All Around
The Town

BY MARY ANN SARCHET

Silverton's New Superintendent Expected Here July 1

It's time for Silverton to "put on a happy face!"

This being the centennial celebration year of Briscoe County, a number of very special events are being held and these events are bringing quite a few people to Silverton from distant places.

Already the Briscoe County Belles have "wowed" their public with their presentations of "Parade of Fashion—1892-1992" in Silverton and Quitaque.

The Caprock Jamboree draws large crowds of people from numerous area cities every first Saturday of the month, and this month's show is being planned to be very special. The Jamboree will have its third birthday and centennial show Saturday night, and the "Salute to 100 Years of Country Music" will include a number of Briscoe County's top female vocalists presenting songs from the 1890's through the 1990's. Each of the singers will be dressed in a costume from that era, and most will be wearing hats. There will be four other talented groups to add to this memorable occasion also, but this is a show you won't want to miss because it spotlights the superb talent among our home-county people.

Another event that is shaping up and looking to be a significant one is the antique tractor show to be held August 8-9, the weekend before the county's centennial birthday celebration and the Silverton School Homecoming.

All these things point up the need to paint up, spruce up, fix up things in Silverton so our visitors from out of town will be impressed with our little town. Times may not be good in the agricultural communities and the economy isn't what we would like it to be, but we don't have to look like we're down and can't get up.

If you have a business, step out front and take note of what you need to do to spruce up the place. Maybe you don't need anything more than a new window display, but if you need to paint a little trim, etc., it's time to get it done. If you don't have a business, do the same for your home. A neatly-mowed lawn with a few strategically-placed flowers helps convey a good impression.

Right now there are several projects underway in downtown Silverton which are hoped will help put on a "happy face". The old Crass building, which began collapsing several months ago, is being razed and cleaned up. The old hotel building has been torn down and the lot is being cleared.

Some of the old buildings that are no longer occupied present an eyesore, and some groups are working right now to do something about some of them. The Briscoe County News has "adopted" the old community building north of us,

Frank Kirchoffner, who is presently serving as superintendent of schools in Hammon, Oklahoma, will be coming here as superintendent of the Silverton Independent School District on July 1.

Mr. Kirchoffner has been superintendent at Hammon for the past seven years. He began his administrative experience at Gotebo, Oklahoma in 1981, and also has served as superintendent at Bray-Doyle, Oklahoma.

Prior to becoming a school superintendent, he was a football-basketball coach and teacher in Keyes, Oklahoma and at Medford. He has a total of 23 years of experience as an educator.

100 Years of Country Music to be Celebrated

In observance of Briscoe County's 100th birthday and the Caprock Jamboree's third birthday, the Jamboree will be offering a "Salute to 100 Years of Country Music" as a highlight to the May program. The musical will include a number of the county's top female vocalists presenting songs from the 1890's through the 1990's, with each attired in clothes from that era.

There will be four other talented groups to add to this memorable occasion.

This is one time you can "have your cake and eat it too," as there will be cake enough for 400 guests. So, you'll want to be there early to get some cake and maybe even a chair. A capacity crowd is expected, as there was an estimated crowd of 500 at the April Jamboree, and standing room only.

Be sure to come and eat mesquite-grilled hamburgers with all the trimmings that is being prepared by the Silverton United Methodist Church Choir. They will begin serving at 6:00 p.m.

As usual, there will be a variety of and a couple of girls and their husbands are working to give it a "new look". The Progressive Homemakers have "adopted" the old laundry building that belongs to Donnie and Carol Martin and have permission to give it a face lift.

It is time right now for every club and individual who can to jump in and do whatever he or she can to make our town beautiful. Mayor Wayne Nance is coordinating these projects, and may be able to suggest something to help your group.

Meanwhile, if you have a building that isn't being used for anything but storage, would you consider sprucing it up or giving it a historical look to keep the project moving? Working as individuals we can't get much done, but if we all work together we can get a lot done. Let's don't put it off any longer!

door prizes that have been donated by the local merchants and fans. And, of course, don't forget the $25.00 prize given away at the end of each show.

Make your plans now to attend the third anniversary show of the Caprock Jamboree Saturday, May 2, beginning at 7:00 p.m. at the County Showbarn in Silverton.

Local Elections Will Be Saturday

City Hall in Silverton will be the voting place for both the City General and Silverton ISD Trustee elections Saturday.

Polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m.

Three trustees are to be elected to the school board from four candidates. They are Jack Graham, Zane Mayfield, Barry Francis and Carolyn Lowrey.

Three Councilmen are to be elected for the City of Silverton. The candidates listed on the ballot are F. E. Hutsell, Dwain Henderson and Charles Sarchet.

1991 Owlet Has Received Award

The 1991 Owlet has received the Award of Achievement in Journalism from the University Interscholastic League's Interscholastic League Press Conference.

I.L.P.C. judges yearbooks sent in by member schools each year. The schools are divided according to school size and the yearbooks are judged against the yearbooks of schools in their classification.

The Award of Achievement is the second-highest honor a yearbook can receive from the Interscholastic League Press Conference.

He and his wife, Janice, have been married 23 years and have a child in the fifth grade. He attended school in North Dakota and his wife attended school at Stratford. They met while he was working for Shell Oil Company at Stratford.

He attended Panhandle State University at Goodwell and received his master's degree from Southwestern (Oklahoma) State at Weatherford.

Mrs. Kirchoffner is a certified teacher, taught at Hereford and Stratford before their marriage, and has been teaching in Oklahoma.

Mr. Kirchoffner is described as a proven hard-working professional with leadership ability.

"I believe in the dignity and worth of each individual. I intend to work well with those in the school community—teachers, administrators, students, support personnel, parents and the general public," Mr. Kirchoffner said.

He is held in high regard by his peers in the coaching and administrative areas as evidenced by his being sought to serve in leadership roles.

He will take over as superintendent of the Silverton Schools on July 1, but will be visiting the school several times before then to become familiar with the school and community. He is presently doing some house hunting here.

Wilburn Leeper, who has been the interim superintendent, has been a credit to the school system during his tenure. The Briscoe County News appreciates very much his friendly spirit of cooperation.

Stewardship Week To Be Observed Here

Caprock Soil and Water Conservation District invites you to join in the nationwide observance of Soil and Water Stewardship Week, April 26-May 3.

Today, the continued productivity of the soil remains one of the nation's most precious renewable resources.

WBCA Honors Redin With Service Award

Harley Redin, who coached the Hutcherson Flying Queens to six Amateur Athletic Union national championships and a record of 431-66 in 18 years as head coach at Wayland Baptist University, is the recipient of the 1992 Jostens Service Award. The prestigious honor is given annually by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in recognition of individuals who have had a significant impact on the sport of women's basketball. Margaret Wade was the first recipient in 1984.

Redin was presented the award at a luncheon at the Westin St. Bonaventure Hotel in Los Angeles during the NCAA Women's Final Four recently.

Fran Garman, chair of the WBCA selection committee, and Alice (Cookie) Barron, who never lost a game as a Flying Queen under Redin from 1954-57, introduced him to an audience that included his wife, Wilda, and numerous former players.

"It is appropriate to honor Harley as we celebrate 100 years of basketball because this man has been in this wonderful game for 60 years as a player, coach, professional contributor, and an avid supporter who is still involved in the game today," said Barron.

"Most of you may know the pioneers of womens basketball the great AIAW teams, but in my mind, sometimes the forgotten pioneers were the great AAU teams that included the Wayland Baptist College Flying Queens, coached by Harley Redin.

"In talking to former players and from a personal viewpoint, I can say that the most wonderful thing about Harley is the continuous benefit of his support years after you left the program. Players early on were treated by an exceptional orientation into college, and we had a great role model.

"Players sensed his integrity. His fairness and sportsmanship were every day experiences for us. The game was based on skill—that was the honor code. If you got beat it was because the skill was better on the other team—no excuses.

"The one thing Harley is most proud of is that he helped a lot of women go to college and become successful. He continues to do this even today. In introducing Harley I represent hundreds of athletes who are fortunate to have been coached by him, and I can assure you that he is remembered and loved for more than just as a winning coach."

"I would like to share this award with my wife, who is very deserving of it, and also to thank Jostens for sponsoring this award," said Redin in accepting the trophy signifying the honor.

"When I arrived at Wayland College in 1946 I went direct to the president and he said, 'Let's go to the gymnasium.' The gym was open—in fact there were no doors, no windows . . . You've heard about the birds flying back to Capistrano; well, they stayed there (in the gym) the rest of the year.

"But we did start a wonderful association there and we did have a wonderful time. I would like to especially thank those who nominated me, including (West Texas State Head Coach) Bob Schneider and (Former Flying Queen) Valerie Goodwin. I would also like to recognize all the Flying Queens. Any fame that I have achieved, they have done it for me."

Redin is a native of Silverton, where he was a multi-sport standout. He went on to play college basketball at Tarleton State, playing on teams there that won 86 of 87 games. He completed his bachelor's and master's degrees at North Texas State and also flew 50 combat missions in the South Pacific as a Marine bomber pilot in World War II. During the 18 years Redin coached the Queens, Wayland won six championships, finished second seven times, third three times, and fifth once. His athletes won 65 All-America honors and 32 were selected to play on U. S. national teams. He joined his predecessor, Caddo Matthews, in coaching teams that won 131 straight games between 1954 and 1958.

The AAU also recognized Redin by selecting him as head coach of two Pan American Games teams, which finished first in 1959 and tied for first in 1971. He also coached the U. S. team in the World Games in Peru in 1963, and coached four U. S. teams selected to play against the Soviet Union, starting the exchange program used so widely today.

Redin's influence extended far beyond coaching strategy. He was a major force in major rules changes such as the unlimited dribble and establishing the five-player game for women, and also authored two books, The Queens Fly High and Basketball Guide for Girls. He was recently named to the board of directors of the newly-established Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in Jackson, Tennessee.

Although the 1992-93 season will mark the 20th since Redin's retirement at WBU, he continues to have a positive impact on the Flying Queens. He helped organize the Queens Court booster organization, formed the Ex-Flying Queen Association, and assisted in establishing the Claude Hutcherson Memorial Award scholarship fund.

His overall coaching record, including stints with Wayland's men's team, the Pioneers, and the Hale Center Owlettes, is 602-163.

Three of the Silverton vocalists who will be appearing on the centennial program at the Caprock Jamboree Saturday night are Jonann Sarchet, Dorothy Johnson and Shana Strange. They are wearing costumes from the eras they represent. Briscoe County News Photo

Cowboy Camp Meeting To Be Held Here in May

A Cowboy Camp Meeting is now being planned and will be held on the Johnnie Burson ranch, six miles east of Silverton and 2 3/4 miles north, May 21-22-23-24.

Johnnie Burson and Steve Ulrey are co-chairmen of the event.

This will be an interdenominational meeting, and the camp preachers are Boyce Evans of Lubbock and John Keefe of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Jimmy Burson will be the camp music director, and Tommy Hawk of Omaha will be the camp youth director.

This will provide a Christian camping experience for those of all ages. Everyone is invited to attend—you don't have to be a cowboy or rancher to attend. The event is sponsored by Ranchmen's Camp Meeting Association of the Southwest.

Three meals a day will be served at the camp, and no charge will be made for anything. Donations will be accepted to help defray the expenses of the meeting.

Those planning to attend are asked to bring a bedroll, tent, recreational vehicle, travel trailer, motor home, etc.

Former Residents In Odyssey of the Mind Competition at Plano

Former Silverton residents Quinn Montague and his daughter, Erica, recently have been involved in The Odyssey of the Mind competition at their school in Plano. The team did so well that it won first-place in the District competition and second in Regional competition, and advanced to the State competition in El Paso April 10-11.

Quinn Montague coached Erica's team, and the problem they chose was called Hybrid Relays. The team had to build five vehicles, each powered by a different means: battery power, pneumatic, mechanical, vibrational and a free choice. Each of them had to travel 20 feet in the relay and break a target balloon. One of them had to climb three stair steps. The team chose "Hybrid in the Wild" as their theme, and each of the cars represented an animal from one of five regions. They incorporated information about the animals and the effects of environmental problems for each region into their skit.

Erica portrayed a Steve Irkle-type character who interviewed each of the other team members about their region. The other part of the competition involves the team in spontaneous problem solving where five of the team members go into a room with judges and are given a problem. They are given two to three minutes to discuss the problem and two to three minutes to respond. The time depends on the type of problem given. The team placed 14th out of 21 teams at the State competition in El Paso. It was their first year together as a team and Quinn's first year to coach a team.

The team won the Renatra Fusca award for creativity for the way they tied their theme to the problem.

Quinn's mother, Polly Montague of Silverton, traveled to Plano on April 8, and stayed with her younger grandchild, Grant, so that both Mr. and Mrs. Montague could accompany Erica's team to the state competition. While Polly was in Plano, she and Grant enjoyed a visit with Patti and Jene Montague and attended Jordan and Jason's soccer games.

Parking space will be available, but there are no hookups.

The meeting begins at 6:30 p.m. May 21 with supper, and choir practice follows at 7:30 p.m. The evening service begins at 8:00 p.m.

The schedule for May 22-23-24 reflects 6:30 a.m. breakfast; 8:00 a.m. bible study with Rob Lackey and Steve Ulrey, Quitaque pastors; 9:30 a.m. Sunday school with John Keefe; 11:00 a.m. morning service with John Keefe and Boyce Evans; 12:30 p.m. dinner; 1:30 p.m. youth activities; 3:00 p.m. afternoon service with Steve Cody and John Keefe; 5:00 p.m. prayer tree; 6:30 p.m. supper; 7:30 p.m. evening service; 8:00 p.m. campfire service.

It is hoped that a large number of people from all over this area will attend.

Mother - Daughter Dinner Is Tonight

The third annual Junior High Mother-Daughter Dinner will be held at 6:00 p.m. today (Thursday, April 30) in the school cafeteria. The meal will be potluck, with each girl asked to bring her favorite dish.

Bena Hester will be giving skincare tips and will help eighth grader, Jennifer Estes, with a Mary Kay makeover. Amy Otis will be there with haircare tips and a demonstration of hair braiding.

Guest speaker for this year's dinner will be Martha Lair of Colorado Springs, Colorado. Mrs. Lair is a graduate of Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas with a BSW degree. She has worked for five years with abused children, including two years for the Texas Department of Human Services in San Antonio. Her work also has included four years as a counselor to girls who have had unexpected pregnancies. She is currently the case manager for Colorado Christian Services, a maternity counseling program that also does adoptions.

Mrs. Lair is married and has two teenaged children. She has taught classes for teenaged girls in her church work.

All girls in grades six through eight are invited to come and bring their mother or guardian, and join in a fun and informative evening.

Southwestern Club Hears Program on Recycling

Southwestern Extension Club met in the home of Lanita Cantwell on April 23, and heard a program by Mrs. Cantwell on recycling.

"It Hurts to Love" was the title of the devotional, and the poem related how when we love someone and they hurt, we hurt also. Roll call was answered with a household hint.

A report from the District meeting was given by Theta Holt.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Friendship Quilters

by Nina Martin

Last Thursday our needles flew in and out. Jessie Bomar, Laverne Stephens, Joy Stodghill, Sybil Martin, Wanda Strange, Virginia Hardin, Ruby

McWaters, Juanita Stephens and Nelda Jasper got the border of the Sampler Quilt finished. It is said that a quilt is almost half done at that point.

I am the pigtail getting Joy's friendship block finished. It is an original design made from a stained-glass suncatcher that her daughter, Mary, had given her. Laverne brought her pattern for us to do in May. It is "Hole in the Barn Door".

I forgot to thank Christi McWaters for manning our door-prize table last week at the quilting bee. That was a great help to us.

Tomorrow is Loyalty Day

The first of May is Loyalty Day and as such it is a day filled with activities designed to involve the community in an overt display of loyalty to flag and country. Therefore, every loyal citizen should eagerly participate in an effort to make this Loyalty Day the best observance ever held.

Loyalty Day has become a tradition with the Veterans of Foreign Wars. With the passage of Public Law 85-529 on July 18, 1958, the VFW won a long hard battle to have Loyalty Day approved by Congress; however, this day does not belong to the VFW alone. It belongs to all Americans.

Most Americans have heard this said: "Ask not what your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country." This is a sound principle to live by in a country such as this, where the government is elected by the people and where the public is expected to participate in the governing process.

In these times of global political turbulence, Americans should pause and ask themselves, "What have we done and what are we doing now to demonstrate to the world just how we feel about our country?" After all, ours is a country that has held high the beacon of liberty and asked nothing of the other nations except that they send to her, in the words of Emma Lazarus emblazoned on the Statue of Liberty, their "huddled masses yearning to breathe free." This is a country that has taken the abstract ideal of "Freedom and Justice for All" and made it into a way of life.

Americans must pledge themselves to maintain a free society in which loyalty is always encouraged and respected. Without loyalty, the United States, the world's best hope for a future blest with freedom, cannot long survive. And if it fails, the flame of freedom will diminish and fade forever.

Join in now and become a part of the Loyalty Day celebrations. Let the world know that Americans are behind their country and that America because of this is still a strong vibrant nation. Fly your flag proudly!

Methodists Plan Spring Spiritual Awakening

The Rev. Wm. J. McCauley, conference evangelist of the United Methodist Church, will lead the Silverton United Methodist Church in a three-day "Spring Spiritual Awakening" beginning Sunday, May 3.

Rev. McCauley has been pastor of the Throckmorton-Woodson-Elbert United Methodist Churches for the past four years and is a graduate of Texas Tech University and Asbury Theological Seminary. Previously, he served churches at Jayton, Wildorado-Adrian and Vernon-Faith-Margret. He and his wife, Mary Kay, grew up in Lubbock where they were members of St. Luke United Methodist Church. They have three sons, Ben, Josh and Luke. They will be moving to Lubbock in June.

Rev. McCauley says his call to full-time evangelism is to proclaim the living word and to share the music of Christ. He sensed a desire to use music as a means of sharing the good news and love of Christ. He says that starting the "Words and Music Ministries" is a dream and a vision that comes from a sensitivity to God early in life to weld healing words of faith with the healing melodies of music.

The services are set for Sunday at

Cactus Cove Fishing Report

Cactus Cove Marina at Lake Mackenzie is now operating under the management of Donnie and Carol Martin. Beginning this week, they will be having fried fish on Fridays, beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Boyet Sanders of Tulia brought in two large stripers that he caught while fishing on the bottom with minnows at the dam. They weighed 11 1/4 and 11 1/2 pounds.

Carol Martin says the fishing continues to be good, with several stripers in the nine to 11 1/2-lb. range. Some catfish and bass are being brought in, and crappie fishing continues to be good.

Water temperature at a four-foot depth is 60° and the depth at the dam is 95'.

FAITH CALLS A BABY THE CONTINUATION OF OUR OWN LIVES

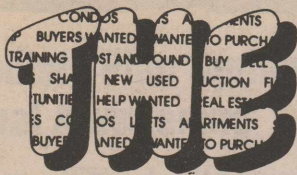

Of all the miracles of God's creation, there is none more wonderful than a baby. It's a traffic stopper wherever it goes, and a great source of pride to its parents. It demands constant attention, and it's so noisy that we wonder how anything that tiny can produce so many decibels of sound. Moreover, that sound seems to be magnified at the House of Worship, where the baby should be baptized or christened, according to the custom of the creed, but otherwise should either sleep through the sermon or be exiled to the nursery. In any case, faith will remind the parents that this cute, noisy little morsel of humanity is the ultimate extension of their own lives, to be molded into one of tomorrow's good citizens in whose hands the future of our nation will one day lie.

A baby is God's opinion that the world should go on.
