It was back in 1936 that our Texas Legislature established the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission. Years later this commission was renamed the Texas Employment Commission... in fact it was in 1947.

A Ray Of Hope

Kim's Korner

By Kim Pease

One of the purposes for which the commission was formed was to operate an unemployment insurance program to assist the justifiably unemployed.

A Texas worker went to Mexico, was involved in an accident and subsequently jailed. Upon his release from jail he came back to Texas, applied for unemployment benefits and was awarded benfits without disqualification.

The Dallas Independent School District is looking at a potential loss of as much as $650,000.00 in 1979. Some Dallas school teachers have requested and have been granted leaves of absence and those teachers that have applied for benefits have been granted them with only a two week disqualification.

In spite of the noble purpose of the Texas Employment Commission back in the 1930's and 1940's, in recent years Texas workers that have grown "tired of working" have been awarded benefits after only a three week disgualification.

In January of 1978 all employees of government were covered by the act. County, city, school district and other political subdivision employees are now covered by the act.

I suppose that a city employee currently working on the trash collection crew could decide he was tired of tossing trash and claim he was better suited to be a brain surgeon and collect benefits.

Evidently Dallas' teachers have figured out a way to "beat the system" by applying for a leave of absence then collecting benefits from the Texas Employment Commission.

It seems pretty clear to me that the Texas taxpayers are funding another "free lunch" program for people that are unemployed simply because they choose to be. State Senator Roy Blake and Texas Representative Gib Lewis, having recognized this rip off, have set out to cut-off these undeserving benefits by introducing appropriate legislation in Austin.

Senate Bill 22 and House Bill 970, if passed, would completely deny benefits to workers who quit their jobs without good cause or who are discharged for embezzling, misappropriation of employer's property or gross misconduct. No hardship would be imposed to those individuals that are unemployed through no fault of their own.

Both bills have been approved by their respective committees and are now waiting to be heard by the full senate and House of Representatives.

You can have a voice in the passage or defeat of these bills by contacting our State Senator Ray Farabee or our Representative Walter Grubbs and letting them know your feelings on Senate Bill 22 and House Bill 70.

They are both fine men. We elected them and they are going to cast their vote the way they feel the majority of their district wants them to vote.

GOING TO REGIONAL: Left to right, Tammy Stephens and Jill Wright will compete in regional tennis play from Roby.

The members of the and girl's coach Sonny Rotan School Board voted to accept a bid of $3,600 for lights and fixtures at the tennis court at last Monday night's meeting, according to Superintendent Tom Harkey. The $3,600 bid is for all new lights and poles, if some of the poles being replaced at the football field are used at the tennis court, the bid price would be substantially reduced.

Newly elected board members Ernest Ragan and Leo Long were sworn and board members in organized the board by electing new officers.

Former board president Bobby Smith asked that he not be considered for another office on the board. After some discussion, the board elected Allan Houston as president, Bobby Gruben as vice president and Dr. Jerry Marshall as secretary.

The board discussed at length the nepotism law and how it related to the Rotan School in light of the recent interest stimulated in Sweetwater. It was the board's opinion that the Rotan School was not affected by the nepotism. law in any way, according to Harkey, however, he added, the board was awaiting a decision by the Attorney General on several pending cases for future reference. The board adopted the 1979-80 school calendar and set school to start for all students on Tuesday, September 4, the day after Labor Day. Teachers will report for in-service training on August 28, 29 and 30th.

The board accepted the resignation of Vo-Ag teacher Ronnie Teichelman

Barnes.

The board voted to employ Rhonda Coan for the remainder of the 1979 school year to replace Mrs. David Hudnall in teaching her 4th grade class. Mrs. Hudnall has been granted a leave of absence.

Leisure Lodge Report By Ima Berry

Leisure Lodge welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adams to our home. We are all very happy to have the Adamses with us.

We would like to feature our employee of the week, Mrs. J.E. Van Loon. Marie is over the kitchen staff and turns out some fabulous meals. Marie has been working here several years. She and J.E. have three children, they are Howard and Larry both of Garland, and Mrs. Butch (Carolyn) Rogers of Arlington. They have eight grandchildren.

Our residents of the week are Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Hudnall. The Hudnalls have been residents here since Nov. of 1975. The Hudnalls have three sons and one daughter. This couple is a joy to all of us. We love them very much.

We want to express our appreciation to the Fisher County Singing Group for bringing the singing on April 3. Everyone really enjoyed it. We also thank the First Baptist Church, Overa Jones and the First United Methodist Church for all their services they bring us.

Visiting Rose Hall was her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Harbin of Snyder. Rose reports that the Harbins took her to Holiday On Ice a couple of weeks ago. She really enjoyed it too.

The R.T. Shipp's daughter. Mrs. John Haves and son Prentiss of Pecos, visited over the weekend. They all went to Sweetwater on Sunday and visited another daughter Ida Danials. Reported a very good day.

Odell Crawford of Odessa and Doris Floyd of Midland visited their dad

Certified Seed Pays

In side-by-side field tests, cotton researchers have proven that certified seed produces higher yields than farmer-saved or select seed of the same varieties. And the extra production - as high as 18% more lint — is more than enough to pay for the cost of planting the certified varieties.†

Before you plant another row of non-certified seed, consider the advantages you get from Pioneer, brand certified cotton planting seed:

- Certified cotton planting seed from Pioneer has not undergone genetic deterioration in the field. Volunteer plants and undesirable cross-pollinations have been eliminated.
- Certified cotton planting seed from Pioneer is free from pests and weeds which often accompany non-certified varieties. You can be sure of the purity and uniformity in the seed and the crop it produces.
- · Certified cotton planting seed from Pioneer is carefully handled and stored to avoid contamination by other varieties. Then, if it doesn't meet high standards for germination and purity, it's not used.

Rotan Gets Set For District Meet

The Rotan track team will be taking part in the district competition at A.C.U. in Abilene this Friday, according to Coach Ted Posey.

Field events will begin at 10:00 with running events set to get underway for preliminary competition at 1:30. Varsity and junior varsity competition finals get underway at 6:00 p.m., with the 400 meter relay. At 6:10, the 800 meter dash; 6:25 the 110 meter high hurdles; and at 6:30 the finals of the 100 yard dash.

The 400 meter dash finals begin at 6:45; 300 meter hurdles at 7:00; 200 meter dash at 7:15; and the mile run finals at 7:25. The final event of the day, the mile relay is set to begin at 7:45.

Posey said that he will be carrying a total of 10 men on the varsity level team and 23 on the junior varsity level for the Friday competition.

In the varsity selevel, seniors Fred Acorn will be competing in the 100, 200, 400 meter relay; long jump and high jump; Blake Hale

Rotan Public Library To Open April 28

The Rotan Public Library is the recipient of the J. Frank Dobie Library Trust Award of $2,000.00 for the purchase of books. The Award was announced at the Texas Library Association Conference in San Antonio on April 5. The Award is based on community support in terms of leadership, active library board, friends groups, local tax support, significant volunteer help, and an experienced staff as well as need.

In applying for the award, Board Chairman Mrs. Wayne Harris and Mrs. Jimmy D. Hale, Librarian, emphasized the generosity and enthusiasm of the community. Books of lasting value, such as histories and works of literature and Southwestern literature were stated as planned purchases. In accepting the Award, Mrs. Hale stated that a selection list would be provided to the Committee.

The Awards Committee seeks deserving libraries each year in order to make a real impact on the quality of library service in small towns and cities and to honor the memory of that great Texan, J. Frank Dobie, who said "the great reason for reading books and valuing libraries is to have life more abundantly...(and) the immortal residue of the human race lies in books."

There were 38 applicants for the Award. There were four other $2000.00 awards granted of the $10,000.00 trust, but no other library in the Big Country.

The Rotan Public Library building, formerly a part of the Callan Hospital, was donated by Dr. Chester U. Callan.

The Board has set April 28 as an opening date, but the grand opening will be later in the summer. according to Mrs. Hale.

New Rotan Councilman

Clyde South, a relatively new resident of the City of Rotan, but with close ties to the Rotan area for several years, polled the lion's share of the votes in last Saturday's Rotan City Council election.

Rodney Tankersley, running for a second term on the council, polled a total of 230 votes to come in second place behind the leader Clyde South with 269.

South and Tankerslev will be joined by third place finisher Dorothy Lomax on the new Rotan City Council. Lomax captured 206 votes in the election.

Rodney Denton, seeking a second term on the council, failed in his bid for re-election after falling 20 votes behind Lomax. He captured 186 votes.

Rotan Mayor Lester Sescil, unopposed for his bid for a second term, received 283 votes.

Hustlin' Round Hobbs By Joy Walker

We have really been having stormy weather this week, but we didn't get any rain out here at the house, although Jim was over at Rough Creek Monday and it hailed over there. Now its supposed to get down to freezing Thursday night and I hope it doesn't kill all the fruit. Everyone has little apricots and our peach trees have already bloomed.

Mr. and Mrs. Windle Kincaid from Rotan ate Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrsh J.D. Kincaid. Lucy is really doing well and we are glad to see that she has almost completely recovered from her fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Martinez went to Chicago on Wednesday and they stayed until Saturday, returning home Saturday night. They attended the A.M.P.I. Dairyman's Convention in Chicago. They report that it was so cold and windy there and they even saw a little snow one day they really had a bad storm.

Mrs. Jimmy Walker and Mrs. Sheila Gruben (Donnie), Carve and Donnie Carl all went to Abilene Thursday afternoon. Then Friday Jim and I went to Munday for the first A.J.R.A. Rodeo of the season. Melody and Jan Reed from Ackerley met us there with the horses, and we almost spent the night as the rodeo went on and on, and of course Melody was lucky enough to draw slack in the barrel race. The girls left for Texas Tech around 1:30 and Melody said got there in good time, although by the time they had unloaded the horses and fed them, etc. it was almost 5:00 a.m. before they got to Tech and to bed. Will be glad when finals are over now and we can bring Mac back here and then we won't have to meet Melody as she will be through with college for this semester the beginning of May. Some of the girls are trying to rodeo for Tech and make all these other rodeos, and they are on the road constantly.

Mrs. James Ratliff and Teresa went to Snyder on Saturday and Teresa rode in the W.T.B.R.A. barrel race.

Well this is very short this time, but it seems some folks have either gone visiting or were out of the house when I called them. Its time to plant a garden, and Good Friday is supposed to be the day, but we are going to a track meet at Abilene and see our grandson, Gregg Gruben, so there goes the garden for that day anyway. Have a very Happy Easter and maybe there will be some visitors for the long weekend. See you next Thursday. ****

DAY for

April 16. That's the last day to file your 1978 income tax report. It is also the last day to deposit up to $1500 in an Individual Retirement Account at Sweetwater Savings. If you are not enrolled in a retirement plan (other than Social Security), you may deduct up to $1500 or 15%, whichever is less, from your 1978 income and deposit it into tax-deferred IRA for your retirement. Your Sweetwater Savings IRA account will earn up to 8% and produce an annual yield of 8.33%. Open or add to your IRA account now . . . before April 16.

The District meet is Thursday, April 12, at Snyder. The running prelims start at 9:00 a.m. and the finals will start at 2:00 p.m. This year the district is more balanced and should be a close three team race between Ira, Loraine and Roby. The junior high and high school boys are having their district together this year and it should be a very good meet, so make plans to attend and give the Cubs and Lions your support.

You'll find the road is long and rough, with soft spots far apart,

Where only those can make the grade who have the Uphill Heart,

And when they stop you, with a thud or jolt you with a crack.

Let Courage call the signals as you keep on coming back.

Keep coming back, and though the world may romp across your spine,

Let every game's end find you still upon the Battling line,

V.F.W. To Sponsor Fund-Raising Crusade

The Ladies Auxiliary of the V.F. W. has been named as the coordinating unit for the Cancer Society's 1979 educational fund-raising Crusade slated to begin April 17th at 5:30 p.m.

An ACS volunteer, Mrs. Austin McKinney, said, "this Tuesday, ACS volunteers here in Rotan will be contacting their friends, neighbors and business associates to offer practical and helpful information about cancer. They will be part of a team of some two million ACS volunteers nationwide who will use facts about cancer to help save lives."

"The purpose of the Crusade is two-fold", said Mrs. McKinney. "Fund raising is important, but so is cancer prevention. We'll use this contact with the public to teach facts about cancer. We'll distribute a brand new leaflet with the headline "You Do Make A Difference". Thirteen million copies of this leaflet will be given away this year. It tells how lifestyle and health care can influence the outcome of cancer.

"We certainly know that we could save thousands of cancer patients with the knowledge we have today--if everyone understood the importance of actually preventing some cancers, or starting treatment early when the chance of success is greatest."

The Rotan Crusade will also raise funds needed to suppor the many ACS programs.

"When people think of the American Cancer Society, they think of research, the fight against cigarettes, or perhaps programs to convince women to protect themselves against breast or uterine cancer.' Mrs. McKinney said. "We do all of these things and more. One-quarter of our money goes to the support of cancer research. Through our professional education program we help all kinds of medical personnel--physicians, nurses, dentist--to keep abreast of new developments in cancer diagnosis and management. And, importantly, our service and rehabilitation programs help cancer patients and their families," she noted. "The ACS has been a leader in calling nationwide attention to the social and economic needs of people stricken by cancer." Another curcial area of ACS work involves hundreds of public education programs held in schools, social clubs and in industrial settings, to teach people how to safeguard their lives from cancer. "Most of our programs are run by volunteers which means that the ACS dollar goes very far. We spend only for essentials, and our goals are clear--we want an end to cancer," she said. "Now we're asking for support."

Cottonwood Flat Annual Work Day Set

The Annual working for the Cottonwood Flat Cemetery will be Thursday Apirl 19. Persons interested in working will meet at the cemetery at 10:00 a.m. and are asked to bring their lunch.

All interested persons are urged to attend.

JUDGES ATTEND STATE WIDE SEMINAR: One hundred and fifty justices of the peace from across the state of Texas attended a 40-hour Texas Justice of the Peace Training Seminar March 11-16 in San Antonio. Among the judges attending were, left to right, Judge Dan E. Callaway, Scurry County, Precinct 1; Judge Geneva Chandler, Fisher County, Precinct 1; Judge Bonnie McDowell, Stonewall County, Precinct 1, Place 1; and Judge Lewie Hilton, Kent County, Precinct 4, Place 1.

Rotan Extension Club Votes

On Projects

The Rotan Exentsion Homemakers Club met April 5 in the home of Mrs. Oral Sparks, Dollie Curry, club president, called the meeting to order. Recreation was led by Beatrice Hargrove. Effie Murphree called the roll and read the minutes. Mary Posey gave the council report.

The club members voted to make new name plates to be put on the doors of each resident's room at the Leisure Lodge Nursing Home. Book for the library were also discussed; anyone having hard back books, recipe books, household hints, and sewing books and interested in donating them should do so, the books would be used and appreciated by the library.

Beatrice Hargrove gave an interesting program, "The study of arthritis". Children as well as adults can get arthritis. Prompt and proper treatments are necessary to prevent some of the complications of arthritis. A skit was presented by Beatrice Hargrove, doctor; Bill Cleveland, nurse; Ardell

Floyd, mother; and Hazel Aldridge, little girl.

Mrs. Sparks served delicious refreshments to two visitors, Ima Berry and Mrs. J.A. Murff; fifteen club members, Effie Murphree, Dollie Curry, Mary Posey, Lou Ada Posey, Bill Cleveland, Ardell Floyd, Laura Lee Hudnall, Florene Young, Velma Wallace, Elizabeth Bigham, Icie Hughes, Viola Hendon, Romie Kersh, Beatrice Hargrove and Hazel Aldridge.

Get smart — Get the edge

The edge in Sedgefield blue jeans, the first all-cotton jeans to behave the way jeans should. They fit perfectly wash after wash because there's no shrinking out of size.

They always look lean and clean because they resist wrinkling and puckering and ugh...those tacky twisted legs.

They also get softer faster and wear longer than ordinary cotton jeans.

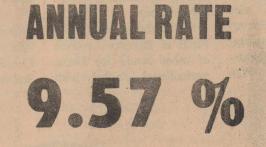

And, Sedgefield does it all without putting plastic (polyester) in their jeans like some of the biggies. After all, if it isn't all-cotton of it isn't really blue denim.

The best surprise of all? You get all this without paying any more than the regular price of the so-called big names.

I got smart. I got the edge—the Sedgefield edge.

Ask For The Old Path

Jeremiah 6:16. "Thus saith Jehova, Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way; and walk therein, and ye shall find rest unto your souls; but they said we will not walk therein."

These words were written to a people spiritually and morally bankrupt. Religion in Judah had become so corrupt that it has an abomination unto the Lord. We read: "The prophets prophesy falsely and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so" (Jer. 5:31). Prophet and priest had entered an affinity of error and the people liked it that way. There was little or no respect for the law of the Lord (Jer. 6:10). The moral situation had deteriorated until they were without a sense of shame. "neither could they blush" (Jer. 6:15). The people were deluded into thinking there was peace when there was no peace (Jer. 6:14). Unbelief was fullgrown in Judah. The patience of Jehova was exhausted (Jer. 6:11) and judgment loomed upon the

The Divine Imperative

John 3:3-7. Before us is "a divine imperative". All truth is important, but not all truth is imperative! All truth has certain consequences that affect time: certain truths involve eternity as well as time. This truth I regard as a Divine Imperative, and the truth of our text has to do with matters that involve eternity. "Except a man be born again, he cannot see kingdom of God" the (John 3:3), said Jesus to Nicodemus. Eternal destiny is inolved here! So. "The new birth" is a divine imperative! "Ye must be born again" (John 3:7), said Jesus. Note the one to whom this imperative was given. It was not to the sinful woman caught in the act of adultry that Jesus said, "Ye must be born again" Nor was this Continued Page 8

Every once in a while,

"He is risen! He is not here! Behold the place where they laid him!" Mark XVI

There is an ancient saying to describe the Christian people that goes like this: "We are an Easter People, and Halleluja! is our song". This unusual description shows the centrality of Easter in the thinking and the life of Christian people. Good Friday and Easter (the two are always joined; each gives meaning to the other) form the "watershed" of the history of the world. All that went before it points to this day; all that follows flows from it. Nothing else in history has had such a pervading influence. Nothing else has made such a change in the lives of men, even of those who never knew the meaning of these two days. The central point in all the preaching and the life of the Apostles is the Easter message: "Christ is risen!" "Jesus lives!" "The Father has set his seal (of approval) on Jesus". Exultantly St. Paul could write in his First Epistle to the Corinthians, Chapter XV: "If Christ has not been raised you are still in your it's the most humbling, and beautiful, and wonderful story I know. It's the story of what really happened.

I. In the Garden A. The Agony

After the last supper in which our Lord Jesus took the bread and broke it and passed it among His disciples and made the statement, "This is my body which is broken for you"; and after He had taken the cup and told His disciples, "Drink ye of it, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you"; Jesus led His disciples into the Garden of Gethsemane to pray. It is here that he begin to experience the deep agony of Jesus for the cross. There, on the Mount of Olives, He longed for release from the hours which would follow. He prayed for His world of followers who soon would be left bewildered at His death. The Bible says, "He sweat as it were great drops of blood

The beautiful hymn by Charles Gabriel says it all: For me it was in the garden

He prayed, "Not my will, but thine."

He had no tears for His own grief

But seat drops of blood for mine.

B. The arrest

Then the soldiers came, and crowds of people, and chief priests, and captains of the temple, and elders. They carried swords, and torches, and clubs. It was a dangerous situation. Jesus said, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus replied, "I am He." They were shocked and they fell back. Again Jesus asked, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth." And again Jesus replied, "I am He." Then Judas ran up to Him and kissed Him and betrayed Him. They bound Him and led Him away. II. Through the Trials

Jesus went through the mockery and human stupidity of six trials through the night.

A. Annas

First he was taken to Annas, the ex-high priest. There one officer struck Him, and reproached Him for speaking back to the high priest.

B. Caiaphas

From Annas, Jesus was led, still bound to Caiabhas the current high priest. Jesus was still bound and they tooked for a way to put Him to death. They brought in false witnesses, but they couldn't agree on their testimony.

Finally, when Caiaphas asked Jesus if He was the Christ, the son of God, Jesus boldly said that He was. So they charged Him with blasphemy. They laughed at Him; they spit in His face; they blindfolded and hit and mocked Him. They then took Him before the council of the Sanhedrin.

C. Sanhedrin

This was a council of all the temple officials, the high religious court among the Israelites. They knew that no religious charge would stand up in the Roman courts for a death sentence, so blasphemy wouldn't work. And the Jewish courts had no authority under Roman reign to carry out death sentences. So they drummed up three civil charges: (1) He stirrs up the people, (2) He forbid to pay tribute to Caesar, and (3) He claimed to be Christ, a king.

These first three trials were all unofficial. They had no purpose except to mock and to find some accusation. They accomplished nothing except scorn and ridicule. D. Pilate

From the Council of the Sanhedrin. Jesus was taken to Pilate, the governor of Judea. Pilate was apparently brought out of bed in the night for this trial. The three charges were put before him. But Pilate said, "I find no fault in this man!" Yet when he heard that Jesus was from Galilee, he sent them with Jesus to Herod who happened to be in Jerusalem at that time. E. Herod

Herod had wanted to see Jesus and see some miracle done by Him. He apparently had heard about this Jesus of Nazareth. But when Jesus refused to perform a miracle, Herod and his soldiers set Jesus at naught and mocked Him and threw on Him a georgous robe and sent Him back to Pilate. F. Pilate

Again Pilate said, "I have examined Him before you and have found no fault in Him." Pilate's wife sent him a message saying "Have nothing to do with this just man, for I have suffered many things this night in a dream because of Him." Evidently while Pilate was reading this message, the Pharisees and other Jewish leaders were stirring up the people. The custom was that the Romans would release to the people one prisoner each passover. So they asked Pilate to do as he had always done. Then Pilate gave them a choice, Barabbas or Jesus. The crowd chose Barabbas. Three times, Pilate tried to release Jesus, but the crowd sent back their horrifying screams, "Crucify Him."

The soldiers took Jesus and stripped Him and put on Him a scarlet robe and planted a crown of thorns and gave Him a reed for a sceptre. They knelt before Him and mocked Him and spat upon Him and they took the reed and slapped Him with it. They stripped Him naked and lashed Him with 39 strips with whips filled with lead and bone. Finally they put his own clothes back on Him and led Him back to Pilate who again tried to get the people to have pity on Him by saying, "Behold the man!" But the people still cried out, "Crucify Him." So Pilate washed his hands and gave Jesus over to their will. III. On The Cross

A. They led Him away He was placed in the center of four Roman soldiers. The charge against Him was written on a board in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew, and it was hung around His neck or it was carried in front of the procession. They went on a long route through the streets and up the rocky Golgatha or Calvary's Hill just outside the heavy gray walls of the Holy City.

B. Nailed to the Cross They offered Him a drink of a drugged wine. He was stripped and His already bloodstained back was laid upon the splintery cross of wood on the ground and they literally nailed His flesh to the tree.

C. Hung in the air The cross was raised and slammed into the ground where a hole had been prepared for it. The soldiers cast lots for His seamless robe. While on the cross He made seven statements.

1. "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.'

This statement may have been made while they nailed Him, or while they were laughing and mocking Him, and while the soldiers gambled for His clothing.

2. "This day thou shalt be with me in Paradise."

The Saviour was in the business of saving people, even right up to his last hours on earth.

3. "Woman behold thy son. Son behold thy mother."

Even in His darkest hour on earth, Jesus was always concerned for the needs of others. The beautiful truth is that Jesus made provisions for others--the thief, His mother--and He'll make provision for you too.

4. "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?'

The sky became black. The miracle cannot be explained by eclipse or clouds. The crowd became silent. The agony became unbearable. Jesus quoted a part of Psalm 22.

5. "I thirst".

The little or no food at the last supper; the long night of trials; the pain of the torture; Jesus was human. Hyssop was filled with vinegar and put on a pole and held up to Him. 6. "It is finished."

The cry here was not the cry of death and defeat, but of victory. He had completed the task for which He came to earth.

Salvation's plan was finished. Now through Him we can be saved. 7. "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit.'

One gospel writer says, "He cried with a loud voice and gave up the ghost." Conclusion

The conclusion to this powerfully true story is: (1) Jesus did not die from pain or from loss of blood took most men days to die, but Jesus stayed on the cross only six hours. He died because He bore yours and my sins. He took upon Himself the sins of the world and died as if all men were dying at once.

(2) He didn't stay dead. He arose from the grave. He lives! Jesus is our living Saviour, if we'll only believe and commit our lives to Him.

horizon. The one think that could save them was to "seek the old path...and walk therein" (Jer. 6:16). Thus they were challenged to go back of the perverted systems and corrupt practices to the religion and conduct of life Divinely prescribed by Almighty God. Herein lay their hope.

How pitiful that such a plea was spurned and the warning rejected. Babylon, the great nation from the north country (Jer. 6:22), beseiged Jerusalem and laid her low and carried away the inhabitants into captivity and slavery.

There is in this account a similarity to the present day situation too obvious to be missed. There are those today who, while calling themselves "pastors" (shepherds), make religion a sham and make merchandise of the people. In like manner people with "itching ears" (2 Tim.4:3) clamor for the smooth things and "heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts." Sin is excused, divorce is raging, and adultery has become a way of life. Drunkenness and revelling are accepted and the perverted mind of the homosexual screams from the housetops for recognition. Unethical conduct in business flaunts itself. All restraint would be removed, and the people seemingly "love to have it so." Social acceptance, rather than a "thus said the Lord", has become the determining factor in deciding moral conduct. Religion and morals alike are - governed by "the times" rather than by Divine decree.

There is but one thing which can save man from destruction and that is to inquire for the "old path" and "walk therein."

We are careful to observe that there is no virtue in simply an "old way." The "old way" of the fathers may be as wrong as the way of the children. The virtue is found in "the old path" prescribed by God and as contrasted with later innovations of men.

We are also quick to note that the "old path" for us is not the same as that for Judah. Their religion was to be to the covenant made at Sinai. We are challenged to a "new and living way", the covenant of Christ, yet in point of time, as old as Ch ristianity-to the way secured by Christ in His death and activated on the first Pentecost after his resurrection (Acts 2). Ask for the "old path" authorized by Christ and recorded in the New Testament. Long overdue is the call for people to go back to the Divine source for religious practice and to the spring itself for the standard of moral conduct. This is our plea today, and we believe that the security of the nation and the salvation of the soul of man depends upon his doing just that. The call back to the Old Path is a call back:

1. To the authority of Jesus Christ. Jesus declared, "All authority in heaven and on earth hath been given unto me" (Matt. 28:18). All authority in religious matters lies with Him. It seems to tragically vain that men meet together in synod and convention to vote on religious matters when the authority to govern those matters does not reside with men, but with Him who is "Lord of lords, and King of kings." Religious practice can find favor with God only when it is authorized by Christ. God says, "This is my beloved

April 15 Is

Son in whom I am well pleased; here ye him'' (Matt. 17:5).

2. It is a call back to respect for the Bible as the full and final and all-sufficient revelation of God. Everything necessary to the salvation of the soul and the spriitual welfare of man is recorded in the Bible. In it God has "given unto us all things that pertain to life and godliness" (2 Pet. 1:3). It is all-sufficient for man's. doctrine, his reproof, his correction, and his instruction in righteousness (2 Tim. 3:16-17). To go beyond its teachings is to sever ourselves from God (2 Jn. 9). To add to its teaching is to bring a curse upon ourselves (Rev. 22: 18:19). To fail to heed its teaching is to rob ourselves of the blessings and salvation it offers.

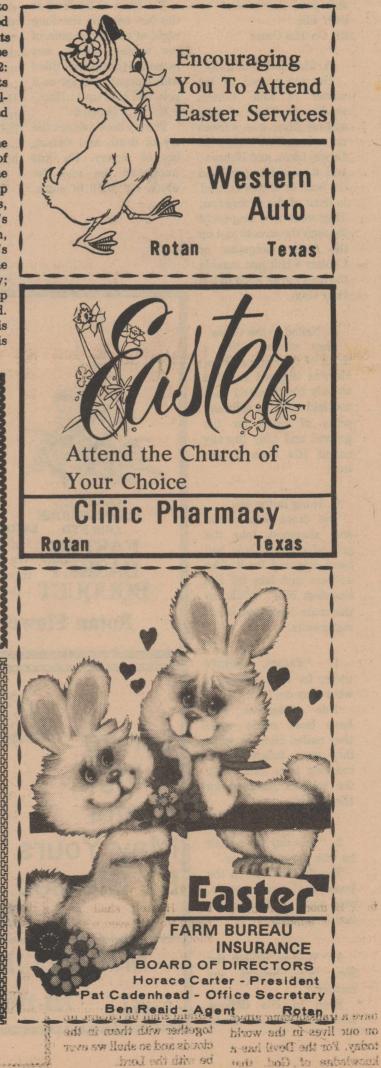

3. A call back to the simplicity and purity of worship established by the New Testament. Worship with the singing of hymns, the teaching of God's word, the contribution, prayers and the Lord's Supper observed in the assembly each Lord's day; and that without the pomp that men so often add. Worship where God is glorified and man is edified. 4. A call back to the high moral conduct prescribed in the New Testament. "Keep thyself pure" is the watchword of the New Testament. God instructs us "to the intent that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly in this present world" (Titus 2:11-12).

5. A call back to the hope afforded by the New Testament. A return to heaven's way finds rest and peace awaiting the soul and the promise of eternity with God.

It is a call back to Jesus

Christ who is Himself "the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

Page 5 Believing Jesus Ressurrection

Johnny T. Robertson Pastor, First United Methodist Church, Rotan

The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the center of Chrisitan faith. The church of our Lord has always recoginzed the importance of Christ's resurrection for the Christian faith, for the way we believe the kind of life we live. The Apostle Paul held that belief in the resurrection of Jesus was necessary for one to become a true Christian: "If you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved." (Rom. 10:9) Paul would not move from his faith in Jesus' resurrection: "If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain...If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins... If for this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied." (I Cor. 15: 14,17,19) It is only because Christ rose from the dead that we are forgiven and promised eternal life with Him. Had Christ remained dead He would not have been the Saviour, but merely another dead man in the grave.

However, with faith in Him as the resurrected Lord we are given a new and eternal life with Jesus God exists; but he is not rescued from eternal death. (James 2:19) A mere acceptance that Jesus rose from the dead is not saving faith. Saving faith not only accepts Jesus' resurrection as a fact but also allows it to resurrect us from our present dead spiritual condition into a new life of worship and obedience toward Jesus Christ. (Rom. 6:4-11) Real faith in

Easter Sunday Ressurrection

Henry Dickson, pastor Sardis Baptist Church

John 3:16 God said, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life".

God expressed His love and concern to man, in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us.

God is offering to a lost world a way into eternal life, perhaps everyone will heed God's word, since Rom. 14:11 says, "For it is written, as I live, saith the Lord, everyone shall bow to me and every tongue shall confess to God."

As we approach res-sins. If our hope in Christ has been for this life only we are the most miserable of creatures". Then he goes on to say: "But Christ has in fact been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of all who have fallen asleep." So great was the conviction of the Apostles in the bodily resurrection of Jesus that nothing could stop them from preaching the good news over the face of the known world. So great was their confidence that they "rejoiced that they were found worthy to suffer for the Name" as we read in Acts

The Apostles were not always convinced, not always sure of "the good news". When Jesus was taken prisoner they all fled, fearful for their lives. Peter denied knowing him three times. The Iscariot betrayed Him. Only John and some women stood beneath His cross. And when He rose from the grave they thought they were seeing a ghost. Thomas even proclaimed: "Unless I can put my finger in the place of the nails and my hand in his side I will not believe". They were not wishful thinkers: they were not looking for his resurrection. They were hard to convince. But once they had seen Him alive on many occasions, indoors and under the skies; after they had touched Him, after they had eaten with Him and seen him eat, they were convinced. Their whole life changed, and nothing could stop them from preaching to the whole world: "Jesus is risen!"

Easter is not only the day of victory and vindication for Jesus. It is also the day of victory for all men. If it were not for Easter Christ would have been a failure, his life ended and forgotten like the life of so many revolutionary visionaries. It is Easter, the resurrection, that gives meaning to His life and power to His words. It is Easter that put God's stamp of approval on His life and teachings and promises to us: "I will raise him up on the last day". And so it was with mill the Christian. Withoutooma Easter and its promise of our own resurrection with Jesus our lives would be empty of hope, full of frustrations and meaningless suffering. Easter shows us the meaning of life and death. Easter makes all the pieces of the jigsaw puzzle of life fit into place. With Easter life is beautiful, death is serene and confident. With Easter poverty and suffering become the stepping stones to eternal life. "We are an Easter People, and Halleluja! is our song".

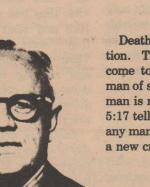

Christ. What is faith in Jesus' resurrection? If we are rescued from sin and eternal death through faith in Jesus' resurrection. what is this faith? This faith is more than mere Lord Himself shall demental or intellectual acceptance of Jesus' resurrection as a fact. Faith in Jesus and His resurrection means to trust that the fact of Jesus' resurrection can have a transforming affect. on our lives in the world today. For the Devil has a knowledge of God, that Those who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Death means spearation. That some things come to an end. The old man of sin dies, and a new man is made alive. II Cor. 5:17 tells us "Therefore if any man be in Christ he is a new creature, old things are passed away, behold opposite term for death, all things are become new". Passed away is a mild word for death. The old life of sin comes to an end, passes away and we have the funeral.

In no place in the Bible is Christ's death and resurrection, and its relationship to redemption more freely discussed than in the sixth chapter of Romans. Running through the entire chapter are some golden threads of truth concerning the redeption of man from the curse of sin. There are some key words that come to the surface in this chapter that reveal what is accomplished in the life of the individual, through Christ's death, burial and The Apostle Paul the inspired writer does not go far in either direction until he comes back to these key words.

These fundamental threads of truth coming to the attention of the reader in different expressions crystalize into two opposite concepts, namely, life, and death. May we consider the word death that reoccurs at least seventeen times in either death, dead, or crucify. Usually we associate with death heartbreak, sorrow and bereavement, which is anything but good news. Yet at the heart of Paul's subject is the Gospel which is good news. Paul seems to catch a gleam of truth that Jesus was trying to get across to His disciples, in John 12:24 where he said "Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die it abideth alone, but if it die it bringeth forth much fruit". These expressions in verses three through five, "Baptized into Jesus Christ" buried with Him by baptism unto death" and "Planted together in the likeness of His death", leads us to believe that all that which results from . death in Christ is not bad.

Victory Through Christ

"But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that Slept." I Cor. 15:12.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ is as well evidenced as any event in all history. Because of its significance it is well that we celebrate this glorious Easter Season with joy and thanksgiving.

As we do so, one calls to memory the story about a man who owned a large pool of water which was well stocked with some very fine minnows. One day a posionous snake entered the pool, and proceeded to swallow up the little minnows one by process of swallowing minnows he unknowingly made the mistake of swallowing a little catfish. For immediately the little catfish begin to sue that little sharp fin of his, and soon he had made a slit in the snake's belly large enough for his escape and for that of the little minnows.

So it was one day, death made the mistake of swallowing up our wonderful Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ through His sepulchre was selaed with the Roman seal, and Roman guards were placed round about to see that none would come and steal His

one. However, in the body away, He came forth victorious over death and the grave. Not only for Himself, but for all His own, and we have the assurance that one day, "When this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of sin is the law. But thanks be unto God, which giveth us the victory through our divine imperative voiced to Zaccheaus, the crooked tax collector. Had Jesus reserved this teaching for thieves, and prostitutes, and drunkards we could easily agree, and say, "Surely Jesus was right!-These deviates, /these perverts in society need desperately to be born again! They need to change! But Jesus doesn't for they are foolishness mean me! I'm decent, respectable, honest, and provide well for my family. I'm in "Who's Who" and hold membership in the leading social and civic clubs in the community."

But are you left out? Nicodemus was a "blueblood" of his day. He was "Master in Israel" implying his high and respected position in the religius community of the era. He was a cultured, refined, moral, ethical, honest, law-abiding manas fine as any man in Israel. Yet to this moral and religious man Jesus emphatically stated the divine imperative. must be born again".

And what does this mean? it means that all of us, with just a natural birth are blind to the eternal truths related to the kingdom of God! Paul makes this clear when he wrote, "But the natural men receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; unto him neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned", (I Cor. 2:14). One can be a genius in mathematics, in chemistry, in politics, in engineering, and even be a wizard in religious knowledge, and yet be totally blind to spiritual truth! We must be born from above to enter God's kingdom of light and truth! There is no exception to this rule! All men, regardless of their morality, race, color, or creed must be born from above! The new birth determines the destiny of the soul!. A man with a tangled heart;

What you need is not a change in environment, but a change inside--not a changed world, but a changed you! Are there people reading this message with tangled lives? powers are His retinue and friends. All the nations are gathered before His judgment throne to be appointed to their respective positions according to His impartial justice.

The most striking note of the parable is that on Judgment Day some individuals will discover that their deeds of kindness toward others done with no thought of Christian duty, were as unto Christ. But by the same token. others will discover that they have not done their Christian duty, although this was what they were attempting to do. In many instances God's prophet will have alboriously endeavored to convince them that they were not obeying God. But blinded by their own selfish pride they "tuned Him out" and refused to heed the call to turn to Him and follow His unerring way demonstrated by Christ.

St. Mark 15:20-41 In Jesus, the Christian sees the revealer of God and the Redeemer of Men!

The Christian doctrine of the incarnation means that in Jesus we see God "in the flesh". As Paul put it, we see the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. When we ask what this light of God's glory is that we see in the face of Jesus, we must do what the first disciples did--get acquainted with Him. And the more we read the story, and let the mysterious radiance and beauty, the gentleness and valiant strength of His personality capture us, the more plausible it appears to say that the glory of God shines in His face.

We do not have in the Gospels a biography of Jesus, but a portrait drawn by the first-century Christians. Read one of the Gospels through at a sitting, and see what it says to you. The best Gospel for this purpose is Mark's the earliest and the most understandable account of Jesus' life. However, Matthew contains the epitome of His teachings in the Sermon on the Mount.

It is apparent that here is a man who had a remarkable power over people, and that this power was joined to sympathy with and concern for everybody. He was never too busy to heal and help the multitudes of people who needed Him. Others might give a wide berth to lepers and poor insane folk thought to be possessed of devils, but not Jesus. Other people condemned Him for eating and chatting with taxgatherers and sinners, but He saw that they too had souls that needed help. He had time to play with children and to talk with we have strayed from our daughter needed help, He broke across racial lines to neighborly act of a despised Samaritian.

Though Jesus was not a not difficult to sift from His words the primary things that He taught. About God, He taught that like a Father, God loves all men and is concerned that all His sons live in goodwill and brotherhood with one another. About man, He taught that we are weak and sinful at best ever prone to sin against God and our neighbor, but nevertheless creatures of supreme worth and dignity in God's sight. About the nature of the good life, He taught that the greatest virtues are not those of outward obedience to the law, but of inner purity of motive, and that a life of sincerity, humility, mercy, and forgiveness is the blessed life. Regarding the things to be prized, He counseled simplicity and the placing of spiritual above material possessions. Regarding the sources of power for our salvation, He taught that through faith in God, not through any merit of our own, our broken lives can be made whole.

Regarding our destiny, He spake few words, but great comforting ones that promise eternal life. As His central message, many times repeated, He placed before men the great ideal of the righteous rule of God in human lives, the coming God's Kingdom on earth as it is in Heaven.

But what of Jesus Christ as our Saviour and Redeemer? The word "redemption" sounds oldfashioned and meaningless to many people. It means literally to be "bought back", and it comes into use originally from the idea that a person who had become a slave to sin could be restored to freedom only when a price was paid. Redemption means salvation, and salvation means healing, health, wholeneed living. To say that 'Jesus This question is that when to answer, for into the health, wholeness of women, two things com- true home in God, when mon enough now as a our souls are sick and at result of centureis of loose ends, He brings us Christian influence, but back and heals and unifies not then. Only as we stop Syrophoenician woman's trying to depend on our own merit and with "hearty repentance and give it; and one of His true faith" turn to God, greatest parables is of the can His forgiving mercy receive us and give us His strength and joy.

This is what has been systemic theologian it is happening all through the centuries by the power of Christ. One thinks of Saul of Tarsus persecuting the Christians until God blinded him on the Damascus Road to open his eyes; of Augustine wrestling futily with sexual temptation until God said to him, "put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts thereof; and of St. Francis of Assisi renouncing his father's wealth to serve the poor in utter simplicity and humility; of George Fox cured of the depression that was ruining his life until he heard a voice which said, "There is One, even Jesus Christ, that can speak to thy condition''; of John Wesley having his heart "strangely warmed" until he was empowered to revitalize the faith of many thousands. As one thinks of such famous Christians, one must not forget to be grateful for the millions of humble, nameless ordinary folk of all ages and all lands who have mastered the overwhelming difficulties to live greatly through the power of Christ. The life of Jesus gives us a supreme center of loyalty. In it we see God, and by its power we are lifted.

> It is not by accident that the cross is the central symbol of the Christian religion. The cross symbolizes God's way of dealing with men. The cross means the meetingpoint of suffering with love, and God's way of conquering evil through suffering love. If we ask how the cross came to mean this union of suffering with love as God's way of delivering us from evil, we are taken back to what Jesus was and what He did. That the cross is our symbol because Jesus died on the cross of obvious. But just how did His death make it our pattern and saving death of Christ are compressed the mystery and the miracle of God's saving love. To grasp it fully we should need, as Paul said, to "understand all mysteries", and instead of trying to make it appear entirely resounding we had better say gratefully as Paul did, "Thanks be to God for His inexpressible gift"!

Yet this does not mean we should refuse to think. Down through the ages Christians have given this subject much thought. We are driven to look deeper for the meaning of the cross and for a doctrine concerning the saving death of Christ.

What happened on the first Good Friday is what always happens when evil thwart God's will--the innocent suffer. But the heart of Good Friday does not lie simply in what His enemies did to Jesus. When Jesus died, God gave Himself--freely, fully, to the uttermost in love to men. The meaning of what God is always doing for us is focused here, and into the climactic moment in history are compressed both the pattern and the power of God's eternal work with men.

I have nowhere seen this better put than in a book entitled, The Studies In Christianity, by Borden P. Bowne.

"I know something of the arguments whereby we seek to keep our faith in the divine goodness in the presence of the world's pain and sorrow and the manifold sinister aspects of existence. I do not disparage them; upon occasion I use them; but I always feel that at best they are only palliatives and leave the great depths of the problem untouched.

There is only one argument that touches the bottom, and that is Paul's question: 'He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?' We look on the woes of the world. We hear the whole creation, to use Paul's language, groaning and laboring in pain. We see a few good men vainly striving to help the world into life and light; and in our sense of the awful magnitude of the problem and of our inability to do much, we cry out; 'Where is God? How can He bear this? Why doesn't He do something?' And there is but one answer that satifies: and that is the Incarnation and the Cross. God could not bear it. He has done something. He has done the utmost compatible with moral wisdom. He has entered into the fellowship of our suffering and misery and at infinite cost has taken the world upon His heart that He might raise it to Himself."

What this means for us that there is a Cross (with a capital "C") which shows us God's way as clearly as human eye can see it, a Cross on which the purest of all men suffered with and for guilty men like ourselves. a Cross from which comes assurance of God's forgiving love as we seek to do His commandments. From this Cross, as we make it the center of faith and loyalty, comes new power for living. What we must do then is "to take up our cross daily"--our little crosses that seem to petty by comparison--and out of them, By God's strength, make a Christ-centered, loving, and victorious life.
