Albert Frazier Is Candidate Public Weigher at Rule

In reporting last week the names of the candidates who had filed for places on the Democratic primary ballot we overlooked the name of Albert Frazier of Rule who is a candidate for Public Weigher of the Rule Precinct.

Mr. Frazier's name was properly filed but in copying the names from the application blanks, no doubt two pages were turned at once. We are sorry that we overlooked Mr. Frazier's name as we understand that it left the impression with some of his friends that he failed to file his name in time to get it on the official ballot.

This is not the case and Mr. Frazier's name will be on the ballot in July.

WILL NOT OPERATE SUNDAY PICTURE SHOWS IN HASKELL

A rumor has been in circulation for some time to the effect that Haskell will have Sunday picture shows in the near future. The rumor has become so persistent that the management issued the following statement today denying the rumor.

Sunday Picture Shows
We, the Haskell Amusement Company, Inc. owners and operators of the Texas Theatre and the Haskell Theatre have been repeatedly solicited to run the Texas Theatre on Sunday—have Sunday matinees all the time. And why shouldn't we do so? The law as far as operating and doing business on Sunday is concerned, is violated on every hand in Haskell every Sunday. If it is lawful for others to violate the Sunday closing law, then it should be lawful for us to do so.

However, we respect the law, God's law and man's law. After considering the situation from every standpoint and angle, we have decided that we will not have a Sunday show next Sunday, as has been rumored and talked about. We appreciate the attitude of the people who do not want us to have Sunday shows. We hope they will appreciate the action we have taken in this matter.

We feel that we are due more cooperation and consideration than we have been getting. We brought to Haskell a sound equipment that is as good as cities the size of Fort Worth and Dallas have. We have made a big investment for your pleasure. We are not having Sunday shows because we respect your view point. Is it properly appreciated? In not having Sunday shows we are losing our out-of-town business. We are losing some local business because they go to neighboring towns for Sunday shows. We cooperate with all organizations, we stand for the betterment of Haskell and surrounding territory, we bring you as good shows as money can buy, we live here.

If you appreciate our decision in this matter, then show it by giving us your patronage and co-operation and consideration now and later. It will be appreciated.

Respectfully,
Haskell Amusement Co. Inc.

In a recent contest 31 women of Haskell County exhibited home made house dresses at a saving of $1.13 each in comparison to the estimated value of a wash dress which is $3.75. Appropriateness, design, and wearing qualities were the main points in judging with the added points of workmanship and originality of design. Each contestant profited from the criticism of the garments as well as the exhibition of dresses. The dresses as a whole showed that much thought and interest had been given to clothing work in the county.

Haskell Boys Are Enrolled In C. M. T. Camp, Ft. Bliss

The Free Press received a communication this week from Lieut. Henry A. Luebbemann of Ft. Bliss, Texas, stating that the Haskell boys who are enrolled in the Citizens Military Training School there are getting along fine and enjoying the best of health. The camp has been quarantined on account of a case of spinal meningitis. The prompt measures taken seem to have been successful, as no new cases or even suspected cases have been reported.

The morale of the camp is very high, and the boys are having a good time in spite of their restriction to the limits of the camp. Athletics which do not bring the boys in close contact are being played. Open air talks with trainees spread well apart, are being given every evening by the Chaplain. Drills are going on as usual, and there is absolutely no cause for alarm.

The boys from Haskell who are registered at the camp are Joe Bryant, Rogers Gilstrap, Cecil Loflin, John Oates, Floyd Taylor and Gilbert Wilson.

Monday July 7th, will be Haskell's third monthly trades day and those who have the program in charge are planning to make it one of the biggest days ever held here. The two Haskell bands will furnish music for the occasion and in addition to the regular features of the day, a big political rally will probably be held. A number of candidates have signified their desire to place their claims before the Haskell County voters on the above date and have asked for a place on the program. Further announcements regarding the speaking will be made next week.

BAPTIST WORKERS MEET WELL ATTENDED AT WEINERT

The Baptist Workers Council of the Haskell Association was held at Weinert Monday and on account of the busy season of the year a small attendance was expected, but those who had the program in charge were agreeably surprised as the attendance was up to normal.

In view of the fact that there are to be thirty-six revival meetings conducted in Baptist churches and mission points in this association, an evangelistic program was arranged. Every speaker was full of his subject and it was considered to be one of the best and most helpful meetings ever held.

Among the visitors were Rev. and Mrs. Douglas of Abilene. They both filled important places on the program in the afternoon. Mrs. Douglas is a well known leader among the women in this section of the state.

The outstanding visitor of the day was a Christian Jew. We would not dare try to spell his name, but he is a famous painter and is at the head of the art department of Simmons University. He spoke on Isaiah 53. This Jew is considered to be the Paul of modern times. He spoke with a zeal and an enthusiasm that cannot be surpassed.

All the workers were royally entertained by the Weinert people. A tempting lunch was served at the noon hour and every one was thoroughly satisfied.

County Agent Pronounces Trades Day Cow a Good One

There has been considerable speculation regarding the cow purchased by the trades day committee. It has been reported, and several members of the Bone Head Club vouched for the fact that this cow was giving five gallons of milk per day, and the only thing she had to eat was the grass in the pasture where she was being kept during the day. Joe Williams, the popular county agent comes along now and tells us that the committee is "all wrong" about her being only a five gallon cow, since she has been brought to town, learned city ways and placed on a balanced ration. They are now having to milk her twice a day in a wash tub.

Hill Oates chairman of the committee that purchased the cow, said that a wash tub of milk is certainly too much milk from one cow and he is going to have Joe Williams verified before he makes any more announcements regarding the cow.

RULE-JAYTON OIL COMPANY HEAD DIES AT STAMFORD

D. P. Talley of Stamford, died suddenly on the streets of that city at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, according to word received here by relatives and friends.

Mr. Talley, a leading Wichita Falls business man for 15 years before he moved to Stamford in 1919, was head of the Rule-Jayton Cotton Oil company at the time of his death. He was 58 years old and his death came without warning, following on the heels of an attack which struck him to the sidewalk as he returned to his office after lunch Thursday.

Mr. Talley was one of the earliest motor enthusiasts and a leader in the movement for good roads through the state. His was among the first automobiles operated in Wichita county and he was one of the founders of the Colorado to Gulf highway association, lending his support until the organization, a pioneer among road associations, was successfully launched.

RESERVE SYSTEM'S DIVIDENDS ANALYZED

Bankers Find Increased Payments to Member Banks Would Be Small Inducement.

Various proposals that member banks in the Federal Reserve System should participate more largely in its net earnings through an increase in the dividend rate above the present fixed 6 per cent "would be a very small financial inducement" to them, it is declared in a recent study of this subject by the Economic Policy Commission of the American Bankers Association.

"The Fletcher bill provides that Federal Reserve Bank earnings, after present 6 per cent dividends to members and completion of a 100 per cent surplus, should all be distributed as extra dividends to the stockholder banks," the report says.

"If the earnings of each Federal Reserve bank were distributed among its own members there would be no extra dividends in the Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Chicago and San Francisco districts during the next six years, but the other six Federal Reserve Banks would pay annual extras at the following rates: Richmond, 6.08 per cent; Atlanta, 4.99 per cent; St. Louis, 3.59 per cent; Minneapolis, 9.51 per cent; Kansas City, 5.48 per cent; Dallas, 4.83 per cent.

"If the earnings were pooled and paid out to all members in all districts each member would receive an average annual extra dividend of .78 per cent. Under this plan no franchise tax as now would be paid by the Federal Reserve Banks to the Federal Government.

Another Plan Analyzed "The Glass bill would provide that, after present 6 per cent dividends, one-half the remainder should be paid to member banks as an extra dividend with the residue going to surplus and Federal Government as franchise tax. The average annual extras to members would be as follows: Boston District, 2.51 per cent; New York, .48 per cent; Philadelphia, 2.95 per cent; Cleveland, 2.09 per cent; Richmond, 3.29 per cent; Atlanta, 4.67 per cent; Chicago, 3.29 per cent; St. Louis, 2.92 per cent; Minneapolis, 4.75 per cent; Kansas City, 2.74 per cent; Dallas, 3.31 per cent; San Francisco, 1.57 per cent.

"If these extra funds were pooled the result would be an extra average annual dividend of 1.73 per cent for each member. Under this plan the system would still pay as now an annual franchise tax, amounting to $1,941,996 on the average."

By way of concrete instance, the report says, a member bank having capital and surplus of $200,000, therefore holding Federal Reserve Bank stock amounting to $6,000 on which it is receiving $360 under the present 6 per cent dividend arrangement, would with the addition of each 1 per cent to the dividend rate receive an additional income of $60 a year.

"If each member bank will figure out for itself the dollar-and-cents gain it would enjoy we are confident it will be agreed that the gains are small as against the economic disadvantages which can be pointed out," it concludes.

IF ICHABOD CRANE HAD A FLASHLIGHT

By JOHN G. LONSDALE President American Bankers Association

WE ALL remember the story of Ichabod Crane and the headless horseman. There was the dark form by the side of the road—thundering hoofs on the Sleepy Hollow highway—and Ichabod feeling in confused terror before this terrible monster. If Ichabod had only known that his hobgoblin was disguised with a pumpkin head, he would have had a good laugh and gone on with the business of vanquishing his competitor.

John G. Lonsdale

What Ichabod really needed was a modern flashlight. Then he would have discovered the trickery at once. Many business men need the flashlight of analysis to uncover the hobgoblins in their business and then they might sit back and laugh at their rivals who hesitate to investigate and learn the truth.

At this time, when business and banking are making strenuous efforts to have a clear vision ahead, it is especially important that the power of research and analysis be employed to their fullest extent. When these twin brothers of good management have been pressed into service in all fields, I am confident we shall see a further lessening of periods of stress. However, I believe business in general has learned the valuable lesson that any prosperity that is not leavened with a little adversity would not seem basically safe or sound.

"HEROES AND COWARDS"

Heroes and cowards will make up the crowd in every great conquest. You will find them in time of war. When great issues are involved these two classes are to be found. The greatest of all wars is the one that has been going on through the ages between the forces of righteousness and evil. In this mighty struggle, we will find the two classes, heroes and cowards. The following thoughts will be presented Sunday morning:

- 1. EXAMPLES OF MORAL COWARDS IN THE BIBLE. 2. EXAMPLES OF MORAL HEROES IN THE BIBLE. 3. WHY EVERY ONE SHOULD BE A HERO AND CONFESS CHRIST AS SAVIOUR. 4. HOW WE CAN BE A HERO FOR CHRIST.

The Church Orchestra

The Church Orchestra is well represented at every service. There were ten members present Sunday morning and nine present at the evening service. This is not above an average, for we often have more than a dozen present.

The quality of the music continues to improve. This is nothing more than could be expected when we consider our leader, Mr. Joe Meacham. If you are a lover of music, you will be delighted with our orchestra at both services. You would never stay at home Sunday evenings, if you only knew what you were missing in the line of music and singing at the Baptist church.

Rev. Kilpatrick will preach Sunday evening. The pastor is to begin a meeting at Miles, Texas, at that hour. Bro. Kilpatrick is a strong preacher and speaker. You will enjoy his message.

CONOCO Celebrates its Conquest in America's Greatest Motor Classic

GERM-PROCESSED is the First Stock Motor Oil to "place" in INDIANAPOLIS Speedway Races! ... Now PENETRATIVE LUBRICITY Proves it's Worth in the Terrific Punishment of Racing Motors

Dave Evans, driving a one hundred twenty-two cubic inch front drive Miller Special, placed sixth out of thirty-eight starters. Evans added less than one-half the amount of oil usually consumed in the average racing motor, in five hours, twenty-four minutes, fifty-four seconds of driving, at an average speed of 92.37 miles per hour. In the domestic oil market of the Nation it was only good strategy for CONOCO to again bring the superiority of Germ-Processed oil to your attention in this sensational way. At a time when motorists in every section of the country have been leading willing ears to the story of the Germ Process... learning that this is the first fundamental improvement in oils since 1901... reading the sensational disclosures of motor oil merit following the recent Pike's Peak Tests... CONOCO, by this masterful spread conviction, that Germ-Processed Motor Oil is the safest oil for every-day driving in twenty-seven million cars. For the Germ-Processed oil used in this race was the same stock oil that you can buy at any service station bearing the CONOCO Red Triangle! The motorists were told that they were to use any other oil, more you! However, Germ-Processed is the first stock oil that "placed" in this race. CONOCO has proven its claims, confirmed its challenge, justified this request of you: "If you value the life of your motor, if you would reduce your operating costs, if you want better lubrication than any other oil give you, go to the Sign of the Red Triangle and ask for..." Smith-Gauntt.

Henry Smith well known contractor of this city and Miss Hazel Gauntt of Rochester were married at the home of Rev. G. Robert Forrester, pastor of the First Christian Church on Saturday, June 14th.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gauntt of Rochester. Mr. and Mrs. Gauntt gave an informal dinner Sunday honoring the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Haskell, where Mr. Smith has been engaged in the contracting business for several years.

The Free Press joins their many friends in extending congratulations.

Whitaker-Whitman.

Marriage of Miss Evelyn Whitman, older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Whitman of Abilene, and William C. Whitaker of Osage, Kansas, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Whitaker of Abilene, was solemnized Thursday at high noon in a simple but pretty ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, in Abilene.

The Rev. Lawrence Fitzgerald, member of the Simmons University faculty, and former classmate of the bride, officiated with the ring service in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Ferns and summer flowers were used in a coronation of rooms of the home and were massed as a background for the wedding scene. Mrs. R. E. Kuykendall and Miss Ruth Whitman gave a program of lovely nuptial music.

The bride entered with her father and was given in marriage by him. She wore a princess frock of carolina crepe with ejaulet shoulder cape and gored skirt, and carried an arm bouquet of sweet heart roses and lilies of the valley. Her only attendant, Mrs. Wendall Foreman wore a dainty pink crepe, with deep crepe and carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Judge Alton Chapman of Spur, cousin of the bride and childhood friend of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. Whitaker took her B. A. degree from Simmons university in June 26 and spent the remainder of that summer in travel in Europe

She took her M. A. degree from a seminary in Fort Worth, and for the past two years has taught school.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a honeymoon trip, and will return to Osage where they will make their home. Mr. Whitaker is telegraph operator with the M. K. and T. railway there.

Both the bride and groom formerly lived in Haskell and have many friends here who extend congratulations and best wishes.

Rike-Cox.

The wedding of Miss Agnes Cox to John Rike, both of this city was solemnized Saturday evening at twilight, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Cox, with Rev. Jack Thompson officiating.

An improvised altar, with an archway of southern smilax and gladiolus was formed in the living room, and palms and ferns were banked around the arch, suggesting the summer garden.

A soft glow from a candelabra placed on the piano, shown upon Miss Katherine Rike, only sister of the groom, who was at the piano. Miss Rike was tastily attired in an orchid afternoon frock, with a corsage of gladiolus.

Soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march filled the room, as the bride, beautifully gowned in a chiffon frock of peach hue and peach satin slippers, and ornamented with one jewel only, a diamond ring presented by her father at graduation, and carrying a shower bouquet of gladiolus and feverfew, entered from an adjoining room, attended by her only sister, Mrs. Leo Southern, through the dining room, and joining the groom under the arch.

Mrs. Southern was attractively costumed in a blue chiffon dress and slippers of the same shade, and carried an arm bouquet of snapdragons and tube roses.

"To a Wild Rose" was softly played during the impressive ring ceremony, when the couple was united in holy wedlock.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride cut the wedding cake, which was decorated in peach and blue, and brick ice cream of peach and white was served.

The bride was then arrayed in a blue ensemble of chanting, with eggshell accessories as a going away costume.

Mrs. Rike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Cox, has spent a large portion of her life in Haskell and is well known and popular in social circles as well as church activities and holds a high place of esteem and prominence. Texas Population Near Six Million

A Texas population of just less than 6,000,000 was the prospect Sunday night, when the Associated Press compiled census returns from 225 of the 254 counties.

The 225 counties which had completed their returns showed 5,097,457 residents as against a total for Texas of 4,663,228 in the 1920 census. The ten-year increase of the counties which had reported was slightly more than 25 per cent. If the same percentage of increase is shown by the 29 missing counties, the state's population will be approximately 5,875,000.

West Texas and the Rio Grande Valley showed the greatest percentage of increase according to the report.

HASKELL PUBLIC LIBRARY

Open from 3 to 6 every afternoon except Sunday and Monday.

216 books were loaned from the Public Library last week. Despite the hot weather, children and adults like and continue to read.

In every child's life there comes a turning point. That is when your child begins to read of its own accord. The reading habit formed then will largely determine the literary preferences of a lifetime. It will develop a taste for the good or bad. Will that taste be for the good inspiring books or for the trashy literature which never inspires, always harms.

What is your child reading? The free books of the public library are carefully chosen by a committee and no book is allowed in circulation which could in any way be harmful to anyone. These books together with the helpful suggestions of the librarian should be a matter of vital interest to thoughtful parents.

Informing the Public

When business people desire to know how they can interest the public in their goods, it can be suggested to them that there is a wide open chance, if they will undertake to give the public information about their goods. People who are spending money for anything like to know all about the thing they are buying. Take the case of a man who contemplates buying an automobile. He will spend hours poring over the advertisements of cars. Everything that magazines and newspapers can tell him is eagerly absorbed. The chances are very strong that he will buy the one that seems to tell the most convincing story in this advertising.

It is just the same about clothing, house furnishings, foodstuffs, or anything that people buy. Before spending their money, they like to know what they are doing. They like to read the arguments for buying any particular line. They are interested to see how any particular producer will meet the difficulties and objections that people raise. The seller of commodities neglects a wide open opportunity, if he fails to take advantage of this desire to obtain information. The cuts freely distributed by many producers and wholesalers are a great help to retailers who wish to inform the public about their goods.

A few words of simple description, added to the notice about some article or line, is a wonderful help. It makes people feel that the goods have unusual value. Advertisements that give the public information about goods are read with keenest interest, and they sell a big volume of merchandise here in Haskell.

Dressing Up the Home Town

In business life, people are judged considerably by the clothes they wear. If a salesman goes out to sell goods on the road, his chances are pretty poor if he wears old and soiled clothes. But put good and well cared for garments on such a man and he not merely impresses people as being of some account, but there is a favorable reaction on his own morale. He gains more courage, and feels able to do things he could not do before. It is much the same as respects the appearance of a community. There are many towns the exterior of which is simply hopeless. Disorder is tolerated everywhere. The casual visitor gets the idea of a community where there are no standards, no ambition, no pride, no desire for progress. No one wants to do business in a town like that if he can help it.

People who sell goods in such a town would be more suspicious of its credit. Now if you could take such a town and start a general improvement effort there, and get the people to co-operate with it, the benefit would be incalculable. The people would feel more courage, have more pride in their community. People would come there to do business, it would become more of a center.

The majority of American towns come somewhere in between the extremes of beauty and ugliness. They have their pleasant and pretty neighborhoods, and they have their squalid and ugly ones. The people who live in these less attractive neighborhoods should wake up. They are a dead weight on the progress of the whole town. They hurt its trade, its industries, its desirability for residence. Some influence to which they will listen should get hold of them, and show them the harm they are doing to themselves and others.

FACT AND FICTION

The fellow who gets married on a shoestring soon finds himself bare-foot.

It's well to think twice before you speak and then say just half as much as you intended to.

It's got to where you've got to know what "Amos 'n' Andy" said the night before to keep the conversational ball rolling.

President Hoover's threat to call an extra session of Congress doesn't please Congress and it's still less appealing to the rest of us.

President Hoover's administration probably will be remembered as one of commissions and omissions.

Mrs. McCormick is reported to have sold a bull for $3,000, but most politicians make no charge for theirs.

A Baltimore man kept talking about Viola in his sleep and his wife, Mary, got a divorce.

According to press reports, Ghandi is subsisting chiefly on a diet of goat's milk. That may be the reason he's after John Bull's nanny.

One of the peculiarities of American politics is that a senator who sends government's expense may investigate a candidate who pays for his.

An uplift organization asks newspapers to cut out crime news. Now if they can get the other folks to cut out crime, everything will be lovely.

In the films Tom Mix always catches the villain who runs off with his sweetheart, but he wasn't able to catch the fellow who ran off with his daughter and married her.

But you can bet his managers won't let him do it until he's collected a million on his synthetic title.

The Berean Class, "The Class of Southern Hospitality"

Boy Howdy, it is sure going to be a wow! And this bunch of Bereans is going to have a good time at it too. And I don't want any one putting that in the "Believe it or not" section, either. Because, in the first place, we are going to have a big time, and in the next place we are going to enjoy it, and in the third place, it is going to be a source of pleasure to us, and in the fourth place, we are going to enjoy it in the first place. And if you don't believe it just slip quietly in a chair in the Berean class next Sunday, and listen in on what will be going on there and you will be able to see for yourself that it is going to be the greatest thing in the history of that fast moving Berean class. I'm not going to tell you here what it is. You must come to class next Sunday, and find out for yourselves.

The lesson next Sunday will be a review of the past twelve lessons, taken from the book of Matthew. We have been studying the life of Christ as recorded by Matthew, and last Sunday we completed the study, and are now reviewing it this Sunday. So come to class and get a fine discussion in a short time. Mr. Charley Conner has been offering us some fine discussions and I am sure will be in a position to give us a splendid review.

The Berean Class went on a picnic last Thursday night and spent a most enjoyable evening. It was a party strictly for the members of the sterner sex; those eligible for membership in the Berean class, and friends of the members. Every one present reported a pleasant time and seem to be thoroughly convinced that those who missed it, missed one of the most delightful picnics of the year.

It is essential that visitors be present in every Sunday School class. For without visitors, where would we get our members? So we are extending a most cordial invitation to all those who see fit to honor us with their presence. And to those who have not yet seen fit, may we even urge them to give us an opportunity to prove that we are indeed: "The Class of Southern Hospitality."

Lee Grocery Company composed of R. E. Lee and sons opened its doors for business, September 26th, 1926. Pioneered by Mr. Lee, the business has ably served the people of Haskell and vicinity, endeavoring in every instance to co-operate with every worthy civic interest and to serve its customers with quality merchandise, service and courtesy. Striving in this direction the business has been very successful.

R. E. Lee came to Haskell county in 1902 and located in the Post community eight miles south of Haskell. He has improved his farm in every modern way. Practically all of the farm work is done by machinery. Only a few years ago $6,000.00 worth of cotton was sold at one time and all the cotton was produced on this farm.

Mr. Lee has also been very active in public life. While a young man he taught school for a number of years, aiding on several occasions in the publication of books on mathematics. Later he served many years as chairman of the school board. In 1922 he was strongly solicited by his friends to enter the race for the office of County Judge. He was elected over two opponents and served for two years as County Judge of Haskell County.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gilliam and children Fred and Annie Bess spent Sunday in Abilene visiting their brother Geo. Gilliam. Their son Hughes who is a student in Tech was also there.

Jossett M. D. Club.

Mrs. C. A. Thomas was hostess to the Jossett Home Demonstration Club members Monday June 16th. This was a call meeting with seven members and the H. D. Agent present. The Club president, Mrs. C. L. Toliver, presided over the business session of the meeting, after which the meeting was turned over to the Agent.

Lesson study for the afternoon was: "The Child and Its Clothes." This was a very interesting study and after Miss Partlow's talk on comfort, cleanliness, design and colors in children's clothes, each mother present readily saw her mistake in dressing and caring for her child. The demonstration by the agent was: "Making and Selecting a Child's Dress."

After adjournment the ladies enjoyed a social hour. Each member present drew from a box the name of her friend. These names were in tiny capsules and on July 22nd, each member will make known who's name she has and present her capsule friend with a gift.

Mrs. Thomas served angel cake, cream pie, plum butter and saltine flakes to Mesdames J. L. Toliver, P. J. Jossett, C. L. Toliver, Marvin Medford, E. B. Calloway, J. V. Jossett and Miss Partlow.

We will meet with Mrs. Carrie Jossett, July 8th. On that date we will make American and Cottage Cheese in a large quantity for the club members use. Every member try to be present and if interested in cheese making bring one gallon of sweet milk.

Visitors are welcome at any time, come and bring some one with you.

Midway H. D. Club.

The Midway Home Demonstration Club met June 17 at the community house with Miss Partlow who gave a demonstration on Children's Clothes. Mrs. Frierson acted as president as Mrs. Smith was unable to be with us. There were 10 members present who were very interested in the model kitchen that the Lone Star Gas Co. sent out for the ladies to look over.

Our next meeting day is July 1st. All members and ladies of the community are urged to be present, as we hope to have Mrs. Clarence Lewis with us at this time. Each lady is asked to remember her eggs for the building fund. Mrs. J. S. Hays will be hostess.

Executive Committee Meeting.

In making amends for their absence of the past weeks, Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Baker entertained the Executive Committee of the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian Church after a business session Monday evening.

This was the first meeting since the election of new officers so the evening was spent partly in studying the objects and plans of the different committees—"The Kingdom Highways."

We were given a short play, entitled, "Gathering Nuts" after which assorted cakes and ice cream with chocolate sauce was served to:

- Glanth Frierson, Alta Frierson, Lewis Pearsey, Mary Pearsey, Mary Sue Hester, Felix Frierson, Calvin Frierson, Dixie Orr, Myrtle Orr, Ollie Hester, Ira Hester, Ollie Frazier, Ola Frazier, Beatrice Thomason, Ethel Frierson, Mary Frazier, Velma Frierson, Byron Frazier, Julian Frazier, the sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Isham, Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Baker.

Another Wichita Falls Woman Was In Bad Health Several Years; Orgatone Brings Relief

Another wonderful indorsement for Orgatone that will be read by thousands of frail, suffering women, was given recently by Mrs. S. Myers, 2810 Grant street, Wichita Falls, Texas. In describing her troubles to find relief, to a Orgatone representative, Mrs. Myers said:

"I have been in very poor health for a long time. My condition has been wretched for two years. I suffered from acid stomach and it seemed like everything I would eat would come back in my throat and choke me. I was very nervous and had been constipated practically all my life. At times I was a mighty sick woman, and only those who are afflicted as I was know how I suffered. I paid out a lot of money for treatment and medicines of different kinds, but I kept getting worse. My liver was in such bad condition I would have sick dizzy spells and sometimes it was impossible for me to stand on my feet in this condition.

"I commenced to read about the good Orgatone was doing people right here in Wichita Falls and I can't tell you how glad I am that I found it. What I have already taken has given me more relief than all the other treatments and medicines I ever took put together. I am not nearly so nervous now, can eat anything I want and digest it properly, and my awful dizzy spells are broken up. My constipation is gone and I have improved wonderfully in every way and feel that in a short time my troubles will be relieved entirely. Only those who have experienced the great relief I have can realize the great joy I feel over what Orgatone has done for me and I gladly recommend it others suffering as I did."

Genuine Orgatone may be obtained in Haskell at the Oates Drug Store.—Adv.

THIS SEASON

Has become known as a Tornado period. At this season of the year the Twister's Terrifying Threat often becomes a reality laying waste thousands and thousands of dollars' worth of property and snuffing out many lives. Tornadoes are beyond the control of man, and the only defense is insurance to pay for the damage they cause. Almost every day the newspapers carry big headlines with reference to the latest disaster. No locality is exempt—yours may be next. Anywhere in this country—windscreens can and do destroy millions of dollars worth of property. Each year adds to the list of places which "could never have a destructive wind storm"—and did. Windstorm insurance rates are so low that it is not worth the risk to be without it. Let us tell you how little it costs to protect yourself from loss through damage done by wind to your home, business property or car. Wind destroys a lot of things. Play safe and insure.

THE VALUE OF SOUND DESIGN

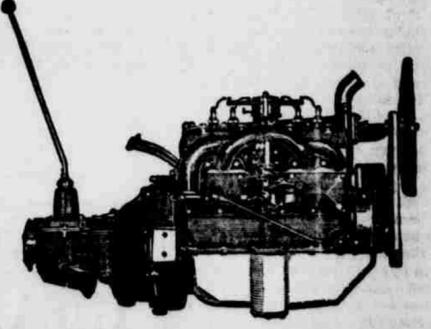

New Ford engine gives outstanding acceleration, speed and power without sacrificing reliability or economy

THE good performance of the Ford car, so apparent on every highway, is due largely to the sound mechanical design of the engine.

It has outstanding acceleration, speed and power, yet that is only part of its value to you. Greater still is the fact that it brings you all these features without sacrificing either reliability or economy.

That is the reason the Ford car has given such satisfactory service to millions of motorists all over the world and has been chosen by so many large companies that keep accurate cost figures. In every detail of construction it has been carefully planned and made for the work it has to do.

The design of the compression chamber is an important factor in the efficiency of the Ford engine. It is built to allow free passage of gases through the valves and to thoroughly mix the fuel by producing turbulence within the cylinders during compression. The spark thus flashes quickly through the whole fuel charge, resulting in quieter and more effective engine performance. Other factors are the direct gravity gasoline feed, the specially designed carburetor, the new hot-spot manifold, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves of larger diameter, statically and dynamically balanced crankshaft and flywheel, the simplicity of the electrical, cooling, lubrication, and fuel systems and accuracy in manufacturing.

SEES HEAVY CLAIMS ON FUTURE BANKERS

American Bankers Association Official Declares That Banking Changes Creating Large Bank Systems Will Call for Broader Social Viewpoints.

Larger scale group or branch banking will inevitably bring a new era of banking organization and operations to the United States and bankers will have to develop "new conceptions, new administrative methods and new economic views," Rudolf S. Hecht, Chairman of the Economic Policy Commission of the American Bankers Association, recently told the members of the American Institute of Bankers.

The institute is the educational section of the association and he emphasized the point that the new era in banking demanded "that we must step-up our education so that banking shall be fortified for new responsibilities."

What the Future Calls For

"We must broaden our social conception of banking," Mr. Hecht said. "Not only for the technical operations of the new banking must we fit ourselves, but both as individuals and an organized profession we must charge ourselves with serious consideration of the social problems that are involved. Already we hear murmurings and fears and doubts as to whether the changes that are coming about in banking in the extension of group and branch systems do not constitute the looming of a new financial menace, a monopolistic threat not only to the individual unit banker, but to the financial liberty of society in general. I am stating these things merely as facts that must be taken into consideration in our studies."

"Public opinion cannot be ignored by any business, least of all by banking, which is admittedly semi-public in character and is, therefore, subject to special supervision by the constituted authorities. If banking develops tendencies that give rise to public fears, we must so conduct ourselves as to reassure all doubts."

"For this is true,—that business succeeds only by serving society,—that no business can permanently prosper which does not render service to the public and at the same time convince the public that it is rendering that service. Banking, therefore, must take cognizance of what the public is saying of this new era in its development."

"It must be part of the technique of modern banking administration, whatever form our enlarged institutions take, to avoid the creation of monopolies, or even the appearance of such a centralization of financial power as to be able to exercise an undue influence over public or private finance or other lines of business. The public's right to the safeguards of fair competition must be observed."

Must Preserve Individual Initiative

"It must also be an item of management that individual initiative and opportunity shall be maintained. If America has outstripped other nations in the distribution of the benefits of its progress, it is due to the fact that there are no barriers of social caste or business tradition against advancement for character, ability, and initiative. American business has learned that it serves itself best by encouraging by every practical means individual ambition and initiative, and hurts itself most by repressing or neglecting them. Competition for efficiency, both within an organization and between organizations, will prevent any institution from long enduring in which maintenance of opportunity and recognition of initiative are not controlling principles of management. As heads of the greatest of our financial and industrial institutions stand men who started from the humblest of beginnings. Through all the grades of executive authority and reward stand men in positions in keeping, generally speaking, with their individual merits. I, personally, see no reason for fearing that the enlarged banking organization which the future may hold would necessarily supply future bank employees with any less opportunity for achievement than unit banking."

"Again, a major consideration of administration in any multiple form of banking organization must be its public relations in every community it touches. Its foremost consideration must be actually and visibly to serve the economic upbuilding of that community. No system will be long tolerated whose local members work, or are suspected as working, to draw economic strength from one place to enlarge the financial power of another. The local unit bank has always been part and parcel of the communities where it lives—and no system can last which does not make it a major principle of operating technique to serve, and not exploit, the communities into whose business lives it enters."

Sheriff W. T. Sarrels and County Attorney French Robertson attended to business in Eastland last week.

Mrs. Eugene Hunter and son Haskell are visiting Mrs. Hunter's sisters, Mrs. Granville Glenn and Mrs. Cecil Lancaster of Big Spring. They will be in Big Spring for about three weeks.

"Sarah and Son" Graced by Famed Talkie Voice

The voice which English dramatic critics acclaimed as the "most perfect ever projected from a London talking screen" will be heard at the Texas Theatre when the Paramount romance-drama, "Sarah and Son" is shown there.

Gilbert Emery is the possessor of the voice. He made a notable talking debut in "Behind That Curtain," and now he is appearing in one of the main supporting roles in "Sarah and Son."

Emery is cast as John Ashmore, the wealthy man who, with his childless wife, adopts the infant child of Sarah Storm (played by Ruth Chatterton) after Sarah's malicious husband steals the baby away from her in an hour of inebriate revenge.

The plot concerns Sarah's struggle upward from poverty and obscurity. Fired by the ambition to regain her young son she braves the buffetings of an unsympathetic world and at last achieves personal success. How she retrieves her son from the intriguing foster-parents provides the stirring emotion-swept climax of the picture.

Freddie March supports Miss Chatterton in the leading male romantic role. Others in the cast are Fuller Melish, Jr., Doris Lloyd, William Stack and Philippe de Lacy.

Fourth of July Picnic at Irby

There will be a picnic at the hall in the Irby community, July 4th. Dinner will be served at 1 o'clock. Candidates will speak and there will be a baseball game between Irby and Douglas and a big game at night. Every one is cordially invited to be present. Bring a well filled basket.

C. E. Braye has accepted a position with a Motor Company in Detroit and expects to move to that city in the near future.

Judge and Mrs. P. D. Sanders who have been visiting their son in Detroit, Michigan for the past three weeks are expected home Friday.

Growth of Banking Education

DENVER, Colo.—At the American Institute of Banking convention held here last month the growth in the effort among bank employees to provide themselves with banking education was shown by the fact, as reported by one speaker, that 12 years ago the institute had 50 study chapters, today 208, and that its enrollment in the study courses had grown from 11,000 to 45,000, or an increase of over 300 per cent. The graduates number nearly 14,000. The institute is the educational section of the American Bankers Association through which bank workers are given instruction in theoretical and practical subjects relating to their business.
