little more to buy good tested seeds. It takes just as much labor to cultivate a crop raised from poor seed, and probably more labor for the crop will need more care.

Developing Home Trade

As a whole our home people in Haskell stand by their home business, and our home business concerns are very enterprising and active in meeting their needs. But a word should be said now and then to induce every business concern to do everything possible to make their methods and equipment and policies thoroughly up to date.

for Economical Transportation

it's wise to choose a SIX!

There is one sure way to get greater value in a low-priced car today—choose a Six!

This greater value is instantly obvious when you drive a Chevrolet Six. You notice first of all its greater smoothness. There is no tremor in the steering wheel—no rattle in the floor boards—no rumble or drumming in the body.

In addition to the finer performance of its six-cylinder motor, the new Chevrolet gives you truly remarkable economy.

Its six-cylinder smoothness saves the entire car from the strain and wear of vibration. This, of course, lowers the cost of maintenance and assures a longer-lasting, longer-satisfying automobile.

From the standpoint of operating expense, Chevrolet is equally economical. No other automobile consumes less gasoline and oil. No other shows a lower expense for tires. And no other car costs less for service.

Because of its modern engineering, Chevrolet also assures a high resale value.

Chevrolet gives you fully-enclosed, weather-proof, 4-wheel brakes; a modern fuel system—with the gasoline tank mounted in the rear; four long semi-elliptic springs, mounted lengthwise in the direction of car travel. It gives you beautiful Fisher bodies built of combination hardwood-and-steel. It gives you a heavy, rigidly-braced channel-steel frame. And it gives you a full ball bearing steering mechanism.

Before you decide on any car in the low-price field, see and drive the Chevrolet Six. The more thoroughly you investigate, the more certain you are to conclude that it's wise to choose a Six—for value, for performance . . . and for economical transportation!

COUNT THE COST OF YOUR WASHDAY BUNDLE

BEFORE YOU ENTRUST IT TO IRRESPONSIBLE PERSONS

Sit down with pencil and paper when you've made up your laundry bundle to send out to a home laundress. Add the cost of each item—it runs into real money.

Then stop and think whether you'd rather entrust this valuable property to an irresponsible individual or to a big, reliable institution like ours!

To say nothing of the fact that our methods are thoroughly sanitary, absolutely safeguarding your health as well as your clothes. Investigate—and be convinced!

We use only pure soft water even softer than rain water, and your clothes are given 9 to 13 different changes of water each time and we do not use the same water over again as you will get from the average wash woman, just pure, clean, filtered water changed each time.

IT'S WORTH $50
A BOTTLE STATES
MRS. BRANNAN

Orgatone Overcomes Gallbladder Troubles of Four Years Standing. Says Wichita Woman.

"If I had to pay $50.00 a bottle for Orgatone I wouldn't think it was too much, for it sure put me on my feet so that I can now do my housework with ease," said Mrs. R. E. Brannan, who lives at 501 Lee Street, Wichita Falls, Texas, the other day.

"For the past four or five years," continued Mrs. Brannan, "I suffered so terribly from kidney and gall bladder trouble that I could hardly get about at all. Why, my condition was so awful that I was just about all in, but after Orgatone built me up so I am able to look out for myself and I feel like a different woman entirely. There was a terrible shooting pain in my side also in my back right over my kidneys, and I would have such sharp cutting pains in my side that at times I would just have to lie down. I got so weak that I could hardly walk any distance at all.

"But one day a friend of mine recommended Orgatone to me, so highly that I decided to try it, as nothing else has done me any good. I have taken it about three weeks so far and it has certainly done me a world of good. My kidneys are acting fine and never give me a bit of trouble, that awful misery is clean gone from my back, and I never have those sharp pains in my side any more. All that weakness has entirely disappeared from my stomach and I can walk anywhere I want to without any trouble. Orgatone has given me new strength and energy and I feel just like a different person."

Genuine Orgatone may be obtained in Haskell at the Oates Drug Store.—Adv.

MAN CAN'T SLEEP, GETS NERVOUS, HATES PEOPLE

"I could not sleep and got so nervous I hated everybody. Since taking Vinol, I can sleep 10 hours and feel full of pep all day."—Julius Bender.

For 30 years doctors have prescribed Vinol because it contains important mineral elements of iron, calcium and cod liver peptide. The very FIRST bottle brings sound sleep and a BIG appetite. Nervous, wornout people are surprised how QUICK Vinol gives new life and spirit. Tastes delicious. Martin's Drug Store.

Marcy Lee Wash Frocks

Cottons have carved a place in the fashionable wardrobe which cannot be superseded. But the one thing demanded of wash frocks is that they dress style charmingly. Marcy Lee Wash Frocks meet the demand perfectly. They feature advanced styling without effecting faddishness.

The popularity of Marcy Lee Wash Frocks permits the manufacturers to produce these attractive wash frocks in such quantities that considerable savings can be made on purchases of piece goods. Thus higher quality merchandise is incorporated into their stylings, and the ultimate purchaser receives duo-fold value.

The price of a Marcy Lee Wash Frock is surprisingly low when compared to the original styling, quality merchandise which are incorporated into. Where else can such value be found in a garment tailing at $1.95 and $2.95.

Quite in keeping with the gay and restive mood of Spring-time are these new Spring styles in Marcy Lee Wash Frocks. Impudent bows, the lengthened circular flares flaunt themselves in the breezes, while straightline frocks favoring important pleats come more demurely.

ZIEGFELD'S "GLORIFYING THE AMERICAN GIRL"

From childhood Gloria Hughes (Mary Esters) has cherished the ambition to make good in a Ziegfeld show. At the age of 17 she is working in Henner's Department store with two childhood friends, Buddy (Edward Cranshall) and Barbara (Olive Sheal). Gloria sings songs in the music department. Buddy, who is in love with her, plays the accompaniments. Barbara, a sales girl, is secretly very much in love with Buddy.

At the annual store picnic Buddy takes Gloria canning and proposes to her. She refuses him, saying that her greatest love is the stage. Among the acts at the picnic is the dancing team of Miller (Dan Healy) and Monee (Kaye Renard). They have a quarrel and when Miller sees Gloria doing an impromptu dance he asks her to become his partner. She agrees, and later Gloria and Miller start on a vodvil tour accompanied by Gloria's money-mad mother (Sarah Edwards).

Return to New York
Miller makes obnoxious advances to Gloria and she slaps his face. He is about to fire her when he learns there is a Ziegfeld scout in the hotel audience. The crafty Miller, knowing that Gloria is the chief attraction, gets her to sign a partnership agreement just before the scout approaches.

The vodvil team returns to New York. Buddy and Barbara are at the station. Buddy is so overjoyed to see Gloria that he forgets Barbara. She follows but is injured by a cab while attempting to overtake them.

The Ziegfeld stage manager fails to approve of Miller and Gloria's act. Gloria persuades him to let her do a single performance. She makes a hit, but Miller shares her salary because of the partnership agreement.

Meanwhile the injured Barbara has called for Buddy and his hospital officials summon him to her side. When he reaches her, Buddy realizes that he loves her.

Gloria Great Success
On the night of Gloria's introduction to the public scores of celebrities are introduced by radio from the foyer of the theatre. The show opens with a brilliant Technicolor dance revue. Then Rudy Wallace and his orchestra present a specialty number, followed by Helen Morgan singing a typical blues song. Eddie Cantor in a comical skit—a screen version of the famous "Cheap Charlie," is the next act in the revue scene.

Then in a flash of gorgeous color, Gloria Hughes is presented to the public as the premiere dancer of the entire production. She scores a great personal hit.

In her dressing room after the triumph she receives a congratulatory telegram from Buddy and Barbara, who includes the information that they have just been married. Gloria's hour of glorification turns bitter, but she continues with her role in the show. She must be content with the applause of the public and the compliments of Miller and other fair weather friends who greet her success.

GRISSOM'S

Music

(By Joe Meacham)

This week I will begin to answer a question that has been asked me many times and that is, What I Think About Jazz. I will say frankly that I have nothing against jazz in its place as play time music or as a diversion from the real thing but it can not even be taken seriously as music. However for the time being it has become a part of American life.

Many but not all of our composers are out to make what they can and note the tendency of the times and cling to what is striding and try to write something resembling music whether good or bad. It is the style of this day and time to be different. This is an age of speed, war and racket and most of the musicians of today write for the people who live in it. That I think is one of the main reasons for jazz, but I don't think it constitutes any argument for its being permanent but for the present there is no escaping it. It is out over the radio, ground out on phonographs, played in restaurants and most of the time on the stage. It has spread far beyond the confines of the United States and has become a National question in other countries. But what is it after all? Is it only a style of dance music. Take it out of the ballroom and it soon loses its appeal. I know it is played other places than ballrooms but the only effect I ever knew it to have was to make its hearers want to dance. It is possible to destroy the appeal of truly fine music by jarring it so that it gives the would be dancers nervous feet. About 85 per cent of the people of today belong to the foot brigade. When they hear music their feet begin to keep time with it. One reason jazz has appealed so strongly is that it is suited to those rhythmic hearers whose feet keep time to the sway.

Chicago is advertising the city's good qualities. It's bad ones have had plenty of publicity.

Haskell Baptists

"A GREATER BAPTIST CHURCH"

The above subject will be discussed Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock hour. We already have a great organization and a great people, but the future holds greater things in store for us. Our ambition for the church is as follows:

1. We want to increase our Sunday School attendance of 371 last Sunday to 500 every Sunday. However we would not ask any one to come just in order to have a larger number, but we would like for you to come because it is a good place to render service and to receive help for yourself.
2. We desire to have the plain unchangeable Word of God preached with greater spiritual power. We would like for every preaching service to be a demonstration of Holy Spirit Power.
3. We would like for our Church to be a greater Soul-Winning Church. Some one should be saved every week.
4. We desire that our Church have a greater world-wide vision. We want to win souls in Haskell and help our Missionaries to win them in foreign lands.

"The Professing Christian and His Own Soul"

7:45 p. m. Preaching Service. Subject: "The Professing Christian and His Own Soul."

This should be a helpful service for every Church member. What about our own Soul? Are we certain of our standing before God? Are we growing a great Christian Character for God? Let's make this a heart searching service for us all.

LOCAL MAN WINS POULTRY AWARDS IN EGG CONTEST

Competing with pens entered from various States in the United States at the three egg laying contests in Texas the Single Comb White Leghorn hens entered by W. P. Trice, local poultryman and former county agent of Haskell County, have made a good showing. These pens consist of ten competing hens and were entered in the contests at the beginning of the contest year which started November 1st, 1929.

The Texas Egg Laying Contests are located at the Texas A. and M. College, College Station; San Antonio and Stephenville.

All birds entered in these contests are trapped each day and all eggs weighed. To get credit for one point the eggs must weigh 24 ounces to the dozen, if they weigh more they get credit for more points and if less the points will be less.

Trice's pen at the Stephenville contest laid 200 eggs during the month of March or an average of 26 eggs per hen which was ninth place for the 48 pens entered at the contest. One hen in this pen laid 30 eggs during March for a credit of 32.8 points and was given credit for being the highest Single Comb White Leghorn and the highest hen of all breeds at the contest for this period.

Trice's entry at A. and M. College laid 231 eggs during March and his entry at San Antonio laid 231 eggs during the month of February.

Several individual hens in these pens have laid above 100 eggs during the five months of the contest and some have gone above 115 eggs during this time. These records go to show that Haskell County can boast of as good White Leghorns as can be found in any portion of the country and it is not necessary to send away to obtain good laying stock.

Theron Cahill has returned from Abilene where he has been at the bedside of little Jerry Cahill, who has been ill for over a week. Mr. Cahill reports the condition of his son improved.

WHAT KIND OF COTTON IS BEST FOR WEST TEXAS

D. L. Jones, Superintendent of the Lubbock Experiment Station gave the following figures at a recent meeting of ginners, bankers and business men held at Lubbock. These figures represent an average for the years 1924, 25, 26, 27 and 28, except Half and Half which is for the four year period 1925 to 1928 inclusive. A number of the varieties have been grown longer than the five year period. However all have not and the figures for 5 years will serve as a basis. These factors should be considered by the farmers in selecting cotton varieties for planting, Mr. Jones said. They are staple length 7.8 to 1 inch, yield or production qualities and early maturity qualities. The records of the Experiment Station will serve as a guide to the farmers in selecting varieties that have the best combination of these qualities. Below is a list of all the well known breeds as tried at the Lubbock experiment station, and we offer it to the farmers of Haskell county for their consideration.

New Manager for Local Panhandle Service Station

Doyle Jacobs, former operator of the Snappy Service Station, has taken over the management of the recently-opened Panhandle Station, one block north of the square, succeeding Mr. Gibson, former manager of the station.

Mr. Jacobs took charge of the station Monday of this week, and states that he is enjoying a nice patronage. He adds that more and more Haskell motorists are using Panhandle Products, which are gaining favor throughout this section for their dependable quality. In addition to the Panhandle gasoline and oils, Mr. Jacobs carries a complete stock of tires, tubes and accessories, and operates a washing and greasing rack in connection with his station.

Mr. Jacobs states that although their station was only recently opened in this city, the Panhandle Refining Company is the oldest refinery operating in Northwest Texas, having for the past fourteen years been producing, refining, and marketing crude oil and its refined products in this section of the country. The company has been under the same management during this entire period, and it has grown from a very small beginning to one of the most outstanding independent companies of the state.

SCHOOL CENSUS SHOULD INCLUDE CHILDREN OVER 6

According to Supt. Breedlove of the Haskell schools, work of enumerating the scholastic population of the Haskell Independent School District has been completed, and within a few days will be filed with the State Department of Education.

In this connection, Mr. Breedlove states that due to the fact that the new law lowering the school age limit from seven to six years is in effect this year, it is likely that a number of scholastics have been overlooked in the enumeration, although this was guarded against as closely as possible. There is still time, however, to enroll children in the census, if it is done at once, and every child within the district who will attain the age of six years before Sept. 1st and who has not been included in the census, should be reported to the School Board at once. The same applies to children of families who have moved into the district since the census was taken. Patrons will be conferring a favor on the Board if they will report the names of any children overlooked in the census, and it will be to the interest of the schools in a financial way also as the apportionment of $17.50 for each child which was granted this year will probably be received again next year.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE IN CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

Noticeable results have been accomplished during the first three days of the week in the City-Wide Clean-Up Campaign, and Haskell is taking on the appearance of one of the cleanest towns in this section as a result of the interest which is being manifested by a majority of our citizens in the movement.

Beginning Wednesday, wagons have been furnished by the city to haul away all rubbish which cannot be burned, free of charge, and this service will be continued through Friday, according to Sanitary Commissioner Henry King. All property owners who wish to avail themselves of this free service should place all trash and rubbish in a convenient place where it is accessible to the wagons, and this should be done not later than Friday.

Mayor Menefee states that a considerable amount of money is being expended by the city in helping the citizens to dispose of their rubbish, and asks that everyone cooperate in the campaign this week. If everyone in Haskell will work together in the movement, our town will take on a new appearance, and we will have just cause to be proud to live in Haskell.

Care of Poultry Flock Will Pay Good Dividends

The reports which have come to the office of the home demonstration agent from club poultry demonstrators show results of care of the poultry flock.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Josslet's flocks of reds and mixed chickens, a total of 92 hens made a profit of $16.61 for the month of March. Mrs. Josslet is a member of the Josslet club.

Co-operators have been listed in addition to the special demonstrator in each club to further interests of farm poultry and gardens. Records show what is gained from the farm interests and should be kept just as systematically as the records in a retail business.
