FORTY-FOURTH YEAR

DISTRICT COURT IN SESSION THIS WEEK; SEVERAL CASES TRIED

The trial of criminal cases has occupied the most of the week in district court in session here for six-weeks September term, and number of cases have been disposed of to date.

Cooper, former Rochester man, was acquitted by a jury in district court Tuesday evening on charge of arson in connection with the burning in the fall of 1928 the Farmers Gin Company office at Rochester. The trial occupied Monday and Tuesday of this week, the case going to the jury Tuesday afternoon. Defense attorneys were Stiff & Ratliff, with District Attorney Clyde Griscom conducting prosecution. The jury in this case was composed of R. C. Lowe, Ernest Sloan, E. R. Wilson, W. Z. Cheek, L. E. Newton, Wallace Cox, Claud Bland, J. D. Cunningham, W. A. Cameron, W. E. and J. C. Halliburton.

BONEHEAD CLUB ORGANIZE RED CROSS CHAPTER TUESDAY

A chapter of the American Red Cross was organized at Tuesday's meeting of the Bonehead Club, every member joining and paying a year's dues to the chapter. This step was taken in order that Haskell county could receive aid from the national organization, which, it was stated, would allow 2,000 bushels of wheat to our county on the provision that a chapter be organized in the county.

Only two members were absent from Tuesday's meeting, and benches were filled again, was the warning issued by the club president. The Boneheads were inspired by a talk by O. E. Patterson, guest for the meeting, who complimented the organization on their accomplishments. Plans for the trip next Thursday boosting the coming fair were discussed, and a call issued to all citizens of Haskell who will join the Boneheads next Thursday Oct. 9th for an all-day trip boosting the fair. Everyone who can possibly go is urged to join the gang—Haskell's Municipal Band will be on hand—and a sure-enough good will trip is the intention. If you care to go, notify any member of the Bonehead Club, and proper regalia will be arranged for you.

Several committee reports were heard at the meeting, indicating that the club activities are well in hand and making progress.

Courtney Hunt and C. M. Hunt of Rochester attended business in Dallas last weekend.

Lake Creek School Term of 1930-31 Opens October 27

In a recent meeting of the school board and teachers of the Lake Creek School, it was decided to open that school on October 27. All patrons are urged to enter their children on that date. Mrs. Iva Palmer of Munday is principal, and Mrs. William Woodson of Haskell, and Miss Ruth Rice of Knox City are assistants. A carefully planned program has been arranged and with the co-operation of each patron this can be made a very successful school year. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simmons, who have been in California for the past few weeks for Mrs. Simmons's health have returned, and reports are that Mrs. Simmons condition is somewhat improved.

Since fire alarms have become so commonplace in Haskell, members of the local fire department have become accustomed to almost any kind of a blaze, but when an alarm came in Tuesday night and the boys reached the scene—the home of one of our colored residents—they found not the house, but the storm cellar blazing away right smartly. We believe this is the first instance of such a fire since the department was organized, and though the boys were somewhat stumped they soon had the fire extinguished with only a slight property damage.

Local Firemen to Furnish Decorating for Fair This Year

The Haskell Volunteer Fire Department have purchased several hundred dollars worth of flags and decorating material, and will decorate the business houses of the town for Fair Week this year. Heretofore the decorating has been done by out of town firms, and the decision of the local organization to do this work has met with the hearty approval of business men and the Fair Association.

THURSDAY OCT. 16 WICHITA FALLS DAY AT HASKELL FAIR

Our big sister city, Wichita Falls, "The City That Faith Built" (along with plenty of hard work on the part of a bunch of the most progressive business men in Texas) we are informed are coming to Haskell Fair plenty strong and are to not only take over the fair park, but Haskell as well on Thursday, Oct. 16th, the opening day of the Exposition.

Wichita Falls never does anything half way and when the Fair Association was informed that they were making arrangements and would make an assault on us that day gladly and appreciatively have turned the city and park over to these West Texans who will be right at home with a real Rodeo, Indian War Dance and Mexican Bull Fight for their entertainment.

REPORT OF WTCC DROUGHT COMMITTEE AT WASHINGTON

On behalf of the West Texas drouth area, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce committee, in four days time, held conferences in Washington with the following: (a) U. S. Federal Reserve Board, represented by Eugene Meyer, its Governor.

(b) U. S. Department of Agriculture, represented by C. E. Farrell, Extension Department.

(c) U. S. Federal Farm Loan Board, represented by Paul Bestor, Chairman and the following members: John Guill, L. J. Pettijohn, A. C. Williams, Geo. R. Cookey, Floyd R. Harrison.

(d) U. S. Farm Board, represented by Alexander Legge, its Chairman, J. C. Stone, Vice Chairman, and members, Carl Williams, C. B. Denman, Chas. C. Teague, William F. Schilling, Chas. S. Wilson and Samuel R. McKelvie, C. O. Moser, Vice President of the American Cotton Co-Operative Assn. was also present with the others.

As a result of the above conferences and at the suggestion of Alexander Legge, arrangements were made in order to hear our committee. This was an unusual conference, called after working hours in Washington at 5:30 p. m. and lasted until after 7:00 p. m. Those present in addition to the above mentioned departments and officials were Arthur M. Hyde, Secretary of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Henry M. Robinson, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the National Drouth Relief Committee, Lynn P. Tally, Governor District No. 11, Federal Reserve Bank, Dr. Joseph D. Davis, Chief Economist, Federal Farm Loan Board and others.

In addition, Mr. Amos G. Carter, Chairman of our committee, personally appealed to President Hoover and Secretary of the Treasury, Andrew Mellon.

The objects of the committee and of our conferences were: 1. To secure a production loan through the intermediate credit bank.

2. To get the Federal Farm Board to aid us through the Co-operative Association in organizing our agricultural credit corporations.

3. To obtain a more liberal policy in granting freight rate reductions to more of our counties and to get fuel listed as an item of reduction.

4. To create sentiment for legislation for drouth relief production loans at the December session of Congress.

5. To impress the necessity of extension of interest payments on land obligations due the Federal Land Bank, and also to impress the necessity of allocation of federal deposits in banks in our territory.

As a result of our conferences, arrangements were made for a joint meeting between officials of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, and the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, together with representatives of our West Texas Committee. At the conclusion of this meeting, a definite policy should be announced with reference to discounting agricultural paper at both of these institutions.

A meeting will also be held with the Texas Cotton Co-Operative Association with reference to planning credit corporations. The Federal Farm Board wants the recommendation of the Texas Cotton Co-Operative Association before acting upon the appropriation of money for our credit corporations.

SIX MONTHS OLD INFANT IS BURNED TO DEATH SUNDAY

Funeral Services Mary Ruth Rogers Monday Afternoon

Funeral services for Mary Ruth the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rogers, were held Monday afternoon at the home of J. M. Perry in this city. Rev. H. R. Whately, pastor of the First Baptist Church, conducted the simple and beautiful services, with interment following in Willow cemetery, where the little grave was literally covered with floral offerings.

Mary Ruth Rogers was born March 14, 1930, and was six months and fifteen days old when her tragic death occurred last Sunday afternoon. And although her stay on earth was brief, her memory will forever remain with loved ones who are left behind in mourning. The sincere sympathy of our entire citizenship goes out to the bereaved ones in their dark hour of sorrow.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO EXHIBITORS OF LIVESTOCK

All those that contemplate exhibiting both dairy and beef cattle at the Haskell County Fair this year, October 16-17-18 are requested to bring in their stock on the 14th and 15th so that they may be properly tested. The Fair Association will have a state veterinarian on the ground. This is a state law and must be conformed to and the Association will appreciate this co-operation so that we may have a real livestock exhibition this year. It will do everything in its power to make everything satisfactory to both the department and the exhibitor.

RED CROSS QUOTA FOR THE COUNTY IS SET AT $1,000.00

At a meeting held recently between local business men and representatives of the American Red Cross for the purpose of determining just what steps must be taken in order for Haskell county to receive aid from the national organization, a quota of $1,000 in subscriptions was set for the county. This sum was apportioned as follows: Haskell, $500.00, Rule, $300.00, Sagerton, $100.00, and Weinert, $100.00. It was explained by Red Cross representatives that this quota should be raised as soon as possible, in order that any relief measures thought necessary for this immediate territory could be planned and put into effect.

Haskell county was allotted 2,000 bushels of wheat at this time. This wheat is to be distributed among needy farmers for fall sowing in order to provide winter pasturage for livestock. It was pointed out that this allotment would represent an expenditure of $2,000 in the county, in other words, the county will receive $200 from the national organization for each dollar the county raises on its quota.

The first step toward securing any relief from the Red Cross was the organization of a local chapter of not less than twenty-five members in order that work might be started toward raising the county's quota of $1,000. At Tuesday's meeting of the Bonehead Club, as is stated elsewhere, twenty-six members were secured, assuring the formation of a local chapter, and a campaign toward raising the quota for Haskell county will be inaugurated in the near future.

The following officers and directors of the local chapter are announced: Courtney Hunt, County Chairman. E. L. Daugherty, Secretary.

Directors: R. J. Reynolds, R. C. Montgomery, O. E. Patterson, Haskell; E. J. Cloud and A. A. Bradford of Rule; Alvy Couch and Pitzer Baker of Weinert; and Doren Brown of Rochester.

One of the most deplorable tragedies ever to happen in Haskell occurred last Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, when little Mary Ruth Rogers, 6-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rogers, was burned to death in a fire which partially destroyed their home in the east part of town.

Mrs. Rogers had left the infant asleep in a baby carriage near an oil stove which was burning in the kitchen, and had gone across the street to the home of a neighbor for only a few minutes, leaving her husband and a two-year-old son asleep in another room of the house. The lit stove exploded, spreading the flames through the room, and probably causing instant death to the sleeping infant. Mr. Rogers awakened after the room in which he was sleeping was filled with smoke, and after carrying his son from the house and learning that the baby was still in the burning building, was severely burned about the face and hands in futile attempts to save the infant. After firemen had partially extinguished the flames, the body of the baby was found and carried from the building by Fireman Hays. Word of the tragedy quickly spread throughout the city, bringing sadness to the hearts of everyone.

The fire was extinguished within a short time, but practically all the household effects were destroyed, and the loss on the house will be considerable.

2,268 BALES OF COTTON GINNED IN THE COUNTY

There were 2,268 bales of cotton ginned in Haskell county from the crop of 1930 prior to Sept. 16, as compared with 597 bales ginned to the same date last year. In the above totals, round bales are counted as half bales.

We Share Our Profits With Our Customers

Why not? We are buying our goods for less and can well afford to sell for less. It is not necessary that we make our year's profit during the three Fall months. We have kept our volume up through the summer months by selling our good friends and customers on time. We took care of them at a time they needed it—Now we don't have any hesitancy in telling our customers that we expect them to stay with us, and that we can afford to and are making prices on new, clean merchandise, as low as any legitimate concern can sell them.

Head and Back Quit Hurting

"A few years ago, I found that I was very weak and nothing I ate seemed to give me any strength," writes Mrs. R. B. Douglas, 704 South Congress St., Jackson, Miss.

"I suffered intense pain in my head and back. At times I would have to hold to something to steady myself, so as to do my little work. I was worried about my condition."

"My mother told me that I should take Cardui. After taking two bottles, I felt stronger, but I kept on taking it until my head and back quit hurting. I took about six bottles in all, and have never quit praising Cardui."

Berean Class, "The Class of Southern Hospitality."

It is a good idea to stop about a year, and take stock of your year. Just find out what are the bad points, and what are the good points, where may this be remedied, where may that be remedied. It is something that in common knowledge, every one knows that; yet we all don't do it. But when we don't find any bad points, it is still a good thing to do; so that we may know just where we stand. That is what the Berean Class is done: just kinda took stock, didn't reorganize, no, not by a long shot. We didn't need anything that. We just elected the new officers for the ensuing year. Some of them are new, and some of them are re-elections. But we are very proud of the ones we chose, and are sure that we are ready to do the biggest work that we have ever done before. So you just stand off there somewhere and watch our smoke, for we are out for big game.

Here are the officers we put to work:

Teacher—Mr. Grady Harcrow.
 Assistant Teacher—Dr. Ammons.
 President—Rogers Gilstrap.
 First Vice President—Bailey Taylor.
 2nd. Vice President—Elsie Whately.
 Third Vice President—Rex Pelker.
 Recording Secretary—Clyde Edwards.

Ross H. D. Club.

The Ross H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. H. J. Cloer last Friday afternoon with ten members and Demonstration Agent, Miss Partlow, present. After the business session, which included a very interesting demonstration on Refinishing Furniture. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Bert Davis Oct. 10 in the morning instead of the afternoon as usual as Miss Partlow promised to be present to help select and judge products for the fair and other purposes. Each member is urged to bring the things they have for the fair and also to co-operate with the secretary in filling out the year book record.

Business Men's Bible Class Meet Officers.

Jossett H. D. Club Meets.

The club women met in the home of Mrs. G. R. Couch on Sept. 23, with 11 members present. We also had with us our agent, Miss Partlow, and she gave a very interesting demonstration on the Refinishing of Furniture. From this lesson we all got some good ideas on painting and re-varnishing. We will meet next in the home of Mrs. Noble Henry, October 7th. We want all members to be present and we also especially invite Roberts Club to be with us.

Mrs. J. U. Fields and Mrs. F. T. Sanders attended a Missionary Society meeting in Tuxedo last week, where Mrs. Fields spoke to the ladies about her trip to Europe. This week these ladies attended a luncheon given by friends in Goree.

Cemetery Association.

The Cemetery Association will operate two booths during the fair, one in the vacant building on the north side of the square, and one on the south east corner of the court house lawn.

Everyone is urged to send donations of chickens, bread, pies and sugar; live chickens can be sent to Jones, Cox & Co. where a coop will be kept in which to put them.

Everyone is urged to patronize booths. The Association is with out funds with which to carry on the work.

The Association will meet with Mrs. R. B. Fields next Tuesday at 3 o'clock. Every one is urged to attend.

Haskell Texas

An Open Letter Regarding the Highway Situation in Sagerton

Sagerton, Texas, Sept. 30, 1930.
Editor Haskell Free Press, Haskell, Texas.

With reference to the Highway program in this county, it appears to many of the citizens that things are very much "messed up" especially with Highway Nos. 18 and 51—I wish to call the attention of the citizens to a few facts with reference to said highways.

Published in some of our county papers just prior to some of our county campaigns and which delegates met at Haskell and made the following agreement: "Highway No. 30 to be built from North County line via Weimer and Haskell to South County line near Stamford; Highway No. 18 starting at the South boundary line of Haskell County—passing through the town of Sagerton—continuing on to the West boundary line of said county—Highway No. 51 starting at the North boundary line of Haskell County passing through the towns of O'Brien, Rochester, Rule and Sagerton—Highway No. 120 starting at East boundary line of Haskell County—passing through the towns of Haskell and Rule to the West boundary line of said County."

The above is a matter of record of the Commissioners' Court. At that time no one had the slightest idea but what the above would be carried out. In all elections held for county wide issue of road bonds, since this order was passed, most all the voters in Haskell County cast their ballot under the impression that the Court would keep faith. This impression on the voters' minds influenced many votes for the issue that would have voted against. So as I see it things are terribly "messed up" by somebody, a big mistake having been made some where. We call attention to the fact that in a circular issued by the Good Roads Committee out of Haskell which in parts says this "waste will be reduced to a minimum under the direction and supervision of expert engineers furnished by the State and Federal governments, also it is the plan to have an advisory committee selected from the different Precincts of the County, to work with the County officials without pay to supervise the selling of the bonds and a spending of the money to the best advantage."

All the above record had its influence in securing votes sufficient to put the county wide election over. Back to the "mess" it appears to have highway No. 18 in. I have been informed that the Commissioners have left every thing up to our County Judge to secure the right-of-way. As indicated by the route selected and approved by the State Highway Department at Austin. Well, the Judge did not come to Sagerton, I don't think the Judge has been to Sagerton since he was here and told us that No. 18 would come thru Sagerton and No. 51 would intersect No. 18 at Sagerton. So Mr. Bernard comes down to see about the right-of-way. Some two or three land owners could not agree with Mr. Bernard as to damages and then the Judge appoints three men and they come down and could come to no agreement with the parties who owned the property. The contract was let by the State routed thru Sagerton. So the Judge and Mr. Bernard decided they wanted this right-of-way so bad that they commenced condemnation proceedings. That is they were going to take it by law as they had authority to do. So they go to Court in order to get the title to their right-of-way and after having the Court, thru three different juries, ask for by them and judgment entered in favor of said property owners for nearly two thousand five hundred dollars more than these people offered to settle with them for. These juries were honorable men and taxpayers of our county. The Judge I understand has said that he would fight this matter thru the highest Courts of resort I do not know how far the Judge can go in the higher Courts to undo a matter that has been put in and secured in the lower Courts. The citizens of Sagerton, some of them, have all the capital they have invested in this town, feel that if this road messes their town they will be greatly damaged. They have no connection and are not responsible for present disagreement with reference to the right-of-way they have no connection at all. They do not care which way the road comes, just so it comes thru Sagerton. Everybody understands that there are efforts being made in the face of these facts exposed above and statements made by Judge Ely himself. I cannot believe the Highway Commissioners are a party to the routing of Highway 18 around Sagerton. The Judge and Mr. Bernard secured in the Court just what they asked for. It appears from the Judge's statement that they are going to spend the taxpayers money to hire legal counsel in an effort in the higher Courts to undo and get away from just the very thing that they commenced themselves and secured thru the lower Court and that is title to the right-of-way for Highway No. 18 thru the town of Sagerton. The whole thing looks ridiculous to me and like child's play to route this road so as to miss the town of Sagerton just because three different juries in three different cases, all tax payers and good citizens of our County, awarded near two thousand five hundred dollars more (in the three cases asked for and condemned by the Judge and Mr. Bernard or advised by them) than the parties would have accepted and did offer to convey title for. We don't care what route the road passes thru Sagerton just so it comes thru our town. Suppose Sagerton would resort to injunction proceedings to compel the building of this road thru the town and suppose the people who have already signed contracts to build this thru the town would feel like they were damaged by reason of changing the route and resort to the court. However no such thought as injunction has ever entered the minds of the people of Sagerton.

It is only mentioned by me to show where such course as is being pursued might lead. We have confidence that in due time the Commissioners of the four Precincts in this County call a halt of the tactics being employed to have Highway No. 18 re-routed so as to miss the town of Sagerton.

The voters of Road District No. 7 understood and it was so stated by Judge Jones and Mr. Menefee, Chairman of the Good Roads Committee, Haskell County, these gentlemen went so far as to deliver a message they had from Judge Ely, to this effect, that Highway No. 51 would connect with Highway No. 18 at Sagerton, and the voters of Road District No. 7 accepted their statements in good faith and gave a handsome majority vote in favor of the county wide bond issue.

Respectfully,
W. P. Caudie.

Night football will have its premiere in this section of West Texas during the current season, according to a report from the West Texas Utilities Company, which has installed lighting equipment on two fields during the past month.

Installation at Parramore Field, Simmons University, Abilene, is practically complete and the first game on the Cowboy's schedule will be played under the incandescents. Chesley Field at Cisco will also stage night games during the current season, its equipment being recently completed.

At Parramore Field, ten sixty foot poles have been erected, five to each side of the gridiron. Two 2500 watt units are mounted on each pole, giving the playing field a combined wattage of 250,000 watts.

At Chesley Field, Cisco, four sixty foot poles line each side of the field. Lighting units on each pole provide illumination for the playing field.

A white football is used for the night games, which increases visibility of the play. According to West Texas Utilities Company lighting experts, the games will be easier to follow than regular day time games, and it is expected that attendance will be greatly increased through offering the contests at night when more people are able to attend.

MATINEE—At Texas Theatre from now on every Tuesday and Thursday at 3:30 o'clock. Saturday matinee as usual. Matinee every day during Fair.

Mr. Aron G. Carter was spokesman for our committee. On every occasion he most forcefully and ably presented West Texas' cause. Mr. R. E. Harding, President of the Fort Worth National Bank, assisted Mr. Carter most effectively. Senators Sheppard and Connally and Congressmen Jones and Garner accompanied our committee to all conferences and made the trip to Washington especially to assist in our cause. HASKELL'S VOLUNTEER FIRE BOYS

(By E. Gaston Foote)

No group of men get so little credit and deserve so much as those who are members of a volunteer fire department. They perform the highest type of community service, namely, service without pay. More than that it is usually a service without honor.

Our fire boys respond to the fire alarm at any hour of the day or night. They have their business just as does the average citizen but their business will wait until they have done all they can to discharge their duty in case of a fire. This may cost them, both in time and money, but they gladly do it FOR US and for nothing. They need their rest at night just as the average citizen needs it, but if the fire alarm sounds, they are among the first out of bed and to the fire. They seem to be gladly willing to make personal sacrifices for OUR protection. They do it FOR US and for nothing.

Fire boys risk their health and sometimes their lives in fighting fires. With drenched clothes and unusual exposure to cold and sickness sometimes results. Not infrequently the terrific heat of a fire lists their faces and hands. And practically every daily paper will tell the story of a bodily injury sustained through fighting fires. Citizens of Haskell ought to appreciate the work of their volunteer fire department. They protect our property and our homes. They help keep a low fire rate for the city which means thousands of dollars saved to the citizenship. We believe in giving credit where credit is due. And much credit is due our volunteer fire fighters. They are working FOR US and for nothing.

Senior B. Y. P. U. Social Committee Entertains.

The Senior B. Y. P. U. Social Committee entertained the Senior Union Wednesday night with a Tramp Party at the Baptist Church, and demonstrated their ability along such lines to the extent of bringing forth unrestrained praise from those in attendance. On arriving at the church we were informed that all traps who wanted something to eat must go to the back door. As we entered the back door we were given our name, and cordially invited to act naturally. This we did with unmistakable zest. After a number of very fast and exciting games in which the characteristics of hobos were freely demonstrated, we reached that climax of the evening in which we had all been looking forward to: the refreshments. That is the most interesting part in the life of a hobo, anyway. We were served sandwiches and cocoa, after which we very freely gave our stamp of approval to the evening and sojourning to our various homes.

Those who enjoyed this evening of pleasure were: Misses Francis Walling, Mattie Muri Walling, Lucile Gilstrap, Norma Gilstrap, Emma Grace Harcrow, Vannie Lee Marrs, Virginia Sills, Lois Stoker, Anna Manu Taylor, Kate Darnell, Lillian Lewellen and Messrs. Floyd Taylor, Carl Arbuckle, Gilbert Wilson, Clyde Edwards, Rod Clifton, Rex Felker, Robert Goodwin, Jessie Goodwin, Elzie Whately, R. H. Moser, and Dr. Ammons. The Sponsors were: Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Whately, Mrs. W. P. Trice, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Holland and Mrs. Alfred Pierson.

The writer has had to remember the names of the guests off-hand, and if there are any he has missed he offers his apologies.

MITZI GREEN STEALS "IT" AND GETS A BIG LAUGH

Imitations have won Mitzi Green a place in the sun and yet there is no other little nine-year-old girl in the world quite like her. Mitzi imitates the older folks and her latest specialty is Clara Bow, the red-headed "It" star. Mitzi is cast as Clara's little sister in the "It" girl's latest musical romance, "Love Among the Millionaires," the Texas Theatre feature for next Monday and Tuesday and what Mitzi did in "Honey" is nothing to what she does to Clara. And the youngster has a song all her own in "Love Among the Millionaires," called "Don't Be a Meanie." Mitzi won headline billing over the leading vaudeville circuits before entering upon her motion picture career just with her imitations. She has mimicked Charlie Mack of Moran and Mack, Maurice Chevalier and Helen Kane. She's got a new angle on Clara.

SCREEN FANS GREET "THE SOPHOMORE"

Discriminating film fans will find much to quench their thirst for real screen comedy at the Texas theatre, where the latest Pathe dialogue picture, "The Sophomore," will be Oct. 8 and 9. With Eddie Quillan, Sally O'Neill, Jeanette Loff, Russell Gleason, Stanley Smith and a host of other popular youngsters in the more important parts, this humorous story of modern college life will prove itself one of the most popular talking pictures shown at this theatre this season.

Haskell Baptists

9:45 a. m. Sunday School. With out a doubt the Sunday school is doing the greatest work of its history. The teaching force is growing in knowledge and spirituality. You may go to a city church, but you will not find a greater set of teachers than we have in the Haskell Baptist church. If you stay at home on Sundays, you are sleeping on your rights, mistreating your family and missing an opportunity of a life time. We urge you to attend this hour of Bible study.

11:00 a. m. "WHAT SHOULD BE OUR ATTITUDE TOWARD PEOPLE WHO HAVE WRONGED US?"

This will be our subject for the Sunday morning service. This should be a helpful service. There are people in every church who have a hard time forgiving other members when they do them a personal injury. God's word tells us just how to deal with a sinning brother. Please invite your neighbor to attend this service. We will not try to make the service embarrassing, but we do expect to make it plain. You will be more interested in the service if you will read Matt. 18:18-35.

6:30 p. m. THE TRAINING SERVICE OF THE CHURCH IN SESSION. The value of B. Y. P. U. work is dawning upon our membership. It is the honest opinion of the writer that an hour spent in B. Y. P. U. work is of more value than the same time spent in Sunday School. It is here that you take part and learn to serve.

7:30 p. m. Sermon, subject: "THE SPIRITUAL DEBT THE HASKELL BAPTIST CHURCH OWES TO THE UNPAID OF OUR COUNTRY."

We owe a spiritual debt to God and the unpaied of our country that should be paid. For one I am ready to pay that debt. The time will come when it will be too late to pay. May this service be a time for consecration and new resolutions.

Tribute to a Great General

Gen. John J. Pershing received many greetings on his recent 70th birthday. The American people will never forget this great leader of men.

It has been the history of all wars, that they provoke an endless amount of dispute. While there was an enormous amount of complaint about the management of part in the war, yet the management of our army in France was largely exempt from such attack. Gen. Pershing led the army on to brilliant success, where our hastily trained divisions astonished the armies with a minimum of friction and fault finding. The man at the head of this smoothly working military machine must have been a great genius.

Why Trade Drifts Away

There is much complaint nowadays, in towns like Haskell, because so much trade is going to the larger cities, either through personal shopping or to mail order houses. Much is accomplished for home town trade by appeals to people to stand by their home enterprises, and yet such appeals alone will not save this business.

To hold trade, business concerns have to be very modern in their methods. They should study the systems of the concerns that get the trade that is thus pulled away. Such study and imitation thereof, would do a lot more to save that trade than mere complaint about it. The concern that gives modern service, that provides a pleasing place of business with an attractive stock at fair prices, and that advertises the same, will not have to worry about trade drifting away.

Home Town Thoughts

The young men who travel all over the country seeking their fortune, frequently overlook it in their home towns.

In former years, trade could be drawn as far as people could travel comfortably with a horse. In these times it can be drawn as far as they can travel comfortably with an automobile.

Trade can be drawn from a distance now, but it will not come of its own accord. There has to be advertising pulling it.

Business In Changing Days

One of the striking changes of modern times, is the tendency of people to move around from place to place. They do not stay put in one town the way they used to. Populations are very shifting. The residents of most towns are a different set of people from what they were five years before, and they will be quite different in five years from now.

To meet these changes in populations, business concerns have to do much more to call the attention of the public to their service. Years ago when people settled down in one community and lived there all their lives, they became more familiar with the business places of their home towns. To-day, when the population of any town and its surrounding country includes a large element of people who have lived there only a short time, long established business records do not go so far.

When a new family moves into a locality, the first thing they are interested in is to decide where to go for their supplies. They buy the newspaper of near by trade centers, to get some idea of the business of the place. They study the advertising in those newspapers, and they are apt to patronize the places that show the most enterprise in their advertising.

The fact that some concerns had been in business there for a long time would not mean so much to them. If such a concern failed to use advertising, while a newly established one advertised freely, their tendency would be to look at the advertised store as showing the most enterprise and push, and hence they would be likely to patronize that store.

A retail store needs to do a lot of advertising to catch the trade of the newcomers, people who have recently moved into the near by and outlying country, and young folks who are just setting out to buying things for themselves.

Sunday Schools
 All over the country Sunday Schools are opening up, and again the children are summoned to come in and learn the profound truths of religion and of conduct. Unfortunately, the Sunday School can not use just the same methods that promote success in a public school. A boy who is disposed to make trouble can be subjected to severe discipline in the public school, but if the Sunday school tries the same method, the parents may become angered and encourage the boy to quit.

In spite of this handicap, the Sunday schools have had a great influence. Even if the pupils would not list to the lessons, or make any effort to learn, yet somehow the generous influence of a self sacrificing teacher has had its effect.

Rowdyish children who come into a class to create a disturbance, would better be sent home. Their unrestrained insolence is bad for themselves and for the other children.

Teachers who fail to hold such children, however, should ask if their own methods may not need changing. Moving pictures dealing with religious subjects have helped many Sunday schools. Many truths can be sugar coated and made palatable by putting them in story form. The young folks will always listen to a story.

Some churches find it necessary to engage professionally trained teachers and pay for this service. But if parents will co-operate heartily, and insist that their children take a helpful attitude, if teachers will interest themselves in the things that interest the young folks, Sunday schools can be successfully conducted with unpaid workers.

Sunday school teachers feel amply rewarded for their effort by the contact with young people, by the friendship they form, and by the gratitude of the community which they have earned.

Indian Summer
 A most charming time of year, those autumn days when the sun brightly into the calm peace of a quiet landscape. Such days have traditionally been called "Indian Summer". The indolent red man, it was said, failed to cultivate their gardens as they should through the summer and depended in an improvident way on warm fall days to ripen the same.

Indian summer days have a certain treachery, since they may end with killing frosts. But while they last, they bring earth closer to heaven.

Let us forget the coming winter and enjoy the mellowness of the season, when nature having brought forth her marvellous product, sinks back to rest in quiet triumph. There is a peace about these soft and sunny days that the heat of summer or toilsome ambitions of springtime never brings. It is eventide, a kind of glorious sunset crowning Nature's summer achievements.

Live Towns

People always say that they like to live in a "live" town, and dislike to stay in a "dead" one. What constitutes a live town?

A live town is one where people are willing to adopt modern ideas. They keep up with the times. If they find that other places of similar size and wealth are having certain advantages, they make an effort to obtain the same things. They push their business with modern ideas, and have faith enough in their home communities to invest money and effort in them. A town like that is going to become more prosperous, and grow in wealth and population.

Every Little Cell In Your System Says Thanks For Nourishment

You've seen "flowers in the rain, lift up their heads again". Well! that's how it is with hungry little cells when you answer their cry for food. At first the call is a whisper; you're just a little restless, or languid and tired. This happens at mid-meal hours; around 10-2 & 4 o'clock. Go then. Don't wait. Drink a bite to eat and see how much better you'll feel.

A little nourishment at such a time tides you over 'til another meal; puts an edge on your brain and body; picks you up and puts you "on your toes." Try it... at regular hours... for just one week. No kidding! It works. Not a thing in it can harm you. It's one good habit to get. It won't get you.

Is The Value Of Your Home Slipping Too Rapidly?

A home represents one of the most sizeable investments made by the average family. When it is permitted to become old-fashioned, or run-down and shabby, the owners are allowing their investment to slip away. On the other hand, keeping the home modern and attractive is preserving the full value of the investment.

Such improvements as refinishing the exterior of the home with a light-tinted stucco, adding a room, building a sanitary concrete basement and putting down concrete sidewalks and driveways will often make a modern home out of an old house.

This is a good time to bring old buildings up to date at an exceedingly reasonable cost. Ask your building material dealer, architect or contractor for suggestions on modernizing.

The Electric Man Recommends Safety and Convenience Lighting

"Do you know, I think one of the most convenient uses of lighting is the garage light, the driveway light and the yard light.

"More than likely you've noticed this type of lighting equipment, and have made up your mind to install it at some future date.

"Don't deny yourself such an important convenience—when it costs so little. Under the new rate system, this lighting is possible at a cost of only 4c per kilowatt-hour—3c where service is also used for heating or cooking—and will increase your monthly bill only a few cents; not enough to counterbalance the advantages of good lighting.

"With the new Home Comfort rate, your normal use of service should absorb the first two rates, placing all additional consumption on the low rate.

"You are sure to appreciate the many advantages that Safety and Convenience Lighting will bring you—and now at such low cost, you cannot afford to be without these advantages."

C. O. D. Parcels To Be Returned After 15 Days

Any collect-on-delivery parcel which the addressee fails to remove from the post office within fifteen days from the first attempt to deliver or the first notice of arrival at the office of address may be returned to the sender, charged with the return postage, whether or not such parcel bears any specified time limit for delivery; and a demurrage charge of not exceeding five cents per day may be collected when delivery has not been made to either the addressee or the sender until after the expiration of the prescribed period. If the addressee wants the C. O. D. parcel after the fifteen-day limit has expired, it will be necessary for him to pay the accumulated demurrage charges in addition to the regular C. O. D. charges. The demurrage day will consist of the 21 hours which elapse from midnight of one day to midnight of the next day, standard time. Demurrage will be charged on C. O. D. articles mailed on or after October 1, 1930, and not on C. O. D. articles mailed prior to that date. No demurrage will be charged while C. O. D. articles are in transit between post offices, nor will any demurrage be charged on C. O. D. articles bearing return requests of senders limiting the retention period at post offices to 15 days or less. All parcels undelivered will be returned at the expiration of time limit specified by the sender or, if no time is given, within fifteen days. If additional information or explanation is needed in regard to this ruling of the Postmaster General, the post office clerks or the postmaster here will be glad to render the assistance.

H. C. Foote, Postmaster.
