

Correspondence.

EDUCATION—BY THE CHURCH, OR BY THE CHURCH?

To every intelligent parent who is able to give a son or daughter a liberal education, there comes the question: "What institution is best prepared to give the kind of education I desire?"

The time has been when all education was in the hands of the church. The early church neglected the education of the masses, and the result was the ignorance of the middle ages.

Of late years there has been an effort on the part of the State to supersede the church in this work. The entering wedge was the establishment of public schools.

That the State is well prepared to give "grammar school" instruction can scarcely be denied. It places a free school in every community—a work the church cannot do.

It is proposed also by the State to take charge of collegiate education. Is the State best prepared to do this work?

Again, it is claimed that the State is better prepared to educate, because better provided with facilities for college work.

Here arises the necessity for church colleges. A friend of the writer, now connected with one of the great colleges in the East, who has had opportunity of studying the workings of various colleges, could do all the needed educational work, now says that the more he sees of educational institutions and their various methods, the more he is convinced of the necessity for church colleges.

The demand for collegiate education is great. Let it be Christian education. The State does not, will not, perhaps cannot, provide it.

But, alas! What genius can describe the elevating tendency of such pure scientific truth on the masses of mankind? "Like priests like people" may are being made to better equip and to endow the old church colleges. Too many are of the opinion that any one can teach, and that teaching can be done anywhere.

What does the church in Texas propose to do in the great work of education? Something has been done; but where is the college that is upon a sure financial basis, equipped with the needed libraries, laboratories and buildings?

CONSISTENCY OF INFIDELITY.

"O, consistency, thou art a jewel!" How resplendently it shines in the wisdom of the scientific world!

How consistent and philosophic the theory of the old cosmogonists—"The world rests on the back of an elephant, the elephant on the back of a tortoise, and the tortoise on the back of nothing."

There is a great demand for religion in education. The State will not provide for it; generally prohibits it. The result has been that State colleges have rarely been very successful.

The State, when refusing to take control of the morals of students, and prohibiting any religious instruction, has made the plea that morals and religion belong to home training.

To get an education the boy has nearly always to leave home; and this, let it be remembered, at the very period of life when character is formed.

Here arises the necessity for church colleges. A friend of the writer, now connected with one of the great colleges in the East, who has had opportunity of studying the workings of various colleges, could do all the needed educational work, now says that the more he sees of educational institutions and their various methods, the more he is convinced of the necessity for church colleges.

The demand for collegiate education is great. Let it be Christian education. The State does not, will not, perhaps cannot, provide it.

But, alas! What genius can describe the elevating tendency of such pure scientific truth on the masses of mankind? "Like priests like people" may are being made to better equip and to endow the old church colleges. Too many are of the opinion that any one can teach, and that teaching can be done anywhere.

What does the church in Texas propose to do in the great work of education? Something has been done; but where is the college that is upon a sure financial basis, equipped with the needed libraries, laboratories and buildings?

CONSISTENCY OF INFIDELITY.

"O, consistency, thou art a jewel!" How resplendently it shines in the wisdom of the scientific world!

How consistent and philosophic the theory of the old cosmogonists—"The world rests on the back of an elephant, the elephant on the back of a tortoise, and the tortoise on the back of nothing."

There is a great demand for religion in education. The State will not provide for it; generally prohibits it. The result has been that State colleges have rarely been very successful.

The State, when refusing to take control of the morals of students, and prohibiting any religious instruction, has made the plea that morals and religion belong to home training.

To get an education the boy has nearly always to leave home; and this, let it be remembered, at the very period of life when character is formed.

Here arises the necessity for church colleges. A friend of the writer, now connected with one of the great colleges in the East, who has had opportunity of studying the workings of various colleges, could do all the needed educational work, now says that the more he sees of educational institutions and their various methods, the more he is convinced of the necessity for church colleges.

The demand for collegiate education is great. Let it be Christian education. The State does not, will not, perhaps cannot, provide it.

But, alas! What genius can describe the elevating tendency of such pure scientific truth on the masses of mankind? "Like priests like people" may are being made to better equip and to endow the old church colleges. Too many are of the opinion that any one can teach, and that teaching can be done anywhere.

What does the church in Texas propose to do in the great work of education? Something has been done; but where is the college that is upon a sure financial basis, equipped with the needed libraries, laboratories and buildings?

CONSISTENCY OF INFIDELITY.

"O, consistency, thou art a jewel!" How resplendently it shines in the wisdom of the scientific world!

How consistent and philosophic the theory of the old cosmogonists—"The world rests on the back of an elephant, the elephant on the back of a tortoise, and the tortoise on the back of nothing."

There is a great demand for religion in education. The State will not provide for it; generally prohibits it. The result has been that State colleges have rarely been very successful.

The State, when refusing to take control of the morals of students, and prohibiting any religious instruction, has made the plea that morals and religion belong to home training.

To get an education the boy has nearly always to leave home; and this, let it be remembered, at the very period of life when character is formed.

Here arises the necessity for church colleges. A friend of the writer, now connected with one of the great colleges in the East, who has had opportunity of studying the workings of various colleges, could do all the needed educational work, now says that the more he sees of educational institutions and their various methods, the more he is convinced of the necessity for church colleges.

The demand for collegiate education is great. Let it be Christian education. The State does not, will not, perhaps cannot, provide it.

But, alas! What genius can describe the elevating tendency of such pure scientific truth on the masses of mankind? "Like priests like people" may are being made to better equip and to endow the old church colleges. Too many are of the opinion that any one can teach, and that teaching can be done anywhere.

What does the church in Texas propose to do in the great work of education? Something has been done; but where is the college that is upon a sure financial basis, equipped with the needed libraries, laboratories and buildings?

CONSISTENCY OF INFIDELITY.

"O, consistency, thou art a jewel!" How resplendently it shines in the wisdom of the scientific world!

How consistent and philosophic the theory of the old cosmogonists—"The world rests on the back of an elephant, the elephant on the back of a tortoise, and the tortoise on the back of nothing."

There is a great demand for religion in education. The State will not provide for it; generally prohibits it. The result has been that State colleges have rarely been very successful.

The State, when refusing to take control of the morals of students, and prohibiting any religious instruction, has made the plea that morals and religion belong to home training.

To get an education the boy has nearly always to leave home; and this, let it be remembered, at the very period of life when character is formed.

Here arises the necessity for church colleges. A friend of the writer, now connected with one of the great colleges in the East, who has had opportunity of studying the workings of various colleges, could do all the needed educational work, now says that the more he sees of educational institutions and their various methods, the more he is convinced of the necessity for church colleges.

The demand for collegiate education is great. Let it be Christian education. The State does not, will not, perhaps cannot, provide it.

But, alas! What genius can describe the elevating tendency of such pure scientific truth on the masses of mankind? "Like priests like people" may are being made to better equip and to endow the old church colleges. Too many are of the opinion that any one can teach, and that teaching can be done anywhere.

What does the church in Texas propose to do in the great work of education? Something has been done; but where is the college that is upon a sure financial basis, equipped with the needed libraries, laboratories and buildings?

CONSISTENCY OF INFIDELITY.

"O, consistency, thou art a jewel!" How resplendently it shines in the wisdom of the scientific world!

How consistent and philosophic the theory of the old cosmogonists—"The world rests on the back of an elephant, the elephant on the back of a tortoise, and the tortoise on the back of nothing."

There is a great demand for religion in education. The State will not provide for it; generally prohibits it. The result has been that State colleges have rarely been very successful.

The State, when refusing to take control of the morals of students, and prohibiting any religious instruction, has made the plea that morals and religion belong to home training.

To get an education the boy has nearly always to leave home; and this, let it be remembered, at the very period of life when character is formed.

Here arises the necessity for church colleges. A friend of the writer, now connected with one of the great colleges in the East, who has had opportunity of studying the workings of various colleges, could do all the needed educational work, now says that the more he sees of educational institutions and their various methods, the more he is convinced of the necessity for church colleges.

The demand for collegiate education is great. Let it be Christian education. The State does not, will not, perhaps cannot, provide it.

But, alas! What genius can describe the elevating tendency of such pure scientific truth on the masses of mankind? "Like priests like people" may

It is put up in one gallon jugs, with label and directions on jugs, and sells for $2.00 per gallon. On wine glass a dose, so it is much cheaper than ordinary patent medicines, and as pleasant to take as lemonade.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION. SPECIAL OFFER TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS. A $2.50 PAPER FOR ONLY $1.75 FREE TO JAN. 1, 1889, and for a full year from that date. This offer includes the ILLUSTRATED SUPPLEMENTS, the PREMIUM LIST and FOUR HOLIDAY NUMBERS, Sent to Each Subscriber at Thanksgiving—Christmas—New Year's—Easter.

Dr. King's Royal Germeteur THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY, MANUFACTURED BY THE Royal Germeteur Company, Lampasas, Texas.

DR. C. R. KING, Pres. D. P. HAGGARD, Manager of Agencies.

Several hundred men, women and children in and around Lampasas, Texas, have used it, and are loud in their praises of it. They were afflicted with many diseases, some considered incurable.

will successfully neutralize the poison from the bite of the mad dog. It is death to microbes, or disease germs, in the human system. When these are destroyed disease and pain take their flight.

TESTIMONIALS. I have lived in the county of Lampasas, Texas, about one year, and in the town of Lampasas two months. I have been in bad health fifteen years, suffering from a cough and a pain in my breast, and no medicine afforded me any relief. For the past four months I have been confined nearly all the time to my bed. About three weeks ago I was so low that I had given up all hope of recovery. At that time I heard of the King Royal Germeteur, and I procured some, hoping it would relieve if not entirely cure me. I have now so far recovered that I can attend to my household duties and a few days ago I walked a mile without feeling fatigued. My appetite and digestion have become good, and I feel nearly as well as I ever did. I am taking no other remedy than the King Royal Germeteur. ANN WELCH, Witness: W. F. GILBERT. This is to certify that I have for many years past suffered from rheumatism, often so badly that it was difficult for me to get about, also, that I have suffered continuously for 32 years from hemorrhoids. For these troubles I have taken a vast amount of medicine, and under the advice of the best physicians in the country, but with no permanent relief. I also have suffered much since the war from dyspepsia, and the medicine I took did me no good. Under these circumstances as a forlorn hope I commenced using a new preparation of Dr. C. R. King of Lampasas, the Royal Germeteur. In a short time I began to improve and the improvement was continuous, until I find myself free from the complaints from which I have suffered so much I have delayed this certificate some two or three months in order to see if there would be any recurrence of my troubles, but they have not. Signed, J. W. ENGLAND. Read what Dr. S. J. Anderson, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, Dallas, Texas, says the medicine has done for him: REV. D. P. HAGGARD—DEAR SIR: I wish to acknowledge with gratitude that the gallon of Dr. King's Royal Germeteur, sent me has been of great service to me. I had been suffering for six weeks with intercostal rheumatism and nervous prostration, and had scarcely been able to attend to any business. It is put up in one gallon jugs, with label and directions on jugs, and sells for $2.00 per gallon. On wine glass a dose, so it is much cheaper than ordinary patent medicines, and as pleasant to take as lemonade. Agents wanted in every community, to sell it. Send orders, or write to D. P. HAGGARD, 106 Florence Street, Dallas, Texas.

Its superior excellence proven in millions of homes for more than a quarter of a century.

TEXAS BUSINESS COLLEGE

Had the finest school-room facilities in the South, and a larger attendance than any school of its age in the State.

Publishers' Department

BUSINESS OFFICE—ROOM NO. 1, COR. MAIN AND SYCAMORE STS., DALLAS, TEXAS.

For advertising rates, address the Publishers.

All subscriptions are discontinued at date of expiration, except in cases where we are authorized to continue and send bills.

Subscribers asking to have the direction of a paper changed should be careful to name not only the postoffice to which they wish it sent, but also the one to which it has been sent.

Entered at the Postoffice at Dallas, Texas, as Second Class Matter.

General News. Obituary—Texas. DIED—Alderman E. Wollert at Corsicana.

Time and tide waits for no man. An occasional dose of Cheatham's Hill Tonic often saves you from a long spell of sickness.

A Fraud. Circulars are being sent out by a San Francisco swindle seeking to get money from credulous colored people.

Headaches and backaches are forerunners of chills and fevers. Commence using at once Cheatham's Chill Tonic.

Cheap Labor. The following appeal to the Knights of Labor contains a solid argument against the importation of cheap labor.

A Specific for Throat Diseases—Brown's Bronchial Trochies have been long and favorably known as an admirable remedy.

A Long Term Presidency. The quadrennial discussion in regard to the method of conducting elections, suffrage regulations, and the presidency tenure is now making its way through the House of Representatives.

Cattle Growers' Meeting. The annual meeting of the National Cattle Growers' Association took place at Chicago, Nov. 23, H. Hines, of Michigan, representing the committee appointed to investigate the contagion of Texas fever.

Unanswered Letters. Nov. 16.—I. M. Haynie, sub.

Beauty of Skin. F. J. DICKEY, M. D. REPTURE and PILES cured in from three weeks to three months without the knife.

H. J. HUDSON, DEALER IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE, WATCH CLUB CO.

O—THIS IS THE SEASON OF THE YEAR—O When people have to study the problem of how to get the BEST SHOES FOR THE LEAST MONEY!

LEON KAHN, 606 ELM STREET, DALLAS, TEXAS. Mail Orders promptly attended to, and expressage paid on all orders over $3.00.

1888. CHRISTMAS PRESENTS. 1888. Now is the time to secure your HOLIDAY PRESENTS, as we have just received a full line, and are receiving daily the latest styles of—beyond all possible calculations of the framers of the constitution each struggles to become more popularly known.

Ladies' Gold Watches, Ladies' Gold Filled Cases, Gents' Gold Watches, Gents' Gold Filled Cases, Silver and Plated-Ware, TEA-SETS, TILTING PITCHERS, WATER SETS, CASTORS, PICKLE DISHES, ETC.

An Indian Celebration. A Lockport, N. Y. dispatch Nov. 24, says: The William Pinip, and sachem of the Tuscarora Nation of Indians, has died on the Tuscarora reservation at the age of seventy-six years.

The Southern Immigration Convention. The United States Immigration Convention called to meet in Montgomery, Alabama, December 12, 1888, is a matter of great importance to the whole South.

General Quacks. "Yes, it pays," said a big fat physician, with a name which is known throughout the medical world.

Rome Against the Knights of Labor. The Catholic News has received from its Rome correspondent the text of the reply sent by Cardinal Rampoldi, prefect of the propaganda, to Cardinal Gibbons, teaching the attitude of the church towards the Knights of Labor.

Shocking Accident. So read the headlines of many a newspaper column, and we curse with palpitation the details of the catastrophe.

Texas Legislature. The following is a complete list of the senators of the Twenty-first Legislature: First District—K. B. Seal.

Cattle Growers' Meeting. The annual meeting of the National Cattle Growers' Association took place at Chicago, Nov. 23, H. Hines, of Michigan, representing the committee appointed to investigate the contagion of Texas fever.

A New Discovery. Granulated Eye-Lids and Ulcerations, Cured in less time than ever known before, without pain.

MUSIC FOR CHRISTMAS. Christmas Selections FOR 1888. Containing new songs by eminent composers and writers in this field of work.

Services. "Blood Will Not Be Shed." By J. E. Hall.

Catalogue of all kinds of Christmas Novelties at The JOHN CHURCH CO., Cincinnati, O.

Business College. Business College, Dallas, Texas.

4770 head of cattle which had been exposed to the disease were killed. In the majority of the States the disease had been entirely eradicated.

The following was adopted: Whereas, the inspection of cattle and other animals and the products thereof which are to be sold for human food should be uniform and national in its character so as to insure an inspection which shall be thorough, honest and free from local prejudice; therefore be it

Resolved, That this convention advocates the enactment of a National Inspection Law by Congress, providing that it shall be unlawful to transport from one State into another or into any foreign country any beef, pork, veal or mutton to be sold for human food which has not been inspected alive by an inspector of the United States and found healthy, and that a special bureau for such inspection should be created in the Department of Agriculture.

Resolved, That this convention advocates the approval of the exhibition of American animal products at the Paris Exposition in 1889, and that the Louisiana State Fair, State and individual stockmen to give all practical aid to the authorities entrusted with the duty of making this exhibit.

The Sunday School Board are prepared to help needy children by organizing a school, or have a school and want money to aid you in securing literature or other matters of material interest, write to W. H. Kohn, Houston, Texas, and he will send you a blank form of application.

Young man, if you have the itch of any skin disease, you can't be too quick in curing it, so buy at once a box of Hunt's Cure. Guaranteed to cure.

Beauty of Skin. F. J. DICKEY, M. D. REPTURE and PILES cured in from three weeks to three months without the knife.

H. J. HUDSON, DEALER IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE, WATCH CLUB CO.

O—THIS IS THE SEASON OF THE YEAR—O When people have to study the problem of how to get the BEST SHOES FOR THE LEAST MONEY!

LEON KAHN, 606 ELM STREET, DALLAS, TEXAS. Mail Orders promptly attended to, and expressage paid on all orders over $3.00.

1888. CHRISTMAS PRESENTS. 1888. Now is the time to secure your HOLIDAY PRESENTS, as we have just received a full line, and are receiving daily the latest styles of—

Ladies' Gold Watches, Ladies' Gold Filled Cases, Gents' Gold Watches, Gents' Gold Filled Cases, Silver and Plated-Ware, TEA-SETS, TILTING PITCHERS, WATER SETS, CASTORS, PICKLE DISHES, ETC.

MUSIC FOR CHRISTMAS. Christmas Selections FOR 1888. Containing new songs by eminent composers and writers in this field of work.

Services. "Blood Will Not Be Shed." By J. E. Hall.

Catalogue of all kinds of Christmas Novelties at The JOHN CHURCH CO., Cincinnati, O.

Business College. Business College, Dallas, Texas.

SANGER BROS.

We suppose the ladies found our "ad" in last Sunday's papers interesting reading. It means volumes in the way of savings on seasonal goods, but then that is the only thing we ever advertise.

We have a few more things to talk about, and they are just as good as those that went before.

EMBROIDERED CASHMERE SCARFS AND FICHUS

in black and colors. We have just received a line of Importers' samples. They were through using them for orders and wanted to sell them. There are hundreds of them. We bought them at half price. That's the way we sell them.

LABADIE'S HAND-KNIT ZEPHYR GOODS

There is no call to reduce these. We sell such quantities of them at the marked prices, but we want you to get still better acquainted with the department, and we'll attract you with the following little one's necessities: Infants' Sacques, in white and colors.

At 25c each, worth 40c. At 40c each, worth 65c. At 65c each, worth $1. At $1.10 each, worth $1.50.

Infants' Hoods, Hand-Knit Zephyr, same as the Sacques, all colors and combinations. At 25c each, worth 40c. At 40c each, worth 65c. At 70c each, worth 90c. At $1.10 each, worth $1.50.

For Misses we have Toboggan Caps, all hand-knit, in a full line of colors. Alpine Toboggans at 85c, reduced from $1.25.

Toboggan Hoods at 75c, reduced from $1.10. Hand-Knit Tam O'Shanters at 70c, reduced from 95c.

Children's Cloaks, in ages 4 to 16 years. Stock is beginning to break up. Sizes are selling out. Low prices last week did it for us.

We've selected the ends of the lots advertised last week and assorted them into five different priced lots and placed them on a counter in central aisle of Cloak department. If you walk through there any day this week you will find them marked as follows:

$2.65 each for Cloaks that range in value from $3.75 to 4.50. $3.25 each for Cloaks that range in value from $4.75 to $5.50. $3.95 each for Cloaks that range in value from $5 to $6. $4.60 each for Cloaks that range in value from $6 to $7.25. $4.95 each for Cloaks that range in value from $7 to $8.

W. C. Pfaeffle, Watches, Diamonds, Clocks AND JEWELRY

SOLID SILVER AND PLATED WARE. SPECTACLES. Fine Watchwork and Engraving. 605 Main Street, Fort Worth, Texas.

SANGER BROS.