FORTY-SEVENTH YEAR

LEGISLATURE PASSES TAX RELIEF MEASURE

The third special session of the 47th Texas legislature adjourned Wednesday after twenty-three days of work in which it enacted into law proposals submitted by Governor E. S. Sterling as constituting relief to taxpayers.

It was estimated that an aggregate of $7,000,000 would be saved taxpayers on their levies for the past year by passage of a law providing that the state reimburse counties and road districts amounts spent by them from bond issue proceeds in constructing roads now a part of the state system.

Another law released penalties and interest on delinquent state, county and district taxes provided they are paid by December 31, 1932. The law made it optional with municipalities where they should remit penalties.

Amendments to laws governing operation of loan and building associations were authorized in order to permit those organizations to participate in the federal home loan act designed to provide emergency funds during the economic stringency to save home owners from foreclosures.

Those were the "relief" proposals Governor Sterling named in his special session proclamation as warranting the extraordinary meeting.

FOOTBALL NEWS

(BY A FAN)

It is the ambition of every football candidate to make the first string of his school, but the way Haskell's second string has been leading the supposed regulars I believe I would prefer playing on the second string. Now it makes things look rather odd but don't be surprised if you hear that the regulars are having a hard go of it trying to make the "B" squad.

After having watched the boys scrimmage three or four afternoons last week I have decided that S. A. Moore is as good at tackling—works just as hard—and has as good a chance of lettering as any man. What he lacks in weight is made up in courage. How that boy hustles! As for the centers it is a toss up between Bynum and Parker. The odds are that the one who gets the nod from Coach Richey will be the one who hustles the most during the days between now and the first game. And that is as it should be! There are no cinched positions on the team yet—the one that is willing to put it out will play in the first game regardless of weight and experience! Coach Richey wants tough players—willing players and the best place to show the coach what you have is on the practice field. Let's watch Parker and Bynum and see who starts the game with Seymour. It depends on those two boys—no one else.

Gay and Richard Clark are having a time of it at guard. They are also evenly matched and should profit by what has been said about being willing to work hard and show the coach they want to play in every game. It is too bad that Gay doesn't have a little more interest in the game, but he will snap out of it I am sure, and when he does look out guards, as he is hustly enough to give any man plenty of trouble on that position. Clark will make him snap into it—so let's not worry about these boys just now.

Leo Tui—Carl Maples—Thomason look good at their positions and are going to be a big help to their team mates. Thomason must weigh about 165 and he is working like a Trojan. He is going to be a valuable man this year.

Captain Herring and Leroy O'Neal are running and snagging passes like a bunch of college men. These two men work about as smoothly as any on the squad. Herring is as good at catching passes as any boy I have ever seen in B class football. Both Herring and O'Neal are fast on foot—good ground gainers—and conscientious players. It is a pleasure to see these two boys work and I hope there will be a friendly rivalry between the two to see who makes the most valuable player between themselves. Both will play for the good of the team, as there is not a word of "grandstand" playing in them.

McMillan—English—Fleming are coming along nicely. And as the season progresses we will hear more from them. Eddie Moore is a good

SARAH GARNER LAID TO REST

In the quietness of a village cemetery, final rites were said Wednesday for the pioneer mother of John Nance Garner, the vice-presidential nominee.

The mother, Mrs. Sarah Jane Garner, passed quietly away in her old home at Detroit, Texas, yesterday, surrounded by her children, three sons and two daughters. After the services, as simple as the life she led, the body of the 81-year-old woman was placed in the family vault, a low brick structure surrounded by lilac bushes and shaded by oaks, to rest beside her husband and two children, a daughter and a son, who preceded her in death.

BAPTIST CHANGE CONVENTION DATE TO NOVEMBER 16

The Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, meeting in Dallas, September 13, voted to change the date for the meeting of the Baptist Convention from November 9 to November 16. The Convention voted last year to meet in Abilene in 1932.

Plans were completed for the raising of $600,000 for missions and benevolences by means of the Every-member Canvass Campaign now in progress among the 490,000 Baptists of Texas. Dr. J. Howard Williams, Executive Secretary of the Board, was placed in charge of the campaign, and he has appointed seventeen organizers in as many districts representing every portion of Texas.

The campaign will continue until October 30. The final week, Oct. 23-30, is designated as pledge week, at which time every Baptist in the state will be solicited for a pledge to the $600,000 fund. The money raised by this campaign is to be used by the Baptists for their work of missions and benevolences; every Baptist institution is to share in the funds, whether it is in Texas, in China, or elsewhere. The proportion of the funds to go to each institution will be worked out at the meeting of the State Convention to be held in Abilene November 16.

Jackie Cooper in Gripping Role

Jackie Cooper, the 8-year-old film star, undertakes a type of role different from anything he had previously attempted in "When a Feller Needs a Friend," which will be shown Wednesday and Thursday at the Texas Theatre.

In this picture the screen's newest juvenile sensation has the part of a crippled boy, with Charles "Chic" Sale co-starring in the other leading role of the story. It is said to be more gripping than "Skippy," or "The Champ."

"When a Feller Needs a Friend" is an adaptation of William Johnston's novel, "Lippy," the continuity having been prepared by Sylvia Thalberg and Frank Butler.

Raymond Taylor, manager of the new Perkins-Timberlake store, and Mrs. Manly Branch were called to Wichita Falls Tuesday night to be at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. Nettie Taylor, who is very ill.

STREET PARADE ON EACH DAY GOLDEN JUBILEE, WICHITA

Three unusual street parades, one each day, will be among the numerous free entertainment features for the 100,000 visitors expected in Wichita Falls for the "Golden Jubilee" September 26, 27 and 28.

Monday's parade will be a motorless affair and will feature all pioneer methods of transportation. It will include ox carts, stage coaches, covered wagons, buggies, hacks, side saddles, and cowboys. Tuesday's big parade will feature gorgeous floats, community bands, and novelties. The final parade on Wednesday will be a military affair, including Ft. Sill regular army troops with their big guns, national guard units, and patriotic organizations in uniform.

A crew of men began placing articles in the historic exhibits building two weeks before the opening of the "Golden Jubilee" and will continue this work until the opening date. A three-story building can hardly hold all the old relics, even after the exhibits have been culled to include only those of special interest, and adjoining property has been secured for the overflow. The exhibits building will be open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. each day and is free.

Fifty old time fiddle bands will compete for substantial cash prizes in a contest being sponsored by Radio Station KGKO. A glass enclosed broadcasting booth will be erected on a stage in the downtown business section so that all fiddling contests may be seen and heard by the celebration visitors. Brass bands, singing cowboys, orchestras, and other entertainment units will broadcast in full view of the crowds.

Other free entertainment includes maneuvers by the Fort Sill artillery units, pistol shooting contests by officers of northwest Texas and southern Oklahoma, firemen's water polo contests, style show and fine arts revue, street dancing, speeches by men of wide renown, athletic events, and reproduction of the arrival of the first train in Wichita Falls.

Other features, for which there will be nominal charges, are the world's championship rodeo, historical pageant, dances featuring famous orchestras, and wrestling matches.

Weiner Roast.

The young people of the Presbyterian Church Weinert Roast last Wednesday evening was a great success. There were 50 who drove out south of town to a hillside. Several fires were built and while they burned down to coals, the group engaged in several outdoor games. Then everyone, with a green limb or wire, gathered around the fire and roasted weiners, marshmallows, bacon and toasted buns, which were placed on an improvised table. The pastor was asked to return thanks for the outing and refreshments. After disposing of the food, the group was seated around the fires and under a beautiful moon, sang many songs, concluding with "Blessed Be the Tie," as all stood forming a large circle. The group was dismissed with the Mizpah benediction.

Sunbeam Band.

Mothers, are you interested in your children? How foolish that question seems; but are you interested enough to bring or send them to the Baptist Church each Monday afternoon at 3:15 where they will be taught how to conduct a business meeting, to give parts on programs, to play an instrument in a rhythm band, to lead in prayer, but above all, be taught the true missionary spirit. If you doubt the leaders ability to teach your children these things, send them a few times and then make the Sunbeam Band a visit and be convinced. This organization, whose leaders are Mrs. Mack Perdue and Mrs. Floyd Self, extend a welcome to all children between the ages of 3 and 9 years.

Then lunch was served which consisted of sandwiches, fruit, cakes, and lemonade. Singing and football talk were prevailing when someone bellowed, "Oh! lookie, the moon, the moon!" At that, each and everyone of us ran through the pasture and up the hill to see better the beautiful, ever new moon.

This was the liveliest party that we have ever known. Believe it or not, you have the word of the undersigned that the mosquitoes were as big as elephants! Haskell County History

[As Revealed by the Files of the Free Press 20, 30 and 40 years ago.]

20 YEARS AGO TODAY

At the meeting of the Central West Texas Association held at Stamford on Sept. 12th, five first prizes were offered for the best maize, kaffir corn, cotton, collective orchard exhibits. Haskell county farmers competed for four of these prizes, and won three of them. Paul Zahn won the first premium on the best collection of farm products. L. W. Wade of Rule won first on best 12 heads of milo maize, and best 12 heads of kaffir corn. Mr. Zahn's exhibit contained 53 varieties, all produced this year without irrigation.

Several business men of Haskell made a trip by automobile to Sweetwater on Sept. 17th to attend a stockholders meeting and organization of the Great Western Loan and Trust Company, chartered with a capital stock of $2,500,000. Those from Haskell were T. C. Cahill, M. H. Gilliam, J. D. Kinnison, and S. F. Stubbs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Therwanger of Weinert were in this city Monday. Mr. Therwanger was driving a span of fine young horses, about three years old and sixteen hands high, well matched and had a thoroughbred movement. This team ought to bring a thousand dollars in a city.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

At a meeting of Camp Raines ex-Confederate veterans held at the courthouse last Saturday the old officers were all re-elected: B. F. McCollum, commander; D. E. Hamilton, vice commander, and S. L.

SOCIETY and Club

Harmony Club.

Yearbooks for the 1932-33 session of the Harmony Club are being issued this week, with plans for the most extensive course of study which the organization has outlined in some years.

The session's program begins Wednesday, October 5, which is President's Day. A covered dish luncheon honors the incoming official, Mrs. B. M. Whiteker. Roll calls for the occasion will be ideals for the club year.

The study course, which is introduced by Mrs. D. Scott on October 12 in a program on Primitive and Christian Music, is outlined and supervised by Dr. Lora Spell of the University of Texas. It stresses not only the general trends of music through its history, but deals in particular with musicians.

Mrs. Vaughn Bailey is director of the October 26 program, which deals with folk music and includes representative folk songs which are familiar to all ears. On November 9, Mrs. J. W. Pace will lead a discussion of early operas and oratorios. Mrs. G. H. Morrison leads on November 23 in the lesson on Classicism in Music.

Remaining programs through the year deal with particular artists as representative of their ages and nations. Directors for these are: Hayden, Mrs. C. L. Lewis; Mozart, Mrs. J. T. Ellis; Beethoven, Miss Eunice Huckabee; Schubert, Mrs. R. J. Reynolds; Mendelssohn, Mrs. T. C. Cahill; Schumann, Mrs. B. M. Whiteker; Chopin, Mrs. D. L. Cummings; Liszt, Mrs. J. M. Martin; Grieg, Mrs. R. L. Harrison; Dvorak, Mrs. C. L. Lewis; Tchaikowsky, Miss Mary Emma Whiteker; Brahms, Mrs. A. W. Gordon; Wagner, Mrs. G. H. Morrison.

April 10, when Mrs. Morrison will present the Wagner program, is designated Guest Day. The Club's other special program for the year will be the Christmas Cantata, to be sung Sunday night, December 18, at the First Methodist Church. This is an annual event at which time the organization presents to the public a program of Christmas music.

The organization begins its work this year with the following officers: Mrs. B. M. Whiteker, president; Mrs. D. Scott, first vice president; Mrs. Vaughn Bailey, second vice president; Mrs. G. G. Herren, recording secretary; Mrs. C. L. Lewis, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. M. Martin, treasurer; Mrs. R. J. Reynolds, parliamentarian; Mrs. O. E. Paterson, accompanist; Mrs. J. T. The following ladies gave parts on the program: Mrs. D. Scott, Mrs. I. N. Simmons, Mrs. W. P. Trice, Mrs. Sam Roberts, Mrs. J. E. Reeves, Mrs. Geo. Herren, Mrs. R. J. Paxton and Miss Ida Crawford. The leader Mrs. Trice, then held a short business session and it was decided that we meet in a Bible Study with Mrs. R. C. Couch next Monday. We then enjoyed a social hour.

We were glad to have with us Mrs. Theis and Mrs. Reese, who have recently moved to our town, also to have as a guest, Mrs. J. A. Couch, Sr.

Reporter.

Items of Interest from the Sunflower H. D. Club of Mitchell.

Our club met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Brothers and enjoyed a good meeting, especially so as we had our H. D. Agent, Miss Partlow, with us.

There were six members present and everyone gained by being there. Miss Partlow gave us advice on fair exhibits, as it is nearing fair time and we hope to enter some of our canned stuff.

To date the members that were present have canned 2,130 containers of food this year, and have not completed their pantries yet, as we haven't canned our beaves and other meats.

We had our regular business meeting and discussed our budget for another year.

We are planning for a better club in the future, as we are new at such work but have accomplished much in our one year and we have more to work with and know what it means to have a H. D. Club in our community.

We hope each member of our club can fill their canning budget, also that as many as possible can build a wardrobe as we learned so much from our wardrobe demonstrator.

After the meeting, Mrs. Brothers served watermelon to Miss Partlow, Mesdames Lydia Carver, S. L. Sibley, H. D. Hicks, Clyde Boydston, Solon Lea.

We are all very busy in our crops but hope more members will be present at our next meeting so we can plan on our fair exhibits, also our dresses for the style show to be held at the Fair.

Come on members, let's do our best and all enjoy our good club and all share in the good of our H. D. Club. Everyone welcome every first and third Fridays.

Josset H. D. Club.

The Josset H. D. Club met on Tuesday evening August 13 with Mrs. Gene Lancaster, with eleven members present. They were as follows: Mesdames Steve Perrin, J. E. Taylor, Fred Monke, John Thomas, C. A. Thomas, J. L. Toliver, C. L. Toliver, Jesse Josset, Clay Kimbrough, Jr., Vesta Wheeler and Miss May Cothron.

The visitors were: Mrs. Sally Cothron and Mother Lancaster. Two new members added to our list; they were, Mrs. Holt Eastling from Haskell, and Mrs. Thelma Lewellen. The roll was called and each member present answered with variety of tomatoes best suited to my garden, which was very interesting. We got new ideas for next year's planting.

Our agent Miss Partlow, met with us and gave a very interesting demonstration on Tomato Sherbert and Gumbo, which was very delicious to our taste. We learned to use our okra and tomatoes several new ways.

Our Council Member, Mrs. Fred Monke, gave her report of Council. The hostess, Mrs. Lancaster, assisted by Miss Mae Cothron served angel food cake, cookies and lemonade.

THE MAINE ELECTION

Maine elected a Democratic governor and two of the three Members of Congress on Tuesday, and Democrats throughout the nation hailed their victory as a forerunner of success in November. It was the most extraordinary and amazing political overturn in the history of the commonwealth. Four years ago Mr. Hoover carried the state by more than two to one. Only once in a half century has the state electoral vote gone to a Democrat, and only twice in a century have the Democrats obtained a majority in a gubernatorial election.

"As goes Maine, so goes the country," has been a saying ever since in 1840 the state "went hell bent for Elmer Kent," and two months later, Kent being a Whig, his party captured the presidency.

While this is only a state election and the Presidential election is still to be held, the result in Maine, a rock-ribbed Republican state, shows an unmistakable trend toward the Democratic party.

FEEDING PREJUDICES

Most of us who consider ourselves broad-minded are anything but that. Otherwise, how can we account for the fact that we are seldom interested in reading "the other side" of any question.

We read almost exclusively such books, periodicals and newspapers as we know in advance will generally coincide with our own views. Few Republicans subscribe for a red-hot Democratic newspaper, or vice versa. People take church papers only of their own denomination. Capitalists take few labor papers, and laboring men would hardly look at one that reflects the capitalistic viewpoint.

In other words, we all have more or less confirmed opinions on nearly every important subject, and do not admit that there may be some virtue in the contentions of those who take the opposite view.

As a recent writer has said, "The only facts we can tolerate are those we already know." We read, not to really learn something new, but for the purpose of confirming ourselves in our present beliefs and prejudices.

NERVY SALES METHODS

Business and professional men are frequently annoyed by mail order firms which send goods not ordered, with a request that the merchandise be either paid for or returned. Such sales methods are entirely indefensible.

It is unfair to place upon a busy man the burden of wrapping and remailing stuff he does not want, yet the average person feels an obligation to pay for it or send it back. This method of alleged salesmanship no doubt produces results, or it would not be resorted to by the concerns which practice it.

One way of handling such cases is reported by a Michigan paper. A doctor was sent $10 worth of cigars with a request to try them and remit if satisfied. In case he did not smoke, it was suggested that he could find some friend who would be glad to take them off his hands. The doctor wrote in reply:

"Cigars received. I enclose in payment two prescriptions well worth $10. If you do not need them, you can sell them to some friend."

FEWER SCHOOLHOUSES

Once America's pride, the "little red schoolhouse," with its barn-like single room and primitive equipment, is slowly but surely passing. More than 10,000 of these small district school buildings were abandoned in the past few years, their places being taken by the modern consolidated school.

With the rapid extension of good roads and the employment of motor busses for the transportation of children to these larger institutions, it seems inevitable that the one-room school, with its many handicaps, will eventually disappear.

While the district school must thus give place to a new and supposedly better system, it has filled a paramount roll in the advancement of the nation. To the self-sacrificing labors of faithful teachers in these rural schools many famous men and women owe their early education and inspiration.

But the demands of progress must be met in education, as well as in other phases of our increasingly complex civilization. The new and larger consolidated school, with its staff of better prepared teachers, its improved organization and its modern equipment, will mark an advance over the "little red school house" which must make for a more enlightened and efficient citizenship.

HOARDED MONEY BENEFITS NO ONE

A certain man during his eighty years of life saved up $40,000 which he hoarded in tobacco cans, hiding them about his shabby home. He denied himself the comforts of life, robbed his family of necessities as well as pleasures and real living, held himself aloof from his fellowmen, had nothing in common with neighbors, had no community interest. He just existed in a self-centered, sub-normal pursuit of more money, which as he used it, was not worth as much as a single smile, an apple in the hands of a hungry child, or a bit of finery for some worthy girl. Then his shack caught fire, and his $40,000 went up in smoke. Money is valueless if it is not used. Put your money in a bank, or invest it. Put it to use.—Kansas Republican, Newton, Kansas.

IT'S STARTING

NEWS FROM OVER WEST TEXAS

Re-Building Brick Business House

From the Hamlin Herald—
This week, Contractor Shelburne and a big force of men are starting the work to restore the Johnson building that was destroyed by fire last year.

This building is in the center of Hamlin's main business block and will be the first step towards replacing the great gap that fire made in our city over twelve months ago. It is not known yet who will use this building.

Material Arriving for New Gin at Goree

From the Goree Advocate—
Material is being put on the ground for the erection of the Stevenson, Hampton and Weber gin in Goree. All machinery should be here within the next week and the work will be rushed in order to complete the construction work as soon as possible.

The men who are building this gin believe that they will be ready for operation very soon after the first of October. They state that they are putting in the very best machinery and will have a modern plant, when completed, capable of doing as fine work as can be done.

Anson Lake Now Full, for the First Time in History.

From the Western Enterprise, Anson—
Lake Anson, which last week filled up the first time in its nine years history, and is now only four or five inches below the top of the concrete spillway, presents an interesting sight to Ansonites who have become accustomed to seeing the lake with little water in it.

Barely the top of the brick and sheet iron houses covering the wells drilled for shallow water in the upper parts of the basin, are now visible.

Ranch Near Truscott Is Bought by Wichita Falls Investment Co.

From the Faith County News—
Outright purchase of the old J. R. Craig ranch in Knox county, about four miles west of Truscott, was announced this week by the Featherston Investment Corporation of Wichita Falls. The owners of this corporation are Chas. H. Solon R., and W. B. Featherston and Mrs. Mary E. Bradford. The tract which they have just bought consists of 11,270 acres. It is one of the best known ranches in this section of the state, having been established about 50 years ago by the late J. R. Craig, who remained in active charge of it until his death a few years ago.

Mrs. Flora Routon Succumbs at Home of Son on Sunday.

From the Munday Times—
Mrs. Flora Routon, age 69, died at the home of her son, Tom Routon, of the Routon community on Sunday and funeral services were conducted on Monday afternoon at the Methodist church at Brushy, with the Rev. White, pastor, officiating. The funeral arrangements were in charge of R. G. Campbell, local undertaker.

Mrs. Routon was one of the pioneer citizens of the Routon community, and is survived by several children, her husband having died in 1927.

Law Partnership Formed by Haskell and Throckmorton Men.

From the Throckmorton Tribune—
Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Odell and son are leaving Throckmorton this week for Haskell where they will make their future home. Mr. Odell and Mr. Vernon Adcock have formed a law partnership and will do business in Throckmorton and Haskell. The firm will be known as Odell & Adcock, Lawyers.

Mr. Adcock, with his wife will move to Throckmorton this week to have charge of the Throckmorton office of the firm which will be in the same place Mr. Odell's office has been in the past, over the First National Bank.

Two Seymour Filling Stations Are Burglarized.

From the Bayle County Banner—
Dave Vickers, who runs a filling station just north of the Baptist church, had his place burglarized Tuesday morning early. The loss was 13 tires, at a value of about $180, most of which was covered by insurance. It is believed the thieves were scared away before the job had been fully completed.

The loss of Mr. Vickers follows one by Aubrey Cox about two weeks ago at the Arrow Service Station. That place was broken into about the same hour of the night and in a similar way to the burglary of this week, leading to the belief that the same parties did both jobs. Mr. Cox lost about $432 worth of tires, a $268 cash register, cash tickets, oil, patching, etc. Most of this was covered by burglary insurance, although Mr. Cox will have some loss beyond the insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Gilliam of Lubbock visited over Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gilliam. They were accompanied by Prof. Gilbreath, also of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Sanders had all five of their sons with them Sunday for the first time in three years. They are: Earnest E. Sanders of Fort Worth, Jerome, Roy, Wallace and Fred, Jr.

Snap Shots

A secret whispered even to a bosom friend is no longer a secret.

It is safer to leave a snake alone than it is to step on him. It is known beforehand that he will strike back—and strike to kill.

In spite of all the mistakes and tragedies of love, it remains the world's one vital thing.

In some quarters a man and his family are not considered respectable unless they indulge in conspicuous waste.

If you want the clearer vision when looking through the telescope, first put out all the lights. And in the night of sorrow don't complain—it brings out the stars.

If you ever get even with the fellow who does you wrong you will have to drop to his level. Revenge is sweet but, if a fellow has to do that, revenge costs too much.

Don't profess too much. Be careful how you give in your holdings.

It takes more force to start a thing than it does to keep it going.

No one is great until he feels the pangs of some crucifixion.

If you would be happy, eliminate all your needless waste.

Mesdames C. V. Payne, Roy Killingsworth, Clyde Grissom, Bert Welsh and Jno. V. Davis spent the day Saturday in Brownwood the guests of Mrs. Herman Bettis.

With Modern Electric Refrigeration You Know Your Foods Are Safe

Proper food preservation, doctors say, is a vital prerequisite to health. Defined by these authorities, the proper preservation of foods means keeping perishables at a constant temperature of less than fifty degrees.

Modern Electric Refrigeration will give you this necessary low temperature... automatically. It has been tried and tested over a period of years, in actual, everyday use... its assurance of food safety for your family is a proven fact. Isn't this security against the dire effects of food-spoilage worth the small cost of a dependable Electric Refrigerator?

—But Electric Refrigeration is not an expense at all! Actually, Electric Refrigeration pays for itself! In food savings... in time savings... in labor savings... in permitting you to purchase in quantities at bargain prices—safely... and in exceptionally low operating cost!

Ask a Trained Representative to tell you the interesting story of Electric Refrigeration. There's no obligation, of course... and you are sure to enjoy the demonstration. Call in at our Merchandise Showroom, or see your Electrical Dealer... TODAY!

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and only a small amount to your total bill?

Diet Didn't Do This!

HAPPY little girl, just bursting with pep, and she has never tasted a "tonic!"

Every child's stomach, liver, and bowels need stimulating at times, but give children something you know all about.

Follow the advice of that famous family physician who gave the world Syrup Pepsin. Stimulate the body's vital organs. Dr. Caldwell's prescription of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh herbs is a mild stimulant that keeps the system from getting sluggish.

If your youngsters don't do well at school, don't play as hard as you as well as other children do, begin this evening with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This gentle stimulant will soon right things! The bowels will move with better regularity and thoroughness. There won't be so many sick spells or colds. You'll find it just as wonderful for adults, too, in larger spoonfuls!

Get some Syrup Pepsin; protect your household from those bilious days, frequent headaches, and that sluggish state of half-health that means the bowels need stimulating. Keep this preparation in the home to use instead of harsh cathartics that cause chronic constipation if taken too often. You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store; they have it all ready in big bottles.

AIRPLANES CARRY GOLD FROM AFRICA

Many Days Are Now Saved in Transportation.

Paris.—Gold from the mines in the Belgian Congo, in the heart of Africa, which once required four weeks to reach the coffers of the Belgian banks, is now being rushed by air to Brussels in four days.

The new regular weekly air service of the Imperial Airways from London, via Paris, to Cape Town, has revolutionized the system of precious metal transportation. Four-engine flying boats link up in Egypt with the planes from London and provide a fast service down the Mwanza, on the southern shores of Lake Victoria.

The sea lanes on the southern flight carry gold miners, Kenya coffee planters and big game hunters, who save weeks on the journey compared with other times when they traveled for days by train from the East African coast into the jungle lands.

Gold from the mines is brought down from the interior by native carriers, the journey to the lake occupying a full day of trekking. The precious metal is loaded at Mwanza, taken to Khartoum and then to Cairo. Here the gold, which is often accompanied by gold miners flying home on leave after years in Africa, is transferred to the Belgian air liners, arriving two hours later in Brussels and then lodged in the vaults of the state bank.

Saving of three weeks on the shipment of gold to Brussels is highly important for the Belgian bankers, enabling them to have rapid deliveries of fresh gold to replace gold withdrawals from the country.

Cherry Growers Unite to Boost Sale of Fruit

Traverse City, Mich.—A farm relief movement not connected with drives for special legislation, curtailment of acreage, or other cures suggested in recent years is being undertaken by the cherry growers of the country, according to an announcement here.

The growers have determined that the quickest and shortest route to economic recovery lies in the sale of cherries. They've started out to sell them by staging, first of all, a national cherry week, during the Washington birthday period. The dates are February 15-22. They are building their sales efforts around the legend of Washington and the cherry tree. Cherry pie contests, radio addresses, and appearances by the national cherry queen, Maxine Weaver of Traverse City, form part of their program.

Sixteen hundred growers of Michigan and Wisconsin took the lead in this movement, headed by H. W. Ulmer, president of the Fruit Growers' union, Sturgeon Bay, Wis. They were soon joined by representatives of the cherry industry from the states of Oregon, Colorado, Montana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York. Canners, including Howard Morgan, president of the Michigan Canners' association, have given their support to the growers.

Bright Future Forecast for Aviation Firms

Detroit, Mich.—Commercial air transport has grown steadily in the last two years, despite the depression, according to Carl B. Fritzsche, president of the Aircraft Development corporation.

Predicting "even better days" in a recent address here, the executive said the industry will soon emerge on a sound economic basis. The fact aeronautics weathered the depression and continued to grow is unmistakable evidence the industry is here to stay, he said.

Burglar Uses Cemetery Chapel for His Home

Limoges, France.—A chapel in a cemetery on the outskirts of the town served as a snug little home for a burglar until raided by police. On the altar, the thief kept his shaving mug, a piece of soap and a wash basin, which he apparently filled from a hose used to sprinkle graves. He utilized two suitcases full of loot for a bed.

Human Body Worth 94 Cents, Says Expert

London.—Here, according to Dr. Thomas E. Lawson, noted British physician, is what the average human being is made of:
Enough water to fill a ten-gallon barrel.
Enough fat for seven bars of soap.
Carbon enough for 9,000 lead pencils.
Phosphorus enough to make 2,200 match heads.
Sufficient magnesium for one dose of salts.
Enough iron to make one medium sized nail.
Sufficient lime to whitewash a chicken coop.
Sulphur enough to rid one dog of fleas.
All, at prevailing prices, could be bought for 94 cents, he said.

Eagle Long Associated With Pomp and Majesty

The Persian monarchs adopted the Eagle as a symbol of monarchy, the Assyrians carved it in stone along with their other emblems of power, as did the Egyptians also. Poets of antiquity termed it the king of birds as the lion was dubbed the king of beasts.

From the time when a Tuscan embassy visited Rome, on a message of kindness and encouragement to a young nation, bearing among other gifts a splendid royal scepter surmounted by a carved ivory eagle, such majestic figures, first of wood, then of metal, were the standards borne by the Roman legions. Napoleon Bonaparte, in boastful emulation of those conquerors of the world, replaced the oriflamme and other battle flags of France with gilded eagles, which, however, disappeared with the Napoleonic dynasty.

Russia, Prussia, Spain, Poland, Sicily and Sardinia had already made the eagle their national bird, as did later the United States.

Nor can the respect this powerful and rapacious bird evoked from mankind generally be wondered at, when its size, its powers of flight and of attack, its dignity in repose and on the wing, its ferocity and its beautiful parental care of its young are taken into account.

"First Citizen" Worried Over Supply of Butter

That butter was used generously in the George Washington household back in 1750 is disclosed in Washington's diary. Procuring enough butter was a problem for Washington despite the fact that several hundred cattle roamed his pastures. During the winter of 1750 he was short of this necessary article for cooking and table use. On January 7 of this year he writes:

"Accompanied Mrs. Bassett to Alexandria and engaged a keg of butter of Mr. Kirkpatrick, being quite out of that article." And the next day he says: "Got a little butter from Mr. Dalton." On Sunday, January 20, he not only received more butter, but other supplies. Listen to this: "My wagon, after leaving two hogheads of tobacco at Alexandria, arrived here with three boxes of sole leather and four of upper leather, two kegs of butter, one of which for Colonel Fairfax, and 25 bushels of salt."—Hoard's Dairyman.

East Indian Nationalists

Officially there is no official Indian flag. Great Britain still regards India as a British-governed empire with not even dominion status. Consequently the only official flag for India as a nation and people is the Union Jack. For certain colonial purposes, as is the case with other member nations of the British empire, the Union Jack is flown with the colonial badge at the intersection of the crosses, or the red or blue ensign is flown with a badge in the fly. The badge of India is a five-pointed star within a garter and surrounded by golden rays. However, the Indian nationalists have a flag, three horizontal bars of white, green and red which has been flown and carried in spite of the prohibition of the viceregal government.

A Modern Child Says:

"I had a hard time keeping my face straight today when I was sent out in the car with father and he told me it was time for me to learn to drive. He picked out a nice quiet road and showed me how to start the engine, shift the gears, set the brakes and everything. You can't imagine how much he enjoyed showing me. It made me ashamed, really, and almost sorry that I had learned to drive three years ago in Skinny Brown's car. But you should have seen how pleased and proud dad was when he stalled the engine on the railroad tracks while explaining to me how to avoid it and I spoke up and told him how to get off. He's telling the neighbors how quick I pick things up."—Kansas City Times.

Far-Eastern Civilizations

The civilization of China goes much farther back than that of Japan. As a matter of fact, Chinese civilization was introduced into Japan about the first century A. D. In modern times, however, Japan has outstripped China in many respects, Japan having adopted western standards of living to a much greater degree. While Japan has shown a capacity equal to that of any other known people and, while their manners and customs and certain institutions were modified in ancient times by Chinese culture, they have kept pace with European and American civilization.

Early Aqueducts

As early as the year 312 B. C., Appius Claudius Caecus constructed an aqueduct which brought in a supply of water to Rome. The second aqueduct, known as the Anio Vetus, was constructed 40 years later. Toward the close of the first century A. D. there were nine aqueducts. Some of the structures still remain, both in Italy and in other parts of the former Roman empire, examples existing at Nimes, France, and at Segovia, in Spain.

What Is the Texas C-E-N-T-E-N-N-I-A-L?

On March 6, 1836, at 3 A. M. Santa Anna with 4,000 Mexicans regularly stormed the Alamo. They were twice repulsed with heavy losses. Of 830 Mexicans, only 130 remained. They finally scaled the walls and the heroic last stand which the defenders made is well known to every Texan.

- Q. What does the word Centennial mean?
A. Webster's Dictionary defines the word Centennial as: "A 100th anniversary or its celebration."
Q. Why the movement to celebrate it in 1936?
A. 1936 marks the 100th anniversary of the actual gaining of Texas Independence and the formation of an Independent Republic. In other words, 1936 will be the 100th birthday of Texas.
Q. What will it mean to Texas?
A. The celebration of the Texas Centennial offers the greatest opportunity that Texas has ever known. It is certainly patriotically mandatory upon us to make this public recognition. From an economic standpoint, twenty-five years' growth can be brought to the State within five years.
Q. What State in the Union has a more brilliant history than Texas?
A. Though a few states closely rival the colorful history of Texas, there is certainly no state which has a more brilliant or inspiring history than our own dear State.
