An Important Enterprise.

Perhaps no more important enterprise has been inaugurated in this State for some years than that contemplated by the Texas Press Association. The association meets in Fort Worth, June 26, will remain in session until June 29, on which date a start will be made on the annua! excursion. It has been the custom of the fraternity heretofore to make these excursions a season of recreathe more enterprising members more in harmony with the design and object of the association. With this in view a movement was inaugurated looking to the thorough advertising of Texas on this year's pilgrimage. It was decided that exhibit cars would more thoroughly accomplish the object than any other project. It is now the purpose of the association to carry from one to three cars, according to the amount raised for the purpose, with a complete exhibit of the products of Texas, that the eyes of Eastern and Northern people may beholi what their minds have failed to conceive-the wonderful resources of this great State. Stops will be made in all the principal cities between Texas and Asbury Park, N. J., both going and returning. The wisdom of this enterprise will be better understood when it is known that the National Press Association (composed of editors from every State in the Union) will be in session in Asbury Park when the exhibit cars reach that point. If from no higher motive, the members of that association will feel impelled from fraternal feelings to note in their respective journals the and thus will Texas be thoroughly advertised. But it will require view, and the members of the press throughout Texas are expected to raise the amount. This can be done by calling through the columns of their papers for contributions from ISRAEL IN EGYPT .- Exodus 1:1-14. GOLDEN TEXT .- Our help is in the name of the Lord -Psa. 124 8.

In the creation of the world God planned and fashioned it to the hand when the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us we beheld in creation the illustrations of his teachings, and material things attesfed the oneness of the Word and the Father. The hand that built the material universe and wove into its wondrous fabric the mysterious wisdom which has occu pled the minds of philosophers during the ages past, and will engage and entertain human thought to the end of time, has shown the same skill and wisdom in the work of re-demption. It is said: "In Genesis we have the creation of the world in history; in Exodus we have the redemption of the world in type." Israel, as it moved out of Egypt, was a nation created anew, and may be taken as a type of regeneration, and its history is a visible exhibition of the doctrines of redemption. In the severe trials of Jacob and his people God was writing the his tory of his providence, and laid deep and broad the basis of the gospel, which is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth. This training school of suffering was necessary for them and for us. Tee take them out from Egypt and lead arose who had forgotten both Joseph them to their own country. No people would have undergore the trials of the wilderness who had not known the task-masters of Egypt, and no people would learn and appreciste the wisdom of God's providences who had not read the trials of Israel in the wilderness.

These people were suffering for us, and the lessons given by God through their sufferings constitute the pith of marriage, knowing their children

To My Brethren of the West Texas Conference who Elected Me a Delegate to the General Conference at Beeville Last Fall:

Some of you may not understand why I am not in the General Conference Three days before starting to Memphis, and after arrangements had been made to go, I received a letter signed by B. Harris and W. W. Pinson, stating that we had elected more delegates than we were allowed under the law, and that my seat would be disputed. Not feeling able to take the tripand take chances on being unseated, and thus left to pay my own bills, I decided not to attend. I thank you, my brethren, for the honor conferred upon me just as much so as if I had attended the conference at Memphis, Tenn. The mistake was not mine, and unnoticed and undiscovered by me until the letter was received to which reference has been made. God bless you.

OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

There will be a complete and con veniently arranged postoffice and telegraph office in First Methodist Church, the seat of the conference. The postoffice authorities have detailed a good man as delivery clerk, and the Western Union Telegraph Company has agreed to place a good operator in the office. Delegates and visitors to the Conference are therefore requested to have all their mail and telegrams sent to the care of the conference, and they will be delivered promptly at any time during the day.

MAKE UP YOUR MIND!

HE liberal offer of the TENAS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE to supply its readers with that greatest of home educators, the Encyclopædia Britannica, at introductory rates has assumed the limitation of NOW OR NEVER. The CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE would not presume to assert that the future prosperity and happiness of your child depends solely upon the decision you make to-day regarding this offer; there are other ways in which his proper education can be provided, and yet you will admit that there is probably no other way in the world in which you can invest so small a sum with the probability of bringing such large returns for the good of your family. No matter how liberally you provide for your son's education, this great reference library will be an invaluable aid to any such provision, and if you cannot send him to college, he can by diligent home study obtain as good as a college education. We do not say keep your son from college; the college will make education come easier, and if you can afford it you should send him, but even then he needs Britannica at home, for no college can give a complete education; it only lays the foundation upon which a man continues to build throughout life. If you can't send your boy to college, provide the best possible means for a college education at home; that is, order a set of the New Up-to-Date Encyclopædia Britannica. If you send your boy to college, don't let his education stop there; he has only entered upon the beginning of his possibilities, for Britannica contains vastly more than can be acquired in the most thorough college course. Orders can still be received at introductory rates, if you fill out the ACCEPTANCE BLANK below and send it in

WITHIN 24 HOURS

After receipt of this notice, so that all readers of the TEXAS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE will have an equal opportunity to come in. Orders from those at a distance will, therefore, be honored if the postmarks show that the subscriber ordered immediately upon receipt of this notice. Below you will find an APPLICATION BLANK giving description, price, etc., of the various ktyles of binding.

OOO THINK A MOMENT!OOO

Can you ever hope to get a better home library? Can you ever again expect to obtain it at so low a price or terms so easy? Can you afford to be another week without this excellent library in your home? Think again and you will cut out the APPLICATION BLANK below and mail it to the TEXAS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, Dallas, Texas, before it is too late.

FARMERS and others who have not ordered Britannica because they find it difficult to provide for the continual small payments during the summer, should register their names for introductory rates at once and we will arrange with Britannica Publishers to accept part payment now and balance in the fall.

THOUGHTS BY THE WAY.

In looking over the TEXAS CHRIS-TIAN ADVOCATE of March 22, our eyes fell upon Mrs. C. J. McMarram's article headed: "Church Entertainments." Our attention was arrested, and as we read those timely lines an involuntarily "praise the Lord," fell from our lips, and we rejuteed that some one, moved by the Hely Spirit, had found time and courage to speak out on this most important question. We are sure these varied Church entainments are not only a departure from League work, but alarmingly destructive to the spiritual life and work of any League, both collectively and individually. It is a sad fact that those who participate in these worldly ways of money getting are not advancing spiritually, nor leading souls to the cross.

Young men have been heard to say in Waxahachie, 'I would join the League, but my conscience won't let me engage in the socials and worldly entertainments they have, and young men are urged to pay, and then go and play their part in keep-ing up and helping on this line of things." But we do not believe the young people are wholly to blame. They have been encouraged and urged on (if we mistake not) by those who by virtue of their office and experience should have lovingly, tenderly, but firmly, piloted them safely by and beyond such treacherous breakers, pointed out the fact that the League was first and slways to be the spiritual training school of the youth of the Church, and just so far as it lost sight of this high calling so far it must of necessity prove a failure. The Scriptural way of giving is "give as the Lord hath prospered thee;" give willingly and give until it is a sacrifice, or rather deny the flesh, that we may give, not hire ourselves to give by pampering the lust of the flash through the appetite, the ear and the social attributes of these carnel natures, that can never be satisfied. Freewill offerings, given gladly, cheerfully, joyously, from love to God, and his cause—these are the gifts that please the dear Lord, and are treasures laid up in heaven.

But let us not forget that there is a separating line between the Church and the world, over which the Christian steps only at the peril of his soul. Let us live so close to God that we may feast upon "hidden manua," the "honey from the rock," and the "finest of the wheat," then we shall bave no desire to even taste the chaff of the world.

Mrs. Sarah Crawford's article in issue of April 12, of TEXAS ADVOgood, practical truth. Yes, there is work for all! On every hand "whitered fields," "open doors," hungry souts demand our attention.

Shall we go forth "in His name" and win souls? Do the little things, the unpleasant things-anything-if we may but lead precious immortals to the feet of Jesus?

This is our calling, dear brethren and sisters. This is why we have no time to waste in dead, formal service.
O let us get empty of "self" and
"sin," and let the Holy Spirit fill us, and we shall be ready to do effectual work for Jesus.

MRS. CARRIE BUTCHER.

THE following leaflet, with others on various subjects bearing upon Sabbath observance, came to hand recently from Mrs. A. E. Montgoorery, State Superintendent Sabbath Observance Woman's Christian Temperance Union, with request that place be given the same in our department whenever admissible. cheerfully give space this week to this leaflet (somewhat abbreviated), knowing that Christian workers everywhere are deeply interested in the proper observance of the Sabbath, and in any efforts being made to bring about the proper observance of the day:

Sabbath Desceration.

As Christians, we accept the Bible as God's word, and the law given on Sinal as still binding both on pations and individuals; and we read therein such words as these: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy CANNOT SEE HOW YOU DO

We also read the words of the prophet Isaiah: "The nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish," and as patriots we are started and appalled by the danger that incomplete the started and specific that it is served. that impends over our land; for we know that to serve is to obey, and that the fourth commandment is as obligatory as the sixth. Yet on every side we hear on the Lord's Day the whistle of the rail-way, the bell of the steamboat, the gun of the sportsman and the cry of the newsboy; we see the open shops and saloons, the crowded theaters and concert halts, postoffices and de-pots, and we ask how shall this evil be stayed?

We have at the outset this strong ground of encouragement, and our Nation was founded by God-fearing man to be drowned who was worth men, and the Sabbath is recognized the saving.—James A. CHRISTIAN RESPONSIBILITY. Sabbath desceration is one of the most wide-spread and alarming sirs of our time, and the l'quor dealers and our foreign population cannot te the scape goats. Neither can our Government, though the evil inflaence and example of its Sabbath mail iliary in the conference is urged to service is far-reaching and powerful. send a delegate. Christian people must bear much of the blame of this growing wrong.

It is but a few years since the Sanday newspaper appeared, and was first denounced, next tolerated, then bought, read, and advertised in by Christian people, till it has proved itself the worst fee of the Sabbath in any home it enters.

It was only so recently as the civil war that railroads first regularly plied their traffic, but when war exigencles were over, the tide of travel and the rush of freight and express still increased, and now Christian merchants and business insist that competition requires their use of Sunday trains, though hereby many thousands lose their Sabbath rest.

The time was when Christian people looked with horror upon Lord's day travel, but now if the hours of Pond's Extract gives sure relief from Pain public morning worship are not encroached upon, many of them, merely to save the time of week days, will travel either morning or evening, as though the command had read, to keep them holy.

In other ways also are we as Christian people responsible for Sabbath May our hearts be stirred first of all to make our own example faultless, both at home and tarrh Cure is all that he represents it beyond, and then to pray fervently to be it having cured my son Frank of band, seven children, forty-six grand-band, seven children, four great-grandchildren who has suffered for years with the and a hest of friends to mourn their

A CARELESS remark dropped by a young miss the other day made the editor think, and think nard. The remark was: "Oh, its only mamma. She is a good mother, but she is behind the times; we know so much more nowadays than they did when she was a girl."

In the first place, assuming the young isdy's remark to be literally true, it is a beardess thing to say, even though said carclessly, when referring to one's mother. Mothers, no matter how 'old fashioned' they are, have merited better treatment than this from their children.

But the point to be brought out is this: Admitting that the course of the world's progress makes it inevitable that we should be wiser than our parents, and that our children should know more than we did at their age or than we ever shall know, would it not be possible for parents, in general, to more nearly keep up with their boys and girls than they do? It would seem that we could better sympathize with our children if we followed more closely the march of progress in the world of science, art, literature, invention. If parents are to be the advisers and mentors of the coming generation, how necessary it is for them to keep abreast of the times, to read the best books and papers, to think the best thoughts, to theroughly acquaint themselves with the ever-increasing number of inventions and appliances by which man-kind is daily making life more enjoyable and productive of larger good!-Selected.

I can conceive no dying hour more years we have as a nation calclessly awfat than that of one who has asdrifted far away from the precepts of pired to know instead of to love, and finds himself at last amid a world of barren facts and lifeless theories, loving none and adoring nothing -F. An unusually profitable and delightful session of the Corsicana District Conference has just been held at Kerens, Texas. Rev. G. S. Wyatt, presiding elder, called the conference to order Thursday morning, and at the first service the an inting of the Spirit came on the congregation, and as the work progressed the interest and power of the meeting increased.

A large number of laymen were present, and all the itinerants except Bro. G. S. Clark, whose mother is very dangercusly ill (may the Lord biess and spare her) and Bro. M. H. Major, who was much needed at home in consequence of a gracious revival which has been held at Itaska.

The reports throughout the district indicated a decided upward move or all lines. The spiritual condition of the Church is, in the main, healthy, active, and in some instances already gracious revivals have been held. Some charges, where members have broken their vows, called forth this pronounced decision on the part of pastors and laymen: "The pastor is not powerless to enforce discipline." Sustained as they are by faithful, consecrated laymen, that pastor is derelict who fails of bis duty.

The finances throughout the district seemed to be healthy, with some advance over last year, reckening to the same time of year.

The visit of the representative of the Conference Board of Missions, Bro. J. H. Wiseman, was an cecasion of profit and pleasure to all. His sermon on "Rest" will be long remembered; about $10 was realized in voluntary subscription and contribution. This movement on the part of the Board of Missions seems to be a wise provision.

We also had the pleasure of a visit from "the Orphan," W. H. Vaughan, representing the Methodist Orphan Home, located at Waco, Texas. had represented his cause faithfully before the conference, and was about eaving the house when some of the brethren insisted that he give those present an opportunity to help him, and in a very short time nearly $600 were subscribed. Rev. Abe Mulkey gave $500. May the Lord multiply

Also a memorial requesting the authority for each Annual Conference to have a Conference Missionary Secretary when it may so desire.

Wortham was selected as the place for holding the next District Conference. Following delegates were elected to Annual Conference: B. W. Jackson, J. W. Lowery, W. H. Knight, C. A. Stone.

By resolution it was determined to hold a District Sunday school Conference at Corsicana scon.

This being the fourth year Rev. G. S. Wyatt has served this district, and knowing that under our time limit he can not remain longer, resolutions of regret were passed, reciting his see frowned upon until at last the successful and delightful administration upon the district, and praying God's richest blessing upon him wherever he may labor.

ULTRA-CONSERVATISM.

I was glad to note in a recent editorial of our TEXAS ADVOCATE that it wanted it distinctly understood that it did not stand for "moss-back conservatism." This is decidedly refreshing, for it has seemed to me (though this may be dullness on my part) that numbers of our Church papers are dominated by the idea that be willing to believe that those who he'r special work is that of brake advocate change in some of the things men—brakemen on the Methodist of cur Methodism, love the Church men—brakemen on the Methodist train. Now this is no doubt an important work, but to have the brakes applied at every mile of the road and on every conceivable accasion is intellegable and very discouraging. Conservatism as a check to extreme of the conservatism as a check to extreme of the conservation of cur Methodism, love the Church as much as they, and are as profounding that per tains to her welfare as they can possibly be. It has ever been the tendency of the Church to set into grooves and ruts and stay there until some Luther, Knex, Carry, Wesley, Booth, Moody, Jones, appeared upon the scene and pried it out, suffering, however, in the meantime as dangerous innova-

The Magic City, that for a six months was the Jerusalem of the world. Its fair proportions, the dreamy splendors of the Peristyle, the grandeur of Music Hall, the Grecian beauty of the Casino, and the stupendousness of Manufactures Building, were wrapped in the arms of a fiery demon on the night of January S, and perished in the fell embrace. But all the magnificence of those splendid creations of architectural genius have been preserved for the eyes of all mankind, through the wise provision of the publishers of

HE MAGIC CITY."

They foresaw the destruction of all those noble structures, and to perpetuate the Fair for the benefit of the world, employed a corps of the most expert photographers in America, at the largest salaries ever paid for such work, to take 2000 PHOTOGRAPHS of all the Buildings, the Displays, the Foreign People, the Theatres and the Attractions. From these 2000 pictures, 300 OF THE FINEST (though all of them were infinitely finer than those which fill the pages of other World's Fair Portfolios) were selected and reproduced for "THE MAGIC CITY," which every one must confess is THE MOST SUPERBLY BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT PORTFOLIO OF WORLD'S FAIR VIEWS THAT WAS EVER MADE, in any time or in any nation.

Compare if you will, or have the opportunity, "THE MAGIC CITY" with other Portfolios. We beg you to do this, and we desire the largest expression of your judgment.
