CANDIDATES TO SPEAK HERE ON TRADES DAY

Three Prisoners Escape Jail Here Wednesday Night

Cut Through Steel Ceiling and Concrete Floor to Gain Freedom.

The men who were being held in Haskell county jail on charges of burglary and wife desertion, escaped from the jail some time Wednesday night. Two of the prisoners, Hunter and Jimmie Wells, about 18 years of age, and who were held on complaints of forgery, were brought to the Haskell county Eastland several days ago as the action of the Grand Jury. They were alleged to have forged a check at a local store in May, and were recently arrested and arrested at Eastland. Another escaped prisoner, Lee Brown, was being held on charges of wife and child desertion, officers here are hopeful that the men will be in custody again.

The prisoners made their escape through the jury room, located on the third floor of the jail, after they sawed through the steel ceiling and through a three-concrete floor of the jury room. Blankets had been knotted together and used as a rope, supposed to be one of the youths had crawled through the opening into the room above.

THE PRISONERS UNDER SENTENCES ARE TRANSFERRED

The men convicted in District Court here several months ago and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment, were taken to Graham Monday by Sheriff T. Sarrels, from where they were transferred to the State Penitentiary to serve their sentences. The men transferred were: C. Williams, sentenced to one year on a charge of possessing liquor; W. Reports of the Trades Day Committee and other projects which the Club is sponsoring were given, showing much progress being made on their projects.

Major Turner E. Campe, former Haskell citizen and "daddy" of the Haskell County Fair, was a guest of the Club and in a straightforward talk told those present several good things that our town was overlooking in the way of civic progress, citing a number of adjoining towns to show what they are doing with conditions similar to Haskell. Mr. Campe gave particular emphasis to the fact that Haskell should stage her annual Fair this year, expressing the belief that it could be put over without any chance for financial loss, and urged those present to give their consideration to this project and co-operate with the Fair Association in staging a Fair this year.

CHURCH OF CHRIST REVIVAL TO BEGIN FRIDAY, JULY 4TH

Evangelist Roy H. Lanier

The public is cordially invited to attend a series of Gospel Revival Meetings at the Haskell Church of Christ, starting July the fourth at 8:15 p. m. Evangelist Roy H. Lanier of Abilene, Texas, will conduct the preaching service. It will be remembered that Brother Lanier conducted our revival last year. He made many friends here on his visit, who will be glad to hear of his return to our city.

In the past year he has made a great success as a Gospel Evangelist. In a recent meeting at Cleburne, Texas, over fifty people became members of the church as a result of his preaching. The Cleburne paper used a great amount of space in commenting upon that revival. Ernest Wright of Haskell will direct the song service. Ernest needs no introduction. He is just one of our home town boys who is making good as a school teacher and as a gospel singer. Many people of our town have enjoyed his song directing and solo singing in the past. The services will be simple and soul inspiring. Each sermon will be explained in a way that will be easily understood. The Church of Christ welcomes you.—(Contributed).

Miss Lois Norton is attending school in Berkeley University this summer.

Mrs. H. N. Nelson, Jr. of Dallas is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Hunt and daughter Miss Madalin.

Haskell Stores Will Be Closed All Day July 4th

Practically all stores and business houses of all kinds in Haskell will be closed all day tomorrow—the Fourth of July—as has been the custom in this city in past years. No program of entertainment is being offered in Haskell this year, so most of our citizens will probably spend the day picnicing or visiting in neighboring towns where attractions are offered. A number from Haskell will likely attend the automobile and motorcycle race events in Abilene, where all arrangements have been completed for staging what is expected to be one of the biggest July Fourth programs ever given in that city. The race card, including purses that total $3,000 will open at 1:30 p. m. Time trial awards will be made in both auto and motorcycle race classes.

QUARANTINE AT C. M. T. CAMP LIFTED TUESDAY

The ten day quarantine of the C. M. T. Camp at Fort Bliss, Texas, due to the death of Trainee Harbert N. Culliers of Albuquerque, N. M., of spinal meningitis, was lifted Tuesday, June 24th. This information was contained in a communication received by the Free Press from Lt. H. A. Luebbemann this week, who states that the Haskell boys who are attending the Camp are enjoying splendid health and making rapid progress in the training work. One Haskell boy, Rogers Gilstrap, is playing first base on the "A" Troop baseball team.

With the lifting of the quarantine, officers state that the danger of any further infection is passed, as the cultures of every one in the camp were taken and have been found to be negative. At no time during the quarantine was there a single suspected case and the preventive measures taken immediately after the discovery of the disease in the camp proved to be most effective. The trainees have stood the restrictions splendidly, and the morale has never been higher, but the boys welcome the return to the established schedule of hikes, sight-seeing, tours, swimming, boxing, etc.

Mrs. Virgil Meadors is spending the summer in Amarillo with Mr. Meador's parents.

Addresses By Candidates to Be One of Main Events of the Day.

BETTER YARD CONTEST TO CLOSE SATURDAY JULY 12

The Beautiful Yard Contest which has been under way for the past two months, final judging for the awarding of premiums will be made Monday and Tuesday, July 14th and 15th. The contest will close Saturday, July 12th, which gives entrants the next two weeks in which to finish any clean-up work necessary around their premises, and to get their shrubbery and flowers conditioned for judging, or to complete any improvement work which is now under way. (Chas. M. Conner, chairman of the committee who has charge of the contest, states that judging will be made on the following five points: First, Appearance of parking space in front of the home—from curb to sidewalk. Second, Appearance of front yard. Third, Foundation planting. Fourth, Appearance of back yard. Fifth, Appearance of alley. The appearance of each of these divisions will be graded according to points; with awards to be made on total points in these five divisions. He stresses the fact that all entrants should keep in mind the importance of giving attention to every section of their premises—from the street curb to the alley as prizes will be awarded on the appearance of the entire premises and not on the yard or garden alone. Although the destructive flood several weeks ago caused considerable damage to flowers and shrubbery, Mr. Conner states that practically all entrants in the contest have replaced damaged plants and replanted shrubbery in some instances and really have made remarkable progress in improving the appearance of their premises.

One of the main events of the day will be speaking by candidates for office, which will take place in the afternoon—probably beginning at 1 o'clock. Several candidates for office have signified their intention of speaking during the day, and an invitation is extended by the Committee to all candidates who wish to speak to be present and address the crowds. Band music by the two bands will also be a feature of the day, with probably other entertainments, and all who come to Haskell on Trades Day are assured an enjoyable and profitable day. Be here.

Nelson the small son of Mrs. Oliphant, dived in and brought him out in an unconscious state. # FLYING MISSIONARY BROTHER G. J. FELTES

New York, June 30—Destined for a career of humanitarian and spiritual usefulness in the snowbound back country of Alaska, a "Missionary Plane", christened "The Marquette Missionary", was presented by the Marquette League at Roosevelt Field, Long Island, yesterday to Brother G. J. Feltes, S. J. The first "flying missionary" of the Jesuit Order. He plans to leave June 30th with George Pickenpack as co-pilot, for the Pacific Coast, and officials of the League state that he will thus win the distinction of being the first member of a religious order to attempt a transcontinental flight.

The plane, which was presented to Pilot-Brother Feltes by the Marquette League, of which Judge A. J. Tally is President, and the Rev. William Flynn is Secretary-General, to further its objects of rendering aid to Eskimo missions of Alaska, is a Bellanca Pacemaker, powered by a Packard Diesel Motor and fueled and lubricated by Texaco Aerodiesel Fuel and Airplane Oil. It is said that "The Marquette Missionary" will be the first Diesel powered plane to fly on the Pacific Coast and in Alaska. It was given to the Jesuit missionaries at the earnest request of Venerable Bishop of Alaska, the Rt. Rev. Joseph Raphael Crimont, S. J.

Much interest has been manifested in the many unique features of this plane which will be exhibited at important transcontinental way-points, including Buffalo, Detroit, Dubuque, Des Moines, Wichita, Albuquerque, Phoenix, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle.

Upon arrival in Alaska, where it will be shipped from Seattle, "The Marquette Missionary" will headquarters at Holy Cross Mission, about 400 miles up the Yukon, will be utilized for humanitarian as well as spiritual work. It is equipped to serve as an emergency ambulance, can carry crews to isolated posts, and through quick flights and by the use of its radio equipment, maintain contact throughout the winter months that all relieve untold hardships and suffering. The main use of the plane will be to connect up the various missions which are completely isolated from one another and from the outside world, for the greater part of the year. The Superior of the Missions, who now requires several months to make his circuit by dog team and boat, will be able to visit even the most isolated posts in a total of less than two weeks.

Realizing the importance to the progress of Alaska of adequate landing facilities, the United States Government has established seventy-three landing fields, beside the many natural fields to be found in many parts of the North. In the winter time, a plane can land on its skis in the snow most anywhere there is a level stretch free of obstructions.

Brother Feltes, the Jesuit Pilot, who is 32 years old and a member of the Jesuit Order for 15 years, is the only Jesuit holding an aviator's license in America. He has had about 100 hours of flying in many types of planes, and has received varied types of instruction from some of the world's most famous pilots. He started his training on the sixteenth of last July, under the able tutelage of Captain Royle at the Alameda Airport, across the bay from San Francisco. After eight hours of dual instruction, he made his first solo flight on the 5th of August, this being the first time a Jesuit ever flew an airplane alone. He won his Private License on the 28th of August, and then continued his instruction with the Curtiss Company, receiving his instructions in aerobatics at the hands of Roy Hunt. The first training he received was in an OX5 Robin. Challenger Robin, and Pledgling. On finishing his instructions, he received his Limited Commercial License, having been examined by Dillard Hamilton, Inspector of the Department of Commerce. Since going to New York, last January, Brother Feltes has inspected and flown a large number of different types and makes of planes. He has flown the Bellanca Pacemaker with Capt. George Haldeman, Wesley Smith, Jack Ayres, and Howard Young; the Ireland Amphibion with Captain George Pickenpack and Elmer Meyers; the Stinson-Detroit with Eddie Stinson; the New Crescent with Clarence Chamberlin; the Junkers with Fred Melchior; the Ryan Brougham with "Red" Harrigan; and the "Spokane Sun God" Buhl with J. M. Johnson. He also flew the Diesel Powered Pilot with Walter Lees, chief test pilot of the Packard Company.

After studying the different makes and types of planes, Brother Feltes decided the Bellanca Pacemaker, powered by a Packard Diesel Motor, fueled with the new Texaco Aerodiesel Fuel and lubricated with Texaco Airplane Oil, was best suited for the work he will be called upon to do in the frozen north. The fact that Texaco Aerodiesel Fuel has a sub-zero pour test and can be handled by unskilled labor without the slightest danger of explosion greatly influenced this choice. Pilots George King and Alger Graham, noted Alaskan pilots, gave him valuable information on flying in the extreme weather conditions to be met in the North. He also received valuable technical information on the different makes and types of planes and motors from the late Captain L. M. Woodson, inventor of the Packard Diesel, and from Commander R. D. Weyerbacker of the Naval Aircraft factory at Philadelphia. On the west-bound trip, Brother Feltes will receive further instruction on flying and care of the motor under Arctic conditions from the Packard Company, during his stop in Detroit. Officials state that this is the first transcontinental flight of a plane powered by a Diesel Motor and the first notable flight in which the new Texaco Aerodiesel Fuel has been used. He has had 14 years experience in mechanics and has studied the Diesel Motor before it was adapted to use as an aviation engine.

The first leg of the transcontinental flight will take the Flying Missionary over the little village of Auriclesville, on the Mohawk River, where he will drop a wreath on the spot, where, in the middle of the seventeenth century, three Jesuit missionaries were cruelly tortured and put to death by their Indian captors. These martyrs are to be canonized by Pope Pius XI in St. Peter's, Vatican City, on the 29th of June; the first American Saints.

At no other time in history has it been possible for books to penetrate every corner of the world and every level of society. For every good book, society steps up another rung in the ladder of civilization."

Public libraries have done much to place good books within the reach of everyone and the benefits from them are in proportion to the time given to study of these books. Our library is open from 3 to 6 every afternoon except Sunday and Monday.

Last week 192 books were issued of which 22 were to new borrowers.

How He Found the Right Girl

By I. WRIGHT

THE classified advertising offices were agog with excitement and buzzing. Dust cloths unused for weeks were being flicked across the highly polished desks, well-sharpened pencils were being passed along the counters where the ad takers stood all day checking up the number of spaces, the number of words and costs of insertions in the classified advertising pages of the Daily Mirror.

Mary Connolly alone was unimpressed by the news of the efficiency expert who, from the astounding rumors floating about, was evidently to come into the classified advertising offices, look about with sharp eye, suggest very radical changes here and there as to lighting, position of desks and the cashier's cage and—worst of all—fire instantly those clerks who were in any way inefficient.

"The top of the mornin' to you, Susie McGinnis," she said gayly, taking out her fountain pen. "And why all of this merry cleaning and rushing about? The efficiency man—If he's an efficiency man at all—will see through your little foibles." "I wish you'd call me Susanne," pettishly exclaimed Susie McGinnis. "And I think you don't realize the importance of this man. The boss upstairs has seen him work before and he's told him that he can have anyone in the whole place he wants to assist him. Wouldn't that be the cat's pajamas? The efficiency girl!"

A shabbily gowned old lady had come up to the desk and was waiting in front of Mary Connolly. "Did you have an advertisement to place?" asked Mary pleasantly. "Yes, I did," answered the old lady tartly. "You didn't think I was standing here merely to hear that bobbed-headed young miss there use new slang, did you?" Her black eyes snapped angrily. "I beg your pardon," murmured Mary, "perhaps I can write your advertisement for you?"

"It's not much to write. Just say: 'Wanted: A room.'"
Mary stared at her. Odd were many of the advertisements placed with her each day. Brief were some of them. But this one! No one would know from the advertisement in what part of the city it was desired, what type of room—good accommodations with their commensurate cost or less convenient ones that would be reasonable—a hundred ideas flashed through Mary Connolly's mind.

"Suppose we put in just a little more," she said gently. "You see it doesn't tell much." "You see it doesn't tell much! Doesn't tell much," snapped the old lady. "Tell me right to my face I'm an idiot, will you? I'll have my son come down here at once—I'll tell him the whole thing; that I will! I—an idiot, indeed!" Angriily she shook her head at the bewildered Mary.

"But I—" gasped Mary.
A man standing near came forward, and Mary was not surprised at all, so excited was she, to hear the old lady call him John and tell him that the young lady had called her a fool.

"I—" again gasped Mary. "We have orders to assist in the advertisements whenever it is possible. You see," she explained earnestly, "we don't accept less than two lines, and so I wasn't trying to get her to pay any more money out. It was just that if she said where she wanted the room and what price she wanted to pay or what kind of room" she wanted, whether for house-keeping, boarding or light house-keeping, why, you see, she would have more replies. I was thinking of the answers she would have—"

"—?" Mary Connolly's blue eyes filled.

She heard across the polished counter the tall man called John explaining the whole thing in low tones. In a few minutes the little black bonnet of the old lady began to nod.

"I had a bad night in that hotel—didn't sleep a wink," the old lady told her. "You write it up. Make it as long as you want, and make it right, I guess," the old eyes twinkled. "we'll let John pay for it, anyhow." She was smiling at Mary now, happy as a child, the recent wound forgotten.

The surprised ad-takers saw their Mary Connolly, now the efficiency girl, pass out the little swing-gate and go for her coat and hat. Barton, the boss, was surprised, too, when he passed along that way to be buttonholed by the new efficiency man, who said seriously: "Say, Barton, old man, I want to tell you that you'd better look about for a new ad-taker. I've always said I'd never care for a girl mother didn't like and sn-n-y—the way she took to the little Mary Connolly—well, it took my breath. I didn't know what she thought of me, but what's the use of being an efficiency man if I can't have the girl I choose!"

THE VALUE OF SOUND DESIGN

New Ford engine gives outstanding acceleration, speed and power without sacrificing reliability or economy

THE good performance of the Ford car, so apparent on every highway, is due largely to the sound mechanical design of the engine.

It has outstanding acceleration, speed and power, yet that is only part of its value to you. Greater still is the fact that it brings you all these features without sacrificing either reliability or economy.

That is the reason the Ford car has given such satisfactory service to millions of motorists all over the world and has been chosen by so many large companies that keep accurate cost figures. In every detail of construction it has been carefully planned and made for the work it has to do.

The design of the compression chamber is an important factor in the efficiency of the Ford engine. It is built to allow free passage of gases through the valves and to thoroughly mix the fuel by producing turbulence within the cylinders during compression. The spark thus flashes quickly through the whole fuel charge, resulting in quieter and more effective engine performance. Other factors are the direct gravity gasoline feed, the specially designed carburetor, the new hot-spot manifold, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves of larger diameter, statically and dynamically balanced crankshaft and flywheel, the simplicity of the electrical, cooling, lubrication, and fuel systems and accuracy in manufacturing.

Section 2: Any person, firm or corporation violating this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $100.00, and each day any hog or hogs are kept within the territorial limits of said City of Haskell, Texas, as herein set forth, shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 3: The fact that there is now no ordinance prohibiting the keeping or permitting to be kept of any hog or hogs within the territorial limits of the City of Haskell, Texas, and the fact that there is now urgent demand for such ordinances for the preservation of the health and comfort of the inhabitants of the said city, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity requiring that the rules requiring ordinances to be read at two stated meetings and not to become effective until ten days after publication be suspended, and such rules are hereby suspended, and this ordinance is passed on second reading and final passage, and shall take effect and be enforced from and after final passage and publication and it is so enacted and ordained.

THE NEW

TEXACO MOTOR OIL

LONGER-LASTING, "CRACK-PROOF"

The Texas Company again demonstrates its leadership in the petroleum field with the introduction of a vastly superior, new product—a motor oil that lasts longer—that is crack-proof—a motor oil that meets exactly every requirement of the high speed automobile engine of today! This new oil revolutionizes lubrication values as completely as the new and better Texaco Gasoline, the original "dry" gas, revolutionized motor fuels in the Spring of 1926.

An Oil Without Precedent

There have been oils that gave remarkable mileage. There have been oils that flowed freely at zero. There have been oils that kept your engine completely free of wax and carbon troubles. But—never until now have all these advantages been combined in any one single lubricant. That motor oil is ready for you today. It is the new Texaco—longer-lasting and crack-proof. Road tests—laboratory tests have proved it.

Available in all our 48 States

Fill your crankcase with this new crack-proof motor oil today. It will more than pay you, not only in greater value for your lubrication dollar but for your car dollar as well. It is manufactured in five grades: C, D, E, F, and G, corresponding in body to Society of Automotive Engineers (S. A. E.) viscosity ratings. 30¢ a quart everywhere (35¢ for grade G).

THE TEXAS COMPANY
Refiners of a complete line of Texaco Petroleum Products including Gasoline, Motor Oil, Industrial Lubricants, Railroad and Marine Lubricants, Farm Lubricants, Road Asphalts and Asphalt Roofing.

THIS SEASON

Has become known as a Tornado period. At this season of the year the Twister's Terrifying Threat often becomes a reality laying waste thousands and thousands of dollars' worth of property and snuffing out many lives. Tornadoes are beyond the control of man, and the only defense is insurance to pay for the damage they cause. Almost every day the newspapers carry big headlines with reference to the latest disaster. No locality is exempt—yours may be next. Anywhere in this country—windscreens can and do destroy millions of dollars worth of property. Each year adds to the list of places which "could never have a destructive wind storm"—and did.

Windstorm insurance rates are so low that it is not worth the risk to be without it. Let us tell you how little it costs to protect yourself from loss through damage done by wind to home, business property or car. Wind destroys a 7' wheel! Play safe and insure.

"Bum's Rush" Through Window Didn't Halt Labor Secretary's Home Study

Winner of Pennsylvania's Republican Senatorial Primary Was Both Worker and Student During Years of Struggle.

BEING thrown out of the window by his irate roommates because he persisted in his pursuit of an education far into the night when the other occupants of the room wanted to sleep, is the unusual experience stored in the memory of James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor, and Pennsylvania's Republican nominee for the Senate.

woodshed which, being old and soft with southern moss, caved in and carried me to the ground below—alive. The fellows up above threw my books out of the window, aiming them at my head. They threw me my hat, coat and valise. I departed from the 'Bucket Of Blood' and took up my abode at the 'Greasy Spoon.'

JAMES J. DAVIS Secretary of Labor

Such rough treatment had no effect upon Davis's determination to make up for the educational opportunities he had lost when, at the age of twelve, he was forced to go to work in a nail factory at Sharon, Pennsylvania, where his parents were then living.

who in the middle '90's gave Davis the "bum's rush," are happy wherever they are, but the name of James J. Davis, the young man who burned the midnight oil to acquire the education he knew he must have to get ahead, stands for a man who by his own efforts has raised himself to a place in the cabinets of three presidents, and who promises to play a leading part for years to come in directing the destiny of the United States.

Society

Recent Bride Given Party.

Mrs. Henry Smith who was Miss Hazel Gauntt, was the honoree Friday, June 27, when the Rochester Eastern Star Chapter entertained with a miscellaneous shower and party at the club house.

Covey C. Thomas, candidate for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, hereby respectfully solicits your votes and active support in the Democratic Primary, July 28, 1930. Born in South Texas, resident of Southwest Texas, graduate of the University of Texas, 1896 Law Class, four years county attorney, sixteen years county judge, nine years district judge, Baptist, Mason, Woodman, farmer, ranchman and lawyer. Present incumbent, Judge Guiston, he thinks, should be succeeded with his many years of service as Attorney General and Chief Justice of this State. Thomas promises, if elected, not to ask for more than second term and by hard work and long hours to remedy the injustices caused by this Supreme Court being several years behind with its work. He asks the fair-minded and generous people of Texas to give South Texas and West Texas representation on this high court, something these sections of Texas have not had in around thirty years. He promises not to shirk ANY official duty for ANY consideration, political or otherwise, and to make good his slogan for this office, to-wit: "More Work, Less Pay, No Politics."

The officers of the Eastern Star, of which Mrs. Smith is Worthy Matron, composed the receiving line.

The five colors of the star were stressed in the decorations. The entertainment for the evening was furnished by Mrs. Bartley Harris and Mrs. Bob Speck at the piano, with solos by Miss Sarah Greer and Mrs. B. F. McWhirtor, and readings by Miss Merle Lamb. Mrs. W. H. Carothers gave several whistling numbers.

The Star points, dressed in the colors, then presented the gifts.

Ice cream and Angel food cake was served. The guest list included: Mmes. G. O. Fuller, E. Hobb Smith, Ben Attlebury, W. J. Bragg, B. F. McWhirtor, Lacy Findley, Bob Speck, V. Alvis, Sam T. Chapman, A. B. Micheal, A. A. Gauntt, T. J. Mansell, P. A. Mansell, W. H. Carothers.

The Movie as a Community Asset

We know a professional man who says he finds perfect rest and mental relaxation at the movie. When he is tired he goes to the picture show.

We know a family who plan to go to the movies together once a week. "Movie Night" is an extremely enjoyable event to them.

We know many country people who find in the movie their only source of year-round recreation.

We know hundreds who have immeasurably broadened their vision of life by glimpses of distant lands and of important events in our own country.

We do not believe that boys are led astray by bandit pictures or that the movies in general are exerting an unwholesome influence on the youth of our community. We consider the moving picture house a real community asset, a source of pleasant recreation and amusement.

Here in Haskell we have two movie houses. Their program standards are high. They bring to our city the best talent in the world, and we are able to enjoy it for a few cents. More power to our movies!
