Senior Holiday

The Seniors had a holiday Friday May 5th in the form of an all day picnic. We met at the high school real early and left for Ocean Hole near Scott's Crossing. The swimmers declared the water was "just right." Some were so anxious to try the water out they jumped in with their clothes on. We forgot we were supposed to act like dignified Seniors since the underclassmen were not around. There was an all star baseball game, including Ed Welsh who played pig-tail. Speed records were completely broken when dinner was called. Justice was certainly done to baked chicken and dressing, bread, fruit salad, pickles, pies, cakes and soda pop. Everyone enjoyed sort of a siesta for a while, then all the former activities were begun again and lasted till supper. The following members had the time of their lives:

Lucille Akins, Marguerite Anderson, Buella Cass, Mary Frances Collier, Frances English, Ollie and Oia Prazier, Lois Fouts, Willie John Fields, Norma Ann Gilstrap, Betty Ann Hancock, Virginia Maye Jones, Reuelie Jones, Beryl Montgomery, Jessie Moody, Lyle Newsome, Dixie Orr, Margaret and Emma Kate Richey, Elizabeth Stuart, Jaunita Stone, Maxine Simmons, Mildred Sadler, Dorothy Therwanger, Jewell Tidwell, Louise Warren, Bernice Willmon, Clara Wilcox, C. B. Breedlove, Jr., Billy Burt, Red Clifton, Alvy Couch, Doyle Eshland, Byron Frierson, Buford Gholson, Marshall Gordon, Clinton Herren, George Kinney, Lee Roy Oneal, John Therwanger, Ed Welsh, Jr., Hubert Watson, Joseph Gose, and John Paul Perrin. Our sponsors were Mrs. Clifton, Gilstrap, Orr, Perrin, Oneal, and class sponsors Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimbish.

PILES

Suffer no more! Here's real relief at last for all forms of Piles—Bled, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding. Pile Ointment does all the things necessary, in the manner necessary. First, it soothes—relieves the soreness and inflammation. Second, it heals—repairs the torn tissue. Third, it absorbs—dries up excess mucus and reduces the swollen blood vessels which are Piles.

In other words, Pile Ointment merely relieves—it tends to correct the condition of Piles as a whole.

The method of application makes it doubly effective. Special Pile Pipe attached to tube enables you to apply ointment high up in the rectum where it will reach all affected parts. Thousands say Pile is the only thing that ever gave them real relief. Thousands say it saved them the need of an operation. Get Pile today and suffer no longer.

Enjoy Travelax-ation this Summer on the 3000 Miles of CONCRETE HIGHWAYS in Texas

TRAVELAX-ATION is that freedom from driving strain, that feeling of comfort, security, safety, and relaxation which comes to motorists when they drive on Concrete Highways.

You will make frequent trips in your car this summer—some long ones and some short ones.

Regardless of why, when, or how far you drive you want comfort, safety, and speed at the lowest cost per mile. These mounting pleasures come with Travelax-ation, which you can enjoy only on Concrete Highways.

Concrete highways provide smooth, firm and positive reaction for tires in wet and dry weather alike. The road surface is flat like a floor—no center peak. This tends to do away with "center-of-the-road" driving. There are no bumps, no chug holes, no ruts to cause the sudden swerving of a car which so frequently results in unfortunate or fatal accidents.

These are more than 3,000 miles of these safe, economical Concrete Highways in Texas. Wherever you are going find out if there is a Concrete (Travelax Route) Highway that will take you. You will enjoy your drive ever so much more...and you will save about a cent per mile for gasoline, tires and repairs over what it would cost you to drive on chuggy, bouncy, unsafe roads.

We have prepared a Special Edition of the Official Map of the Texas Highway System, showing all highways, particularly Concrete Highways. Let this Map guide you to economical and enjoyable motoring.

Vontress

Well, it is still real dry over here at Vontress. There is just one thing about it, all people are getting caught up with their resting. We could fight Johnson grass and rats if we only wanted to do so, because there is no scarcity of either.

Sunday afternoon while playing a ball game between Cottonwood and Vontress teams there was a collision between Clifford Lewellen and Raymond Mercer. The latter suffered a badly broken leg. Both bones were broken just above the ankle. Mr. Mercer was carried to Knox City where the break was set, then brought back to his home at Vontress where he is at the present writing.

On last Saturday morning the pupils, their fathers and mothers and a number of friends gathered over in a beautifully wooded spot north of Vontress. Baseball was played in the morning, after which a bountiful dinner was spread under the trees. This was followed by more old home-made ice cream than the crowd could eat. Then those who were physically able played more baseball and those who couldn't sat in the shade and talked about their incubators, turkey eggs, gardens, etc. All seemed to enjoy the day thoroughly.

Little Fern Arend returned to Haskell Saturday and spent the day with her aunt, Miss Sophie Arend, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this community the past week.

Miss Eileen Partlow, the home demonstration agent of Haskell county, was visiting several homes the past week in interest of the club which has recently been organized in this community.

There was no preaching last week as we announced there would be, because there was such a small crowd Monday night it was not thought to be worthwhile to continue.

Miss Arline Mapes of Roberts spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. Raymond Mercer of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnson of Cottonwood spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Peanut Arend of this community.

Don't forget that next Sunday is Mother's Day and that we want you to bring your mother and also a well-filled basket and come to Vontress for the day. There will be a small program and other items of interest, so come and be with us.

How to train BABY'S BOWELS

Babies, bottle-fed or breast-fed, with any tendency to be constipated, would thrive if they received daily half a teaspoonful of this old family doctor's prescription for the bowels.

That is one sure way to train tiny bowels to healthy regularity. To avoid the fretfulness, vomiting, crying, failure to gain, and other ills of constipated babies.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is good for any baby. For this, you have the word of a famous doctor. Forty-seven years of practice taught him just what babies need to keep their little bowels active, regular, keep little bodies plump and healthy. For Dr. Caldwell specialized in the treatment of women and little ones. He attended over 3500 births without loss of one mother or baby.

REDEEMING PLATFORM PLEDGES

The platform adopted by the Democratic National convention of 1932 contained the following plank:

"We advocate an immediate and drastic reduction of governmental expenditures by abolishing useless commissions and offices, consolidating departments and bureaus, and eliminating extravagance, to accomplish a saving of not less than twenty-five per cent in the cost of Federal government."

When Franklin D. Roosevelt accepted the Democratic nomination for President of the United States, he said that he accepted the platform 100 per cent, and when, during the campaign, he pledged himself to reduce Federal expenditures twenty-five per cent, as set out in the platform, the skeptics smiled. It sounded just like another politician's promise to be forgotten after election day.

And yet a saving of more than $1,000,000,000, or more than 25 per cent, of the budget has already been effected, and here is how it was done, in economies effected, or those decided on:

Veterans' benefits, $400,000,000; adjusted service certificates reserves omitted this year, $50,000,000; veterans' administration, $20,000,000; army, $80,000,000; navy, $45,000,000; Postoffice, $75,000,000; Federal salary cuts, $100,000,000; and departmental reorganization $250,000,000, making a total of $1,020,000,000.

Here is ten years' expansion slashed from the operating costs of government in a few weeks. It took courage of the kind that is all too rare in public life to do it. President Roosevelt has given new meaning to party platforms. In the past they were made to run on, not to stand on.

BUYING ON THE INCREASE

A significant move in the merchandising field is reported from New York where several manufacturers recently have withdrawn prices for future delivery.

The action followed a sharp rise in the wholesale market, with a large increase in the number of out-of-town buyers canvassing goods and prices.

Withdrawal of prices on future deliveries can only mean that the manufacturers sense a rapidly increasing demand for goods on the part of retailers, with consequent rising prices. This outlook is one that has been in prospect for several weeks but which was made more evident by the inflation program contemplated in Washington.

Prospective buyers who fail to supply their needs soon may find that they made a serious mistake by waiting, in the belief that the long-forecast upturn had not begun. Better times are ahead.

THE REFORESTATION CAMPS

The new reforestation camps being established by the federal government at various army posts are reminiscent of war days. In a sense there is a great similarity in that men of youthful age are facing new experience and adventure which appeals to them.

It will be no picnic. It means hard work. All these thousands of men between 18 and 25 years of age are receiving training and conditioning preparatory to forestry work. They are quartered six to a tent with cots and four army blankets. There is ample clothing and shoes, and food of good quality is served in the regular army way. Their pay is $30 a month, of which $25 is sent to the worker's family or dependents.

Camps of this sort cannot be conducted without discipline. The men are organized into squads, platoons and companies in accordance with military regulations, and they have detailed schedules for work and drill. The few restrictions imposed are reasonable in character and seem to be accepted by the men in a spirit of hearty good will and co-operation.

Every observer states that to come into contact with the rejuvenated spirits and rising morale of these men, is to become convinced of the immeasurable good which is bound to result from this public undertaking.

OBITUARY

Rev. M. A. Walker of Joshua, assisted by Rev. Charles Woodson of that city and Rev. L. C. Knight of Cleburne, conducted the last rites for William Perry Phillips, 78, on Tuesday at the family residence in Joshua. Burial was made in the Cleburne cemetery.

William Perry Phillips was born in Columbia county, Arkansas, April 18, 1855. He was married to Hannah Elizabeth Rhea on December 23, 1878, and to this union seven children were born. Those living are Mrs. T. M. Couch of Clarendon, S. L. Phillips of Joshua, Mrs. Walter Paton of Goree, Mrs. J. D. Grossman of Asbury Park, N. J., and Faye of Joshua.

His widow also survives, as does a sister, Mrs. E. M. Medearis, of Joshua, fourteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Mr. Phillips was converted at the age of fourteen. In 1893, he and his family moved to Haskell county, and there in 1902 he united with the Brushy Missionary Baptist church, being baptized by Rev. L. S. Knight, who baptized and united in marriage four of his six then living children. His health began to fail in March, 1932, and he had been confined to his bed since January, 1933. He died on April 24, at 4 o'clock in the morning.

The Plan of Salvation

By Rev. C. H. Eckles, Pastor
Assembly of God Church

THE BIG 3 IN COMMUNITY LIFE

This discourse is intended to make plain God's great redemptive work, and how it was brought about. We surely do not have space and time just here to go into all the phases of this great, all-inclusive subject; we are just giving a few outstanding points for consideration.

There are three facts, each of them fully developed in the experience of the human family, a consideration of which will prepare the mind for the study of the Plan of Salvation.

I. MAN IS A RELIGIOUS BEING. HE WILL WORSHIP. There is in the nature of man, or in the circumstances in which he is conditioned SOMETHING which leads him to recognize and worship a Superior Being. What that SOMETHING is, is not important in our present inquiry:—whether it be a constitutional instinct inwrought by the Maker—whether it be a deduction from universal reasoning, inferring a First Cause from the things that are made—whether it be the effect of tradition, descending from the first worshippers, through all the tribes of the human family—whether any or all of these be the cause, the fact is the same. Universally man worships God in some form or other.

II. The second fact, connected as it is, by the nature of things, with the preceding, assumes the highest degree of importance. It may be stated in the following terms: MAN BY WORSHIPING BECOMES ASSIMILATED TO THE CHARACTER OF THE OBJECT WHICH HE WORSHIPS. This is an invariable principle, operating with the certainty of cause and effect. The worshiper looks upon the character of the object which he worships as the standard of perfection. He therefore condemns everything in himself which is unlike, and approves of everything in him which is like that character. His aspirations, therefore, every time he worships, do, from the nature of the case, assimilate his character more and more to the model of the object that receives his homage.

To this fact the whole history of the idolatrous world bears testimony. Without exception, the character of every nation and tribe of the human family has been formed and modified, in a great degree, by the character attributed to their gods. This leads us to the third fact.

III. THERE IS NO MEANS WITHIN THE REACH OF HUMAN POWER OR WISDOM BY WHICH MAN COULD EXTRICATE HIMSELF FROM THE EVIL OF IDOLATRY, EITHER BY AN IMMEDIATE OR A PROGRESSIVE SERIES OF EFFORTS. Instead of man acquiring the power or disposition to destroy idolatry—idolatry from the beginning of the world, has constantly gained power to destroy man. Amid all the mutations of society, from barbarous to civilized, and amid all the conflicts of nations, and changes of dynasties and forms

You and the church are inter-dependent. Without the church, your community would degenerate into a materialistic group of selfish individuals. It is the church that provides a background of ideals, and unity of purpose. The church is at the source of countless benefits that you take for granted and enjoy daily.

Without your support, in turn, the church would cease to exist. Your duty to the church, therefore, and to your fellows, yourself and your God, is to give your support by regular attendance. Come to church Sunday.

of government, from the dawn of secular history to the era of Christ, idolatry constantly became more evil in its character, and more extended in its influence. It is well ascertained that the first objects of idolatrous worship were few and simple, and the worship of the earliest ages comparatively pure. Man fell into his moral debasement but one step at a time.

From a study of the spiritual idolatry and moral degradation of humanity prior to the christian era, and considering the fact that man was incapable in himself of raising his moral and spiritual standards, it is evident that if man ever were to be lifted to a higher plane of living, that it would have to be done by a power higher than himself, or by supernatural power. In other words, God would have to intervene. Hence we are brought to the fact of the Incarnation. God would have to accommodate Himself to humanity's level, and identify himself with man's sin. This mediator between God and man must of necessity be both divine and human. He must be divine so as to lift man, and He must be human so as to identify himself with man in his condition.

All roads of reasoning lead plainly to the Christ of God becoming the Jesus of Nazareth. Here we have God and man met in one personality, Immanuel-God with us. Now since we have God with us, in what manner must he approach the matter of man's awful plight of sin, and from what angle must he attack the terrible monster of sin, which for centuries has been driving man further down the scale of human existence?

This line of reasoning leads to the consideration of some other facts.

I. Since God required the death of the sinner, or a substitute, and since the sinner was not qualified to die and thereby appease the wrath of God, it followed that God required the blood of a sinless one and thereby comes the story of Calvary. Christ the paschal lamb prefigured through all the old Jewish scriptures as God's means of atonement. Christ identifying Himself with the sin of humanity. Paul tells us that He became sin, who knew no sin, that He might with one sacrifice take away sin.

Everybody welcome.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

This church carries on steadfastly without a minister. The Sunday School is bigger and better than for some time. Next Sunday, the 14th, we shall have preaching by Rev. Cleo McGehee, a young ministerial student from Abilene. He is said to be wonderful as a gospel preacher. A Mother's Day program and a Mother's Day sermon will be given. Everything is looking better in this church, the finances are in better shape, the spirit of the congregation is better. Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. and preaching and communion at 11 a. m.

METHODIST CHURCH

For twenty-five years it has been customary to designate the second Sunday in May "Mother's Day." On this Sunday emphasis is laid, over the entire land, upon the sentiment and significance of this special day. Not a town or community perhaps, where the day will not be observed in some way. First Methodist Church will join in the observance. Two Bible women will be studied in the Sunday services. At eleven o'clock the pastor will speak on the subject, "A Great Woman," and at 8 p. m. "The Mother Heart." Special music at services. A cordial invitation is given all mothers to attend these services.

BAPTIST OBSERVE MOTHER'S DAY

The service Sunday morning will be dedicated to our mothers. The thought of mother often passes through the mind, but the second Sunday in May is the day that everyone is thinking of mother at the same time. You are invited to come and help make this a holy hour.
We had only 378 in Sunday School last Sunday. We need a few more to make it 400. We will expect you Sunday.

II. Now if Christ had atoned for sin, and if man were reconciled to God, how could man know that he were free from sin? In one, and only one way: by faith. What do we mean by faith?

Faith in general is the faculty of believing the testimony of another. Spiritually speaking, faith is the act of believing, with the heart, that Jesus of Nazareth is the Son of God. Rom. 10:9-10; John 14:1.

A. First it must be in Jesus, not Mohammed, Buda, Joseph Smith, or in anyone else. Many people today are inclined to say that as long as people are sincere in their religion they will be saved. But no greater error could be fostered than that. The Bible scriptures focus all the rays of divine revelation upon Jesus, not only as the only holy object of worship, but the world's only hope of salvation. Listen to Peter's words to his day: "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."

III. This faith must be from and with the heart. Man can conceive of God only with his heart; the seat of his affection. The intellect is the seat of opinion, judgment. The heart is the seat of the affection whereby we cry Abba Father. Man loves, hates, sins with his heart. Notice Jesus' own words in Matt. 15. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies."

IV. It must not only be in Christ as the Son of God, for everybody but heathen believe that, but it must be in resurrected, miracle-working Christ who has power to save us from our sins, and not in them.

V. When man believes with his heart in Jesus as the son of God, God immediately accounts the man righteous, and gives him a nature like His own, and then man is a new creature, born from heaven with a heavenly nature and aspirations toward God. He is now a new creature. "Old things have passed away and behold all things have become new."

When man has been born again, and has this nature of God in him, he is so different that his whole aspect has been changed. His old acquaintances drop off, he quits his old haunts of sin, leaves off his bad habits, and the world is better off because of his faith in the new-found savior.
