Tribe To Battle Pied Pipers of Hamlin Under Lights Here Friday

The Haskell Indians will engage in their fifth conference tilt in District 13 Class B Friday night when the Hamlin Pied Pipers march into town seeking to tame a few redskins on their own account.

Pre-game dope favors a victory for the Tribe, but Hamlin has always battled stubbornly against Haskell and very few wagers will be made that the Indians will win by more than one touchdown.

As in past years (too many to be counted), Haskell is receiving good football playing from the "House of Kimbrough" in the persons of Jack and John, backfield stalwarts, but McMillan, husky center; and Reeves and Hamilton, guards, have been largely responsible for all Indian victories.

Hamlin has had to depend on the development of new men this season. Only five lettermen, J. E. Turner, backfield, Kyle Watts, backfield; Jack Holt, Wynn Cox, W. L. Royal, linemen, were present for duty when Coach Roy Morris assembled his squad for the first practice.

A few of Haskell's more optimistic fans are still hoping that Roby and Roscoe, undefeated leaders, will stumble before the season is over thereby letting Haskell at least tie for the top position.

Beauty Leads

CAROLYN EICHHOLT - PRESIDENT

JUANITA KISTNER - VICE-PRESIDENT

Freshmen go in for beauty at Haskell State College for Women today in selecting officers for the first class. Both Miss Carolyn Kistner, Taylor, and Miss Juanita Kistner, New Braunfels, have been named freshman candidates for college beauty.

WATER RATES NOW BACK ON OLD BASIS OF 4000 MAXIMUM

Allowance to Consumers Is Made Smaller After Run of Over Five Months

FARMERS STILL HAUL

Rural Residents Hit by The Drought Hauling at Least 50,000 Gallons Daily

The water rate in Haskell reverted back to the 4000-gallon maximum for $1.75 after the last reading, according to city authorities, who have heretofore allowed consumers a total of 7000 gallons for the minimum amount.

The allowance of 7000 gallons to water users in Haskell was begun in early summer, and was tentatively set for only three months duration, but the severity of the drought caused the members of the city council to allow two more months.

The claim of the city authorities that Haskell has one of the lowest water rates in the state is attested to by a chart which was prepared by the state, H. J. Hambleton, city water commissioner, during a discussion of rates Wednesday pointed out that very few towns in Texas charged only $1.75 for 4000 gallons. Practically every place the size of Haskell, he said, allows a much lower allowance for the same amount of water.

It is estimated that farmers have hauled more than 6,000,000 gallons of water from the Haskell wells during the summer since July 1, and Hambleton declares that as much water is being hauled away today as in the summer. Farmers, from as far away as Weimert, haul water from Haskell. No money is realized by the city from the water hauled away by farmers.

Freshmen Still Furnish Sayings of "Wit and —?"

FRESHMEN, Tex.—"And we all stood and sang the Alma Mater."

That's the way a freshman student at Texas Christian University, impressed with his first big football game, wrote about the Alma Mater song in an English theme.

Another student wrote: "I was so tired I went to my room and there sank in the arms of metaphysics."

Here are a few other prize boners that instructors in the freshman English classes have collected:

"An aluminate is an ex-student."

"A bibliography is a story of the Bible."

"A hobby is a boy friend."

"Girls are known as fair sex."

"Homily means not exactly beautiful."

"A gargoye is a throat rinse."

"The morality tables and statistics prove this."

"He decomposed over the social changes wrought by the World War."

"I waited in the sun parlor for his arrival with great expense."

HASKELL CHURCHES LAY PLANS FOR A PARADE SATURDAY

Is Part of "Fall Recovery" Drive and Will Depict Phases of Church

PLANS BEING MADE

Church Leaders Counting on Help From Members; Says "Drive Is A Battle"

As a preliminary to the general "Rally Day" program Sunday morning, in which all Haskell churches will take part, a parade depicting all phases of church work will be staged around the courthouse square Saturday afternoon at four o'clock.

The parade on Saturday and the "Rally Day" programs Sunday are a part of the "Fall Recovery" campaign which was outlined by church members through the months of October and November.

Plans for the parade are now being arranged.

According to church leaders, the drive now under way is the first concerted movement of this kind to be launched in the community in years and probably the most elaborate ever undertaken in Haskell.

"We hope to have at least fifty per cent of the Haskell citizenship in church and Sunday School next Sunday morning," said one of the church leaders Wednesday, "but this laudable ambition of ours cannot be accomplished by mere wishing—we'll have to work, and work hard."

"The battle—and it is a battle in every sense of the word—should engage the attention and effort of every church member."

Services for Mrs. J. H. Townsend, of Rule, Held Oct. 27

RULE, Texas.—After an illness of three weeks, Mrs. J. H. Townsend of near Rule died Friday morning in a Stamford hospital. She was taken to Stamford on October 19.

Funeral services were held here Saturday afternoon with the Rev. I. N. Aivis, of Haskell, officiating, assisted by Rev. Roy Terce of Aspermont and Rev. Tucker of Rule. Burial was made in the local cemetery, under direction of J. H. Kinney of the Kinney Funeral Home, Haskell.

Mrs. Townsend was married forty-six years ago and had resided in this section for twenty-four years.

She is survived by her husband; seven daughters, Mrs. J. L. Chenault, Aspermont; Mrs. Susie Anderson, Haskell; Mrs. Jim Linville, Coahoma; Mrs. Warren Henry, Plainview; Mrs. J. E. Coke, Spur; Mrs. Claude Phillips, Throckmorton; and Mrs. E. L. Lewis, Clovis, New Mexico; two sons, A. B. Townsend and F. O. Townsend, both of Mesa, Ariz. Thirty-two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren also survive.

Pallbearers were Luke Baker, J. W. Driskill, E. A. Henry, Robert Henry, Carl Morgan, and Dutch Hager. Ladies assisting with the flowers were: Mrs. C. L. Linville, Mrs. I. W. Driskill, Mrs. Dutch Hager, Mrs. J. E. Yarbrough, Mrs. Clarence Ashley, Mrs. W. O. Smith.

Local Men Hurt in Auto Collision

Tom Mapes, county commissioner of Precinct No. 2, and P. G. (Buck) Kendrick, commissioner of Precinct 3, received injuries and bruises when the car in which they were returning to Haskell from Fort Worth collided with a trailer on the highway several miles east of Throckmorton Saturday afternoon. Three other occupants of the car, J. E. Skelton and H. H. Van Zandt, Mitchell county commissioners, and Tom Carpenter of Abilene, owner and driver of the car, also received slight injuries. The four were carried from Throckmorton to Stamford and Abilene hospitals in an ambulance from the Kinney Funeral Home. Mapes was carried to the Stamford Sanitarium, where examination revealed that he had sustained several broken ribs and lacerations of the right arm. Kendrick, after receiving first aid treatment by a local physician, was carried to his home here.

Assembly of God Holding Revival

W. C. Collins of Los Angeles, California, is holding a revival meeting at the Assembly of God church in this city. Mr. Collins is a World War veteran and saw active service overseas during the war. He is said to be a forceful speaker and the public is invited to attend the series of meetings.

SUPREME COURT DENIES WRIT IN FERGUSON CASE

Application by A. M. Ferguson To Have Substitute Judge Named Refused

A. M. Ferguson's application for a writ of mandamus, whereby he sought to have a substitute judge appointed to try cases involving the estate of Kate F. Morton, was refused Tuesday by the state supreme court.

Ferguson and his attorney were absent when Judge A. S. Mauser of Sweetwater, called the "Ferguson Cases" to trial here Monday morning in district court, in accordance with the published docket, and the case of R. A. Chapman, Junior, of Sherman, versus A. M. Ferguson went to trial. Judgment was entered in favor of Chapman.

The plaintiff, through his attorney, Ralph Woods of Dallas, claimed that Ferguson had borrowed the sum of $19,000 in 1929 from Chapman, for which he made out a note and executed a deed of trust, assigning A. M. Ferguson's interests in the Kate F. Morton estate. Foreclosure was therefore asked.

According to local court officials, unless Ferguson files a supersedeas bond, delaying sale of his interests, the sale will be held in due course of time.

Only a handful of spectators were present in the court room Monday when the case went to trial to witness a climax in one of the most sensational litigations ever held in West Texas.

Evidence was presented by Woods which tended to show that the $19,000 Ferguson had borrowed, only $1,300 had been paid Chapman as interest and nothing paid on the principal.

Witnesses placed on the stand by the plaintiff testified that both A. M. Ferguson and his attorney were in Haskell Sunday, before the trial held on Monday, but Woods claimed he had not been notified that the defendants were not ready for trial.

Judge Mauser, after considering the more than thirty cases listed on the docket in connection with the Ferguson case, declared that only about three or four cases could be tried, owing to the fact that the remainder were suspended awaiting the action of the arbitration case now on appeal, and also that any action which he might take would bear no weight.

"After being visited several times in the past few weeks by A. M. Ferguson, who insisted that these cases come to trial, I made a special trip over here for that purpose and then neither Ferguson nor his attorney are present," explained Judge Mauser to a Free Press reporter.

"These cases, all of them, were placed on the docket sometime ago by Judge Grissom, and the fact that they were to be heard on Monday October 29, was made known in court, I am informed."

At one time the estate of Kate F. Morton, of Haskell, of which A. M. Ferguson and Joe Lee Ferguson, brothers, were sole heirs outside of a few minor bequests, was worth in the neighborhood of $100,000, but constant litigation by both interested parties through the ten years since Mrs. Morton died, has reduced the value to about one-half, or even less, of the former amount.

Mother of Haskell Man Dies Monday

Mrs. John E. Meacham, mother of Joe Meacham of this city, died at her home in Chicago, Ill., Monday after a lingering illness of several months. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon.

The deceased is survived by her husband, four sons and two daughters. Sons are Joe Meacham, Haskell; Charles and Paul Meacham, Chicago; Arthur Meacham, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. S. S. Baker and Mrs. Ohas. Kirscher of Chicago.

EIGHT MEASURES ON CONSTITUTION CHANGE OFFERED

R. H. Maxwell, County Agent Urges Farmers Surrender Certificates at Once

Eight amendments will be voted upon Tuesday, November 6 in the general election.

Propositions of taxation affecting county and municipal governments are offered, with the summary quoted in the affirmative first and then repeated in the negative, giving the voter his choice of the two propositions.

The titles of the various measures to be voted upon are as follows: Property Classification, County Reorganization, Limiting Taxation, Abolishing Fee System, County Consolidation, Amending Provisions Changing Official Terms, Taxing School Lands.

MRS. CONNER NAMED AUXILIARY LEADER

Wife of Haskell Judge Is New President of Women's State Organization

Mrs. Chas. M. Conner was elected as president of the women's auxiliary to the County Judges and Commissioners Association at the meeting held last week at Fort Worth. The tenure of the president is for one year, and the next meeting will be held at San Antonio.

The meeting of the county judges and commissioners of Texas was held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Judge and Mrs. Conner; Commissioners G. F. Mullino, Buck Kendrick, Tom Mapes and O. L. Darden, and Miss Louise Mullino were in attendance.

Armistice Day Program Being Planned by Legion

Members of the Press Rogers post, American Legion, will present an Armistice Day program on the afternoon of Nov. 11th, according to plans now under way by officers and members of the local post.

Judge D. T. Bowles of Breckenridge will be the principal speaker, and music will be furnished by the Haskell Municipal Band.

If weather permits, the program will be staged on the east side of the courthouse lawn. Complete details of the affair will be given next week.

Haskell Students Honored at Tech

J. Rankin Gammill of Lubbock, who is a graduate of the Haskell High School, was elected President of the 1935 Senior Class of Texas Technological. Jimmy, as he is known on the campus, is a pre-law student and on his graduation this year plans to enter Harvard Law School. Mr. Gammill is also President of the International Relations Club and a member of the Student Buskin Club, member of the Student Council which governs student activities on the campus, and Pre-Law Club.

Judith English of Plainview was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the elected class. She is also a former student of Haskell High School.

CERTIFICATE POOL CLOSES ON NOV. 10

Taxation Propositions Affecting County and Municipal Governments

Final date for receiving surplus cotton tax exemption certificates for the national pool, has been tentatively set for Nov. 10, according to an announcement received from the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Purchase of certificates from the pool, it was emphasized, would continue as long as the pool had certificates on hand.

R. H. Maxwell, county agent, said it was felt that all holders of surplus certificates who wish to turn them into the pool will have had that opportunity by November 10. State allotment boards have been urged to assist producers who wish to turn in surplus certificates to the pool.

"Because Nov. 10 has been selected as a final date for receiving surplus certificates," Maxwell said, "it is now more urgent than ever that producers speed up the surrender of any certificates they wish to offer for sale through the pool."

Haskell Smears Rotan 28-0 Score

Bowing his neck, swinging his shoulders with a vengeance, John Kimbrough, husky back of the Haskell Indians, crossed the goal line of the Rotan Yellowhammers four times here last Friday night and led his teammates to a 28 to 0 win over the invaders. Haskell's hard-plunging youngster also made every kick good, even on the third touchdown when he had to kick over because Haskell was offside when the boot was made.

A fair sized crowd watched the Tribe count over the Yellowhammers.

Although slightly sluggish at the start, as usual, the Indians soon began to manifest a determination to score in the first quarter over the team which Snyder could only best 13 to 0. Running plays were used early instead of an air attack, which was used against Snyder the week before—with almost disastrous effects to the local squad.

Immediately after the third touchdown had been made Friday night, Coach Bill Richey rushed in a scud of substitutes, but the beaten, yet determined Yellowhammers started a counter-attack and the first stringers were soon called back into the fray.

John Kimbrough was the player planting his brogans over the line for every touchdown, but Jack Kimbrough, English, Adkins, Starr and Roberts did good work. English, as safety, snatched several Ro-

P. T. A. Council of County In Meeting

The meeting of the Haskell County P. T. A. Council which was held at Rochester last Saturday was well attended by the parents and teachers of the county.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Carpenter. The devotional was given by Rev. Florence, pastor of the Methodist Church. A cordial welcome was extended the visiting units by Mr. Ligon, superintendent of the Rochester schools.

A play, "Good Health Fairies At School" was given by the third grade pupils of North Ward School in Haskell. It was directed by Mrs. O. W. Malloy.

The Mother Singers of the Weimert organization gave two numbers, "The Bells of St. Mary's," and "A Little Street Where Old Friends Meet." They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. James F. Cadenhead.

Choral numbers were given by pupils of Lake Creek and O'Brien Schools.

A meeting of the executive committee was called by the president, at which time she tendered her resignation due to the fact that she had moved out of the county. The resignation was accepted and Mrs. Wair of Haskell was elected to fill the remainder of the term.

Next came the lunch hour which was enjoyed by all. A delicious plate lunch with coffee and dessert was served and special entertainment was furnished by Rochester.

After lunch the meeting was called to order by the retired president, Mrs. Carpenter, at which time she announced her resignation and introduced the new president, Mrs. Wair. Mrs. Wair took the chair and presided for the remainder of the meeting.

We were disappointed in not having two of the speakers who were on the program, but Mrs. Woods of Rule gave a most interesting and helpful discussion on Health and Care of the Teeth.

There was a round table discussion on methods of procuring a county health nurse. The president urged that Red Cross Roll Call be made as large as possible to aid us in health work in the county.

The meeting adjourned until the third Saturday in January, at which time there will be another meeting in Rule.

New Teacher of Vocational Work Named By Board

H. T. Sullivan, graduate of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Ala., has been selected by the Haskell School Board for the position of vocational agricultural teacher in the local schools to succeed H. K. Henry, resigned.

Sullivan assumed charge of his new duties this past week.

OF PASTURE COUNTY CAUSE MUCH CONCERN

Forage and Pasturage About 20 Per Cent of Annual, Agent Declares

WHEAT CROP SMALL

8,734 Bales Ginned In County Up To October 18, W. P. Trice Reports

Wheat in Haskell county are in the winter under circumstances that are far from desirable, and as their own personal needs are increased, but lack of forage is causing grave concern, according to R. H. Maxwell, county agent.

Statistics made show that forage planting is about twenty per cent of normal throughout the county, but in the eastern and western sections, where the crop is the hardest, the percentage is still lower. Scattered rains have relieved the situation in some sections, but fall planting is only a gamble because of the uncertainty in the ground. Volcanic ash, which sprang up following a recent shower, is dying in some of the communities.

Despite the hopes and expectations of so-called sellers, other growers were not so sanguine about the prospect through wintering in addition to the 5000 head of cattle which were disposed of to government, at least 3000 other head were shipped out of the county in individual effort, thereby losing approximately $35,000 in lost hands from the government.

A number of bales of cotton were ginned in Haskell county during the year in the worst failure in the history of the county. Statistics report, as compiled by W. P. Trice, special agent, lists a total of 8,734 bales up to October 18, 1934, with approximately 30,133 bales ginned in 1933, with approximately 50 per cent of the crop has been gathered. However, the moisture per bale, on account of the recent effort, is greater, but county business men still cannot understand where money is to be had.

Maxwell is also authority for the fact that the cotton rental benefit payment for Haskell county will total at least $350,000. This sum does not include any payment, which is expected to be forwarded in November also, on option cotton at the rate of about $7.00 per bale is another source being taken advantage of, as the pool certificates bring in the neighborhood of $20 per bale, and a hauling charge. It is believed that at least 10,000 bales will be hauled the certificate route in Haskell county before the deadline set on November 10.

Ruth Bryan Owen Speaks At CIA

WASHINGTON, Texas.—If American diplomats are doing their work well, there is a bulwark rising against the tide of war, and in the eyes of American people lies the business of diplomacy," Ruth Bryan Owen, America's first woman ambassador, declared in an address at the State College for Women here.

"The jurisdiction over the consular, the diplomatic office of the commercial office, the ambassador to Denmark said that she was a medium of introduction between two friends—America and Denmark."

"Danish people have placed on the docket sometime ago by Judge Grissom, and the fact that they were to be heard on Monday October 29, was made known in court, I am informed."

At one time the estate of Kate F. Morton, of Haskell, of which A. M. Ferguson and Joe Lee Ferguson, brothers, were sole heirs outside of a few minor bequests, was worth in the neighborhood of $100,000, but constant litigation by both interested parties through the ten years since Mrs. Morton died, has reduced the value to about one-half, or even less, of the former amount.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Hunt and Miss Madeline Hunt Joint Hostesses for Bridge Party

Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Hunt and daughter Miss Madeline were joint hostesses at the Magazine Club rooms Saturday night for a bridge party honoring their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Stigman of Chicago, Ill. and Mr. and Mrs. Haven Gillispie of Covington, Ky., and Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Club was decorated in a black and gold combination, with baskets and vases of marigolds, the motif suggesting the approaching Halloween season, where sixteen tables were arranged for the games. Tallies and table markers were in keeping with the chosen motif. At the conclusion of a series of games Mrs. Stigman and Mrs. Gillispie were presented with lovely hand-painted Texas blue bonnet pictures, while high score prize for the evening went to Mrs. Hollis Atkinson for ladies, and Mr. Jno. A. Couch for men.

Mrs. Lynn Pace, Mrs. Jno. V. Davis and Mrs. J. B. Post assisted in serving a delicious refreshment plate to the honor guests, Messrs. and Mesdames O. E. Patterson, W. M. Reid, J. D. Montgomery, Clay Smith, Thomas Morrison, Roy Kilgusworth, Jno. A. Couch, R. C. Couch, John Rike, F. T. Sanders, E. G. Post, Ralph Duncan, Bert Welsh, Earnest Wyatt of Rotan, Oscar Oates, C. V. ### Royal Ambassadors.

The Royal Ambassadors met Tuesday afternoon at the First Baptist Church. The program was on South America led by Mr. L. S. Ramsey which was very interesting. Paul Roberts, Ed Robertson, Jack Simmons, and Buster Gholson had parts on the program. These programs are different and interesting each Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Baptist church and all boys in the intermediate age are invited to come and be with us. Mr. Ramsey is the leader.

Thousands of Women Benefited by Cardui

The benefits many women obtain from Cardui give them great confidence in it. "I have four children," writes Mrs. J. L. Norred, of Lagrange, Ga. "Before the birth of my children, I was weak, nervous and tired. I had a lot of trouble with my back. I took Cardui each time and found it so helpful. Cardui did more to allay the nausea at these times than anything I have ever used. I am in very good health and believe Cardui did a lot of it." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Mrs. Elizabeth Martin Hostess for Two Lovely Parties.

Mrs. Elizabeth Martin was hostess for two lovely forty-two parties the past week—one given on Thursday afternoon and one on Friday. Vases and bowls of zinnias, roses and yellow cosmos were used attractively about the three rooms where the tables were placed.

The Halloween note was carried out in the quaint score pads and ballies used. A number of games were played, the guests entering heartily into the spirit of the occasion.

The refreshment plates which were passed were further suggestive of the Halloween season as they conveyed included ice cream pumpkins, devil's food cake and olives. A spray of statice and yellow cosmos tied with narrow black ribbon, were given as plate favors.

Mrs. Martin was assisted in serving by her daughter, Mrs. Marie Wamble and small granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Wamble. Those who enjoyed these delightful occasions were: Mesdames R. C. Couch, Jno. Couch, George Herren, Sam Harman, L. Lewis, Mary Oates, O. E. Patterson, J. E. Bernard, H. S. Post, Donnell Hughes, J. U. Fields, F. T. Sanders, J. A. Jones, P. L. Daugherty, S. A. Roberts, T. ### Junior G. A.'s.

The Junior G. A.'s met Tuesday Oct. 30 at the Baptist church in a business meeting. Then with our leader Mrs. Felker we visited Aunt Angie Thompson with a fruit shower. We sang for her, and she seemed to enjoy it. Those making the tour were: Fayette Kuestler, Mary Louise Holland, Madge Reese, Eunice Darnell, Eula Mae Watson, Ethel Reba Couch, Sue Quatlebaum, and our leader, Mrs. Felker. Reporter.

Two Dresses for $1.15

From four and one-half sugar sacks dyed a dull red, students at Texas State College for Women (CIA) fashioned for 25 cents the street dress modeled by Miss Jess Edith Carlisle, Midland, (left), who satisfied with this achievement, the next problem was to make a lady's colored suit from a discarded man's suit. Miss Bernice Hubbard, Dallas, (right) models the 90-cent creation.

Presbyterian Woman's Auxiliary.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church met Monday, October 29th, in the home of Mrs. R. E. Sherrill for the purpose of giving the Home Mission book, "Presbyterian Missions in the Southern United States," by Dr. E. T. Thompson. The women gathered about 10:00 A. M. and began their study which was as follows: Prayer by Mrs. H. S. Wilson, who also presided and gave introductory remarks of the book. Book Review, by Dr. Lewis Sherrill, Mrs. John W. Pace. Th. Colonial South, 1607-1776—Read and discussed. The Ante-Bellum South, 1776-1861—Mrs. Marvin Hancock. The Modern South, 1861-1934—Mrs. Charles Tucker.

Early Wards of the South: The Indian—Mrs. A. A. Frieron. Early Wards of the South: The Negro—Mrs. R. C. Montgomery.

The Responsibilities of the South—Mrs. Joe A. Jones. Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow—Mrs. R. E. Sherrill.

A lovely luncheon, which was made possible by each woman bringing a covered dish, was served at the noon hour in buffet style. The meeting was dismissed about 4 p. m. with the repeating of the Lord's Prayer.

The Woman's Auxiliary meets every Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and urges all the women of the church to come and take advantage of the Bible study and other programs. We welcome anyone who is not a member of our Church and wishes to join the Bible study or any other part of our work. Reporter.

Harmony Club Meetings.

On Oct. 10th the Harmony Club met for a program on Early American Music. Mrs. J. M. Martin, director of this program, gave a most interesting introduction to our Early American Music. Topics on Early Composers and Their Music were given by Mrs. O. W. Carter and Mrs. H. R. Whatley.

On Oct. 17 the program was on "Our First National Airs." "Medley of National Airs"—Mrs. J. T. Ellis.

Mason-Red.

Sunday morning, October 28th, Mr. Cecil Mason and Miss Johnnie Reed were united in marriage, the wedding being solemnized immediately after the morning services at the First Methodist Church with the pastor, Rev. Orion W. Carter reading the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride wore a lovely suit of woodland brown crepe, fur trimmed with brown accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of bronze snapdragons.

Mrs. Mason is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Reed of Jewett, Texas. She is a graduate of Texas State College for Women, Denton. She came to Haskell about a year ago where she succeeded Mrs. Reynolds Wilson as county home demonstration agent.

Mr. Mason is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Mason of Jayton, Texas. He came from Rule about six months ago and is manager of the Magnolia Petroleum station here. The couple are at home in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Oates.

Relatives of the couple who were here for the wedding were Mrs. L. H. Mason and Miss Mozell Mason of Jayton, J. W. Mason of Rule, and Miss Rose of Spur, Texas.

Pretty Birthday Party Honors Betty Jane Isbell.

"Betty Jane Isbell was honoree at a lovely party Monday afternoon at her ninth birthday, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Isbell.

An evening of delightful entertainment was followed by the presentation of a large number of gifts to the honoree. An angel food cake with nine candles was cut, and a dainty refreshment plate served to: Mary Helen Crandall, Helen Dale and Dean Bartlett, Jean Reeves, Jerry Cahill, Thomas Davis, L. L. Shriver, James Broedlove, Curtis Pearcey, Billy Joe Ivey, Mary Elizabeth Wamble, Patsy Jean and Earlen Pearcey, Martha Jean Robertson, Jacqueline Theis, Doris Lowe, Mary Frances Pickett, Janice Pace, Velma Alice Ballard, P. A. Wamble, Jr., Weldon Carter, Rex Power, baby Sue Ann Isbell, and the honoree, Betty Jane Isbell.

Mrs. Giles Kemp and sons Giles Marion and Billy spent the week end at Bellevue visiting a sister, Mrs. R. E. Cox and family.

Methodist Missionary Society.

Continuing the study of missions, the members of the Methodist Missionary Society met in the annual all day study on October 29. The book "Christianity and Industry in America" was reviewed.

The morning session was opened at ten o'clock, with those in attendance singing "Jesus Calls Me." Mrs. Patterson was at the organ. Devotional was led by Mrs. E. Martin, who chose as her scripture the 31st chapter of Exodus, and as an additional thought, an article entitled "Glow and Afterglow" was read. Following the devotional the song "Sweet Hour of Prayer" was sung. Mrs. Mack Martin and Mrs. Carl Powers sang "The Cross Is No Greater Than His Grace."

The chapters of the book on review during the morning session were given by Mrs. Wallace Cox, Mrs. A. H. Wair, and Mrs. Hollis Atkinson, respectively. Mrs. Sowell led in prayer at the conclusion of the third chapter.

Adjournment for lunch followed and the members were served a delicious Mexican lunch consisting of chili beans, pickles, apple pie and coffee. Tables were attractively laid with lovely cloths, embroidered by hand. A vase of autumn flowers was used at each table as the center decoration.

The afternoon session opened with the congregation singing "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone," which was followed by the devotional led by Mrs. F. T. Sanders. Mrs. K. Thornton then sang "Sweet Peace."

Chapters four, five and six were given by Mrs. Hudson Pittman, Mrs. Matt N. Graham and Mrs. John Rike.

Mrs. Patterson, the president, expressed her thanks to Mrs. Cox and her co-workers for the program which she termed "very fine and inspiring."

Next Monday is business day and Mrs. Patterson urged that all members attend.

Volume 1 By Haskell High School Students No. 3

Editorial

Our nation has a song, and our state has a song, therefore we deem it quite fitting that our school should likewise have a song. There are several ways in which we may represent true school spirit. What student has not shown the football spirit? What student will not be equally as fervent about basketball, then interscholastic meet? But then, that is only the social side; on the other hand we are brought into daily contact with our friends and those who may become our friends. Often we never realize exactly what this has benefited us until we lack these things. No doubt if any one of us at any time were to absent ourselves from Texas for any considerable length of time we would be overjoyed if somewhere we should hear the song "Texas, My Texas." It would no doubt give us a thrill that we could not easily explain in words. Likewise our school song can only serve as the acme of ardor while in school. Later in life the day will come when we will look back in retrospective to these things that we've known and shared. Such memories of High School days will steal into the familiar strains of "Dear Haskell High."

For the benefit of the new students, freshmen, and any other who does not know this song, here are the words:

"Our praises unto thee we sing, Haskell High, dear Haskell High. Our talents unto thee we bring, Haskell High, dear Haskell High. In friendship, love, and loyalty, We pledge allegiance now to thee, Haskell High, dear Haskell High."

Mr. Breedlove Attends Conference

Superintendent C. B. Breedlove of the Haskell High School and Mr. H. T. Sullivan, new vocational agriculture teacher, attended the meeting of the Old Belt Teachers Association held in Abilene last week. This meeting, attended by representatives from as far south as Ballinger, as far west as Wink, and as far east as Mineral Wells, was a curriculum revision conference.

The principal speakers of the afternoon session were: Dr. Fred C. Ayres, of the University of Texas; Dr. D. N. Wiggins of Hardin-Simmons University, and Mr. W. A. Stigler from the State Department of Education.

Following the afternoon session, at seven o'clock, a delightful banquet was given at the Hilton Hotel, in honor of the representatives.

The two interesting speakers for this occasion were: Judge J. M. Stinson, and Dr. C. O. Smith, president of McMurry College.

County Teachers Meet

When the teachers of Haskell county met in the city of Haskell on October 20th, all the Haskell High School teachers were present, with the exception of Mrs. Wimbish, who was ill at that time.

Although this was a meeting pertaining largely to rural and grade schools, all teachers alike were concerned in the election of the various directors of the Interscholastic Meet, who were named in the last issue of the Free Press.

In addition to this, and of vital interest to all teachers, was the discussion of a proposed tax amendment which will come before the voters of the state in the November election. As we understand it, this proposed tax reduction measure would greatly reduce the amount of aid that the local schools have been receiving from the state. We believe that this amendment should be opposed by all who are interested in public education.

For this reason we were proud that all of our teachers, but one, were able to attend the meeting.

News Flashes From the Juniors

Juniors, your treasurer, George William Fouts is waiting patiently for your money that you are supposed to bring; he wishes to have it all in soon.

Gayle Roberts and George Fouts were absent several days last week because of illness. We are glad that they are back now.

Juanita Jenkins lost half a snap (from her dress) last week and doesn't give a snap who finds it if they will only return it.

Mrs. Young Attends Conference

Mrs. Young, teacher of home economics, attended a Home Economics Conference meeting Oct. 26. Although not called for this purpose one of the most important matters discussed was the proposed third amendment to the constitution—its effect on the school system, and how teachers should inform their communities.

The meeting directed by Miss Bess Heflin and Miss Mattie Tooley, dealt generally with improving methods of teaching Home Economics. Some of the subjects of discussion were: The Problem Method of Teaching, Making Home Economics carry over into the home life of students, and Relief Work.

From the Spanish Department

Do you sometimes hear a sonorous yet subdued volume of sound waited up from Room 8? You'll hear it often. I guess for we read Spanish aloud in unison—just to familiarize our ears with strange combinations of sound, and to exercise our tongues in uttering those same strange combinations.

Neither was it the fourth grade that was heard singing "Juanita" one day recently—it was the second-year class singing it in Spanish. With the lovely alto that we have, and those deeper masculine tones, we like the sound of it. It seems softer than the English, almost.

First year students are gradually getting accustomed to the way Spanish adjectives should act. It keeps one busy to remember that an adjective can have four different endings, and must agree in gender and number with the noun it modifies. After all, though, it isn't so hard, because there's a certain rhythm to it. Maybe that is one thing that makes Spanish a soft and pretty language.

Just think! George William has been Jorge Guillermo all this time, and never once suspected it! Anita and Juanita are Spanish to begin with, and Joe is Pepito. Also "Geraldine reminds us for she looked it up!" Robert is Roberto.

Senior Class Meeting

In a meeting last Friday afternoon the seniors decided to have a social on the night of November 9, which is the only open date during the football season. It is our plan to have a buffet supper in the Home Economics rooms of the high school. Since this is our first social, let's every senior be there! Let's start it off just like we intend to do things all the year. And then, don't forget that we're to hear some more about that "special plan." Surely you'll be wondering what it is. At this meeting a letter was read from the manufacturing company, stating that our rings will be sent about November 21. Don't forget what that means—let's fill up the treasury meanwhile!—Reporter.

Football

Last year it was well remembered that Rotan was "champion" of District 13 and overwhelmed the Haskell Indians 27-0; but this year it was our turn.

Through hard and successful line plays and passing the Indians went four quarters, not allowing those Yellowhammers to score; while four touchdowns were added by the Indian eleven, with John Kimbrough kicking that extra point out of sight (almost).

It was declared in the Pep Rally Friday afternoon that we hoped to give Rotan some of what "Ole Haskell High" has in line to win a football game.

Everyone is looking forward to the game next Friday, but we hope during the week to come that Coaches Richey and Mason will be able to give those Indians what is necessary to do to Hamlin what was done to Rotan.

Side-Line Reporter.

On Gridiron and Bleachers

Your Pep!
Your Pep!
You've got it.
Now keep it.

This must have been the Pep Squad theme Friday night because they certainly did have plenty of pep, and the team really had it and are going to try to keep it. Didn't you see the way our boys were fighting? They fought as if they were fighting for dear life and they were—they were fighting for dear Haskell High. The pep squad helped by keeping the spirit up. As sure as the team is there the pep squad will be there with plenty of pep; so watch and listen.

After the game Friday night, can you doubt that our boys CAN play football? Of course we will give them credit for the victory but certainly some of it goes to our coaches, Mr. Richey and Mr. Mason.

It won't be long until football season is over but don't let your confidence get the best of you, boys. Some of our "toughest" games are yet to come. So come on. Keep up the good work.

Haskell is proud of the large crowds coming in to see our games, and we hope to continue to have the support of all fans of football.

Be there Friday night and be for Haskell.

There wasn't much wrong with the stunt between halves. And we've never seen the like of that Christy. We couldn't do all that—could you?

Hallow'een

Beware! Hallow'een is at hand! And of course you know what that means, don't you? The night of The Vigil of the Feast of All Saints is a hallowed evening. In Roman Catholic countries it is an occasion for visiting cemeteries and placing flowers on the graves of friends and relatives. (I'll bet there isn't any body here who would go near a cemetery on Hallow'een.)

In the dear old U. S. A. it is a night for merry making and cut-ups. Jolly England and her colonies join us in that kind of celebration, too.

You may see many ghosts and spirits that night but don't shake in your shoes too much—for more than half of them are just somebody under mother's oldest sheet. And those awful faces we see? I imagine if there ever was a spirit with a face like some of these he must have scared himself to death.

Now remember, "Kids will be kids" so don't take any of our monkey-shines too seriously.

Indian Whoops

Mr. Richey was quite dumb-founded in a mathematics class the other day by one of his witty students. "Arithmetic is a science of truth" said Mr. Richey. "Figures can't lie. For instance, if one man can build a house in 12 days, 12 men can build it in one."

"Yes," interrupted our quick-brained Crockett English. "Then 288 men will build it in an hour, 17,280 in one minute and 1,036,800 in one second and I don't believe they could lay one brick in that time."

While our coach was still gasping the smart "ready reckoner" went on. "Again, if one ship can cross the Atlantic in six days, six ships can cross it in one day. I don't believe that either, so where's the truth in Arithmetic?"

Statements have been received from Mr. Breedlove, Mr. Wimbish and Mr. Pearsey. We now bring you a statement from the Spanish teacher, Miss Vick. Quote:

"Me piden que escriba asi, pero como voy a leerlo? Sin embargo, me parece que nuestra publicacion va a contribuir a la interes en la escuela y a desarrabar un espiritu ma's fuerte entre los alumnos. Creo que las gusta a ellos muchisimo."

Well—if she's lost anything we'll help her hunt it.

If you wanta continue to function properly throughout the entire year of 1934 Anno Domoniee you'd better get on the good side of our Editor-in-Chief.

All right, Miss Orr, we're under the impression it would pay you to come across with the name of that Romeo from Rochester.

Yes, Captain Roberts, it's all right to say "She sings sweetly" even if "sweet" is used to qualify taste—one should have a taste for music, shouldn't he?

George Geraldine Norris wants for dime and the right kind; you know that "bum be de um bum, de bum."

SNAPSHOTS

Every married woman likes to think that her husband is particularly hard to manage.

A college girl makes a pretty fair wife, but the only kind of kitchen utensil she recognizes is the grid-iron.

"Thank heavens, all poetry is not published," says a New York City professor. Thank the editors, he should have said.

A Liberal, it seems, is one who wants to be liberal with what he hasn't got, and a Conservative is one who wants to conserve what he's got.

A Boston music teacher complains that he can't find women trumpet players and says most of them are violinists. Well, it's only natural for them to want bows.

Somehow the fellow who is doing his job best always seems to get a lot of fun out of it.

These are the days when a college is known by the kind of football team it has.

These times, two can live as cheaply as one if they happen to be in relief.

Price fixing is a fine idea for everyone except the consumer.

Americanism: Reducing the production of everything so that everybody will have plenty.

It seems a bit egotistical to think that the fittest survive because they happen to be among the survivors.

(Continued from First Page). tan punts out of the air, without a muff, which heartened Haskell fans, who have watched too many of the opposing team's punts dropped, or mishandled. Adkins made a number of nice runs, while Starr's tackling of fast flying Yellowhammers stood out.

Fighting every moment of the game, both Reeves and Hamilton guards, made possible practically every advance of the ball carrier, and showed to the fans their ability to "take it."

McMillan, large Indian center, is perhaps the most improved player on the local squad, and as his work indicated in the Snyder and Rotan games, he is rapidly becoming one of Haskell's outstanding players. "Mack", who played very little football before this season, is beginning to grasp "what it's all about" and will be hard to hold from now on.

Fifty Patents Are Earning Millions For Their Makers

NEW YORK — Despite the depression, enormous fortunes are being made by American patents. A recent survey shows that there are 50 patents in the United States earning $1,000,000 a year, 300 patents earning $500,000, and over 2,650 patents earning at least $100,000 a year.

Many of the inventions with high earning power seem trivial. The "Kiddie Kar," the collar button with a turn down clip to hold one's tie, the barbed wire fence, and the cap for beer bottles have made their inventors millionaires. The United States Patent Office is issuing new patents at the rate of about 1,600 a week.

Investigations made by the Inventors Foundation show that a great number of inventors fail to receive their proper share of profits from their inventions. One of the commonest mistakes is for an inventor to try to procure a patent without previous experience. Many inventors fail through their ignorance of the market for which they are inventing. Others make commercial use of a good idea before protecting it by a patent application, or they get into trouble by manufacturing and selling something without first investigating to see if it is covered by a patent that is in force.

For a young girl's street dress, four and one-half sugar sacks were bleached to remove all printing and excess design, and then dyed a dull red color. With a foundation garment pattern, the "material" was cut on conservative lines with a fitted waist, and a simple skirt fashioned with two pleats. One half of a sack was dyed beige and used in trimming a collar and ascot tie. When the garment was completed, 25c proved to be the cost.

A decidedly more complexing problem came up when a girl's suit had to be made from a man's suit. By turning the trousers topsy turvy and cutting them off at the widest part a skirt was found for the ensemble. The legs were ripped and fitted for the waist of the skirt and an inverted pleat made from strips of material taken from the side of the coat.

Just to brighten the somber Oxford gray tones of the ensemble, silver buttons were used in trimming. A bright gingham blouse of blue, gray and red checks was fashioned to be worn with the suit, and the entire ensemble reached the sum of 90c.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Wm. P. Hardegree, Minister.

9-45—The Church School, Mr. Manley Branch, Asst. Supt.

This Sunday has been designated as Rally Day. And therefore special effort on the part of everyone is expected so that not only every one enrolled might be present but that others not on any Sunday School roll in Haskell might be invited. I suggest that you check up on your neighbors and invite those not accustomed to going to Sunday School to come with you.

11:00—Morning worship, Sermon, and Communion.

The theme of the sermons during the month of November is "Big Problems." For the morning sermon the subject for discussion is "The Tithes in Principle and Practice."

6:15—Junior and Intermediate Endeavor. Leader: Miss Helen Mable Baldwin.

7:30—Evening Worship and Sermon. Sermon subject: "The Christian Convictions that make Evangelism a Necessity."

Marine Corps recruits must now have a high school education. One with a Ph. D. stands a good chance of becoming a corporal.

A music teacher says that music student never commit suicide. Maybe not, but many of the neighbors feel like it.

Shoes For Fall Make Appearance

By a "Young Modern"

DENTON, Texas. On the eve of the autumn days, fall footwear makes its appearance, and bids for more sophisticated contour in shoe designs together with a brighter range of colors for the leather, suede and cloth materials.

For countless numbers of years shoes have confined themselves to the leather field as mediums of expression. They relied upon combinations of different leathers for new effects, but this season the story has a new twist. Young sophisticates at Texas State College for Women (CIA) have reached into wider fields and are looking to a variety of materials for the "latest" in shoes.

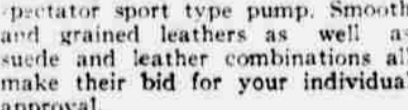

Velvet, pin-wale corduroy, gaberdine and woolsens are intriguingly combined with leather. They take the form of inserts or trims and while possessing great wearability they add lightness, both in weight and effect to the feet. Operas made entirely of velvet are gaining new popularity heights for late afternoon and evening wear. They may be plain or accented with patent leather trim, just as you choose.

For actual street wear, the walking shoe type with the low or medium heel is built along the lines of English footwear. This group includes the four and six eyelet Oxford of the brogue family developed in suede or calf, the flat and medium heeled strapped shoes and the spectator sport type pump. Smooth and grained leathers as well as suede and leather combinations all make their bid for your individual approval.

END OF TRAIL FOR "PRETTY BOY"

Another of America's arch criminals reached the end of the trail when Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, notorious Oklahoma gunman and bandit, was tracked down and shot to death by Department of Justice agents and East Liverpool police on a farm in eastern Ohio. Floyd, like most of his kind, died with his boots on after a spectacular criminal career that began when he was a youth of 18 years. Floyd's criminal tendencies showed up early in the way of petty thefts and he entered seriously upon a career of crime in 1921 with the robbery of the Aikens postoffice in his native State. Since that time he had spread terror throughout the West and Southwest and was credited with being implicated in the death of at least 10 persons. The most daring exploit credited to Floyd was the Kansas City depot massacre. "Pretty Boy" and his pal Adam Richetti, who was captured last week at Wellsville, Ohio, after a gun fight in which Floyd made his escape, are said by Federal agents to have been members of the gang that perpetrated the machine gun massacre of five men in the Kansas City depot but the notorious bandit died without telling whether he actually did engineer that ruthless piece of mass murder. Little had been heard from Floyd for a long period until last month when he and two companions shot their way to freedom when discovered by officers at a farmhouse in Iowa, and for a time it was believed that the Terror of the Southwest might be dead. The Iowa incident, however, proved that the ruthless gunman was still on the loose and his trail was not picked up again until he and Richetti were surprised by John H. Fultz, chief of Police of Wellsville, Ohio, as they rested on a wooded hillside just outside the city limits. The two are said to have robbed the People's Bank at Tiltonville, Ohio, and were hiding out when Fultz came upon them. Richetti was captured but Floyd managed to escape only to be shot down two days later near East Liverpool.

Since the Department of Justice launched its campaign of extermination against such criminals most of the "big shots" have been either killed or captured. The Dillinger gang has been literally wiped out and of all the top-notchers only George (Baby Face) Nelson remains at large. It is only a question of time until he too will meet a fate similar to that of Dillinger and Floyd.

The success of the department's campaign against these criminals has just about stripped banditry and kidnaping of its glamour and the youth who might be influenced to a life of crime by the exploits of Dillinger, Floyd and their ilk now will hesitate when he ponders their sordid end. It may sound a bit brutal to commend the policy of exterminating such criminals by the gun instead of trying to effect their capture and allow the law to take its course, but it is the only effective way of stamping out this breed of ruthless killers who do not hesitate to snuff out the life of anyone who stands in their way. Since they live by the gun it is entirely appropriate that they die by the gun.

MARKETS AND RECOVERY

Every facility that adds to the ease, rapidity and cheapness of distribution quickens commerce and increases the sum of human happiness the world over, according to the Grain Committee on National Affairs, which has made a comprehensive survey of farm and market problems.

As the United States has battled her way upward out of the depression it has become increasingly evident that the most important problem to be solved in hastening recovery and establishing permanent prosperity is to find markets for our surplus products. Prohibitive tariff walls have served to impound our surpluses, particularly those of the farmer, and world markets have gone to other countries who recognized the fact that no great nation could completely isolate itself commercially. Prohibitive tariffs provoked other nations that might have bought our surplus goods into adopting retaliatory measures, but the Roosevelt Administration has made some progress toward a better trade understanding with foreign nations and if this work can be carried forward so that our surplus crops and factory products can be moved to parts of the world where they are in demand, more actual relief for agriculture and industry will have been accomplished than by all the legislative tinkering ever suggested. Just provide the farmer and the manufacturer with a market for his goods and he will do the rest.

Great Britain and Ireland produce only enough meat to supply London's population with 3.2 ounces of beef, and 2.6 ounces of pork per head each week.

FOR BETTER SERVICE

Constant improvement in funeral direction was our pledge to the people of this community when this organization began. We have reaffirmed it by making use of every aid to better service as soon as it was available. This you can see at every Jones, Cox & Co. directed funeral. ## What Price Liberty?

"I want to get a divorce from my husband," said a woman recently as she walked into the office of a local attorney, who heard her approach just in time to take his feet off a desk and pretend he was hard at work.

"Well, I think it can be arranged," the legal authority commented.

"I haven't lived with my husband for twelve years, and just wondered if a divorce couldn't be secured on limitations."

"You probably mean 'abandonment,'" suggested the lawyer.

"Well, something like that. Can't I go right over to the courthouse, tell 'em about it and have them hand me a divorce?"

"Oh, no! Not at all! Everything must go through the regular, legal way."

"How much will it cost?" the divorce seeker inquired.

"If it isn't contested—"

"He won't contest it, he'll sign anything."

"If it isn't contested, my charge will be fifty dollars."

"FIFTY DOLLARS! Why I'd rather live with the old devil than to pay that much," indignantly cried the ex-divorce seeker, as she left the office of the local attorney, who again placed his feet upon the desk and prepared to read the morning newspaper.

Incompetent, Irrelevant and Immature!

We believe in helping a young man get started off right, and if the young man has just received his "paper" to prove he is now a lawyer, all the more reason why we desire to boost.

John Willoughby, recently referred to in this column as "court reporter" will no longer have such a designation placed after his name!

It is now, if you please (and if you don't it can't be helped), John Willoughby, Attorney at Law! Haskell's newest attorney passed the final examination last week, but as evidence that he will eventually make a good lawyer, we cite the fact that he'll continue to serve as court reporter.

But as we have stated, we want to boost every young man—and lawyers. Said lawyers are not supposed to advertise for business—it isn't ethical! Here's an "ad" for a lawyer anyway, ethics or no ethics!

JOHN WILLOUGHBY

ATTORNEY AT LAW
Practice in All State Courts
"Courtin'" A Feature
For a limited time only, will give office FREE, in order to get in practice.

We hope both "pep" squad leaders, Louise McNulty and Lorene Wright, will be present on the playing field for the football game Friday night to lead the squad on the field during the intermission, because the contrast of a blonde and brunette in the vanguard creates a pleasing appearance.

You read lots about the Japanese doing things to "save their face," but a lot of us would be better off if we had another face.

Just as a reminder of the way things are, the people of the United States paid two billion ($2,000,000,000) dollars more for taxes last year than they did for food, and three times as much for taxes as they did for clothes! And still new taxes are being urged, under various names, to make the burden greater. Whatever the tax may be called it only means one thing: Spending of money by politicians, with some of it wisely, but a greater part foolishly. Maybe, Oh, just maybe, GRAPT is still being indulged in!

Textbook on Alcohol

We're not, we hope, a "blue-nose" but the following "clipped" article should cause thought:

"What About Alcohol?" a new textbook approved for Washington junior and senior high school students teaches: People bitten by harmless snakes have been killed by the alcohol treatment given them. The drinker is pneumonia's easiest victim.

Alcohol removes normal inhibitions. The drinker exhibits poor taste, and as he drinks more and more, he becomes more and more coarse and disagreeable. Alcohol sends thousands of people each year to hospitals for the insane and to cemeteries.

And as for the morning "pickup"—that treatment only postpones the effect. No doubt, a non-drinker wrote the textbook for Washington students.

Governor and Cattlemen From Corn States Marvel at Texas

About thirty Corn Belt cattle feeders from Iowa, Indiana, and other states in the north-central section of America attended the recent Highland Fair and cattle sales at Marfa, Texas, in the Big Bend country, and gathered in the Davis Mountains to inspect construction of the famous McDonald observatory, now in process of erection on top of Mount Locke. The picture above was taken there. The observatory visit was part of a trip over the Big Bend country and proved surprisingly interesting to these men and women from other states. Governor Warren T. McCray of Indiana, in center wearing black suit, said he expects to bring his wife next year and spend a vacation in the Davis Mountains. Governor McCray predicted this area will eventually become one of the most popular vacation areas in America, when highway systems and parks are completed. (Texas News Photos.)

Fine Results Are Obtained In Sewing

DENTON, Texas.—Economic sewing might be easy for some but to others it's no small problem to fashion something new from something old. With a project of planning a low cost wardrobe for the high school girl, students at Texas State College for Women (CIA) achieved satisfying results in two garments costing together, $1.15.

For a young girl's street dress, four and one-half sugar sacks were bleached to remove all printing and excess design, and then dyed a dull red color. With a foundation garment pattern, the "material" was cut on conservative lines with a fitted waist, and a simple skirt fashioned with two pleats. One half of a sack was dyed beige and used in trimming a collar and ascot tie. When the garment was completed, it proved to be the cost.

A decidedly more complexing problem came up when a girl's suit had to be made from a man's suit. By turning the trousers topsy-turvy and cutting them off at the widest part a skirt was found for the ensemble. The legs were ripped and fitted for the waist of the skirt and an inverted pleat made from strips of material taken from the side of the coat.

Just to brighten the somber Oxford gray tones of the ensemble, silver buttons were used in trimming. A bright gingham blouse of blue gray and red checks was fashioned to be worn with the suit, and the entire ensemble reached the sum of 90c.

Common Cold Is of No Set Season

AUSTIN, Tex.—While the common cold is no respecter of seasons, increased prevalence is decidedly marked in the winter months. Unfortunately, familiarity with this condition has bred contempt for it. This is plainly indicated by the usual rejoinder, "Oh! I've just got a cold"; the inference, of course, being that while a cold is an annoying

Howard

Rev. Hammer filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night. There were good crowds at each service. Mrs. Bill Griffin is on the sick list. We hope for her a speedy recovery. A group of Howard people met at the schoolhouse last Thursday night to organize a dramatic club. There were twenty who joined as active members, and that many or more as associate members. Mrs. R. T. Penn was elected as chairman and Miss Ruby McMahan as secretary. The organization will be known as "The Howard Dramatic Club." After the club was organized the outside boys and girls organized their basket ball teams. Singing was also enjoyed. Mr. Bob Mayfield and Mrs. Elsie Mitchell of Cottonwood and Mr. Buck Mayfield of California visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dinsmore the past week. Mrs. Buster Cox and little daughter Barbara Helen of Post spent part of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cox and family. The Howard Junior basket ball team went to Rockdale last Friday afternoon for a game with the Rockdale junior boys. The scores were 21 to 1 in favor of Howard. This is the first game the boys had played this year. We hope they keep the good work going. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Josselot of Haskell visited in the J. R. Dinsmore home Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wiley of Stamford visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cox Sunday afternoon. Miss Florine Stodghill of Rose attended the meeting at the school house Thursday night. Rev. and Mrs. Alvis of Haskell spent the day Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McMahan and family. Rev. Alvis attended preaching services at the Baptist church Sunday morning. Several Howard people attended the carnival at Post last Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins and family of Vontress visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dinsmore and family. There will be a "surprise" supper at the Howard school house on Nov. 9th. By surprise we mean that you may bring a box, pie or sock. Proceeds will go to the Howard school. Be sure and come as there will also be other entertainment. Lee Price returned to his home in Lamesa last week after spending several days with friends and relatives here. There will be all day services at the Methodist Church next Sunday. Everyone is invited to come and bring a well filled basket. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Medford had as their guests the past week the latter's father, J. S. Alman of Van Zandt county and brother and sister of Sipe Springs, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Medford are visiting with their son, Marvin Medford and family of Pleasant Valley. Mr. Jay Cox, Jim Cox, and Clyde McMahan were in Sayre, Okla., on business Monday. Mrs. Gene Medford accompanied her father, J. S. Alman and brother Jack and sister Lorene to Wichita Falls to visit a brother there.

Rochester

Miss Wildring B. Sharrad, Miss Alma Morgan and Mr. Leslie Treat were in a quartette here Sunday with Rev. Otis Gatewood at morning and evening services. Mr. Fay Wilson read the evening scripture lesson at the Church of Christ. These young people are of Abilene Christian College. Mr. I. A. Rix of Lubbock, branch manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, organized a unit here. Rochester is the 195th town to become affiliated with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. We are sure this step from our business men of the town of Rochester will be a great help to the country in general. Mrs. Duke Travis and children of Post City visited relatives here the weekend. Mrs. Clyde Harrow and children spent Sunday here with her brother, H. L. Matney and Mrs. Matheny. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cooper of Haskell visited relatives here Sunday. Miss Edith Speck who is a student at Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene spent last week end with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sp-ek. Mrs. A. B. Carothers' children from Post City, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Speck and children spent a day or so with her last week. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gauntt and children of Rule and Mrs. B. F. McWhirter of Kemp also Miss Hattie Hudson of Haskell spent Sunday here with relatives. Rochester public school began second six weeks period with good interest. Not so good that it could not be improved. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hanger of Anadarko, Okla., spent last week here with relatives. His brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hanger, returned home with them to spend the winter. Rev. Preston Florence filled the pulpit at O'Brien Sunday. Mr. A. B. Michael and family left last Monday for Corpus Christi for a few weeks vacation and with the hopes the change will benefit their little son, Dan.

IS YOUR SKIN CLEAR?

Miss Bobby Singleton of 903-15th St., Wichita Falls, Texas, said: "I was underweight and nervous, my complexion was sallow, I broke out in small pimples over my face, and was always tired. But after taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a short while, my blood was in better condition, and I ate and slept better." New size, tablets 30 cts., liquid $1.00. Large size, tabs. or liquid, $1.35. "We Do Our Part."

Fat or Thin? You May Become Either By Eating "Right"

(Prepared by Department of Home Economics, Texas State College for Women (CIA))

DENTON, Texas—People seem to go from one extreme to the other. If one is fat, she wishes to be thin; if one is thin she wishes to be fat. Of course, it is more desirable, especially from health's point of view that we stay normal. There seems to be a tendency for the "thin" girl to stay too much underweight. Many serious conditions have resulted. The girl has become more nervous, restless, etc. and many have been taken captive by the mysterious tuberculosis. This "tubercular" campaign should be stopped. Diet should be brought in to aid against this undesirable state.

Of course, some people are thin whether they eat or not—such cases as these should be referred to a physician. Sometimes the result of underweight is nervous prostration, depression of appetite, nervous tension, unhealthiness, over fatigue or physical defect as bad tonsils or teeth. Malnutrition will do much to aid a fattening diet. The above mentioned case may be well treated by diet.

The principle of the fattening diet is based on the eating of more food than is used by the body for its various activities. Sometimes, attempts to gain weight are discouraging because the person's digestive system is unequal to the new demands abruptly made upon it. Gains should not be made too sudden. Fresh air, sunlight, rest, and food of suitable amount, appearance and easy to digest, at regular times and in specified amounts are prime features of treatment.

Appetite cannot be relied upon for the underweight as frequently this is dulled. The food should be served just as attractively as possible to induce an appetite. Eating should be made the "most popular indoor sport." All eating should be done at regular intervals as the body acts rhythmically. For the greatest comfort food should digest fairly rapidly. This may be fostered

Will This Nag Uphold His Name?

They call this horse Money Getter over at the Three D Stables and if he shows his heels to the other bang-tails in the $10,000 Waggoner Handicap at Arlington Downs, Nov. 10, his moniker will be justified. (Texas News Photos.)

Fair Bird Champ

TO THE SCHOOLS OF HASKELL COUNTY

The week beginning November 4 and ending November 11, is designated as National Educational Week. The designation of this week was brought about through the efforts of the American Legion. The strengthening of the educational system was one of the first efforts of the Legion. The very first year they sought the cooperation of the National Educational Association in making the educational week. The N. E. A. joined wholeheartedly with the Legion, through their efforts opportunities to have been extended to all schools in the United States. The Legion has been successful in securing the cooperation of the N. E. A. and of the State Department of Education in carrying out the purpose of the week. ### Common Cold Is of No Set Season

AUSTIN, Tex.—While the common cold is no respecter of seasons, increased prevalence is decidedly marked in the winter months. Unfortunately, familiarity with this condition has bred contempt for it. This is plainly indicated by the usual rejoinder, "Oh! I've just got a cold," the inference, of course, being that while a cold is an annoying affliction, after all it is an insignificant one. This attitude undoubtedly has been the cause of many needless deaths, to say nothing of prolonged and expensive illnesses, states Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

One's resistance to many diseases including colds, can be raised by increasing one's vitality by observing the fundamental living rules, namely: plenty of fresh air, good wholesome food, neither too much nor too little, sufficient rest, and the avoidance of habitual over-indulgence of deactivating stimulants, including tea, coffee, tobacco and alcohol.

"If, however, in spite of ordinary precautions, a cold is contracted, it will pay to consider it seriously. Every cold should be viewed as the possible beginning of a serious illness. That means promptly seeking

NORTH WARD SECOND GRADE HONOR ROLL

Due to the illness of Mrs. Brooks, the report cards and honor roll for the Second Grade were not complete last week.

The following pupils made the Honor Roll the past semester: Doris Lowe, Lillian Goodyear, Cecil Gholson, Douglas Smith.

The Fourth Grade received the P. T. A. Banner for October.

Mrs. Maloy's third grade presented "Health Fairies in School" before the County Council at Rochester Saturday.

The Rhythm Band will make its debut on the P. T. A. program Nov. 8th.

Birthday Party for Vick Post

Mrs. M. S. Spink and her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Spink, entertained a number of little folks Wednesday afternoon, October 24, honoring the first birthday of Vick Post, six months and four days old.

The party was held at the home of Mrs. Spink, and was a most enjoyable affair. The birthday cake was decorated with the four lighted candles centered with a large cardboard black cat as favors. After a number of games the birthday cake with the four lighted candles centered with a large cardboard black cat was cut and served with ice cream to the following: The honoree, Bobbie Smith, Jean King, Beverly King, Jeanie Grasso, Eddie Goetz, Billie and Billie Bob Welsh and Mary Beth Payne.

MOTHER MOCCASIN CARRIES 42 YOUNG

ALTUS, Okla.—The largest snake story of the year has been recorded. Rev. S. C. Elliot, Baptist pastor at Blair, Okla., was fishing with a companion in Lake Altus. They killed a large water moccasin.

Curious to know if the saying is true that when young snakes are frightened they run into the mother snake's mouth, they cut the moccasin open.

Inside they found 42 little ones.

Honesty may be the best policy, but it's an awful handicap to a golfer.
