Hatchery at Rule Damaged by Fire

The main building of the C. O. Davis hatchery at Rule was destroyed by fire Friday night. Several incubators of large capacity were destroyed. One incubator was damaged to hatch out in several days. These eggs, along with a number of chicks just hatched, were a total loss. A downpour of rain, along with wind work by the fire boys kept the flames confined to one building. The estimated loss is around $5,000.

BREAD PRICE WILL ADVANCE TO SIX CENTS MONDAY

The announcement was made today by the local bakeries that bread would be advanced to 6 cents per loaf Monday morning. The advance in price is caused by the rise in the market of all raw materials used in the manufacture of bread. The two local bakeries have maintained as low a price on bread for the past several months as could be found in West Texas. Other towns advanced the price last week on account of the increased cost of materials and the advance which will be made here Monday will be in line with the price now in effect elsewhere.

Altman Will Accept Term

Homer Altman, Stonewall county tenant farmer who was assessed a five-year penitentiary term for the slaying of Sam Tanner, pioneer rancher near Aspermont, has withdrawn his motion for appeal and is to accept his sentence. The affidavit for withdrawal was submitted to the court of criminal appeals at Austin, Wednesday.

Tanner, on whose farm Altman had been a tenant earlier, was shot as he stood in his hogpen.

In first trial of the case, in 39th district court at Aspermont, Altman was given a ten-year sentence, which was reversed. On a change of venue, the case was heard last January in Haskell, resulting in the five-year term.

Altman has been at liberty on appeal bond. The affidavit for withdrawal of appeal was prepared and sent to Austin by Stinson, Hair, Brooks & Duke, defense counsel.

GOOD RAINS OVER ENTIRE SECTION

A soaking rain that set in early Sunday morning covered this entire section. The precipitation added to Friday's rain amounted to more than two and one-half inches.

In keeping step with the program for a "New Deal" in its effect on business generally, Mrs. Carrie Moser, manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has announced that effective May 19th the hours of the telegraph office was extended from 8 a. m. to noon, 1 p. m. to 6 p. m., and 7 p. m. to 8 p. m.

With the approach of summer and longer daylight hours the new closing hours of the Western Union office will afford additional time within which all who so desire may file their telegrams. The extended closing hours of 8 p. m. will be of particular advantage to those who wish to send night messages and night letters.

TWO SECTIONS OF DISTRICT 9 ARE COMBINED

The west and the east sections of District 9, division of Class B Interscholastic League football, will be combined for the 1933 season, it was decided at a meeting of district officials at Roby Friday afternoon.

Under the old arrangement, Snyder, Roscoe, Merkel, and Rotan formed the west end, while Stamford, Haskell, Anson and Hamlin formed the east end. The two divisions had their play-offs, and then the winners played for the district title.

GOLFERS OF WEST TEXAS WILL PLAY IN WICHITA FALLS

Golfers from all parts of West Texas will assemble in Wichita Falls on June 1 for four days of competitive sport and as many nights and days of entertainment that has been planned to leave no idle moment on the hands of those who register for the annual championship tournament of the West Texas Golf Association. The scene is the Wichita Falls Golf and Country Club, whose membership has learned through experience how to stage tournaments as they should be staged, and the 1933 conclave of divot diggers is expected to prove one of the most successful in the history of the association.

Qualifying play is to start on the morning of June 1 on the sporty country club course that is difficult enough to offer a true test of golfing skill, yet not too tough for the rank and file of golfing sportsmen. The preliminary test will be over the 18-hole route with the 32 low scorers qualifying for championship play. Every entry, however, will qualify for match play and enough flights of 32 players each will be arranged to care for all entries. Two rounds are to be played daily on June 2 and 3, with the final day of the tourney, falling on Sunday, set aside for finals in all flights. The championship match will extend over the 36-hole distance, all others 18, with trophies to be awarded winners and runners up in all flights, including the consolation which will consist of all first round losers.

A lively program of entertainment has been mapped out under the direction of General Chairman Stayton Bonner, vice-president of the association, with a stag dinner on "qualifying night" and a dance on the third evening featuring Jimmy Phillips, the young champion from Ranger, has promised to be on the scene to defend his title, and practically all of the leading shotmakers of West Texas will be present to contest the youngster's right to retain possession of the throne for another year. However, it is a tournament that has been fashioned for the benefit not alone of the better players, but for Mr. Average Golfer as well, and he is to be there in numbers.

Mrs. Sam T. Chapman, Ben Charles and Mary Ben Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Smith and sons Sam Hugh and Bobbie Nell, spent Sunday in Brookside with the former's mother.

STAMFORD PREPARES FOR COWBOY RE- UNION JULY 2-3-4

Memories of stirring days on the cattle ranges of the old West will be revived when pioneer ranch workers who saw service with lariats and saddle prior to 1898 hold their annual round-up in Stamford during the fourth annual Texas Cowboy Reunion July 3, 4, 5.

More than 500 of these old time cow-hands registered for the meeting here last year and were guests of the Reunion management. Total attendance at the 1932 session was estimated at thirty thousand.

The cowboy rodeo, featuring performers actually employed on the ranches rather than professional rodeo performers will be the central feature of the program of entertainment during the Cowboy Reunion. An old fiddlers' contest will be held on one day of the reunion and square dances will be held each night for the entertainment of cowboys and visitors of all ages.

The most typical active cowboy over 55 years of age and the most typical cowboy under 55 will be selected during the reunion and a prize awarded to each. John Selmon of Stamford received this honor last year for the youngest cowhand and Jake Raines of Spur was selected as the most typical among the active cowboys over 55.

As in past year, a number of ranch outfits are expected to bring their own chuck wagons to Stamford for the Reunion and camp at the grounds during the three-day celebration.

GRAND JURY MAKES REPORT FOR TERM

"To the Honorable District Judge of said Court:

"We, your Grand Jury, having been in session 7 days all told, and having examined 100 witnesses, and returned in all 23 felony indictments and 1 misdemeanor, now desire to adjourn, having made an investigation of all cases submitted to us for our investigation.

Heretofore in partial report we requested that Sheriff and County Attorney take measures necessary to prevent cattle and horses and other stock from running at large in Haskell county. We further urge that if a notice is not heeded that prosecutions be had.

"We further recommend and urge that the butchers law relative to bonds, making reports, and having inspections be rigidly enforced. We believe that every butcher should cheerfully do his bit in helping, but that it should be enforced unswerving. We recommend to the sheriff and county attorney and future grand juries that the matter be looked after.

"We further thank the county and district attorney and sheriff for their untiring efforts and help.

"We now desire to adjourn for the term.

Respectfully submitted,
M. A. Dungan, Foreman."

H. D. Club Members Discuss Patterns.

Twenty-one members and thirteen visitors attended a meeting of Josselet H. D. Club in the home of Mrs. Luther Tolliver Tuesday May 9th. Roll call responses were why a person should be able to alter a pattern, which sounded the theme of a talk by Miss Eileen Partlow on altering patterns and the use of the foundation pattern.

Every woman who has, say, a bust measure of 38 inches cannot use the same pattern without alteration and fitting difficulties because of differences in height and other proportions. In order that the fitting process need not be repeated on every garment, make a guide or foundation pattern of unbleached domestic.

A simple dress pattern with normal shoulder seams, high neck line and set-in sleeves is best for this model, says Miss Partlow, "and almost any style of dress, blouse or other garments may be designed from it. It may also be used to remodel old garments."

"When using a commercial pattern to cut the foundation pattern by measurements of the figure should always be taken and the pattern checked by these."

Bulletin No. 1530 on fitting Dresses and Blouses may be obtained from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Some essential points to be remembered in altering a sleeve pattern are:

1. To shorten sleeve, make a fold in pattern above and below the elbow.
2. To lengthen sleeve, slash pattern above and below elbow; spread the amount needed.
3. Alteration for large upper arm—slash; sleeve patterns at center top and spread apart.

4. Alteration for large upper arm muscle; slash pattern above elbow on under side of sleeve; cut in and up, and spread amount needed.

Members present: Mesdames Joe Frailey, Nathan Foster, Fred Monke G. L. Walker, E. B. Calloway, Jesse Josselet, E. L. Lancaster, Luther Tolliver, Cody West, Roy Brite, S. G. Perrin, Paul Josselet, C. Thomas, C. Lewellen, John Thomas, J. B. Edwards, Holt Eastland, Misses Bonnie Brite and Mae Cothron. New members: Mrs. K. T. Kirby, and Bill Swartz. Visitors included Mesdames A. L. Lancaster, Moore, George Bird, Griffen Lain, W. T. Brite, Elmo Edwards, Tom Couch, Curry, Denny, R. M. Walker, S. E. Cothron, and Mrs. Noble Henry and Pauline Foote of Haskell.

Washington.—In all of the hustle and bustle of getting things done in this crisis, it seems to me that one of the greatest transformations of all time has taken place. I refer to the reversal of powers that are exercised by congress and the Chief Executive. Actually, in the period of a little over two months or since Franklin D. Roosevelt became President, congress has abdicated much power in favor of the President, and the President, in turn, has given to congress a veto power which it never has had before.

It will be recalled that the Constitution prescribes the limits of authority of the legislative, executive and judicial branches of our government. Congress was supposed to be the check on the executive powers just as the President, through the exercise of a veto on legislation, was to be the check on acts of the national legislature. The courts, or the Supreme court of the United States, were given a whip hand over both.

The circumstances of it all are so important and the procedure so unique that a review of the period probably is necessary to set out the picture. Further, there is no doubt in the minds of many authorities and many students of government that the things which have happened are going to affect the future of this nation vitally and in ways of which we do not dream. From the perspective of the present, it is made to appear that they could not have happened except for the crisis through which the nation and the world has passed. Yet it remains as fact that congress has turned over to President Roosevelt authority which it may recall to itself only with the greatest difficulty.

Chronologically, events have transpired something in this order:

The President took office as the banking structure of the nation was crumbling. He acted without delay, and then asked congress to support his hand with the legislation that was necessary. Congress had no choice. It voted the emergency banking bill through in record time. That legislation would have taken years otherwise to be enacted. But congress was scared!

Next came the authority for reorganization of the government. It was put through quickly because everybody in congress wanted to save money and balance the budget. Also, most members of congress saw a nice side road which they could travel and avoid meeting face to face with the question of reducing the payment to veterans. They did not fancy cutting government salaries, either. So they thought it was fine to "let Franklin do it." He acted promptly and with neatness, saving probably more than four hundred millions a year in what he believed to be unwarranted payments to veterans and one-fourth as much more in other ways.

It was in this legislation as well as in the banking act that congress began to give away its control. The statement can fairly be made that the bulk of house and senate members had no comprehension of what was done by the banking act, but the same cannot be said of the reorganization act. That was simple legislation. It said in plain language that the President could make about any changes in the structure of the government which he deemed advisable. He was to do it by executive order and if congress had not acted affirmatively in a prescribed time, the executive order stood as law.

To those unacquainted with the procedure, the reversal of practice may not be so apparent. But after congress had delegated that authority to the President, it can stop his action only by a two-thirds vote. That is difficult to obtain except in an emergency.

Assume, for an illustration, that congress is dissatisfied with some move made by the President in connection with reorganization and it passes a resolution setting aside that particular executive order. Mere passage of the resolution does not make it the law of the land, for there is yet the signature of the President to be obtained. If the President chose to veto the resolution, the congress then to make its will effective must repass that resolution by a majority of two-thirds. It thus exercises veto power, something hitherto unknown.

Now, as to the banking act: the President was given broad discretionary power to reconstruct the banking system. True, it was an emergency, a crisis. But that legislation went so far as to permit the Chief Executive to take over and operate the federal reserve banks. By that means, it is not beyond a stretch of imagination that he actually can control the commercial banks of the country. The tie-up between the federal reserve banks and the privately owned commercial banks is so close that control of the one opens hundreds of avenues by which the other may be reached.

Congress can withdraw that power by repealing the legislation. It is supreme in that field. Yet, in order to repeal the law, the repealer must be signed by the President.

Along came the farm bill to which was added the inflation amendment presented by Senator Thomas of Oklahoma. No more dictatorial power ever was accorded the head of any government, except the absolute monarchy, than is given to the President of our country. In the farm bill itself there is power to control crop production, a power to restrict acreage, if the Chief Executive wants to go that far.

In the Thomas inflation amendment, the authority is given the Chief Executive to change the value of your money and mine, at whatever time he sees fit. He can make the gold dollar worth half what it was heretofore; he can use silver to any extent he deems necessary, and he appears to have been given power to arrange treaties on monetary standards without even consulting again with the congress. It had always been supposed that the Constitution required the advice and consent of the senate on treaties, but the authority now apparently rests in the hands of the Chief Executive alone.

Between the banking legislation and the farm bill, with its inflation section, congress voted the President the right to organize a new "army" of upwards of 250,000 men. The reforestation bill that became law called for the mobilization of a "citizen's conservation corps," a legitimate peace-time organization for the purpose of re-establishing a source of timber supply. Mr. Roosevelt was given wide discretion as to how this corps would be recruited, trained and used. It is a matter clear out of the hands of congress.

Others are yet to come. Among them is the railroad legislation that is now shaping up. The President can become monarch of the rail systems through the federal co-ordinator for which the legislation provides.

One hears a good deal of discussion in Washington respecting the powers which the President has been given. Generally speaking, the conclusion is that they are in better hands than if they remained with congress under the present circumstance. The President has demonstrated that he knows what he wants, and most members of congress are afraid to deny requests which he makes.

Take the inflation amendment for example. Mr. Roosevelt undoubtedly saw a tidal wave of inflation sentiment in congress. It was there. So in order to maintain control, he placed himself at the head of the inflation parade. It is unthinkable that he will ever use all of the various powers given him in the inflation amendment, for he knows that the remedy would be worse than the disease they seek to cure in most instances. But by the simple expedient of inviting the inflationists to dump all of their remedies into one basket and to give him discretionary power to use them as he desires, he continued to command the forces. I have heard it suggested frequently that many of the inflationists do not realize yet how they let the thing get away from them.

And it did get away. Having made the means available once, there are not so many senators and representatives who will vote to make it mandatory now. If they did, the President could veto the bills and there seems little chance of enough votes to pass that sort of thing over the veto of the Chief Executive.

Observers here used to think that Calvin Coolidge kept the politicians in congress "up in the air" by the manner in which he out-guessed them. The judgment now is that Roosevelt has improved on the Coolidge plan to the point where his plans take on elements of mystery. The action in the case of the inflation ghost is typical. It was wholly unexpected. He keeps things to himself until his mind is made up. Then, without further ado a brief message goes to congress and the thing is done. The method has proved immensely practical as well as effective.

Keeps Them Guessing

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader in the senate, continues to have his troubles in keeping Senator Huey Long, of Louisiana, on the party reservation. Senator Long, the self-styled kingfish, just won't stand hitched. Consequently, clashes between Robinson and the kingfish are frequent.

tro, Calif., is here spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Brown near Rochester. Mrs. Clyde McDonald spent last week end with her husband at Carlsbad. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. E. Mitchell, who visited her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Probandt at San Angelo. The Federated Woman's Club entertained the pioneers of Rochester last Thursday afternoon. On entering the beautifully decorated club room, delicious punch was served. Many interesting topics were discussed and to carry out the pioneer part more fully a typical sand storm from the southwest came pouring in. Later mentioned is the only thing that prevents this country from being an ideal place to live. Anyway after they are over we seem to forget them. We now rise in a vote of thanks to these faithful ladies for keeping a club going through these depressive years that means so much to a town and country.

The Baptist and Methodist churches put on interesting Mother's Day programs Sunday. Boys and girls, don't forget your mothers in your mad rush for a good time. She is the one that makes it possible.

We mothers in Rochester have so much to be thankful for this beautiful Monday morning. The fine rain of course means so much to the county, but still we who are well have something of more importance to thank God for and that is that we are not in a hospital, or jail.

Sagerton

We had a cyclone effect here last Friday evening which blew down a number of outbuildings in and around Sagerton. There was some hail, with about one-half inch of rain that evening. Quite a few chickens were killed in the storm.

N. E. Martin's dwelling was damaged considerably by the storm. Also Mrs. Henry Lammert's home was damaged.

Sunday morning it began raining and Sagerton received a good rain. The rain was a cold rain, which lasted till late in the evening.

The Mother's Day program which was prepared for Sunday morning was not presented on account of the all day rain.

Mrs. G. A. Lambert visited in Abilene a few days last week with her friends there.

Quite a number from here attended court at Haskell Monday. Louise, Oscar and Loraine Manske went to Dallas to attend their sister's graduation exercise in the Hospital of Nursing School at Dallas. Miss Edith Manske, the graduate, has many classmates and friends here who are happy to learn of her success.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Clark of Holliday are spending a few days visiting his brothers here, J. A. Clark and family and T. C. Clark. They have many friends who are always glad to see them here.

Miss Pearl Dedmon entertained the Leaguers in their business and social at her home last Tuesday night. All expressed a very pleasant evening.

T. E. Lambert of Cleburne visited his brother and family here the past week, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Lambert.

The Swift Gin Company of Abilene are not going to build their gin at Sagerton as they intended to. They are going to build south of Stamford at Corinth where that school is. The people of Sagerton are very sorry of their change, as another gin is needed here.

The Lutheran League will present a play at the school auditorium Tuesday night.

Rev. C. F. Juergensen, pastor of the Zion Lutheran Church of Sagerton, has English services every second and fourth Sunday each month at 10:30 a. m.

You are invited to these services. Mr. Bill Stegemoeller, with Mr. Balzer, went to Haskell Monday.

Hilliard Hess from Los Angeles, Calif., is here for a few days visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Hess. Hilliard lived here for a number of years, and his old friends were glad to see him. He took Mrs. Hess up to Spur last Friday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Engleman. They were caught in the rain on their return late that evening, but they arrived safely.

Rev. A. H. Muehlbrad, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Sagerton, attended the annual convention of the Texas District of the American Lutheran Church at Bartlett, last week.

J. A. Halzman, veterinary inspector, for animal industry, of tuberculosis test, was in Sagerton last Friday attending to this business.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Lefevre's new dwelling will soon be completed, and ready for them to move in.

Mrs. Earl Laughlin and little daughter, of Rotan, have returned home after a pleasant visit here with relatives.

The Ladies Missionary Society, with the assistance of other ladies help, gave a cream social at the church lawn last week for the benefit of their church.

How to Control Sleep

Don't wake up nights for bladder relief. Physic the bladder as you would the bowels. Drive out impurities and excessive acids which cause the irritation, resulting in disturbed sleep, leg pains, backache, burning and frequent desire. BUKETS, the bladder physic, made from buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., works effectively and pleasantly on the bladder as castor oil on the bowels. Get a regular 25c box. After four days if not relieved of disturbed sleep, your druggist is authorized to return your 25c. You are bound to feel fine after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. POISON in Your bowels!

Poisons absorbed into the system from souring waste in the bowels, cause that dull, headachy, sluggish, bilious condition; coat the tongue; foul the breath; sap energy, strength and nerve-force. A little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will clear up trouble like that, gently, harmlessly, in a hurry. The difference it will make in your feelings over night will prove its merit to you.

Dr. Caldwell studied constipation for over forty-seven years. This long experience enabled him to make his prescription just what men, women, old people and children need to make their bowels help themselves. Its natural, mild, thorough action and its pleasant taste commend it to everyone. That's why "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin," as it is called, is the most popular laxative drugstore sell!

relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Theodor's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Chas. E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the bile, for I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling. Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for Children."

A good rain fell here last Friday night is the best I have to report. No one need be idle now who really wants to work. Come let's work and gain back what these few years of depression has taken from us.

The new filling station being erected by Vestus Alvis in the east part of town near the depot is nearly completed. It has been leased by the Magnolia Petroleum Company and when completed this company will stock it with their product and be ready to serve the public with two stations in Rochester.

We are also being supplied with a new grocery store. Mr. M. Nasan of Sweetwater is occupying the Carothers building formerly occupied by Courtney Hunt as a dry goods store. We welcome Mr. Nasan and his family to our city.

Paul Fields, wife and baby, Joe Paul, Jr., visited relatives here last Tuesday. They are located at Abilene.

E. W. Loe of Raymondville spent a few days here last week with friends and relatives. Mr. Loe was before going to Raymondville, manager of Braselton Lumber Co. yard here. His many friends here are always glad to have him visit them and talk over old times as he was

A great thing has occurred amongst us. We have made a complete turn-around, and at last America's face is toward the future.

Three years---1929 to 1932---we Americans looked backward. All our old financial and political machinery was geared to pull us out of the depression by the same door through which we entered. We thought it simply a case of going back the way we came. It failed. We now realize that the way out is forward---through it.

Thanks for that belongs to President Roosevelt. Inauguration Day he turned the Ship of State around. Having observed the failure of sincere efforts to haul us back the way we came, he designed a new method---new political and financial machinery---to pull us out the way we are going---forward. He is clearing international obstacles out of the way; he does not stand in awe of tariffs. The people begin to feel that he does not take advice from the "interests"; that he has courage and loyalty to work for one supreme interest only---the welfare of the American people. That is a big achievement for two months in office.

And now we all look to what is coming; we grow less and less concerned with what is behind. We are looking for a hand-hold on the haul rope. Every man wants to do what he can, and all he can.

The best thing I can do for the Country is to create industry by building good motor cars. If I knew anything better to do, I would do it. Industry must be my contribution. Motor cars must face ahead to the future, like everything else. They are so much a part of the Nation's daily life that if they lag behind they hold the Country back.

Experimental Legislation

Washington.—As the special session of congress washes up preparatory to quitting, it seems to me that interest centers chiefly on two pieces of legislation coming from the great mill of laws. Singularly enough, each must be denominated as experimental. I refer to the farm bill, with its inflationary powers, and the measure designed to transform the Tennessee river valley into a gigantic laboratory for development of partially-irrigated lands with theories, with the Muscle Shoals nitrate and power plants as the center.

The special session has worked at top speed. Seldom has so much been accomplished. If the measure be by volume, as has resulted from the labors of congress under the lash and complete domination of President Roosevelt. But we are concerned now with an aftermath, with a continuing force. Hence, the two enactments mentioned stand out for the effect of the farm bill will be direct and that of the Tennessee river experiment may mark an economic milestone in the nation's history.

President Roosevelt declined to assure success for the farm bill. He termed it a gigantic experiment, an effort offered in search of relief for downtrodden agriculture, a hope for better conditions. The so-called Muscle Shoals legislation is experimental by its own language. It prescribes the experiments that are to be attempted under government guidance and to be financed, at the start, out of government money.

The provision of the farm bill delegating to the President authority to use inflationary measures with the currency is, of course, vital to every one. It has been analyzed in this column heretofore and while every one is interested in what the President may do with those powers, it does not partake of the same conditions or circumstances as the farm or Muscle Shoals legislation.

tural commodities to obtain the needed revenue. It hardly need be said that the processors—the packer of meats, the miller of flour, the spinners of cotton, etc.—are going to fight this section.

Consumers Will Pay

Then, this complex piece of legislation also provides for use of the allotment plan, and other taxes on the processors and use of the tariff against imports to drive the prices of farm commodities higher. This section like the others has been questioned as to its constitutionality, and it has perhaps the strongest array of opponents, for the consumers will help pay the bill in a big way. That is, all except those who are unemployed and without funds. They cannot buy now, and charity or public relief sources will pay the added costs.

The amount of the tax to be levied on the processor, and paid the farmers who agree to reduce acreage—and that agreement must be made—is a thing which must be worked out by the secretary of agriculture. Never before, as far as my research has disclosed, has an official of government in this country had such wide powers. But the President justifies them on the ground of the necessity for preservation of agriculture.

The processors' tax is to be added to the price the farmer receives for that portion of his crop consumed in the United States. Normally, our exports as a whole are only about 10 per cent of the total. The bill, however, is not applicable to all commodities. It takes in cotton, wheat, rice, tobacco, sugar beets, sugar cane, milk and its products and hogs, but the secretary of agriculture has power to make it inoperative as to any one or all of them if market conditions are such as make the use of the law inadvisable.

The processors' tax is being levied under the guise of what is called "parity of prices." It is the purpose to lift the returns which the farmer receives to a basis where compensation for his labor shall be proportionately the same, in relation to the prices he pays for things he buys, as the ratio between the sale and purchase stood in 1914. That is involved. It is complex in the extreme.

But there is no need of services of a soothsayer in pointing to the tremendous organization that is going to be necessary in carrying out such legislation. A thousand and one things must be considered, inspected, guarded, negotiated, enforced. Government employees must do that work. The machine can be made to click and run smoothly, say supporters of the plan. It is the most gigantic political machine in history, whichever view is correct, it remains as a fact that there will be government agents in every county to tell farmers who enter into the agreements on acreage reduction what they shall do and what they shall not do; there will be inspectors galore in processing plants and accountants checking books when necessary, and there will be taxes collected in whatever amount the secretary of agriculture decrees to be needed to pay the cost.

Muscle Shoals Experiment

Senator Norris of Nebraska, has been promoting a program of development of the Tennessee river since the national defense act of 1916 provided for an experimental production of nitrates with water power at Muscle Shoals. The late President Wilson obtained legislation in 1917 for construction of two dams there, and for power plants and laboratories for the fixation of nitrogen from the air. That was for military purposes, but as soon as that need passed, the atmospheric nitrogen was to be used for fertilizer. Senator Norris has argued for years for utilization of the country's water resources in development of electric power, and the use of that power in providing cheaper fertilizer for farms.

In addition to completion of the nitrate plants and the great power program, the new law prescribes continued tests of various kinds, improvement of navigability of the river itself, reforestation of the cut-over hillsides and "proper use of marginal lands." In that later authority, it is conceded, has permission to accomplish a great many things. Marginal lands is, of course, an economic term. It means lands, the use of which for certain crops is questionable. Determination of the proper use of such lands, therefore, is undoubtedly a matter of great moment. The Tennessee Valley Authority, the official name of the government-owned corporation that will direct the great experiment, can and probably will find ways and means of using marginal lands.

Walling-Neinast.

Saturday afternoon May 13th, Mr. J. E. Walling Jr., and Miss Ida Neinast were united in marriage at 5 o'clock in the home of the groom's parents, with Rev. Jim Watson of Lubbock performing the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

Mrs. Walling is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Neinast of Sagerston where she lived until about three years ago when she moved to Haskell and assumed the management of Hunt's Beauty Parlor.

Mr. Walling is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walling Sr., of this city and has lived in Haskell all his life. After finishing high school with the 1930 class he entered N. T. A. C. College at Arlington the following year. Since that time he has been connected with the Humble Oil Company in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Walling left immediately after the ceremony for a short honeymoon trip to Dallas and Fort Worth. They will be at home in the north part of town.

Junior Outing.

Last Wednesday May 10 at four the Juniors went on a picnic to Ocean Hole. We had a very enjoyable time swimming and playing various games. After we had all the swimming we wanted, we went to the cars to eat. We had everything good to eat including an abundance of ice cream. On the way home, we played on the concrete crossing at Scott's until dark, waiting for the moon to rise. One car ran out of gasoline and got pushed in and that was fun to the ones in either car. Miss Vick had the honor to have a nice extra ride over rocks and everything before coming home. We all arrived home safe and sound with the ice cream that was left over. Those who enjoyed this entertainment were the following:

Willie Mae Adams, Charlene Allen, Jack Bradley, Fairy Ballard, Ralph Bernard, Sue Couch, Kathleen Crawford, Emmitt Couch, Jno. Darnell, Miam Diggs, W. D. Diggs, Mrs. Hester, Mrs. Stoker and our sponsor, Miss Vick.

Seventh Grade Picnic.

The Seventh Grade had been looking forward all year to the picnic we had Tuesday 9th. The picnic was given at Mr. Baldwin's ranch. All the pupils went on a hike around the pasture, and later we played games. Lunch was spread on the ground and everyone had a very good time.

We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Crawford for furnishing a truck and a driver to take us to the ranch. Mr. Crawford has always seemed eager to help in any way and we appreciate very much his services during the year.

We wish to thank Mrs. A. H. Wair for going with us and for taking her car, which helped very much.

Mrs. C. M. Conner went with us also and we are grateful for her presence and for the use of Mr. and Mrs. Conner's truck.

South Ward News

Last week our entire school went on a picnic. The First and Second Grades and our teachers, Mrs. Ballard and Mrs. Murphy went Thursday at the noon hour and had a good time playing and eating. Several mothers joined us and helped in serving the lunch and ice cold lemonade.

Friday the Third and Fourth Grades with our teachers, Miss Sprows and Mrs. Mayo went at the noon hour for a picnic on the Spring Branch. We had plenty of sandwiches, pickles, cakes, fruit and lemonade for each child to be served three times or more. Dick Dulaney treated the crowd to seven dozen ice cream "kows." We had our pictures made while we were down there.

Friday afternoon after school Miss Sherrill and Miss Hambleton took the Fifth and Sixth Grades in cars to Felker's pasture for a picnic. All the South Ward teachers and many of the mothers and one father went along. The children had a good time swinging under the big shade trees, playing games, crayfishing and taking pictures. We were served sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, cakes, fruit, lemonade, ice tea, sweet milk and ice water. We received our eats in army style.

Kite Day

We had our annual Kite Day this spring. Eight kites won prizes. I. A. Brooks received a first prize of a framed silhouette of George Washington for flying his kite the highest and keeping it up in the air the longest. Other prizes of combs and candy were given to Mont Friserson, Doyle Andrews, Bill Hayes, Earl Smallwood, Fred Crawford, J. W. Harrison and Yona McCasland. These prizes were presented in assembly and the boys each responded with a speech.

PLEASES BOTH FRIEND AND FOE

The millions of Republicans who cast their lot with the Democrats in the last Presidential election have had no cause to regret such action, while many Republicans who conscientiously supported Mr. Hoover for re-election, are now glad that he was defeated. Among the latter is Henry Ford who now says:

"A great thing has occurred amongst us. We have made a complete turn-around and at last America's face is toward the future."

"Three years—1929 to 1932—we Americans looked backward. All our old financial and political machinery was geared to pull us out of the depression by the same door through which we entered. We thought it simply a case of going back the way we came. It failed. We now realize that the way out is forward—through it."

"Thanks for that belongs to President Roosevelt. Inauguration day he turned the ship of state around. Having observed the failure of sincere efforts to haul us back the way we came, he designed a new method—new political and financial machinery—to pull us out the way we are going—forward."

"He is clearing international obstacles out of the way; he does not stand in awe of tariffs. The people begin to feel that he does not take advice from the 'interests' that he has courage and loyalty to work for one supreme interest only—the welfare of the American people. That is a big achievement for two months in office."

"And now we all look to what is coming; we grow less and less concerned with what is behind. We are looking for a hand-hold on the haul rope. Every man wants to do what he can and all he can."

WHY ARE WE DISLIKED?

If foreign cartoons are to be believed to represent the sentiment of other countries toward the United States, it would appear that we are considered a nation of greedy money-grubbers, seeking to exploit the rest of the world for our own selfish gain.

We doubt that this sentiment really exists to the extent our critics would have us believe, but if it does exist, a survey of America's activities in relief and restoration work should prove such a sentiment unjust.

A case in point is the work of the Near East Relief through which citizens of the United States donated $100,000,000 for the saving of a million and a half lives, including 132,552 orphan children, besides feeding more than twelve million people during the famine periods. This represents the achievement of only one humane organization of American origin since the war.

Many millions have been sent to other parts of the world for rehabilitation, famine and disaster relief, medical aid and education. The total will probably never be known.

In the matter of war debts our government has been very lenient, even generous, particularly when it is considered that the World War was not of our making but was brought about through the selfishness and hypocrisy of European political leaders.

Our own statesmen have made some mistakes. They would not have been human had they not made them, but in the broader view our country has always been on the side of justice, humanitarianism and peace.

Why, then, should we be disliked by the rest of the world?

RELIGIOUS FANATICS

Frequent attacks on the Jews of Palestine by fanatical Moslem Arabs again illustrate the unfortunate fact that the world's most violent and unreasoning fanaticism still have their source in differences over religion, as has been the case since the earliest times.

In all ages religious zealots have sought to exterminate those of other faiths, in the apparent belief that by so doing they would gain the favor of the Almighty. Persecution, torture and atrocious murders have been employed to this end, among both savage and supposedly civilized peoples.

It is interesting to recall in this connection the approval by Rev. Cotton Mather, famous scholar of his day of a plan to capture William Penn and his band of Quakers on the high seas while on their way to America and sell them into slavery. Mather wrote in 1682:

"Much spoil may be made by selling the whole lot to Barbadoes, where slaves fetch good prices in rum and sugar, and we shall not only do the Lord a great service by punishing the wicked, but we shall make great gains for His minister and people."

That same intolerant spirit exists in our own day, not only among the fanatical Arabs, but among zealots of all faiths, including many who call themselves Christians.

SIDELIGHTS

By MARVIN JONES

Member of Congress from Texas

The emergency measure which has just been passed embodies the farm mortgage refinancing provisions as well as the currency program. It is frequently referred to as the most important and far-reaching legislation ever presented to the American Congress.

The Senate and House have now agreed on all of the provisions of the bill and it has received executive approval.

Soon after the farm measure was sent to the Senate, I introduced the administration's farm mortgage bill and led the fight for its adoption by the House of Representatives. It was adopted by an overwhelming vote.

Currency expansion measures were also pending in the House during this period and had been discussed by many members on the floor.

Currency expansion measures were also pending in the House during this period and had been discussed by many members on the floor.

These measures were combined and the Thomas currency amendment added. The result of these various steps and combinations is one measure of tremendous importance to the farmer and to the nation in general.

In passing this combination measure, the Senate added eighty-five amendments. In order to iron out the differences in the measure as it passed the House and Senate it was necessary for a joint conference committee to be selected to represent each body.

Because of the importance of this legislation, I felt greatly honored in being chosen to lead the group of conferees from the House when the measure was thus taken up for final revision and adjustment by the two groups before its enactment into law.

The House and Senate both adopted the conference report, which was the last step before executive approval. It was my privilege to be present when it was approved, and the President presented me with a pen which he used in signing the measure.

The farm relief section of the composite bill is admirably an experiment, and is intended to be used only in the present emergency.

Under its provisions the Secretary of Agriculture is given broad powers to administer several plans in an effort to bring temporary relief to the farmer while a permanent program is being instituted.

The mortgage refinancing provisions have been discussed in the press reports. The necessity of farm refinancing was recognized by the President, with the result that such a measure has been approved by Congress.

I believe that a controlled expansion of the currency will be a long step toward recovery, because it brings with it an increase in commodity prices and increased purchasing power.

The refinance or expansion amendment which has been added to the farm bill contains four major proposals, any or all of which may be used by the President for the purpose of increasing the commodity price level. The first relates to open-market operations by Federal Reserve banks; the second provides for the issuance of Treasury notes within certain defined limits; the third relates to the acceptance of silver aggregating two hundred million dollars in payment of debts owed by foreign governments; and the fourth authorizes a change in the gold content of the dollar or the reamortization of silver.

With such a program as this in operation, accomplishing three important steps in the President's program of ultimate national recovery, I have every hope that the farmer will once more assume his proper place in our economic structure, and that America will be well on its way to better times.

Enoch walked with God (Gen. 5:22). Noah walked with God (Gen. 6:9). John said: "He that saith he abideth in Him ought himself also to walk, even as He walked." Jesus walked an obedient life, walked in keeping with His Father's will, obeyed the voice of God. He said, "thy will be done not mine." Hence for us to walk as he walked we are to walk in obedience to His commandments. "If you love me keep my commandments" (Jesus). "If you keep my commandments you shall abide in my love" (Jesus). "This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments" (John). "And he that keepeth His commandments dwelleth in Him, and He in him. And hereby we know that He abideth in us, by the spirit which He hath given us" (Jno. 3:24). "By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandments" (1 Jno. 5:20) "He that saith I know Him and keepeth not His commandments is a liar and the truth is not in him" (Jno. 2:4). John said it—not I. Then for us to walk with God, we must walk in newness of life (Rom. 6:4). For us to walk with God we must walk after the Spirit (Rom. 8:1). Then there is no condemnation resting upon us. To walk with God we must walk by faith (2 Cor. 5:7). What we do in worship to God must be done in faith and by faith, or it does not please Him. Faith cometh by hearing. "We are created in Christ Jesus unto good works which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them." To be with God we must walk in good works. We must also walk worthy the vocation wherewith we are called to please God. (Eph. 4:1). Again, we must walk in love (Eph. 5:2). We should walk as wise—in wisdom (Col. 4:5). Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, "redeeming the time." Walk circumspectly, Paul said (Eph. 5:15). He also said walk honestly (Rom. 13:13; 1 Thess. 4:12). Are we all honest? Are we all honest with all men? Do we do what we promised to do? If not we do not walk with God. In peace. "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see (enjoy) God." (Heb. 12:14).

We must walk soberly and righteously, and godly. Yes, and in this present world (Titus 2:12). The Christian must not walk in the vanity of his mind: "This I say therefore and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in Sunday will be the closing day of the contest in the Sunday School, therefore it is important that every member of the School be present. There is a good chance for the "Blues" to surge ahead and win the contest. The "Reds" can not afford to be caught napping.

The Young People's Vesper Program was rained out last Sunday evening which deprived them of several points in their contest with the Anson group. Each individual should try to make up for this by a large total for this week.

The books of I and II Chronicles will be studied at 8 p. m. Sunday. These books are more than a list of genealogies; their contents show that "God is a covenant making and a covenant keeping God", overruling the disobedient and blessing the obedient; public worship is given great prominence; and there are many precious gems found here. Where could we find greater panacea for economic depressions than in II Chronicles 7:14 "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Wednesday evening 7:30 — Bible Study and Prayer Meeting.

Saturday Evening 7:30—Evangelistic Service.

"Jesus Christ the Same yesterday, today and forever."

them because of the blindness of their heart" (Eph. 4:17, 18). To walk with God one should not walk after the flesh (Rom. 8:1). For if he does, "He shall die" (Rom. 8:13.) If we walk with God we do not walk as fools but as wise (Eph. 5:15). Jesus said: "Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them I will liken him to a wise man which built his house upon a rock" (Matt. 7:24). So let us keep ourselves numbered with that class designated more by hearing and doing Christ's sayings.

"Let every man prove his own work then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone and not in another" (Gal. 6:4). "Take heed unto thyself and unto the doctrine continue in them, for in so doing thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee."

Jesus said (Matt. 28:20): "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo; I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

Brethren and sisters in Christ Jesus, let us do these things and walk with God, and live. Then "take heed lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God" (Heb. 3.)

We have at most just a few more days to stay in this old world. Then let us do good unto all men, especially those who are of the household of faith. Show our faith by our works. Let our light so shine that others may see the Christ. Ah! He is so precious to me. Brother, don't go away. To whom can you go? He has the words of life. Help us, Father, in Jesus' name, to do thy will.

FARM NOTES BY COUNTY AGENT

Summer Curing Meats
Several men from different communities over the county have discussed the idea of summer curing their hogs...

Hogs can be cured in summer as well as in winter in this county as well as other nearby counties...

The cost should not run over $1.50 per hog. This means that the one who kills a hog or a number of hogs will get the lard, sausage, ribs, backbone, and other trimmings from the meat...

If you have received such a card and have not filled it out and returned to the agent, do so at your earliest convenience as your cooperation will aid in getting such a proposition in operation as soon as he can place the information before the prospective storage men...

Poultry Worms
The agent has made several trips over the county in answer to calls of trouble that farmer's wives are having with their hens. The trouble in most cases is worms, both round and tape worms...

Treatment that is commonly used is some standard worm remedy, usually, gizzard capsules of different brands. Beware of the house to house man who is not a resident of the county with headquarters in some other town...

Turkeys
Young turkeys or poulters are worth too much for one to be careless in their handling. In answer to several calls lately I have found deaths from the following causes: Getting chilled from letting the fire or lamp go out in the brooder, overcrowding, blue bugs, lice, and Coccidiosis...

Coccidiosis usually appears at from three weeks to eight weeks of age with variations. The birds appear droopy for two or three days before they die. A bloody diarrhea is usually the outstanding symptom...

NEWS FROM OVER WEST TEXAS

Dates Set for Tri-County Golf Tournament at Seymour

At a meeting yesterday morning of directors of the Seymour Golf and Country Club definite dates were set for the Tri-County Tournament, to which the Seymour club will be host this year...

Qualifying will begin on June 4th, ending on the afternoon of Monday the 12th. That night will be held the annual banquet, followed by the Calcutta pool, and actual playing to begin Tuesday. The final match is to be completed by the 18th.

Details to be worked out as to prizes, entrance fee, and other features are to be worked out by the local tournament committee, composed of Dr. O. W. Koberg as chairman, Dutton J. Bailes, E. P. Murphy, H. K. Jackson and Cedric Harrison...

The first Tri-County tournament was held at Munday four years ago, and was won by W. B. Alexander. The next year it came to Seymour, and Speck of Knox City was the champion. Jack Wilson won the next year at Haskell, and last year Joe Tom Nuckles was the winner at Munday...

Building Bought For Grape Juice Plant at Newcastle

A deal was consummated this week by which the committee representing the Service Club purchased the building now occupied by the Newcastle Register plant, the same to be occupied by the Grape Juice Factory machinery for which is already here, being furnished by the state, through the Extension Service of the Department of Agriculture and A. & M. College...

This enterprise has been secured for Young county by the good work of our County Agent and the cooperation of our local grapegrowers, Mr. B. W. Cox, Earl and Roy Veal and E. H. Remington.

This being the only plant of its kind in Texas, its establishment and progress will be watched with great interest. There are thousands of acres of lands in Young and other counties in the State adapted to grape culture and there is no reason why the enterprise should not be a success.

We are going to make this county famous as the home of quality grape juice.

60 Cars of Cattle Shipped This Week From Lamesa

Loading of what Santa Fe officials believe was the largest shipment of cattle from the South Plains to Kansas, Nebraska or Oklahoma feeding areas, was done in Lamesa on Monday of this week, when 60 cars of cattle were shipped to Nebraska points...

The cattle, around 2,700 head, were bought from Tom Good, Borden county rancher, several weeks ago by the Kilpatrick Commission Company of Beatrice, Nebraska. The cattle are for Alliance and Imperial, Nebraska.

The Santa Fe officials stated that the cattle would be moved to the Nebraska points with but one stop for feeding and watering, at Dodge City.

(Caution: Have vinegar near when using lye water as the vinegar will counteract the burning if the water is splashed on the hands.) Let dry out thoroughly before putting poultices in the house again. It is better still to have coops for the hens if hens are used and keep them on ground that the chickens do not have access to the range; change every week to a new location. Sanitation is the best remedy. In feeding the milk also feed only green stuff until they quit dying, then gradually go back to the feed that you have been using. This applies to chicks as well as turkeys. Call your county agent if you cannot locate the trouble.

Mr. Tyson and Mrs. Gage Married Sunday

Charley Tyson of Haskell and Mrs. Sallie Gage of Albany were married at Olney last Sunday and returned to Albany for a few days visit. Mrs. Tyson was formerly a resident of Haskell and came here only a short time ago. Mr. Tyson is a well-known ranchman of this section. He was employed on the Matthews ranch here for several years before going to Haskell, where he has made his home the past two years.

The couple will make their home on the Coody ranch near Haskell. The News joins friends in extension of our local grape-growers.

More Than Half of Your Gas Bill Paid In 4 Months

Now that the house heating season is over, a survey by the gas company reveals that customers pay more than half of their entire year's gas bill in only four months of the year. The survey of gas customers' accounts in this vicinity, according to L. M. Scholl, division manager of the Stamford & Western Gas Co., further shows that between 60 and 80 per cent of the customers use so little gas during the long hot period that they fail to pay for the cost of service rendered during these months.

The average amount received by the company in 1932 was $46.63 per customer for a year's service, or less than 13 cents a day per customer. This is arrived at by dividing the total revenue by the total number of customers. This average bill for each month in the year is as follows: January $6.73; February $6.99; March $5.63; April $4.26; May $2.56; June $2.15; July $1.94; August $1.88; September $1.98; October $2.66; November $4.39; December $6.38.

"It can be seen from the above figures that $24.83, or more than half of the year's total bill, is paid in four months," said Mr. Scholl. "Nearly three-fourths of the average bill, or $33.48, is paid in six months of the year, leaving only $13.15 left to be paid during the other six months."

He pointed out that if gas bills were paid equally each month, such as bills for rent or other necessities in which the amount varies only slightly, it would be easier to see that the cost of dependable gas service is only a few cents a day.

Miss Anna Maude Taylor spent the week end here with her parents Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Taylor on her return from Big Spring where she was sent as Miss Haskell to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention. She was accompanied to Big Spring by C. B. Breedlove, Jr. and Mrs. Guy Mays. Miss Taylor returned to Denton Monday where she will resume her school work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Duncan had the following relatives visit with them last Thursday: Mr. and Mrs. Grady Duncan and Mrs. J. W. Baker of Bellvue, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shaw and Mrs. Cooper Cox of Wichita Falls, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson of Breckenridge spent Mother's Day with their mothers, Mrs. R. V. Robertson and Mrs. H. S. Wilson of this city.

HASKELL MOTOR COMPANY

Gulf Refining Co. Puts New Deal In Practical Operation

Here's one of the most remarkable stories, as well as one that is of special interest to all the people of Texas. Three years ago the Gulf Refining Company engineers made a discovery of revolutionary importance to the oil industry. A discovery so advanced, so significant, that it made possible a finer, longer-lived motor oil than the industry had ever seen.

This discovery was an utterly new refining process—the now-famous Alchior Process, exclusive with Gulf. The oil made by it is called Gulfpride. At first it was possible to produce only limited quantities of this new and remarkable oil. But so amazingly outstanding was its quality that—utterly without advertising and publicity—its fame spread throughout the United States and all foreign nations. It came into universal demand wherever the finest motor lubrication was sought. Gulfpride has now proved itself beyond question the finest motor oil in the world.

It has surpassed every set of specifications ever issued for a motor oil, including U. S. Army, U. S. Navy and British Government. Gulfpride is now in demand in all corners of the earth and shipped to all points from Port Arthur, Texas, where it is manufactured. The current extensive advertising campaign of the Gulf Refining Company now appearing in Texas newspapers is stressing this oil and...

too, the fact that Gulf stations sell three grades of oil and gasoline at three different prices, ranging from the buying power of the motorist who wants a low priced gasoline oil, but wants the most possible value for the money, to the motorist who wants the very best regardless of cost. Will Rogers can be heard on the air every Sunday evening on the Gulf Refining Company radio program at 7 p. m. and Irvin Cobb on Wednesday and Friday evenings at the same hour. A weekly comic paper is distributed free at all Gulf stations.

Do you realize What a World of Grief Advertising Saves You?

We know a seed house that proves each season's crop of seeds in their own trial gardens before they offer them to the public. Flowers and vegetables grown from these seeds must measure up to definite standards, or else the entire crops from which the samples were taken are burned.

We know a manufacturer of dry batteries who tested a new product two years before he sold a single battery to a single dealer.

We know a manufacturer of an anti-freeze solution for automobile radiators who spent two years testing his product under all conditions before he said a word in advertising about the merits of his goods.

We know a manufacturer of household pharmaceutical products whose self-imposed standard of purity and efficacy is even higher than that laid down by the United States Pharmacopoeia and the National Formulary.

If we mentioned their names you would recognize them immediately. You probably would say, "Why! I plant those seeds," "I use that battery," "I use that anti-freeze," "My medicine cabinet contains those products."

The four instances cited are typical of every reliable manufacturer in America. Millions of dollars are spent annually to develop, to improve, to standardize, and take the guesswork out of merchandise. Other millions are spent in advertising to tell you about them.

All of which is to say that putting your trust in advertised merchandise you save yourself the bother, the expense, the disappointment — yes, the danger — of experimenting and discovering for yourself which make of soap, breakfast food, radio tubes, lingerie, gasoline, tea, electrical device, stationery — or what-not — gives you the most service for your money.

The news columns of this paper keep you informed of the latest international, national and local happenings. The advertisements inform you of the newest, most advantageous, most reliable merchandise that America's most progressive makers are producing.
