Inquiries are coming in about the Trail Ride to be sponsored by the Silverton Volunteer Fire Department in April, and the Antique Tractor Show the firemen are to sponsor the weekend before the rodeo in August received the endorsement of the Texas Plains Chapter Two-Cylinder Club members at their noon meeting in Lubbock last Saturday.

It will help guarantee the success of these two events if you will continue to pass the word among those you know who live elsewhere who are interested in either or both of these. The Trail Ride is an event of the Briscoe County Centennial, but it could become an annual project if it receives adequate public support. The ride probably would take place on a different ranch each year, and would open a lot of country to those who enjoy riding.

The Antique Tractor Show will be open to anyone who has an old implement he or she would like to show. Anyone who has a classic car or truck to show also is invited to take part. The firemen will have the concession stand open for the tractor show.

If you would be willing to open your home to some of those who come from out of town for the tractor show, please call us at 823-2333 so we can put your name on the list of places to stay. This will be by reservation only, and how many you would keep would be up to you. We need a complete list to include in the next round of publicity.

Help us promote our hometown by taking part in all the events of the centennial.

Deadline is Monday For Valentine Page

Monday, February 10, is the deadline for getting your little Valentines in the special section of the Briscoe County News this year.

McNuggets to customers around the world.

Campbell Soup Co. spent part of the $450,000 it got from the government to remind the people of Japan, Korea, Argentina and Taiwan to have a V-8 juice. Joseph E. Seagram and Sons touted its Four Roses whiskey in Europe and the Far East with $146,000 from the department.

The three companies are among dozens of well-known corporate giants that have collected money under a USDA program to find new overseas markets for American food, candy, bourbon, wine, ginseng, cotton, mink pelts and bovine semen.

Some of the companies get millions of dollars a year, according to documents obtained by The Associated Press through the Freedom of Information Act.

The $200-million-a-year Market Promotion Program is supposed to help American farmers by promoting exports of products that contain at least 50 percent U. S. agricultural commodities.

Two-thirds of the grants in 1991 went to industry associations that conduct generic promotions for products such as strawberries, kiwis or cling peaches.

The rest went to a long list of companies to advertise their brand- See USDA —

New Additions At Jamboree

If your neighbor hasn't told you by now what you missed Saturday night, read on! Where else but Briscoe County do the local citizens donate their time and effort and handmade items like they do here? Besides the fact that we have more good musicians per capita than anywhere to keep the Jamboree going, the generosity of local and visiting persons has allowed the Jamboree to give away five or six gifts between each performance. There were so many that the donors cannot be named for fear of leaving someone out. But, everyone says it really keeps the program moving and that they don't even have time to get bored. So, "many thanks" to each of you who contributed to this or contributed to the items that were auctioned or bought an item. The proceeds from the auctioned items plus proceeds from the Jamboree's share of the books that Bob Izzard autographed and sold, more needed equipment can be purchased for the Jamboree (that the organizers have been borrowing).

Langdon Reagan recently received honorable mention on the All-State football team. In addition, he was selected as a member of the area team chosen by the Amarillo Daily News. Reagan is a senior in SHS.

Janice Hill will continue to sell the book, if you need one.

Some new features on the show will allow the young people to be a part of the show. Come next month to see what "Kid Time," "Commercial Time" and "Milking Time" are. Also, Gertie's cousin, "Flirty," is a new face on the show starring JonEtta Ziegler.

Kid Time will feature a different young person each time. So kids, get your name on the list to be on the show in the future. Trey Ziegler and friends are in charge of "commercial time".

According to some, the Jamboree gets better and better, so if you used to come and don't anymore, you might want to come next time. There will be a super program the first Saturday in March, with local 4-H square dancers, New Mexico State Champion Yodeler, banjo music, a telephone call from God, plus much more. You'll be hearing more about that later.

Kids Invited to Attend Festival in Lubbock

All children ages 5-17 are invited to an international festival, "Kids' Kaleidoscope," Saturday, February 15, from 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center Exhibit Hall. The afternoon of fun and excitement is co-sponsored by Caprock Girl Scout Council and Civic Lubbock, Inc.

Girl Scout troops and various other community organizations will set up booths where visitors may make crafts, learn about the environment, participate in experiments, see demonstrations and enjoy themselves in a myriad of other activities. There will be live entertainment on one stage, and a second stage will be available for children to sign up for a time in which to perform by themselves or with a friend.

Although there is no admission charge, everyone is urged to bring one or more cans of food to donate to the South Plains Food Bank. If they wish, children may come in the costume of a country of their choice and participate in a "Parade of Nations".

Girl Scouts are celebrating their 80th birthday this year, and are offering this event as their gift back to the communities of the South Plains. There will be a giant birthday cake, with a bite for everyone. In addition, local chefs will be making creations of Girl Scout cookies, and these will be on display at "Kids' Kaleidoscope."

Buckle Up!

When earth's last picture is painted and the tubes are twisted and dried; when the oldest colors are faded, and the youngest critic has died, we shall rest, and, faith we shall need it—lie down for an aeon or two, will the Master of all good workmen put us to work anew. And those who were good shall be happy; they shall sit in a golden chair. They shall splash at a ten-league canvas, with brushes of comet's hair. They shall find real saints to draw from—Magdalene, Peter and Paul. They shall work for an age at a sitting, and never be tired at all. And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame. And no one shall work for money and no one shall work for fame. But each for the joy of the working, and each in his separate star, shall draw the thing as he sees it, for the good of things as they are.

The breaking of a wishbone does not break a static condition. It may set the mind aright, but what about the hands and feet? Wishers and woulders are not necessarily dashers and doers, yet there is good in wishing provided it is done for the right thing and is hard enough to cause the wisher to do something about it . . . In all practicality, however, if we did not spend so much time wishing and spent that time persuing, we would not have spent so much time wishing. We would have more, and appreciate it more because we would know how we got it.

Looking over the past, we can be glad that we did not always get our wish. Now we realize we did not always know what was best for us. A very wise man once said, "If a man could have half he wishes, he would have double his trouble."

Coming together is a beginning, keeping together is progress, working together is success . . . Nothing will ever be attempted if all possible objections must first be overcome . . . Life is the flower of which love is the honey . . . Brows may wrinkle, hair will grow gray, but true friendship will never know decay . . . We must not hope to be mowers, and to gather the ripe gold ears, unless we've first been sowers, and watered the furrows with our tears.

We will find the things that made life's day were the little things along the way . . . Humans fail to love by faith, questioning God's love; we should take a lesson from the birds—trust . . . and look above.

Speak gently; tis a little thing dropped in the heart's deep well: the good, the joy that it may bring, eternity shall tell. The place you are in needs you today.

Junior High Girls Earn Victory at Hedley

The Junior High Owls and Owlettes played well, for the most part, in the Hedley Booster Club Tournament last week, but the only victory earned was that of the Owlettes over McLean on Saturday afternoon.

The Owlettes had three players score in double figures as they defeated the Lady Tiger Cubs 47-20, with all players seeing quite a bit of action and eight of them putting points on the board.

Dedra Johnston and Shannon Weaver tied for high-point honors with 12 points each, and Molly Bomar rang up 11 points. Adding to the score were Christina Stephens, five; Teri Rodgers, Vanessa Martin and Kara Kingery, two points each, and Carrie Baird, one point.

The last basket of the game was a three pointer by McLean.

Owlettes	12	27	33	47
McLean	2	6	12	20

The Owlettes opened the tournament with a 30-27 loss to Hedley. They have just five girls in junior high at Hedley and all of them play basketball and are cheerleaders. The Silverton girls started a bit slowly and had trouble hitting the baskets, but closed the gap to trail by only one point at the end of the third quarter.

Christina Stephens and Molly Bomar led the offense with eight points each. Also scoring were Dedra Johnston, four; Shannon Weaver, three from three-point range; Lori Brannon and Vanessa Martin, two points each.

Owlettes	6	14	22	27
Hedley	12	19	23	30

The second game of the tournament saw the Owlettes drop their match to Samnorwood 34-17, in another game where the girls had trouble getting their shots to fall. Christina Stephens and Dedra Johnston led the offense with six points each, Lori Brannon and Kara Kingery dropped in two points each, and Teri Rodgers added a point from the line.

Owlettes	2	4	11	17
Samnorwood	6	18	28	34

The Owls lost a close game to Hedley in the opening round after having led at the end of each quarter except the last. The boys scored just nine points in the second half after having led 20-6 at the midway stop.

Cy Comer led the team's offense with nine points and Jeremiah Brooks dropped six points in the baskets. Zach Baldwin, Arnold Garza and Brandon Sarchet caged four points each, and Zeb Holt added a pair of points for the red Owls.

Owls	20	20	25	29
Hedley	5	6	16	31

The Owls dropped their game to Samnorwood, 41-22, after trailing at the end of each quarter. Arnold Garza dropped in ten points to lead the offense, and Jeremiah Brooks and Brandon Sarchet added four points each. Cy Comer and Zach Baldwin rounded out the scoring with two points each.

Owls	9	15	17	22
Samnorwood	12	23	33	41

Cy Comer led the scoring for the Owls with a big 14-point effort in their game with McLean. Brandon Sarchet put up five points, Jeremiah Brooks added four, and Zach Baldwin and Arnold Garza put two points each on the board.

Owls	4	10	16	27
McLean	9	21	29	41

The teams will be traveling to Lazbuddie Thursday (today) for the last road trip of the season. Tipoff in the girls game is at 5:00 p.m.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company recently filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) for approval to redefine the location of the demarcation point, or demarc. The demarc is where Southwestern Bell Telephone wiring connects with customer-maintained wiring.

This request will not increase customers' service rates. This request simply changes the point within the wiring where Southwestern Bell's maintenance responsibility ends and the customer's maintenance responsibility begins. As before, customers will be able to connect their own wiring directly to Southwestern Bell's network at points up to the new demarc.

Southwestern Bell is seeking approval of this new demarc location to bring its tariff into compliance with a Federal Communications Commission Order in CC Docket 88-57.

More information will be included in customers' bills beginning February 1, 1992. Persons who wish to comment on the application should notify the PUC by March 20, 1992. Requests for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, TX 78757, or you may call the PUC Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf.

name products. Those brands include Burger King, M&M—Mars and Hershey Foods, Del Monte, Welch's and Ocean Spray Cranberries, Nabisco and Quaker Oats.

The amounts last year ranged from as little as $237 to the millions.

Pillsbury got $2.9 million to promote processed corn, Sunkist Growers won nearly $10 million to promote citrus, Gallo got about $5 million, and Dole—Dole Fresh Fruit, Dole Dried Fruit and Nut Co. and Dole Citrus—collected a total of about $3 million.

Critics question why companies with substantial advertising budgets are getting thousands of dollars from the government for promotions they would likely conduct anyway.

"This is a classic example of welfare for the rich in the worst possible way," says Rep. Dick Armey, R-Texas. "You go down the list of companies and it's hard to imagine they need a handout from the American taxpayer to market their products abroad. If McDonald's needs help in marketing . . . we are in sad shape in this country."

"Who says the budget can't be cut?" adds David Keating, executive vice president of the National Taxpayers Union. "Look here—there's too much pork, fat and sugar. It's a complete waste."

And Rod Leonard, executive director of the Community Nutrition Institute, said a company's decision to enter an overseas foreign market "never rests on whether they're able to extort a subsidy from the federal government."

"It's not an export promotion program, it's a pass-out-the-goodies program, and you have to be a big corporation to get a piece of it," he said.

A spokesman for Campbell Soup Co. said company officials believe the program has helped sell more juice and soup abroad.

"It enables us to ship products we might not otherwise be able to market," said Jim Moran from the company's headquarters in Camden, New Jersey. "The name Campbell has virtually no brand recognition overseas and this know."

Steve Censky, associate administrator of USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service, said the brand-name promotions were required by Congress in the 1990 farm bill.

Under the Market Promotion Program, industry associations generally apply for funding and then can either use the money for generic gives us the opportunity to get some brand recognition we might not otherwise get."

And since there is so much food on grocery store shelves, he said, advertising is critical because customers tend to buy the brands they promotions or divide it among various companies, which then promote their own labels. The Agriculture Department must approve each spending plan. Companies also can apply directly if there is no industry association.

McDonald's, which had annual sales of $20 billion last year, received the government money through the U. S. Poultry and Egg Export Council. The money was used for advertising, tray liners and counter displays to promote Chicken McNuggets, Censky said.

Friendship Quilters

by Nina Martin

This reporter is just about in the doghouse. I got off track during the holidays and failed to report the last three quilting meetings. The girls have done a king-sized bedspread for Nelda and Sybil's quilt will probably be nearly finished next Thursday.

Some big decisions have been made. The plans for a Briscoe County Quilting Bee in April are rolling right along. The Friendship Quilters drew Ruby McWaters' name to put up a quilt that day. The Rock Creek Club drew Margie Turner's name. The Quitaque Quilters have not been heard from yet.

Another project to be carried out is for a sampler quilt to be pieced and quilted by the time of the Centennial Celebration. This will be given away during the celebration.

Laverne brought a fan quilt that she pieced and quilted in 30 days. That is some kind of record.

The winner of February friendship blocks is Virginia. She has chosen Friendship Star.

Upcoming Workshops

There are several workshops coming up within the next month that some of you might be interested in attending.

With upcoming Centennial Celebration plans already underway, some of you might be interested in attending the Festival Workshop at College Station. This workshop is being planned so that festival managers and organizers can learn more about planning successful activities. The workshop is scheduled for February 10 through 12. This year's theme is "Keeping Your Festivals and Events on the Right Path." The program is divided into three educational tracks:

•Core—will provide information for the beginner. Workshop topics include finance and budget ideas, evaluation, volunteers, sponsorship, total marketing, administration and logistics.

•Electives—designed for those who have attended at least one workshop. Topics include risk management, sponsorship, community cooperation, interpersonal skills, as well as panel discussions on topics such as vendor fees, ticket sales and obtaining market information.

•Management Update—designed for festival and event managers who have completed two years of the workshop, giving latest information concerning the Texas Festival Industry. This session will address various problems such as waste recycling, food management and food safety.

A little closer to home a Rural Waste Management Seminar will be held Tuesday, February 11, at the Bairfield Activity Building on the campus of Clarendon College. The meeting will be from 1:00 until 3:30 p.m. Information on waste disposal regulations, agriculture chemical disposal, and other waste management issues will be discussed.

February 18, an update for HOME DAY CARE PROVIDERS will be held in the Bronze Room of the First State Bank and Trust in Memphis. The topic will be discipline and guidance of the young child. One hour credit will be given toward certification.

If you are interested in attending any of these sessions or would like further information, please contact me at the Briscoe County Extension Office, 823-2131.

Children's Storybook Published by Deere

"Centennial Surprise," a new children's storybook, is the fourth book of the "John Deere Storybooks for Little Folks" series to be published by Deere & Company. "Johnny Tractor and His Pals" and "Corny Cornpicker Finds a Home" were republished two years ago after being originally published 32 years ago. "Family Reunion," the series' third book, was published in 1989.

The story centers around Farmer Fowler, retired after 50 years of farming, who has been selected to be grand marshal of the Centennial Day Parade in 1992. Farmer Fowler's son and grandson decide that the grand marshal should drive a replica of the Froelich tractor, the ancestor of all John Deere tractors built in Waterloo, Iowa; the replica becomes the CENTENNIAL SURPRISE. The Froelich tractor is 100 years old in 1992; it was the first gasoline-powered tractor that could propel itself either forward or backward.

The book was written by Lois Hobbs, an Iowa farm housewife, and illustrated by Roy Bostrom, a retired John Deere artist.

The 8½x11-inch book features a 20-page story section with full-color illustrations and easy-to-read format for early reading levels. It will be available from John Deere dealers throughout the United States on February 1. Suggested retail price is $3.29.

February is Heart Fund Month Here

The American Heart Association, Texas Affiliate, has designated February as Heart Fund Month. Briscoe County Heart Fund Chairman Faye Rampley has received materials, and the Century of Progress Study Club will soon assist her in mailing letters to county property owners and/or residents.

Important information, a book marker, self-addressed yellow donation envelopes and memorial envelopes will be mailed for your convenience. Please read your letter from the American Heart Association. Heart disease still remains the #1 killer in Briscoe County—of the 19 county deaths last year, 10 were due to cardiovascular disease.

Your gift of any size will be used to fight this dreaded killer. A yellow envelope will be provided for you to make an initial donation while it is fresh on your mind. You may make additional donations at any time of the year by sending them to Faye Rampley, Box 597, Silvertown, TX 79257. If you wish to donate in the form of a memorial, use the special envelope, or just enclose a note with the name of the person to be memorialized and the name and complete address of the recipient. A proper card will be mailed and you will receive a receipt for your donation.

History Book Pictures Need to be Picked Up

A concerted effort is underway to return each of the many pictures that were loaned to the Briscoe County Historical Committee for use in Footprints of Time in Briscoe County, Volume II. They are being distributed from a file of manila envelopes in the County Attorney's office in the courthouse, or you may contact Johnnie Morrison if you live in Quitaque.

The committee greatly appreciates your generosity and cooperation in responding to pleas for pictures to be used in this publication and all members are greatly concerned that pictures are returned to their owners.

Please carefully check the envelope of pictures that you receive to determine whether or not you received all that you loaned for use in the book, and equally important that all pictures belong to you. If any pictures were erroneously placed in your file, please return them to the County Attorney's office immediately for proper distribution. Please be aware that some pictures furnished by the Briscoe County News were returned to families of individuals in the pictures instead of to the News office. These are easily detected and are intended for your enjoyment. You may express appreciation to Charles and Mary Ann Sarchet—as the committee does—for allowing us access to their great collection of community pictures. These pictures added much historical value to our history book.

If by chance your envelope did not contain all of your pictures, tell who you loaned them to, describe the pictures, make notations of the page numbers on which they appeared in the book and mail your letter to Briscoe County History Book, Box 299, Silvertown, TX 79257.

As published in the initial brochure, the company assumed no liability for lost pictures. They are in the business of handling pictures and although it is a possibility, they actually lose very few. Almost everyone complied with the request to identify their pictures (on the back) before submitting them for use; and with everyone's cooperation, it is hoped that all pictures will be returned to their rightful owners in due time.

Auditions Set For Musical Drama

Area auditions for the 27th season of the internationally-acclaimed musical drama "TEXAS" are scheduled Sunday, February 16, at Texas Tech University and for Saturday, February 29, in Canyon at West Texas State University.

The director needs to fill 140 salaried positions including 32 singers, 14 actors, 25 dancers, six instrumentalists, 16 technicians, seven costumers and a hospitality crew of 40.

Cast members play nightly to full houses of 1,700 persons from every state and more than 100 foreign countries.

Set beneath the towering cliffs of Palo Duro Canyon near Amarillo and Canyon, Paul Green's "TEXAS" opens its 27th season on June 10, 1992, and plays nightly except Sundays at 8:30 p.m. through August 22. Rehearsals begin May 17, 1992.

To audition in Lubbock, applicants should come on Sunday, February 16, to the Music Building at Texas Tech University, Room No. 1, from noon to 5:00 p.m. with dancers at 4:00 p.m.

The audition in Canyon on Saturday, February 29, will be held at the West Texas State University Mary Moody Northern Hall from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. with dancers at 4:00 p.m.

Previous auditions were held in Tucson, Arizona, Dallas and San Antonio. Auditions in Norman, Oklahoma, will be Sunday, February 23.

Anyone, 18 years or older, may audition for "TEXAS". Men and women MUST bring a picture and references.

All voice ranges are needed, and singers should bring one prepared number of their choice. An accompanist will be furnished or a singer may bring his own.

Since singers also fill minor speaking roles, each should also prepare a one to two minute memorized monologue.

Actors and actresses are required to present a memorized monologue, not to exceed three minutes, that will accentuate the outdoor voice and presence and also to perform a short vocal number.

The dancers should have ballet or modern dance training. Men and women are required to wear appropriate workout clothing.

Musicians are needed who are experienced in string bass, acoustic guitar, banjo, accordion and with concern training in violin.

A hospitality crew of 40 sells tickets, works concessions and barbecue, gives tours, entertains on the patio, seats visitors and maintains the area.

"TEXAS" is a combination of historical romance, spectacular sound and light, and colorful music and dance. Told by a cast of 80, "TEXAS" relives the settling of the Panhandle and the coming of the railroad.

Indians perch on rocks, a real train rumbles across the prairie, cowboys ride the range and a realistic storm rocks the audience as thunder roars and lightning strikes.

More than 2.3 million people have enjoyed the production, written by Pulitzer Prize winning author Paul Green.

Under the direction of Neil Hess, company members not only have an opportunity to play to full houses every night but also to receive expert instruction and valuable exposure.

For an audition brochure, reservations for the show or more information on "TEXAS," call 806-655-2181 or write P. O. Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015-0268.

BIBLE STORIES SHOW THAT HUMAN NATURE WILL NEVER CHANGE

If you have ever spent much time reading the Bible, you know that it contains many fascinating stories that illustrate both the strength and the weakness of human nature. Those parables and other incidents have provided the basis for many a sermon, which you have undoubtedly heard at your House of Worship if you have been attending it regularly, and they can often furnish the answer to some problem or situation you may be facing today; just by the application of a few timeless principles. However, whether you're concerned with financial matters, human relationships or whatever, the message here is that throughout our history and despite our ever-changing lifestyles, human nature has remained the same since those ancient days which were recorded in the Bible, and that your House of Worship is the best place to learn this.

CARD OF THANKS

H. A. and I would like to thank you again, for all the cards, flowers, food, visits and, especially, your prayers for us while I was in the hospital and since I've been home.
We truly appreciate it all.
Josie Cagle

We would like to thank all the wonderful people of Silverton for all the kindness shown during our loss of Maxine Donnell. The First Baptist Church, Rev. Donahoo, all the friends who prepared a luncheon and the dessert gathering at the Fleming home were greatly appreciated. Silverton can be proud to have a community the rest of the world should be envious of. For 37 years Mom and Dad always have referred to Briscoe County as home (no wonder). Again we thank each and every one who made the funeral so special to us and Mom.

The Donnell Family

I would like to thank each and every one for every act of kindness while I was in the hospital and since coming home.

May God bless you,
J. R. Steele

It's great to be selected as your adopted granddad. Thanks for the delicious fruit bowl!
