JERRY KENT IS REFUSED NEW TRIAL HERE LAST FRIDAY

Hearing on a motion for new trial for Jerry Kent held in 42nd district court had aftermath in the filing of perjury charges against two witnesses, J. P. Hill and E. T. Hudnall, who reside near Rising Star. Judge M. S. Long denied the motion of Kent, 19, Cross Plains youth, convicted on April 17 of the murder of his great uncle, Bob Ensor, and given a 40-year penitentiary term.

Ensor, Cross Plains farmer, was shot from ambush early Saturday night, March 21, after leaving his automobile to open a field gate leading to his home.

Kent's motion for a new trial was heard at 4:30 p. m. last Friday, after the court had waited arrival of the Rising Star witnesses since 10:30 a. m.

Both Hill and Hudnall testified to seeing the defendant in Rising Star the afternoon on which Ensor was slain.

Hill, testifying first, said he saw Kent about 5 or 5:30 p. m., riding alone in a model T Ford touring car, without curtains. He said the defendant was traveling south. Hill testified leaving Rising Star with Hudnall late in the afternoon to go to his home a few miles away.

Hudnall's testimony was that he and Hill did not leave Rising Star together. He testified to seeing Kent about 4:30 p. m. on the day of the killing driving south on a street of Rising Star in a 1925 Ford coupe, accompanied by a girl.

Witnesses at Kent's trial testified to seeing the defendant in the vicinity of the killing at the approximate hours named by Hill and Hudnall on the day that Ensor was slain. The distance between Cross Plains and Rising Star is about twenty miles.

Perjury charges against Hill and Hudnall were preferred by L. B. Lewis, Callahan county attorney, immediately after hearing on the Kent motion was concluded.

Kent was remanded to the Callahan county jail, where he has been held since his arrest in Brown county on March 24. His attorney, J. Lee Cearley, of Cisco, gave notice of appeal.

COYOTES DEFEAT MORAN

Last Sunday the Coyotes journeyed to Moran and added another game to their win column. The final score was 6 to 2. The high south wind which swept over the field made fly balls, which should have been easy outs, go for hits.

Farmer was the leading hitter for the Coyotes with a triple, double and a single. Young was next with two singles, while R. Ray, Ivy, Joe McIntosh and Hall got one hit each.

Next Sunday the Coyotes will play another fast ball club out of Abilene. Abilene always has a good ball club and you are sure to see a real ball game. So let's all be out and see a real ball game and root for the Coyotes.

Lightning Sets Fire To Barn On Tyler Farm

During the rain Monday night, lightning struck a barn on the Tyler farm some three and one-half miles west of town and set it on fire, completely destroying the building including several thousand bundles of feed.

The house some distance away also caught fire but the fire was put out before any damage was done.

Mr. Wagner, who lives on the place with his family were in the stormhouse but realized when the crash came that it had struck near by, looked out to find his house and barn on fire.

Neighbors nearby went to help, but were unable to save anything in the barn except the wagon.

Insects and Plant Diseases Now Present

According to county agent A. M. Cooper there are several insects and plant diseases that are now found on field crops, flowers and shrubs. In some cases these can be effectively and economically controlled.

Cut worms are now working in the fields and gardens and on young flowering plants. This insect can be very effectively and cheaply controlled by using a poisoned mash. This is made as follows:

Mix dry 25 pounds of wheat bran and one pound of white arsenic. Then mix up 6 oranges or lemons using juice pulp and rind with 2 quarts of cane syrup and about 3 gallons of water. Use this mixture to dampen the bran and arsenic mixture and apply on the ground in small piles in the places where cut worms are working. This should be put out late in the afternoon as the cutworms work at night. This mixture will be effective as long as it stays damp.

Plant lice will probably be found on roses, cotton, and other vegetation as long as the weather stays cloudy, cool and damp. This insect sucks the juices of the plant. A contact spray such as Black Leaf 40 is most commonly used for these insects, and should be used as directed on the bottle. The control of these insects on field crops is generally to expensive to attempt.

Mildew is found at this time on a number of plants. This is a fungus disease and is not caused by an insect. It may be controlled by dusting with sulphur or when it is not desirable to stain the foliage, copper carbonate spray is recommended. This spray is made as follows:

5 oz of Copper Carbonate; 2 to 3 pints of ammonia; water to make up to 50 gallons. Dilute the ammonia with 7 to 8 parts of water. Add water to the copper carbonate to make a paste. Dissolve the paste with the diluted ammonia using no more ammonia than necessary to complete the solution and then add the remaining water. This mixture should be kept tightly sealed to prevent evaporation.

The Humble Red Sox in their first game Sunday defeated Jones Drug Co of Abilene, a strong contender for the City League Championship by a margin of 2 runs. The score being 8-6 with the Humble boys on the long end of the score.

Thompson, the scrub of the team, proved a mighty blow when he poled the first strike for a two base hit. This was followed by a Home Run from Gibson, starting the lead that the Humblers held throughout the game. The game was no cinch though for the Jones Drug Boys showed them that they were flashy enough to be dangerous all the way through.

Rain Falls Over County Monday Night

The rain which came on Monday night was general all over this section and is of great benefit to grain, which was beginning to need rain badly in some parts of the county, and will practically assure a good crop.

Most farmers have all their crops planted and the rain will be fine on the corn, feed and cotton which is now up. The farmers will have plenty of work to keep them busy now, in cultivating the crops.

Mr. A. C. Walker, who keeps a record of the rain fall tells us that about one inch of rain fell in Baird. The rainfall was evidently heavier in the south part of the county.

Patman estimated that it would take one and one-half billion dollars to pay the certificates in full.

Texas Highway Program

Texas will spend more than $60,000,000 for highways this year, an average of over $5,000,000 a month. Of this, about $45,000,000 will be in building and maintaining State highways and the rest on county roadways. About $1,600,000 will be spent for highway equipment as compared with $1,500,000 last year. The State highway mileage is now nearly 20,000 miles. At the rate road building is being speeded up the network of State roads will soon cover most of the thickly populated parts of Texas.

Ten Million Plant

The Southern Alkali Corporation of New York has closed options on 350 acres of land two miles from Corpus Christi and will build there a $10,000,000 chemical plant. Dredging a new ship channel two miles long from Corpus Christi Bay to the site of the plant is included in the construction plans. The exact nature of the chemical industry contemplated has not been announced. The company is an auxiliary of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, makers of glass paint and other products, but it is believed that the company will make a general line of commercial chemicals.

Building Kyle Dam

In line with the plan to construct several hundred small dams on the numerous streams in the Hill Country of Texas by neighborhood co-operation citizens of Kyle and San Marcos joined community residents in building a dam just completed on the Blanco river between the towns named. Secretary James W. Chapman, of the Hill Country Chamber of Commerce, is actively supervising construction of these dams and says he expects to keep up the work until that section of Texas is made the greatest fishing resort in the Southwest.

Talking Too Much

George F. Baker, who recently died in New York at 82, the third richest man in the world, said "Silence is the secret of success." He started business salvaging cranberries left behind by workers on his uncle's farm. Silence may contribute to success, but like everything else it can be over-emphasized. Most of us talk too much about unimportant things, but too little about the things really worth while.

Huge Sheep Ranch

W. A. Miers, who owns 50,000 head of sheep, is said to be the largest sheep owner in Texas, his flocks numbering 50,000 head. He has recently bought 50,000 acres of land in Culberson county and has 70,000 acres leased. Evidently he pins his faith to Texas sheep and Texas lands.

Cotton Stationary

Texas cotton growers are interested in experiments being made in using special cotton fabrics for business and social stationary, maps, envelopes, menu cards, programs, business cards, book jackets and various other purposes for which paper is largely used.

Several mills are making these products of quality equalling the best bond papers, and it only remains for the prices to be lowered enough to make regular their use. As yet they are so high priced as to be classed as novelties.

Homemaking Rally

Miss Lillian Peek, State Supervisor of Home Economics Education, who several years ago initiated the State Clothing Contest, has recently held a "Homemaking Education Rally for Texas High Schools" at Lubbock, at which the scope of the clothing contest was broadened to include a study of most of the problems of the home, along with the best features of the clothing contest. The large number of entrants and visitors, as well as the wide variety of studies and exhibits show that the Texas schools are thoroughly appreciative of the advantages of home economic instruction in all its branches.

Better Than Oil

A correspondent of the San Antonio Express feels that in the race for riches in the East Texas oil fields something is being lost that is far more valuable than the oil that is being found. He thinks that the far-famed East Texas hospitality and friendship are disappearing in the scramble for wealth, that in some instances brother has turned against brother, father against son, neighbor and friends against each other in their madness for gain. There have come joys and sorrows, wealth and disaster, wrecked homes and charred bodies until East Texas is not East Texas at all what it used to be, leaving onlookers to wonder whether the chase has been worth all that it has cost.

History Pageant

The Kerrville High School has been conducting very successful and profitable contest among the students in writing the history of the county. This is to be followed by an elaborate pageant depicting the history of Kerr county, to be held, May 15, in commemoration of the 75th anniversary of the county's organization. About 600 school children will participate in the parade and pageant. Both the children and their parents will get lessons in this way that will be far more lasting than those from books.

Railroads Blaze Trails

Speaking on the bill to regulate truck transportation, Senator Walter Woodward, of Coleman, said most truthfully, "When we have compiled a bill protecting the highways of the State and protecting the public, we haven't gone far enough yet, because we owe the railroads a certain amount of protection. The railroads blazed a trail of civilization and builded an empire of Texas. Is there a single bus or truck that has blazed a trail like the railroad, or built a city or town, or increased the value of property?" We are too likely to forget the agencies that have done most for the country and that have made our civilization what it is.

Local Industry Show

Midland has set a good example for other places by staging a show of the products of Midland industries. Texas manufacturers have been a bit too timid in exhibiting their wares, both in showing them and through the columns of the newspapers.

Sidelines to Farming

Between 3,000 and 4,000 acres will be planted to cantaloupes in Wise and Montague counties, thus insuring co-operative marketing.

There will be from 10 to 15 per cent increase in East Texas truck gardening, 15 per cent more corn, 5 per cent more hay, 10 to 15 per cent more soybeans, cowpeas and vetch, and less money spent for fertilizers.

Harris county pigeon breeders find that any pair of pigeons that produce six pairs of young a year can be made to pay.

The sweet potato crop last year was valued at $7,248,000 and the eradication of the weevil in 20 more counties is expected to increase the yield this year.

Wharton county school boys have been raising hogs at a cost of 6 1/2 cents a pound and find they can make money feeding 75 cent corn combined with a protein supplement.

A Lee county farmer was offered 50 cents for his corn, but got 80 cents a bushel by feeding it to his hogs.

The Crosby section in Harris county has shipped its first car of cabbage receiving $19.10 a ton for it.

Dr. E. T. Gill, of Staples, Guadalupe county, received $2.20 for each $1.00 worth of feed given a demonstration flock of 354 hens during March, the feed cost being 6.3 cents per dozen eggs.

Wise county beef canning demonstrations have shown that one beef in the cans is worth four on the hoof.

William Ferguson of Charevoix, Mich., was buried the other day in a coffin purchased 25 years ago.

Did You Ever Stop To Think?
(by Edson R. Waite)
Shawnee, Okla.

THAT you city is a good city in which to trade. WHY trade elsewhere?

In some cities there are people who, when they need anything in the way of merchandise, go to some other city or send to a mail order house for important purchases that the home merchants have in stock. People who do that hurt the home city. They do not seem to realize that when they hurt the home city they hurt themselves.

It is a tremendous convenience and advantage to you to be able to trade at the fine stores of your progressive city. Your stores are a credit to your city. It is strange that some citizens do not seem to appreciate that fact. Your business men are the great fighting force that is behind the development of your city. Back them up!

WHEN YOU BUY IN YOUR HOME CITY YOU SEE WHAT YOU BUY AND KEEP YOUR MONEY CIRCULATING AT HOME.

YOUR HOME MERCHANTS GIVE SATISFYING QUALITY, SERVICE AND PRICE. WHAT MORE COULD YOU WANT?

ALWAYS FACING IT

The horrors of the recent World War tested the metal of our young manhood. The turning tides of that mighty carnage proved their merited place high up on the scroll of history.

While all that is true, we are wondering if the same potential manhood will stand the gafts in times of peace. This age insistently calls for men who can throw themselves into the breach made by the putrid forces that would lower the standard and ideals wrought out of yesterdays that are deathless. The age calls for a manhood that can unflinchingly face the blistering winds that blow against institutions for which patriots shed their blood.

This era—this very hour—needs sun-crowned men, who, at the very peril of life itself, will throw themselves across the terrible rents torn in moral dykes built out of the blood and bones of martyrs. Brave young men faced death in the air and on land and sea. We are now wondering if it will take a braver breed to hold back the inwashing tides that are gnawing at the foundations of our civilization in this aftermath of war.

The whole thing reminds us of what the captain in Joseph Conrad's "Typhoon" said to his first mate during the crashing storm: "Don't you be put out by anything. Keep her facing 'it. They may say what they like, but the heaviest seas run with the wind. Facing it—always facing it—that's the way to get through. You are a young sailor. Face it! That's enough for any man. Keep a cool head and your face to the storm."

Scientist Sees Way To Rid South of Pellagra

Improved quality of diet is the chief essential for ridding the South of Pellagra.

Such is the assertion of Dr. E. V. McCollum, of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, internationally noted authority on nutrition. Dr. McCollum outlined the new developments in nutrition in an address here of the American Dry Milk Institute at their annual meeting.

Pellagra, now somewhat common in the South, is caused by a deficiency in Vitamin G, Dr. McCollum declared, adding that foods richest in this particular vitamin are yeast eggs, lean meat and milk.

"Those who have given most careful attention to pellagra are agreed that the one way to eradicate it is by improvement in the quality of the diet," said Dr. McCollum.

"And this can be done through use of the foods richest in Vitamin G." Use of dry skim milk in the making of bread is a contributing factor in increasing the nutrition of this bakery product, he said.

Dr. McCollum stated that the texture of the bread for different classes of the trade would be the important determining factor in the amount of milk that should be used in bread.

He was emphatic, however, that the proteins of milk solids, which include dry milk, are better than any other product for supplementing the proteins of cereals, and utilizes the former to a greater degree than any other ingredient because of the beneficial effects of the various combinations.

THE CONVERSION OF JERRY KENT

Many will be interested to know that Jerry Kent the youngest prisoner perhaps ever to be held in our custody for an offense as serious as his, was converted. For their satisfaction I am asking the Star to give these few lines.

Some few had talked to Jerry and urged him to do right and this bit of personal work bore fruit for when we were up there Sunday afternoon and I preached to them about Jesus and his love, Jerry was anxious to hear and he eagerly listened and when asked to personally commit himself to the Lord, and take him as his own Savior, he did not hesitate but immediately gave me his hand as a token of his having done so, and then before we closed another boy prisoner also professed to have accepted Christ and we were made to rejoice over the two new born souls.

I trust that no one will get the idea that I am telling this in order to brag about what I have done; that is not it at all. The trial of this boy attracted so much attention and so many became acquainted with Jerry during the trial, tho they may not have even seen him, I feel that I want to publish abroad to all who know anything about this case may know that God has become real to him, and that he professes to know him in the forgiveness of his sins.

Let's pray for him.

Mrs. Winifred Rose, of Anderson, Ind., testified in her divorce suit that her husband refused to eat when her parents visited them and objected to use of a radio set and kitchen range because of the electricity they used.

Now! Please!—Actually put your finger on your Adam's Apple. Touch it—your Adam's Apple—Do you know you are actually touching your larynx? This is your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple, you are considering your throat—your vocal chords. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants—Reach for a LUCKY instead—Remember, LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette in America that through its exclusive "TOASTING" process expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE, and so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."

KNOW TEXAS

During the first six months of 1930
in Texas 226 new gas wells were completed—almost as many as the 240 completed during the entire year of 1929. Initial volume of the 226 wells was 4,152,500 million cubic feet as against 4,420,500 million cubic feet of the 240 completed in 1929.

Texas has almost a world monopoly of sulphur production, its total being nearly 90 per cent of the world's total and nearly 100 per cent of that of the United States. The largest sulphur plant in the world is in Wharton County, Texas.

Sterling County has an unique record among Texas counties—no Sterling County citizens has ever been sent to the penitentiary; no murder trial has ever been held in the Sterling County Court House; the Sterling County jail is empty and its doors
are open.

The University of Texas has conferred 14,506 degrees since its establishment in 1883.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

In the year 1951 a great psychologist looked into the magic glass and said to Mrs. Boren, "I will now tell you of what become of the senior class of May 1931."

Out of the Morosco theatre in New York steps two well dressed gentlemen, Blackie Cooper and Keith Fuller,
now comedians for the Morosco theatre. In their hotel, Roland Hall is desk clerk and he is expecting to own the hotel before long. As I rub
the globe slowly I see Aileen Newton
in Los Angeles, teaching an awkward young man how to dance. Why, the man is Reaves Hickman, a noted aviator. Just a few block away is Julia Cooke, a well known actress, who is now known by the title—Clara Bow
the second. In a remote corner of New York City stood an insane asylum; There is a man parading about,
shouting as if his heart would break;
There is a cruel warden, who is Willis
Cooke, who treats the heart breaking man, Junior Jackson, cruel and hard;
The warden is telling people that he found this wild man with a shot gun
and a battle ax, on a country road, about to make the last of a—no not a woman—a Ford. I see a man in a magnificent office, furnished with costly furnishings, in Europe, he is Lowell Boyd; He has invented a steel,
mechanical man with a master mind,
which he has made millions from; and look at his secretary, Dorothy Halstead, she is one of the most popular stenographers in London. Away out on a small farm in West Texas I see Weldon Black and Mary Fetterley, who are now married, about them is crowded—let me see—one—two—three four—five—six—children.

Pauline Woods has just received her divorce from the Prince of Whales
and is preparing to marry the famous Andrew H. Brown, better known as Andy, a member of the Amos and Andy quartet. Poor Russell Warren was injured as he wrecked his famous speed car on the race track at Indianapolis, Minn., but he doesn't mind

being in the hospital because his nurse is Mabel Redding. Howard Davis has become a lawyer in Wichita Falls, Texas. At the telephone office in Tye, Verna Mae Edwards is heard plugging away at the switch-board;
Her husband has left her and she has had many heart breaking love affairs
since she graduated from high school.
At Dallas, in a beautiful mansion, Helen Settle is Lucille Jones private maid; Lucille has recently inherited a fortune from a rich uncle. Bessie Brown is suing her fifth husband for divorce in a Reno court, with Herman Scott as the presiding judge. A young fellow in a Packard roadster is driving up to the curb in Atlanta City; This is Pat Morgan; He has made a fortune in the barber business; He has recently established a new kind of permanent wave that is sweeping the country like a storm. The globe is so full of people that I can hardly see but there is one person that can be seen easily, Ethel Sprouse. She is an interior decorator in Paris. On a train between Miami Florida and Erie Pennsylvania, Duke McIntosh is a conductor and is said to be the most popular man on the road with the ladies. Carmen Haley is a model in a paris style show. Bessie Smith is a Spanish teacher in Harvard University. I see a large drug store in Eagle Cove and Trent, which is owned by Morris Eastham. Before a presidential party, a polo game is being staged with Billie Henry, captain of the Detroit team. Elizabeth Uzell is working for the Red Cross in Honolulu, Hawaii. A new missionary has just been sent to China, Etta Bell Smith.
Eula Hays has recently had her third best seller the title of the novel is "An Old Maid Teacher's chance at Heaven." The book is on sale at Emory Wheeler's. Loye Fuller is a radio broadcaster for station B. U.
L. L. Kansas City, Missouri, and Harold Haley got into an argument with a hobo from Kansas and the debate proved fatal to both.

CHARACTERISTICS OF SENIORS

The Seniors took as their flower PANSIES and we have concluded that from this word we can find the characteristics of Seniors.

The characteristics are:

- P Patience
- A Ambitious
- N Notorious
- S Service
- I Interest
- E Energetic
- S Self-Reliance

Just to show you that these characteristics I shall give you some of the examples of the characteristics I have noticed at various times during the year.

Willis Cooke is so interested in all the subjects he is taking, that he goes to sleep in at least one class each day.

Rupert Jackson always finds out the lesson assignment after he comes to class because he might forget it if he found out the day before

Lowell is so very ambitious. Every day before coming to Economics he writes out the greater portion of the lesson because his writing is more easily read than the text book which was supposed to be closed. He always thinks of at least one thing to argue about.

Roland Hall is so energetic that the other day he ran all the way from the street to the front entrance of the building to avoid being late to class.

Loye Fuller is so notorious that her name appeared twice in the Cottonwood Review last year.

Reaves is so self-reliant that one cold day last year he made Beatrice pull off her sweater and give it to him

Russell Warren is so ambitious he takes all of his books home with him every night. We are afraid he is getting a bit stoop shouldered from such devoted study.

As you all know, Harold Haley is noted for his patience. He even went so far to show this characteristic as to sit in his office all morning waiting for the other members of the staff
to put out the paper.

Lucille Jones is so noted for her acts of service that she is known for her
one act of "saving all chewing gum;
wrappets to buy an arm chair for her future home.

Dorothy Halstead is very well known for her notoriousness. She is easily recognized as the "Man-Killer"
—somehow, they all fall.

The Home Garden
"Its' Spring Today! Get your Hoe, The Garden Has A

YOUR SPARE TIME GARDEN

Have you ever thought of a garden
in conjunction with your spare time?
Last summer thousands of men who were not working full time took advantage of off days to plant something in small plots of ground that had grown nothing but weeds and grass for many years. Little back yards were turned into beds of lettuce and rows of peas and corn. Larger plots of ground were turned into real gardens. Tiny runways along the sides of houses often found themselves changed almost overnight into a single row of stalwart tomato plants. Even window boxes produced lettuce for a change.

It is surprising how many delicia-cies one can place upon his table by utilizing two things—a little unoccupied time and a little plot of ground.
A few seeds from the store around the corner, a few showers from the heavens above, a little sunshine and warmth—and before you know it there is a dinner of fresh green peas or juicy ripe tomatoes started on its way.

Why Do Gas Companies
Advertise

Why do the gas utilities advertise?
This question is frequently asked by people who believe that gas utilities are monopolies, and sometimes the question contains a note of criticism.

The Lone Star Gas Company and its affiliated companies are publishing an advertisement in this weeks newspaper advertising. Newspaper advertising represented 74 per cent of the total advertising expenditure of representative natural gas companies of the country last year. The companies in the Lone Star group show
a much higher percentage than this average, as they used about 98 per cent of their advertising expenditures

in the daily and weekly and weekly newspapers of their territory, Mr.
Denning said.

The advertisement gives the following four principal reasons why the gas companies advertise in the newspapers: To tell their customers and the general public about the company
its policies, its methods of doing business, the men and women who work
for it, and its plans for development;
to promote public co-operation by directing attention to that which will encourage thrift, to promote safety, to build up industrial enterprises, and to make the community a better place in which to live; to sell the service of the company and to keep its customers advised of the facilities that make this service possible, to assist its customers in saving gas and reducing their gas bills, to sell its fuel in competition with other fuels; to give it a means of expression when misunderstood and unjustly attacked.

With Baird Baptist

We had our regular full day last Sunday and the spirit of each service was fine.

We are all set now for Next Sunday and the two weeks following. Every preparation is being made to make Sunday a good day with us. Lots of our old friends and all our members who live around here with a host of other friends will be there and one day in Baird is going to be a big one. Every body is talking the Golden Anniversary and we just want that everybody come.

It was decided to have the service Sunday at the Church, many reasons for it, there will be plenty to eat for everybody and plenty of coffee and ice tea to drink so all who come certainly will have a good time.

More than any one knows, the next two weeks means a lot to the people of Baird, and just what the result shall be depends upon how we acquit ourselves during the meeting. We can win the lost if we try. The Lord depends upon us and will help us if we will let him and the salvation of our lost friends and children as surely as we live depends upon us going with the Lord after them, so let us pray for them, work for them, talk to them, and do our best to win them. We shall if we try.

Here is the kind of Christian we need. Those who will pray, pay and stay until the work is done. Are you that kind?

Inviting all to come in and help with the meeting clear thru to the end. We are anxiously waiting on the Lord.

The only other announcement of the contest was on the Camel Pleasure Hour broadcasting network and consisted merely of an invitation to read the contest details in the newspapers.

Sharkey the winner of the first prize of $25,000, is married, and is a milk route foreman at the South Boston Plant of H. P. Hood & Sons, Inc., milk distributors, and lives at 101 Train Street, Dorchester, Mass. He wears overalls at his work, and is slender, of medium height, and has deep-set blue eyes.

Born in County Tipprary, Ireland, he came to the United States alone at the age of sixteen. Landing at Ellis Island in New York, he went at once to Boston, where he did odd jobs. Eight years ago he got a job with the Hood Company delivering milk. He rose to the rank of foreman and now has several milk routes under his supervision.

Sharkey believes he is best fitted for a salesman. It was this flair for selling, plus his own experience in getting his cigarettes wet while delivering milk that caused him to enter the Camel contest. He was quick to note the advantages of the new cellophane wrapper on Camel cigarette packages, and his letter was based on personal experiences in testing the wrapper both as to protection of the fresh tobacco flavor, and the ability of the new package to exclude rain, moisture and germs.

Mrs. Sweet, winner of the $10,000 second prize, is the mother of three boys, the oldest of whom is only ten. A graduate of Radcliffe College in 1920, she has travelled with her Captain husband to Marine Corps posts in Santa Domingo, the Virginia Islands, and other out-of-the-way places. She experienced the hurricane in Porto Rico, and was in Dover, N. J., at the time of the big explosion there. She is a sportswoman, and is tremendously interested in child psychology.

In her travels about the world with her husband, Mrs. Sweet observed how torrid and damp weather in varying climates parched or mildewed cigarettes. She noted that carton after carton of cigarettes shipped to the Marines spoiled and had to be thrown away, and easily realized how the protecting moisture-proof cellophane wrapper on Camels would result in fresh sweet smokes for service men in distant lands.

The third prize winner, Mr. Nolte, who will receive $5,000, is a real estate dealer, and instructor in the English extension division of the University of Minnesota.

He lives with his wife in the Duluth suburb of Glen Avon, and is a Yale graduate and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity. He is a typical outdoor man, and bird lover, hunter and fisherman. During the war he was an aviator with the American Army, and is a former deck-hand and forester. He is the father of four children.

Nolte based his contest letter on the many advantages offered to the outdoor cigarette smoker by the new which protects Camel cigarettes in all kinds of weather and keeps them fresh.

Telegrams of notification were sent to each of the prize winners yesterday by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. Winners of the three major prizes were invited by the Company to come to Winston-Salem in the near future to receive their checks at a formal presentation. Checks will be mailed within the next few days to the thirty-five other prize winners.

The Three "C's" Of Accident Prevention

The key to automobile accident prevention is in the hands of individual drivers. There is a point where even the best traffic laws become inoperative. At this point the individual must take up the work. Care, courtesy, common-sense—these are the three C's of accident prevention which are not covered by law.

The majority of accidents occur when they are violated. Each year such violations mean death to 30,000 people, to say nothing of a vast sum in property damage.

Last year, according to the Travelers Insurance Company, the largest single cause of accident was failure to give right-of-way accounted for 31 per cent of all mishaps and 15 per cent of all deaths. Foolhardiness, coupled with discourtesy, is strewing death along the highways. The driver who cuts in and out of traffic—who drives on the wrong side of the road—who drives at an excessive speed—is a menace to the life and property of all who use the public roads.

Traffic laws should be improved and modernized to the greatest possible degree. But after that is done, the rest is principally up to the individual driver. He will decide whether or not our horrible toll in human life increases or decreases.

IN congratulating the winners in the great Camel contest we want at the same time to thank most cordially the approximately million men and women who displayed their friendly interest by sending in an entry.

We wish also to thank the millions of smokers throughout the country for the appreciation they are showing for our new Humidor Pack as is evidenced by the notable increase in the sale of Camel cigarettes.

By means of this dust-proof, germ-proof, moisture-proof Cellophane wrapping the rich aroma and full flavor of choice Turkish and mellow Domestic tobaccos have been air-sealed in Camels for your enjoyment.

If you have not tried Camels in the Humidor Pack all we ask is that you switch over to this brand for one day.

After you have learned how much milder, how much cooler, how much more enjoyable it is to smoke a perfectly conditioned fresh cigarette, go back to the harsh hotness of stale cigarettes if you can.

SPORTS FOR WOMEN

With modern light housework, woman is in danger of growing weak and stiff from lack of exercise. To prevent this she should go to a doctor and have a thorough medical examination, then see what sports she may enter without harm. Golf is pronounced by hygienists the ideal sport for women, since it is not too vigorous, entails a lot of delightful walking over a pleasant countryside, and has enough competition and chance for sociability. It is predicted that this game is in its infancy and will soon see as many women devotees as men. If one learns to play golf, she has a form of pleasure in which she can indulge until old age, or as long as she is able to walk. Horseback riding is a great luxury for those who are able to afford it. Basket-ball, if mildly played, is good for women, but there is danger that it become too strenuous. Volley ball can be played by those who are too old for basket-ball. Fencing and dancing develop grace, poise and agility; but social dancing can become a health menace, by keeping one up late in illy ventilated rooms and by continuing to long. The excitement may prevent one from feeling the ill effects at the time, but they are there and will show up later. Swimming is a sport de luxe at all seasons of the year. Many cities have swimming pools for winter use and women are coming to make larger use of these.

the map in some delightful way which will add to its charm for both residents and wayfarers.

A Girl's Room

With small expense it is possible for an ingenious girl to make a very pretty room for herself. An inexpensive wall-paper, of dainty design, will make the walls attractive. Or, if they are to be painted, she can do that for herself, doing them in some delicate tint. The woodwork may need a fresh coat of paint, too, as well as the floor. Blue and white, orchid and gray, or orchid and rose are appropriate colors. To help in the selecting of colors, one may take her cue from the wall paper, copying in the room furnishings the predominate colors there. Or repeat the colors of your chintz bed cover. Glazed chintz makes a lovely spread for the day-bed you will want in a small room. Let it have a flounce of a plain color. The dressing table, made from a box, has a cover of the same chintz with a petticoat of the same plain material. The chair, an inexpensive one of the kitchen variety is painted the plain color, like the bed flounce, and has a seat cushion of the chintz. The curtains, of organdie, may be white with ruffles of one of the two predominant colors of the room. One caution to be observed: Do not make the room too loud with color, nor bizarre with colors which clash. Neutral tones for large surfaces and backgrounds, with color touches in accessories will not so soon grow tiresome. Less pronounced colors are more restful; but dainty shades give cheer and life to personal rooms. The blending of blue, lavender and rose is a cheerful and dainty combination; or it might be lavender, green and cream.

Clothes

No one can be comfortable and easy in manner when dressed inappropriately or in ill fitting or illy designed clothes. When a person is well dressed, his manner and whole bearing changes. The slovenly person cannot respect himself nor command the confidence of others. The well dressed woman knows what is suitable to her face and figure and uses. This requires thought and taste. The clerks in high grade stores will give you an education in dress, if you consult them. If there is any doubt buy the simple things. You will observe that clerks in the best stores have learned to select such things for themselves. They are usually elegantly simple. Fanciness usually denotes shoddiness, with the defects hidden by frumpery. It is a pity to spend good money for unbecoming clothing. To give some serious study to your raiment is well worth the time of any woman. A new hat may do you more good than a box of pills. The best spring tonic is the delight of some new clothes. If you want the exaltation to last, select them with care and be sure they are both appropriate and becoming to you.

Your Town

Is your town famous for anything? Is there any characteristic charm which those who visit it notice and remember and talk about? It may be a villiage green, a flowing well of delicious water, an abundance of large trees and the birds they attract, a community center with a particular development of neighborliness, a municipal golf course, a lovely park, usually well-cared for gardens, or some especial flower, cultivated with plan afore-thought by all the citizens. A city may be famous for its roses, or its dahlias, or its vine-clad porches. Study this proposition. Talk about it in the women's clubs, get the Chamber of Commerce to co-operate, and see if you cannot put your town on silk, furs and feathers are susceptible to moth ravages. It is safest to place fur coats and other valuable garments in cold storage for the summer.

Jelly Omelet

Slightly beat six eggs, a teaspoon of milk for each egg and salt and pepper to taste. In the frying pan, melt two teaspoons of butter and add the egg mixture to it. As it cooks, stir it with a fork in the center until the whole is a creamy consistency, then brown it quickly underneath by placing it over a hot fire for a moment. Spread the top with a tart jelly, fold in the middle and serve hot.

Rug Cleaning

Some people send their rugs to the carpet renavator shop which cleans them and stores them until fall. If there is none in your town it may even pay you to ship it some distance to secure this service. If you wish to clean your rug at home, it may be scrubbed.

Lay the rug on the floor. Kneel on a garden cushion and scrub it with a stiff bristle brush. Rinse and wipe dry. Do not use a circular motion in scrubbing. The greatest difficulty is in producing even cleanliness. Spots scrubbed too clean will stand out and look faded.

Sandwich and Salad Hint

Crushed pineapple, grated carrots, slithered pimentoes and chopped olives are delicious additions to either sandwiches or salad.

The Housewife

"She looketh well to the ways of her household. Her children arise and call her blessed;

Her husband also, he praiseth her. Give her the fruits of her hands; And let her own works praise her in the gates."

Sleep On Right Side, Best For Your Heart

Unlike other medicine, Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing poisons you never knew were there. Relieves constipation in 2 hours! Let Adlerika cleanse how good you feel! OUR PRESIDENT Wrote this Advertisement

AS STRANGE AS IT MAY SEEM, I am sometimes asked why we advertise. This question has never been asked by the great majority of people who have learned to depend upon advertising as a source of news and information. But in order that our customers and the general public will know specifically why we advertise, I shall briefly give the four principal reasons. They are:

1
To tell our customers and the general public about the company itself, its policies, its methods of doing business, the men and women who work for it, and its plans for development.

2
To gain public co-operation by directing attention to that which will encourage thrift, to promote safety, to build up industrial enterprises, and to make this community a better place in which to live.

3
To sell the service of the company and to keep our customers advised of the facilities that make this service possible. To assist our customers in saving gas and reducing their gas bills. To sell our fuel in competition with other fuels.

To give us a means of expression when misunderstood and unjustly attacked.

We use, principally, newspaper advertising because it has proven to be the most efficient and economical way to reach all of our customers, and the greatest majority of the general public. An advertisement in the newspapers actually costs less than it would to mail the same information to each of our customers by letter. Advertising is the voice of your gas company.

Habits of Land Crabs
Some land-dwelling crabs of the mud flats dig very intricate burrows with labyrinthine cross and side galleries. Some species live a communal life. Each crab has his own burrow, but each has a passage leading into a large central hall which seems to be a community gathering place. Others are intensely individualistic. Each crab builds an elaborate labyrinth under the mud, considers it his own home and vigorously defends it.

Foreign Bread

WE URGE YOU TO MAKE YOUR PURCHASES FROM BUSINESS FIRMS THAT ARE LOCATED IN BAIRD. WE ARE ONE OF THEM.

Last Saturday more than 500 loaves of foreign bread was sold by our Merchants. It was baked in Dallas, Cisco and Abilene. Why should this be so? What is all of it for? Is there a motive behind out-of-town Bakeries in flooding our town with their so called cheaply priced bread? We think there is. Read carefully what we have to say.

We could not find where a single out-of-town Bakery spent any money in our town, on that day. They must not be interested in Baird like we are. As will be shown later, they made no money on their sales here. They kept us from making any. Are you helping them in their raid on us? We hope not for we need your fullest co-operation.

The Dallas firm that trucks bread here and has it retailed at 5 cents per loaf must pay near 1 1/2 cents per loaf drayage. If the store here did not receive any profit at all, it would leave the Bakery at Dallas 3 1/2 cents per loaf F.O.B. Dallas. We will prove to you later that other Bakers say GOOD bread can not be produced at this price.

The Cisco wagon says their delivery charges amount to 1 1/2 cents per loaf. This leaves them 3 1/2 cents per loaf at the Bakery in Cisco. We will show you this is not a sufficient price so we wonder why they keep coming here. Then comes the Abilene Bakery dumping cheap bread on us for some unknown reason. They are making delivery three times per week. What would you say if we only placed bread in the stores every other day?

We call your attention to this Abilene Bakery in particular for the following reasons:
On March 6, 1931, in the Abilene Morning News, page nine, they run an advertisement. In this advertisement they quoted figures to show the cost of making GOOD bread, not CHEAP bread.

They said if the flour was given free to the Bakeries it would still cost the Bakery 4.2 cents to make a GOOD loaf of bread.

They said with flour bringing $4.00 per barrel which is also about the worth of it now, that it would cost the Bakery 5.56 cents per loaf to produce GOOD bread. Other materials are priced about the same now as they were worth then, yet we are confronted with their Bakery delivering bread to our merchants at 4 cents per loaf. Why do they do this when it costs them more than 5 1/2 cents? Is it because they love Baird and its citizens so well? We do not think so. If they could get your local Bakery out of town then you would find out what this CHEAP bread was for. Are you going to assist their scheme or are you going to forward your best interest by looking after the things that help Baird?

When we came here last October, the Abilene Bakery had most of the bread business in Baird. Mr. Nitschke was losing $100.00 per month. Ask him!

We installed new machinery and with other changes we were able to produce bread that meets with favor wherever we offer it for sale. Our sales began to increase. Out-of-town Bakery sales dwindled.

When we came here you were paying 9 cents per loaf or 3 for 25 cents for their bread. Material that goes into bread is bringing about the same as in October, so why does the same Abilene Bakery now sell our merchants bread at 4 cents per loaf when they say it costs more than 5 1/2 cents to produce it? Our guess is they are offering you bait. Buy their CHEAP bread until your own Bakery would close, then you would soon be paying 9 cents per loaf again for their bread.

We think the cost figures in their advertisement are about correct. We make about 300 loaves per day and the following is what it costs per 100 loaves.

Flour	$1.53
Yeast, Sugar, Lard, Salt, and other Ingredients	81
Wrappers	33
Gas for Fuel	33
Electricity	13
Delivery (car expense)	33
Incidentals	33
Depreciation on Machinery	41
Rents	72
Labor (2 men working a total of 4 hours each)	1.08
	$6.00

By the above you will see it costs us 6 cents per loaf to produce GOOD bread. We sell to the Merchants at 6 cents per loaf. By this you can see exactly what we make—NOTHING. In baking 300 loaves and the two of us working a total of 24 hours we get $3.24 per day or $1.62 each. If we hired our labor done it would show a loss. Why not give us all your business and talk your acquaintances into doing the same? We are giving GOOD service as any Bakery can give. Do what you can for us by refusing to patronize out-of-town Bakeries to the detriment of ours.

WE ARE TRYING TO STAY IN BUSINESS BUT A BAKERY CANNOT SURVIVE IN YOUR TOWN, (OUR TOWN ALSO), IF YOU BUY OUT-OF-TOWN-MADE-BREAD. CAN WE COUNT ON YOU?

In this Abilene Bakery advertisement they say "CHEAP bread is POOR quality bread." We wonder if their CHEAP bread is now POOR quality bread.

They say "A full 16 ounce loaf of bread" retailed at 7 cents is real economy provided it is a real milk made loaf like Meads "Butter-Nut." We also wonder now if their CHEAP bread is minus the milk they talked about.

They also said "Bread baked with milk and shortening has a greater food value than bread without either." By this they imply that CHEAP bread does not have milk or lard in it. We wonder if they have cut these out of their CHEAP bread also.

If they have not cheapened their loaf then by their own figures they are losing at least 1 1/2 cents per loaf on all the bread they bring to Baird. Why are they doing this?

They say "By Abilene people supporting them at a legitimate price for bread, not the price they are now charging for it, they will be enabled to continue in business." We say the same thing to Baird.

Wake up everybody and quit running your local industries out of business and causing your town to continuously decrease in population. Let this be one town from now on that gives the closest of support to those who are engaged in business here.

We say to the merchants: Quit importing bread, quit fighting each other over a product that is produced in your town and sold to you at a legitimate price, quit bankrupting your own home Bakery and not making any money for yourselves. Let us have the bread business and fight over something else for a while. We publicly call on the Chamber of Commerce to discuss this matter for the good of the town. Why not work to keep what you have here instead of trying to get other industries here to suffer the same hardships imposed on YOUR home Bakery.

WE THANK EVERYONE IN ADVANCE WHO ASSIST US IN ANY MANNER.
