Ever Drink Out of an Inner Tube?

Probably not. But customs officials at Laredo, Texas, have discovered that gallons of high priced liquors are being brought into the United States in the tires of automobiles. Ingenious? Here's how it's done: The inner tubes are carefully cleaned and liquor forced into them with a copper tire pump submerged in a receptacle filled with fire water. Officials believe this clever ruse was first devised by a Mexican boy who used bicycle tires. Above is a customs official examining one of the confiscated tires. And you'd be surprised how much liquor a set of five balloon tires can hold!

DEMONSTRATION OF MUD JACK FOR LIFTING PAVEMENT

An interested group of engineers and others Saturday watched a pavement-lifting demonstration east of Tuscola, on highway 4-30, where high joints in concrete slabs have been causing trouble. In the party with W. A. French, division highway engineer, were W. R. Ely, chairman of the state highway commission; A. P. Rollins, Dallas, consulting engineer for the Cement Association of America; A. M. Moursund and E. C. Woodward, division engineers at San Angelo and Waco; C. S. Henning, contractor of Abilene; and T. D. Sniels, district salesman for cement companies.

Using Mud Jack

John W. Poulter, Mount Pleasant, Iowa, who directed the demonstration, is inventor of the mud jack used in force-pumping quantities of mud and cement under the concrete slabs, raising them—as the engineers looked on in approval—to an even grade from joint to joint.

Holes were drilled in the pavement eight feet apart, 15 holes to a slab; and it was through these that the liquid mud was forced under pressure, spreading out beneath the pavement, filling cavities, and forming a new, level, hard base for the pavement to rest upon.

It really is not an experiment, Poulter said. Although his mud jack has been on the market only a short while, he has sold 75, he said, including one in the Dallas highway division of Texas. New York and Illinois are using numbers of them, high joints in pavement being a bother in those states as well as in Texas.

Shoulders Undisturbed.

The Poulter process leaves the shoulders on either side of the pavement undisturbed. The "lift" is visible as the mud spreads out to fill the cavities. Average pressure required to force the mud through the holes is from three-fourths pound to one and one-half pounds per square inch. The mud jack can deliver 300 pounds of pressure to the inch at capacity.

"We use one sack of cement per cubic yard of earth," Poulter said. "That gives us about a five per cent cement mixture. The pavement itself is about 25 per cent pure cement, or five and one-half sacks per cubic yard. One drill can bore a two and one-half inch hole in the slab in a minute and a half. When we are organized we can raise several hundred feet of pavement per day with the one jack. The process does not interfere with traffic; cars can pass over the slab we are raising."—Abilene Morning News.

Hostee—What, going already, Mr. Klinge? And must you take your wife with you?

"Have you heard about the Scotchman who told his wife creepy stories to make her teeth rattle so he wouldn't have to buy the baby a rattle?"

EX-KAISER INSANE; BROODS ON 'WRONGS'

Ever Expecting Call From Fatherland to Return and Redeem Germany.

Doorn, Holland.—That the ex-kaiser is now a maniac, brooding over the mistakes of his ministers who sent him to his present doom; that he still broods over the affairs of present-day Germany and is assiduously preparing to respond to the call of the fatherland to redeem Germany and deliver her from French tyranny—these and a number of other Doorn palace mysteries, intrigues and activities are now revealed by visitors to the ex-kaiser's palace, writes Joseph Wolfe in the Chicago Herald-Examiner.

A Hague newspaper was about to print a series of sensational Doorn revelations, but finally succumbed to the importunities of the Dutch government not to print them at the present time for fear that Holland would be involved in a diplomatic mess with allied countries as well as with the German government.

Here is the gist of what the Dutch paper would have printed together with information obtained from the palace staff:

He Has No Remorse.
The ex-kaiser has not once uttered a word that can be interpreted as a feeling of remorse over his past acts. He still believes that if his staff of ministers had not deceived him Germany would have won the war. He still blames the Jews and the Masons for Germany's plight, and he still sincerely believes that God in his wisdom has chosen him to lead Germany back to freedom and prosperity from the allies' chains. He quotes chapter and verse from the Old Testament to prove that he himself is a certain person named in the Old Testament prophecies.

During the last six years no less than ten German and Austrian alienists and pathologists were intrigued into the palace as visitors to size up the ex-kaiser's present mentality, and without exception pronounced him insane.

Fears to Go Back.
The ex-kaiser admits that his personal following in Germany is only a handful, but quotes from the Old Testament ample verses to prove that strength and power are on the side of the few so long as God is with them.

He has sounded the Dutch government on many occasions regarding its attitude should he leave Holland for Germany. In each instance it has been made plain to the ex-kaiser that if he leaves Holland no one will attempt to stop him, but with all his bravado and claims that he is in partnership with God, he does not dare to go to Berlin.

The ex-kaiser is in constant fear of Communist kidnapers.

Must Keep Wife Wed as "Spirit" Played Cupid

Rome.—A lawyer who married the "reincarnation of his dead fiancée" on the say so of a medium, asked the Court of Cassation here to nullify the wedding because he had made a mistake.

He was Sign. Ferruccio Camozzini of Verona, and his marriage to Signorina Vittoria Canizza was arranged through a "spirit" at a private seance two years ago.

"I was attending a private seance in the house of friends," he told the court, "and a spirit revealed through a medium that my beloved dead fiancée had been reincarnated in the person of Signorina Canizza.

"I believed the medium and married the signorina. But I soon was able to prove that the spirit or the medium who spoke for it had deceived me.

"I have had enough proof to make me satisfied that there is not the least spiritual likeness between my dead fiancée and my wife."

The court decided that the lawyer's belief in reincarnation did not afford sufficient ground for a decree of nullity.

One-Lane Roads Widely Used in Rural Sections

Chicago.—Motorists accustomed to driving over full-width highways will be surprised to know there are 2,500 miles of single-track concrete roads in the United States—roads on which only one traffic lane is paved. In spite of the limitation in width, these roads are serving the traffic they are called upon to carry almost as efficiently as two-lane pavements could.

Single-track roads have one paved lane with a wide shoulder of gravel or dirt alongside so that cars can pass each other.

Two hundred and seven counties in thirty states have built single-track roads. In addition to the mileage in use at the present time, more than 500 miles have been widened by laying a second strip of concrete beside the first to meet increased demands of traffic.

Produce Buys Luncheon
Moscow City, Wash.—Furling at the public school in this farming community may trade raw produce for hot lunches. "Town kids" pay 30 cents a week, which pays for cooking what the "country kids" bring in.

Have You

A famous travel writer says that the hardest thing to find on some South Sea islands is a South Sea Islander. We wonder if he has ever tried to find an athlete around an athletic club.

It was a bleak and cloudy Sabbath morn in the Highlands that a father and son were returning from the Kirk. They passed a field where some very sleek, fat cows were lazily grazing.

"Father," remarked the son, "there are twelve fine beasts in the field."

"Aye, my son," replied the father, "you may not count the beasts on the Sabbath day, and besides there are thirteen."

Customer—A few days ago you gave me a plaster to help me get rid of lumbago.

Druggist—Yes, and what can I do for you now?

Customer—I want you to give me something to get rid of the plaster.

Gabbalot—So you're the professor who is teaching my wife voice culture. What sort of a pupil is she?

Professor—Well, I find her very apt, to say the least.

Gabbalot—That's strange. I always find her very apt, to say the most.

Doctor—I'm going to give you daughter artificial pneumothorax.

Ambitious father—Artificial be blowed! I'm rich enough to pay for the real thing.

The electrician returned last evening to find his small son sitting for him with a bandage on his hand.
Dad—Hello, George! Can't finger?
Son—No.
Dad—What happened, then?
Son—I picked up a pretty fly, and one end wasn't fastened.
Big boy—Late again! I'm your resignation!
Blondey—What a relief! I'm afraid you would fire me!

A Total LOSS?

It would be a comfort to you if you were not fully protected by insurance. And no one can tell when such an event may happen in your life. Ask our representative who explains.

How a Missouri woman was benefited by taking Cardui is described below by Mrs. Joe Schumer, of Cape Girardeau: "I suffered with irregularity. For weeks at a time I was so weak I could not work. I had aches in my back and head and legs—I ached all over—I would get dizzy and feel faint. I had read about Cardui, so I got some and took it. I improved a great deal. After I had taken four bottles, I felt like a different person." 72-10

AIRPLANES CARRY GOLD FROM AFRICA

Many Days Are Now Saved in Transportation.

Paris.—Gold from the mines in the Belgian Congo, in the heart of Africa, which once required four weeks to reach the coffers of the Belgian banks, is now being rushed by air to Brussels in four days.

The new regular weekly air service of the Imperial Airways from London, via Paris, to Cape Town, has revolutionized the system of precious metal transportation. Four-engined flying boats link up in Egypt with the planes from London and provide a fast service down the Mwanza, on the southern shores of Lake Victoria.

The sea lanes on the southern flight carry gold miners, Kenya coffee planters and big game hunters, who save weeks on the journey compared with other times when they traveled for days by train from the East African coast into the jungle lands.

Gold from the mines is brought down from the interior by native carriers, the journey to the lake-occupying a full day of trekking. The precious metal is loaded at Mwanza, taken to Khartoum and then to Cairo. Here the gold, which is often accompanied by gold miners flying home on leave after years in Africa, is transferred to the Belgian air liners, arriving two hours later in Brussels and then lodged in the vaults of the state bank.

Saving of three weeks on the shipment of gold to Brussels is highly important for the Belgian bankers, enabling them to have rapid deliveries of fresh gold to replace gold withdrawals from the country.

Cherry Growers Unite to Boost Sale of Fruit

Traverse City, Mich.—A farm relief movement not connected with drives for special legislation, curtailment of acreage, or other cures suggested in recent years is being undertaken by the cherry growers of the country, according to an announcement here.

The growers have determined that the quickest and shortest route to economic recovery lies in the sale of cherries. They've started out to sell them by staging, first of all, a national cherry week, during the Washington birthday period. The dates are February 15-22. They are building their sales efforts around the legend of Washington and the cherry tree. Cherry pie contests, radio addresses, and appearances by the national cherry queen, Maxine Weaver of Traverse City, form part of their program.

Sixteen hundred growers of Michigan and Wisconsin took the lead in this movement, headed by H. W. Ulmsperger, of the Fruit Growers' union, Sturgeon Bay, Wis. They were soon joined by representatives of the cherry industry from the states of Oregon, Colorado, Montana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York. Canners, including Howard Morgan, president of the Michigan Canners' association, have given their support to the growers.

Bright Future Forecast for Aviation Firms

Detroit, Mich.—Commercial air transport has grown steadily in the last two years, despite the depression, according to Carl B. Fritsche, president of the Aircraft Development corporation.

Predicting "even better days" in a recent address here, the executive said the industry will soon emerge on a sound economic basis. The fact aeronautics weathered the depression and continued to grow is unmistakable evidence the industry is here to stay, he said.

Burglar Uses Cometary Chapel for His Home

Limoges, France.—A chapel in a cemetery on the outskirts of the town served as a snug little home for a burglar until raided by police. On the altar, the thief kept his shaving mug, a piece of soap and a wash basin, which he apparently filled from a hose used to sprinkle graves. He utilized two suitcases full of loot for a bed.

Human Body Worth 94 Cents, Says Expert

London.—Here, according to Dr. Thomas E. Lawson, noted British physician, is what the average human being is made of:

Enough water to fill a ten-gallon barrel.

Enough fat for seven bars of soap.

Carbon enough for 9,000 lead pencils.

Phosphorus enough to make 2,200 match heads.

Sufficient magnesium for one dose of salts.

Enough iron to make one medium sized nail.

Sufficient lime to whitewash a chicken coop.

Sulphur enough to rid one dog of flea.

All, at prevailing prices, could be bought for 94 cents, he said.

Plans are complete for the 1932 conference of the 13th district of Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers which will convene in Quanah on April 12 and 13.

With the theme "The Challenge of the Children's Charter" as a nucleus of thought a program will be offered which is meant to be inspirational, educational and entertaining.

Parent education in the National Congress of Parents and Teachers was one of its first objectives. The present organization meets the needs of parents in the changed aspects in which these needs are presented today.

It is the means whereby the parent learns how to grow along with the child and to enjoy a companionship with him as well as to assume guidance for him.

Mrs. A. F. Wood of Athens, state president of congress of parents and teachers; Dr. J. A. Hill of Canyon, president of Texas State Teachers' association, also president of West Texas State Teachers' college;

The city council presidents and county council presidents will have a workers' conference with the state president, Mrs. A. J. Wood. Classes will be held in health, program making, parliamentary procedure and publicity.

Visitors are welcome at any and all of the sessions and parents and teachers and any one interested in child welfare and parent education cannot fail to find assistance and benefit from attendance upon this conference.

Brazos Valley Schedule Will Open April 17th

Representatives of several towns in this section met Monday night at Sunset and worked out plans for the Brazos Valley baseball league for the summer of 1932.

The following towns will have teams in the league this year: Gore, Munday, Bomarton, Knox City, Sunset, Weinert, Rhineland and Rochester.

The first games of the season will be played on April 17th. From April 17 until July 17th only Sunday games will be played.

Gore's opening game on April 17 will be played at Weinert. Munday will play at Rochester that day.

Gore won the pennant in this league in 1931 after a play-off series with Knox City. In this contest the teams were pretty evenly matched and the games were some of the hardest ever played in this section.

They were skating in the rink, and Lisa fell down, flopped over, and came upright again in front of Rastus with remarkable agility.

"Did you see how quick Al recovered mah equilibrium, Rastus?" "Oooh, yee-almost bet! Ah noticed it was uncovered."

"We read that 25 per cent of the people have perfect vision. And they get many as spoiled."

"So we see it. Al Smith doesn't choose to tell whether he will choose to run."

I take this opportunity of expressing my sincere appreciation for the excellent vote given me in my race for city Marshal.

And to those of you who saw fit not to support me, I wish to assure you there is no ill feeling on my part, as I know that with as many in the race as there were, all of them well known among you and your friends also, it was impossible to vote for each one of us.

Again thanking you and with best wishes I am, Sincerely, Frank B. Reynolds.

One of the well known humorous magazines has gone bankrupt. Well, we can still fall back on the Congressional Record.

One of the reasons ascribed for hard times is the presence of sun spots. But we think it's more a lack of ten-spots.

Czechoslovakia is in dire financial straits and has asked France for a loan to tide them over. That's what you call Czech's appeal.

A survey reveals that due to their diet of seal meat and dried fish, few eskimos suffer from decayed teeth. Most people, however, would prefer the bad teeth.

A woman at Sudlersville, Maryland, lost control of her car and crashed into a store where a couple of men were playing checkers. Two jumps and the game was over.

A seventy-two-year-old White Plains, New York woman, has sued a railroad for $35,000 claiming that an accident prevents her from dancing, skating and bob-sledding. She ought to have more than that—she won't be able to go out for the town basket ball team, either.

An air transportation company now furnishes its passengers with the latest stock market reports at various stops along their routes. After reading these reports a lot of passengers probably feel they ought to finish the trip on foot.

Court Restrains Interference by Munday Officials in Gas Rate Controversy.

From the Munday Times.

The Stamford and Western Gas Company won the first round of its fight to install higher gas rates in Munday when it obtained an injunction in federal district court at Wichita Falls Monday forbidding the city from interfering with the company's intention to put a new schedule into effect here.

No notification had been received as to when the increased rate would go into effect, though the presumption was that it will be after the meter readings of about April 15. Neither city officials nor local representatives of the gas company had been advised on the subject.

The gas company will be required to post a bond of $7,500 to protect gas-consumers against loss should the new rate not be sustained.

Minted for Mother

"These slicker columnists," complains a Maryland man, "are continually camouflaging, counterfeiting or coining new words. What in the world do they mean," he asks the Baltimore Sun, "by their minted atrocity—'scoffspouse'?"

"A 'scoffspouse,' interprets the editor, 'is one who goes to the movies and leaves a note telling her husband where to find the sardines'."

Judge—The complainant says you tried to speak to her on the street.

Accused—I was looking for my cousin whom I had never seen before, but who had been described to me as a beautiful brunette with a perfect figure, irresistible manner, wonderful clothes, and—

Girl—Your Honor, I don't care to prosecute the gentleman. Anyone might have made the same mistake.

Bobbie—Here Mister, is a pocket book you dropped down the street.

Gent—Oh, thanks, my little man. Here's a dime for your honesty.

Bobbie—Aw, that's all right, mister, I kept a quarter out.

Hotaire—Yes, I've hunted all over the world—India, Africa, South America,—everywhere!

Boredon—Really! What had you lost?

Spending to Save through . . . ADVERTISING

Not many of us, these days, are troubled with so much money that we cannot spend it. But we ARE interested in spending the money we have, to get the most out of it.

One way—and not a new way, either—is to make a budget. Put down, week by week, the money that comes in. Put down beside it, week by week, the money that goes out. So much for food, so much for clothing, so much for rent. So much for giving, and for luxuries.

It won't always be easy, of course, to stay within the budget. That's where advertising helps you. Advertisements in this newspaper tell you how much butter, foods, meats, clothing, drugs will cost, BEFORE you go shopping! They point out ways to save money. They show you how to cut a little here, a little there. And they tell about new products, new ways of doing things, that help make this life of ours very much worth living!

Scenes of First Texas Lynching in Two Years

Body of Dave Tillus, Houston County negro, was found strung up to the tree (shown center) at last Friday night, 15 miles from Crockett, Texas. It was the first lynching in Texas in nearly 1931 having gone without a lynching. Tillus had attempted to attack a white woman, Mrs. Parker (upper right). Following news of the attempted attack, the negro's employer, Arch Maples, tried to Crockett to place him in jail. On the way they were stopped by four white men, who killed Tillus. Mrs. Parker's nine-year-old son, who aided her in warding Tillus off with an ax, is shown (lower right).

Wichita Falls Spudders Announce Opening Day Attendance Contest

Wichita Falls Spudder Opening Day Attendance Contest is based on a population of 10,000, so that all towns, regardless of size or distance from Wichita Falls, can compete on an equal basis. The surrounding territory is divided into zones based on State of Texas and Oklahoma mileage. All that within thirty miles of Wichita Falls constitutes the first zone, the next ten miles thereafter, including 100 miles, constitute an additional zone. All within 140 miles from Wichita Falls would be in the same zone. A town from Wichita Falls would be in the first zone; a town 53 miles from Wichita Falls would be in the second zone; while one 147 miles from Wichita Falls would be in the fourth zone. Number of points of attendance of each person attending the game is equal to the number of points of attendance of a city in the zone that city would be given. If 60 people attended from a city, the city would be given a total of 60 points of attendance. Percentage of attendance, or "average," of any city is the number of points of attendance that the total points of attendance of that city in the zone. For example, if 60 people attended from a city in a zone of 1000 points, the percentage of attendance would be 6 percent. One hundred people attending the opening game in Wichita Falls, Texas, a city of 10,000 people, would give a batting average of 1 percent. For each one of the general admission tickets they return unsold, they must return a white ticket. The purchaser of each ticket will deposit the white ticket, upon which is written his name and address, in a box especially provided for that purpose, as he enters the Spudder Baseball Park on Opening Day. On April 11th, the day the reserved seats are placed on sale in Wichita Falls, Mrs. Guy Airey, Secretary of the Wichita Falls Baseball Club, and his assistants, will visit each city that has entered the contest for the purpose of reserving the number of reserved seats they desire. These reserved seats are the most desirable ones in the grand stand, and a charge of twenty-five cents over and above the general admission price will be made for them. The organization sponsoring the contest in the winning city, the city itself and one particular person of the winning city that attended the Opening Day game will be honored in the following way: The organization that sponsors the contest will be presented with a loving cup. A baseball game on any day selected by the winning city will be dedicated to that particular city, at which time a special section in the Grand Stand will be reserved free of charge for all baseball fans from the winning city; they will, however, be expected to pay the general admission charge. The sport writers of the newspapers of the winning city will write up the report of the game for our local papers. The report, with a picture of those attending the game dedicated to them will not only be published in the paper of Texas, but will be forwarded to "The Sporting News," at St. Louis, where it will probably be re-published and distributed over the entire world. The Mayor of the Winning City will pitch the first ball of the game, and the president of the organization that sponsored the contest will catch it. The winning city will be selected to give a radio program. The white cards of all those that attend the opening game from the winning city will be used as the basis of a special attraction on the day of the dedication on game. The organization that sponsors the contest in the city that wins second place will be awarded a loving cup, and the city will be awarded twenty-five dollars to be used for charitable purposes. The contest committee is very anxious to have every city in this territory enter the contest, and would appreciate your entering at your earliest convenience.

homa, a city of 4,522 people 64 miles from Wichita Falls, their batting average would also be .0495. Prizes will be awarded to the two cities that have the highest batting averages. The Committee sponsoring the Spudder Opening Day Out-of-Town Attendance Contest is very anxious to have every city, regardless of size, enter the contest. The contest may be sponsored in any city by one of the luncheon clubs, the American Legion, the Chamber of Commerce, one of the ladies' organizations, or any organization in the city, or by the corner drug store, which is usually the location of the Wither Hot Stove League. Anyone desiring to sponsor the contest in their city should communicate with Mr. Wilburn Page, 707 Hamilton Building, immediately. Mr. Page will see that you are supplied with tickets and visit your city occasionally to assist you in the ticket-selling campaign. A progress report of the contest will be announced over Radio Station KGKO each evening at 6:45 p. m. The number of tickets that anyone, sponsoring the contest in any city, thinks they can dispose of will be mailed them immediately. These tickets will be General Admission Grand Stand (not reserved seats) tickets, and will for the regular Season Price of seventy-five cents each. They will not be recognized for admission except on opening day. With each one of these tickets there will be a white ticket, on which there is space for the purchaser to write his name and address. If a city desires one hundred general admission tickets, they will also receive one hundred of the white tickets. For each one of the general admission tickets they return un-

Rival of Carlsbad Found in Texas

A party headed by Frank E. Nicholson has invaded the sanctity of a huge cavern held inviolate for centuries by a wall of water, and has discovered therein a gigantic mile-and-a-half long chamber of imposing grandeur. The cave is located on the Al Gray ranch, near Boerne, Texas. The small entrance to the cave was known to residents around it, but they thought it ended with water near the entrance. A natural dam was broken, however, and explorers entered the unfathomed region through the small aperture formed. Above is Mrs. Nicholson inside the cavern. White crickets, beetles and crayfish were found in the cave.
