Contract Bridge Club.

Mrs. Roy A. Sanders was hostess to members of the Contract Bridge Club Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at her home. At the end of the usual games of contract Mrs. Hollis Atkinson was given a prize for having high score. Mrs. Sanders served a delicious refreshment plate of stuffed tomatoes, crackers, olives, brownies and iced tea to the following: Mesdames Virgil Reynolds, French Robertson, B. C. Chapman, T. C. Post, E. G. Post, Barton Welch, Plaster Davis, H. K. Henry, Hollis Atkinson, W. G. Forgy and Miss Mary Church.

Young Women's Circle.

The Young Women's Circle of the Methodist Missionary Society met at the Methodist parsonage Monday afternoon. Mrs. Andrew Shriver was leader for the afternoon. After song and sentence prayers by the members for the revival meeting interesting talks on prayer were given by Mrs. Shriver and Mrs. Leo Southern.

Refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed by fourteen members.

The next meeting will be held next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Mrs. John Rike's home, and all the young women of the church are urged to be present.

Middleton-Morgan.

Miss Mildred Middleton of Canyon and Mr. Paul C. Morgan of Electra were married in Canyon Sunday July 8 at 9 o'clock. Rev. D. Dickey pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Canyon officiated for the ceremony, with only members of the family and a few close friends present.

Mrs. Morgan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. C. Middleton of Canyon, formerly of Haskell. She attended grade school in Haskell, finished high school in Canyon, and had completed three years of college work at West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon.

Mr. Morgan, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Morgan of Electra, also attended the Teachers' College at Canyon and it was there that the campus romance had its beginning. Mr. Morgan is an employee of an oil company in Electra, where he and his bride will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan are expected in Rule sometime this week to visit Mrs. Morgan's sister, Mrs. Gordon Thompson and Mr. Thompson.

"OUR INSURANCE IS YOUR BEST ASSURANCE"

To The Voters Of Haskell County==

Owing to the fact that this has been an unusually busy summer in the office of County Superintendent, I shall be unable to make a thorough canvass of the county before the Primary on July 28 in order to discuss with you my candidacy for re-election, as I would like to do. Schools were late in closing and more than the ordinary reports have been required.

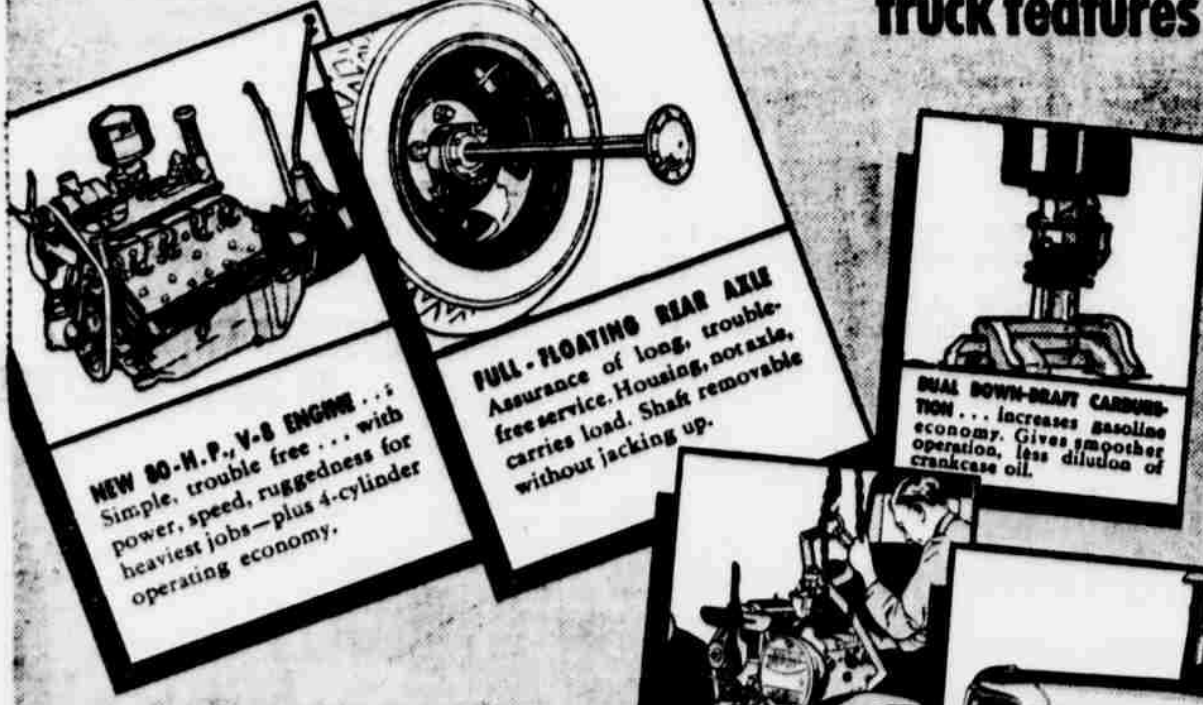

I wish to take this means of soliciting your support for the office of County Superintendent, and offer my record of a fair and efficient administration as a basis for re-election. If elected I promise you continued efficiency and a fair deal to everyone—especially the children.

AMERICA'S GREAT TRUCK VALUE

The FORD V-8 alone offers all these 5 important truck features

THE Ford V-8 is as low in price as any truck you can buy today.

But think how much more than first-cost saving it offers you. Think of the exclusive combination of features shown above. Think of the power of this rugged, 80-horsepower V-8. Then look into gas and oil costs. They're at new "lows"—both of them. Look into upkeep. Truck-built throughout, the new Ford V-8 will "take" punishment that used to mean the repair shop... and "take" it again and again for thousands of miles.

But talk to Ford V-8 users themselves. They'll tell you a story of performance and economy that sounds like high-priced trucking... instead of the lowest-priced you can get!

Braves Defeat Rotan 16 to 1

The ball to all corners but the Haskell Braves defeated Rotan Wednesday 16 to 1 in a regularly scheduled league game. Rotan has replaced Knox in the circuit. The pitching burden was shared by Archie and Dot Pittman, with Chapman catching. The two hurlers allowed Rotan only one hit, one by Archie and the other by Dot, in six innings. Every man on the Haskell roster got at least one hit. The Rotan team had been hastily assembled and had not had time to get in enough practice for the game.

Braves Lose To Rule Club 6-3

Errors of omission, which cannot be placed in the box score, and errors of commission on the part of Haskell players enabled Rule to win Sunday afternoon by a score of 6 to 3, for the first game of the second half of the Wichita Valley league. While Dot Pittman, local pitcher, was admittedly not at his best, he played on the part of his mates both at bat and in the field, as the prime factor which enabled the Red Raiders to again wrest victory from the Haskell Braves. The local entry has lost every game played to Rule this season. Inability of certain Haskell players to hit even high outfield flies sent Haskell down to defeat. Chapman, Braves' rightfielder, kept up his sensational streak of hitting by whamming out two doubles and a single, bring his total to seven out of twelve times at bat, but very one of his base blows were wasted. Not one time was he advanced. The same kind of luck visited Cox in the seventh inning, when he had doubled and stolen and the three batters following pooped out with the tying score ready to trickle over the plate. Jennings, 18 year old catcher, pitched a steady game and caught three hits, triple double and single to lead the heavy hitting of the day. He was given sensational support by his keystone combination and outfielders, who drew balls from the bats of Haskell players that generally would have gone for hits.

The box score:

C. L. MARTIN

Candidate for REPRESENTATIVE
Haskell, Baylor and Throckmorton Counties

Your tax burdens are permanent until taxation is made "equal and uniform" as provided by the constitution.

If you believe a constitutional tax should be placed on oil, gas, sulphur and other natural resources of Texas to build up a permanent school fund, and thus give you permanent tax relief, vote for C. L. Martin. He favors such a policy.

If you believe in a constitutional amendment taking all highway tax off of your homes and land, vote for C. L. Martin. He favors such a policy.

If you think it is right and proper for the state to encourage and aid worthy families to own their own homes, vote for C. L. Martin. He favors a constitutional amendment authorizing the state to lend its permanent funds at 4 1/2 per cent interest, up to $3,000 for city homes and up to $5,000 for the purchase of farm homes. We must do something to revive hope in the hearts of our people. There are 800,000 homeless families in Texas.

If you believe those who are most able, instead of those less so, should pay the cost of government, vote for C. L. Martin. He favors a tax upon the large incomes of both individuals and corporations.

He also favors common sense legislation for law enforcement and judicial reform, and for the proper development and conservation of our natural wealth.

Local Ford Dealer Joins Texas Group for Trip to Chicago

In company with more than 100 other representatives and guests of the Ford Motor Company, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith left for Chicago, Illinois Monday from a trip to the country of Progress in Chicago. A part of the Dallas branch of the Ford Motor Club, returned from Chicago last night and will leave for Chicago on July 22 at a special train. It was a trip I thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Montgomery states, "I have more about the Ford V-8 and an idea of it than ever that it is the finest car Ford has ever built, which is saying a lot."

"No one moment was lost because after arriving in Chicago we were taken to the Stevens Hall, where special entertainments had been provided. Next morning we met with representatives of Ford branches in Cincinnati, Kansas City and Houston. An aggregation totaling nearly 600 at a special breakfast. Following the meal we were addressed by W. C. Cowling, general sales manager of the Ford Motor Co.

Mr. Cowling described the Ford Exposition as a monument to education, housing the life-work of Henry Ford. He paid tribute to the inspiration which give their hands to do their best work and promised the dealers a full twelve-month sales period.

"After the downtown gathering buses took us to the Ford Exposition Building where we saw the motion picture, "Rhapsody in Steel" and were welcomed by "The Human Ford." Special guides, after the performance took us through the exposition, the largest single exhibit on the grounds of the World's Fair, covering eleven acres in the very heart of the fair grounds.

We saw Industrial Hall where raw materials are manufactured into finished automobile parts; the Rotunda where sixty-five vehicles, from King Tut's chariot to the 1,000,000th Ford V-8 illustrate the evolution of transportation. The Court of the World where the world's largest globe on which Ford plants are spotted; revolves; the Century Room, containing a faithful reproduction of Henry Ford's brick workshop where the first Ford was built; the Industrial Barn which shows how farmers can use machinery to process the raw materials they raise; the Symphony Gardens where the Detroit Symphony Orchestra entertains capacity audiences of 2,000 twice daily in two-hour free concerts; and the Roads of the World, a 2,000-foot oval made of twenty-one historic highways, reproduced in authentic detail.

VOTE FOR LON A. SMITH FOR RAILROAD COMMISSIONER.

GEORGE MAHON
Candidate for Congress

We do not need anything about George Mahon we have met him. We know him have found him a man of hard working West Texas. He has shown himself worthy of public trust. He is capable of representing us in Congress. Age 33, 26 years in the District. Serving 4th term as District Attorney. Let's elect him to Congress.

Dodge Car Sales Showing Increase

Detroit, Mich., July 20.—For the week ending July 20, the total of Dodge passenger cars, 2,099 of Plymouths, and 900 were of the fourth of July holiday week deliveries by Dodge dealers as reported by Dodge Brothers Corporation amounted to 6,408 passenger cars and trucks, as compared to 6,347 cars and trucks sold during the preceding week.

Of the total of 6,408 deliveries 2,419 were of Dodge passenger cars, 2,099 of Plymouths, and 900 were of Dodge commercial cars and trucks. The figures given for the latest report week indicate an increase of 12 per cent over the week of 1933.

The consistency with which Dodge dealers have advanced their business so far during the 1934 season is illustrated by a comparative tabulation of their sales from January 1 to July 7, 1934 and 1933 as follows: Dodge passenger car sales, 52,942 as against 36,749—increase 44.7 per cent. Plymouth cars sold by Dodge dealers, 52,673 as against 31,638—increase 69.7 per cent. Dodge trucks, 23,413 as against 6,577—increase 259 per cent.

The total of vehicles sold by Dodge dealers to date this year is 129,028 cars and trucks as against 74,094 for the corresponding period of 1933—an increase of 73.9 per cent.

The Methodist meeting at the Tabernacle is still in progress. Good crowds are attending, and much interest is being shown. The meeting will close on Sunday night.

JAMES L. MCNEESS

Pledging himself to oppose monopolistic control of the Railroad Commission, James L. McNeess, prominent Dallas attorney, has announced his candidacy for the place on the Commission to become vacant at the end of this year.

He pointed out that Texas receives income from oil produced in this State which is given to the school fund, and said he would discourage the importation of oil produced abroad which does not yield school revenue.

He emphasized that the Railroad Commission has become the most powerful agency of government in Texas vested with wide powers for regulation of railroads, buses, trucks and the oil industry, and that the efficiency of its members should be of interest to the voter.

James McNeess was at one time in my employ. I can heartily recommend him to my friends for Railroad Commissioner. Since Mr. McNeess will not be able to campaign in Haskell county, I would consider it a personal favor if my friends would vote for him for I have a special pride in seeing him carry Haskell county.

OLD TIME LOTTERIES

It may not be generally known, but an American national lottery was instituted by the Congress of 1776, and between that date and 1820 at least seventy acts were passed by Congress authorizing lotteries for public purposes, such as schools and other improvements.

Most European governments have at some time or another employed national lotteries as a means of raising funds for the public treasuries, and municipal lotteries have been common. Cuba has conducted a national lottery since the formation of the republic.

France financed the war of the Spanish Succession by a lottery which was not suppressed until 1836. England authorized lotteries for harbor improvements and for the financing of the Virginia Company, which founded the early settlements in America, and raised government funds by that means until 1824.

Religious and charitable organizations were in some countries permitted to operate lotteries long after the governments had abolished them as national institutions. On a small scale such exist in America today in the form of "raffles," which do not differ in principle from the more pretentious lotteries of the past.

During the last hundred years, however, the trend of sentiment throughout the world has been against lotteries, particularly in the United States, where drastic legislation for their suppression has been enacted.

CASHING IN ON CRIME

Regardless of the particular activities in which we engage, it is natural that we should endeavor to look ahead, with a view to estimating the returns which may be expected.

Unfortunately, many do not look ahead at all, or if they do they fail to heed the warnings plentifully supplied by the experience of others. This is especially true of those who decide to embark upon a life of crime.

Laying aside all moral considerations, and estimating the rewards of a criminal solely in terms of money, health and comfort, it seems strange that any should try to beat such a desperate game. Yet thousands try it and fail. They fail whether they are ever adequately punished or not. The daily fear of detection and punishment is often worse than punishment itself.

Still the gambling instinct is perhaps as strong as ever and finds opportunities for expression in many ways, ranging from the outright method of the gaming table to lawful speculation in markets and stocks, regarding the morals of which there is much difference of opinion, even among the better elements of society.

MEANDERINGS

The young fellow now employed in the county assessor's office has quickly learned the right way to prop his feet upon a desk. We should know, after several year's experience. . . . From what we hear, those other Ford dealers on that special train to Chi were surely nice to Monty Montgomery. . . . Young Bill disdains olives in his cokes. He prefers peanuts. . . . The Rule baseball club doesn't seem quite the same with Moss Simms absent from the lineup, or jawing line, but the results are the same. We haven't won a ball game from that club all season. . . . The main topics of conversation (as if you didn't know) are rain, politics, rain, politics, more rain and a few choice remarks about the late lamented race program. . . . Here's a wish which has often been used, but will bear repeating: That we would treat others in the way we think we should be treated. Try it some time. It's hard to do, but it can be done to a great extent. The only trouble is that so many of us are so darn positive we are RIGHT, and the other fellow is wrong, that we simply will not make any attempt to see his side of the question. . . . Wonder what the modern term is for the old-time "cake-eater" and "jelly"? . . . We walked into Jones, Cox & Company's store the other morning and heard someone's voice (which sounded like Trav Arhuckle's) say "here comes that . . . !" and owing to the fact that we knew what he intended saying about us, we fooled him and passed on. Yessir! We flipped our nose up and proved that we were not hunting for news all the time. Our curiosity WAS aroused, though. . . . We have a bone to pick with a certain party who makes it a practice to start some kind of a story and then refuse to finish it. . . . Ho, hum! We've heard so many versions of why and when it will rain that even our credulity is strained to the breaking point. . . . Just about two years ago, last January, the thermometer registered around three below zero and not so far from that date, a year forward or a year back, a great flood visited this section. You can believe it or not. We hardly can. . . . The only "flood" we've heard about recently was listed on our water bill last month.

Speaking of baseball (and who didn't after the game because we would like to make a suggestion here 'is. That the winner of the Wichita Valley league race, whether it be Munday, Haskell, Rotan, Haskell, Peacock, Haskell, Argonaut, Haskell, Rotan or Haskell, challenge the winner of the Red River Valley League (up North) for about a fivegame series. Good games would be assured and a lot of rivalry between players and fans.

By the way, Mr. J. A. K. of the Munday Times, when you neatly asked why "our" games were not given space by "daily" newspapers, we wonder if you were casting insinuations about the Wichita papers. Don't you read those papers? We know they print stories of "our" games, because we write 'em and get paid for doing it. Yessir! Anyway, with good-will being cast hisher and you, like the proverbial sun rays, the Haskell ball club is using more "home" players, we betcha, than any other club in the league—and paying 'em less. And again, anyway you may look at it, J. A. K., who got that schedule so mixed up in The Times recently that had teams playing in places Sunday they didn't play.

One of the best ways in the world for any town to keep the young folk from visiting places of dubious character and doing things which are not for the best, is to provide counter attractions in the shape of clean amusement. If a lot of towns would spend more time and money furnishing instead of condemning, the younger generation would respond in generous numbers. Oh, well, plenty of those lads and lasses who were the "younger generation" in the flaming 1920's are pretty worthwhile citizens today—and the kids of today who are being reared by their parents have! None of us are very perfect.

The 25-cent rooming house exchanges poor quarters for good ones. Two can live about as cheaply as one, if the one has to pay all the money anyway. You've probably noticed that the 100 per cent Americans figured their own percentage. Some campers' idea of roughing it is to leave the portable radio at home.

We read that women used cosmetics in the Middle Ages. They now use them in all ages. That Maine hen that laid 303 eggs in a year must have been associating with the Blue Eagle. A good many college graduates are now finding that the thing alma mater failed to teach them was how to land jobs. Girls who appear on the bench monthly and in order to get a good tanning ought to be saved that trouble by their dads. A 14-ton camera largest in the world has been installed in a government building in Washington. We know a few fishermen who would like to borrow that one. Another paradox is that the silent partner generally has the last word. Greek learned in college helps the alumnus to remember the name of his fraternity.

Some people do their most convincing lying just after they've taken an oath to tell the truth. The drought seems to have outdone the AAA in the matter of reducing the wheat surplus. The New Yorker found living in a sewer may have been a playwright seeking atmosphere. The suitor for the hand of a movie actress should never despair. His turn probably will come sooner or later. As we understand it, the "truth in advertising" movement is designed to confine the fiction to the news columns.

Cans 100 Quarts In Spite Weather

In spite of the dry weather, and having less than a fourth of an acre of ground, over 100 quarts of vegetables were canned by Miss Ruby Stodghill, garden demonstrator of the Rose 4-H Club, this year. The amount canned had a money value of $13.80, and the total including fresh vegetables exceeds $22.00. Miss Stodghill has gathered one and one-half bushels of onions, 50 cantaloupes, gallon of cucumbers and a large amount of squash, lettuce, radishes, etc. Less than $3.00 was spent by the demonstrator on the garden.

Wardrobe Worker Says Foundation Patterns Helpful

My foundation pattern has saved me the expense of buying a number of commercial patterns and saved me the time I always spent measuring patterns over and over to see what altering was needed," says Mrs. J. D. West, second year wardrobe demonstrator of the O'Brien Home Demonstration Club. Mrs. West further states that she spent $21.85 for dress material in the past year and if they had been bought ready-made they would have cost her $17.00, which means a saving of $4.85 by using her foundation pattern and making her own dresses. "I know, too, that my dresses are better made than the average low priced dress that I would have had to buy and I have better material in my dresses and have the consolation of knowing they fit," further stated Mrs. West. "I feel that I can never get along again without keeping my wardrobe organized and planning ahead just what I need to keep my different ensembles as hats, dresses, shoes, purses and gloves in harmony with each other. Since I've been working with the wardrobe work I'm never forced to wear a hat and dress whose colors clash or are of materials that are not suited to each other because I think before I buy each time what I have to wear with the articles and I feel very sure that this forethought and organizing has made me a better dressed person."

In keeping my record of accounts I, of course, had to ask my husband the price of each article he bought, thus he became interested and was soon bringing home the tickets for each purchase he made. "Our club has been responsible for cutting 40 foundation patterns and we are 100 per cent on improved storage and foundation patterns and have helped these unorganized communities," concluded Mrs. West.

DELINQUENT TAX PAYMENTS SHOW INCREASE IN YEAR

Amount Collected Expected To Be Far In Excess of The 1933 Totals

Austin, Texas, July 16.—When the State and county delinquent taxes that were paid in Texas during the past tax year which closed June 30, shall have been totaled, the amount will be far in excess of that of last year, it is indicated by reports that have been received from time to time by the Semi-Weekly Bond Buyers Bulletin of The University of Texas during the last several months. It is regarded as assured that all previous record of such payments were broken during the 12 months just closed. In many counties the delinquent tax payments were in the aggregate several times the total of such payments during the preceding year. There also has been a large increase in current tax collections.

These increases of tax income of the State and counties may be attributed to the law passed by the last legislature which remitted penalty and interest on past due taxes if paid within a given time. Also, the payment of a considerable volume of taxes was made possible by the HOLC loans to home owners. There is little evidence to justify any statement that the unusual record of tax payments during the year was due to any improvement in business conditions, except possibly among the farm owners who have profited by government payments on retired cotton acreage.

The counties of Texas enter the new tax paying year in better financial condition than for several years past. The administrations of these political subdivisions are, in most instances, pledged to a continuation of the policy of economizing expenditures in every possible way. Many of the counties have placed their indebtedness on a better basis through refunding issues, thereby lowering interest rates and sinking fund requirements. They have been relieved, through the operation of the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness, of a considerable part of their road bond indebtedness, and during the calendar year 1933 the State will afford the counties still further relief in this respect by increasing its participation in the payment of road bond principal from the present 30 per cent to 50 per cent.

It is too early to make any reliable forecast as to what changes may be made in county tax rates for the current tax year, most of such rates being fixed in August, but it is expected that, in the face of their improved financial condition there will be no need for increasing the existing rates, and possibly they may be lowered in a number of instances. This condition also applies to assessed property valuations.

County budgets for the new year are also being considered. It is indicated that the estimated expenditures will be based largely on the improved tax collection situation. Of course, it is not known what the legislature at its coming special session in September and the next regular session, which will be convened in January, may do in the way of affording further relief to ad valorem taxpayers, but it is anticipated that whatever is deemed necessary along this line will be done.

Inventor Claims Super Death Ray

NEW YORK—Nicola Tesla, pioneer electrical wizard today announced the invention of a super death ray—a man-made, invisible streak of some 50,000,000 volts capable of destroying an army without a trace.

The inventor described the terrible power of his new death beam. He said it could: Cause an army of 1,000,000 men to drop dead. Bring down a fleet of 10,000 airplanes at a distance of 250 miles. Surround an entire country with an impenetrable, invisible wall, making it safe against enemy attack.

Arm battleships with a new weapon of defense against hostile airplanes and enable them to sweep the seas. The death beam could not be utilized in attack, except in a limited way by battleships, Tesla added, because of the necessity of huge generating stations.

Production of the ray, Tesla said, involves four new processes. The first is a method of producing rays in free air, obviating the high vacuum previously necessary; the second is a method of producing "a very great electrical force"; the third, a method of amplifying this force; and the fourth, a new method of producing a tremendous electrical repelling force.

Visits New Mexico

Canyon, Texas, July 11.—Among the many students of the West Texas State Teachers College to seek a pleasurable Fourth of July vacation in scenic parts of New Mexico and Colorado was Miss M. Letha Phippen of Haskell. Miss Phippen spent two days of her four day vacation from school work enjoying a trip to Carlsbad Cavern. The students of the college gained new vigor for their school work by visiting notably beautiful places such as Raton, Taos, Santa Fe, Albuquerque of New Mexico, Palo Duro Park near Canyon, and Trinidad, Colorado, or returning home for the brief period.
